TALKING POINTS

AT A GLANCE

For the first time since the 2011 BCS National Championship game and just the second ever, Oregon will take on Auburn in the AdvoCare Classic at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. The Ducks closed head coach MARIO CRISTOBAL'S first season on a three-game win streak, highlighted by a Redbox Bowl victory over Michigan State. Oregon is one of eight Power 5 teams (Clemson, Florida, Iowa, Kentucky, Ohio State, Stanford, TCU) that will start 2019 on a three-game win streak or better.

SEASON OPENERS

Oregon has won seven consecutive season openers, but will open away from Autzen Stadium for the first time since 2011 when it took on LSU at AT&T Stadium. The Ducks are 88-31-4 all-time in season openers and their last loss in an opener came against LSU in 2011. Oregon has opened its season against a current Power 5 team 44 times (20-23-1) in program history and has won 12 of its last 15 of those contests.

BACK IN THE TOP 25

For the 11th time in the last 12 years, Oregon opens the season ranked in the Associated Press Top 25. The Ducks came in at No. 11 in the AP preseason poll and are 12-2 all-time in season openers as a ranked team.

ONE-TWO PUNCH

One of just nine FBS teams with a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver a year ago, Oregon welcomes back two-thirds of that trio. QB JUSTIN HERBERT became the fifth player in program history to throw for 3,000 yards (3,151), while RB CJ VERDELL was just the third freshman in program history to hit the 1,000-yard plateau (1,018) on the ground. The Ducks are one of four FBS teams (Clemson, Liberty, Memphis) that return a 3,000-yard passer and 1,000-yard rusher. It is the second time in program history Oregon has returned a 3,000-yard passer and 1,000-yard rusher (2014 - Marcus Mariota & Byron Marshall).

DID YOU KNOW?

In 2018, CJ VERDELL was the only Power 5 player in the nation with 1,000 yards rushing and 300 yards receiving.

OFFENSIVE LINE NOTES

INSTANT IMPACT

A year ago, PENEI SEWELL became the first Oregon true freshman to start on the offensive line in a season opener since LEE GUNDY did so in 1997 against Arizona. Sewell was also the first Oregon freshman offensive lineman to start since TYRELL CROSBY made his first start against Wyoming in 2014. Sewell was also the first true freshman offensive lineman in Oregon history to earn all-conference honors (Coaches - Honorable Mention).

MR. VERSATILITY

Over his career, CALVIN THROCKMORTON has started 29 games at right tackle, five contests at left tackle, three at right guard, and one at center. He was the only FBS player to start at four (LT, C, RG, RT) of the five positions along the offensive line in 2018. Throckmorton played three different positions in two games last season - vs. UCLA (LT, C, RG) and at Utah (LT, C, RG).

BATTLE TESTED

Led by a group of five seniors, the Oregon offensive line has an FBS-best 153 combined starts entering the 2019 season. Seven different players make up the total, while SHANE LEMIEUX and CALVIN THROCKMORTON are two of 10 FBS offensive linemen that have started 30 or more consecutive games.

In 2018, CJ VERDELL joined LaMichael James (2009) and Royce Freeman (2014) as the only freshmen in Oregon history with 1,000 yards rushing in a season.

▶ RUNNING BACK NOTES

ONE AND ONLY

As a freshman in 2018, RB CJ VERDELL was the only Power 5 player in the country and one of just two FBS players (Darwin Thompson - Utah State) with over 1,000 yards rushing and 300 yards receiving on the season. Verdel was just the third Duck in program history with 1,000 yards rushing and 300 yards receiving in a single season, joining TERRENCE WHITEHEAD (2004) and ROYCE FREEMAN (2015). Since 2000, just 20 players in the Pac-12 have gone for 1,000 yards rushing and 300 yards receiving in a season.

RUNNIN' WILD IN THE CIVIL WAR

During Oregon's dominating 55-15 win over Oregon State to close the regular season in 2018, running backs TRAVIS DYE and CJ VERDELL put together the top two rushing performances by a freshman in program history. Dye's 199 yards on 33 carries are the most by a freshman in school history, while Verdel was close behind with 187 yards on 23 carries. Both bested LAMICHAEL JAMES' freshman record of 183 yards on 24 carries against USC on Oct. 31, 2009.

» Verdel also added five TDs in the Civil War, becoming the first FBS player since 2016 with four rushing TDs and one receiving TD in a game. He was the first Pac-12 player to accomplish the feat in a league game since 2011.

