UK LOOKS TO CARRY MOMENTUM TO THE PLAINS

After an impressive all-around performance against the No. 8 LSU Tigers over the weekend in which the Wildcats swept a two-game series, outscoring LSU 6-1 and coming within five outs of a three-game sweep - Kentucky will turn the page to No. 11 Auburn in a three-game conference series this weekend.

Games one and three will be shown live on the SEC Network+, ESPN3 and the ESPN app with Saturday night's game airing live on the SEC Network with Cara Capuano (pxp) and former All-American Cheri Kempf (color) on the call from The Plains.

The Kentucky bats were scorching last week, striking for a season-high 15 runs in a midweek over Big 10 foe Indiana before a 4-1 win over LSU in which the Wildcats hit two home runs off of All-American Carley Hoover. In Sunday's 2-0 win, Brooklin Hinz had two two-out RBI singles off of Allie Walljasper to lift UK to a shutout win over the No. 8 Tigers.

Under the direction of first-year head coach Mickey Dean, Auburn is out to another fast start at 27-6 on the year and 2-4 in the SEC. After getting swept in the opening weekend of conference play at No. 8 LSU, AU responded last weekend by taking two of three at home from the Alabama Crimson Tide at Jane B. Moore Field in Auburn. The Tigers are one of the best pitching and defensive teams in the nation with a staff ERA of just 0.85 led by Kaylee Carlson, who is 13-1 with an 0.70 ERA.

Team Captains

The 2018 captains for Kentucky will be Jenny Schaper, Brooklin Hinz, Katie Reed and Erin Rethlake.

The voting process is unique, however, as all players, staff members and support staff members (ticket office, marketing, SID, field crew, office assistants, etc.) get one vote.

Coach Lawson then decides a cut-off point and those are determined as the captains.

Grabbing the Tiger by its Tail

Kentucky picked up a two-game sweep of the No. 8 LSU Tigers in its SEC home-opener. Freshman pitcher Grace Baalman and sophomore transfer Autumn Humes both picked up their first SEC wins of the season, allowing just one total run all weekend.

UK was leading 7-0 in the bottom of the fourth inning on Monday night in an attempt at a three-game sweep, but after a Carley Hoover wild pitch, the game was put into a rain delay, and since the game could not restart past 9 p.m. ET, the game was called. Since it did not reach five innings, it was a no contest and the result and stats do not count.

Baalman, Cheek SEC Players of the Week

After a 4-0 week in official games that were played this week by the Kentucky softball program, junior third baseman Abbey Cheek and freshman pitcher Grace Baalman were awarded Southeastern Conference weekly awards by the league office on Tuesday.

Cheek was named the SEC Player of the Week, hitting over .700 in the four countable games with five runs scored and six RBI. She had three multi-hit games, including three in a row against three different teams to start the week.

Baalman went the distance, allowing just two runs for her eighth win of the season. She then won her first SEC game by throwing a complete game against No. 8 LSU in Kentucky's 4-1 win over the Tigers in the first game of the sweep. Baalman did not walk a single batter against LSU on Saturday.

Campbell/Cartier Classic

Kentucky won the 2018 Campbell/Cartier Classic in San Diego by going 4-0 on the weekend with wins over SDSU, North Dakota State, and two run-rule wins over Cal State Fullerton.

Humes' First-Career Start ... No-No

Autumn Humes became the first pitcher in UK history to throw a no-hitter in her first-career start on Saturday, Feb. 17 against North Dakota State.

Her career began in a relief outing vs. New Mexico State, where she allowed seven earned runs on four hits and walked five in just two innings pitched.

She followed that up with a no-no against an NCAA Regional team from 2017, facing the minimun, walking two and striking out three in just 75 pitches.

Unlike the Wildcats on Opening Day

Kentucky opened up the season with a 12-9 loss to New Mexico State. It was the first time that:

-UK lost its season-opening game since 2012 (at UCLA)

-UK gave up double-digit runs since March 18, 2012 vs. UAB (20-7)

-UK gave up double-digit runs in back-to-back games since 2008 (March 14 vs. #1 Alabama)

John Cropp Classic Champions

Kentucky won the 2018 John Cropp Classic, sweeping through the field to go 4-0 on the weekend. The Wildcats outscored their opponents 31-7 on the weekend, and only trailed for a total of four innings.

