The Georgia-Auburn Series

The Georgia-Auburn series is the Deep South's oldest rivalry that began in 1892. The teams will be meeting for the 113th time, and Auburn leads the series 53-51-8. It is the seventh most played series in the country, tying with Oregon-Oregon State.

In the Georgia-Auburn series, the road team has enjoyed more success. The Tigers are 18-10 in Athens while the Bulldogs are 14-9-2 in Auburn. However, one of the more unique notes about this series involves points. That is, in 112 meetings, Georgia has outscored Auburn by a total of 49 points, 1,747 to 1,698.

Georgia has won three straight in the series for the first time since 1982. The last time the Bulldogs won four in a row came in 1948. Starting in 1944, Georgia won five straight in the series and except for a tie in 1949, the Bulldogs reeled off eight straight victories until it ended in 1953.

Incidentally, the last time an unranked Bulldog squad faced a ranked Auburn team Georgia emerged with a victory. In 2006, the Bulldogs upset fifth-ranked Auburn 37-15 in Auburn.

A Quick Look At The Tigers

Auburn will arrive in Athens Saturday fresh off a 63-31 drubbing of Furman, and the Tigers occupy the No. 25 spot in the latest USA Today Top 25 Coaches poll. Auburn, under the direction of first-year coach Gene Chizik, roared out to a 5-0 start including a win at Tennessee to jump in to the national spotlight. However, a three-game losing streak followed, falling to Arkansas, Kentucky and LSU. The Tigers bounced back with victories over Ole Miss and the Paladins to enter Saturday's contest with a 7-3 record.

The Tigers rank second in the SEC in scoring offense (35.0 points a game) but last in scoring defense, surrendering 26.6 points a game.

Auburn is second in the SEC in rushing offense, averaging 230 yards a game, which trails only Florida (240.7). The Tigers are led by senior running back Ben Tate as he stands in third place in the league with an average of 114.2 rushing yards a game.

Meanwhile, senior defensive end Antonio Coleman leads the SEC with 12.5 tackles for loss, and he ranks second in sacks with 6.5. Senior cornerback Walter McFadden is tied for the league lead in interceptions with four.

Junior place-kicker Wes Byrum and Georgia place-kicker Blair Walsh are both 13-for-14 in field goal attempts this season and perfect in PATs. Byrum has kicked the most in the SEC at 43-for-43 while Walsh is 27-for-27.

Green Leading The League In Receiving - Again

Georgia sophomore A.J. Green is building on a successful freshman season and is currently leading the SEC receiving yards per game (91.5) and rec. per game (5.5). His 732 yards ranks second in the league.

Green missed last week's game with Tennessee Tech due to a bruised lung that happened against top-ranked Florida on Oct. 31. He looks to be back this Saturday against No. 25 Auburn. In last year's 17-13 road win over Auburn, Green caught the go-ahead touchdown, a 17-yarder from Matthew Stafford with 8:24 left in the contest. He ended up with five catches for 81 yards to lead the Bulldogs.

Green's top performance this season came against Arizona State when he snagged eight catches for 153 yards and a touchdown. It was his fourth career 100-yard game, and he was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Week. He also blocked his first career field goal late in the fourth quarter against the Sun Devils to help secure the win.

Also, he had a big game in the road win against the Razorbacks, registering 137 yards on seven catches and a career-high two touchdowns. In 2008, Green led the SEC in receiving yardage, yards per game and tied for first in TDs by receivers. He became the first Bulldog to lead the SEC in receiving since Brice Hunter (59 rec., 799 yds., 7 TDs) in 1994.

There are two current Bulldogs who have a Special Teams TD:

Brandon Boykin: 100-yard kickoff return against South Carolina in 2009; 100-yd. KOR at Tennessee in 2009

Prince Miller: 92-yard punt return against Alabama in 2008

THE OFFENSE

Cox Looks To Spark Offense

Senior Joe Cox connected on his first 10 passes against Tennessee Tech and finished with 140 yards passing with two TDs and no INTs. Cox also had two TD passes against the #1 Gators, which doubled the total Florida had surrendered on the year. A week earlier, he helped snap the Bulldogs' two-game losing streak by directing the Bulldogs to a 34-10 win at Vanderbilt. He was 16-of-31 completing passes to 10 different receivers against the Commodores. Cox also had a career-long 65-yard TD play to A.J. Green against Vanderbilt.

Cox tied the school record with five touchdown passes against Arkansas while passing for a career-high 375 yards. Cox was 18-of-25 on the night (72 percent) and his five TDs tied Matthew Stafford (Georgia Tech, 2008), D.J. Shockley (Boise State, 2005) and David Greene (LSU, 2004). Cox had scoring strikes of 21, 25, 50, 44 and 28 yards versus the Razorbacks. He was named the Walter Camp Foundation National Offensive Player of the Week and SEC Offensive Player of the Week. Against ASU, Cox completed a career-long 56-yard TD to A.J. Green and finished with 242 passing yards.

Cox led the Bulldogs on an 18-play, 60-yard TD drive that lasted 7:52 versus #4 LSU. This was the most plays during a TD scoring drive for the Bulldogs since they ran 19 plays covering 87 yards against Tennessee (1988). That drive lasted 8:45. The scoring drive against the Tigers lasted longer than any TD scoring drive since Georgia scored a TD in 8:33 on 16 plays versus Kentucky (1997).

Sophomore quarterback Logan Gray is Cox's backup. Gray finished with a career-high four completions for 25 yards against Tennessee Tech. He also returns punts and plays on several special teams for the Bulldogs.

