AUBURN IN FIRST SWEET 16 IN PROGRAM HISTORY AND MUST NOW FACE TOP-SEEDED FLORIDA STATE

» Auburn will try to keep rewriting history when it faces top-seeded Florida State in the NCAA Tournament Third Round match Sunday in Tallahassee, Fla. Auburn is playing in its first Sweet 16 match in program history.

» This will be the fifth time Florida State and Auburn have faced off in an NCAA Tournament match. The Seminoles have won the previous four matches by a combined score of 6-2.

» Auburn last faced Florida State in the regular-season in 2013, falling to a 4-1 decision in Tallahassee. Haley Roberson scored the lone goal for the Tigers in that match.

» No. 1 Florida State will be Auburn's highest ranked opponent ever in an NCAA Tournament game. The Tigers faced No. 2 BYU in Provo, Utah back in 2012, losing a 1-0 match in the second round.

» Auburn hasn't been shutout in its last four NCAA Tournament matches, scoring a combined six goals. Until it's win Friday vs. Texas Tech, Auburn had yet to score more than one goal in those last four matches.

BEAL'S GAME-WINNER SENDS AUBURN PAST TEXAS TECH, 3-2, IN OVERTIME IN NCAA SECOND ROUND

» For the first time in program history, Auburn Soccer has reached the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament after defeating No. 15 Texas Tech, 3-2, Friday afternoon in overtime at the Seminole Soccer Complex in Tallahassee, Fla.

» Senior Logan Beal provided the game-winner for the Tigers putting back the rebound on a shot from Casie Ramsier right in front of the goal. It was Beal's third goal of the year and Auburn's

STREAKS, STORYLINES, SIDEBARS

» The 16 wins is the most in a single-season by an Auburn team. Previous highs of 15 wins occurred in 2002, 2004 and 2011.

» Auburn is playing in its first Sweet 16 match Sunday vs. #1 Florida State.

» Head coach Karen Hoppa reached the 250-win plateau against LBSU, becoming the 37th head coach in Division I history to do so.

» Hoppa currently has 200 wins as Auburn's head coach, the third most for any SEC coach at their current school. (Burleigh and Pensky).

» Auburn's 3-2 win over Florida was its first over a Top-10 team since 2011 and first over the Gators since that same year.

» Casie Ramsier now has 12 goals on the year, 10 coming in games where she scored twice.

» Ramsier became the second Auburn player to ever be named NSCAA National Player of the Week after her two game-winners vs. LSU and Florida. (Katy Frierson).

» Ramsier had a five point game vs. LSU, her first five point game of her career.

» Ramsier's four game-winning goals in SEC play was the most in the league.

» Taylor Troutman currently leads all Auburn freshman with four goals and three assists (9 points). She scored the first goal of Auburn's 3-2 win over Texas Tech Friday.

» With 90 collegiate caps to her name, senior Kala Faulkner has solidified herself on the back line and captains the Auburn defense, setting a new consecutive games started record.

» Kala Faulkner, Casie Ramsier and Haley Gerken were each named team captains by their teammates before the exhibition at Kennesaw State.

» The 1,729 fans that came and watched last week's 1-0 win over SE Louisiana was the eighth largest home crowd all-time and largest for a home NCAA match.

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. -Florida State struck early, taking a 1-0 lead in the 16th minute of the match. Bergland Thorvaldsdottir scored on a diving header at the left side of the goal off a cross from Marta Bakowska-Matthews.

The Seminoles struck again before the half as Nora Kervroedan scored on a penalty kick in the 41st minute, giving FSU a 2-0 lead. The kick occurred after AU's Chelsea Gandy-Cromer and an FSU player got tangled on the end line in a battle for the ball.

FSU got on the board early in the second half, taking a 3-0 lead in the 53rd minute. Jamia Fields found Thorvaldsdottir in front of the goal, about 12 yards out, setting up the redirect shot.

Thorvaldsdottir returned the favor in the 60th minute as she crossed a pass in from the left corner, setting up a header for Fields that gave FSU a 4-0 lead.

Auburn killed the shutout in the 86th minute as freshman Haley Roberson scored her first career goal. Senior Bianca Sierra set up the scoring situation with a corner kick. Casie Ramsier received the kick and headed it to the left post, but Roberson was there to finish off the play for the goal. The goal was the first scored on the third-ranked Seminoles this season.

AUBURN KEEPS ON STREAKING

- » Since the arrival of head coach Karen Hoppa 17 years ago, making the postseason has been a priority.
- » In the previous 15 seasons, including this year, Auburn has made the field at the coveted SEC tournament, marking the second-longest active streak in the conference.
- » All 15 of those appearances have come under Coach Hoppa.

fourth victory in overtime this season.