Home Run City

The Wildcats hit 10 home runs in the opening two weekends games of the season. Three players (Katie Reed, Abbey Cheek, Jenny Schaper) had multi-HR's with Cheek delivering four and Reed/Schaper hitting two.

2017 vs. 2018 Offensive Production

Kentucky finished 172nd nationally in 2017 in runs scored. The focus in the offseason for the Wildcats was getting their offense back to a WCWS level. UK after the pre-conference slate of games ranked tied for eighth nationally in scoring (March 5), and was third in the SEC in total offense. Here are some comparison stats to the first 25 games of the 2017 season:

Offensive Statistic	2017	2018	(+/- from '17 to '18)
Team Batting Average	.299	.329	+.030
Runs Scored	106	154	+48
Home Runs	23	24	+1
RBI	94	137	+43
Hits	204	216	+12
Strikeouts by UK hitters	115	103	-12

Toughest of the Tough

The SEC is always a challenge. But, in this year's schedule rotation - Kentucky mathmatically has the toughest schedule possible. The Wildcats will face each of the top eight teams for their eight conference series. This year, the Wildcats miss out on Mississippi State, Ole Miss, Arkansas and Missouri while adding LSU, Auburn, Alabama and South Carolina back onto their schedule. All eight of UK's SEC series are currenty against a team ranked inside the top 16 of both major polls.

Running Like a Wildcat

Kentucky has stolen 48 bases tthis season. That is good enough for 24th nationally in stolen bases, and second in the SEC (Georgia). UK did set a new program record for most stolen bases through 12 games of a season (21). UK stole eight bases in the game vs. Bradley at the Citrus Classic, tying the program record for most stolen bases in a game (Samford, March 24, 1999).

Smart at the Top

When UK has a batting lineup that features Bailey Vick, Erin Rethlake, Katie Reed and Jenny Schaper as the first four batters - those four combine for a perfect 4.0 GPA in the classroom.

In the circle, UK's top three pitchers, Erin Rethlake, Grace Baalman and Autumn Humes combined with starting catcher Jenny Schaper have a combined cumulative GPA of 3.75 - truly exemplifying the meaning of a student-athlete.

Bailey Vick's 9-for-9 Day

Bailey Vick reached base in all nine of her plate appearances on Saturday, Feb. 24 vs. Bradley and Harvard at the Citrus Classic. She went for four singles and five walks. She also scored four runs – and the game-winning run in the first game of the day against Bradley.

Perfect at Home

Kentucky is a perfect 10-0 at John Cropp Stadium this season, outscoring its opponents 68-17 in those games. UK won the John Cropp Classic in the opening weekend of home play, and opened SEC home action with a two-game sweep of No. 8 LSU.

NCAA RPI

UK opened the season as the No. 27 team in the initial release of the NCAA Ratings Percentage Index.

Hitten' Kittens

You might notice that all UK players that get on base after a hit tap their helmets. This is a sign to the dugout that they are "hitten' kittens" so the two hands on top are to be cat ears.

Seventh-Inning Power

UK has scored 19 runs in the seventh inning, while allowing just six runs to its opponents this year in that inning. UK now has a +/- in the green for all seven innings this year. Florida scored six runs in the top of the first on UK on March 9, which is the most scored in a single inning vs. Kentucky since 2012.

2nd: (+19)
3rd: (+6)
4th: (+18)

HR's Are Cheeky

Abbey Cheek became the quickest player in school history to reach 25 career home runs, reaching the mark in her 121st career game played at Kentucky. Brittany Cervantes, the previous record holder, reached 25 career home runs in her 127th career game played.

Cheek's first HR vs. New Mexico State on Sunday in game three of the series was the 25th of her career. She eclipsed the mark of 25 two at-bats later with her 26th-career long ball.

Who Coaches Where on Offense?

On third base - Kristine Himes (8th year)

Potent Offense

Kentucky's 25 runs scored in their first three games of the season is the second-most in school history. The 2007 team scored 34 runs in their first three games of the season.

Kentucky's four home runs on Sunday vs. New Mexico State in the 10-2 win were their most in a non-conference road game since Feb. 28, 2015 at Tennessee Tech (four).

Wildcats Dominate Hoosiers

Kentucky scored six runs in the first inning and seven runs in the second inning - the two highest-scoring innings of the season for the Wildcats en route to a 15-2 win over Indiana on March 14.