Offensive Front Showing Versatility

The Bulldog offensive line has allowed only nine sacks this season while starting five different alignments this year. Junior Josh Davis began starting at RT for the Bulldogs against Vanderbilt after returning from an injury. Junior Clint Boling, who had started the first six games at RT, got the nod at LT versus the Gators and the Golden Eagles. At RT, Boling was named the SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week after the 41-37 win over the Gamecocks. Georgia started Trinton Sturdivant (LT), Chris Davis (LG), Ben Jones (C), Cordy Glenn (RG) and Boling (RT) in their season opener. Sturdivant, who was a Freshman All-American after starting 13 games in 2007 and then missed the 2008 season due to a left knee injury, re-injured his knee at #9 OSU and was lost for the rest of the season.

Ealey Emerges As Latest Threat At Tailback

Georgia is looking for a consistent threat at tailback and may have found it in freshman Washaun Ealey. Ealey had the first two TDs of his career and a career-high 89 yards against the Golden Eagles. The Bulldogs have had four different leading rushers through nine games. Sophomore Richard Samuel started the first six games, Ealey started the next two and sophomore Caleb King started against Tennessee Tech.

Georgia began the season with Samuel and King in the backfield. Samuel rushed for a career-high 104 yards at Arkansas, including an 80-yard TD run. King missed the first two games with a hamstring injury. He returned against the Razorbacks and had 11 carries for 59 yards, but suffered a fractured jaw and a concussion against #4 LSU and missed the Tennessee game. King scored two TDs, including his first career receiving score on a 21-yard TD pass from Joe Cox, at Vanderbilt.

Paving the way for Georgia's tailbacks are junior fullbacks Shaun Chapas and Fred Munzenmaier.

THE DEFENSE

Curran No. 2 In The SEC In Tackles

Junior WLB Rennie Curran is second in the Southeastern Conference with 9.1 tackles per game (82 tackles this year) and he has led the Bulldogs in eight of nine games after playing sparingly against Tennessee Tech. He is the top returning tackler in the SEC after recording 115 stops in 2008. Curran set a new career high with 16 tackles versus #4 LSU in 2009. Earlier in the season, he matched his career high with 15 tackles against USC and had the game-winning pass break-up in the game's final seconds. Sophomore Marcus Dowtin led the team against the Golden Eagles with seven tackles, including one of six sacks. Redshirt freshman Christian Robinson added a career-high five tackles versus Tennessee Tech. Junior SLB Darryl Gamble had a season-high nine stops versus the Gamecocks.

Curran was the first Georgia defender to register 100 tackles in a season since safety Thomas Davis in 2003. Davis tallied 130 that season and eventually earned All-America honors and was a first-round pick in the 2005 draft by the Carolina Panthers, the 14th player selected overall.

Curran was one of four SEC players to have at 100+ tackles in 2008.

Curran's Career

Year	G/GS	Solo	Asst.	Total	Sacks	TFL	QBH
2007	11/5	44	9	53	3	9	10
2008	13/13	63	52	115	3	10	14
2009	9/9	46	36	82	0.5	4.5	10
TOTAL	33/27	153	97	250	6.5	23.5	34

Three Seniors Leading Defensive Charge Up Front

The Bulldog defensive line helped hold Tennessee Tech scoreless and to only 55 total yards, including minus-13 rushing. This was first shutout for Georgia since 2006 when the Bulldogs topped UAB 34-0. The front features three seniors as Jeff Owens returns from a 2008 injury to rejoin Geno Atkins and Kade Weston. Atkins was named the SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week after he equaled his career high with eight tackles after coming off the bench against Vanderbilt and was named a captain for the second straight week for his efforts. Owens registered a career-high seven tackles and Weston set a new personal best with five tackles, including a sack, against #4 LSU in 2009. Sophomore DeAngelo Tyson also contributed for the Bulldog front after blocking USC's final extra point and forcing the Gamecocks to go for a touchdown in the game's final seconds. Although he was limited during the spring, the Bulldogs welcomed back Owens to the lineup after he suffered a knee injury during last season's opener versus Georgia Southern. Owens bypassed the NFL to return for his senior season in 2009.

Boykin Has Career Day Versus Gators

Sophomore SC Brandon Boykin registered a career high seven tackles (all solo) to lead the Bulldogs against #1 Florida. Boykin had his second career interception and the team's third of the year in addition to four solo stops versus #4 LSU. Junior Reshad Jones tied Boykin for the team lead with seven tackles against the Gators. Jones had a season-high 10 tackles (career-high nine solos) against the fourth-ranked Tigers in 2009. Although Georgia only has five interceptions on the year, redshirt sophomore safety Bacarri Rambo snagged his second interception of the season against the Volunteers and returned it 28 yards for a touchdown. It is the only defensive TD for the Bulldogs this year. Rambo also had a career high with four tackles (career-high three solos) against the Vols after having four against ASU. The Bulldogs' starting unit features senior Prince Miller and Boykin at the cornerbacks and Jones and senior Bryan Evans at the safeties.

Bulldogs Tally Six More Sacks Versus Golden Eagles

Freshman Montez Robinson exploded for a career-high five tackles, including two sacks against Tennessee Tech. Georgia finished with six sacks and 15 tackles for loss against the Golden Eagles. Robinson and first-time starter Cornelius Washington were filling in for the injured sophomore Justin Houston. Houston has tallied five sacks on the year. He tallied six tackles, including two sacks, versus #4 LSU. Houston started his season with a career-high seven tackles against Arkansas and then had four tackles, a sack and two TFLs versus ASU, earning himself SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week honors. Junior DE Demarcus Dobbs has started all nine games at the other defensive end spot and had 22 tackles and 3.5 sacks.

SPECIAL TEAMS / POINTS OF INTEREST

Butler Is Nation's Top Punter

In his first season as a starter, redshirt sophomore Drew Butler is leading the NCAA with an average of 49.2 yards on 40 punts. The school record is 45.4 set in 1984 by Chip Andrews. Georgia leads the NCAA in net punting by more than two yards, sporting a 43.95 average.