» Auburn took two separate leads throughout the game, getting two goals in the first half, but allowing the Red Raiders to score one goal in each half. Janine Beckie scored both goals for Texas Tech, one off a penalty kick in the 27th minute. However, Auburn was able to respond back each time before the winner in the 100th minute by Beal.

» Auburn took the early 1-0 lead in the 14th minute when freshman Taylor Troutman scored on a nice one-touch from five yards out for her fourth goal of the year. The play started near midfield with Faulkner feeding junior Samantha Solaru on the left flank. Solaru made a nice one-touch pass to Troutman and beat the keeper in the upper 90.

» Tech was able to tie the game up in the 27th minute after Beckie got a penalty kick on a tough call near the left end line on Kiana Clarke. But, Auburn was there to respond again in the 32nd minute as the first half winded down.

» Sophomore Hannah Alspach found some open space down the right side and delivered a perfect ball toward the far post. What looked to be a cross from the initial kick ended up winding in to the upper 90, giving Texas Tech's goalkeeper no chance at making the save. For Alspach, it was her second goal of the year and gave Auburn the 2-1 lead at halftime.

HOW DID THE TIGERS GET TO THE NCAA TOURNAMENT SECOND ROUND? BEATING SOUTHEASTERN LOUISIANA, 1-0

» Sophomore Kristen Dodson provided the lone goal for the Auburn soccer team last week, joined with a strong defensive showing as the Tigers defeated Southeastern Louisiana, 1-0, in the NCAA Tournament First Round action at the Auburn Soccer Complex.

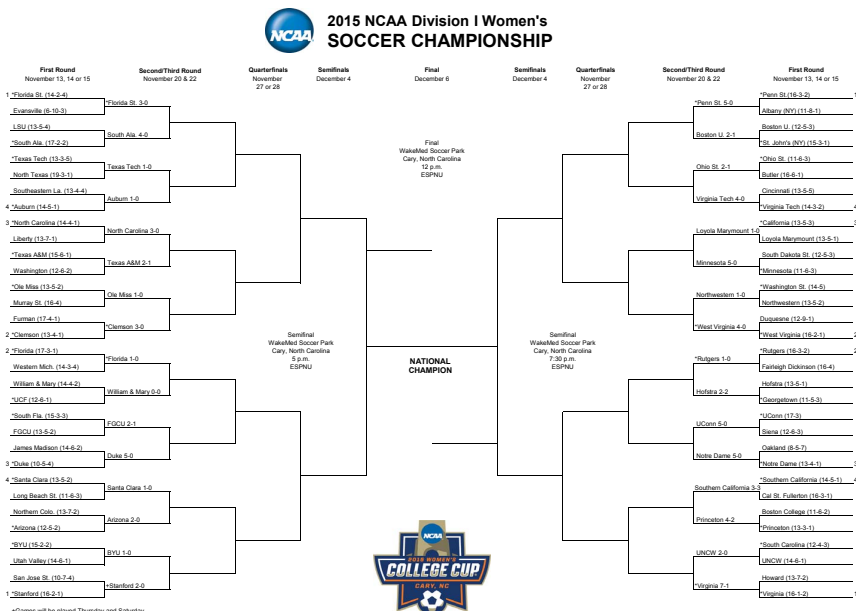

» The win is Auburn's eighth all time in the NCAA Tournament and places it in the NCAA Second Round for the eighth time in program history. A win over Texas Tech next week would place Auburn in its first ever Sweet 16.

» A standing room only crowd of 1,729 watched the Tigers put up 29 shots on offense, which usually would have spelled more goals for the Orange and Blue. However, the play of Southeastern Louisiana's goalkeeper, Hope Sabadash, was quite outstanding as she turned away 11 of Auburn's shots.

» Even with the large shot output, Auburn was still able to break through in the 41st minute when Dodson delivered home a rebound after a cross from Casie Ramsier deflected off Sabadash just 10 yards from the goal line. For Dodson, it was her fifth goal of the year.

» The 1,729 fans that braved the chilly conditions at the Auburn Soccer Complex Saturday night set a new Auburn home record for largest crowd at an NCAA Tournament match. The last leading number was 1,472 against Clemson back in 2004.

HOPPA WITH 200 WINS AS AUBURN'S HEAD COACH

» With the 3-2 overtime victory over Texas Tech in the NCAA Tournament Second Round, head coach Karen Hoppa scored her 200th win as Auburn's head coach.

» Now in her 17th season at Auburn University, joins Becky Burleigh at Florida and Bryan Blitz at Missouri as the only two SEC head coaches to have 200 wins at their current school.

» In just her Auburn career, Hoppa has taken the Tigers to all 13 of the program's NCAA tournaments, winning eight first round games.

» She also holds the second-longest active streak of consecutive SEC Tournament appearances as she took her team that finished tied for third in the SEC to its 15th-straight conference tournament, advancing to the semifinals.