The 15 runs scored was the most runs scored in any game for UK since March of 2013 when UK scored 18 in an 18-1 win over North Carolina at John Cropp Stadium.

Baalman on the Ball

Grace Baalman threw a complete-game shutout in her first-career start on the road at San Diego State in a 5-0 win over the Aztecs. She became the first UK pitcher since 2013 (Katie Henderson) to throw a complete-game shutout in her first-career start for the Wildcats.

She threw in all five games of the Diamond 9 Citrus Classic in Orlando earning three back-to-back-to-back wins in the circle, finishing the weekend with a 3-0 reccord and a 1.12 ERA.

In her first-career SEC start at #2 Florida, she took the lead going into the bottom of the seventh, but UF won the game on a walk-off single from Kayli Kvistad, 3-2.

Reed Named All-SEC Preseason

Katie Reed was named to the 2018 Southeastern Conference Preseason Team, it was announced on Wednesday morning. The honor is voted upon by the 13 head coaches in the SEC.

Reed was named the third National Fastpitch Coaches' Association All-American in program history a season ago, hitting .353 at the plate, and living up to the hype defensively – with the best fielding percentage of all SEC shortstops. The St. Louis, Mo., native made SportsCenter's "Top 10" on two occasions last year, including during the 2017 NCAA Regionals in the regional final against Illinois.

Doing What it Takes

Not only was 2017 a banner year for the Kentucky softball team on the field – but it was another strong year off the field as well for the Wildcats, who earned the 2017 Easton/NFCA Division I All-Academic honor.

Under the direction of team academic advisor, Amy Craiglow, the Wildcats earned a 3.425 GPA which was the second-highest in all of the Southeastern Conference – and in the top 40 nationally. The team GPA of a 3.425 was the second-highest among female sports at UK for the spring semester of 2017.

Shining in the Spotlight

The SEC Network and its corporate partners at ESPN announced that the Kentucky softball team will be featured on national television 12 times in 2018, setting a new program record. Seven of the 12 games will be home games originating from John Cropp Stadium in Lexington.

The SEC Network, ESPN, ESPN2 and ESPNU will combine to televise over 650 softball games this season including every pitch of the 2018 SEC Tournament and the Women's College World Series from Hall of Fame Stadium in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

All games that are featured on ESPN, ESPN2 and the SEC Network can be seen live on mobile devices and tablets through ESPN3 and the WatchESPN app.

Scouting Auburn

Under the direction of first-year head coach Mickey Dean, Auburn is out to another fast start at 27-6 on the year and 2-4 in the SEC. After getting swept in the opening weekend of conference play at No. 8 LSU, AU responded last weekend by taking two of three at home from the Alabama Crimson Tide at Jane B. Moore Field in Auburn. The Tigers are one of the best pitching and defensive teams in the nation with a staff ERA of just 0.85 led by Kaylee Carlson, who is 13-1 with an 0.70 ERA.

Offensivley, Auburn as a team is hitting .309 led by Victoria Draper, who is at .448 and nine RBI with just shy of 40 base hits.

HEAD COACH RACHEL LAWSON (11TH SEASON)

When Rachel Lawson was named head coach of the University of Kentucky softball team in July 2007 she saw a program poised for success. She knew athletics director Mitch Barnhart and the rest of UK's administration would give her unwavering support, and most importantly she knew the Big Blue Nation would provide the home-field advantage necessary for her team to compete in the Southeastern Conference.

Entering her 11th season as UK's head coach in 2018, Lawson's vision for the UK softball program has started to become a realization. The winningest head coach in program history has not only lead UK to its first-ever appearance in the Women's College World Series, five NCAA Super Regionals the lastsix seasons, including a program-best 50 wins in 2014, but UK's administration come through on their promise and commitment to softball by providing Lawson with one of the nation's greatest collegiate softball facilities in the $9.5 million John Cropp Stadium.

She became the first coach in program history to eclipse 300 wins at Kentucky against Ole Miss on March 19 in a 3-1 win at John Cropp Stadium in Lexington.

Lawson and Co. have made sure the beautiful stadium has seen lots of wins over the past few seasons as UK had had some of its three most successful seasons in program history each of the last four years. In 2014, Lawson guided Kentucky to the Women's College World Series behind 50 wins. The Wildcats also set single-season records in at-bats, runs scored, doubles, home runs, RBI, total bases, walks, fielding percentage, putouts, lowest ERA and strikeouts. UK, which advanced to the program's first SEC Tournament Championship, started the season with a program-best 12 straight wins.

