SHUMPERT SHINES

■ Although an ankle injury sidelined starting running back and Doak Walker award candidate LaDarius Perkins against Alcorn State, production in the backfield didn't falter.

True freshman Ashton Shumpert paced the Bulldogs' ground attack with 98 yards in his collegiate debut.

Not since Anthony Dixon in 2006 has a true freshman led Mississippi State in rushing.

Nationally, Shumpert is one of five true freshmen FBS running backs to score twice in their 2013 collegiate debut and one of only two to rush for 90-plus yards.

TYLER RUSSELL CLIMBING MSU CAREER PASSING CHARTS

■ With his 10-of-16 passing performance in the season opener against Oklahoma State for 133 yards, senior quarterback and Maxwell Award candidate Tyler Russell moved up in MSU career passing charts.

He's now fifth in career yards with 4,699 as he moved past John Bond, while standing tied for fourth (Tony Shell) with 349 completions.

Heading into the Auburn game, he remains one touchdown pass shy of tying Derrick Taite's record of 38.

ATTACKING THE SWAC

■ With the 51-7 win against Alcorn State, MSU improved to 4-0 all-time against teams from the SWAC.

In those four outings, MSU has scored 45-plus points each time and is averaging 50.3 points, while winning by an average margin of 40.5 points.

DEFENSE IN THE FIRST QUARTER PROVING TO BE STINGY

■ In the Bulldogs' first two games, the defense has been overwhelming in the first quarter.

In the two games combined, MSU has yielded zero points, just four first downs and 62 yards of offense, while forcing five punts.

In additions, foes have converted just 2-of-9 third-down opportunities.

SKINNER LEADING THE WAY DEFENSIVELY

■ Butkus Award Watch List selection Deontae Skinner has led the Bulldogs in tackles both games this year.

After totaling 10 tackles against Oklahoma State, he was credited with five against Alcorn State.

He also recorded an interception, which thwarted the Braves' opening drive. That pick led to MSU's first touchdown of the season, an 11-yard run by quarterback Dak Prescott.

MILTON ADDS TO HIS TD TOTAL

■ Sophomore running back Derrick Milton scored two touchdowns against Alcorn State, marking the first time in his career he's scored more than once.

He has now found the end zone four times as a Bulldog, three on the ground. Against the Braves, he scored his first receiving TD, a 14-yard pass from Dak Prescott in the second quarter for a 14-0 advantage.

VIRGES CREDITED WITH FIRST SACK

■ Junior defensive lineman Curtis Virges recorded a sack in the first quarter, ending a 10-quarter drought for the MSU defense.

MSU also recorded five quarterback hurries to bring its season total to nine, for an average of 4.5 an outing. Last year, State averaged 2.1 QBH.

A CLOSER LOOK AT THE AUBURN SERIES

■ Mississippi State and Auburn are meeting for the 87th time on Saturday. The Tigers are the Bulldogs' fourth-most common foe.

MSU has played Ole Miss (109) the most, followed by LSU (106) and Alabama (97).

Mississippi State and Auburn have met each year since 1955.

In Starkville, the Tigers lead the series 12-5-1 while also holding a 27-6 advantage on the Plains.

MSU AVOIDS 0-2 START WITH WIN AGAINST ALCORN STATE

■ With the Alcorn State win, MSU avoided an 0-2 start for seventh-straight year.

The last time MSU started 0-2 start was in 2006.

In the last 30 years, MSU has started 0-2 just three times.

HOLLOWAY SOLID ON SPECIAL TEAMS

■ Freshman Brandon Holloway had just one kickoff return Saturday, but he made it count.

Holloway opened the second half with a 95-yard return to the Alcorn State 1. The drive culminated three plays later with a TD by Ashton Shumpert.

THREE BULLDOGS SELECTED IN 2013 NFL DRAFT

■ Last April, Mississippi State had three players selected in the NFL draft for the second-straight year.

Leading the way was Darius Slay in the second round with the 36th pick by the Detroit Lions. Also in the second round, Johnthan Banks, the Jim Thorpe Award winner went to Tampa Bay with the 43rd overall pick.

In the fifth round, Josh Boyd was taken by the Green Bay Packers with the 167th pick.

Under Dan Mullen, the Bulldogs have had 12 players drafted.

FEWER FLAGS A WELCOMED IMPROVEMENT

■ After being flagged 11 times for 74 yards in Houston against Oklahoma State, the Bulldogs were penalized just three times for 25 yards against Alcorn State.

MSU is currently 11th in the SEC with 49.5 penalty yards a game.

