AGGIES MAKE FIRST-EVER TRIP TO AUBURN

Texas A&M will make its first-ever trip to Jordan-Hare Stadium when the Aggies take on the Auburn Tigers in Auburn, Ala., on Saturday. Kickoff for the nationally-televised contest is 6:02 p.m. (CT).

- A win by the Aggies would make the Aggies bowl eligible for the fourth straight season.
- Texas A&M and Auburn have played just twice previously, with the Aggies posting a pair of neutral site victories over the Tigers in Dallas, Texas.
- The Aggies won 16-0 in 1911 and 36-16 in the 1986 Cotton Bowl.
- The Aggies' memorable 1986 Cotton Bowl victory over Heisman Trophy winner Bo Jackson and the Auburn Tigers marked A&M's first Cotton Bowl appearance in 18 seasons. The Aggies' 1985 Southwest Conference Championship was the first of three straight conference titles for A&M.
- It will be just the second trip to the state of Alabama for the Aggies, whose lone previous road trip to Alabama was a 1985 meeting with the Alabama Crimson Tide (L, 23-10) in Birmingham, Ala.

ABOUT THE BCS STANDINGS, TOP 25

Texas A&M was ranked No. 20 in the second Bowl Championship Series standings of 2012. The Aggies were one of seven SEC schools in the BCS top 20.

The Aggies were in the top 25 polls for the third straight week. After falling to No. 6 LSU, the Aggies fell two spots to No. 21 in the USA Today head coaches poll and to No. 22 in the Associated Press media poll.

THREE OF A KIND

The Aggies are one of just three teams in the NCAA FBS that rank in the top 20 statistically in rushing, passing, total and scoring offense (others are Louisiana Tech and Oklahoma State). The Aggies rank No. 9 in scoring offense (43.0 points per game), No. 9 in total offense (524.6 yards per game), No. 19 in rushing (221.3) and No. 17 in passing (303.3).

PROLIFIC SCORING

Texas A&M hit the 300-point plateau after just seven games in 2012 (301 points), which has been done just once previously. Head coach Charley Moran's 1912 Aggies scored 303 points in its first seven games.

RE-WRITING THE RECORD BOOK

The Aggies set school records for total, passing and scoring offense just last year with future NFL draft picks Ryan Tannehill and Cyrus Gray leading the way. The 2012 Aggies are on pace to re-break all three marks by healthy margins.

2011 vs. 2012

CATEGORY	2011	2012	MARGIN
Total Offense	*490.2	524.6	+34.4 yards/G
Passing Offense	*291.1	303.3	+12.2 yards/G
Scoring Offense	*39.1	43.0	+3.9 points/G

* -- School record

TOUGH ON THIRD DOWNS

Texas A&M is holding opponents to a 28 percent (34-of-120) conversion rate on 3rd downs this season.

Opp 3rd Down Conversions By Game

OPPONENT	3RD D	PCT.
Florida	3-12	.250
at SMU	3-18	.167
South Carolina State	3-16	.188
Arkansas	9-22	.409
at Ole Miss	9-19	.474
vs. Louisiana Tech	5-17	.294
LSU	2-16	.125

WINNING AWAY FROM HOME

First-year Aggie head coach KEVIN SUMLIN's teams have won nine straight games away from their home field -- six at the University of Houston and three at Texas A&M. Sumlin's last road loss was at Texas Tech in the Cougars' regular season finale in 2010.

FRESHMAN LEADER MANZIEL

Aggie redshirt freshman QB JOHNNY MANZIEL is the NCAA's top freshman in three statistical categories: total offense (379.9 yards/G), points responsible for (20.6 points/G) and passing yards (279.4 yards/G).

MANZIEL NAMED SEMIFINALIST FOR O'BRIEN

QB Johnny Manziel was named one of 16 semifinalists for the 2012 Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award. He was one of only two freshmen on the list.

MOORE IN RARE AIR

Junior DE Damontre Moore was named SEC defensive lineman of the week for the second time in 2012 after making a team-high 10 tackles, with two tackles for loss, a QB sack, a batted down pass and a QB pressure. He maintained his team lead in tackles, and has 62 tackles for the season which ranks No. 52 nationally. He is the leading DL tackler in the nation.

