THE STORYLINE

- Saturday marks the first top-10 matchup in The Swamp since No. 3 Florida thumped No. 9 South Carolina, 44-11, on Oct. 20, 2012. It is the first top-10 matchup between two undefeated teams in The Swamp since No. 10 Florida beat No. 4 LSU, 14-6, on Oct. 6, 2012. The Gators boast an all-time record of 12-5 in top-10 matchups at home.
- Florida has beaten seven of the last nine top-10 teams to come into The Swamp -- which is a stretch that started with a 16-7 win over No. 5 Tennessee on Sept. 17, 2005, and was extended with last year's 27-19 win over No. 5 LSU (Oct. 6).
- UF's nine-game winning streak is its longest since winning 22 in a row in 2008 (last 10 games) and 2009 (first 12). It is also the fourth-longest active streak in the FBS, behind Clemson (19), Ohio State (11), and Appalachian State (10).
- Florida has been a top-10 team in seven of the last eight AP Polls, which is its most consistent stretch since a span of 12 consecutive top-10 rankings from Week 5 of 2012 (Sept. 30) through the 2013 preseason rankings. From Week 1 of 2013 (Sept. 3) through the final ranking of the 2017 season, Florida appeared in the top 10 just four times.
- The Gators are off to their first 5-0 start since 2015, and they're seeking a second straight 10-win season for the first time since posting 13 wins in both 2008 -- head coach Dan Mullen's final year as offensive coordinator -- and 2009.
- UF is making its 41st appearance on College GameDay (which includes the 2008 Orange & Blue Game), and it is 25-14 in the 39 previous games the show traveled to. GameDay's last trip to Gainesville was Oct. 20, 2012 (see top note).

GATORS TURNED TIDE VERSUS RANKED FOES IN 2018

- UF went 3-1 against ranked opponents last year, including a 2-1 mark against top-10 teams. From 2010-17, Florida went 5-11 against top-10 teams, and it was 9-26 against all ranked opponents.
- UF last beat three ranked opponents (as well as multiple top-10 opponents) in 2012.
- Prior to beating No. 5 LSU, Florida had lost nine of its last 11 games against top-five teams, a stretch that dated back to the start of the 2010 season. Six of the nine losses were by 21-plus points.
- Florida beat consecutive ranked teams (No. 23 Mississippi State, No. 5 LSU) for the first time since 2012. That year it beat No. 23 Tennessee (Sept. 15), No. 4 LSU (Oct. 6), and No. 9 South Carolina (Oct. 20).
- Florida defeated ranked opponents in back-to-back games for the first time since 2008, when it won at No. 23 Florida State (Nov. 29), beat No. 1 Alabama in the SEC Championship Game (Dec. 6), and topped No. 2 Oklahoma in the BCS National Championship Game (Jan. 8, 2009).

GATORS FINDING SUCCESS THROUGH THE AIR

- Florida has three 300-yard passing games in a season for the first time since 2009 (three games), and the only other seasons since 2003 it posted at least three 300-yard games were 2004 (four) and 2007 (three).
- The Gators already have four games of 300-plus yards passing -- including two against SEC teams -- in Mullen's 18 games as head coach. In UF's 101 games from 2010-17, it totaled six 300-yard outings, with only two coming against SEC foes.
- UF has threw for 300-plus yards in three straight games (312 vs. UT-Martin; 300 at Kentucky; 313 vs. Tennessee), marking the first time it has done that since the final two games of 2002 and its 2003 opener.
- The last time Florida had three consecutive games of 300-plus yards passing during the same season was back in 2001, when it eclipsed that mark in all 12 games.
- UF last had consecutive 300-yard passing games against SEC teams in 2004 (Nov. 6-13 / at Vandy; S. Carolina).
- Redshirt junior Kyle Trask broke the school record for consecutive completions by hitting his last three passes against Tennessee and his first 15 passes against Towson last weekend.
- Trask took over Florida's offense at the start of the fourth quarter against Kentucky, leading a comeback victory after Feleipe Franks left the game with an injury.
- Since then, Trask is 47 of 61 (77 percent) for 607 yards and four touchdowns (plus two rushing touchdowns).
- Trask also ranks fourth nationally in completion percentage (51 of 66 / 77.3 percent), 10th in yards per attempt (9.8), and 13th in passing efficiency (178.56).
- Trask finished the Kentucky game 9 of 13 for 126 yards and led the Gators to 222 yards of total offense and 19 points in the fourth quarter.
- In his first collegiate start against Tennessee (and his first start since his freshman year at Manvel [Texas] High School), Trask went 20 of 28 (71.4 percent) for a career-high 293 yards and two touchdowns. Trask's 293 yards were the highest single-game total since Austin Appleby's 296 at Tennessee in 2016.

