WELCOME HOME

The Bulldogs wrap up their regular season with three straight home games, beginning with No. 8 Auburn on Nov. 12. This marks only the second time in history that Georgia has played its last three regular season games of the year in Athens. In 2014, the Bulldogs played their final three games at Sanford Stadium and went 2-1.

The Bulldogs played only one home game out of their first four contests this year for the first time since 1966. This season, Georgia played two games at neutral sites and four more as the visitors.

Series History

With Georgia's 20-13 win over Auburn on the Plains last year, the Bulldogs claimed the series edge for the first time since 1986. Georgia now leads the Deep South's oldest rivalry 56-55-8. In fact, Georgia has won eight of the last 10 meetings with Auburn, and the only two Tiger wins in that stretch came in seasons when they played for the national championship (2010 & 2013). The road team has a better record in the series as Georgia is 16-11-2 on the Plains while Auburn is 18-13 in Athens. The Tigers are up to No. 8 in the polls this week and are on a six-game winning streak.

Saturday will mark the 120th meeting between Georgia and Auburn, making it the fourth most played active series in the NCAA FBS (also tied with Oregon-Oregon State). The Bulldogs and Tigers first squared off in 1892 in Atlanta's Piedmont Park. The only event that interrupted the series was a World War as the teams did not play in 1917, 1918 and 1943.

Also of note in the series, the all-time point total differential is 106 with Georgia leading 1,940 to 1,834. The 2012-13 seasons saw the Bulldogs head to Auburn for consecutive years, marking the first time the game had been played at the same site for two years in a row since 1958. The game was played in Columbus during a stretch from 1930-58. The first 10 games were played in Atlanta starting in 1892.

Inside The Numbers

The last top 10 ranked team to visit Sanford Stadium was then No. 9 Auburn in 2014 and then No. 16 Georgia posted a 34-7 win.

Currently, Georgia ranks third in the SEC with a +5 Turnover Margin after collecting a pair but giving up three versus Kentucky last Saturday. Auburn is eighth in the league in Turnover Margin at +2. The Tigers are fourth in the SEC in Scoring Offense at 34.8 points per game while Georgia stands 12th in that category at 23.7 points per contest. The Tigers are fourth in Scoring Defense (16.0) and have held eight of their last 10 opponents to less than 20 points. Georgia ranks eighth in Scoring Defense at 25.9. The Tigers are leading the SEC and rank third nationally in Rushing Offense (299.8 yards a game). The Bulldogs are third in the league in Rushing Defense, holding opponents to 118.2. Led by juniors Nick Chubb and Sony Michel, Georgia is averaging 178.3 yards on the ground, good for eighth in the SEC, while Auburn stands fifth in Rushing Defense (125.9).

2015 Flashback: Georgia Picks Up 20-13 Win At Auburn

Falling behind 7-0 in the opening period, the Bulldogs bounced back to tie the game at 10-all late in the third quarter and then took a lead they would never relinquish at the 9:28 mark in the fourth quarter. WR/PR Isaiah McKenzie evened the game at 10-10 on a 4-yard carry with 1:20 left in the third period. Next, McKenzie gave Georgia its first lead with a 53-yard punt return for a touchdown in the final quarter. PK Marshall Morgan also drilled to field goals of 40 and 38 yards to help Georgia win its seventh game in 2015. Defensively, CB Aaron Davis helped clinch the victory with a pair of fourth quarter fumble recoveries, one that came at the UGA 5 yard line. ILB Jake Ganus led both teams with 11 tackles while OLBs Jordan Jenkins and Lorenzo Carter each forced a fumble. In addition, Malkom Parrish also recorded a second quarter interception for Georgia.

The last time the teams met in Athens, the #16 Bulldogs blistered the #9 Tigers 34-7 behind 144 yards rushing and two touchdowns from TB Nick Chubb and 138 yards and a score for TB Todd Gurley.

Dog Makes Second Straight Appearance On CoSIDA Academic Team

For the second time in as many years, junior DB Aaron Davis has been named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District 4 Football Team. A 6-1, 189-pound native of Locust Grove, Ga., Davis has a 3.50 GPA in Finance. He is a member of the UGA Athletic Association's Leadership Academy (LEAD) and has been on the SEC honor roll twice. Davis is third on the team with 38 tackles this season, including a sack, from his defensive back position. He has one of the Bulldogs' 10 interceptions this season and has forced a pair of fumbles and recovered one. Davis is a former walk-on who worked his way into the starting lineup and is now on scholarship.

ON DECK: vs. UL LAFAYETTE Nov. 19, TBA

The Bulldogs have played the Ragin' Cajuns once and topped them 55-7 in Athens during the 2010 season.

Head Football Coach

When Georgia looked for a new head football coach after the 2015 season, the arrows all pointed to Kirby Smart, longtime University of Alabama defensive coordinator and former Bulldog player and assistant coach. On Dec. 6, 2015, Smart officially came home

Smart has served on the Alabama staff the past nine years, the past seven as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one College Football Playoff national title, three Southeastern Conference crowns, six SEC western division titles, and was ranked in the nation's final top ten rankings the last eight years in a row.

A former standout defensive back and scholar-athlete at Georgia, Smart was one of the nation's most respected defensive coordinators. During his time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant coach. He was also a finalist for the 2015 Broyles Award.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his BBA degree in Finance from UGA in 1998 and his M.S. in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003. The Bainbridge, Ga., native is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga., a 4-year letterwinner, and 2-year starter, on the Georgia women's basketball team from 2000-2003. The couple met long after their undergraduate days at UGA, when Lycett -- then working in the UGAAA business office -- helped arrange Smart's trip to interview for the Bulldogs' running backs coaching job in 2005. They are now the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (Feb. 8, 2008) and son Andrew (May 25, 2012).

"I'm honored and excited for the opportunity at Georgia and promise high energy, effort every day, and hard work every minute on the part of all our coaches, staff and student-athletes."

to Georgia. But he had unfinished business at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled two jobs for a month until January 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a 7-year span. Twelve hours later, he was in Athens ready to go to work.

When Smart was named head coach he said "It's an honor and privilege to return home to the University of Georgia and my home state. I'm deeply appreciative of the faith President Morehead, Greg McGarity, and the Athletic Board Executive Committee have demonstrated in asking me to lead one of the truly great college football programs in the country. I also want to thank Coach Saban. I have been fortunate to spend 11 seasons with him as my mentor and have learned a tremendous amount from him as a coach and teacher. I'm honored and excited for the opportunity at Georgia and promise high energy, effort every day, and hard work every minute on the part of all our coaches, staff and student-athletes."

Eason Leads Dogs To SEC Road Victory

True freshman QB Jacob Eason has started the last eight games for the Bulldogs, including the latest 27-24 victory at Kentucky. Versus the Wildcats, he completed 17-of-31 passes for 245 yards and a touchdown and no interceptions. Eason directed the game-winning drive in the fourth quarter that started at the UGA 25 with 2:47 left. He was 4-for-4 for 42 yards and junior TB Sony Michel ran another 22 yards to help set up redshirt freshman PK Rodrigo Blankenship's 25-yard field goal as time expired.