The last defensive lineman to lead the Aggies in tackles was Sam Adams, who led the way with 78 tackles in his All-America season in 1993. In fact, only two defensive linemen have led the Aggies in tackles in the last 40 years: Adams and two-time All-American Ray Childress.

SENIORS WITHIN RANGE OF MILESTONES

- Senior WR RYAN SWOPE needs just one TD catch to become the second player with 20 career TD receptions. Only Jeff Fuller, with 34 TD catches from 2008-11, has previously reached the 20 TD catch plateau.
- Senior WR UZOMA NWACHUKWU is 43 receiving yards away from becoming the fourth Aggie to hit the 2,000-yard level in career receiving yards.

TRENDS AND NOTABLES

OFFENSE

- The Aggies have scored first in 12 straight game dating back to 2011.
- The Aggies lead the SEC in total offense (524.6 yards/G), rushing offense (221.3 yards/G) and scoring offense (43.0 points/G), and rank No. 2 in passing (303.3 yards/G).
- Redshirt freshman Johnny Manziel generates 379.9.0 yards of total offense per game, which more than 40 teams in the NCAA FBS.
- Johnny Manziel leads the SEC in total offense (379.9 yards/G), points responsible for (20.6 points/G) and touchdown scoring (8.6 points/G).
- Johnny Manziel has run or thrown for 40 20-yard plus plays in 2012 or 5.7 per game.
- The Aggies' freshman WR trio of Mike Evans, Thomas Johnson and Sabian Holmes have produced a first down or TD on 43 of their 67 combined catches (64.2 percent).
- 26 of the Aggies' 32 total catches in third-down situations have produced a first down or touchdown (81.3 percent).
- Freshman Mike Evans leads the way with seven first down or touchdown catches on nine third-down catches, and fellow freshman Thomas Johnson is right behind with five "money plays" on six catches.
- For the season, the Aggies have outscored their opponents by double-digits in all four quarters, but have been especially dominant in the second stanza with a 120-40 scoring advantage.
- The Aggies hit the 300-point plateau in seventh game of the season with 301 points, which had only been done once previously in school history. The 1912 Aggies, coached by Charles B. Moran, scored 303 in their first seven games.
- A&M already has three turnover-free games in 2012 (in seven games). It's the most turnover-free games by the Aggies since 2010 when they had four.
- Texas A&M is completing 62.9 percent of its pass attempts in 2012, which is well ahead of the school record percentage of 61.6 set last season when NFL first-round draft pick Ryan Tannehill took the majority of snaps at quarterback.
- 16 Aggies have already made at least one catch in 2012.
- Until senior WR Ryan Swope led the team with 10 catches against LSU, the Aggies had been led in receptions by freshmen in every game.

DEFENSE

- Junior DE Damontre Moore averages 1.36 QB sacks per game, which is more than 24 teams in the NCAA FBS.
- Damontre Moore lead the nation in sacks and tackles for loss, and is the nation's top defensive line tackler.
- Damontre Moore is averaging 1.36 QB sacks and 2.43 tackles for loss (TFL) per game, which is on pace for a 16 QBs and 29 TFL season. Von Miller led the nation with 17 sacks and had 21.5 tackles for loss in 2009 on his way to All-America honors.
- Damontre Moore is the nation's leading defensive line tackler with 8.9 per game. In fact, only three defensive linemen rank among the nation's top 100 tacklers.
- The Aggies' top tackler off the bench (no starts) is Floyd Raven Sr. with 11 stops, including 10 solo hits. He's also contributed two tackles for loss, including a sack, and a pass breakup.
- The only defensive back to start in every game is senior Steven Terrell.
- The defensive line has had the same four starters in every game: Damontre Moore and Julien Obioha at DE and Kirby Ennis and Spencer Nealy at DT.
- Senior LBs Sean Porter and Jonathan Stewart have also started every game.
- The Aggie defense allows 254.6 passing yards per game, which is near the bottom of the NCAA statistical rankings, but their passing efficiency defense rating is a respectable 115.77 (No. 35 nationally).
- The Aggies have scored TDs via fumble return, interception return and punt return in a single season for the first time since 2001.
- In his last 10 games, junior Damontre Moore has piled up 13.5 QB sacks and 22 tackles for loss (TFL), and has had at least 1.5 TFL in every game.
- The Aggie defense is limiting opponents to 28.3 percent in third-down situations (34 of 120).
- The Aggies have held opponents to 165 rushing yards or less in six of seven games in 2012. Only LSU, with 219 rushing yards last week, has broken the 200-yard plateau.
- The Aggies have six pickoffs after seven games, after making just seven in 13 games in 2011.
- Opponents are completing only 56.2 percent of their passes after connecting on 62.4 percent in 2011.