RECEIVING CORPS MAKING EXPLOSIVE PLAYS

- Florida, Colorado State, Washington State are the only FBS teams featuring at least six pass catchers with five-plus receptions and 125-plus yards this season.
- The Gators are one of 12 FBS teams with at least four plays of 60-plus yards, and their veteran receiving corps is responsible for all four of those plays.
- Josh Hammond has two of them -- a 76-yard touchdown run at Kentucky, and a 65-yard reception that set up the game-winning touchdown versus Miami. Hammond, Alabama's Henry Ruggs III, Colorado State's Marvin Kinsey Jr., and UCF's Adrian Killins Jr. are the only FBS players with a 65-yard run and reception this year.
- Van Jefferson has a pair of 90-yard receiving games this year (94 against UT-Martin; 93 at Kentucky), making him the first Gator with two such outings in a season and consecutively since fellow senior Tyrie Cleveland did it against Tennessee (93) and Kentucky (110) in September 2017.
- Hammond also has a 90-yard receiving game this year (career-high 93 yards against Miami).
- The three 90-yard receiving games by Gators this season has already matched last year's season total.
- Tight end Kyle Pitts has also emerged as a receiving threat, posting a career-high four receptions each of the last three games, along with a career-high 63 yards at Kentucky, and 62 yards against Tennessee.
- Pitts has 12 receptions for 153 yards and three touchdowns the last three games, and 17 catches for 189 yards and three touchdowns this year. He entered 2019 with three catches for 73 yards and a touchdown in his career.
- Pitts is one of 15 FBS tight ends with 15-plus receptions and 150-plus yards this season, and he is one of five tight ends within that group with at least three touchdown receptions.
- Eight different Gators have a touchdown reception this season. Last season, 11 different Gators caught a touchdown -- which was the first time since 2009 that many UF pass catchers had a touchdown.'
- Against Tennessee, three Gators -- Pitts, Trevon Grimes, Freddie Swain -- had at least 60 receiving yards. The last time three Gators had 60-plus receiving yards in a game was Sept. 6, 2014 against Eastern Michigan, and the last time they had such a distribution against an SEC team was Nov. 13, 2004 against South Carolina.

GATORS' PRESSURE CREATING CHAOS

- A point of emphasis on defense from both Coach Mullen and Coach Grantham has been red zone defense. UF leads the FBS in that regard (38.5 percent / 5 scores in 13 trips), and it is tied for second nationally in opponent red zone touchdown percentage (23.1 percent / 3 touchdowns in 13 trips).
- Florida also ranks fifth nationally in scoring defense (8.8 points) and has multiple shutouts in the same season for the first time since 2012, when they shut out Kentucky and Jackson State.
- Florida's 24 sacks are tied for second in the FBS, and its 45 tackles for loss rank fourth nationally. UF needed 10 games to reach 20 sacks last year, and it took six full games to rack up 45 TFLs last year.
- The Gators' pressure has created plenty of turnovers, as they are tied for second nationally with 13 takeaways -- including nine interceptions (all in the last four games), which is tied with Arizona for the FBS lead.
- Florida and Boston College are the only FBS teams with seven different players with an interception this year.
- Florida, Arizona, and Ball State are the only FBS teams to have multiple interceptions in three games this season (UF had three at Kentucky, three against Tennessee, and two last weekend against Towson).
- Kairi Elam has two interceptions and is one of five FBS true freshmen with multiple interceptions this year.
- Jonathan Greenard is Florida's top disrupter in its front seven, as he leads the SEC in tackles for loss (6.5) and is tied for the SEC lead with 4.0 sacks. Greenard's 4.0 sacks are tied for 15th nationally.
- Florida is the only SEC team with six players with at least 2.0 sacks -- Greenard - 4.0; Jabari Zuniga - 3.0; Khris Bogle, Trey Dean III, Ventrel Miller, Jeremiah Moon - 2.0.
- Florida is the only SEC team featuring five players with at least 3.5 tackles for loss (Greenard - 6.5; Moon - 5.5; Zuniga - 4.5; Bogle, Kyree Campbell - 3.5).
- Florida's 10 sacks in its Week 0 win over Miami set a school record and were the highest total by an SEC team since Nov. 28, 2008, when Ole Miss had 10 against Mississippi State.
- SMU (10 against South Florida) is the only other FBS team with more than eight sacks in a game this season. Last year, Army (10 against Houston - Dec. 22) was the only FBS team with 10 in a game. From 2015-17, an FBS team had 10-plus sacks in a game just seven times.
- In 18 games under defensive coordinator Todd Grantham, Florida has five-plus sacks in seven of them, as well as eight-plus tackles for loss in 10 of them.