Connecting with seven different receivers versus Kentucky, Eason found a favorite target in junior WR Javon Wims who finished with career highs in catches (five) and yards (90).

Eason threw for a career-high 346 yards (27-of-40) and a touchdown in a loss to Vanderbilt. Fellow freshmen TE Isaac Nauta and receiver Riley Ridley were his top targets against the Commodores with a combined 10 catches for 141 yards and a touchdown. Against #11 Tennessee, Eason finished 17-for-28 for 211 yards, two touchdowns and an interception. He fired a 47-yard touchdown to Ridley to give the Bulldogs a 31-28 lead with 10 seconds to play. It capped a four-play, 81-yard drive in 57 seconds. However, UT converted a 43-yard Hail Mary touchdown for a 34-31 road win. Eason's other TD pass of the game was a 50-yard bomb to Nauta.

He led the Bulldogs on a fourth quarter comeback in the 28-27 win at Missouri in just his second career start. He finished 29-for-55 for 308 yards and three touchdowns (were all career highs). This was the most attempts for a Bulldog since sophomore Cory Phillips went 36-for-62 against Georgia Tech in 2000. In the win over Mizou, Eason and the Bulldogs converted a 4th-and-10 with 1:29 left that resulted in a 20-yard scoring strike to McKenzie. This game-winning TD capped an 80-yard drive in 10 plays that took 2:03.

Eason became only the sixth Bulldog freshman QB to start a game and the first since Matthew Stafford (No. 1 NFL Draft pick in 2009 to Detroit Lions) in 2006 when he lined up behind center in the win over Nicholls.

Greyson Lambert returns for his final year of eligibility. After transferring to UGA from Virginia to start graduate school during the 2015 summer, the Jesup, Ga., native has started a total of 13 games, going 11-2 in those contests. He was Georgia's starter in the season-opening win over #22 North Carolina.

Running Game Starts With Chubb, Michel

The centerpieces of the Bulldog backfield are juniors Nick Chubb and Sony Michel. Most recently, Michel went for 127 yards and a touchdown on 19 carries (6.7 avg.) to anchor the offensive attack during the win at Kentucky. This gave him 2,058 yards in his career. He and Chubb (2,985) are now only the fifth active tandem nationwide to each have at least 2,000 yards.

Georgia is ranked eighth in the SEC in Rushing Offense (178.3)

coming into its matchup with #8 Auburn, who ranks fifth in the league in Rushing Defense (125.9). The Tigers are leading the SEC in rushing with an average of 299.8/game while the Bulldogs stand third on the conference in allowing only 118.2/game.

Chubb and Michel combined for 254 yards and two touchdowns on 37 carries in the win over the Gamecocks in Columbia. It marked the first time since the 2014 win over Auburn that a pair of Bulldogs went over the 100-yard mark in the same game (current L.A. Ram Todd Gurley, Chubb).

Chubb and Michel are the first Bulldog teammates to each have 1,000-yard rushing seasons in their career. Michel returned this season after he became the 10th Georgia player in history to rush for more than 1,000 yards while starting six games in 2015. He became a starter last year after Chubb, who became the ninth running back with 1,000+ yards in 2014, went down with the knee injury against UT. Chubb is now just 15 yards away from being only the fifth tailback in Georgia history with at least 3,000 yards.

Chubb returned to the lineup in dramatic fashion in the 2016 season opener against #22 UNC, earning Maxwell Award/SEC Player of the Week honors for his efforts. After sustaining a season-ending knee injury at UT (Oct. 10, 2015), he underwent surgery and extensive rehab. Against UNC, he tallied a Chick-Fil-A Kickoff Game record 222 yards on 32 carries. This marked his third career 200-yard game with only legendary running back Herschel Walker having more with nine. Due to an ankle injury, Chubb missed the second half of the game at #23 Ole Miss and finished with 57 yards on 12 carries. He only played one snap and took a single carry in the loss to #11 Tennessee while recovering from his ankle injury.

McKenzie Bulldogs' All-Purpose Leader

Junior WR/PR Isaiah McKenzie is second on the Bulldogs with 699 all-purpose yards (74 rush, 459 receiving, 166 return) and has scored seven touchdowns, including his 38-yard touchdown catch at Kentucky last weekend.

McKenzie has a team-best 32 catches, which includes a team-high six scores. His total receiving output this season far eclipses his total from his first two years (16 rec., 190 yds., 0 TDs). In the wins over Missouri and #22 North Carolina, McKenzie had a career-high 122 yards in each contest. Against Nicholls, he added another explosive play, registering a 66-yard TD reception, the longest by the Bulldogs since 2013 (Aaron Murray to Todd Gurley for 83 yards vs. Florida).

A Look At The Line

Three of the five starters on the 2016 offensive line return from last year. Seniors Greg Pyke (OG/OT) and Brandon Kublanov (C/OG) and junior Isaiah Wynn (OT) have combined for 89 career starts. This year's unit also has graduate transfer Tyler Catalina (LT) and redshirt sophomore Lamont Gaillard (RG). Junior guard Dyshon Sims, who has played in 24 games and started one, is also in the rotation.

Young Defense Improving

The youthful Bulldog defense held Kentucky to just 308 total yards on 61 plays in Lexington. This came after the Wildcats had racked up 582 yards and 554 yards in wins over Missouri and Miss. State, respectively, in the two preceding weeks. Georgia gave up three touchdowns to Kentucky, including one after just a 38-yard drive following a Bulldog fumble on a punt return. The other UK scoring drives covered 56 and 67 yards.

Field position was also not in Georgia's favor against #14 Florida. The touchdown drives by the Gators only covered 39, 44 and 56 yards during the loss. Georgia held the Gators to 231 yards on 73 plays.

The win over South Carolina on Oct. 9 marked the only game this year that the Bulldogs had not trailed. Georgia jumped out to a 14-0 halftime lead over the Gamecocks. This was also the first time since the 2014 Missouri game that Georgia blanked an SEC opponent through the first two quarters. Vanderbilt had one sustained drive in its win over Georgia - a 75 yarder. Vanderbilt's other two scoring drives started at the UGA 2 and 27.

Georgia's defense opened the season against a high-powered UNC offense. The Bulldogs held the #22 Tar Heels to 24 points and 315 total yards on offense. Most importantly when the Bulldogs fell behind 24-14 with 6:34 left in the third period, the Georgia defense blanked North Carolina the rest of the game as the Bulldogs rallied back for a 33-24 victory.

Georgia looks to improve its Red Zone Defense with only two stops in 28 trips, which is 14th in the SEC. Opponents have scored 22 touchdowns and six field goals. The first stop came on an interception by senior Quincy Mauger when it trailed Missouri 27-21 in the fourth quarter. He has had a pair of games in his career with two interceptions, both against the Tigers. The latest stop came versus #14 Florida when it missed a 33-yard field goal.