SPECIAL TEAMS

- Just a season after ranking among the worst net punting teams in the nation, the Aggies rank No. 4 nationally with a 42.8 average. Last year, the Aggies ranked 94th with a 35.0 average.
- In the kicking game, punter Ryan Epperson has one touchback on 25 boots and kicker Taylor Bertolet has registered a touchback on 37-of-55 kickoffs.
- Taylor Bertolet's 37 touchbacks in 2012 have already surpassed the 32 touchbacks produced by All-American Randy Bullock in 2011.
- Taylor Bertolet booted a career-high three field goals against Louisiana Tech, including a career-long 54-yarder. The 54-yard three-pointer was the longest by an Aggie since Terrence Kitchens' 62-yard bomb against Southern Miss in 1999.
- Bertolet had his second FG of 50 yards or more with a 50-yarder against LSU. He became the first Aggie with multiple 50-yard boots in a season since Kitchens in 1999.
- A&M opponents have just six punt returns in 2012 for a total of 11 yards with a long return of five yards, which is the fifth-fewest return yards allowed in the nation.
- Senior Ryan Epperson is averaging 44.0 yards per punt, which would rank No. 14 nationally if he had the requisite 3.6 punts per game to qualify for the NCAA statistics. His older brother, Derek, Epperson, was semifinalist for the 2008 Ray Guy Award and a three-time All-Big 12 pick for the Baylor Bears.
- Last season's NCAA punt return champ Dustin Harris is averaging 14.4 yards per return in 2012, which ranks No. 14 nationally.
- Dustin Harris had a record-setting day in game three with a school record 246 yards on eight punt returns vs. South Carolina State for a gaudy 30.8 average. Among his eight returns was a scintillating 96-yard TD return that was the second-longest in school history (98-yarder by Bob Goode vs. Ellington Field in 1945).
- In a bit of a rarity, starting OT Jake Matthews, son of NFL Hall of Famer Bruce, is the Aggies' deep snapper. Entering 2012, he had not snapped in a game since high school.
- True freshman kickoff returner Trey Williams broke off a 76-yard return against LSU, which was the longest by an Aggie since 2010 when Coryell had an 84-yard TD return against Baylor.

“MAROON GOONS” PAVING THE WAY

Paving the way for the Aggies' record-setting offense is the biggest offensive front in school history, which features a pair of tackles that have been projected to be NFL first-round draft picks in the future. The starting five, self-titled the "Maroon Goons," of senior Patrick Lewis (C), juniors Luke Joeckel (OT) and Jake Matthews (OT) and sophomores Cedric Ogbuehi (OG) and Jarvis Harrison (OG) weigh in at 1,542 pounds or 308.4 per goon.

Joeckel and Matthews have been projected as first-round picks by several sources, and the pair are on the watch lists for the Outland Award (best interior lineman) and the Rotary Lombardi Award (best lineman or linebacker). Lewis is on the watch list for the Rimington Trophy (most outstanding center).

Here's the Beef

LINEMAN	HT	WT	CAREER STARTS
LT Luke Joeckel	6-6	310	33 (33 consecutive)
LG Jarvis Harrison	6-3	320	12 (8 consecutive)
C Patrick Lewis	6-2	312	42 (42 consecutive)
RG Cedric Ogbuehi	6-5	295	13 (12 consecutive)
RT Jake Matthews	6-5	305	27 (27 consecutive)

- With the Maroon Goons clearing the way, the Aggies have produced three 600-yard total offense games in 2012, including a season-high 716 yards against Arkansas.
- The Aggies are averaging 5.6 yards per carry, which is slightly behind the school record of 5.8 set in 1990.
- The Aggies lead the SEC in total offense, rushing offense and scoring offense.