SPECIAL TEAMS MAKING SPECIAL IMPACT

- Sophomore Evan McPherson, one of the 20 Lou Groza Award semifinalists last year, has made six of his seven field goals this season. McPherson ranked 6th nationally last year with an 89.5 percentage (17 of 19).
- Since the start of last season, McPherson ranks fourth nationally in field goal percentage (23 of 26 / 88.5 percent) among FBS kickers with at least 20 field goal attempts.
- Senior Tommy Townsend has downed six of his seven punts inside the 20-yard line this year. Townsend downed 17 of 39 punts inside the 20 last year.
- Senior Van Jefferson is one of Florida's "gunners" on its punt team. In the Miami game, he downed a punt at Miami's 5-yard line and recovered a muffed punt that set up a go-ahead touchdown in the third quarter.
- "It's something we stress so much within our team. You're looking at a senior starting wide receiver that's covering a punt, making plays. That really shows a lot about the team. Special teams is something we take a lot of pride in, we practice an awful lot." --Dan Mullen after UF's win over Miami.
- Special teams coordinator Greg Knox has made an immediate impact with the Gators. Knox's Mississippi State teams blocked 15 kicks or punts from 2014-17, which tied for the SEC lead and ranked 3rd nationally.
- Florida got its first block of 2019 on a 47-yard field goal attempt by Towson's Aidan O'Neill.
- Since the start of 2014 (including UF's four in 2018-19) here's where Knox's groups rank among all FBS teams:

FBS Rank	Team	Blocks
1.	Temple	25
2.	Hawaii	22
3.	Oklahoma State	21
t-4.	Greg Knox Teams	18
	Northern Illinois / Texas A&M	19

Gators' 2018 Turnaround Notables

- Florida rose 86 spots in the FBS rankings for scoring offense from 2017 to 2018, the second-largest jump of any team. UF was tied for 108th (22.1 points) in 2017, but finished 22nd (35.0) last year.
- The Gators finished No. 6 in the Coaches Poll and No. 7 in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll. It was Florida's highest finish in either major poll since ending the 2009 season ranked No. 3 in both.
- Florida had not finished in the top 10 of either poll since 2012 (No. 9 AP / No. 10 Coaches).
- Dan Mullen was the ninth first-year FBS head coach since '08 with a top-10 finish in the AP Poll.
- Mullen became the third head coach in history to win 10 games in a debut season with a current Power Five program after inheriting a team that won less than five games the year prior. The others were Stanford's Chuck Shaughnessy (1-7-1 in 1939; 10-0 in 1940) and Auburn's Gus Malzahn (3-9 in 2012; 12-2 in 2013).

Numbers from a Strong 2018 Finish

- Florida won each of its last three games in 2018 by 26-plus points. The last time it won three consecutive games by at least 25 points was an eight-game stretch from Oct. 4-Nov. 29, 2008.

2018 OFFENSIVE UPTICKS CONTINUING IN 2019

- Florida has 500-plus yards of total offense in four of its last nine games. In 18 games under Mullen, UF has five games of 500-plus total yards. UF had three games of 500-plus yards from 2015-17, and five from 2011-14.
- The Gators have 400-plus yards of total offense in eight of their last nine games, and 10 times in Mullen's 18-game tenure as head coach. In 38 games from 2015-17, Florida had nine games of 400-plus total yards.
- Last year, the Gators posted their most games of 500-plus total yards (four), 400-plus total yards (six) and 350-plus total yards (10) since 2009, when they did it five, six, and 10 times, respectively.
- Florida has thrown for 250-plus yards in eight of Mullen's 18 games, including all five games this year. UF totaled 10 such outings in the 38 games spanning the 2015-17 seasons -- five of which came in 2015.
- UF has scored 24-plus points in nine straight games for the first time since a 24-game stretch which began with a 28-24 loss to LSU on Oct. 6, 2007, and ended in a 23-13 win over Tennessee on Sept. 19, 2009.
- One of Mullen's points of emphasis has been rotation at various positions throughout the game--especially at running back--with the result being a fresher team in the fourth quarter. Florida averaged 6.23 yards per carry (884 yards on 141 carries) in fourth quarter last year, which ranked 8th in the FBS and led the SEC.
- This season, Florida is averaging 6.71 yards per carry (302 yards on 45 carries) in the fourth quarter, which ranks sixth nationally and second in the SEC.
- Last year, UF logged four 250-yard rushing games and three 275-yard rushing games for the first time since 2009 (four of each), and its nine 200-yard rushing performances tied the 1984 and 2008 Gators for the most 200-yard games in a season since at least 1981. From 2015-17, UF combined for eight 200-yard games.
- Florida's tempo increased in Mullen's offense last season as well, as it had 32 touchdown drives under three minutes last season, its highest total since posting 40 in 2009. UF combined for 27 sub-three-minute touchdown drives in 2016 and 2017, and just 22 in 2015. This year, UF has 14 sub-three-minute touchdown drives.
- UF also surpassed its combined totals from 2016 and 2017 totals for touchdowns of 30-plus yards last year.
 - » 2019: 3 pass, 2 run; 2018: 9 pass, 6 run; 2016-17: 5 pass, 2 run; 2015: 10 pass, 0 run; 2014: 4 pass, 5 run; 2012-13: 6 pass, 6 run; 2011: 7 pass, 4 run; 2010: 3 pass, 4 run; 2009: 10 pass, 2 run; 2008: 9 pass, 8 run

INJURY HALTED FRANKS' STRONG STRETCH

- Franks had four of the five highest passing yardage totals of his career in the five games prior to UF's trip to Kentucky: 274 vs. Idaho (No. 2 in career); 254 at Florida State / vs. Miami (t-No. 4); 270 vs. UT-Martin (No. 3).