» Overall in her career, Hoppa has over 260 wins, which includes six seasons as the head coach at her alma mater, UCF.

AUBURN COMES BACK FROM TWO GOALS DOWN TO BEAT SOUTH CAROLINA ON PENALTIES

» Sophomore Ellie Leek couldn't have picked a better time to score her first goal of the season Wednesday night, scoring the equalizer in the 76th minute to complete a two-goal Auburn comeback and then hitting the winning penalty kick for the Tigers in the shootout to defeat No. 16 South Carolina and help the Auburn soccer team advance to the semifinals of the 2015 SEC Tournament.

» Auburn was down 2-0 after 60 minutes of play and South Carolina seemed to have all the momentum, but the Tigers began to chip away in the 61st minute on a Kristen Dodson goal, her fourth of the year, followed by Leek's goal just 14 minutes later. On the equalizing goal, Leek buried a one-timer from the left side of the box into the top corner of the net after great passes from Brooke Ramsier and touch from Logan Beal.

» The win for Auburn is its first in the SEC Tournament since 2013, defeating LSU as the 10-seed before losing in the quarterfinals.

» Friday will be Auburn's first appearance in the tournament semifinals since 2012 when Auburn reached the final, which was also the same year that Auburn last had a match go into penalties.

AUBURN VS. THE NCAA FIELD

» Auburn has faced seven of the NCAA Tournament teams this season, including South Carolina twice and compiling a 6-3-1 record.

» Its only losses coming against Ole Miss and South Carolina in the regular-season. Auburn came back to tie South Carolina in the SEC Tournament and advanced through after winning on penalty kicks.

» Auburn did defeat LSU, South Alabama, Texas A&M, Florida, Furman and Long Beach State this year, all tournament teams.

» Auburn defeated two-seeded Florida, 3-2, during the regular-season, but fell to the Gators, 2-0, in the SEC Tournament semifinals.

TIGERS VS. THE ACC

» Sunday's match with the Florida State Seminoles will be the 12th all-time meeting between the two programs.

» Auburn is 8-20-4 all-time against teams from the ACC, the majority of those meetings coming against Florida State.

» Auburn faced Clemson in each of the last two seasons, dropping a 2-1 decision last season in Clemson and tying 0-0 in 2013.

» The Tigers faced both Duke and Wake Forest in 2012 with Wake being Auburn's most common ACC opponent behind Clemson and Florida State.

CASIE RAMSIER MAKING THE CLIMB UP AUBURN CAREER CHARTS

» It's already been a banner year for junior Casie Ramsier. With 12 goals and two assists good for 26 points, she has already positioned herself well on the single-season charts, her goal total is tied for the second-most ever in a season and her 26 points are tied for ninth all-time.

» But with this strong year, Ramsier has now jettisoned up the career charts. With 25 career goals, she is now fifth all-time and ninth in points (61).

» In each of her three seasons, she has been among the top two on the team in goal scoring, netting nine her freshman year and four in 2014. This season is easily a career-high in both goals and points and makes her the first Auburn player with 10 or more goals in a season since 2002.

» Earlier this year, Ramsier scored twice against UAB (8/28), which set a new personal game-high for the Texan. Now she has five games with two goals scored (LSU, Florida, UAB, Texas A&M and Mississippi State).

TIGERS CLINCH 15TH-STRAIGHTAPPEARANCE IN SEC TOURNAMENT WITH 2-1 WIN OVER KENTUCKY

» Auburn will continue its second-longest active streak of SEC Tournament appearances this year after defeating Kentucky, 2-1.

» The Tigers 15-year long streak is only second to Florida, which has reached the conference tournament each year since joining the conference in 1995.

» Auburn's streak dates back to the year 2000, which was the second-year for current head coach Karen Hoppa.

KALA FAULKNER - THE IRON HORSE

» Currently at 90-straight matches started and played, senior Kala Faulkner set the new Auburn record for consecutive matches started last Friday when she started against Florida in the SEC Tournament semifinals.

» Faulkner, who started her Auburn career back in 2012, has started and played every game since freshman year.

» The total matches played (90) currently sits second on the AU all-time charts, just two behind Mary Coffed (2009-12), who holds the career record.

» Brooke Ramsier had two assists in Auburn's SEC Tournament quarterfinal victory over South Carolina, providing the shot on frame that deflected back to Kristen Dodson for the first goal and then providing the great cross for the equalizer that fed to Logan Beal, who half-volleyed to Ellie Leek for the one-timer.

» Along with her three goals, Ramsier now has 10 assists, for 16 points, second on the team behind her sister Casie.

» Ramsier was the first player on the team to reach the 10-point plateau, marking her second-straight season of 10 points or more.

» Seven of her eight assists came in SEC play, the most of any player in the conference in 2015.

