WAKE ME UP WHEN SEPTEMBER ENDS

Summer has come and past, The innocent faint of heart can never last, wake me up when September ends! No doubt Skip Holtz is thinking this when he looks at the schedule the Bulldogs face in the first five weeks of the year facing two top-five teams. In all, Tech's four FBS opponents posted a 41-12 (.774) record last season with all four playing in bowl games.

Date	Aug. 30	Sept. 6	Sept. 11	Sept. 27
Location	AWAY	AWAY	AWAY	AWAY
2014 Ranking	4/3	RV/RV	-/-	5/5
2013 Record	11-2	9-4	9-4	12-2
2013 Bowl	Sugar (W)	New Orleans (W)	Heart of Dallas (W)	National Championship (L)

LA TECH'S NON-CONFERENCE OPPONENTS POST SECOND-BEST RECORD LAST YEAR

The schedule is tough enough when you consider the timing, the locations of games and what postseason games each team played in but the combined non-conference opponents record of 38-14 ranks LA Tech's schedule the second-toughest in the nation. Only Wyoming is playing a group of non-conference opponents that registered more wins in 2013.

Schools facing non-conference teams with a combined 37 wins or more in 2013:

School	2013 Record of Non-Conf. Opp.
1. Wyoming	40-12
2. Louisiana Tech	38-14
T-3. UCF	37-15
T-3. Hawaii	37-27 (Five Opponents)
T-3. UNLV	37-28 (Five Opponents)

TECH ONLY ONE OF FOUR TO FACE TWO TOP-10 TEAMS THROUGH WEEK FIVE

No one ever said it would be easy but continuing on the theme of Louisiana Tech having one of the toughest, if not the toughest, opening schedules in the country we take a look at national rankings. As the Bulldogs face No. 5 Auburn on Sept. 27, Tech joins only three other schools having faced at least two Associated Press top-10 opponents through the first five weeks of the season.

Only Rice, SMU and West Virginia have matched Louisiana Tech in such a daunting opening schedule and of those four schools, only LA Tech has faced two schools ranked in the AP top-five. Tech has matched West Virginia with a 2-2 mark facing that daunting competition while Rice and SMU enter week five searching for their first win of the season.

School	2014 Record	Week 1	Week 2	Week 3	Week 4	Week 5
Louisiana Tech	2-2	at #4 Oklahoma	at UL-Lafayette	@ North Texas	Northwestern State	at #5 Auburn
Rice	0-3	at #8 Notre Dame	---	at #7 Texas A&M	Old Dominion	at Southern Miss
SMU	0-3	at #10 Baylor	at North Texas	---	vs. #6 Texas A&M	TCU
West Virginia	2-2	vs. #2 Alabama	Towson	at Maryland	#4 Oklahoma	Kansas

BULLDOGS VS. THE YELLOWHAMMER STATE

Entering this week's game at Auburn Louisiana Tech has posted an 8-16-1 record in its program history against teams from Alabama. That includes a 2-3 mark against the University of Alabama.

BLAME AUBURN: If not for the Tigers, LA Tech would be 8-5 vs. Alabama teams all-time.

AUBURN-TECH TIES

While Auburn head coach Gus Malzahn has never faced Louisiana Tech, several members of his coaching staff are quite familiar with the Bulldogs. Overall, Auburn's coaching staff has a combined record of 13-10 when facing Louisiana Tech with one Texas A&M win declared an Aggie forfeit by the NCAA in penalties imposed after the 1998 contest.

Scott Fountain (ST/TE) coached at UCF in 1997-2003 and faced LA Tech three times, in 1998 (UCF, 64-30), 1999 (Tech, 46-35) and 2000 (UCF, 20-16). Fountain also coached former Auburn punter Steven Clark who was a Ray Guy Award finalist in 2011 when LA Tech's Ryan Allen won the first of his two Ray Guy Awards.

Auburn's Rodney Green (DL) was a member of the Auburn staff in 1990 that edged LA Tech, 16-14. Rhett Lashlee (OC) was a GA coach at Auburn when the Eagles beat LA Tech in the two teams' most recent meeting, a 37-13 Auburn win in 2009.