Smith A Senior STAR

One of the leaders in the secondary is senior STAR Maurice Smith. During the road win over Kentucky, he registered a forced fumble and fumble recovery to go along with five tackles. Smith was one of the three game captains against #11 Tennessee and had his best game statistically. He tallied a career-high seven tackles, intercepted his first ball as a Bulldog (he played for his first three years at Alabama) and forced a fumble that he recovered. Smith is tied for fifth on the squad with 35 tackles this season. He notched his first sack of the year at #14 Florida.

Smith joined the team late in the summer after graduating from Alabama. He played in all 15 games for the 14-1 national champions in 2015 and finished with 15 stops. Smith played in 41 career games (starting two) at UA and made 38 tackles, 1.5 sacks, five pass break-ups, one forced fumble and a fumble recovery.

Sanders Closing In On School Record

All-SEC junior performer Dominick Sanders notched his 11th career interception in the game versus #14 Florida. It led to a 3-0 lead and the first points any team had scored against the Gators in the first quarter this year. Sanders had an SEC-leading six picks in 2015 and finished last year with a UGA single season record of 205 INT Ret. yards, which ranked fifth in SEC history. He stands in third place for Bulldog Career Interception Yardage, just 16 yards of establishing a record.

Big Game For Baker

Georgia sophomore DB Deandre Baker continues to develop into a solid contributor with a career-high 10 tackles and a sack versus #14 Florida. He followed up his performance against the Gators with his first career interception in the most recent win over Kentucky. Baker started for the first time versus #11 Tennessee and responded with three tackles. His highlight was drilling Tennessee's Jalen Hurd at the goal line and forcing a fumble that Aaron Davis recovered for a touchback. Baker started his second game at South Carolina and tallied a career high seven tackles and recovered a fumble in the road win.

Sophomore ILBs Leading The Way In Tackles

In Smith's last two games, he has 16 tackles. Smith posted a career-high and game-high 11 stops in the road win at South Carolina. He also added a forced fumble and a fumble recovery in the 28-14 victory over the Gamecocks. In the game against #14 Florida in Jacksonville, Smith tallied nine tackles.

Patrick's steady play this year has him leading the team in tackles including a career-high 10 stops versus #11 Tennessee. Also, he ranks among the team leaders with 4.5 tackles for loss and one sack. A fellow sophomore, DL Trenton Thompson, leads the interior linemen and is among a host of Bulldogs with 35 stops and a team-leading five TFLs and has two sacks. His downfield diving tackle of Gator receiver Antonio Callaway after a 21-yard gain was a highlight hustle play for the young Bulldog. Freshman DT Julian Rochester had a breakout performance against Kentucky with a team-leading eight tackles, a sack and a forced fumble.

The defense has scored one touchdown on the year. Junior OLB Lorenzo Carter scooped up a fumble in the Nicholls game and ran 24 yards for a score during the Bulldogs' second victory of the year. Carter doubled his 2016 sack total with a pair versus Vanderbilt. Georgia's other starting OLB, junior Davin Bellamy, led the team with eight tackles against the Commodores, including one tackle for loss.

Taking It To The House

Junior Isaiah McKenzie has already made his mark in the SEC record book with his returns. Currently, his four punt returns for touchdowns rank fifth best in SEC history while his five total returns for scores (four PR, one KOR) is tied for third best in the league record books. This year, McKenzie has 19 returns for 142 yards for an 7.5 average, which is third in the SEC.

Senior Reggie Davis is averaging 23.3 yards on 15 kickoff returns, which is one of the league's leader. He had a team-leading 17 kick returns for 394 yards (23.2 avg.) in 2015 to go with eight punt returns for 110 yards (one for a TD at Tennessee last year that covered 70 yards).

Blankenship Continues Development At PK

Redshirt freshman PK Rodrigo Blankenship set career highs by going 4-for-4 on field goals (25, 42, career long 49, 25) and tallying 13 total points in the win at Kentucky, including a game-winner from 25 yards out as time expired. He is now 9-for-10 on the year and has connected on his last eight in a row.

He became the first Bulldog to hit a game-winning field goal since Marshall Morgan's 34-yarder with 1:44 left against Missouri last year in a 9-6 victory in Athens. The last Bulldog to do it to at the end of regulation was Blair Walsh against Arizona State in 2009, a 37-yarder for a 20-17 win. Blankenship's four field goals was the most by a Bulldog since Morgan against Nebraska in the 2014 TaxSlayer Bowl.

A Long Look At The Punters

True freshman Marshall Long was handling all the punting duties until the Florida game. While Long started against the #14 Gators, junior Brice Ramsey saw action on three punts too. Long took care of all five punts in the road win over Kentucky, averaging 41.2 yards per punt.

Long has punted 49 times for an average of 38.7 yards. He had a career long 59 yarder versus the Gamecocks.

The snapping responsibility for the Bulldogs has been shared by juniors Glenn Welch and Trent Frix. Welch is handling the snapping for punts while Frix is snapping on field goals and extra points. Frix is the younger brother of former snapper Ty Frix (2009-12) and the son of former snapper Mitch Frix (1981-82).

Blazevich Named A Wuerffel Trophy Semifinalist

Junior tight end Jeb Blazevich has been named one of 11 semifinalists for the 2016 Wuerffel Trophy, which is given to a college football player with an exceptional history of community service.

Blazevich, a native of Charlotte, N.C., is one of three players from the SEC included as a semifinalist for this year's award. He was also recently named to the 2016 AFCA Allstate Good Works Team.

BROYLES COMMITTEE

Former Dog Coaches On Broyles Selection Committee

Two former Georgia head coaches, Vince Dooley (1964-88) and Jim Donnan (1995-2000), are currently serving on the selection committee for the Broyles Award. The award is named for legendary Arkansas football coach Frank Broyles and presented annually to the nation's outstanding assistant coach.

GEORGIA GRADUATES

The SEC has created a patch to recognize student-athletes who have earned their undergraduate degrees - and the Bulldogs have four who fit the bill. OT Tyler Catalina, QB Greyson Lambert, DB Maurice Smith and WR Kenneth Towns are seniors athletically and are all pursuing graduate degrees. Catalina (Rhode Island), Lambert (Virginia) and Smith (Alabama) join Towns, who is in his fifth year with the Bulldogs. Towns was a former walk-on from Albany, Ga., who earned a scholarship before the 2016 season.

4TH DOWN TOUCHDOWNS

Georgia's true freshman QB Jacob Eason connected with junior WR Isaiah McKenzie for a 20-yard touchdown on 4th-and-10 with 1:29 left to put the Bulldogs ahead 28-27 at Missouri.

Prior to that, the last time Georgia converted a fourth down TD pass in the fourth quarter came versus Georgia Tech in 2014. Hutson Mason hit Malcolm Mitchell for a 3-yard touchdown on 4th-and-goal to give the Bulldogs a 24-21 edge with 18 seconds to go.