» Her 10 assists is already the most in a single-season for her career and her 16 points also sets a new career-high for points in a season.

» With now 10 assists, Ramsier is the 10th Auburn player ever with double-digit assists in a single-season.

» Ramsier had a hand in all three of Auburn's goals in a 3-1 victory over Tennessee. Auburn was able to score three times on a Tennessee squad that had only given up one goal before the match.

» With Auburn's first goal in the 21st minute, it broke a shutout streak of nearly 400 minutes the Volunteers had coming in. The goal came from a corner kick from Ramsier that was placed perfectly at the near post where senior Sophie Simantel finished home the header to give Auburn the early lead.

» Ramsier's three assists in the match is a new career-high for the Texas-native. Her three assists are not only a personal-high for a single game, but is the most in one game by an Auburn player this year.

» The three assists also ties for the most in one game by any SEC player this season. Ramsier joins Haley Pounds of Texas A&M and Natalia Gomez-Junco of LSU as the only players with three assists in a single game.

CASIE RAMSIER NAMED SEC CO-SCHOLAR-ATHLETE OF YEAR, HEADLINING FOUR TIGERS NAMED ALL-SEC

» Junior Casie Ramsier was named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year this afternoon along with three other Tiger soccer players, who were named All-SEC by the conference office. Joining Ramsier on the all-conference list are senior Kala Faulkner, freshman Taylor Troutman and redshirt freshman Sarah Le Beau.

» For the first time in her career, Ramsier was not only named to one of the high individual awards in the conference, but joins Faulkner on the All-SEC First Team. As for Faulkner, this marks her fourth-straight all-conference selection and second time (2013) being named to the first team.

» Le Beau was named to both the All-SEC

Second Team and SEC All-Freshman Team for her work between the pipes at goalkeeper, while Troutman emerged as one of the best freshman in the conference as she was also named to the All-Freshman team.

» The four players named all-conference this season is the most for Auburn since putting four on the prestigious lists in 2009. That year, Katy Frierson was named an All-SEC first teamer, while Rebecca Howell and Sammy Towne were put on the second team. Goalkeeper Amy Howard was named All-Freshman.

» With its four players this year, Auburn had the second-most players in the conference named All-SEC, behind just Florida and Texas A&M, who each put five on the all-conference lists.

» Going back to this year's players, Ramsier becomes the second Auburn player ever to be named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Former All-American Katy Frierson won the award back during her senior year in 2011.

» With her 3.961 GPA in a double-major of Accounting and Finance, Ramsier is on track to graduate a full year early from the honors college and begin work on her master's degree next fall.

PROTECTING HOME FIELD AT ALL COSTS

» Auburn was 9-0-0 at home this season before its 1-0 loss to Georgia last Sunday. Even with the loss, the home regular-season record is still one of the best in Auburn history. The nine wins matches the most home wins in school history in one season (2002).

» The Tigers have never gone undefeated and untied upon through an entire season in program history. Only in 2002 and 2003 did Auburn come close, recording one tie.

CASIE RAMSIER....NEVER SATISFIED

» With now 12 goals on the 2015 season, Casie Ramsier is on her way to one of the best seasons in Auburn history.

» Her 12 goals makes her the first Auburn

12-goal scorer in a season since Sarah Steinmann had 12 in 2003.

» It hasn't taken Ramsier long to reach the 10-goal plateau as most of her goal-scoring performances have come with more than one goal per game. In the seven matches she has scored in this year, five have been of the two goal variety.

» The five multi-goal games puts Ramsier in good company in the Auburn all-time ranks tying Tammy Waine who also had five games of two goals or more (2000) in one season since 1999.

#MEGUHSTRONG

» For the last seven seasons, Megan Young has been the strength and conditioning coach for the Auburn Soccer team.

» Last month, Young was diagnosed with Acute Myeloid Leukemia and will be absent for the rest of the 2015 season.

» Young, a player-favorite over the years has touched many young female lives over her years on the Auburn staff and is the longest tenured current member on Coach Hoppa's support staff.

» A website has been created to help fund the medical expenses of Young, who will be getting treatment in Birmingham, Ala. The website is meguhstrong.mydagsite.com.

» With the large outpouring of support for Young in her fight, a hashtag has been established by the soccer team, #MeguhStrong.

TROUTMAN WINS SEC FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK HONORS AFTER WINNER AT ALABAMA

» After netting the biggest goal of her Auburn career, so far, Auburn soccer freshman Taylor Troutman was named the Southeastern Conference's Freshman of the Week.

» Troutman scored the game-winner in double-overtime against in-state rival Alabama in the "Iron Bowl of Soccer" last Thursday, breaking a 1-1 tie to help give Auburn its fifth win in a row, fourth in conference play.