EVANS ADDED TO BILETNIKOFF WATCH LIST

Redshirt freshman WR Mike Evans, the Aggies' surprise receiving leader, was added to the watch list for the Biletnikoff Award on Tuesday, Oct. 16. The award, named for NFL Hall of Famer Fred Biletnikoff, is given annually to the nation's top wide receiver. Evans joins senior teammates Ryan Swope and Uzoma Nwachukwu on the list.

Evans leads the Aggies with 42 catches for 625 yards. His 6.0 catches per game and 89.3 yards per game rank No. 3 in the SEC.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Mike Gillislee ran for 83 yards and two touchdowns and No. 24 Florida shut down Texas A&M's offense in the second half in a 20-17 win in the Aggies' first Southeastern Conference game after moving from the Big 12.

Florida trailed 17-10 at halftime after a first half where Texas A&M's offense under new coach Kevin Sumlin pretty much did what it wanted. Things changed in the second half as the Gators clamped down and forced punts each of A&M's six possessions after the break.

Caleb Sturgis helped Florida cut A&M's lead to 17-13 with a 25-yard field goal early in the third quarter.

Florida quarterback Jeff Driskel looked indecisive most of the day and was sacked eight times. But he made a play when he had to, finding Omarius Hines on a 39-yard completion to propel a drive early in the fourth quarter.

Gillislee finished it off, evading a couple of defenders and then tight-roping the sideline on a 12-yard touchdown run to put Florida up 20-17. Gillislee had a 4 yard score in the first quarter.

Driskel also came up big late in the game with a 21-yard run to give the Gators a first down and allow them to run out the clock.

Texas A&M freshman quarterback Johnny Manziel threw for 173 yards and ran for 60 more, but he couldn't move A&M's offense after halftime.

Saturday was Texas A&M's opener after the Aggies and Louisiana Tech postponed last week's game until Oct. 13 because of Hurricane Isaac.

The Aggies' second half offensive woes ruined a great day for their defense. Jonathan Stewart finished with 17 tackles and Damontre Moore had three sacks.

Manziel, who was the first freshman quarterback to start an opener for the Aggies since 1944, looked great early.

A&M's first drive ended with a 27-yard field goal on their first drive.

The Gators soon took a 7-3 lead on a 4-yard touchdown run by Gillislee on their opening drive.

Manziel really heated up on the second drive, using his arm and his feet to move the Aggies down the field. His 11-yard touchdown scamper put A&M back on top 10-7 early in the second quarter.

Then the defense went to work. The Aggies collected three sacks on Florida's next possession and quickly forced a punt.

Texas A&M used a bit of trickery en route to their next score. They went with an end-around receiver pass from Kenric McNeal to Mike Evans to gain 27 yards on second-down. Christine Michael finished off the drive when he took the direct snap and bulled into the end zone for a 1-yard touchdown to extend the lead to 17-7.

Texas A&M's fifth sack of the game forced Florida to attempt a 51-yard field goal in the second quarter. Sturgis missed it, but A&M called a timeout, giving him another shot -- and he nailed the second one to cut the lead to 17-10. It was the seventh field goal of 50 yards or more in his career to set a school record.

Driskel was 13 of 16 for 162 yards and Jordan Reed had five receptions for 59 yards.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15 • FORD STADIUM • DALLAS, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 32,016 • TV: FSN

DALLAS (AP) -- Quarterback Johnny Manziel accounted for 418 total yards and six touchdowns in three quarters, and Texas A&M overcame a sluggish start to beat SMU 48-3.

Manziel threw for four touchdowns and a school-freshman-record 294 yards. He also had 13 carries for 124 yards and a pair of a scoring runs.

Texas A&M (1-1) racked up 605 yards in offense and bounced back after losing its Southeastern Conference opener last week to No. 18 Florida.

SMU (1-2) suffered its most lopsided home loss since 2002, when it dropped a 52-6 contest to Oklahoma State.

Chase Hover kicked a 25-yard field goal in the third quarter for SMU's only points.

Freshman Mike Evans had 123 yards receiving and Uzoma Nwachukwu caught a pair of touchdown passes for the Aggies, who are 11-0-1 against their former Southwest Conference rivals since 1984.

SMU's Zach Line rushed for 104 yards for his 17th career 100-yard game. That is second all-time in school history behind NFL great Eric Dickerson.

