THE TOURNAMENT FIELD

The 2017 SEC Championship will feature seven teams ranked in all of the major polls. The teams ranked in the top 25 are as follows: No. 4/2/3 Vanderbilt, No. 6/6/5 Florida, No. 7/3/7 LSU, No. 14/18/17 Texas A&M, No. 19/20/22 Auburn, No. 23/21/23 Ole Miss and No. 24/23/20 Georgia.

AGAINST THE FIELD THIS SEASON

The Tigers have faced 11 other SEC teams in tournaments this season, compiling a 12-6 mark. Auburn's record against SEC teams this season: Alabama (2-0), Arkansas (1-0), Florida (1-0), LSU (2-0), Mississippi State (2-0), Missouri (2-0), Ole Miss (0-1), South Carolina (1-2), Tennessee (1-0), Texas A&M (0-2) and Vanderbilt (0-1).

THE COURSE

The 2017 event will mark the first in which the championship will extend to a fourth day, with the top eight teams playing in Match Play on Sunday and Monday. Three rounds of stroke play will occur the opening two days of the championship. Rated No. 1 in the U.S. among the "World's 50 Best Golf Hotels" by Golf Digest Index, Sea Island Golf Club offers three exceptional 18-hole championship courses. The Seaside Course, home to the PGA TOUR's McGladrey Classic, is a links course graced by majestic ocean vistas in the tradition of St. Andrews.

THE WEATHER

Weather could pose a problem at this year's tournament with a potential for rain on Sunday and Monday. Friday calls for a high of 84 with rain and winds up to 13 mph. Saturday calls for the same conditions. Sunday holds a 60 percent chance of rain with a high of 84. The temperature looks to drop a bit on the final day with a high of 73 and a 50 percent chance of rain.

IN THE RANKINGS

Auburn has been ranked in the top 25 polls throughout the season, including a No. 2 ranking

HOME OF THE SEC CHAMPIONSHIP

This marks the 17th year for the Southeastern Conference Championship to be contested on the Sea Island Golf Club's Seaside Course. The SEC has conducted its annual championship on St. Simons Island since 2001 (Seaside Course 2001-2007, 2010-2016; Frederica Golf Club 2008-2009). Since 1927, the Sea Island Golf Club has enjoyed a legacy as one of America's premier golf clubs. The course will play a par-70 at 6,898 yards.

AROUND THE SEC

All five Tigers representing Auburn at Sea Island are ranked in the top 40 in scoring in the Southeastern Conference heading into the SEC Championship. Sophomore Trace Crowe is 7th at 70.96, sophomore Jacob Solomon is 24th at 71.92, senior Will Long is 27th at 71.80, freshman Jovan Rebula is 32nd at 72.00 and senior Matt Gilchrest is 36th at 72.23.

WINNING WAYS

Since 2009 when Nick Clinard took the helm, Auburn has won 25 team titles including four wins this season at the Inverness Intercollegiate, the Jerry Pate National, the Tiger Invitational and the Gary Koch Invitational, in addition to three other top-five finishes. He has coached the Tigers to eight wins in the last two seasons alone.

Under Clinard's tutelage, Auburn has had 27 individual medalists, including one this season as sophomore Trace Crowe won medalist honors for the second time of his career at the Gary Koch Invitational.

CONSISTENCY IN TOP-25

Auburn has been ranked in the top-25 in at least one poll each week of the 2016-17 season. After beginning the season at No. 11, the Tigers quickly climbed as high as No. 2 after winning two of four fall tournaments and finishing runner-up in another. Auburn is currently ranked 19th.

CONFIDENT CROWE

Sophomore Trace Crowe has been a pleasant surprise for the Tigers this season, leading the team at 70.96 strokes and earning the team's lone medalist honor. The Bluffton, S.C., native won the Gary Koch Invitational at 9-under 75-66-66--207, with the pair of 66s matching his career-low 18. He has finished in the top-30 in all events this season with four top-15 finishes, and has 12 sub-par rounds including eight in the 60s.

ROCKIN REBULA

True freshman Jovan Rebula has followed the recent trend of Clinard-coached freshman to have outstanding debut seasons. Following Ben Schlottman and Jacob Solomon before him, Rebula, the nephew of PGA Tour Legend Ernie Els, has dazzled the coaches this season, posting a 72.00 scoring average that ranks fourth on the team and 32nd in the SEC. He has earned SEC Freshman Men's Golfer of the Week honors twice - first following an eight-place finish at the Tiger Invitational and then following a top-five finish at the Gary Koch Invitational. He has three top-10 finishes this season.

AWARDS SEASON REPRESENTATIVES

Several Tigers were named finalists or to prestigious award watch lists throughout the season. Senior Matt Gilchrest is one of five finalists for the Byron Nelson Award. Fellow senior Will Long was named to the Ben Hogan Award Watch List and was ranked in both the fall and spring Palmer Cup rankings. Gilchrest, along with sophomore Trace Crowe were also in consideration for the Palmer Cup.