DID YOU KNOW?

Georgia trailed #22 North Carolina 24-14 at the 6:34 mark in the third quarter. The Bulldogs surged back to win the game 33-24. Before that, the last 10-point comeback came after Georgia trailed Tennessee 10-0 at the 5:04 mark in the opening period of their 2014 contest. The Bulldogs roared back with a 35-32 win over the Vols.

Prior to the UNC game, Georgia's last come-from-behind victory when the team was down 10 points in the second half came versus Georgia Tech in 2013. The Yellow Jackets took a 20-10 edge at the 9:28 mark in the third quarter. The Bulldogs ended up recording a 41-34 win in overtime.

Georgia 33, North Carolina 24

Sept. 3, 2016 • Georgia Dome - Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA, Ga. - Nick Chubb racked up an astounding 222 rushing yards in Georgia's come-from-behind victory over North Carolina (33-24) in front of a Georgia Dome capacity crowd of 75,405 and an ESPN national televised audience in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff game.

The 2016 season opener marked the debut of new head coach Kirby Smart, freshman quarterback Jacob Eason and the return of junior tailback Chubb since his gruesome knee injury that robbed him of the last seven games of the 2015 season.

Georgia held a 14-10 advantage at the half but UNC's T.J. Logan returned the second-half kickoff for a touchdown and then scored on a 21-yard run midway through the third quarter, giving the Tar Heels a 10-point lead. Defensively, Georgia stepped up as they only surrendered 49 yards to the Tar Heels for the rest of the game.

In the subsequent Georgia possession, Eason notched his first collegiate touchdown, a 17-yard strike to junior wideout Isaiah McKenzie. Then in the following UNC possession, UGA pinned the Tar Heels inside their own goal line and caused a safety to pull within one-point at 24-23 to conclude the third quarter.

With nearly 11 minutes left in the game, Eason orchestrated a nine-play, 71-yard drive highlighted by a 51-yard pass from Eason to McKenzie and a crucial 16-yard rush by Brian Herrien to set up William Ham's go-ahead field goal. The 29-yard field goal by redshirt sophomore William Ham recaptured the lead at 26-24 for Georgia with 5:27 left in the game.

Chubb's 55-yard scamper cushioned the Bulldogs' lead to 33-24 and seemingly put the game out of reach with less than four minutes in regulation.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"Somebody asked me if he (Nick Chubb) was on a pitch count. I guess not, huh? He did a great job. I think first, you should give a lot of credit to Ron Courson and his staff, okay, because they really pushed Nick. And then the second is Nick Chubb is a special person. He's got great humility, a great family and he works so hard. Not many of you guys know what this kid went through, when you're going out and doing extra Taekwondo at night, early mornings, there's a reason why he's in the shape he's in, and it's because of the way he works."

Nick Chubb made a heroic 2016 debut after suffering a gruesome knee injury that sidelined him for the final seven games of the 2015 campaign. He ran for a Chick-fil-A Kickoff game record 222 yards on 32 carries, including a 55-yard yard dash with 3:34 left in the fourth quarter that put UGA up by two scores.

Worth Noting...

- For the first time in school history, Georgia notched a season-opening win over a ranked team away from home. Coming in, Georgia was 8-9-1 against ranked teams to open a year, going 8-2 in Athens, 0-5-1 on the road and 0-2 in neutral site games. The Bulldogs posted a 33-24 win over No. 22 UNC in the debut of coach Kirby Smart. Georgia now is 93-27-3 in season openers including winning 17 of its past 20. Georgia now leads the UNC series 17-12-2.
- In Nick Chubb's first action since the Tennessee game last year (Oct. 10) when he suffered a season-ending knee injury, he set a Chick-fil-A Kickoff game record in yards (222) and carries (32) while he added two touchdowns. His 55-yard touchdown run with 3:34 left in the game strengthened Georgia's lead to 33-24 and it put him over the 200-yard mark. Chubb now has three career 200-yard rushing games, second only to Herschel Walker with nine in UGA history. The game also marked his 14th career game with at least 100 yards, good for fourth in school history.
- Freshman running back Brian Herrien made his collegiate debut and on his first carry, he scampered 23 yards for a touchdown. The score gave Georgia a 14-7 lead following the PAT and capped a 56-yard drive in 2:19. In the fourth quarter on a 2nd-and-22 play, Herrien rushed for 16 yards to the UNC 12-yard line which set William Ham up for a 29-yard field goal two plays later that gave UGA the 26-24 lead with 5:27 left to play.
- The Georgia defense limited the Tar Heels to 24 points and 315 total yards of offense. In 2015, UNC set school marks for points in a season (570), points per game (40.7) and Touchdowns (73). The Bulldogs' safety in the third quarter was the first safety since 2013 when UGA blocked a Louisiana-Monroe punt out of the end zone.

Nicholls 24, No. 9 Georgia 26

Sept. 10, 2016 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - After trailing 14-13 midway through the third quarter, No. 9 Georgia regained the lead and held off Nicholls to avoid an upset by a final score of 26-24 in a packed home crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium in front of a SEC network televised audience.

The 2016 home opener marked the home debut of head coach Kirby Smart and freshman quarterback Jacob Eason's first career start. Eason orchestrated a 67-yard scoring drive on the opening position that concluded with a six-yard touchdown run by junior tailback Nick Chubb.

The Colonels converted three Georgia turnovers into 17 points. Nicholls scored a touchdown in the final minute of the first half to cut the lead to 10-7 after a UGA fumble. Late in the fourth quarter, Georgia muffed a punt that led to a Colonels touchdown that brought the game within two points at 26-24 with 3:42 left to play. In the subsequent possession, Georgia was able to pick up two first downs to hold on to the victory.

The Georgia defense limited the Colonels to 236 total yards while notching two interceptions and a fumble. Georgia linebacker Lorenzo Carter returned the fumble for a touchdown after cornerback Aaron Davis knocked the ball loose from Nicholls' quarterback on a sack in the third quarter to put UGA up 26-14.

Offensively, McKenzie provided the spark for the Bulldogs as he collected 142 all-purpose yards stemming off a 66-yard touchdown reception from Eason and a 55-yard punt return that set up a 26-yard field goal in the third quarter. Eason finished with 204 yards passing and a touchdown, while Chubb totaled 80 yards on 20 carries.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It's important that we understand that our football team has to go get better. It's frustrating. A lot of guys didn't execute, didn't play well, and that's my responsibility. We've got to improve because there are good teams down the road. ... Other schools work on football, too. I'm disappointed we didn't go out and execute. We've got to perform better. We didn't perform the way we should have. It's in the books and we have to move on. They have to understand we need to practice really good to play really good. We need to practice this week with efficiency."