Against Florida, Manziel became the Aggies' first freshman starting quarterback in an opener since 1984.

Texas A&M started slow Saturday after a shaky second half against the Gators. The Aggies punted three times in the first quarter and failed on fourth-and-2 from the SMU 34.

Texas A&M's Taylor Bertolet missed a 23-yard field goal before Manziel and the offense put up 20 straight points to close out the first half.

Manziel found Ryan Swope for a 29-yard touchdown pass midway through second quarter.

The dual-threat quarterback then used his running ability two drives later when he scampered up the middle for a 48-yard TD. On the extra point, SMU's Margus Hunt blocked his 16th career kick - which is second all-time in NCAA history.

The 6-foot-8 Hunt set the NCAA record last weekend by blocking his ninth career field goal.

The Aggies stretched their lead to 20-0 when Manziel - who was 20 of 36 passing - scrambled to his right and hooked up with Nwachukwu for a 26-yard touchdown pass with 1:03 left in the first half.

On Texas A&M's first drive of the second half, Manziel was about to be sacked before he broke free from linebacker Taylor Reed. He scrambled to his left and lofted a pass to Kenric McNeal, who ran in for a 42-yard touchdown.

Manziel added a 15-yard touchdown run and a 12-yard scoring pass to Nwachukwu in the third.

Jameill Showers replaced Manziel on the first drive of the fourth quarter.

Manziel broke the freshman passing record of Kevin Murray, who threw for 280 yards against Rice in 1983.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Johnny Manziel threw for three touchdowns and ran for two more by halftime as Texas A&M built a big lead and coasted to a 70-14 win over South Carolina St.

Two of Manziel's touchdown passes went to Uzoma Nwachukwu. All four of Nwachukwu's receptions this season have been for touchdowns.

The Aggies (2-1) were up 14-7 after the first quarter before Manziel scored on runs of 39 and 20 yards to give A&M a commanding lead.

Ben Malena had two rushing touchdowns in the first half and Texas A&M led 49-7 at halftime.

Dustin Harris had a 96-yard punt return for a touchdown and finished with a school and Southeastern Conference record 246 punt return yards for A&M.

Richard Cue threw for 189 yards and a touchdown for South Carolina St. (1-3) of the Football Championship Subdivision.

Manziel was 15 of 20 for 174 yards passing and added 78 yards rushing on eight carries. Malena finished with 88 yards on 11 carries. Malena put A&M up 7-0 with a 4-yard run in the first quarter.

Manziel found Nwachukwu later in the quarter on a 9-yard touchdown pass to make it 14-0 Texas A&M.

The Bulldogs got within 14-7 when Jalen Simmons found a big hole and ran 17 yards for a touchdown. That drive was helped when Steven Campbell was flagged 15 yards for roughing the passer on a blow to the head of Cue.

Manziel's first rushing touchdown was a nifty one. He hurdled a defender near the line of scrimmage and zigzagged through the South Carolina State defense for a 39-yard touchdown to extend the lead to 21-7.

He used his feet again on A&M's next possession, making it 28-7 on a 20-yard run that he capped with a dive into the end zone less than four minutes later.

Manziel went back to the air for the next score, finding Kenric McNeal on a 30-yard touchdown pass to leave A&M ahead 35-7.

Nwachukwu kept up his streak later in the second quarter when he caught a short pass from Manziel and evaded a defender before bouncing outside and barreling into the end zone to complete the 37-yard score.

Malena wrapped up the Texas A&M's dominant first half with a 50-yard run.

Harris returned a third quarter punt 96 yards for a touchdown to extend A&M's lead to 56-7. It was the second longest punt return in school history.

Michael played the second half and finished with 26 yards and had a 5-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter.

Lennel Elmore scored on a 39-yard pass from Cue to make it 63-14 with about 12 minutes remaining.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 29 • KYLE FIELD • COLLEGE STATION, TEXAS
ATTENDANCE: 86,442 • TV: SEC NETWORK

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) — Johnny Manziel threw for a school-record 453 yards and three touchdowns and ran for another score to lead Texas A&M over Arkansas 58-10 for the Aggies' first Southeastern Conference win. Arkansas led 10-7 after one quarter before the Aggies scored 51 straight points to take the lead and cruise to the win.

