» No. 2/4 Auburn is set to face a familiar opponent in an unfamiliar fashion when it takes on No. 14/13 Tennessee for a non-conference clash in Columbia, Tenn. as the headliner for the Mid-State Classic.

» The Tigers have amassed 11 wins decided by run-rule so far this season. That mark alone is fourth-most in a season in non-conference action. Auburn has totaled 15, 16 and 17 in the last three seasons under head coach Clint Myers.

» Auburn just wrapped up a 21-game homestand, the most consecutive home games in a season in program history. The previous high was 19 in 2000, with the next-highest total of 15 coming in 2005, 2011, 2014 and 2016.

» Senior Haley Fagan capped a career-best 20-game hit streak last weekend against No. 12/12 LSU. The Dunnellon, Fla. native is currently riding a 23-game on-base streak that dates back to Feb. 10 against Nebraska.

» Senior Kasey Cooper was selected as a candidate for the Senior CLASS Award. The annual award is given to the player who excels in community, classroom, character and competition.

CLINT MYERS » HEAD COACH

With the reputation of taking a program and turning it into a perennial power, head coach Clint Myers has taken Auburn softball to unprecedented heights in just three years.

Myers has guided the Tigers to back-to-back Women's College World Series appearances in the past two campaigns, when the previously best finish came with a showing at a regional final in 2006.

Since his appointment following the 2013 season, Auburn has broken 21 records, including 16 on offense, and led the nation in a plethora of categories.

Myers has coached nine All-Americans, with three coming in each of his seasons on The Plains. Before his arrival, the Tigers had five players who were tabbed All-Americans in the previous 17 campaigns.

In comparison with rivals in the conference, Myers has coached nine All-SEC performers, even setting a program record with four in 2015. Between 1997-2013, Auburn had never placed multiple players on the all-conference team lists. Since then, the Tigers have had three, four and two representatives in successive years under Myers.

As impressive as Myers' teams have been on the field, the program has taken a giant leap forward off of it.

Under Myers, Auburn has placed three on Academic All-America and Academic All-District lists, something that had never been done previously. In 2016, the Tigers had 24 honorees on the Academic All-SEC list. Kasey Cooper also became the first player in softball history to be named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and the NCAA Elite 90 winner.

A 1976 graduate of Arizona State, Myers was a member of the Sun Devil baseball team from 1970-73 and played on the College World Series runner-up squads in 1972 and 1973. He was later selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the third round of the 1973 Major League Draft.

Myers and his wife, Katie, have two sons, Casey and Corey. They also have three grandchildren; grandsons, Cole and Christian, and granddaughter, Carlee.