Segment	Att-Comp (Pct.)	Yards	TD	INT	YGP	Rushes	Yards	TD	YPG

2017 (all 11 gp)	125-229 (54.6)	1,438	9	8	143.8	58	20	0	2.0

- After Week 3, Franks was eighth nationally in completion percentage (54 of 71 / 76.1 percent), and fifth among quarterbacks with at least 70 attempts. He was also 20th in passing efficiency rating (173.43).
- Franks' 2018 season was, statistically, the best by a Gators quarterback in nearly a decade. His 31 touchdowns accounted for (7 rushing; 24 passing -- the most since Tim Tebow' 30 in 2008) ranked tied for 19th nationally. And his 2,457 passing yards were the highest total by a Gator since Tebow's 2,895 yards in 2009.
- Franks finished the 2018 season tied for 17th nationally in touchdown-interception ratio (4.00 / 24 TDs to 6 INTs), just one year removed from tying for 107th among qualifying FBS players in 2017; he was one of 12 FBS quarterbacks to throw more than 20 touchdowns and fewer than seven interceptions last year.
- Franks' four games of three-plus touchdown passes were the most such games since Tebow had four in 2008, and just one shy of UF quarterbacks' combined total from the 50 games spanning 2014-17.

ADDITIONAL ACTIVE / HISTORICAL STREAKS

- UF has scored in 390 consecutive games -- which is an NCAA record. The Gators broke Michigan's record of 365 consecutive games (1984-2014) against LSU on Oct. 7, 2017.
- Since 2008, Florida and Alabama are the only FBS teams that have not lost to a team which finished the season with a losing record. UF is one of four teams since 2013 to stave off such a loss (Alabama, LSU, Michigan).

Game Recap

In a tightly contested game, Auburn used a 25-yard touchdown pass from Barrett Trotter to DeAngelo Bennett, a 14-yard run by Onterio McCalebb and a late field goal by Cody Parkey, while Florida got a pair of field goals from Caleb Sturgis.

In a game dominated by stout defenses, Florida used three quarterbacks on the night in an effort to provide different looks, while Auburn used two. In the end, a pair of muffed punts by Florida would prove to be the difference.

The injury bug hit Florida in all three phases Saturday night, as running back Jeff Demps and defensive end Ronald Powell both missed the game with injuries suffered during last weekend's LSU game, while kicker Sturgis suffered an (undisclosed) injury and missed the second half.

On the second play of the game true freshman Jacoby Brissett, making his second career start, took a shot at the end zone but was intercepted, giving Auburn the ball. Auburn opened the game with seven straight rushes, trying to build on what Alabama and LSU found success with in victories over the Gators the previous two weeks.

The game turned on a muffed punt by Chris Rainey late in the first quarter, although it appeared he may have been interfered with. Muschamp argued to no avail and three plays later Trotter rolled out and Barrett won a jump ball in the end zone, hauling in a 25-yard pass for a 7-0 lead.

Brissett finished the first quarter just 1-of-5 passing for 14 yards, facing pressure from Auburn's defensive line as Florida posted just 30 total yards in the opening quarter.

In the second quarter the Gators switched up their look, going with Trey Burton at quarterback and the adjustment sparked the offense. On back-to-back plays Rainey took an 8-yard reception from Burton into Auburn territory and a 9-yard run with a personal foul tacked on the end of it that pushed the Gators to the Auburn 25. The drive stalled and Sturgis split the uprights from 47 yards out to cut the lead to 7-3.

When the Gators got the ball back they continued to chip away at the Auburn lead, coming up with their best drive of the game. UF marched 64 yards on 11 plays, including a 25-yard hook-up from Brissett to Frankie Hammond on third-and-four to move inside Auburn territory. Hammond caught three passes for 29 yards on the drive as Florida moved all the way to Auburn's 8-yard line. The drive was capped by a 25-yard field goal by Sturgis after Brissett's fade to Jordan Reed on third fell incomplete.

Auburn marched to the Florida 28-yard line on the final drive of the half, but Parkey pushed a 45-yard field goal attempt wide right to end the half.

Florida finished with 104 yards in the first half (53 passing, 51 rushing). Auburn finished with 102 yards (69 rushing, 33 passing). After a slow start, Brissett hit 4-of-5 passes in the second quarter and finished 5-of-10 passing for 45 yards.

Jeff Driskel entered in the third quarter and Brissett never returned. Driskel struggled early, but settled in as the game wore on, finishing 9-of-18 for 75 yards.