Four of the last five seasons, Lawson has led the Wildcats to a national seed in the NCAA Tournament. The school's first-ever national seed was in 2013 - and UK hosted an NCAA Regional for the first time ever. Kentucky, which has made the NCAA Tournament each of the last nine seasons, is one of just 18 schools nationally to claim that honor.

Lawson helped guide Kentucky to its best regular season in program history in 2016, winning 43 games in the regular season, ending with a No. 9 national seed in the NCAA Tournament, a new program best. The Wildcats earned the right to host the NCAA Tournament for the third time in the last four seasons at John Cropp Stadium in Lexington. Lawson was named the 2016 SEC Coach of the Year, and joined Kelsey Nunley (SEC Pitcher of the Year) as the first two Kentucky winners of those awards.

The 2016 team finished with some of the best pitching numbers in program history, setting school records in the circle for lowest team ERA (1.71), lowest opponent batting average (.191), fewest runs allowed (130), fewest earned runs allowed (98), fewest hits allowed (280) and fewest doubles allowed (44)

Now entering her 11th season in 2018, Lawson has won 451 career games at the head of the dugout and has earned her first-career NFCA First Team All-American in 2016 when Kelsey Nunley was named to the elite squad as a pitcher. Nunley became the second All-American in program history (Molly Johnson, 2nd Team), and the first to be named to the First Team. Katie Reed was named an NFCA All-American in 2017, for two in two years.

Sitting at 361-232 in her 10 seasons at Kentucky, Lawson is the winningest head coach in school history and already has more wins in SEC play than UK had all told as a program when she took over in 2007. UK finished the 2014 season ranked sixth in both national listings for its best final ranking ever. In 2013, Kentucky was ranked in the top 14 of both collegiate softball rankings for the second time in school history with nine wins over ranked teams. In her 10 seasons at Kentucky, Lawson has defeated over 75 ranked foes, including 42 wins vs. top-10 teams and 27 against top-five teams. UK has made the Super Regionals in four of the last five seasons.

Lawson's 2013 squad set the stage for the 2014 run to the Women's College World Series, setting several school records, including a then-program record 41 wins. All told, Lawson has directed the Wildcats to 30 or more victories in nine-straight seasons, which also resonates as a program record. In her 10 years with Kentucky, Lawson has helped UK players earn 37 All-SEC honors and 25 SEC Player of the Week honors.

Lawson's impact on the UK program is obviously, but her ability to develop players sometimes gets overshadowed by her impressive credentials in handling the day-to-day running of a program. Lawson, who serves as the pitching coach for the Wildcats, has guided three different pitchers to throw no-hitters against top-25 teams in just the last four seasons alone. In all, UK has 17 career no-hitters - all of which have come under Lawson's tenure - including two perfect games.

Kentucky's 2012 season was highlighted by an impressive second-half surge with upsets of 12 ranked opponents, a then Lawson-best fifth place finish in SEC action, a program-record six captured conference series and a senior class who became the first class in school history to tally a .500 record or better in each of their four seasons of play.

The end of the 2012 season also marked the conclusion of some of the best individual careers in UK history as Lawson helped pitcher Chanda Bell become the first player in school history to record 200-plus strikeouts all four seasons, while slugger Brittany Cervantes is the school's leading home run hitter. Pitcher/infielder Rachel Riley also excelled under Lawson, ranking top 10 in school history in field percentage and nearly every pitching category.

In 2011, Lawson directed the Wildcats to their first NCAA Super Regional appearance and finished the season ranked No.12 in the country. The 2011 team earned a 40-16 overall record to set a new single-season standard for wins in a season before Lawson's 2013 team posted 41. UK appeared in the national rankings for a school-record 14 consecutive weeks, defeated 12 top-25 ranked opponents, captured five SEC series and became a national story with a dramatic postseason run which included a seventh-inning rally to knock off the nation's No. 2 team in Michigan in Ann Arbor to advance to Super Regionals.