RYAN BENTON, NO. 11 AUBURN RUNNERS-UP AT CARPET CAPITAL COLLEGIATE

Senior Ryan Benton finished a shot back in a three-way tie for second to lead No. 11 Auburn men's golf to a runner-up finish at 25-under in the Carpet Capital Collegiate at The Farm Golf Club. Benton was 10-under. Benton, who finished a shot behind Georgia Tech's Luke Schniederjans after entering the final round tied, had three birdies on Nos. 3, 9 and 11 and tied with Virginia's Derek Bard and North Florida's Phillip Knowles. Senior Will Long tied for ninth at 7-under 209 with a final round 3-under 69. The Gastonia, N.C., native recorded five birdies. Sophomore Trace Crowe, competing as an individual, fired a 5-under 67 to finish 6-under 210 in a tie for 11th.

NO. 11 AUBURN WINS INVERNESS INTERCOLLEGIATE

No. 11 Auburn men's golf won the Inverness Intercollegiate carding a 2-under 282 for a final score of 9-under 843 at the Inverness Club. The Tigers (280-281-282—843) defeated No. 23 Duke (277-281-288—846) by three strokes. Senior Will Long finished third at 3-under 73-68-69—210, one stroke behind co-medalists Nick Carlson of Michigan (69-73-67—209) and Jake Shuman of Duke (70-71-68—209). The Gastonia, N.C., native had four birdies on the back nine in the final round on Nos. 13, 15, 17 and 18. Seniors Matt Gilchrest and Ryan Benton were part of a five-way tie for fourth a shot back at 2-under. Gilchrest (64-72-75—211), a two-time All-SEC performer, held the lead after the first two rounds after carding the second-lowest round in school history with his opening round 64. Benton (69-72-70—211), a native of Dothan, Ala., closed out his tournament with a 1-under 70 final round with birdies on Nos. 5, 6, 13 and 18.

NO. 2 AUBURN WINS JERRY PATE NATIONAL INTERCOLLEGIATE

No. 2 Auburn men's golf won the Jerry Pate National Intercollegiate, carding a 2-over 282 at the Old Overton Club for a final even par 840. The Tigers have won two-straight tournaments with the Inverness Intercollegiate and were runner-up at the Carpet Capital Collegiate. Auburn (284-274-282—840) held off UNLV (283-284-274—841) to win by one stroke. Senior Will Long led the way for the Tigers for the second consecutive tournament, tying for fifth at 2-under 70-70-68—208. The Gastonia, N.C., native carded three birdies as part of a near bogey-free final round. It is Long's second top-five finish in as many tournaments. Freshman Jovan Rebula finished a shot back of Long at 1-under 68-68-73—209 to tie for eighth. The George, South Africa, native had four birdies in the final round

Nick

Clinard

Head Coach • Eighth Season • Alma Mater: Wake Forest (1995)

Nick Clinard is in his 16th year overall as a head coach and eighth season with the Auburn men's golf team in 2016-17. The Tigers have been ranked in the top-25 in each poll this season and have four wins this year at the Inverness Intercollegiate, the Jerry Pate National, the Tiger Invitational and the Gary Koch Invitational, in addition to three other top-five finishes. He has coached the Tigers to eight wins in the last two seasons alone.

Under Clinard, the Tigers have reached five-straight NCAA Championships while earning 25 team and 27 individual titles and bringing in the strongest recruiting classes the Tigers have seen in years.

Auburn is one of five teams in the nation ... Florida State, Georgia, Texas and USC the others ... who have made at least five straight NCAA Championship appearances.

Through May 19, 2016, Clinard has posted a .769 winning percentage at Auburn with a record of 985-290-16. Auburn has made the NCAA Regionals each of his seven seasons and have advanced to the NCAA Championship five straight years.

The Tigers have won four tournaments in 2016-17 while Trace Crowe won medalist honors for the second time in his career at the Gary Koch Invitational. Senior Matt Gilchrest is a finalist for the prestigious Byron Nelson Award. Fellow senior Will Long was a member of the Ben Hogan Award Watch List and debuted in both the fall and spring Palmer Cup rankings.

Auburn won four tournaments in 2015-16 including the Carpet Capital Collegiate, U.S. Collegiate Championship, Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate and the Seminole Intercollegiate while finishing as runner-up in four others.

The Tigers have had five medalists with Michael Johnson winning three, the Primland Collegiate, Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate and the Schenkel Invitational. Freshman Graysen Huff won the ASU Fall Beach Classic while Will Long was co-medalist at the U.S. Collegiate Championship.

