CLINT MYERS » HEAD COACH

With the reputation of taking a program and turning it into a perennial power, head coach Clint Myers has taken Auburn softball to unprecedented heights in just three years.

Myers has guided the Tigers to back-to-back Women's College World Series appearances in the past two campaigns, when the previously best finish came with a showing at a regional final in 2006.

Since his appointment following the 2013 season, Auburn has broken 21 records, including 16 on offense, and led the nation in a plethora of categories.

Myers has coached nine All-Americans, with three coming in each of his seasons on The Plains. Before his arrival, the Tigers had five players who were tabbed All-Americans in the previous 17 campaigns.

In comparison with rivals in the conference, Myers has coached nine All-SEC performers, even setting a program record with four in 2015. Between 1997-2013, Auburn had never placed multiple players on the all-conference team lists. Since then, the Tigers have had three, four and two representatives in successive years under Myers.

As impressive as Myers' teams have been on the field, the program has taken a giant leap forward off of it.

Under Myers, Auburn has placed three on Academic All-America and Academic All-District lists, something that had never been done previously. In 2016, the Tigers had 24 honorees on the Academic All-SEC list. Kasey Cooper also became the first player in softball history to be named the SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and the NCAA Elite 90 winner.

A 1976 graduate of Arizona State, Myers was a member of the Sun Devil baseball team from 1970-73 and played on the College World Series runner-up squads in 1972 and 1973. He was later selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the third round of the 1973 Major League Draft.

Myers and his wife, Katie, have two sons, Casey and Corey. They also have three grandchildren; grandsons, Cole and Christian, and granddaughter, Carlee.

LAST 10

» In the last 10 games, Auburn has out-scored the opposition 46-20, including three shutouts. The Tigers have notched 17 extra-base hits, including seven doubles, one triple and nine homers. Carlee Wallace leads the way with four, while Haley Fagan, Alyssa Rivera and Kendall Veach tout three apiece.

» In the circle, Kaylee Carlson and Makayla Martin have produced nearly identical lines. Carlson is 4-0 with a 1.21 ERA, 16 strikeouts and one shutout. Martin is 4-1 with a 1.25 ERA, 13 strikeouts and two shutouts.

PERFECT PERFORMANCE

» Junior pitcher Kaylee Carlson tossed the second perfect game in program history (and first since Holly Currie in 2005) against Ohio State. In the contest, Carlson threw just 66 pitches (41 strikes) and threw a first-pitch strike to all 18 batters she faced. The Garden Grove, Calif. native never reached a 3-ball count in the outing.

LEADOFF AND LOADED

» As a team, Auburn has been the most dangerous when leading off an inning and when the bases are loaded. The Tigers boast a .404 on-base clip when leading off an inning and a .306 average when the bases are full of Auburn players. The Tigers have had the leadoff batter reach base 152 times thus far in 2017.

THREE-PLUS

» As a team, the Tigers have benefited greatly from scoring three or more runs in a game this season. So far, Auburn is 44-2 when eclipsing the three-run plateau, including a perfect 21-0 when scoring seven-plus runs.

A CLASS OF HER OWN

» Senior Kasey Cooper was selected as a finalist for the Senior CLASS Award. The annual award is given to the player who excels in community, classroom, character and competition.

» Cooper was also selected as a candidate for the prestigious SEC McWhorter Award.

» The Dothan, Ala. native became the first player in program history to earn Academic All-American honors for the third straight year. She received the highest honors and was named the Academic All-America Player of the Year for softball.

NATIONAL SCALE

» Senior Kasey Cooper and freshman Alyssa Rivera have already made an impact in 2017 on the Auburn softball program. The duo was selected to be on the USA Women's National Team for contests beginning in June. Cooper, who became the first Tiger ever to don the stars and stripes, returns to the senior squad for her second stint, while Rivera was tabbed to the junior team.

PLAYER TO WATCH: HALEY FAGAN

» Senior Haley Fagan has elevated her play as Auburn has entered the postseason. Since the Tigers opened postseason play, the Dunnellon, Fla. boasts a slash line of .529/.579/.706 - all tops on the team. In that same span, Fagan has hit .750 with runners in scoring position and .571 with runners on base. She was one of only four players to collect seven or more hits in an NCAA Regional last weekend in three or less games.