J.B. Grimes (OL) was the offensive line coach at Mississippi State in 2008 when LA Tech racked up 8.0 tackles for a loss of 27 yards - including four sacks for a loss of 18 yards - in a 22-14 LA Tech win in Ruston. Grimes was also on a Texas A&M staff that faced Tech three times in his 1998-2002 tenure and was at Louisiana-Monroe twice (1979-80, 1985-88), facing the Bulldogs six times.

Charlie Harbison (S) was the defensive coordinator at Mississippi State in 2008 when LA Tech notched three interceptions in that 22-14 win and was the defensive backs coach at Alabama from 1998-2000 when the Bulldogs upset the Crimson Tide, 29-28, in 1999.

Ellis Johnson (DC) was the defensive coordinator on that Bama staff in 1999 when the Crimson Tide's defense, finishing the 1999 season ranked No. 9 in the nation, fell to Tech on a last-second, game-winning touchdown pass by Brian Stallworth to Sean Cangelosi for 28 yards and the win in what is considered one of LA Tech's more dramatic wins in school history. Johnson also coached at Alabama in 1997 when the Bulldogs first upended the Tide, 26-20, and also at Bama from 1990-93, facing Tech twice in that time.

Melvin Smith (CB) was on two different Mississippi State staffs that lost to Louisiana Tech, first in 2008 as the cornerbacks coach (22-14 Tech win) and also in 1996 when LA Tech beat Miss. State, 38-23, in Starkville.

On the Tech side, Tim Rattay was 0-2 against Auburn as the Bulldogs' quarterback combining for 57-for-101 for 501 yards and three touchdowns over two games (1997, 1998) with six interceptions.

KENNETH DIXON FIFTH NATIONALLY IN YARDS PER ATTEMPT

One of the toughest and strongest running backs in the nation, Kenneth Dixon has turned heads every where he has gone since he broke three of Marshall Faulk's NCAA Freshman rushing records during the 2012 season.

Entering this week's game, Dixon is ranked fifth in the nation among active tailbacks in averaging 6.1 yards per rushing attempt in his career.

LOOKING TO CONTINUE RECENT SUCCESS VS. POWER-5 TEAMS

Normally guarantee games only guarantee a large check and a big win for the paying team. However in recent years, Louisiana Tech has bucked that trend in a dominating way. Over the last three seasons, the Bulldogs are 3-5 against teams from the Power-5 conferences with three of the five losses determined by one possession.

In 2012, Louisiana Tech beat a pair of then-BCS team sin consecutive weeks on the road - a feat that notable Goliath-slayer Boise State has yet to achieve - as LA Tech collected two wins and $1.6 million in guarantee money.

Three of the blemishes over the last two years have been an overtime loss at Mississippi State in 2011, a thrilling 59-57 loss to No. 22 Texas A&M in 2012 that ranked as ESPN's No. 8 game of the 2012 season and a 13-10 loss at Kansas.

BEST WESTERN EFFORT

Not only has Louisiana Tech fared well in recent meetings against teams from the Power-5 conferences but the Bulldogs have fared well in their last meetings against members of the Southeastern Conference's West Division, with the notable exception of Auburn.

The last time Louisiana Tech faced each member of the SEC West (except Auburn), the Bulldogs either claimed a win or lost in a one-possession game.

LITTLE YOUNG GIANTS

Entering the 2014 season Louisiana Tech's offensive line ranks fifth in the nation in fewest starts among the big boys up front. Having lost three starters from last year's squad (and four starters from the year before), offensive line coach Matt Moore has had one of the toughest tasks in the nation replacing seven starters in a two-year span. This year, Moore's unit has a combined 24 games started between Mitchell Bell, Tre Carter and Jens Danielsen. All other offensive linemen on Tech's roster has not started a game entering the 2014 season.

TAKING A STAND

Louisiana Tech's defense had a hot start to its Sept. 11 game at North Texas as the Bulldogs opened the game forcing the Mean Green into six consecutive three-and-outs upon kickoff. That marks the first time LA Tech's defense has held an opponent to six consecutive three-and-outs since facing South Carolina on Nov. 7, 1992 (a game that resulted in a 14-13 loss to the Gamecocks). In that game, South Carolina was held to six consecutive three-and-outs with a kickoff being returned for a touchdown, something the NCAA does not observe as a possession.