Lorenzo Carter's 24-yard fumble return for a touchdown gave Georgia a 26-24 lead late in the third quarter. The touchdown was his first career score while the fumble recovery was his second in a UGA uniform.

Worth Noting...

- The ninth-ranked Georgia Bulldogs defeated the Nicholls State Colonels 26-24 in the first-ever matchup between the two schools. The game marked the home debut of UGA head coach Kirby Smart. Georgia is now 2-0 in non-conference games this year.
- The Georgia defense limited the Colonels to 236 total yards on offense. Outside of an 11-play, 75-yard touchdown drive, Nicholls' longest drive was 30 yards. Nicholls scored 17 of its 24 points off of three Georgia turnovers.
- Freshman quarterback Jacob Eason notched his first career win as a starter. In the first drive, Eason led the Bulldogs on a 67-yard scoring drive capped off by a Nick Chubb touchdown that gave UGA an early 7-0 lead. In the third quarter, Eason hit Isaiah McKenzie on a 66-yard touchdown to retake the lead at 20-14. The aerial strike was the longest UGA pass play since 2013. Eason is the sixth true freshman quarterback to start a game in school history.
- The Bulldogs forced three turnovers that resulted in six points. Juwan Briscoe and Dominick Sanders snagged interceptions in the first half that didn't lead to points. In the third quarter, Aaron Davis blindsided the Nicholls' quarterback forcing a fumble that Lorenzo Carter scooped up and returned 24 yards for a touchdown.
- Nick Chubb's touchdown marked his 24th career rushing score and the the 16th game that he has recorded a rushing touchdown in his 22 career games.

No. 16 Georgia 28, Missouri 27

Sept. 17, 2016 • Faurot Field at Memorial Stadium-
Columbia, Mo.

SCORING SUMMARY

Georgia (3-0)	7	14	0	7	=	28
Missouri (1-2)	10	10	7	0	=	27

COLUMBIA, Mo. --- Jacob Eason found Isaiah McKenzie on a 4th-and-10 for a 20-yard game-winning touchdown with 1:29 left to play that pushed the No. 16-ranked Georgia Bulldogs past the Missouri Tigers 28-27 in front of a crowd of 57,098 at Faurot Field in Memorial Stadium and a SEC Network televised audience.

The Bulldogs received the ball from the Tigers with 3:41 left on the clock trailing 27-21. True freshman quarterback Eason led Georgia 90 yards down the field on 10 plays, going 3-for-8 with 43 yards and the touchdown through the air. Junior wideout McKenzie caught two balls in the final drive for 26 yards and the score.

Eason set career-highs across the board as he went 29-for-55 with 308 yards and three touchdowns. McKenzie grabbed a career-best 10 receptions for 122 yards and three scores. Georgia Nick Chubb had 63 yards on the ground on 19 carries.

The Georgia defense caused five turnovers on the day. Safety Quincy Mauger matched his career-high of two interceptions that he set vs. Mizzou in 2014. Sophomore cornerback Juwan Briscoe nabbed one interception and two fumble recoveries, both career-highs. Sophomore linebacker Natrez Patrick led the Bulldogs with nine total tackles.

The game was a tale of two halves as the first half featured a high-scoring aerial attack from both team and the second half consisted of a defensive struggle. The teams combined for 41 points and 595 total yards in the first half but the second half saw 14 points and 287 total yards.

After the game-winning touchdown, Aaron Davis stripped Mizzou's J'Mon Moore on the Tigers' first play, which was recovered by Briscoe. The Bulldogs were able to kneel the ball to expire the game clock and collect a win in their SEC season opener.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"It was a hard fought win," said Georgia head coach Kirby Smart. "Very emotional. It was a roller coaster ride. Those kids never stop believing, they never stop fighting. I feel like whenever we got control of them on offense. They slowed some things down and we were able to get the ball back. The kid really grew up tonight. The quarterback grew up a lot and became a better player."

Freshman quarterback Jacob Eason threw for 308 yards and three scores — none more important than the game-winning 4th-and-10 touchdown strike to Isaiah McKenzie with 1:29 left in the game.

Worth Noting...

- Kirby Smart became the first Georgia Head Coach to start 3-0 in their first year since Joel Hunt went 4-0 in 1938. The win marked the second fourth quarter come-from-behind victory in 2016. Georgia now leads the series against Missouri 5-1.
- Junior wideout Isaiah McKenzie had a career-night as he matched his previous career-high of 122 yards, while setting career-bests in catches with 10 and touchdowns with three (2 receiving and 1 rushing). He accounted for 166 all-purpose yards.
- Freshman quarterback Jacob Eason showcased his arm, finishing 29-for-55 for 308 yards and three touchdowns, all career-highs. The 55 pass attempts were the most since Cory Phillips went 36-for-62 vs. Georgia Tech in 2000. In his second career start, he completed passes to nine different receivers.
- The Georgia defense notched five takeaways but was unable to transform them into points. Mizzou turned Georgia's one interception into seven points. This year the Bulldogs have a +3 turnover margin but have only scored six points on eight takeaways. Quincy Mauger grabbed his sixth and seventh career interception. The second pick came at the 8:09 mark in the fourth quarter in Georgia's own end zone as the Tigers were trying to make it a two-score game.

No. 12 Georgia 14, No. 23 Ole Miss 45

Sept. 24, 2016 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium-
Oxford, Miss.

Oxford, Miss. --- The Georgia Bulldogs were handed their first loss of the season against the No. 21 Ole Miss Rebels 45-14 on Saturday at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium in front of an ESPN nationally televised audience and 65,843 attendees, second biggest in Ole Miss history.

The Rebels came out firing by putting up 31 points in the first half and the deficit proved to be too large for the Bulldogs to mount another second-half comeback. Ole Miss accumulated 510 total yards (330 through the air and 180 on the ground), while UGA managed 396 total yards with 230 rushing and 166 passing.

Bulldogs' freshman quarterback Jacob Eason went 16-for-36 for 137 yards with an interception and a fumble. Freshman tailback Brian Herrien led Georgia with 78 yards on 11 touches and two touchdowns, all career-bests. Junior tailbacks Nick Chubb and Sony Michel added 57 and 66 yards, respectively, on the ground. Michel notched a team-high 34 receiving yards on two catches.

Senior quarterback Chad Kelly led Ole Miss with 282 yards passing on two touchdowns, and he had a team-high 53 yards rushing with one touchdown. Senior tight end Evan Engram grabbed team-high six receptions for 95 yards and a touchdown.

The Bulldogs got on the board in the third quarter as they orchestrated a 75-yard, 7-play drive capped with a touchdown. Herrien had 43 yards on the drive with a 10-yard scurry to make it a 45-7 game.

At the 7:38 mark in the fourth quarter, Georgia and Herrien reached the end zone again as the tailback finished the Bulldogs' longest drive of the game (79 yards in 12 plays) with a one-yard touchdown run. Eason amassed 45 yards on 5-for-6 passing, while he added 8 yards on the ground.

