NOTING THE OPPONENT

DePaul

- » DePaul is making its third trip to the NCAA Women's Tennis Tournament in the last four years. The Blue Demons (17-7, 5-2 BIG EAST) secured their spot on the NCAA Tournament after defeating St. John's in the BIG EAST Championship.
- » The Blue Demons will bring an experienced squad to Auburn, including Anan Vladutu, Yuliya Shupenia and Patricia Lancranjan who led DePaul to its first trip to the second round in program history in 2015.
- » Auburn and DePaul are 2-2 all-time, with Auburn winning the last matchup 4-0 in the 2014 ITA Kickoff. The Tigers' last loss to DePaul came in the 2011 Blue Gray National Tennis Classic as the Blue Demons took the match 4-3.

Arizona State

- » Arizona State will make its 30th-straight NCAA appearance after a third place PAC-12 finish. The Sun Devils finished the season with a 14-7 (7-3 PAC-12) record.
- » The Sun Devils will bring an experienced lineup to the Plains, as all but one – freshman Savannah Slaysman – have postseason experience. Seniors Cassidy Jump, Alex Osborne and Gussie O'Sullivan each have been a part of the Devils' last three postseason runs, while junior Kelley Anderson helped Baylor advance to the NCAA Quarterfinal as a freshman and junior Nicole Fossa-Huergo was a part of Armstrong State's back-to-back NCAA Division II championships each of the last two seasons. Sammi Hampton got her first taste of NCAA tournament action last season, going 2-0.
- » The only other matchup between the two teams came last season as the Tigers took down ASU to advance to the NCAA Round of 16.

Florida State

- » Florida State will return to the NCAA Team Championship after missing out on the draw each of the last two seasons. Previously, the Seminoles had made the tournament eight seasons in a row and nine times overall under head coach Jennifer Hyde, Florida State's all-time winningest coach.
- » Arizona State won the only matchup between the two teams. Florida State holds a 21-3 all-time record over Auburn. In the last matchup, the Tigers took down then-No. 24 FSU, 4-1 in 2014.

LAUREN SPENCER

HEAD COACH

Lauren Spencer is in her sixth season at the helm of the Auburn women's tennis program after being named head coach on Oct. 6, 2011.

Spencer was selected at the ITA Southern Region Coach of the Year in 2016 after leading Auburn to arguably one of the top finishes in program history. She led the Tigers to a 24-8 (9-4 SEC) record, which is the most regular season and SEC wins in school history. Auburn also finished the season with its highest final ranking in school history at No. 12.

Hosting a regional for the first time in school history, Auburn defeated Alcorn State and Arizona State to advance to the NCAA Championships Round of 16. Pleun Burgmans and Alizee Michaud were named All-Americans in doubles, which was the third straight honor for Burgmans.

In 2015, Spencer led Auburn to its third-straight NCAA Tournament appearance after compiling 16 wins. Spencer also helped Pleun Burgmans and Emily Flickinger to back-to-back All-America honors after the duo finished the season 24-11.

In 2014, Spencer guided the Tigers to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, while also coaching the doubles team of Burgmans and Flickinger to the semifinals of the NCAA Individual Championships.

The Tigers won 19 matches in 2013, the most since 1989 and second-most in school history. Auburn also earned victories in the NCAA and SEC tournaments for the first time since 2008 and 2009, respectively. During the dual season, Auburn won 14-straight matches and reached as high as No. 14 in the ITA rankings.

Auburn finished the 2013 SEC season at 7-6, the most wins in conference play for the program since 2002.

Despite not taking over the Auburn program until October 2011, the Tigers showed marked improvement in year one under Spencer. Spencer guided the Tigers to a 3-8 mark in SEC play in 2012. That record was a 300 percent improvement after winning just one conference match in 2010-11.

Auburn also won back-to-back league matches in 2012 for the first time in nearly three years and reached three victories in the rigorous SEC for the first time since 2010.

In her time at Auburn, Spencer has had three players selected as All-Americans and four first team All-SEC selections.

Prior to her appointment at Auburn, Spencer (formerly Longbotham Meisner) spent the previous five seasons as head coach at Southern Methodist University where she led the program to a NCAA Sweet 16 in 2011 and the program's first-ever Conference USA Tournament championship in 2009.

Prior to being named head coach at SMU in August 2006, Spencer served as an assistant for the Mustangs for three seasons (2003-06) where she helped guide the team to a 53-27 record and an NCAA second round appearance in 2004. During her three years as an assistant, SMU was conference runners-up all three seasons and had two ITA Top 50 team finishes.

A four-year letterwinner at Louisiana Tech from 1999-2003, Spencer (formerly Longbotham) was the team captain for two years. Spencer was a mainstay in the Louisiana Tech lineup both in singles and doubles play and was named the team's Singles Player of the Year in 2000.