HOME SWEET HOME

As Louisiana Tech finally returned home to Joe Aillet Stadium for its home opener on Sept. 20, it joined six other programs in hosting its first home game of the season (not at a neutral site) in the fourth week of the season. Navy, Ohio, Rice, SMU, UCF and Western Michigan all hosted their first home games that week while LA Tech, Navy and Ohio are the only programs in the country to spend the first three weeks of the season on the road.

By virtue of the various kickoff times that Saturday, Louisiana Tech was the last team in the nation to kickoff its home schedule.

RED ALERT

Only four weeks into the season, Louisiana Tech is quickly finding ways to cure the red zone woes that plagued the Bulldogs last season. LA Tech is currently tied for first in the nation in red zone offense (along with 18 other teams, including this week's opponent, Auburn) as the Bulldogs are 11-for-11 in the red zone this year. That includes two scores inside the red zone at No. 4/3 Oklahoma, three scores in the red zone at Louisiana-Lafayette on Sept. 6, four scores at North Texas on Sept. 11 and two scores against Northwestern State on Sept. 20.

Last season, the Bulldogs ranked 90th (out of 123 FBS teams) in the red zone with a 79.1 scoring percentage.

CODY SOKOL AMONG NATIONAL PASSING LEADERS

New Louisiana Tech quarterback Cody Sokol has jumped right in to his role as the Bulldogs' gunslinger and the results are quickly showing how well he has embraced this offense. Entering Saturday's game, Sokol has 10 passing touchdowns this season, ranking him tied for 12th in the nation with a handful of other quarterbacks.

Last season, it took LA Tech only threw for 10 touchdowns throughout the entire 2013 campaign.

SEVEN IN A ROW IS JUST ANOTHER LOUISIANA SATURDAY NIGHT

As Louisiana Tech rolled to a 48-20 win over Louisiana-Lafayette on Sept. 6 in Lafayette, it seemed like just another Louisiana Saturday Night for the Bulldogs. That's because LA Tech extended its winning streak over the Ragin' Cajuns to seven - the longest either side has maintained in the 86-game history - and done so in dominating fashion.

Over the seven game winning streak, Louisiana Tech has won by an average of 30 points with the average score being 48-18 in the Bulldogs' favor. In those seven games, LA Tech has been held to under 30 points just once (a 24-20 win in 2004) while ULL has scored over 30 points just once (a 41-31 Tech win in 1999). The biggest Tech win came in 1998 as Tim Rattay led the Bulldogs to a 77-14 win over ULL (then named USL).

LONE(SOME) STAR STATE

After playing five games over the last two years in the state of Texas, Louisiana Tech is feeling a little lonesome for the Lone Star State this year as the Bulldogs will only play one game there – at North Texas on Thursday, Sept. 11. Of the 58 student-athletes on the Louisiana Tech roster, almost half (28) call Texas home. This marks the fewest games in Texas for LA Tech since 2011 when the Bulldogs did not make a trip to the Lone Star State.

A WINNING HISTORY

Historically, Louisiana Tech has compiled a .500 or better record against 7 of its 12 opponents the Bulldogs will be facing this season with even or winning marks against Louisiana-Lafayette, North Texas, Northwestern State, UTEP, UTSA, Western Kentucky and UAB. Tech has compiled a 136-108-13 all-time record against its 12 opponents.

Additionally, the Bulldogs will be facing two teams for the first time in program history this year with both on the road. LA Tech will play at Oklahoma on Aug. 30 and at Old Dominion on Nov. 22 in the first meeting between both schools.

LA TECH WITH AS MANY STARTS AS IT HAS QUARTERBACKS

The offensive line is not the only position group that enters the season looking to gain experience quickly in 2014 with the quarterback position also seeing significant turnover. Entering the season, Louisiana Tech has as many quarterback starts on its roster (six) as it does number of quarterbacks. All six of those starts belong to redshirt sophomore Ryan Higgins, who made all six last season as a redshirt freshman.

In all, the six Louisiana Tech quarterbacks have played in a combined nine games throughout their careers with seven games played for Higgins, one for Cody Sokol when he was at Iowa and one for Taylor Burch before he initially left the team to focus on baseball in 2011. With only a combined nine games played among its quarterback roster, Louisiana Tech is tied for 11th among all schools for the least experience at the position.