Michael Johnson was named first-team All-SEC and was a semifinalist for both the Jack Nicklaus Award and Ben Hogan Award and was on the Haskins Award Watch List. Jacob Solomon was a Freshman All-SEC selection in 2016.

The Tigers had the fourth best NCAA Championship finish in school history by finishing 12th in 2015 and the Tigers are one of only eight teams to appear in four consecutive NCAA Championships.

Since Clinard came to Auburn in 2009, Auburn has produced six All-Americans, eight Academic All-Americans, 14 NCAA All-Southeast Region selections and 19 All-SEC selections, including five All-SEC first-team selections, six All-SEC second team picks, seven Freshman All-SEC selections and one SEC Freshman of the Year.

Auburn won three consecutive tournaments with three straight medalists, all different, in the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate, Tiger Invitational Presented by Jason Dufner and the Schenkel Invitational in 2015.

Ben Schlottman was named Golfweek honorable mention All-American, the first freshman in school history to receive All-America honors.

Five Tigers were named to the NCAA All-Southeast Region team as No. 1 Illinois and No. 2 Texas were the only three schools in the nation to have five players named NCAA All-Region.

Schlottman and Matt Gilchrest were both named first-team All-SEC while Michael Johnson was a second-team selection. Schlottman also became the first Auburn freshman to be named All-SEC first-team in history while also being tabbed SEC Freshman of the Year.

Auburn destroyed the school's team single-season stroke average record by averaging 283.23 strokes per round in 2015 with the previous mark being 285.30 set in 2011-12. In fact, Clinard-coached teams have the four lowest averages in Tiger history.

Schlottman recorded the fourth lowest single season stroke average in school history and set the Auburn freshman record averaging 70.96.

Auburn climbed to being ranked fourth nationally in 2014-15 after winning two consecutive tournaments in the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate and the Tiger Invitational Presented by Jason Dufner by 28 shots, the largest margin of victory in school history. Auburn then won the Schenkel Invitational at 41-under, edging No. 5 Vanderbilt by a stroke, for its third-straight win.

Clinard coached the Tigers to their third-straight NCAA Championship appearance in 2014 as the Tigers had three tournament wins and eight top three finishes, including thirds in both the NCAA Regional and SEC Championship. Auburn, which was 136-60-1, finished 23rd in the NCAA Championship in Hutchinson, Kan., and finished ranked 19th overall.

Auburn's three tournament wins in 2013-14 came in the Tiger Invitational Presented by Jason Dufner, the Mobile Bay Intercollegiate and the Hootie at Bulls Bay Intercollegiate as Niclas Carlsson tied for first with a 70-73-66-209 and Matt Gilchrest finished a stroke behind with a 71-73-66-210.

Senior Niclas Carlsson was named honorable mention All-American in 2013-14.

Carlsson and freshman Matt Gilchrest were both All-SEC second-team selections, and Gilchrest was also named to the Freshman All-SEC team. Three Tiger freshmen were named SEC Freshman of the Week, including Gilchrest, Blake Messer and Will Long. Gilchrest was named SEC Player and Freshman of the Week following his four-stroke win at the UK Bluegrass Invitational. Messer won the USA Individual Tournament in Mobile while Long finished 10th in the USF Invitational.

Auburn men's golf received the NCAA Public Recognition Award for placing in the top 10 percent in the most recent multi-year

Academic Progress Rate scores with a perfect 1000 APR. Auburn placed 10 on the 2014 SEC Spring Academic Honor Roll five on the 2014 SEC First-Year Honor Roll.

In 2012-13, Auburn finished 13th in the 2013 NCAA Championship in Milton, Ga., after finishing tied for second at the NCAA Regional in Columbus, Ohio. The Tigers finished the season ranked 14th nationally while having a record of 149-61-3.

Auburn won three tournament titles at The McLaughlin, Mobile Bay Classic and Samford Intercollegiate. The Tigers had three individual medalists with redshirt freshman Jake Mondy at The McLaughlin in his first career tournament, Dominic Bozzelli at the Ameri Ari Invitational and Niclas Carlsson at the Mobile Bay Intercollegiate.

Senior Michael Hebert was selected to the All-SEC second team while Mondy was a Freshman All-SEC selection.

Auburn was ranked No. 1 nationally in the Coaches' Poll after two events in the 2011-12 season for the first time since the poll began in 2001. It marked the first time Auburn received a No. 1 ranking since the fall of 1996.

The Tigers finished the 2011-12 season ranked a school-best fifth nationally in the Golfweek/Sagarin rankings with three team victories and three individual wins and a record of 148-28-4 (.833), the second best winning percentage in school history. Auburn advanced to the NCAA Championship for the first time under Clinard, finishing 15th at historic Riviera Country Club in Pacific Palisades, Calif.

Auburn won the Carpet Capital Collegiate for its first opening season victory since the 1978 Alabama Intercollegiate. The Tigers also won the Gator Invitational and Hootie at Bulls Bay.