BULLDOGS PLACE FIVE PLAYERS ON SEC COACHES' ALL-SEC TEAM

■ Mississippi State had five players named to the 2013 SEC Coaches' Preseason All-SEC Team.

Offensive guard Gabe Jackson from Liberty, Miss., represented the Bulldogs on the first team.

Featured on the second team was senior running back LaDarius Perkins of Greenville, Miss. Last year, Perkins became the ninth player in school history to rush for 1,000 yards in a single season with 1,024.

Making third team were seniors Denico Autry (DE) and Nickoe Whitley (S) and sophomore Benardrick McKinney (LB).

McKinney earned freshman All-American honors in 2012 after finishing 6th in the SEC with 102 stops.

BULLDOGS WELCOME NEW ASSISTANT COACHES

■ After a year of very little change in the coaching staff, Dan Mullen had to make three changes this offseason.

Joining his staff is receivers coach Billy Gonzales, who came to MSU after spending one year at Illinois and two seasons at LSU.

Also new is Deshea Townsend, a two-time Super Bowl champion who was an assistant with the Arizona Cardinals the past two years.

Additionally, David Turner joins the staff as the defensive line coach after three years at Kentucky.

THREE WITH DEGREES

■ Mississippi State currently has three players on its roster who have already graduated — P Baker Swedenburg, S Nickoe Whitley and OL Blaine Clausell.

DEFENSE SOLID IN OPENER AGAINST OSU

■ Last season, Oklahoma State finished third in the FBS in scoring at 46.0 points. But against the Bulldogs, the Cowboys managed just 21.

MSU also held OSU scoreless in the first quarter, marking the first time in 35-consecutive quarters it failed to score.

In the first half alone, Mississippi State forced Oklahoma State to punt four times. The Cowboys' six total punts were their most since punting six times against Missouri in 2011, a span of 20 games.

Freshman Brandon Holloway returned this kickoff 95 yards to set up Mississippi State's first touchdown of the second half in the Bulldogs' 51-7 win against Alcorn State at Davis Wade Stadium.

HEAD COACH • FIFTH SEASON

In his fifth season, Dan Mullen has revitalized and reenergized the Mississippi State fan base. From the moment of his introduction on Dec. 10, 2008, as the 32nd head coach in school history, supporters have turned out in record numbers and capacity crowds to support the Bulldogs.

Mississippi State fans have sold out a school-record 24 consecutive home games at Davis Wade Stadium. Each of the last three years has seen the school's attendance record broken. In fact, 19 of the school's Top 20 crowds have occurred in the last four seasons, with all seven crowds in 2012 ranking in the Top 25 all-time. The Bulldog faithful have gone on to watch the head coach lead the Maroon and White's football program to three-straight postseason bowl wins for the second time in the 113-year history of the program.

Just four years into his tenure, Mullen (.566) owns the highest winning percentage as a coach at State since the late Darrell Royal in 1954-55 (.600), and is already fourth in school history for wins by a MSU head coach (30). On top of that, Mullen has dominated the Egg Bowl rivalry (3-1), becoming just the second MSU coach and the first since Sid Robinson from 1917-19 to start off 3-0 against Ole Miss.

Mullen was widely regarded as one of the top young minds in college football when he arrived at Mississippi State, and he brought not only an impressive offensive resume and a list of NFL-developed quarterbacks, but also an energy and passion for the college game.

Improvement wasn't limited to fan enthusiasm, as Mullen ignited the Bulldogs to a nine-win season in just his second year, and then another successful season in 2011. With Mullen's masterful offensive mind, the Maroon and White broke the school record for six different offensive categories in 2012, including passing touchdowns in a season (28) and scoring (383).

In 2010, State won six games in a row in the middle of the season and finished among the Top 10 in school history in the following categories - passing yardage, completion percentage, passing touchdowns, rushing attempts, rushing yards, rushing touchdowns, total plays, total offensive yards, per-game offense and first downs. The defense also amassed the 10th-highest sack total in school annals.

The 2010 Bulldogs closed out the season with nine victories after posting the largest margin of victory in a bowl game in school history. The resounding 52-14 Gator Bowl win against Michigan capped a truly remarkable year.

With the nation's toughest schedule in 2009, State's rushing attack, led by first-team all-Southeastern Conference selection and current NFL running back Anthony Dixon, finished ninth nationally with a 227.6 rushing yard average per game. State averaged 371.9 yards of total offense per game, the ninth-highest total in school history and the most since 2000 at the time.