EXPERIENCED SECONDARY TO LEAD DEFENSE

When Manny Diaz took over the LA Tech defense, little did he know he was inheriting what was quietly becoming one of the best secondaries in Conference USA with some players as good as any in the country. Le’Vander Liggins, Adairius Barnes and Xavier Woods lead a group that is challenging most teams’ passing games in 2014.

TONY JOHNSON AGREES: IT’S BETTER TO GIVE THAN RECEIVE

Last season Tony Johnson played a pivotal role for the Bulldogs ... on offense. Johnson played several games at fullback as Tech did not have any fullbacks on the roster during the transition to the new offense under Skip Holtz.

When asked during Conference USA Media Days this season whether he liked making tackles (as a linebacker) or getting tackled (as a fullback) Johnson quipped, “Well, the Lord said it is better to give than receive.”

Looking at his level of play this year, he is obviously a much better fit at linebacker.

THE SIXTH YEAR'S THE CHARM

LA Tech wide receiver Sterling Griffin was granted a sixth year of eligibility by the NCAA on Aug. 18 allowing him to compete for the Bulldogs in the 2014 season. Griffin, a native of Opa Locka, Florida, was one of Louisiana Tech's top receivers with 357 receiving yards on 33 catches last year, averaging 10.8 yards per catch. His 74-yard touchdown catch at Rice last November was the longest play of the year for the Bulldogs.

Griffin was the lone sixth-year applicant for LA Tech in 2014 coming off a year where the Bulldogs submitted six eligibility waivers to the NCAA. Last season, LA Tech was granted three sixth-year waivers and two more waivers allowing an additional season of eligibility.

Receivers Richie Casey, Andrew Guillot and Scott Cathcart and offensive linemen Larry Banks and Jeremy Graffree were granted eligibility in 2013 by the NCAA but the final two decisions involving Banks and Cathcart did not become final until three days prior to Tech's first game of the season.

SATURDAY NIGHT SPECIAL

Entering the 2014 season, Louisiana Tech has five night games scheduled out of its 12 contests with three game times still to be announced (due to 12-day television selections). The Bulldogs went 4-3 in night games in 2013.

BURCH IS BACK

Quarterback Taylor Burch is making a return to football for his final year of eligibility. Burch was a member of the football team in 2010 and 2011 as well as a member of the baseball team before focusing on baseball in 2012 and 2013. With his baseball eligibility exhausted, Burch has returned to football for one last fall. He is 1-for-1 in his football career after completing a 12-yard pass against Houston on Sept. 17, 2011 on a fake field goal play.

SEEING RED

The Oct. 4 game against UTEP marks Louisiana Tech's annual Community Trust Bank RED OUT game where the Bulldogs wear their red jerseys at home instead of their traditional home blue jerseys. Since instituting the CTB RED OUT game promotion in 2009, Louisiana Tech has gone 2-3 in those games.

LOCKS OF LOVE

One of the newest Bulldogs to make an immediate impact this season as been Hardin, Texas Mitch Villemez. It is hard not to notice Villemez on the playing field during games and it is not just because of his 50 total tackles this season which ranks third on the team. Villemez can be seen with a long red ponytail and he has that hair style for a very specific reason: he is growing it out for Locks of Love.

Locks of Love is a public non-profit organization that provides hairpieces to financially disadvantaged children in the United States and Canada under age 21 suffering from long-term medical hair loss from any diagnosis.

In order to donate to Locks of Love, hair must be a minimum of 10 inches long before it can be cut and donated.

NEW DOG ON CAMPUS

While Louisiana Tech may have 22 seniors (including redshirt seniors) on its roster, that group is primarily a bunch of newbies when it comes to wearing the Red and Blue for Louisiana Tech. LA Tech lead the nation (tied with New Mexico) with the fewest number of player on its roster that has been on its campus for four and five years with only 11. LA Tech is also tied for fifth in the nation with only four players on its roster that have actually been on campus for all five years of their collegiate career.

LOOKING TO RETURN TO .500 IN TEXAS

While Louisiana Tech has posted a winning record against teams from the state of Texas, this Thursday's game gives the Bulldogs a chance to get within a game of pulling even at .500 when playing in the Lone Star State. LA Tech is 34-36-1 all-time when playing in the state of Texas after going 1-3 last year.