Dominic Bozzelli became the first Auburn golfer in history to win back-to-back tournaments with the U.S. Collegiate and the Gator Invitational. Niclas Carlsson won the Hootie at Bulls Bay, a shot ahead of Blayne Barber.

The Tigers were the No. 1 seed in the NCAA Greensboro Regional for the first time in school history. At the regional, Auburn had an incredible final four holes as it went 8-under par over that span to jump from seventh to finish third to qualify for the NCAA Championship for the first time since 2008.

Five Auburn golfers earned All-SEC and NCAA All-Southeast Region honors, including first-team Blayne Barber, second-teamers Will McCurdy, Dominic Bozzelli and Niclas Carlsson and Freshman All-SEC Michael Johnson. The five All-SEC honorees are the most in program history, breaking the record of four in 2005.

Junior All-American Blayne Barber finished the campaign with a scoring average of 70.76, which snapped the 36-year-old Auburn record that was set by Buddy Gardner in 1976. The Lake City, Fla., native finished the year with seven top-5 finishes including back-to-back runner-ups at the E-Z-GO Schenkel Invitational and the Hootie at Bulls Bay. Barber finished the season ranked No. 7 in the nation in the Golfweek/Sagarin Rankings and became the first Auburn golfer to be named a first-team All-American since Chip Spratlin and Iain Steel in 1995. Dominic Bozzelli was an All-America honorable mention selection in 2012.

In 2010-11, Auburn finished with a school record winning percentage of .907 with a 122-12-1 record as the Tigers won back-to-back titles at the Chris Schenkel Invitational in 2010 and 2011 while also winning the 2010 Jerry Pate National Intercollegiate, 2010 Tiger Shootout and 2011 UK Bluegrass Invitational.

The Tigers finished the season ranked 11th nationally and advanced to the NCAA Colorado Regional. Three Tigers were PING All-Southeast Region selections in sophomores Blayne Barber, Michael Hebert and freshman Niclas Carlsson. Only three NCAA Div. I programs had more selections than Auburn.

Auburn also had three All-SEC selections as Ben Hogan Award semifinalist Blayne Barber was named second-team All-American and first-team All-SEC leading the Tigers with a 70.93 scoring average as Hebert as an All-SEC second team pick while Carlsson was a Freshman All-SEC selection. It marked the first time since 2005 that three Tigers earned All-SEC honors. Barber was also selected to play in the prestigious Palmer Cup.

In 2009-10, Kyle Kopsick was named All-SEC second-team while David Zickler was named to the Freshman All-SEC team. Alongside Barber in 2010-11, Michael Hebert was named All-SEC second team while Niclas Carlsson was named Freshman All-SEC after he became to first freshman since Jimmy Green in 1988 to earn individual medalist honors.

In his first two recruiting classes, Clinard signed a pair of recruits ranked top-10 in the world - Sweden's Niclas Carlsson and Michael Johnson of Birmingham, Ala. Clinard also signed the No. 1 recruit out the state of Alabama two seasons in a row in Michael Johnson and Ryan Benton.

As swing coach for Barber, Clinard helped the Lake City, Fla., native become just the second golfer in school history to earn the honor of representing the United States at the Walker Cup. Barber also represented the United States at the 2011 and 2012 Palmer Cup. Barber earned his PGA Tour card for 2015 by finishing seventh on the 2014 Web.com Tour by earning $269,111. Clinard also coached Barber and David Johnson, who both were Florida State Amateur Golfer of the Year, the highest award in the state of Florida.

In his career, Clinard has 25 tournament victories including two conference championships, coached seven All-Americans, eight Academic All-Americans, two conference players of the year, three individual conference champions and 27 all-conference selections.

UCF won the NCAA Southeast Regional title by defeating No. 2 Georgia and No. 13 South Carolina in 2009 along with claiming the school's first Conference USA Championship. The Knights also won The Hummingbird Intercollegiate and the Rio Pinar Invitational as Clinard was named Conference USA Coach of the Year and the NCAA Southeast Regional Coach of the Year.

Clinard played professional golf for five seasons from 1996-2001 on the NGA Hooters Tour as well as several Nike Tour and Canadian Tour events prior to becoming head coach of UCF. He was also the assistant tournament director of the Jim McLean Future Collegians World Tour from 1998-2001 and worked as an assistant golf professional at the Hank Haney Golf Ranch in McKinney, Texas, from 1997-2000.

The Gastonia, N.C., native graduated from Wake Forest University in 1995 with a Bachelor's degree in speech communication. He played one year of collegiate golf at SMU before playing his final three years at Wake Forest from 1992-95, where the Demon Deacons were ranked in the top 10 in the nation all three seasons. Clinard is married to the former Susan Roberts, and they have two daughters, Chloe and Peyton.