Butler continued his success against #1 Florida by averaging 52.5 yards on four punts, including a 61 yarder. His 57.0 average against #9 Oklahoma State is the second-best average for a game since 1958 (Bobby Walden, 63.0). Butler's 75 yarder was the longest since Brian Mimbs booted a 77 yarder in 2008 versus USC. Versus the Razorbacks, Butler booted a 64 yarder to pin Arkansas on its own 9 yard line late in the fourth quarter to help clinch the game for the Bulldogs.

Butler is the son of former NFL standout and Bulldog All-American Kevin Butler. Butler is on Georgia's post-game radio show. Mitch Frix snapped the ball to Butler during the 1981-82 seasons and now Frix's son, Ty, snaps to Drew (see next note).

Butler's Career

Year	Punts	Yds.	Avg.	120	50+	LG
2008	3	107	*35.7	1	0	40
2009	40	1,970	49.2	13	21	75
TOTAL	43	2,077	48.3	14	21	75

Frix Following In Footsteps

Redshirt freshman Ty Frix is starting snapper for the Bulldogs. Frix is a Biomedical Engineering major and was valedictorian at Calhoun HS. Georgia was looking for a new snapper after two-year starter Bo Fowler completed his career. Frix's father, Dr. Mitch Frix, was the starting snapper for Georgia in 1981 and '82 and was member of three SEC championship teams, one national title team and three Sugar Bowl teams.

Renner Blocks Another Punt

Redshirt sophomore SE Zach Renner blocked the third punt of his career late in the opening half against Tennessee for a safety. This ties Renner for the school record in punt blocks. Corrie Collier (2000-01), Kendrell Bell (1999-2000) and David Pollack (2001-04) all had three during their careers. Renner also had blocks against Alabama and Arizona State during the 2008 season. His latest punt block was the 17th for the Bulldogs in the Mark Richt era.

Boykin Sets KOR Record

Sophomore defensive back Brandon Boykin set the school record for kickoff return yardage in a single season with 717 kickoff return yards on 28 returns. His next return will mark the most KORs in school history. Arkansas' Dennis Johnson holds the SEC record after registering 905 return yards on 41 returns in 2008. Boykin is the first player in SEC history with two 100-yard kickoff returns for touchdowns in the same season after picking up his second one during the matchup at Tennessee. Tennessee's Willie Gault holds the SEC record for KOR TDs in a season with three in 1980. Gault's covered 100 yds. (Pittsburgh), 94 yds. (Vanderbilt) and 92 yds. (Kentucky).

Boykin and former Bulldog Gene Washington now share the mark with two kickoff returns for touchdowns in a season. Jimmy Campagna holds the school record with three return touchdowns in a season (two punts, one KOR) in 1952.

Boykin's first 100-yard kickoff return of the year came against USC. This was the longest scoring play for Georgia in Sanford Stadium history. Boykin, who also had an INT in the game, finished with the second-most kickoff return yards in a single game (187), missing the school record by just three yards (Scott Woerner, 1977, Kentucky).

Freshman Branden Smith also had a 48-yard kickoff return against the Gamecocks. The Bulldogs are averaging 21.8 yards per return with Boykin posting a 25.6 average.

Walsh Hits First Game Winner

Bulldog sophomore Blair Walsh connected on a 37-yard FG to beat ASU as time expired in 2009. This was the first game-winning FG for the Bulldogs since Brandon Coutr drilled one from the same distance to beat Vanderbilt in 2007 (also a 20-17 win). Walsh also hit a career-long 53-yard field goal at #9 OSU this year and then connected on a 52 yarder versus the Volunteers. His kick against the Cowboys was the longest FG for the Bulldogs since Coutr connected on a 55 yarder against UAB in 2006. Walsh's FG was the longest on the road since Hap Hines hit a 54 yarder versus Kentucky in 2006.

Walsh Career Highlights

- On target to have the best FG percentage in a season (Billy Bennett, 2000, 92.86%, 13-of-14)
- Hit a 37-yard game winner versus ASU in 2009
- Is 3-for-3 on 50-yard+ FGs in 2009 and 5-for-8 from that distance in his career
- Tied career high 14 points on three field goals (35, 37 and 31) and five PATs at Arkansas in 2009; also at Tennessee in 2008
- A perfect 77-for-77 in PATs.
- First career field goal, 52 yarder against Georgia Southern in 2008. It the longest ever by a Bulldog freshman at Sanford Stadium.
- Career-long 53 yarder at #9 Okla. State in 2009

Early Experience

Georgia has played 10 true freshmen this season, including seven during its season opener. TE Orson Charles, TE Arthur Lynch, DB Branden Smith, DE Montez Robinson, DT Abry Jones, LB Shawn Williams and SLB Michael Gilliard all took the field against #9 Okla. State. Both freshmen WRs Rantavious Wooten and Marlon Brown and TB Washaun Ealey have also played this season.

The Bulldogs played 24 freshmen (12 true freshmen) during the 2008 season. Flanker A.J. Green, offensive lineman Cordy Glenn, center Ben Jones and kicker Blair Walsh all started games for Georgia as true freshmen in 2008.

Bulldogs On 2009 NFL Rosters

Currently, Georgia has 40 former players on 2009 NFL rosters. The Bulldogs were tied for third in the nation with 36 former players on NFL opening day rosters in 2008.

In the last six years, 16 former Bulldogs have helped their teams reach the Super Bowl, including Super Bowl XL MVP Hines Ward.

A total of 26 Georgia players have been NFL first-round draft choices since Frank Sinkwich was taken ninth by the Detroit Lions in the 1943. In 2009, Matthew Stafford was the No. 1 pick overall by the Detroit Lions.