» After both teams battled to a 1-1 draw through the first 100 minutes of play, Auburn finally got a break in the tough winds that came through the Tuscaloosa area that night. Sophomore Hannah

» Auburn has been able to win when it matters most this season. The Tigers have been taken into double-overtime four times this season, winning or advancing each time. (Last vs. S. Carolina - SEC Tourn. - Won in PKs).

Alspach sent in a ball to the far post in the 103rd minute, where Troutman raced in untouched to head the ball in beautifully, giving the opposing keeper no chance to stop it.

» For Troutman, it was her third goal of the year and first game-winner of her career. Troutman becomes the fourth Auburn player and only Auburn freshman with three or more goals this season, joining Casie and Brooke Ramsier along with Kristen Dodson.

» With the honor, it also breaks the program record for number of Auburn players named conference player of the week in a single-season. In the 2003 and 2004 seasons, Auburn won four player of the week awards. This year, the team has accumulated five of the weekly honors, most out of any team in the SEC.

TIGERS GETTING IT DONE IN OVERTIME

» After winning 2-1 in double-overtime at Alabama, Auburn has proven it knows how to win after regulation.

» The win at Alabama was the Tigers' third double-overtime victory joining the likes of a 1-0 win at Long Beach State and a 3-2 win in its SEC home opener against LSU.

» This is the first time in Auburn's history that the Tigers have won three games in a season in double-overtime.

» Even though Auburn's first tie of the year was recorded Wednesday night with South Carolina, Auburn still came out on the winning side, defeating the Gamecocks 5-3 on penalty kicks to advance to the SEC Tournament semifinals.

» Game-winners in each have been scored by Brooke Ramsier (LSU), Casie Ramsier (LSU) and Taylor Troutman (Alabama).

AUBURN SOCCER ACHIEVES HIGHEST RANKING IN PROGRAM HISTORY AT NO. 8

» With late wins over LSU and No. 9 Florida last week, the Auburn soccer team was expecting a rise in the national polls. When the polls were released, Auburn was No. 8 in the country according to the National Soccer Coaches Association of America.

» The Tigers dropped in this week's polls after a loss at No. 10 South Carolina and a win at home over No. 17 Texas A&M to 10th in the NSCAA poll and 12th in the Top Drawer Soccer poll.

» The No. 8 ranking sets a new highest ranking ever achieved by the Auburn soccer program in its history.

» This year, Auburn has been ranked for the past eight weeks, reaching No. 9 nearly three weeks ago before the SEC opener, which was the previous high.

» Before this year, Auburn had only reached the top-ten once back in 2004, en route to a 15-win season, which is still a school record for wins in a season.

CASIE RAMSIER NAMED NATIONAL AND CONFERENCE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

» Still just a few days removed from helping Auburn to a thrilling 3-2 victory over No. 9 Florida on her winning goal in the final 30 seconds, junior Casie Ramsier raked in another weekly honor as she was named the National Player of the Week by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America and SEC Offensive Player of the Week.

» Ramsier was crucial in Auburn's thrilling wins over LSU and Florida this past weekend, both by scores of 3-2. The win over Florida was Auburn's first over the Gators since 2011 and first over a top-ten team since the same year.

» The national honor for Ramsier makes her only the second Auburn player to ever be named the National Player of the Week. Former Auburn All-American Katy Frierson was named National Player of the Week twice in her career, each in the 2010 and 2011 seasons.

» Ramsier scored two goals in both wins, both game-winners; the winning goal over LSU coming minutes into the second overtime period and the winner against Florida coming in the final 30 seconds of regulation.

AUBURN CLAIMS 100 SEC VICTORIES IN PROGRAM HISTORY WITH WIN OVER TENNESSEE

» Entering its 22nd year of existence the Auburn women's soccer program has been the since the beginning of SEC Women's Soccer.

» When the SEC adopted women's soccer as a recognized conference sport in 1993, Auburn was one of the first four schools to field a team that year.

» Since then, Auburn has racked up 100 conference wins with number 100 coming on Sunday in its 3-1 victory over Tennessee.

» Auburn becomes the fifth school to ever win 100 SEC games, following the likes of Kentucky, Florida, Georgia and Tennessee. Auburn becomes the second original four team to win 100 conference games (Kentucky).

AUBURN GOES UNDEFEATED IN NON-CONFERENCE PLAY FOR FIRST TIME IN PROGRAM HISTORY

» With its 2-1 win over in-state rival South Alabama, the Auburn Tigers finished the non-conference portion of their 2015 schedule with a perfect 7-0-0 record.

» The perfect record marked the first time that Auburn had ever gone through the non-conference portion of their schedule with all wins and no ties since the team's inception in 1993.

» The last time an Auburn team ever came close to going undefeated and untied in non-conference play was in 2000, as the Tigers went 13-7-0 overall, losing to just Dayton, 3-1.