Mullen's first season concluded with a rousing 41-27 victory against MSU's in-state rival, which brought the Golden Egg back to Starkville. He became the only third Mississippi State coach to win his Egg Bowl debut since 1939, joining Allyn McKee and Jackie Sherrill. The Bulldogs posted a 5-7 overall record in 2009, including three road victories.

During the previous four seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Florida, Mullen molded a Heisman Trophy, Davey O'Brien and Maxwell Award-winning quarterback, along with a Rimington Trophy finalist and a Biletnikoff Award semifinalist.

In 2008, Mullen's offensive attack ranked third nationally in scoring - averaging better than 45 points per game as the Gators scored at least 30 points in 12-of-13 games. The 587 points scored eclipsed the previous Florida mark, set in 1996.

Florida rushed for a school-record 41 touchdowns that season and UF's 80 rushing touchdowns over the two seasons ranked second nationally. Overall, Florida's rushing yardage of 2,987 ranked ninth nationally in 2008 and was the third-highest total in school history.

Seven offensive players were recognized as All-Southeastern Conference selections following the season in which Mullen helped UF claim its second SEC Championship and a chance to play for its second national championship in three seasons.

The Gator offense ranked first in the SEC in scoring offense and total offense for a second-straight season in 2008, averaging 45.2 points and 442.4 yards per game. Under Mullen's tutelage in 2007, UF averaged 42.5 points and 457.2 yards.

In 2007, Mullen directed the Gator offense to the third-highest point total ever by a UF unit and the top single-season marks for rushing touchdowns and third-down conversion percentage. Florida's offense scored 75 touchdowns, second most in the SEC.

Mullen orchestrated a UF attack that was the only one in the nation to have rushed for a touchdown and passed for a touchdown in every game during the season. He also helped UF score on 83-of-152 drives in 2007 for a league-best 54.6 percent, marking the best number since the stat was tracked by the SEC in 2000. Florida additionally averaged 7.0 yards per play that year, the fourth-best total in the nation. Lastly, the Gators averaged 5.3 yards per rush, the second-best number in school history.

In 2007, Mullen helped coach sophomore quarterback and current NFL star Tim Tebow into a Heisman Trophy, Maxwell and Davey O'Brien award winner, 78th Sullivan Award winner and AP first-team All-American among other honors.

He also tutored six offensive players to the All-SEC team: Tebow, NFL Pro Bowler Percy Harvin, Cornelius Ingram, Brandon James, Jim Tartt and Drew Miller.

In Florida's 2006 national championship, Mullen oversaw an offense that averaged 29.7 points and 396.1 yards per game. In the BCS National Championship Game, he engineered an attack that produced 41 points against a top-ranked Ohio State squad that was limiting opponents to less than 11 points per game on the year. Under Mullen's tutelage, quarterback Chris Leak opened the contest by going 9-for-9 for 99 yards and a touchdown en route to earning Offensive MVP honors.

The 2006 Gator offense posted 76 plays of 20 yards or more, 19 of which went for touchdowns. Florida passed for 29 touchdowns in 2006, while Leak ranked among the national leaders with 23 scoring tosses. Tebow matched UF's then single-season record for rushing touchdowns by a quarterback with eight scores, and his 5.3 yards per carry average placed second nationally among signal callers. Six different players averaged at least 5.0 yards per carry.

In 2005, Chad Jackson played his way to Biletnikoff Award semifinalist status after matching the UF single-season record with 88 receptions, a figure that led the SEC and finished sixth nationally. Center Mike Degory was also named a finalist for the Rimington Trophy, given annually to the nation's top center, during that campaign. Both earned first-team All-SEC honors.

Mullen went to Florida from Utah with Head Coach Urban Meyer, with whom he had spent 10 seasons. While the quarterbacks coach at Utah, Mullen developed current NFL star Alex Smith - the first overall selection in the 2005 NFL Draft - from a pocket passer into an efficient executor of the spread, making him one of the most versatile threats in college football. Smith took over the starting job three games into Mullen's tenure, passing for 2,247 yards and running for 452 to finish second in the Mountain West in total offense in 2003.

The 2004 campaign saw Smith earn National Player of the Year honors from The Sporting News and Sports Illustrated, while also becoming Utah's first-ever Heisman Trophy finalist. Smith also garnered final consideration for the Davey O'Brien and Walter Camp National Player of the Year Awards. Smith passed for 2,952 yards and 32 touchdowns and ran for 631 yards and 10 scores on the year, ranking second in the nation with a 176.5 efficiency rating and leading the Utes to a perfect 12-0 season and a Fiesta Bowl championship. As a team, Utah finished the 2004 season third in the nation in scoring offense (45.3) and total offense (499.8).