Curran Owns Longest Starting Streak For Bulldogs

Junior WLB Rennie Curran has the team's longest streak of most consecutive games started. Curran has started 26 straight and will be a team captain for the sixth time this season in the matchup versus Tennessee Tech. On offense, junior OT Clint Boling has started 21 consecutive and 32 total games for the Bulldogs. Also of note, senior DT Jeff Owens has started 35 games despite missing every game but the opener in 2008. Owens injured his knee in the 2008 opener versus Ga. Southern.

Inside Some Numbers This Season

-16: Georgia's turnover ratio through nine games this season. The Bulldogs have 22 turnovers and have forced only six. Georgia ranks 119th nationally in turnover margin behind Miami (OH).

0: The number of points USC got when Bulldog sophomore DeAngelo Tyson blocked an extra point to maintain Georgia's lead at 38-37 early in the fourth quarter. Georgia went on to win 41-37.

3: The number of blocked punts Zach Renner has in his career after blocking one for a safety against Tennessee. He is now one of only four players in school history to have three in his career.

5: Touchdown passes by senior Joe Cox against Arkansas to tie the school record, joining David Greene, D.J. Shockley and Matthew Stafford.

10: Number of plays (all running) it took for Georgia to score on its 68-yard, 6:49 touchdown drive against the Commodores, capping a 34-10 win.

7:52: The duration of Georgia's TD scoring drive vs. #4 LSU, marking the longest TD scoring drive for the Bulldogs since 1997.

36: Georgia set a school record by averaging 36.0 yards per kickoff return in the win over South Carolina. UGA had a record 252 yards on seven returns.

37: Blair Walsh nailed a 37-yard game-winning FG as time expired vs. ASU. It was his first game winner in high school or college.

48: Arkansas scored the most points ever by a Bulldog opponent in a loss in regulation. The only team to score more and lose was Auburn (49) in the four-overtime thriller on the Plains in 1996. Georgia won 56-49.

53: In his first attempt of the season, sophomore Blair Walsh booted a career-best 53-yard field goal at Oklahoma State. It was the longest by a Bulldog since Brandon Coutrou nailed a 55-yarder against UAB in 2006.

57.0: Punting average of sophomore Drew Butler against Oklahoma State, the second best in school history. He had 342 yards on six punts including a 75-yarder in his first career start. Butler is leading the nation with a 49.3 average.

77.3: Georgia leads the SEC averaging 77.3 penalty yards a game and is 117th nationally, but Bulldog opponents are averaging 64.2 penalty yards per game, which also leads the league.

80: Sophomore Richard Samuel scampered for an 80-yard TD in a win at Arkansas. It was the longest rushing TD in an SEC game since 1997 when Robert Edwards went 80 yards vs. Kentucky.

83: The number of plays South Carolina had against Georgia as the Bulldog won a 41-37 shootout. It was the most plays by an opponent since 2001 when Vanderbilt had 88 in a 30-14 Georgia win.

93: Georgia and Arkansas combined to score 93 points, the second most in a regulation game in school history and fourth overall counting OT games. The teams combined for 1,015 yards of total offense, the most since 2001 when Georgia and Kentucky tallied 1,084.

100: Sophomore Brandon Boykin set a school and Sanford Stadium record with a 100-yard kickoff return in the win over South Carolina. It was the longest touchdown ever scored by a Bulldog "Between the Hedges." He finished with 187 yards on four returns, which ranks as the second best total in school history. Boykin had a second 100-yd. KOR for a TD versus Tennessee making him the only player in SEC history to accomplish that feat twice in one season.

252: Georgia set a school record with 252 kickoff return yards in the win over South Carolina.

304: Led by Washaun Ealey's career-high 89 yards, the Bulldogs racked up a season-high 304 yards rushing versus Tennessee Tech

#9 OKLAHOMA STATE

Sept. 5, 2009 • Boone Pickens Stadium – Stillwater, Okla.

Georgia	7	0	3	0	=	10
Oklahoma State	0	10	7	7	=	24

The 13th ranked Bulldogs dropped their season opener to 9th ranked Oklahoma State 24-10 in front of a record crowd of 53,012 at Boone Pickens Stadium in Stillwater, Okla., and a nationally televised audience on ABC to start off the year 0-1 for the first time under Mark Richt.

Quarterback Joe Cox began his second career start in fine fashion as he led the Bulldogs on a 10-play 80-yard touchdown drive to open the game. Cox found Michael Moore in the right corner of the end zone from four yards out to put Georgia up 7-0, and that was the last time Georgia would see pay dirt. Cox finished the day 15 for 30 for 162 yards with one touchdown and one interception. A.J. Green led the team in receiving with 4 catches for 52 yards while Richard Samuel took care of Georgia's rushing attack with 87 yards on 20 carries.

Oklahoma State scored 10 points in the final minutes of the first half. A 46-yard pass from Zac Robinson to Dez Bryant tied the game and the Cowboys took the lead on a field goal after Georgia turned the ball over at their own 5-yard line. The Georgia defense held OSU to -5 yards on the first three plays forcing the field goal.

The Bulldogs defense, led by linebackers Rennie Curran and Marcus Dowtin, held the Oklahoma State passing attack to just 135 yards on the day but it wasn't enough as OSU's Robinson took the Cowboys down the field on the opening drive of the second half to go up 17-7 on a Robinson quarterback sneak.

Georgia sophomore kicker Blair Walsh cut the Cowboys led to 17-10 on a career-long 53-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. However, OSU's Robinson connected with Dez Bryant on a 12-yard pass in the 4th quarter to seal the game for the Cowboys.

The loss was the first season-opening loss for head coach Mark Richt, and was Georgia's first opening day loss since they fell to Southern Mississippi 11-7 in 1996.