Defensively, junior safety Dominick Sanders led the team with seven tackles and added a sack, while fellow safety Aaron Davis recorded an interception.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I believe in consistency and I believe in a 24-hour rule. Whether you win or lose. Good or bad. 24-hours. I want the kids to see the same me. 24-hours from now we have to move on. Unfortunately, in the SEC you get no breaks. You get no weeks off. You've got to come back and fight another day. That is the demeanor I have with the kids."

Freshman tailback Brian Herrien set career highs in carries (11), yards (78) and touchdowns (2). His touchdowns came in the second half and proved to be the only Georgia scores.

- Georgia is 3-for-4 on 4th downs this season. The Bulldogs executed their first fake punt since the 2015 Florida game, and the first successful one since the 2013 Clemson game when punter Collin Barber had a five-yard run for a first down. In the 2nd quarter, on 4th-and-8 from the UGA 40 yard line freshman punter Marshall Long completed his first career pass, a 29-yarder to Sony Michel. On 4th and 1 in the 2nd quarter, junior Nick Chubb scurried 16 yards to the Ole Miss 23, while defensive linemen Julian Rochester and John Atkins were in to block.
- Freshman tailback Brian Herrien set career-highs in carries (11), yards (78) and touchdowns (2). In the 3rd quarter, freshman Brian Herrien finished a seven play, 75-yard drive with a 10-yard touchdown run, the second of his career. Herrien scored another TD from one-yard out with 7:38 left in the game.
- The Bulldogs scored 7 points off an interception while Ole Miss scored 7 points off two UGA turnovers. The first turnover was a 52-yard pick six by Ole Miss' Derrick Jones as the Rebels took a 10-0 lead. The second came on a fumble by Jacob Eason when he was sacked at the Bulldog 32. In the following possession, UGA's Aaron Davis intercepted a Jason Pellerin pass which led to an eventual 79-yard TD drive that made it 45-14. Opponents this season have scored 31 points off seven Bulldog miscues while Georgia has converted nine turnovers into only 13 points.
- Georgia's captains were junior John Atkins (NT), junior Malkom Parrish (DB) and junior Jeb Blazevich (TE).

No. 11 Tennessee 34, No. 25 Georgia 31

Oct. 1, 2016 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. -- A wild second half led to an even wilder ending, as a No. 20 Georgia (3-2, 1-2) lead with four seconds remaining disappeared with a Tennessee Hail Mary pass giving the No. 11 Volunteers (5-0, 2-0) a 34-31 win on Saturday.

Tennessee's Joshua Dobbs launched a 43-yard throw toward the endzone with Jauan Jennings hauling it in for the game winner as time ran out. In the previous drive, Georgia used its own come-from-behind touchdown with Jacob Eason finding Riley Ridley on a 47-yard connection, giving the Bulldogs a 31-28 advantage with 10 seconds left in the contest.

Eason completed 17-of-28 passes for 211 yards, targeting Isaac Nauta with five of those throws for 83 yards. Sony Michel led the rushing attack with 91 yards on 16 carries with a touchdown while Brian Herrien added 74 yards on 15 carries.

Defensively, Natrez Patrick tallied team-high 10 tackles, including five solo stops. Aaron Davis and Maurice Smith followed with eight and seven tackles, respectively, as Smith also grabbed a late interception.

After holding the lead for most of the game, a late fumble by Georgia in its endzone allowed the Vols to recover and score for its first lead at 28-24 with less than three minutes left in the game. Starting at the Georgia 4-yard line, Eason was hit and lost the ball with Tennessee's Corey Vereen recovering for the touchdown.

The Bulldogs came out to a commanding 17-0 lead early but the Volunteers answered with a touchdown in the final minute of play in the first half and then scored on their opening possession of the second half to make it a 17-14 game.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"The kids fought hard and I'm proud of the way they played. We challenged them this week. We practiced physical and we played physical. Bottom line is we've got to do better; we've got to do better than them. ... We're a good football team, but we've got to improve. We challenged them to play their best game today and a lot of them did that. That's a response I was proud of. A lot of the kids played hard and physical. Now we've got to do it again next week."

Freshman Riley Ridley's 47-yard touchdown catch from Jacob Eason gave the Bulldogs the lead with 10 seconds remaining on the game clock. The touchdown was the first of Ridley's career.

- With No. 11 Tennessee's 34-31 comeback on the final play of the game, the Vols extend their lead in the series to 23-21-2. The last five games between the teams have been decided by a TD or less with one requiring overtime. This was the 14th time both teams came in ranked in the AP top 25, and Georgia is now 5-9 in these games.
- Georgia scored 10 points off three Vols turnovers while Tennessee scored 7 points off two Bulldog miscues. Coming into the game, the Bulldogs had scored just 13 points off nine turnovers this season.
- In the aerial attack, freshman TE Isaac Nauta had a career day with five grabs for 83 yards. He caught his first career touchdown reception on a career-long 50-yard strike from freshman QB Jacob Eason. Nauta came into the game with four catches for 32 yards.
- Freshman receiver Riley Ridley's first career catch was a 10-yard reception in the first quarter and then snatched a 47-yarder for his first career TD with 10 seconds left to give Georgia a lead.
- Nick Chubb's touchdown marked his 24th career rushing score and the 16th game that he has recorded a rushing touchdown in his 22 career games.
- Sophomore ILB Natrez Patrick finished with a career-high 10 tackles, including his second career sack and 2.5 tackles for loss. Maurice Smith, who forced and recovered a fumble, also registered a career-high seven tackles and had an interception. Sophomore DB Deandre Baker and freshman DL Julian Rochester started their first career games for the Bulldogs.

Georgia 24, South Carolina 14

Oct. 9, 2016 • Williams-Brice Stadium -
Columbia, S.C.

COLUMBIA, S.C. - An authoritative rushing attack helped Georgia (4-2, 2-2) defeat South Carolina (2-4, 1-4) by a 28-14 final score Sunday on SEC network televised audience and in front of a crowd of 77,221 at Williams-Brice Stadium.

The Bulldogs ran wild as they amassed 326 rushing yards, its largest output on the ground this season. Veteran backs Sony Michel (133 yards) and Nick Chubb (121 yards) both surpassed the 100-yard mark, while freshman Brian Herrien (82 yards) nearly hit triple digits as well.

On the defensive side, the Bulldogs limited South Carolina to 318 yards, with 164 coming on their two scoring drives. For the game, USC was held to 2-for-13 on third downs and turned the ball over three times.

Georgia started off fast, opening the game with a seven-play, 73-yard drive that ended with a Nick Chubb 15-yard touchdown. The Bulldogs tallied three runs of 15 or more yards on the opening drive.

Georgia cornerback Malkom Parrish interception a pass and the Bulldogs were able to cash-in with an eight-play, 28-yard drive that was capped off with a one-yard run from Chubb to claim a 14-0 lead that held through the end of the first half.

