Auburn begins outdoor season at Texas Relays and Yellow Jacket Invite Auburn will split its opening weekend of the outdoor season as it will send a group to the 87th annual Clyde Littlefield Texas Relays beginning on Wednesday. The Tigers will send another group to Atlanta for the Yellow Jacket Invite, which begins on Friday.

Tigers on TV

For the third year in a row, the Longhorn Network will provide extensive coverage of the 87th annual Clyde Littlefield Texas Relays. This year, 17 hours of action will be available during the four days of the Relays. ESPN's Dave LaMont will provide play-by-play throughout the meet, with Larry Rawson, an Emmy Award-winning track and field sportscaster, and Dwight Stones, track and field Olympian, serving as analysts. Former NCAA All-America athlete and radio host Sean Adams will serve as a reporter.

Top Returners from 2013 Outdoor Season

The Tigers return three athletes who competed at the 2013 NCAA Indoor Championships in senior Keenan Brock, who was a member of the 4x100 that finished third, senior Marcus Popenfoose, who placed 16th in the shot put and junior Valentina Muzaric, who finished 7th in the shot put.

NCAA Indoor Championships Recap

Auburn women's track and field team finished tied for 12th, its highest finish since 2010, with 16 points at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships on Saturday behind second place finishes from junior Valentina Muzaric and freshman Marshay Ryan in the shot put and triple jump, respectively. The finishes are the highest by a female athlete since 2010 when Nivea Smith placed second in the 200m. Muzaric is the first Auburn female athlete to score in the shot put, while Ryan's finish is the highest by a triple jumper since Elva Goulbourne won the event in 2003. Muzaric broke her school record in the second round of throws with a distance of 58-8.5/17.89m. Muzaric claims the nine longest throws in school history in the shot put. The Velika Gorkia, Croatia native was defeated by Iowa State's Christina Hillman, who had a distance of 18.15m. Ryan broke the Auburn freshman record in the fifth round of jumps as the Chambersburg, Pa., native recorded a distance of 44-0.5/13.42m, besting Shelly-Ann Gillimore's record of 43-11.5 set in 2000. San Diego State's Shanika Thomas won the event with a 13.97m.

Tyson Invitational and Iowa State Classic Recap

Auburn track and field split in its final regular season meets sending the majority of the team to the Tyson Invitational in Fayetteville, Ark., and a distance group to Ames, Iowa for the Iowa State Classic. At the Tyson Invitational, sophomore pole vaulter Jessie Johnson tied her school record clearance at 13-1.50/4.00m. Junior thrower Valentina Muzaric claimed the school's third-longest