GA-Michael Moore 4 yd pass from Joe Cox (Blair Walsh kick), 9:42 1Q
 OSU-Dez Bryant 46 yd pass from Zac Robinson (Dan Bailey kick), 2:24 2Q
 OSU-Dan Bailey 28 yd field goal, 0:05 2Q

Coach Mark Richt said...

"I felt like our boys played hard. I don't know if we did everything exactly right or the way it should be done, but the effort was there. I am also proud of our Bulldog fans. I thought they did a good job of hanging in there until the very end. Even at the end they stuck around cheering; that's the sign of a great fan base."

Worth Noting...

- Game captains were Joe Cox, Rennie Curran, Jeff Owens and Demarcus Dobbs.
- Georgia's first season opener outside the southeast in 51 years.
- Georgia experienced its first season-opening loss under Richt. He was 8-0. The Bulldogs are now 88-25-3 all-time in season openers.
- Georgia experienced its first non-conference road loss in an opponent's stadium for Georgia under Richt, falling to 6-1.
- Georgia punter Drew Butler had six punts for an average of 57 yards. This marks the second best average for a single game in Georgia history. The record is held by Bobby Walden of 63.0 yards versus Texas in 1958 on three punts.
- Georgia place kicker Blair Walsh kicked a career-long 53-yard field goal in the third quarter.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Sept. 12, 2009 • Sanford Stadium – Athens, Ga.

South Carolina	17	6	5	9	=	37
Georgia	14	17	7	3	=	41

The Georgia Bulldogs outlasted the South Carolina Gamecocks 41-37 Saturday night under the lights in Athens, in front of a raucous home crowd of 92,746 fans at Sanford Stadium. The game ended on an incomplete tipped pass from South Carolina quarterback Stephen Garcia on the Bulldogs four yard line. Sophomore linebacker Rennie Curran was responsible for the deflection and let the play cap his personal best, as he finished with fifteen tackles in addition to his late game heroics.

The game got off to a fast and furious start in the first quarter, as South Carolina and Georgia matched touchdowns with the Gamecocks engineering a scoring drive off of an A.J. Green fumble for Georgia, and sophomore defensive back Brandon Boykin's own answer. Boykin took a kickoff back 100 yards for a score and new Sanford Stadium longest play record, and would complement his efforts with a second quarter interception of Garcia. The Bulldogs didn't just look to Boykin for big plays, however, as freshman defensive back Branden Smith made the most of an appearance on the offensive side of the ball with a 61 yard touchdown run in the second quarter. Georgia would also get offensive help from some more familiar names in the second quarter, as running back Richard Samuel found his way into the endzone, along with A.J. Green on a nine yard reception from quarterback Joe Cox. Cox would have two touchdown passes on the night, with senior Michael Moore serving as the recipient of another in the third quarter. Cox's third touchdown pass of the evening went the wrong direction, as Gamecock linebacker Eric Norwood intercepted a pass in the fourth quarter and returned it for a touchdown. However, the extra point was blocked by Georgia defensive tackle DeAngelo Tyson, proving to be an important play as South Carolina was then forced to execute an unsuccessful touchdown drive to end the game.

Cox finished 17 of 24 for 201 yards and two touchdowns to go along with one interception. Smith's 61 yard run was enough to propel him to the top of Georgia's rushing leaderboard for the night, equaling Richard Samuel with 65 yards and one touchdown. A.J. Green hauled in six passes for 86 yards and a touchdown. Rennie Curran led all tacklers with fifteen stops, and safety Reshad Jones and linebacker Darryl Gamble each contributed with nine. Sophomore kicker Blair Walsh added to Georgia's scoring total with two field goals of 50 and 42 yards, and connected on five successful extra point attempts.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"There's probably 100 good things and 100 bad things, but the most important thing is that we got that first victory and that first SEC victory, which is so key and so critical. We did what we had to do to win this game. It could have gone either way, and I'm glad it went our way. I will enjoy this victory."

ARKANSAS

Sept. 19, 2009 • Razorback Stadium – Fayetteville, Ark.

Georgia	10	17	15	10	=	52
Arkansas	21	0	17	3	=	41

The Georgia football team outmatched the hosting Arkansas Razorbacks on Saturday, September 19th, by a score of 52 to 41 in front of a sell-out crowd of 74210 at Reynolds Razorback Stadium. Georgia's scoring total was their highest output on the season, and propelled them to a 2-1 record. The Bulldogs were led by a career best day from quarterback Joe Cox, who threw a school record tying five touchdown passes to go along with 375 yards through the air.

Like the script from the previous game versus South Carolina, Georgia found itself in an early 21-10 hole after two turnovers gave the Razorbacks two touchdowns. However, running back Richard Samuel, himself guilty of a first quarter transgression, atoned for his fumble by rocketing his way to an 80-yard touchdown run early in the second quarter. A 25-yard touchdown strike to AJ Green with just under two minutes remaining in the first half would give the Bulldogs a lead they would relinquish two more times in a true seesaw battle on their way to victory.

Cox was not the only Bulldog to have a career night, as freshmen Orson Charles and Tavarres King each caught their first touchdowns on 44 and 50 yard strikes, respectively. AJ Green also has two scores and tight end Aron White had one to help add to the Bulldogs' high offensive total. Running back Caleb King saw his first action on the season in a return from a hamstring injury and added 59 yards on the ground to go with Samuel's 104 and touchdown. Linebacker Rennie Curran paved the way for the Georgia defense with 11 tackles, while defensive end Justin Houston added seven in his first action on the season.