Auburn started its second drive of the third quarter at the Florida 30 after a short punt, but the Gator defense continued to hold its ground. Parkey missed to the left on a 42-yard attempt and the Gators breathed new life.

Florida nearly took the lead in the third quarter, calling a flea-flicker on a second-and-inches, but Driskel overthrew a wide-open Reed.

Auburn increased its lead to 14-6 on the first play of the fourth quarter, when Onterio McCalebb danced to a 14-yard touchdown, capping a 7-play, 66-yard drive.

Driskel and Burton combined to lead the Gators on an 11-play, 64-yard drive down to the Auburn 16 yard line in the fourth quarter. Trailing by eight and with an injured kicker, Florida opted to go for it on fourth-and-four but Driskel's pass to Deonte Thompson fell incomplete and the Gators turned the ball over on downs.

Florida's defense came out stout again, forcing a three-and-out and a punt. The Gators offense faced a fourth-and-three near midfield on its ensuing drive and appeared ready to go for it, but a false start backed UF into a fourth-and-eight. The Gators punted, and appeared to create an advantage, pinning Auburn at its own 3-yard line.

The Gators defense once again forced a quick three-and-out setting up a punt from the Auburn end zone. The Gators sent Robert Clark back to receive the punt after Rainey had numerous difficulties all night fielding punts, however, in an ironic twist, Clark muffed the punt and Auburn recovered at the Florida 47.

Parkey put the game out of reach with 35 seconds left, hitting a 42-yard field goal after missing his two previous attempts.

Mullen Revives Florida's Offense in 2018 Debut

- The Gators finished in the top 100 in scoring offense for the first time since 2014. They had not finished higher than 96th in total offense since 2010 (when they were 83rd), and their only passing offense to rank higher than 85th following the 2009 season checked in at 79th (2016).
- Florida's averages in each of the following categories were also its highest since 2009: scoring offense, total offense, rushing offense (and average), touchdown-interception ratio, passing touchdowns, and scrimmage touchdowns.
- Here is a look those massive improvements:

Category	2017	2018	Diff.
TD-INT Ratio	1.00 (t-111th)	4.67 (t-9th)	+102
Scoring Offense	22.1 (t-108th)	35.0 (22nd)	+86
Scrimmage TDs	25 (t-120th)	51 (t-35th)	+85
Passing Eff.	113.11 (113th)	145.76 (35th)	+78
Total Offense	335.9 (110th)	426.7 (42nd)	+68
3rd Down Pct.	32.5% (117th)	41.6% (48th)	+69
Rushing Offense	156.4 (75th)	213.2 (27th)	+48
Sacks Allowed	3.36 (124th)	1.39 (t-21st)	+103

- Florida also had its most games of 500-plus total yards (four), 400-plus total yards (six), and 350-plus total yards (10) since 2009, when it had five, six, and 10, respectively.
- Much of the success in 2018 could be attributed to Feleipe Franks turnaround, which Mullen engineered. Franks finished the year tied for 17th nationally in touchdown-interception ratio, and his 24 touchdown passes (to six interceptions) were the highest season total since Tim Tebow threw 30 en route to the 2008 national title.
- The Gators had 11 different pass catchers with a touchdown reception for the first time since 2009. In 2017, UF totaled 10 receiving touchdowns.
- Mullen joined Stanford's Chuck Shaughnessy (1-7-1 in 1939; 10-0 in 1940) and Auburn's Gus Malzahn (3-9 in 2012; 12-2 in 2013) as the only other head coaches in history to win 10 games in a debut season at a current Power Five program after inheriting a team that won less than five games the year prior.
- Oversaw the second-highest wins turnaround in school history (4-7 to 10-3 / +6), with it only being behind the 1980 Gators, who went 8-4 following a 0-10-1 campaign in 1979.
- Became the first head coach in Gators history to win seven-plus games in a debut season after inheriting a sub-.500 team.

In Perspective: Mullen's Mississippi State Turnaround

- Mullen took over in Starkville with the Bulldogs coming off a 4-8 season and a nine-season stretch from 2000-08 in which they went 37-69 and made just two bowl appearances.
- The Bulldogs went 69-46 overall, 33-39 in SEC play, and made eight bowl games in Mullen's nine seasons as head coach. Of his losses, 34 (or 74 percent of them) were to ranked opponents.
- Seven of MSU's top nine (and all of its top four) highest total offense per game season averages were produced with Mullen as head coach
- Mississippi State broke more than 112 game, season, and career school records under Mullen.

at BEN HILL GRIFFIN STADIUM

June 9, 1992. Once The Gainesville Sun hit newstands that Tuesday, Ben Hill Griffin Stadium's fitting nickname came to life.