Manziel added 104 yards rushing to also break the school and SEC records for yards of total offense with 557. Tyler Wilson threw for 373 yards and a touchdown, but he threw two interceptions as Arkansas was shut out after the first quarter.

Steven Terrell had two interceptions and Tramain Jacobs returned a fumble for a touchdown for Texas A&M. Ryan Swope had five receptions for 141 yards and a touchdown, recording his school-record 10th career 100-yard game. Thomas Johnson added 108 yards receiving and Mike Evans had 83 yards and a score as A&M piled up 716 yards of total offense.

Manziel, a freshman, has accounted for 15 touchdowns in the Aggies' last three games.

Texas A&M's 58 points are the most it has scored against the Razorbacks in the 69-game history of the series.

Manziel, who finished 29 of 38, went 5 of 5 on the first drive, capped by a 4-yard touchdown pass to Mike Evans to make it 7-0. Evans bent down to scoop the pass before it hit the ground for his first career touchdown.

The Aggie defense forced a punt, but Taylor Bertolet's 39-yard field goal attempt on the next possession was wide right.

Wilson found Knile Davis on a short pass that he took 64 yards for a touchdown to tie the game about 7 minutes before halftime.

A 26-yard field goal by Zach Hocker gave Arkansas a 10-7 lead near the end of the first quarter.

The second quarter was all A&M, with Bertolet redeeming himself after his early miss with a 46-yard field goal to tie it early in the quarter. His 26-yard field goal about 4 minutes later gave A&M a 13-10 lead.

Terrell's first interception came on the next drive by Arkansas. He fumbled at the end of the return, but it bounced back into his hands to give A&M the ball at midfield. A 29-yard run by Ben Malena got the drive going, and he finished it off with an 11-yard touchdown reception to push the lead to 20-10.

A tough drive by Arkansas where the team fumbled twice, but recovered both times, followed to force the Razorbacks to punt.

The Aggies went deep on the next play, with Manziel using a pump fake and Swope a double move to get behind the defense for an 80-yard touchdown reception.

Things weren't any better for the Razorbacks after halftime, and Wilson's first pass of the second half was intercepted by Terrell. He returned it 30 yards and A&M extended the lead to 30-10 with a 21-yard field goal.

Christine Michael bulled into the end zone on a 10-yard run later in the third quarter to leave A&M up 37-10. Damontre Moore forced a fumble by Davis, which Jacobs scooped up and returned 28 yards for a touchdown on the Razorbacks' first play after Michael's touchdown.

Manziel capped his scoring for the day when he circled around and even went backward before zipping into the end zone on a 6-yard run with about 10 minutes left to make it 51-10. Trey Williams added a 13-yard touchdown run late in the fourth quarter.

Cobi Hamilton finished with 11 receptions for 162 yards for Arkansas, and Davis had 65 yards rushing.

2012 RECAPS AND BOXSCORES

—/— TEXAS A&M (4-1, 2-1 SEC) 30
 —/— OLE MISS (3-3, 0-2 SEC) 27

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 6, 2012 • VAUGHT-HEMINGWAY STADIUM • OXFORD, MISS.
ATTENDANCE: 55,343 • TV: ESPN

OXFORD, Miss. (AP) — Johnny Manziel threw for 191 yards and a touchdown and rushed for 129 yards and another score, and Texas A&M rallied from a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to beat Mississippi 30-27.

Manziel suffered through a tough night until late in the fourth quarter, when he led two touchdown drives. He rushed for a 29-yard touchdown on the first and then found Ryan Swope for a 20-yard TD pass with 1:46 remaining for the go-ahead score.

Texas A&M won despite a season-high six turnovers, including four fumbles and two interceptions.

Ole Miss made a final drive but Texas A&M's Toney Hurd, Jr., intercepted a Bo Wallace pass and the Aggies were able to run out the clock.

The Rebels lost their 16th straight conference game dating back to 2010. Jeff Scott rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown. Wallace completed 20 of 34 passes for 305 yards, one touchdown and two interceptions. He also rushed for a touchdown.

Ole Miss had a 27-17 lead midway through the fourth quarter and Texas A&M pinned on its own 1-yard line with less than eight minutes remaining.