- Game captains were Brandon Boykin, Rennie Curran, Ty Frix, Clint Boling and DeAngelo Tyson.
- Sophomore TB Richard Samuel scampered a career-long 80 yards for a TD in the second quarter. It was the longest rushing TD for a Bulldog since 2007 when Knowshon Moreno went 80 yards versus Troy.
- Senior QB Joe Cox had a career night, going 18- for-26 for 375 yards and 5 TDs. Cox tied a school record shared by Matthew Stafford, D.J. Shockley and David Greene with 5 TD passes in a game.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"We certainly know how to keep things exciting. I was happy with the way our guys went out and competed. I'm so thankful for the heart and spirit of this football team, and it was a spirited victory tonight. I still don't feel like we've reached our full potential, but we're getting there."

ARIZONA STATE

Sept. 26, 2009 • Sanford Stadium – Athens, Ga.

Arizona State	3	0	14	0	=	17
Georgia	14	0	0	6	=	20

The Georgia Bulldogs defeated the Arizona State Sun Devils 20-17 in front of a rain-soaked Sanford Stadium crowd of 92,746 on a last second field goal by kicker Blair Walsh. The win raised Georgia's record to 3-1 (2-0 SEC) and provided some much needed relief for fans who had stayed to watch the game despite torrential pre-game conditions. Offensively, Georgia was led by wide receiver A.J. Green, who hauled in eleven receptions for 153 yards and one touchdown. Besides his impressive numbers in the box score, Green wowed Georgia fans with several spectacular catches, but perhaps his most impressive play came in the form of a game saving block of an Arizona State field goal attempt that would've given the Sun Devils the lead with 4:31 remaining in the game.

The Bulldogs jumped out to an early 14-3 lead with scores on a career long 56 yard touchdown reception by Green from quarterback Joe Cox and a two yard touchdown run from fullback Fred Munzenmaier. The Sun Devils took the lead 17-14 with 5:25 remaining in the third quarter after a Dimitri Nance touchdown run and a 47 yard interception return by safety Jarrell Holman, the first of his two interceptions of Joe Cox on the evening. Georgia evened the score with 14:53 left in the 4th after a 21 yard Blair Walsh field goal, and would maintain that tie until Walsh's game-terminating kick.

Quarterback Joe Cox was 17 of 31 through the air for 242 yards with one touchdown and two interceptions in his third consecutive victory as the Georgia starter. Caleb King added 55 yards rushing on eleven carries to lead all Bulldog rushers. Linebacker Rennie Curran had his fourth consecutive game leading Georgia tackles with six stops, and redshirt freshman safety Baccarri Rambo secured the Dogs's second interception on the year in the second quarter.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"Every win is a good win. We hate to frazzle everyone's nerves, but maybe we're just trying to get the next team overconfident. I am super proud of our effort, especially on defense. They played lights out. It was an exciting game."

Worth Noting...

- Game captains were Joe Cox, Michael Moore, Kade Weston and Drew Butler.
- Sophomore PK Blair Walsh nailed a 37-yarder game-winner to lift the Bulldogs past Arizona State 20-17. It was his first career game-winning kick for the Bulldogs and the first by a Bulldog since Brandon Coult at Vanderbilt in 2007, also a 37-yarder in a 20-17 win.
- Georgia blocked its 10th field goal in the Mark Richt era which began in 2001. It was the first since 2006 when Dale Dixson got one against Colorado.
- Georgia trailed 17-14 to start the fourth quarter and registered its 17th comeback victory in the Richt era. Georgia has fallen behind in all four of its games this season and has rallied to win its past three, however the deficits against South Carolina and Arkansas came in the first quarter and were by double digits.

#4 LSU

Oct. 3, 2009 • Sanford Stadium – Athens, Ga.

LSU	3	3	0	14	=	20
Georgia	0	0	0	13	=	13

The Georgia Bulldogs fell to the visiting Louisiana State Tigers on Saturday, losing on a late 33 yard touchdown run by LSU's Charles Scott in front of a capacity 92,746 stunned Sanford Stadium fans. The loss was Georgia's first in the South-eastern Conference on the season and dropped their record to 3-2 (2-1). Albeit the losing effort, the game was played very tight by both teams and certainly not devoid of late game heroics and drama.

Leading 6-0 at the start of the fourth quarter, LSU could not stop an 18 play, 60 yard drive by the Georgia offense that was punctuated by a one yard Shaun Chapas touchdown reception from quarterback Joe Cox. Leading 7-6, Georgia succumbed to a 13 play, 88 yard drive of LSU's that ended with a two yard Charles Scott touchdown scamper. After a failed two point conversion, LSU led 12-7 with 2:53 left. Georgia then marched down the field in just 1:38 and regained its lead as A.J. Green hauled in a spectacular 16-yard touchdown pass from Cox, but was flagged for a controversial excessive celebration penalty that would be enforced on the following kickoff. Following a solid return by LSU's Trindon Holliday, the Tigers took the ultimate lead 20-13 after Scott's 33 yard scoring rush with 46 seconds remaining. The loss overshadows solid play by the Georgia defense, led by line-backer Rennie Curran who accumulated 16 tackles, and defensive end Justin Houston, who had two of Georgia's six sacks on the day. Cox finished the afternoon 18-34 with two touchdowns and one interception, and A.J. Green led all receivers with 99 yards on five receptions. Freshman Washaun Ealey led the Bulldogs' ground game in his first career appearance, netting 33 yards on eight carries.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"It got wild at the end. They got their chance to take the lead and it looked like maybe we had time for one more shot. Then we scored so fast and then they scored so fast and we still had some time. It was a little fast and furious there at the end. The bottom line is we didn't do enough to win it. We always believe we can win, even to the bitter end, but it just didn't happen."