DYNAMIC DUO

One of just 10 Power 5 running back duos with over 700 rushing yards each last season, sophomores TRAVIS DYE and CJ VERDELL combined for over 2,000 yards from scrimmage in 2018. The two backs combined for nine 100-yard games last season with Oregon going 5-1 in the contests that one of the two accomplished the feat.

* - Named head coach on Dec. 8 | ^ - Sun Belt Conference Champions

Mario Cristobal was named the University of Oregon's 34th head football coach on Dec. 8, 2017.

Cristobal, who possesses over 20 years of coaching experience along with an extensive track record of success as one of the nation's best offensive line coaches and an elite recruiter, was named the Ducks' head coach after spending the 2017 season as Oregon's co-offensive coordinator, run-game coordinator and offensive line coach.

Since taking over as head coach, Cristobal has captivated the passionate Duck fan base with the culture he is creating and the standards he has set for the program. His vision to restore Oregon as one of the nation's elite programs is backed by two consecutive top 15 recruiting classes and a relentless commitment to excellence in every phase of the program.

In Cristobal's first season as head coach, Oregon's focus on culture and development helped play a big part in the first three-game win streak to close a season since 2011, highlighted by the Redbox Bowl victory over Michigan State. The Ducks' 5-1 start featured back-to-back ranked wins at California and against Washington, as the 9-4 campaign marked the third-most victories by a first-year head coach at Oregon.

One of four FBS first-year head coaches to win a bowl game in 2018, Cristobal's vision of an offense that prides itself on a balance of power and speed helped Oregon finish the season as one of nine FBS teams with a 3,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver. Oregon ranked 17th nationally in scoring offense (37.2 ppg) during the regular season and displayed the grit Cristobal is instilling with its 7-6 win over Michigan State to close the season. It marked the fewest points given up by Oregon in a bowl game since the 1917 Rose Bowl.

Cristobal's emphasis on player development yielded 11 Pac-12 All-Conference selections and three All-Americans along the offensive line in Shane Lemieux, Calvin Throckmorton and Penei Sewell. Senior defensive back Ugochukwu Amadi became the first player in program history to win the Lombardi Award, which is given to the top FBS player regardless of position. Amadi was one of four Ducks selected in the 2019 NFL Draft.

A renowned recruiter, Cristobal led Oregon's relentless effort to sign the nation's No. 13 class in 2018 according to 247Sports, just under two months after being named the head coach. A year later, Cristobal and his staff landed the highest-ranked class in program history at No. 6 by ESPN, marking the first time Oregon has ever had the top class in the Pac-12. Oregon is the only Pac-12 program to finish with a top two class in the league each year and has added the top player from seven different states over that span.

In his first year at Oregon as co-offensive coordinator, the run-game was a major factor in the up-tempo Duck offense that tied for the Pac-12 lead with seven 40-point performances. The Ducks scored 40 rushing touchdowns during Cristobal's first season, the most since 2014. Royce Freeman ranked 11th nationally with 1,475 yards and tied for 12th with 16 rushing touchdowns. The Ducks finished the regular season with more than 3,000 yards on the ground, averaging 268 yards rushing per game. The Ducks' rushing offense ranked eighth in the FBS at the end of the regular season.

Cristobal's streak with an offensive lineman selected in the NFL Draft extended to five consecutive years when senior left tackle Tyrell Crosby was taken by the Detroit Lions in the 2018 NFL Draft, while Freeman was taken in the third round by the Denver Broncos. Under Cristobal, Crosby allowed only three quarterback hurries and no sacks on his way to being named an Outland Trophy candidate and the recipient of the Morris Trophy as the top offensive lineman in the Pac-12.

Cristobal came to Oregon with a reputation as one of the nation's top recruiters. He was named the National Recruiter of the Year by 247Sports in the 2015 cycle, and was ranked as the nation's No. 2 recruiter in the country by 247Sports at the time of his hiring based on the final haul he brought to Alabama. His 2015 class included 2018 NFL first-round picks Minkah Fitzpatrick (Miami Dolphins), Daron Payne (Washington Redskins) and Calvin Ridley (Atlanta Falcons).

Prior to arriving in Eugene, Cristobal spent four seasons (2013-16) at Alabama as the assistant head coach, offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator, helping the Crimson Tide to the CFP National Championship following the 2015 season, as well as a runner-up finish after the 2016 season.

Cristobal's offensive lines at Alabama produced a plethora of standout players and NFL draft picks. Over Cristobal's four seasons, five Alabama offensive linemen were selected in the NFL Draft, good for a tie for the second-most from one program over that span. Included were three in the top two rounds, including 2016 first-round selection Ryan Kelly (Indianapolis Colts).