But Manziel connected on a 32-yard, third-down pass to Mike Evans to give the Aggies some breathing room. Then in just two plays, Texas A&M drove the rest of the field for a stunning touchdown. Ben Malena gashed the Rebels' defense for 36 yards before Manziel rushed for a 29-yard score - dancing past several Ole Miss would-be tacklers - to make it 27-23.

On the ensuing drive, first-year Ole Miss coach Hugh Freeze made a questionable decision to go for it on fourth-and-1 in his own territory.

It turned out to be a disastrous call.

Scott was stuffed at the Ole Miss 39 and Texas A&M needed just four plays for Manziel to find Swope for the game-winning score.

Manziel completed 17 of 26 passes. Mike Evans caught eight passes for 105 yards.

He looked much more mortal against the Rebels - at least for a while. There were a couple of huge plays, like his 38-yard scramble in the third quarter to push the Aggies deep into Ole Miss territory. But his risk-taking had a downside, too, like four plays later when he lost a fumble on the Ole Miss 21 to stop an almost certain scoring drive.

Manziel made another crucial mistake early in the fourth quarter, deftly avoiding the Ole Miss rush before making a bad pass over the middle that was intercepted by Cody Prewitt.

But the precocious quarterback wasn't fazed, and engineered the stunning comeback.

Texas A&M struck first on the opening drive after Malena burst through a huge hole and ran untouched 59 yards for a touchdown and 7-0 lead.

But the Ole Miss defense tightened considerably after that hiccup, while the offense improved as the first half progressed.

The Rebels took a 17-10 lead on a 14-yard run by Wallace - one play after he hit Randall Mackey on a 68-yard pass.

Then the Aggies fumbled on their own 35 - their third turnover of the half - and the Rebels had a chance to create some separation on the scoreboard.

But Ole Miss couldn't take advantage. Wallace was hit as he threw and the ball fell right to Texas A&M linebacker Steven Jenkins, who ran for the easy 37-yard touchdown that tied the game at 17 going into halftime.

 23/24 LOUISIANA TECH (5-1) 57

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 13 • INDEPENDENCE STADIUM • SHREVEPORT, LA.
ATTENDANCE: 40,453 • TV: ESPNU

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP) — Johnny Manziel accounted for six touchdowns, including two to fend off a late rally, and No. 22 Texas A&M held on for a 59-57 win over 23rd-ranked Louisiana Tech to hand the Bulldogs their first loss.

Louisiana Tech trailed by 27 points early before mounting a furious second half rally attempt capped by a 13-yard touchdown reception by Ray Holley to cut the lead to two points with 38 seconds left. But Colby Cameron's throw fell incomplete and the Aggies had the win.

Louisiana Tech had cut the lead to 2 earlier in the fourth quarter before Manziel answered with a 17-yard touchdown pass to Thomas Johnson to extend the lead to 53-44 with seven minutes left.

Texas A&M forced a punt and Manziel scored on a 72-yard run with about two minutes left and the kick failed.

The scrappy Bulldogs wouldn't go away though, and Quinton Patton scored on a 62-yard reception seconds later. They then recovered an onside kick which led to their last touchdown.

Manziel ran for 181 yards and three touchdowns and threw for 395 yards and three more scores. These teams entered the game averaging more than 1,000 yards between them, and as Saturday night crept into early Sunday morning, they outdid even those outlandish standards.

A&M finished with 678 yards of offense and Louisiana Tech had 615. Tech's output is even more impressive considering the offense sputtered in the first quarter and had just 33 yards.

The Bulldogs, who entered the national rankings this week for the first time since 1999, saw their nation-best 12-game regular-season winning streak snapped. It was their first regular-season loss since Oct. 1, 2011 against Hawaii.

The Aggies led by 23 in the third quarter before the furious comeback attempt by Louisiana Tech. The Bulldogs reeled off 21 straight points capped by an interception return for a touchdown to cut the lead to 46-44 with 12 minutes left.

A 21-yard touchdown run by Kenneth Dixon, which he finished with a defender hanging off of him, cut A&M's lead to 46-36 early in the fourth quarter. The first 2-point conversion attempt failed, but a pass interference call gave the Bulldogs another shot and Cameron ran it in.

Shakeil Lucas intercepted a pass from Manziel seconds later and returned it 5 yards for a touchdown, but Cameron's 2-point conversion attempt was intercepted to leave A&M with a 46-44 lead.