- Game captains were Geno Atkins, Cordy Glenn, A.J. Green and Justin Houston.
- Georgia was held scoreless through three quarters for the first time since the Colorado game in 2006. Quarterback Joe Cox came off of the bench to lead the Bulldogs to a 14-13 victory over Colorado.
- Georgia's 18-play touchdown drive in the fourth quarter lasted 7:52. This was the most plays during a TD scoring drive for the Bulldogs since they ran 19 plays covering 87 yards against Tennessee in 1988. That drive lasted 8:45. Today's scoring drive lasted longer than any TD scoring drive since Georgia scored a TD in 8:33 on 16 plays against Kentucky in 1997.
- Georgia held LSU to just three points during the Tigers' first three trips to the Red Zone and 10 points total in four trips. Georgia's first stop came on an interception by sophomore Brandon Boykin in the first quarter. Georgia also held LSU on a fourth-and-1 late in the second quarter on Georgia's 10-yard line. The Bulldogs have held opponents to nine field goals in 20 trips to the Red Zone.

TENNESSEE

Oct. 10, 2009 • Neyland Stadium – Knoxville, Tenn.

Georgia	0	12	7	0	=	19
Tennessee	0	21	17	7	=	45

The Georgia Bulldogs (3-3, 2-2 SEC) suffered a 45-19 defeat at the hands of the Tennessee Volunteers (3-3, 1-2) on Saturday, October 10 in front of 103,261 fans at Tennessee's Neyland Stadium. The loss was the Bulldogs' second consecutive and gave first year Tennessee head coach Lane Kiffin his first victory over a Southeastern Conference opponent. The game was Georgia's worst offensive output on the season, as the Bulldog offense failed to reach the end zone during the contest.

As stagnant as the Georgia offense may have been, the Dogs' special teams certainly did their part, contributing 12 points to Georgia's tally of 19. Sophomore cornerback Brandon Boykin returned a kickoff 100-yards for the second time this season, tying the game at 7 with 12:56 left in the second quarter. Kicker Blair Walsh would tie his career long with a 52-yard field goal later in the second quarter, and sophomore split end Zach Renner blocked his third career punt out of the end zone for a safety to tie the Georgia record late in the second quarter.

The Bulldogs went into the half down 21-12 but the second half belonged to Tennessee as the Bulldogs were unable to put any points on the board other than a 28-yard Bacarri Rambo interception return for a touchdown in the third quarter. Tennessee running backs Montario Hardesty and Bryce Brown added second half touchdown runs and wide receiver Gerald Jones added a touchdown reception from quarterback Jonathan Crompton, his second of the game. Crompton finished the day 20 of 27 for 310 yards, with four touchdowns and one interception. Georgia quarterback Joe Cox finished his day 19 of 34 for 146 yards and two interceptions. Freshman tailback Carlton Thomas led Georgia's ground game with three carries for 30 yards, and sophomore receiver A.J. Green led the Bulldogs in receiving, as he has done every game thus far this season, with eight catches for 60 yards. Linebacker Rennie Curran had eight tackles for the Georgia defense, while Rambo added four to go along with his defensive touchdown in the losing effort.

Worth Noting...

- Game captains were Shaun Chapas, Rennie Curran, Jeff Owens and Drew Butler.
- Sophomore cornerback Brandon Boykin had the second 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown this season today. Boykin and former Bulldog Gene Washington share the mark now with two kickoff returns for touchdowns in a season. Boykin's return versus the Vols also ties the longest scoring play on the road in school history.
- Redshirt freshman safety Bacarri Rambo caught a tipped pass for an interception and returned it 28 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. This was Rambo's second career INT and the first defensive TD for the Bulldogs this year.
- Redshirt sophomore split end Zach Renner's blocked punt was the third of his career tying the school record for blocked punts in a career.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"Right now I can tell you Tennessee did a wonderful job. They played better, tackled better. It's very obvious that their team was the better team today. We've got a long way to go to become a good football team right now. We've got to get back to work, continue to fight and find a way to beat Vanderbilt. That's where we're at right now."

VANDERBILT

Oct. 17, 2009 • Vanderbilt Stadium – Nashville, Tenn.

Georgia	7	10	3	14	=	34
Vanderbilt	0	3	7	0	=	10

The Georgia Bulldogs defeated the Vanderbilt Commodores in Nashville on Saturday, October 17th, in front of 38,340 fans, many in Georgia red. The tilt served as Vanderbilt's homecoming contest and stood as Georgia's 14th win over the Commodores in the last 15th seasons. Georgia's record improves to 4-3, with a 3-2 Southeastern Conference standing, as Vanderbilt drops to 2-5, including an 0-4 conference record.

Georgia struck first with 3:27 remaining in the first quarter as sophomore receiver A.J. Green took a Joe Cox screen pass 65 yards for the score, providing both Georgia fans and media outlets nationally with a highlight play that they will not soon forget. The play was Green's career long, but the Commodores would soon answer with a Ryan Fowler 41-yard field goal to cut the deficit to 7-3. A 2-yard Caleb King scamper and a 42-yard Blair Walsh field goal gave the Dogs a 17-3 lead heading in to the half. Georgia's second half scoring output, complete with a Blair Walsh 43-yard field goal, a 21-yard reception by King, and a nine yard touchdown run by fullback Fred Munzenmaier rendered a Vanderbilt touchdown pass from quarterback Larry Smith to tight end Branden Barden futile as the Bulldogs took an ultimate 34-10 victory.

Georgia was led through the air by quarterback Joe Cox, who was 16 for 31 for 226 and two touchdowns in addition to one interception. Five Bulldog running backs saw action in the game, led by freshman Washaun Ealey who had 13 carries for 71 yards, including a career long 33-yard rush. A.J. Green led the Bulldogs in receiving with 3 catches for 95 yards, and junior linebacker Rennie Curran powered the Georgia defense with nine tackles to raise his SEC lead in the category to 72.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"The team was emotionally ready to play this game. They were able to battle through the week of outside distractions that can take your focus off. Before the game, I liked how they prepared mentally and I felt their energy today. I've had weeks like this in my career, but I don't pay attention to the outside influences. I was convinced that the best thing for us to do was to put blinders on and put on a good performance today for Georgia football."