Prior to his stint at Utah, Mullen served as quarterbacks' coach at Bowling Green for two seasons, putting up 6,627 yards of total offense and scoring 81 touchdowns during that span. In 2002, quarterback Josh Harris threw for 2,425 yards, ran for 737 yards and completed the campaign as the nation's third-leading scorer. Mullen spent the two years before his Bowling Green stint as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, and before that assisted with Syracuse's 1998 BIG EAST championship and Orange Bowl run.

A two-year starter at tight end for Ursinus College in Collegeville, Pa., Mullen earned first-team All-Centennial Conference honors as a senior. He is married to the former Megan West, and the couple has two children, Canon and Breelyn Elisabeth.

GAME RECAP ...

STARKVILLE, Miss. - Dan Mullen's "To Do" list got a tad bit shorter Saturday. Where it says "Beat Auburn," there's now a check mark.

In front of another sellout crowd of 56,111 at Scott Field, the ninth largest in stadium history, Mississippi State erased four years of frustration against the Tigers with a solid 28-10 victory.

For Mullen, it was his first win against Auburn in six tries, dating back to his time as an assistant at Florida.

Credit the defense.

In a performance that was nothing short of dominating, MSU (2-0), which has now outscored its two opponents 84-19, held the Tigers (0-2) to just 216 yards of total offense while forcing five turnovers. Johnthan Banks accounted for two of the miscues with interceptions to give him 14 for his career, the most among active FBS players.

MSU defenders also recorded eight tackles behind the line of scrimmage, including four by Corey Broomfield. Cameron Lawrence paced the defensive attack with 10 tackles, six solo. He also had one of the Bulldogs' two sacks, while Preston Smith was credited with the other.

And no one felt the brunt of the staunch defensive effort more than Auburn sophomore quarterback Kiehl Frazier, who was 13-of-22 passing for 125 yards and three picks, with Darius Slay accounting for the other interception.

On the ground, Auburn managed just 91 yards after a 180-yard performance last week against Clemson.

Yes, the defense certainly set the tone. But at the same time, the offense was nearly as effective.

Behind the arm of junior signal caller Tyler Russell, the Bulldogs manufactured 388 total yards. Russell, playing with the poise of a veteran student-athlete, completed a career-best 20 of his 29 passes for 222 yards and three touchdowns.

"We need for him to play like that if we want to compete for a championship this season," said Mullen, whose team won an SEC opener for the first time since 1999.

Russell's first scoring strike went to Marcus Green, covering 30 yards to give MSU a 7-3 lead with 6:53 left in the first half. It was a score that remained unchanged until the start of the second half when Auburn's Onterio McCaleb returned the opening kickoff 100 yards to put the Tigers up, 10-7.

But on the Bulldogs' ensuing possession, they methodically marched 75 yards in eight plays and regained the lead for good when Chad Bumphis hauled in a Russell pass from 13 yards out for a 14-10 advantage.

In fact, it was a drive that jumpstarted an offense that rolled up 14 more points, ignited by Green's second touchdown, a 3-yard pass from Russell. The final score resulted in a 21-yard jaunt by LaDarius Perkins, who led all rushers with 83 yards on 14 carries.

- After finishing third in the FBS last season with 46 points per game last season, Oklahoma State was held to 21 points.

- Oklahoma State was held scoreless in a quarter for the first time in a span of 35 quarters (first since the first quarter vs. Kansas on Oct 13, 2012).

- In the first half alone, Mississippi State forced OSU to punt five times, matching the Cowboys' 2012 season high for a single game.

- Butkus Award watch list linebacker Deontae Skinner tied a career high with 10 tackles.

- Junior wide receiver Jameon Lewis (five) and junior tight end Malcolm Johnson (four) both tallied a career-best five receptions.

- Sophomore quarterback Dak Prescott set career highs in completions (7), attempts (17), passing yards (89) and longest pass completion (35).

- Junior defensive back Dee Arrington recorded a career-high seven tackles.

- Sophomore defensive back Taveze Calhoun registered a career-best tying six tackles.

- Four true freshmen made their collegiate debut Saturday: Kivon Coman (Special Teams), Chris Jones (DT), Fred Ross (WR) and De'Runnya Wilson (WR).

- Eight more Bulldogs made their debut as Bulldogs: Nelson Adams, Beniquez Brown, Richie Brown, Jeremy Chappelle, Justin Cox, Deontae Evans, A.J. Jefferson and Justin Senior.

- Making their first career starts were: Taveze Calhoun (DB), Brandon Hill (TE), Jameon Lewis (WR), Joe Morrow (WR) and Preston Smith (DE).