LAST TIME OUT: AUBURN FALLS IN SEC TOURNAMENT SEMIFINALS TO TOP-SEEDED FLORIDA

» After two Florida goals in the first half, the 19th-ranked Auburn soccer team fought valiantly to try and make its second two-goal comeback in as many games, but could not get anything to hit the back of the net, falling 2-0 to No. 5 Florida Friday night in the SEC Tournament semifinals.

» Florida's Christen Westphal and Savannah Jordan provided the goals for the Gators within the first 18 minutes of regulation, but the Tigers were able to control much of the possession for the remainder of the game, getting many good looks at the goal, but getting nothing to fall.

» It was seemingly a tale of two halves between the Tigers and Gators. Florida controlled the possession game in the first 45 minutes, outshooting Auburn 6-3, but when the Tigers came out in the second half, it was Auburn that went on the offensive.

» Seven shots were put up by the Tigers in the second half, compared to Florida's one. Juniors Brooke and Casie Ramsier were doing everything they could to try and create something through the midfield, but each time Florida's back line was able to clear the ball or force a wayward Auburn shot.

» Auburn's Casie Ramsier has 12 goals on the year, making her the first Auburn player with 12 or more goals in a year since 2002 (Sarah Steinmann). The 12 goals is three more than her entire total freshman year (9, 2013).

» Auburn did have a few unlucky breaks during the second half. In the 52nd minute, Auburn got what looked to be a key corner kick from Brooke Ramsier. Ramsier placed the ball perfectly in the middle of the box, where it was deflected right to Casie near the left post.

» Casie fired a shot that bounced off the Florida goalkeeper and in, but was called offside.

» Just a minute later, Casie Ramsier again came up with a big play intercepting the back pass from Florida in the right side of the box and was able to get Florida keeper Kaylan Marckese in a 1v1. Ramsier shot far post, but it was just tipped by Marckese and rolled just wide of the post.

» Casie and Brooke Ramsier ended up with five shots combined, one each on goal. Samantha Solaru, Hannah Alspach and Kala Faulkner also provided a shot on goal in the match, forcing Marckese to make five saves for Florida.

LEEK RACKING UP THE ASSIST NUMBERS

» Although still scoreless this year, sophomore Ellie Leek has found a way to contribute anyway, posting five assists so far this season, good for second on the team.

» Leek notched two assists in each of the matches against Furman (8/30) and South Alabama (9/13), which is a new single-game high for the Wales-native.

» She also had an assist against Samford (9/4), along with four shots, one being on goal.

» Leek has become a staple on the front line for the Tigers, creating multiple scoring opportunities off counter-attacks this season.

SIMANTEL STEPS UP

» After teammate Haley Gerken went down with a season-ending knee injury, senior Sophie Simantel was called upon by head coach Karen Hoppa to fill the gap in the back.

» Simantel started the next five matches on

Auburn's back line after Gerken's injury, logging 70 minutes or more in four of the last five contests

» Before this season, Simantel had only played a full 90 minutes four times in her career. This year she has logged 90 minutes against Samford (9/4) and South Alabama (9/13).

» Out of the five matches she's started this season, she has helped Auburn to two shutouts, Samford and Old Dominion (9/6).

TWIN KILLING; RAMSIERS PROVIDE FIREPOWER IN HOME-OPENING WINS

» Auburn scored six goals in the home opener week in wins over UAB and Furman. Out of those six, four were scored by sisters Casie and Brooke Ramsier.

» Brooke scored the second goal of the season for Auburn during opening weekend, but Casie was left scoreless through two matches.

» After Brooke opened the scoring vs. UAB, Casie went on to score three of the next five Auburn goals, including the second-half netter vs. Furman.

» 29 total goals have been scored by just the Ramsier twins in the previous three seasons.

» Both players currently lead the Auburn squad with eight goals coming for Casie and three for Brooke.

ALSPACH STRIKES FROM WAY OUTSIDE

» With her goal in the 9th minute vs. Furman, Alspach finally got her first goal of her collegiate career.

» Alspach found the net from nearly 20 yards out on a tough angle, getting one to tip past the keeper into the upper left 90.

» The Denton, Texas native is one of 10 different Tigers to score at least one goal this season.

» Alspach arrived on campus a year ago as a forward, but has solidified herself on the back line as a tough defender with the ability to move up the flanks at a moment's notice when needed.

SARAH LE BEAU EARNS FIRST SEC DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK AWARD

» With two 1-0 shutouts to open the 2015 season, redshirt freshman goalkeeper Sarah Le Beau was honored by the Southeastern Conference for her performance as she was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week. Le Beau made nine saves overall on the weekend with eight coming on Sunday at Long Beach State, the third-most in a game by an Auburn keeper in the last four seasons.

FAULKNER CAPTAINS AUBURN'S STRONG DEFENSE

» In 2015, Auburn will field one of its most experienced back lines in recent history as all four of its primary defenders in 2014 are back in the Orange and Blue.