Steve Spurrier, entering season three as Gators head coach, called writer Mike Bianchi the day prior and pitched him the storyline. It was seven months after the Gators ended the 1991 regular season with consecutive wins over Kentucky (which clinched an undefeated SEC record and the first league title in school history) and a thrilling 14-9 defeat of No. 3 Florida State, snapping a four-game losing streak to the Seminoles. It also gave UF a perfect 12-0 home record under Spurrier.

"The 'Swamp' is where Gators live," Spurrier told Bianchi. "We feel comfortable there, but we hope our opponents feel tentative. A swamp is hot and sticky and can be dangerous."

Initially, the UF athletic department didn't embrace the nickname. No posters, bumper stickers or marketing campaigns were put together right away. But Spurrier continued to use it. Then he and then-UF communications director Norm Carlson did some research. Turns out, in 1930, UF President John J. Tigert selected the location for the school's football stadium and described the area as a "swampy depression." The school hired engineers to drain the area and install pipes that funneled water down the hill along North-South Drive and dumped it into what is now known as Graham Pond.

Needless to say, the nickname caught on, and Spurrier delivered the perfect quote for the athletic department to utilize once it eventually did embrace the moniker: "The 'Swamp' is a place where only Gators get out alive."

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Fourth-year junior quarterback Feleipe Franks ran three yards for the go-ahead touchdown with just over eight minutes left and a Florida defense that sacked Miami redshirt freshman Jarren Williams 10 times withstood a flurry of penalties on the Hurricanes' final two drives and held on for a big (albeit ugly, at times) season-opening victory before a sold-out house at Camping World Stadium in Orlando. The game, serving as the ceremonial kickoff to college football's 150th season, was a rare matchup between two cross-state rivals and featured five lead changes, including two in the fourth quarter, but also five turnovers and 23 combined penalties for 218 yards. Miami tailback DeeJay Dallas, from the wildcat spot, dashed 50 yards for a touchdown to give Miami a 20-17 lead 45 seconds into the final period. Two UF drives later, Franks dropped and heaved a 65-yard completion to senior wideout Josh Hammond, with Franks scoring on a QB keeper three plays later at the 8:18 mark. After that, both teams made enough mistakes for two games, as Miami had no answer for Florida's defensive pressure and Florida's secondary was unable to cleanly cover Miami's receivers downfield. After a huge UF stop with 4:30 to play, Franks was intercepted on first down and gave the Hurricanes the ball at the Florida 36. From there, the Gators had to escape two defensive pass interference penalties -- one of them on fourth-and-34. The game ended with Miami at the Florida 26, facing fourth-and-12, but with a chance to chuck the ball into the end zone for the win. Instead, UF defensive end Jeremiah Moon was fast off the edge and forced Williams into a no-chance throw into the dirt to end the game and give the Gators just their second victory over the Hurricanes in the last 33 years. Franks finished 17 of 27 for 254 yards and two touchdowns, including a 66-yard screen pass to Kadarius Toney in the first quarter, plus two interceptions, both in the final period. Williams, making his first career start, hit 19 of 29 attempts for 214 yards and a score, while Dallas had 12 carries for 95 yards.

WHAT IT MEANS: A lot. Florida began the day having lost seven of eight to Miami, dating to the 1986 season, the year before the Gators begged out of an annual rivalry that dated to 1938. The run of frustration included an ugly 2013 defeat that marked the last time the two programs played. With the victory, UF now trails the series, 27-29. More importantly, of course, was getting the 2019 season off to a victorious start, even though things did get a little dicey at the end. Better than the alternative. Ask the Canes.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Got to go with Franks ... for the good and bad. His big-arm throw to Hammond helped turn the game, but his interception after that huge defensive stop gave the Hurricanes a chance. Remember, things weren't always smooth sailing with him last season either, but alongside Coach Dan Mullen the two worked together and figured some stuff out.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Those 10 sacks by the Gators were the most by a Florida defense since at least 1996 (the only stats available via our data base), topping the previous best when Jevon Kearse and the Gators beheaded Auburn's Dameyune Craig nine times in a 24-10 win at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Feleipe Franks completed his first 15 passes on the way to throwing for 270 yards and two touchdowns without a turnover Saturday night, and the Gators did what the 11th-ranked team in the country is supposed to do an FCS opponent from the Ohio Valley Conference in their 2019 home opener at Spurrier/Florida Field. The UF offense started slowly, managing just a 3-0 lead through the first 22 minutes before Franks, the fourth-year junior, fired scoring strikes of 69 yards to Van Jefferson and 35 to Tyrie Cleveland to open a 17-0 lead in the second quarter. The Gators added third-quarter rushing TDs from tailbacks Malik Davis and Lamical Perine, then stretched the lead in the fourth quarter when both UF backup quarterbacks, Kyle Trask and Emory Jones, accounted for a TD (Trask passing, Jones rushing). Franks, who had three turnovers in UF's season-opening win two weeks ago against Miami, played just three quarters and finished his night 25 of 27 (that's 92.6 percent). UF tallied 543 yards of total offense (312 passing, 231 rushing), while the defense limited the Skyhawks to 194 yards and posted the program's first shutout since a 32-0 defeat of North Texas three games into the 2016 season. The win, however, looked to have come with a price (read on).