In each of his four seasons, a different offensive lineman earned first-team All-America honors, while Kelly won the Rimington Trophy as the nation's top center and was named the SEC Scholar Athlete of the Year in 2015. The following year, Cam Robinson claimed the Outland Trophy. Both Kelly and Robinson won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the SEC's top offensive lineman.

In 2015, Cristobal's offensive line unit won the inaugural Joe Moore Award as the Most Outstanding Offensive Line Unit in college football. The physically-dominating group helped Derrick Henry break Herschel Walker's SEC single-season rushing record en route to winning the Heisman Trophy, Walter Camp Award and the Doak Walker Award.

Alabama's offense ranked in the top 25 nationally in time of possession three times and in rushing offense twice from 2013-16. The Crimson Tide also had the SEC Player of the Year three times over that span in Amari Cooper (2014), Henry (2015) and Jalen Hurts (2016).

Prior to joining Nick Saban's staff at Alabama, Cristobal spent six seasons (2007-12) as the head coach at Florida International (FIU), solidifying his standing as one of the country's top young college football coaches and recruiters after taking over a program under heavy NCAA sanctions and coming off a winless season. Cristobal led the Panthers to the most successful year in school history in 2011, capturing a program-record eight wins, including a road win at eventual co-Big East Champion Louisville.

Cristobal was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year in 2010 after leading FIU to its first Sun Belt Conference championship and a bowl victory over MAC champion Toledo, and he finished his FIU career having produced NFL talents such as T.Y. Hilton and Jonathan Cyprien.

Cristobal coached at Miami (Fla.), his alma mater, under Larry Coker for three years before accepting the head job at FIU. As the tight ends coach for the 2004 and 2005 seasons, he helped develop multiple players into NFL draft picks, including first-round pick and All-Pro Greg Olsen. In 2006, Cristobal took over a Miami offensive line that featured four new starters and saw a 39 percent decrease in sacks allowed from the previous season (36 to 22).

Cristobal spent three years (2001-03) at Rutgers under head coach Greg Schiano, working with the offensive tackles and tight ends for the first two seasons before shifting his focus solely to the offensive line in 2003. Cristobal was a critical factor in Rutgers' resurgence to competitiveness and helped lay the foundation in recruiting and coaching for a program that went from obscurity to college football's upper echelon in a matter of five years. Cristobal helped Rutgers to a 5-7 mark in 2003, the school's best record since 1998. One of Cristobal's most accomplished pupils was tight end L.J. Smith, the Philadelphia Eagles' second-round pick in the 2003 NFL Draft.

Cristobal began his coaching career in 1998 as a graduate assistant at Miami, working with the Hurricanes for three seasons under Butch Davis. He joined the Hurricanes' staff six years after finishing a four-year playing career at Miami as a standout offensive lineman under hall of fame coach Jimmy Johnson. Cristobal was a first-team All-Big East selection in 1992 and helped the Hurricanes to a pair of national championships (1989, 1991).

A native of Miami and a prep standout at Christopher Columbus High School, Cristobal graduated from Miami in 1993 with a bachelor's degree in business administration and later earned a master's degree from Miami in 2001. Following his college career, Cristobal signed a free-agent contract with the Denver Broncos in 1994 and then played for the Amsterdam Admirals of NFL Europe in 1995 and 1996.

Cristobal and his wife, Jessica, were married in June 2006 and have two sons, Mario Mateo and Rocco.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

I know for sure that Oregon got the right guy. THE PLAYERS ARE GOING TO LOVE HIM. He is every bit an intense guy, and he knows WHAT IT TAKES TO BE A WINNER THERE.

- Ryan Kelly, Indianapolis Colts OL

Coach Cristobal has made as big of an impact on me as any coach I have ever played for. I still carry with me many of the lessons coach taught me in college, both as a player and a person. THERE IS NOT ANOTHER COACH IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL WHO WILL OUTWORK OR OUT-CARE MARIO CRISTOBAL. Oregon got themselves a top-flight coach and a top-flight person. I couldn't be more excited for coach and his family.

- Greg Olsen, Carolina Panthers TE

MARIO IS EASILY ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT MEN IN MY LIFE SINCE I MET HIM. He is very influential and key to a lot of the success I've had in my career.

- Cam Robinson, Jacksonville Jaguars OL

HE DID NOT TAKE ANYTHING LESS THAN GREATNESS FROM US AT PRACTICE. I know that is what he is going to bring to the table with the guys at the University of Oregon. You definitely have a great ball coach.