#1 FLORIDA

Oct. 31, 2009 • Jacksonville Municipal – Jacksonville, Fla.

Georgia	0	10	7	0	=	17
Florida	14	10	7	10	=	41

The University of Georgia Bulldogs changed their uniforms on Saturday, October 31st in Jacksonville against the Florida Gators, but could not change their recent luck in the rivalry, as Georgia fell to Florida for the 17th time in their last 20 meetings. The 41-17 loss dropped Georgia's record to 4-4 (3-3 in the Southeastern Conference) and elevated number one ranked Florida to 8-0, with a 6-0 conference mark. Georgia donned black pants and wore black helmets for the first time in the program's history, but it did not provide enough of a spark to give the Bulldogs an upset over the country's top ranked program.

Florida got off to an early start and never relinquished the lead, going up 14-0 in the first quarter following two Riley Cooper touchdown receptions from quarterback Tim Tebow. Georgia answered in the second quarter with a 49-yard Blair Walsh field goal and a 26-yard Aron White touchdown catch from quarterback Joe Cox, but the slashed deficit was short lived as Florida answered with a 56-yard Caleb Sturgis field goal and a 23-yard Tebow rush to give Florida a 24-10 halftime lead. Georgia's second half efforts were constantly met with a Gator rebuttal, as a Mike Moore 4-yard touchdown catch to make the game a 31-17 contest was answered with another field goal by Sturgis, this one of 44-yards, and a 5-yard Brandon Spikes interception return off a pick from quarterback Logan Gray, who entered in relief of Cox. Cox was 11 of 20 passing for 165 yards and two touchdowns, to go along with three interceptions. Freshman tailback Washaun Ealey gained 70 yards on 17 carries, while also adding a 20-yard reception. Wide Receiver A.J. Green led the Bulldogs in receiving as he has done each game this season, hauling in three passes for 50 yards. Cornerback Brandon Boykin, safety Reshad Jones, and linebacker Rennie Curran all added seven tackles apiece for Georgia in the losing effort.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"We'll keep challenging our guys. We have men of integrity who will do the right things regardless of the record. I don't think we'll have anybody who will give in. I think everyone will fight. I will do everything in my power to get us back on the winning track."

Worth Noting...

- Game captains were Geno Atkins, Rennie Curran, Clint Boling and Brandon Boykin.
- The Bulldogs came out against the Gators in black helmets and black pants. This is believed to be the first time in program history that Georgia has worn black helmets. The Bulldogs have worn black pants on occasion, but the first time in the Mark Richt era.
- Sophomore Brandon Boykin now owns the school record for kickoff return yards in a season with 714 on 28 returns. He finished with 114 kickoff return yards on six returns against Florida.

 GA-Michael Moore 6 yd pass from J. Cox (B. Walsh kick), 10:36 3Q

The Georgia Bulldogs found themselves back in the win column with a shutout win over the visiting Tennessee Tech Golden Eagles 38-0. The win propelled the Bulldogs to a 5-4 record (3-3 SEC) while dropping Tennessee Tech to a 5-4 mark. The game was Georgia's first shutout since a 34-0 victory over Alabama-Birmingham at Sanford Stadium in 2006, ironically also coached by Tennessee Tech head coach Watson Brown.

The Bulldogs struck fast and furiously, jumping out to a 21-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and a 31-0 lead at halftime. Freshman tailback Washaun Ealey got things started with a seven yard touchdown run, and freshman tight end Orson Charles kept things going for Georgia offensively, hauling in a 23-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Joe Cox, who started the game 10 for 10 passing. Freshman cornerback Branden Smith added a 52-yard touchdown run on a direct snap to give him his second score of the year and a 21-0 Bulldog lead. Ealey then added another touchdown for Georgia, with a 44-yard scamper on the first play of the second quarter. Cox would find senior receiver Michael Moore for the game's final touchdown with 10:36 remaining in the third quarter.

Georgia could not have shutout the Golden Eagles without help from its defense, and Georgia's defensive line led that unit with six sacks on the day. Freshman defensive end Montez Robinson was responsible for two sacks, while senior defensive tackle Geno Atkins had three tackles for losses and a forced fumble. Sophomore line-backer Marcus Dowtin led the Dogs with seven total tackles.

On the day, Cox was 10-13 passing for 140 yards and two touchdowns. Ealey, Smith, and sophomore Caleb King led an overwhelming Georgia running game responsible for 304 total yards with 89, 72, and 71 yards, respectively. Orson Charles had three catches for 42 yards while sophomore tight end Aron White had two receptions for 53 yards, including a game long 27 yarder.

Coach Mark Richt said...

"It was awesome to get a shutout. It doesn't matter who you play. It's fantastic for the program. I am really happy for our defensive players and coaches. We had tremendous focus to start the game, dominating really on both sides of the ball. Overall, I am very, very happy with the win. It was really good to be back between the hedges again today."

Worth Noting...

- Game captains were Drew Butler, Rennie Curran, Blair Walsh and Aron White.
- Georgia posted a shutout on Homecoming for the first since 1981 when the Bulldogs beat Kentucky 21-0. This was also Georgia's first shutout since 2006 when the Bulldogs blanked UAB 34-0.
- The Bulldogs scored 21 points in the first quarter for the first time since 1998 versus Kent State.
- Freshman TB Washaun Ealey scored the first two TDs of his career in the opening half. Ealey finished with 57 yards on four carries in the first half and a team-best 89 yards on seven carries in the game.