BULLDOG OPENER HISTORY

After Louisiana Tech fell at No. 4/3 Oklahoma, 48-16, to open the 2014 campaign the Bulldogs moved to 51-51-5 all-time in season openers. That mark includes a record of 9-1 at Joe Aillet Stadium. Tech's only loss in Joe Aillet Stadium on opening day was 12-7 to Tennessee-Chattanooga in 1978.

A LONG TIME VOICE FOR THE RED RUBY AND BLUE

For Louisiana Tech's Dave Nitz, he may be calling Tech's colors Ruby and Blue this year as he embarks on his 40th consecutive season calling the Bulldogs.

The 2014 campaign will mark Nitz's ruby anniversary of proclaiming "Ya Gotta Love It!" during Bulldog broadcasts on the LA Tech Sports Network, a streak that is one of the longest active broadcast streaks in the nation.

NITZ-HOLTZ CONNECTION

The connection between LA Tech play-by-play announcer Dave Nitz and the Holtz family goes much farther back than Louisiana Tech. Several years decades ago, Nitz was the play-by-play announcer at William & Mary. During his time in Williamsburg, Va., Nitz called games when the head coach of the Tribe was Lou Holtz, the father of current Louisiana Tech head coach Skip Holtz.

Nitz recently recalled a night when he and Lou drove up to Washington, D.C. from Williamsburg to see a Washington Senators game at RFK Stadium. Joining the two for the game was a seven-year old boy in the backseat named Skip.

TWENTY-ONE THE MAGIC NUMBER

Dating back to the 1998 season, history has shown that when the Louisiana Tech offense struggles the team tends to struggle. Since 1998 the Bulldogs have compiled a 4-61 record when scoring less than 21 points. Before the Bulldogs won the 2008 Independence Bowl vs. Northern Illinois 17-10, the last victory for Tech when scoring less than 21 points was in 2003 against Michigan State when the Bulldogs upset the then ranked Spartans, 20-19. Tech added a win to that tally on Sept. 4, 2010 when the Bulldogs defeated Grambling State, 20-6 but dropped a 26-20 overtime decision at Mississippi State on Sept. 24, 2011.

SKIP HOLTZ AMONG WINNINGEST ACTIVE COACHES

Last season, Skip Holtz became only the 25th active head coach with 90 career wins. This year, he is moving up that list. Entering Saturday's game, Holtz is ranked tied for 24th among active head coaches in terms of career wins. Virginia Tech's Frank Beamer currently leads all active coaches, serving in his 34th year as a head coach.

Holtz's father, Lou, tallied 249 wins as a head coach on the collegiate level in 34 years as a head coach.

#TBT (THROWBACK TO THURSDAY)

Every trend comes to an end. That was especially true for Louisiana Tech when the Bulldogs won decisively at North Texas, 42-21, in what was only the program's second win on a Thursday since making the move to Division I-A in 1989.

Prior to Sept. 11, the last time LA Tech had recorded a win on Thursday was in 1995 with a 28-21 win over Bowling Green on the road. Since then, up until Sept. 11, Tech had lost four straight in games played on Thursday.

The win also moved LA Tech's record to 6-10 in non-traditional game dates since 1989.

"This must be Thursday," said Arthur to himself, sinking low over his beer. 'I never could get the hang of Thursdays.' - Douglas Adams, The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy

THEY SAID IT

"To [score 42 points] here at Apogee Stadium where they were 13-5 coming in under Dan McCarney. [North Texas] takes a lot of pride in their home field advantage and on a short week, Louisiana Tech came in and hung 42 on them. That may be one of the most impressive scores in Conference USA this week." – Kevin O'Connell, CBS Sports Network announcer after LA Tech's dominating win at North Texas

FAMILY TRADITION

Thomas Graham is back for his sixth year with the Bulldog football team. Graham has joined the staff as a graduate assistant (working with the linebackers). This coaching position comes after one year on the strength and conditioning staff which was immediately preceded by four years as the team's deep snapper. As the team's deep snapper, he continued a family tradition as his brother, Matt, was the deep snapper for LA Tech four straight years before him. The Graham brothers come from a football family has their grandfather Bill Graham, who is the Director of Special Events at Tech, played football for Florida State (and was roommates with Burt Reynolds) at running back and their father, Randy Graham, played rover back at Missouri. The youngest of the Graham brothers, Gantt, is also with the program as a student worker on the equipment staff.