Texas A&M controlled the game until halftime, but had trouble defending Patton in the second half and were also hurt by penalty after penalty. They finished with 19 for 165.

Patton finished with 21 receptions for 233 yards and four scores.

He scored on a 2-yard touchdown reception with about nine minutes left in the third quarter to cut Texas A&M's lead to 39-23. Manziel answered with a 2-yard run before Patton did it again, scoring on a 5-yard pass from Cameron to make it 36-30 later in the third quarter.

The teams played at Independence Stadium in Shreveport, La., which is about 70 miles from Louisiana Tech's campus in Ruston, La. But the crowd of more than 40,000 was pretty evenly split between A&M and Louisiana Tech fans.

Louisiana Tech entered the game averaging 53 points a game, which are the third most in the country. But early on the Bulldogs looked nothing like the team that had been doing that kind of damage.

COLLEGE STATION (AP) — Jeremy Hill rushed for a career-high 127 yards and a touchdown, and the sixth-ranked Tigers rallied from an early deficit to beat No. 20 Texas A&M 24-19 at Kyle Field.

Michael Ford also had a touchdown run and Zach Mettenberger threw a TD pass to Kadron Boone for the Tigers, who scored 21 points off four Texas A&M turnovers.

A&M outplayed the Tigers for much of the first half and led 12-0, LSU's largest deficit since the national championship game against Alabama in January. But the Aggies gave away two costly turnovers just before halftime, and Boone's diving catch in the end zone with 11 seconds left put LSU up 14-12 at the break. Hill finished off A&M with a 47-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter.

Johnny Manziel, A&M's dual-threat redshirt freshman quarterback, completed 29 of 56 passes for 276 yards, but threw three interceptions and was sacked three times. He was the SEC's leading rusher coming into the game and was held to 27 yards on 17 carries.

A&M started strong, though, moving the ball easily on its opening drive and taking a 6-0 lead on Christine Michael's short touchdown run. LSU hadn't given up a first-quarter score in four games.

LSU went three-and-out on its initial series, and the defense looked a step slow again when A&M got the ball back. Manziel got plenty of protection from the Aggies' offensive line and threaded a 21-yard pass to Mike Evans for a first down at the LSU 34. Taylor Bertolet kicked a 32-yard field goal to put A&M up 9-0.

LSU's defense generated better pressure on Manziel as the half wore on. The Tigers, meanwhile, sputtered for most of the half against the same Aggies' defense that gave up 615 yards in last week's 59-57 win at Louisiana Tech.

The LSU offense got the kick-start it needed when freshman cornerback Jalen Collins intercepted Manziel at the LSU 39. Ford gained 13 yards on a fourth-and-1, then raced 20 yards down the sideline for the Tigers' first touchdown with 1:49 left before halftime.

Ben Malena fumbled at the A&M 41 with just over a minute left in the half. The Aggies looked as if they might escape, but Boone made a diving, over-the-shoulder catch in the end zone with 11 seconds remaining.

Mettenberger went 5-for-16 and the Tigers mustered only 147 yards in the first half. The Aggies amassed 256 yards in the first half -- 45 more yards than LSU allowed against South Carolina last week.

LSU started a drive early in the fourth quarter with eight straight running plays, gaining at least five yards on seven of them. Hill ran 18 yards up the middle to the A&M 9 before Jarvis Landry lost yardage on a pass by Mettenberger toward the sideline, and Drew Alleman's 28-yard field goal put LSU up 17-12 with 8:35 remaining.

Trey Williams returned the ensuing kickoff 76 yards to the LSU 16. Linebacker Kevin Minter nearly sacked Manziel on second down and Manziel's throw to Uzoma Nwachukwu fell incomplete on third down. Bertolet shanked a 33-yard attempt and LSU regained possession with 7:28 left.

LSU junior cornerback Tharold Simon put it away when he intercepted Manziel's pass and returned it to the A&M 46. Hill then burst up the middle and sprinted to the end zone, going over 100 yards for the second straight week. He rushed for a career-high 124 yards against South Carolina last week.

Malena finished a quick A&M drive with a 5-yard touchdown run with 1:17 left. But Odell Beckham, Jr. cleanly fielded the onside kick, and the Tigers held on.