WHAT IT MEANS: Not much, other than the fact UF was bigger, faster and more physical than UTM, which everybody knew well before the kickoff. The game allowed the Gators to build some confidence, pile up some statistics and celebrate some big offensive plays the likes of which were much harder to come by two weeks earlier against a stout Hurricanes defense in Orlando.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: Got to go with wingback Kadarius Toney and cornerback CJ Henderson -- unfortunately -- as both players left the game with injuries and did not return. Toney was hit hard on a running play in the first quarter and went to the sideline in obvious pain with what appeared to be an arm or shoulder injury. Trainers tended to Toney in the sideline tent before taking him to the locker room. In the second quarter, Henderson got tangled up covering a deep pass down the middle of the field. Henderson, after remaining on the field a bit, was helped off by two trainers and taken to the locker room. No in-game injury updates were provided by UF.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Those first 15 completions by Franks were the second-most to start a game by a Florida quarterback in program history. Worth noting: The incompletion on his 16th attempt came on a "Hail Mary" at the end of the half. The record for most completions to start a game remained at 17, set by Chris Leak in a 32-14 season-opening defeat of Wyoming on Sept. 3, 2005, a game that marked the debut of Coach Urban Meyer.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Backup quarterback Kyle Trask, summoned to duty for injured starter Feleipe Franks, led two fourth-quarter touchdown drives and capped the second with a 4-yard run and go-ahead score with 4:11 remaining as the ninth-ranked Gators overcame a double-digit deficit and escaped with a stirring comeback win in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams at sold-out Kroger Field. The outcome could easily have gone the other way, as the Wildcats, after Trask's go-ahead score, marched 58 yards in nine plays, but Chance Moore was wide right on a 34-yard field goal attempt with 54 seconds to play. UK tried to get the ball back by calling a couple timeouts, but wide receiver Josh Hammond's electrifying 76-yard touchdown run iced it and gave the Gators their 32nd over the Wildcats in the last 33 meetings. There was no in-game update on Franks, who was trying to run for a first down on fourth-and-1 when he was hit hard and his torso awkwardly bent backward, with his legs appearing to be planted in the pile. The entire UF sideline emptied onto the field when Franks, who hit 12 of 17 throws for 174 yards, one touchdown and an interception in his 18th consecutive start, was carted away. Kentucky led 21-10 at the time. Enter Trask, who hit his first four passes on his way to going 9-for-13 for 126 yards and stealing the spotlight from UK first-time starter Sawyer Smith, who hit 23 of 34 passes for 267 yards, two touchdowns and another rushing. Smith, though, turned the ball over four times, including a pair of second-half interceptions by junior safety Shawn Davis that led to 10 points. The second of those Davis picks came with Kentucky leading 21-16 and 6:05 to play in the game. Florida needed just four plays to go 66 yards, but 30 of those came on Kentucky penalties, with Trask finishing things off with the go-ahead scramble up the middle.

WHAT IT MEANS: A road win to open the SEC slate, which is always big. Remember, the Gators started 0-1 in the league last season, courtesy of that home loss to the Cats that snapped the historic 31-game winning streak. As for the injury to Franks, the team's personality obviously will undergo a significant change. Read on.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: No one outside of the Florida football walls (maybe even Coach Dan Mullen's office) knew for certain if the Florida backup quarterback was Trask or redshirt freshman Emory Jones. Now, not only do we know a little more, but we're going to find out a lot more about Trask, the person/player, in the coming days/weeks. Now that there's high-leverage tape for opposing defensive coaches to break down, the 6-foot-5, 239-pound fourth-year junior from Texas no longer will have the element of surprise working in his favor, as he surely must have against the Kentucky defense.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: The Gators had 216 yards of offense through three quarters, but cranked out 222 in the fourth quarter alone, including TD drives of 66 and 80 yards with Trask in control.

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: In the first start of his career, quarterback Kyle Trask threw for 293 yards and a pair of touchdowns, while the UF defense held the Volunteers to just 239 yards of offense and forced four turnovers in a relatively easy Southeastern Conference win Saturday at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask, elevated to starter after the season-ending injury to Feleipe Franks last week at Kentucky, was far from perfect, as the fourth-year junior from Texas had a trio of turnovers (two interceptions, one fumble), but made enough good plays and had enough help from his defense to have little trouble against the struggling Volunteers. The Gators opened a 17-0 lead at intermission, courtesy of a 19-yard touchdown pass from Trask to tight end Kyle Pitts on the game's first possession, a 22-yard Evan McPherson field goal, and 1-yard run from tailback Lamical Perine on the final play of the half. On the latter, the Gators faced a fourth-and-goal at the 1 and UF coach Dan Mullen ran the clock down to :02 before calling a timeout. Mullen bypassed the easy three points and sent his offense back on the field for a do-or-die snap, with Perine driving into the end zone on the final play of the half. Tennessee opened the second half by marching to a 40-yard Brent Cimaglia field goal, but Trask canceled that score out and then some with a 75-yard drive capped by a beauty of a 29-yard touchdown pass to wideout Freddie Swain that made the score 24-3. Sophomore tailback Dameon Pierce added a 10-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter and McPherson kicked his second field goal, a 37-yarder, with just over four minutes left to wrap the scoring. Trask completed 20 of 28 passes (71.4 percent) and his 293 yards eclipsed the best single-game output ever tallied by Franks (284 last season at Vanderbilt). The Gators finished with 441 yards of total offense and went 5-for-5 on red-zone scoring opportunities.