» 10 shutouts in 2014 highlights Auburn's defensive play, second-most in the SEC.

» Kala Faulkner, who will once again captain the back line, has 80 caps to her name, as she has started every game since her freshman year (2012).

HOPPA REACHES 250 CAREER WINS WITH 1-0 DOUBLE OVERTIME VICTORY OVER LBSU

» With Auburn's win at Long Beach State, head coach Karen Hoppa recorded her 250th career win as a head coach, combining her 64 wins at UCF and her now 186 wins at Auburn.

» Hoppa now joins 36 other Division I head coaches with 250 wins and three other head coaches in the SEC (Becky Burleigh, Florida, 437; G Guerrerri Texas A&M, 396; Bryan Blitz, Missouri, 253).

» Entering her 17th season as head coach of Auburn, Hoppa has reached the SEC Tournament for the past 14 seasons and has recorded 10 wins or more in 13 of her 17 seasons on The Plains.

LE BEAU EARNS KEEP AFTER WINNING STARTING JOB IN GOAL

» After winning out the starting spot at goalkeeper, redshirt freshman Sarah Le Beau proved in just the first weekend why she could be one of the better keepers in the SEC.

» Le Beau earned the win and shutout in both matches of opening weekend, turning away a combined nine shots on goal vs. UC-Irvine and Long Beach State.

» Her performance netted her the SEC Defensive Player of the Week honor, just the sixth AU goalkeeper to do so.

» Le Beau has made eight saves in a game twice so far this season (Missouri, 9/11) (Long Beach State, 8/23), which ties for the second-most in a game by any SEC goalkeeper this year.

THE BELGIAN SENSATION: CHARLOTTE VAN ISHOVEN

» Freshman and Belgian international Charlotte Van Ishoven didn't waste any time making her presence in America after scoring on a header Friday against UCI, the game-winning goal in that match.

» Van Ishoven only played two minutes in that match, the final two minutes of the first half, but found herself in the right place in the box after a deflection, which ended up being the game-winner.

» Van Ishoven played a combined 15 minutes in the opening weekend and should see more playing time as the season progresses.

ONE ISN'T ALWAYS THE LONLIEST NUMBER

» The 1-0 wins over UCI and Long Beach State were impressive starts for Auburn in their own right, but it was also the first time Auburn ever started a season with two 1-0 victories.

A HELPING HAND

» Auburn tallied one of the top assist numbers in the nation last season, 46, which was the 19th-highest total in the nation.

» Sophomore Kristen Dodson led the way in the category with 10, which ended up being the second-most in a single season ever by an AU freshman.

INTERNATIONAL FLAVOR

» Sophomore Ellie Leek was Auburn's first international player since 2005 last season, now Auburn has a second player from across the pond in Charlotte Van Ishoven.

» Van Ishoven, a native of Belgium, comes by way of the Standard De Liege club, which was a winner of the Belgian Cup in 2014.

» Van Ishoven is also currently a member of the U-19 Belgian Women's National Team.

AUBURN TABBED SEVENTH IN SEC PRESEASON COACHES POLL

» The Auburn University women's soccer team was picked to finish seventh in the Southeastern Conference in the preseason voting by the league's 14 head coaches.

» The poll, which was released by the conference office in Birmingham, Ala., tabbed Auburn with 103 of the total points awarded by the coaches, ahead of Arkansas (80), Georgia (71), Ole Miss (64), LSU (49), Alabama (38), Vanderbilt (34) and Mississippi State (18).

» In last season's preseason poll, Auburn was picked to finish 11th, but put those doubts to rest as it went on to win five conference matches and its 14th-straight berth in the SEC Tournament, finishing in a tie for fifth.

» The conference tournament streak is the second-longest active streak among the conference teams and dates back to 2001, all under current head coach Karen Hoppa.

FAULKNER AND RAMSIER TWO OF SEC'S-20 BEST ACCORDING TO TOP DRAWER SOCCER

» Two of Auburn's most decorated players on the active roster have started to gain more attention by the national media.

» Kala Faulkner and Casie Ramsier were both named two of the 20-best players in the Southeastern Conference by Top Drawer Soccer earlier this week.

» Faulkner, who enters her senior season in 2015 was also named the 52nd-best player in the nation by TDS also earlier in the month.

» Ramsier currently has 13 goals in her Auburn career and 35 points. Her goals total is just four away from the AU top-ten all-time.

FAULKNER, GERKEN AND CASIE RAMSIER ALL NAMED CAPTAINS BY TEAM

» Before the exhibition at Kennesaw State earlier this year, the Auburn squad voted on team captains for the 2015 season.

» The honored tradition this year was bestowed on seniors Haley Gerken, Kala Faulkner and junior Casie Ramsier.