The Bulldogs took advantage of good field position in the fourth quarter, improved by runs of 14 and 18 yards by Herrien. Eason and Isaiah McKenzie then connected on a six-yard touchdown to put Georgia in control at 21-7 with 11:43 remaining in the contest.

The Gamecocks moved within one touchdown with 1:40 remaining, but Georgia promptly answered as Terry Godwin scooped the onside kick attempt and ran it back for a score to seal the victory.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"We certainly made it more interesting than it needed to be. We challenged them to be physical, we tried to dominate the line of scrimmage, which I really thought we tried to do well. We have got to improve how we throw and catch the ball, which to be honest, especially early in the game, there were tough conditions out there. They struggled early with it, we struggled early. But we were physical, kids played hard, very resilient guys."

Georgia's offensive line paved the way for season-high 326 rushing yards and 17 first downs picked up on the ground. Junior tailbacks Nick Chubb (121 yards) and Sony Michel (133 yards) reached the triple digits, while freshman Brian Herrien collected 82 yards rushing.

- With today's 28-14 victory, the Bulldogs owns a 49-18-2 edge in the series history. The Oct. 9 matchup is the latest the teams have faced each other since 1980 when they played on Nov. 1. Georgia won that year in Athens 13-10.
- Today marked the first time the Bulldogs have ever played a regular season game on a Sunday. Before today, Sunday was the only day of the week that Georgia had never played a regular season game. Georgia has played three bowl games on a Sunday, the most recent in 2000, the O'ahu Bowl in Hawaii, when it beat Virginia 37-14 on Christmas Eve. Today's Georgia-USC game was moved to Sunday due to Hurricane Matthew.
- Sophomore LB Roquan Smith led the Bulldogs with a career-high 11 tackles including seven solo stops. The Bulldogs had a season-high five sacks including 1.5 by junior Davin Bellamy. Coming in today, the Bulldogs had just six sacks on the year. Georgia blanked USC 14-0 in the first half. The Gamecocks ran just 22 plays and had 108 yards of total offense (20-rushing, 88-passing). Before today, the last time Georgia shutout an SEC team in the first half came in 2014 at the other Columbia as Georgia beat Missouri 34-0. That day, it was 20-0 at the half. USC finished with 318 yards of offense on 62 plays.
- Georgia tallied 326 rushing yards and that was the most by the Bulldogs since 2014 against Troy when it had 367. Junior tailback Nick Chubb (16 carries, 124 yards, 2 TDs) returned to a starting role while junior Sony Michel led the squad today with 133 yards on 21 carries. Today was the first time since the 2014 Auburn game that two Bulldogs had more than 100 yards rushing. That day, Chubb (144) and Todd Gurley (138) did it in a 34-7 win in Athens. Chubb moved in to the top five of the Bulldog record book for Career Rushing Yards on the first play from scrimmage, an 18-yard scamper that moved him past Knowshon Moreno's total of 2,734 yards from 2007-08. For his career, Chubb has 2,840 yards.

Vanderbilt 17, Georgia 16

Oct. 15, 2016 • Sanford Stadium - Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. - A fourth-quarter touchdown lifted Vanderbilt (3-4, 1-3) to a 17-16 win over Georgia (4-3, 2-3) on Saturday afternoon in a packed home crowd of 92,746 at Sanford Stadium in front of a SEC network televised audience.

With the Bulldogs up 16-10, Vandy erased the deficit, as quarterback Kyle Shurmur highlighted the drive with passes of 37 and 27 yards to set up a two-yard rushing touchdown to grab the lead with a little over nine minutes left in the game.

The Bulldogs passing game stepped up with Jacob Eason going 27-for-40 with career-high 346 yards and a touchdown. Isaac Nauta and Riley Ridley caught a team-high five passes each with Nauta collecting total of 74 yards and Ridley with 67. Redshirt freshman kicker Rodrigo Blankenship put up 10 of Georgia's points, connecting on all three of his field goal attempts, including a career-best 45 yarder, and an extra point.

The defense held the Commodores to 171 yards compared to Georgia's 421 total yards. Davin Bellamy led the unit with a career-high eight tackles, while the Bulldogs recorded five pass break-ups with Dominick Sanders getting his hands on two.

Vanderbilt started the game with a quick score, as Darrius Sims returned the game's opening kickoff 95 yards before back-to-back Georgia penalties set Vanderbilt up at the one-yard line before the punch-in into the endzone.

It was a tough day on the ground for both teams as the Commodores managed just 62 rushing yards and Georgia tallied 75 yards running the ball.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"You have to do something about it. When you get knocked down, do you get back up? How do you handle adversity? We'll see how we respond to this. As a leader, this is on me. We've got to be prepared to play the game and the better we do in practice, the better we'll do in the game. A lot of the kids played their hearts out, but we did not execute well enough to win."

Tight end Isaac Nauta received a 17-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Jacob Eason in the third quarter to put the Bulldogs up 13-10. The touchdown was Nauta's second of his career. He led the team with five receptions and 74 yards against the Commodores.

- Vanderbilt's win today snapped Georgia's streak of Homecoming victories at nine. The Commodores were the last team to beat the Bulldogs on Homecoming, doing so in 2006 by a 24-22 score. Since 1922, Georgia is now 75-18-2 in Homecoming contests. The overall series lead for the Bulldogs is now 55-20-2 against Vanderbilt.

- Sophomore PK Rodrigo Blankenship converted on a career-long 45-yard field goal to make the score 7-3 at the 4:15 mark in the first quarter. This is the longest field goal for Georgia since Marshall Morgan hit a 47-yarder versus Southern in 2015. Blankenship's 10 points was the most for a Bulldog kicker since Morgan scored 12 in the Southern game.

- Freshman QB Jacob Eason notched a career-high 346 yards and a touchdown. Freshman TE Isaac Nauta was the leading receiver with 74 yards on five catches and his second receiving touchdown of his career on a 17-yard reception in the third quarter. Freshman Riley Ridley had a career-high five catches for 67 yards, while junior receiver Javon Wims finished with three catches for 32 yards (both career highs).

- The Georgia defense held Vanderbilt to 64 yards (19 rushing, 45 passing) on 26 plays in the first half and 171 total yards on 50 plays in the game. In the first half, the Commodores scored their first touchdown and only field goal on drives that started at the UGA 2 and 27 yard line. Vanderbilt started the game with a 95-yard kickoff return and scored two plays later at the 14:38 mark.