WHAT IT MEANS: Not only did the Gators remain unbeaten, but make that two SEC wins in two games. While Tennessee is in the midst of a nightmare season, the Vols still have SEC-caliber players capable of coming in and making things interesting, if the Gators didn't take them seriously and spun their wheels at home. Didn't happen. As for Trask, a couple poor third-quarter throws into double-coverage will get the attention of Mullen and QBs coach Brian Johnson, but he also made some really nice passes, demonstrated an element of poise in the pocket and showed plenty for his team (and fans) to be encouraged about.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: The obvious choice would be Trask, but on a day when the Gators' defense limited the Vols to those measly 239 yards and three points a shout-out to that side of the ball, and especially linebacker Jonathan Greenard, seems warranted. The graduate-transfer from Louisville was an absolute beast all afternoon, finishing the game with four tackles, two of them for loss, a sack, three passes defensed (one that led to a tipped interception) and a forced fumble. What a game.

STAGGERING STATISTIC: That's 14 wins in the last 15 meetings between these two for the Gators, including eight straight at home (dating to the 2005 season). It really is incredible to think how this once-fierce rivalry -- one of the biggest games in the country every year -- has deteriorated into such a one-sided affair. The 31-point margin of victory was UF's largest in the series since winning 59-20 at home in 2007.

Score By Quarters	1	2	3	4	Final

Florida (5-0, 2-0 SEC)	7	10	14	7	38

Chris Harry's Quick Slant

WHAT HAPPENED: Quarterback Kyle Trask completed his first 15 passes, threw for two touchdowns and rushed for a score, backup tailback Dameon Pierce had a 37-yard touchdown run in the third quarter, and the UF defense registered its second shutout of the season Saturday in blanking overmatched Towson at Spurrier/Florida Field. Trask, the fourth-year junior making his second start, finished 18 of 20 for 188 yards with scoring strikes of 5 and 7 yards, both to sophomore tight end Kyle Pitts, and sandwiched a 1-yard touchdown run on a QB sneak in between. In the fourth quarter, Trask gave way to redshirt freshman backup Emory Jones, who keyed a 69-yard touchdown drive with a 29-yard run and finished it with a 2-yard scoring pass to reserve true freshman tight end Keon Zipperer. The Florida defense surrendered some big plays to Tigers quarterback Tom Flacco, younger brother of Denver Broncos quarterback and Super Bowl champ Joe Flacco, but ultimately kept Towson off the scoreboard, thanks to three forced turnovers and a couple missed field goals. UF finished with 422 yards of total offense, while holding Towson to 248.

WHAT IT MEANS: The Gators are 5-0 for the first time since 2015, and for only the second time in the last 10 seasons. Expect Coach Dan Mullen to go with the ol' Urban Meyer adage next week: "The best thing about being 5-0 is you have a chance to go 6-0." This one also put a wrap on UF's non-conference schedule until the Gators face rival Florida State in the regular-season finale Nov. 30.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT: While senior tailback Lamical Perine searches for his first breakout game of the season, Pierce, the sophomore from Bainbridge, Ga., brought the Gators some much-needed productivity to the struggling Florida running game, including runs of 31 yards in the second quarter and that 37-yard score in the third. Those runs marked the third- and second-longest, respectfully, for the Gators this season. Pierce's performance helped UF finish with 160 rushing yards for the game, which was the second-most of the season. The Gators began the day ranked 12th in the Southeastern Conference in rushing and exited still averaging just 141.4 per game (with two of those games against FCS opponents).

STAGGERING STATISTIC: Saturday's hot start, combined with three completions on his final three throws in last week's defeat of Tennessee, gave Trask 18 straight completions over the two games. That broke the previous UF record of 17 straight, set by Chris Leak in the 2005 season opener against Wyoming. Trask, whose first missed attempt came at the 9:25 mark of the third period, equaled the 15 straight completions to start a game that his predecessor, Feleipe Franks, hit to open UF's Sept. 7 defeat of Tennessee Martin. The 15 was the second-most in school history, behind the 17 in a row from Leak 14 years ago.