The 2011 Wildcats shattered 12 single-season UK records, including home runs (65), RBI (275) and batting average (.275). Individually, the Wildcats had a school-record five players earn National Fastpitch Coaches Association All-Region honors in Meagan Aull, Cervantes, Kara Dill, Riley and Megan Yocke. Following the end of the impressive 2011 season, Lawson was rewarded with a five-year contract extension keeping her at the helm of the Wildcat program through 2016. That contract has been extended several times since, including June of 2014, which keeps Lawson in UK blue through the 2020 season.

In 2010, the Wildcats charted a 32-27 record and entered into the national rankings for the first time in program history, while also knocking off five top-seven ranked opponents on the year. Behind the pitching tandem of sophomores Riley and Bell, the Wildcats broke school records in nearly every pitching category. Kentucky's offense continued to make strides as well with improvements in batting average, home runs, RBI and sacrifice hits for the third consecutive season under the direction of Law-

HEAD COACH RACHEL LAWSON (11TH SEASON)

Lawson's impact on the program was immediate as many Wildcats broke into the school record books under her tutelage. Pitcher Amber Matousek became the first pitcher in 10 years to record 10 or more strikeouts in a game when the sophomore right-hander achieved the feat three times in the season. Johnson set the school record for most doubles (20) in a season, while rocketing up the school charts for career home runs, doubles, batting average, slugging percentage and on-base percentage.

During the season the head coach also charted her 100th career victory in a 5-1 UK triumph over Eastern Illinois on March 1. Lawson became the winningest head coach in program history on April 10, 2013 with win No. 182 against Eastern Kentucky in Richmond, Ky.

Lawson became just the third head coach in the history of the Kentucky softball program after spending three seasons at Western Kentucky. She also served as an assistant coach at Maryland from 1996-2002 and was the associate head coach of the Philadelphia Force professional team in 2006.

Lawson tallied a record of 92-84 (.523) during her tenure with the Hilltoppers. In her first season at WKU, she led the Toppers to a spot in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship game. Picked to finish last in the preseason poll, WKU tied for second in the conference standings after setting a school record with 12 Sun Belt victories. The Billings, Mont., native led WKU to a 33-24 record in 2005 and reached the 30-win plateau again in 2007.

Lawson and the Hilltoppers battled nine NCAA Regional participants in 2006, including four teams ranked in the top 25, while finishing third in the Sun Belt regular-season play. She guided the squad to wins over perennial powers Long Beach State, South Florida, Mississippi Valley, as well as No. 13 Louisiana-Lafayette and No. 21 Louisville. In fact, then-freshman pitcher Ryan Rogge tossed the school's third no hitter against the Ragin' Cajuns in WKU's 8-0 victory.

The win handed UL its first run-rule defeat in an SBC contest. Three Hilltoppers - Lathrop, Rolfs and Rogge - each earned SBC Player- and Pitcher-of-the-Week honors throughout the season, as Rolfs and outfielder Alana Towns notched all-conference honors.

Lawson was a two-time all-conference player at Massachusetts, where she was part of a program that advanced to the 1992 Women's College World Series, and has seven years experience as an assistant coach at Maryland.

During her four-year career at UMass, Lawson helped the Minutewomen post a combined record of 142-68 (67.6 percent) including a 39-3 (92.9 percent) Atlantic 10 mark. In addition to the 1992 WCWS appearance, she was a part of squads that also advanced to the NCAA Tournament her freshman season, won three A-10 Tournament titles and claimed the league regular-season championship four straight years.

Lawson was honored individually for her accomplishments on and off the field. She was both an All-Conference and All-Atlantic 10 Tournament performer in 1992 and 1994, and was also named to the A-10 Academic all-conference squad following each of her final two seasons.

Lawson joined the Maryland staff in 1996 and helped the Terrapins post six winning seasons in her seven years in College Park. Her responsibilities included recruiting, scheduling, organizing practice and travel, as well as running camps and clinics. In 1999, Lawson and company were selected the National Fastpitch Coaches Association Mid-Atlantic Coaching Staff of the Year after leading the Terrapins to a 51-23 record, their first ACC regular-season title and the championship game of the NCAA Region II Tournament.

During her time at Maryland, Lawson helped eight individuals earn NFCA all-region accolades -- with an All-America honoree in 1999 -- and nine players collected all-conference honors.

A 1994 graduate of Massachusetts with a degree in exercise science, Lawson also earned her master's degree in sports management from UMass in 1998. She is the daughter of Elaine and Gerald Lawson and has 12 siblings.