HESTER DEFIES MEDICAL ODDS, OVERCOMES RAMSAY HUNT SYNDROME

During Mardi Gras break last spring, strength and conditioning coach Kurt Hester felt a dizziness and suffered from a partial (temporary) facial paralysis. After several tests, he was diagnosed with Ramsay Hunt Syndrome. The Mayo Clinic describes Ramsay Hunt syndrome as occurring when a shingles infection affects the facial nerve near one of the ears. In addition to causing a painful shingles rash, it can also cause facial paralysis and hearing loss in the affected ear. And yet he never missed a day of work.

He refused to allow the facial paralysis to slow him down but the vertigo did cause him some issues. Hester would be yelling at players in the weight room above the weights, encouraging them to keep working harder and then the vertigo would hit without warning. All Hester could do would be to grab hold of something as quick as possible and wait a few moments until he could orient himself.

DID YOU KNOW?

Louisiana Tech has produced the most Pro Football Hall of Famers among FBS schools in Louisiana (tied with LSU).

BULLDOGS HAVE TWO SELECTED IN NFL DRAFT FOR SECOND CONSECUTIVE YEAR

The 2014 spring marked the second consecutive year that Louisiana Tech had multiple players selected in the NFL Draft as DT Justin Ellis was chosen in the 4th Round by the Oakland Raiders and DE IK Enemkpali selected in the 6th Round by the New York Jets.

That follows the 2013 NFL Draft when WR Quinton Patton (4th Round, San Francisco 49ers) and T Jordan Mills (5th Round, Chicago Bears) were drafted with four other Bulldogs signing free agent contracts.

Since 2010, LA Tech has had multiple players selected in the NFL Draft on three occasions with DT D'Anthony Smith (3rd Round, Jacksonville Jaguars) and TE Dennis Morris (6th Round, Washington Redskins) being selected that year.

LOUISIANA LEADS NATION IN NFL PLAYERS PER CAPITA

It's no secret that Louisiana produces more than its share of NFL players. Once again, it's been confirmed as data released from opening day rosters shows the state has more NFL players per capita than any other.

States (per capita)

WILLIE ROAF ENTERS COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

On Dec. 9 this year, former Louisiana Tech offensive tackle Willie Roaf will be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame, marking LA Tech's fifth inductee into college football's hallowed halls.

LA Tech is tied for second among Conference USA's 14 football programs and third among Louisiana's FBS schools in number of College Football Hall of Famers produced. Tech also has as many or more College Football Hall of Famers than Houston, Kansas State, Memphis, Mississippi State, Oklahoma State, Texas Tech and Tulsa.

Roaf's No. 71 jersey is one of only two numbers retired by Louisiana Tech, along with Terry Bradshaw's No. 12. He went on to an illustrious career in the National Football League with the New Orleans Saints (1993-2001) and Kansas City Chiefs (2002-05), becoming an 11-time Pro Bowler and a 10-time All-Pro (a six-time first team All-Pro selection).

He is already a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame (Class of 2012), Louisiana Tech Athletics Hall of Fame (2003), Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame (2007) and Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame (2009).

SKIP HOLTZ
Head Coach
@LATechSHoltz

Former Louisiana Tech University President Dr. Dan Reneau introduced former University of South Florida coach Skip Holtz as the 33rd head football coach at Louisiana Tech during a press conference on Friday, Dec. 14, 2012 in the Jarrell Room of the Charles Wylly Athletic Center.

In his first season he inherited a team that lost 35 seniors with seven being invited to NFL camps (two through the NFL Draft) and brought together the team as it entered a new conference (Conference USA) under a new President and new Athletics Director, going 4-8.

Holtz had spent the past three seasons as the head football coach at the University of South Florida. He has also served as the head coach at the University of Connecticut and East Carolina University where he won back-to-back Conference USA titles with the Pirates in 2008 and 2009. He also led his teams to five consecutive post-season bowl games between 2006 and 2010.

Holtz was hired following a national search led by then Louisiana Tech President-Elect Dr. Les Guice.

He has participated in 15 postseason games in his coaching career, including seven as a head coach and eight as an assistant coach. Of the seven games as head coach, five occurred in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) and two occurred in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS).

Sept. 6 at Lafayette, La.

LAFAYETTE, La. - For Louisiana Tech, it was just another Louisiana Saturday Night.