- Georgia become first team to score early on the Gators. Coming into today, No. 14 Florida had not allowed any points in the first quarter this year and only 13 total in the 1st half. The Bulldogs put up 10 points in the first half and trailed 14-10. Entering the game, UF's scoring defense led the SEC and ranked second nationally at 12 points per game.
- Georgia's leading tacklers were sophomore cornerback Deandre Baker, making a career-high 10 stops plus his first career sack and sophomore Roquan Smith with nine tackles including a TFL. For the game, UF's average starting field position was its own 41 while Georgia's was its own 29.
- Freshman QB Jacob Eason finished 15-for-33 for 143 yards and one TD. In the second quarter, he had a six-play, 75-yard TD drive that put Georgia in front 10-7. The drive featured a 38-yard completion to sophomore Terry Godwin on 3rd and 8, which was a career long for the sophomore.
- On Florida's opening possession of the game, junior DB Dominick Sanders had a 31-yard interception return that gave Georgia the football at the UF 25. It led to a 25-yard field goal. It was the first points surrendered by the Gators in the first quarter this year. It was Sanders' second interception of the year and 11th of his career. Sanders now has 300 career INT return yards, moving him up to 3rd in school history, trailing only Jake Scott (315) and Scott Woerner (303).
- A couple of Bulldogs extended their team-leading starting streaks with center Brandon Kublanow at 33 consecutive games for the offense and cornerback Malcom Parrish at 21 in a row for the defense. Junior wide receiver Javon Wims and sophomore defensive tackle Jonathan Ledbetter made their first career starts. Ledbetter had a career-high six tackles.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. -- Georgia Bulldogs (4-4, 2-4) fell 24-10 against the 14th-ranked Florida Gators (6-1, 4-1) on Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 84,681 in Everbank Stadium and a CBS televised audience.

The game proved to be a defensive struggle as the Gators tallied 231 total yards while Georgia managed 164 total yards.

Defensively, sophomore cornerback Deandre Baker led Georgia with career-high 10 tackles and his first-career sack, while sophomore linebacker Roquan Smith followed with nine stops.

Freshman quarterback Jacob Eason went 15-for-33 on 143 yards with one touchdown. The Bulldogs leading receiver was sophomore Terry Godwin who had 57 yards on five receptions. Georgia running game was limited to 21 yards.

In the opening drive of the game, Georgia safety Dominick Sanders intercepted Florida quarterback Luke Del Rio and the Bulldogs converted the turnover into a Rodrigo Blankenship 25-yard field goal. The Gators responded with a 19-yard touchdown reception by tight end C'yonlai Lewis in the last minute of the first quarter to go up 7-3.

In the subsequent drive, Eason found freshman Riley Ridley for a 14-yard touchdown strike on 3rd-and-four to retake the lead, 10-7. The six-play, 75-yard drive included a 38-yard completion from Eason to wideout Terry Godwin followed by a Gator pass interference penalty to get inside the red zone.

Florida headed into halftime with a 14-10 lead as tailback Jordan Scarlett punched it into the end zone from two yards out with less than two minutes left in the second quarter. The Gators added two scores in the second half.

"It's hard any time the (opponents) make you one dimensional. It's hard to be successful. It's frustrating because I really thought we'd be able to run in this game. There were glimpses, but nothing consistent. When you can't run consistently, it makes you one-dimensional."

Rodrigo Blankenship's 25-yard field goal in the first quarter marked the first time Florida has surrendered points in the first quarter this season. The field goal was set up by a Dominick Sanders interception.

Worth Noting...

- With tonight's 27-24 win, it marked Georgia's seventh straight win over the Wildcats and extended the series lead to 56-12-2. Also, the Bulldogs have won their last 10 games following the annual clash against Florida in Jacksonville, including four of those now against Kentucky.
- Redshirt freshman PK Rodrigo Blankenship set career-highs by going 4-for-4 on field goals and tallying 13 total points including a game-winner from 25 yards out as time expired. He is now 9-for-10 on the year and has connected on his last eight in a row. He became the first Bulldog to hit a game-winning field goal since Marshall Morgan against Missouri last year in a 9-6 victory in Athens.
- With the game tied at 24 and 2:47 left, Georgia began its final drive at its 25 and freshman QB Jacob Eason marched the Bulldogs 67 yards on nine plays before redshirt freshman Rodrigo Blankenship nailed a game-winning 25-yard field goal, his fourth of the night. Eason went 4-for-4 for 42 yards on the drive.
- Georgia converted a two-point play from Jacob Eason to Isaac Nauta to make it 24-21 with 9:12 left. It capped a seven-play, 67-yard drive in 2:11. It marked Georgia first successful two-point conversion since the 2014 game against South Carolina (Hutson Mason pass to Michael Bennett, it closed the gap to 31-28). Earlier this year, a two-point attempt failed against Nicholls.
- Kentucky finished with 308 total yards on 61 plays against Georgia. The Wildcats had tallied 582 yards against Missouri last week and 554 versus Mississippi State in back-to-back games coming into Saturday.

Lexington, K.Y. --- The Georgia Bulldogs mounted a fourth quarter comeback to defeat the Kentucky Wildcats 27-24 on a 25-yard field goal by Rodrigo Blankenship as the time expired Saturday night at in front of a SEC Network televised audience and a crowd of 62,507 at Commonwealth Stadium in Lexington.

Georgia started the game-winning drive on its own 25-yard line with 2:27 left in the game after Kentucky hit a game-tying field goal to notch it at 24-all. Bulldog freshman quarterback Jacob Eason orchestrated the nine-play 67-yard drive by going 4-of-4 passing for 42 yards. Junior tailback Sony Michel added 22 yards on three carries.

At the 9:13 mark in the fourth quarter, Georgia seized the first lead since the opening touchdown when junior tailback Sony Michel dived to the pylon for a 26-yard touchdown run to make it 22-21. Eason found freshman tight end Isaac Nauta for the two-point conversion to make it a 24-21 advantage. The Georgia defense then halted the Wildcats' offense at the goal line resulting in the game-tying field goal.

Eason went 17-for-31 with 245 yards and 1 touchdown through the air. The Georgia ground attack was led by junior tailback Sony Michel with 127 yards, while junior wide receiver Javon Wims headed the receiving core with five catches for 90 yards, all career-highs. Wims also recorded a career-long reception in the second quarter as the 51-yard catch set up a field goal.

The Bulldogs' offense amassed 460 yards including 245 in the aerial attack and 215 on the ground. Freshman defensive lineman Julian Rochester and junior linebacker Reggie Carter led the defense with eight tackles apiece en route to holding the Wildcats' offense to 308 yards. Rochester also notched his first-career sack and forced fumble. Sophomore cornerback Deandre Baker snatched his first-career interception in the third quarter.

Coach Kirby Smart said...

"I have a lot of respect for that football team we just beat and their coach. I know a lot of people talk about them being Kentucky, but that's a good football team. They're an extremely physical football team. They know how to run the ball and they run it really well and they play really hard on defense. So, make no qualms about it, that's a good team. And I'll brag on my team a little bit: They never quit, they fight as hard as any group I've ever been around and they just challenge each other. They challenge each other on the sideline and they respond when adversity hits. I can't thank those kids enough for that because it's been tough and those guys bought in and really have done some good things. I'm proud of them."

Redshirt freshman placekicker Rodrigo Blankenship nailed a game-winning 25-yard field goal to cap a 67-yard, nine-play drive in the final seconds of the game.
