CLINT MYERS » HEAD COACH

With the reputation of taking a program and turning it into a perennial power, head coach Clint Myers has taken Auburn softball to unprecedented heights in just three years.

Myers has guided the Tigers to back-to-back Women's College World Series appearances in the past two campaigns, when the previously best finish came with a showing at a regional final in 2006.

Since his appointment following the 2013 season, Auburn has broken 21 records, including 16 on offense, and led the nation in a plethora of categories.

Myers has coached nine All-Americans, with three coming in each of his seasons on The Plains. Before his arrival, the Tigers had five players who were tabbed All-Americans in the previous 17 campaigns.

In comparison with rivals in the conference, Myers has coached nine All-SEC performers, even setting a program record with four in 2015. Between 1997-2013, Auburn had never placed multiple players on the all-conference team lists. Since then, the Tigers have had three, four and two representatives in successive years under Myers.

As impressive as Myers' teams have been on the field, the program has taken a giant leap forward off of it.

Under Myers, Auburn has placed three on Academic All-America and Academic All-District lists, something that had never been done previously. In 2016, the Tigers had 24 honorees on the Academic All-SEC list. Kasey Cooper also became the first player in softball history to be named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and the NCAA Elite 90 winner.

A 1976 graduate of Arizona State, Myers was a member of the Sun Devil baseball team from 1970-73 and played on the College World Series runner-up squads in 1972 and 1973. He was later selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the third round of the 1973 Major League Draft.

Myers and his wife, Katie, have two sons, Casey and Corey. They also have three grandchildren; grandsons, Cole and Christian, and granddaughter, Carlee.

INSIDE THE SERIES: GEORGIA

» The Tigers and Bulldogs have squared off 54 times in series history, with Georgia holding a 35-19 advantage overall. Since head coach Clint Myers took over in 2014, however, Auburn boasts a 5-2 record and has won the last five matchups.

A SERIES WIN BY AUBURN WOULD...

» A series win by Auburn would give the Tigers their second consecutive series win over Georgia and their sixth overall. The last time Auburn defeated Georgia in a series on the road came in 2001 when the Tigers outscored the Bulldogs 12-3 over a three-game span.

PERFECT PERFORMANCE

» Junior pitcher Kaylee Carlson tossed the second perfect game in program history (and first since Holly Currie in 2005) against Ohio State. In the contest, Carlson threw just 66 pitches (41 strikes) and threw a first-pitch strike to all 18 batters she faced. The Garden Grove, Calif. native never reached a 3-ball count in the outing.

IN GOOD COMPANY

» Senior Kasey Cooper became the second player in SEC history to reach 250 hits and 250 RBI in a career, joining Charlotte Morgan of Alabama. Cooper, who has 254 RBI, needs just 11 RBI to break the SEC record of 264 in a career, currently held by the aforementioned Morgan.

A CLASS OF HER OWN

» Senior Kasey Cooper was selected as a candidate for the Senior CLASS Award. The annual award is given to the player who excels in community, classroom, character and competition.

ROAD WARRIORS

» In the last three seasons, Auburn has put an emphasis on winning games away from home. Since 2015, the Tigers are 60-18 away from Jane B. Moore Field, good for a winning percentage of .769. Over that span, Auburn has amassed 600 hits, averaging 7.7 per game, and has scored 473 runs. The Tigers have also touted a .491 slugging clip by way of 103 doubles, 13 triples and 92 roundtrippers. In the circle, the pitching staff has totaled 290 strikeouts in 492.2 innings and allowed only 184 earned runs in that time frame to go along with 15 shutouts.