» Both Faulkner and Gerken wore the arm band last year, while this will be the first year as captain for Ramsier.

KAREN HOPPA » HEAD COACH

FAST FACTS

Since becoming Auburn's head coach in 1999, Karen Hoppa has guided the program to seven SEC Western Division Championships and 13 NCAA Tournament berths over the past 16 seasons, including a current string of 14-straight appearances in the SEC Tournament and an NCAA Tournament appearance in eight of the last nine seasons. Her coaching since arriving on The Plains has turned Auburn into a force every season.

A head coach since 1993, she became the 51st women's soccer coach to reach 200 career wins and just the 10th female head coach to reach that milestone when Auburn claimed a 2-1 overtime win over Alabama in the final regular season match of 2010.

As illustrious as her 247 career wins are, one of her biggest coaching achievements came towards the end of the 2011 season when she guided Auburn to the SEC Tournament title and the league's automatic NCAA berth, the first ever won by an SEC Western Division team since the start of the league tournament in 1993.

With a career mark of 247-170-40 (.540) between her coaching stops at Auburn and UCF, Hoppa is the dean of the SEC West and has guided the program to a 184-127-31 (.538) mark since arriving on the Plains, the third-highest win total at a single SEC school by any current coach in the league.

Auburn returned to the NCAA Tournament in 2014, winning 11 games in the regular-season and finishing tied for 5th in the SEC. The Tigers were picked 11th by the SEC coaches in the preseason, but proved the voters wrong, notching its eighth 10-win season in the last nine years.

Reaching the SEC Tournament for a 14th-consecutive year, Hoppa has continued to be one of the conference's best and most consistent coaches. Her string of tournament appearances is the second-longest streak in the SEC.

Auburn capped its 2014 home schedule with its third-straight victory over cross-state rival Alabama, winning the Iron Bowl of Soccer trophy and essentially clinching its 13th NCAA Tournament appearance. The Tigers went on to face Florida Gulf Coast in the first round and advanced to round two with a 1-0 victory. It was the sixth time in its history that Auburn reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Tigers did not make the NCAA Tournament field in 2013, but Hoppa continued her streak of SEC Tournament appearances, stretching now to 13 years, going back to 2001. With six matches remaining in the regular-season, Auburn found themselves on the outside looking in, needing to record a point in each of the remaining matches to stay mathematically eligible for the postseason. The Tigers rattled off a win or a tie in each of the final six matches, which included three-straight ties, something Auburn had never done. The Orange and Blue made the 2013 SEC Tournament field and recorded a 1-0 win over LSU in overtime after a penalty kick found the back of the net from senior Bianca Sierra.

Hoppa guided the 2012 Tigers to yet another appearance in the NCAA Tournament, as Auburn advanced to the second round for the second consecutive season. Picked to finish third in the division in the preseason, the Tigers posted a 5-2-0 record against SEC West opponents for a second place finish. Hoppa worked her SEC Tournament magic yet again, leading the Tigers to the championship match for the fifth time.

Highlighting the 2012 season was senior goalkeeper Amy Howard. Howard ended the year leading the nation in minutes played (2298:56) and eighth in total saves (130). It marked the first time an Auburn player finished the year as a national leader in any statistical category.

Howard also set the school record for career saves at 387, breaking the mark of 356 set by Allison Whitworth (2005-08). Howard's 387 career saves are the second-most in SEC history.

Since the start of the 2001 season, two years after her arrival at Auburn, she has guided the program to 12 10-win seasons and an astounding 46-15-4 (.738) mark against SEC West teams.

Hoppa's teams are a model of athletic success on the field and academic success off it. A consistent post-season entrant, Auburn has advanced to the SEC Tournament 14 consecutive times, the second-longest active streak in the conference, while maintaining one of the highest team GPAs on the Auburn campus, collecting a NSCAA Team Academic Award for four-straight years as over 65 percent of the 2011 team was on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

Hoppa has also seen a trio of her players earn CoSIDA Academic All-America recognition in Katy Frierson (2011), Jenn Johnson (2007 & 2008) and Erin Hinson (2003) while Frierson was named the NSCAA Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2010. In 2014, sophomore Casie Ramsier was honored as a Capital One Academic All-District.

Owning an eye for spotting talent and the ability to coach players to the best of their ability, Hoppa has helped five different players collect a total of 13 All-America honors, has coached 17 All-SEC First Team selections, 15 All-SEC Second Team selections, four SEC Players of the Year (Sarah Steinmann - 2002; Ronda Brooks - 2006; Julie King - 2011; Kala Faulkner - 2012), 11 All-SEC Freshmen and two SEC Freshmen of the Year (Megan Rivera - 2001; Frierson - 2008). There have also been 38 All-Region honors handed out to Auburn players during Hoppa's tenure.
