TULANE HEADS TO AUBURN FOR SATURDAY NIGHT MATCHUP

- The Green Wave travels to Auburn on Saturday for their first road test of the season as they head to Jordan-Hare Stadium. The game will be aired live on the ESPN2.
- Tulane will visit Auburn for the first time since 2006.
- The two teams used to meet on an annual basis back when Tulane was a member of the SEC.
- Tulane holds the all-time series lead by a 17-14-6 count.
- The two teams played to a tie in their first all-time meeting back in 1902 at Tulane.

FIRST AND 10

1. The Green Wave will be in search of their first win over a ranked opponent since 1984.
2. Tulane will look to win its first road opener since 2016.
3. The Green Wave's last win over Auburn came back on Oct. 29, 1955.
4. Senior quarterback Justin McMillan improved to 6-1 as a starter last week, as the Green Wave defeated FIU 42-14.
5. Tulane has won six of its last seven games dating back to last year.
6. Junior defensive lineman Patrick Johnson recorded one sack against FIU. He has now earned at least half a sack in 10 of his last 11 games dating back to last season.
7. Tulane has rushed for at least 100 yards in 41 consecutive games dating back to the end of the 2015 season. The Green Wave had 350 rushing yards against FIU.
8. Tulane's 42-point outburst against FIU marked the second straight game in which the Green Wave have surpassed 40 points. The last time Tulane posted back-to-back 40-point games was in 2012. The last time Tulane scored 40 points in three straight games was during its perfect season in 1998.
9. The Green Wave enters their matchup with Auburn having rushed for over 300 yards in back-to-back games (337 vs. UL-Lafayette and 350 vs. FIU).
10. Seven Green Wave student-athletes made their way to Tulane from the state of Alabama. PJ Hall (Hoover), Darius Hodges (Montgomery), Willie Langham (McAdory), KJ Vault (Hoover), Darius Hodges (Montgomery), Coby Neenan (Dothan) and Alfred Thomas (Montgomery) will all return to their home state this weekend. Tulane defensive coordinator Jack Curtis (Birmingham) and offensive line coach Cody Kennedy (Florence) also hail from Alabama.

QB Justin McMillan was named AAC Player of the Week after he accounted for 250 yards of total offense and three total touchdowns last week against FIU.

MEDIA OPPORTUNITIES & SERVICES

Weekly News Conference

During the regular season, head coach Willie Fritz and selected players will meet with the media each Tuesday (except for the bye week and during midweek games) at a designated time set prior to the season. Requests for specific players should be made to the Strategic Communications office.

Interviews

All interview requests for head coach Willie Fritz, any assistant coaches and players must be coordinated through the Strategic Communications office.

During the regular season, student-athletes are available for interviews, either in person or on the phone, before or after practice Monday through Wednesday. In order to arrange for student-athlete interviews, please provide 24 hours notice to the Strategic Communications office. Student-athlete interviews may be conducted in the atrium of the Wilson Center, in Yulman Stadium or in the Strategic Communications Office. The Tulane training room, football locker room and weight room are off-limits to the media.

For telephone interviews, student-athletes will be provided with the number and will make the call at a mutually-agreed upon time. Phone numbers of student-athletes will not be made available to the media.

Practice Coverage

Regular-season practices will be held in Yulman Stadium and are open to the media. Practices during the regular season may be closed or moved without notice. Please contact the Strategic Communications office if you plan on attending practice.

Still photographs and video may be shot during selected segments of practice by approved agencies. After that time, photographers will be asked not to shoot. Media are asked to remain on the sidelines or in the stands during practice and are asked not to speak to players or coaches during the workout.

Website

Updated statistics, game recaps, weekly and daily releases, player and coach bios, historical, broadcast and ticket information can be found at TulaneGreenWave.com. Media are encouraged to check the website regularly for the latest Green Wave Athletics news.

Video Services

Requests for video footage of the football team should be made to the Strategic Communications office. Please allow a minimum of three days lead time for video requests.

Accessing Information

In addition to TulaneGreenWave.com and the official football-specific social media outlets, the latest news, weekly releases, updated depth charts, rosters and season and single game statistics can be sent on a daily or weekly basis via e-mail. Contact the appropriate staff member in the Strategic Communications office to be added to a particular sport's media distribution list.

RECAPPING THE LAST TULANE-AUBURN MEETING

- Junior running back Matt Forté galloped for 117 yards and the receiving duo of senior wideouts Preston Brown and Damarcus Davis combined for 265 yards through the air, but it was not enough Tulane fell to Auburn, 38-13 on Oct. 21, 2006 at Jordan-Hare Stadium.
- Brown led the team with nine receptions for 139 yards, while Davis followed closely behind with eight grabs for 126 yards and a touchdown. Quarterback Lester Ricard, meanwhile, completed 20-of-39 passes for 283 yards with one touchdown and an interception.
- The Tigers, who entered the game ranked fifth in the nation in scoring defense, forced three turnovers while posting four tackles for loss and two pass break-ups.
- The Green Wave accumulated 389 yards on the day - the most allowed by Auburn all season - but turnovers killed drives and potential scoring opportunities and set up a short-field situation for the Tigers' offense.
- Tulane Sophomore middle linebacker Evan Lee and junior free safety Louis Thomas tied for game-high tackle honors with eight each, while Chinonso Echebelem, Jordan Ellis, Jeremy Foreman and David Skehan posted six stops apiece.

SCOUTING AUBURN

- The Tigers will welcome Tulane to Jordan-Hare Stadium for their 2019 home opener.
- Auburn owns a 251-69-6 in non-conference play since beginning SEC action in 1933.

- Auburn's comeback from a 15-point deficit against Oregon was its largest comeback since the 2010 Alabama game (24-point deficit overcome for a 28-27 win).
- The Tigers face six of the top 12 teams in the Associated Press preseason rankings, with four of those contests away from home.
- Bo Nix was the first true freshman to start an Auburn season opener at quarterback since Travis Tidwell in 1946 and the first SEC true freshman QB to start an opener since Tennessee's Brent Schaeffer in 2004.
- Preseason all-SEC Tigers as selected by the league coaches and media: DL Derrick Brown, OL Prince Tega Wanogho (first team), DL Marlon Davidson, DL Nick Coe (second team), K Anders Carlson, DB Javaris Davis, OL Marquel Harrell, OL Mike Horton, P Arryn Siposs and WR Seth Williams (third team).
- There have been nine 600-yard total offense games and 25 500-yard games during Malzahn's tenure as head coach at Auburn, the latest being the 586-yard output against Purdue in the Music City Bowl, the third 500-yard game last season.

RECAPPING LAST WEEK WIN OVER FIU

- The Green Wave captured their third season-opening win in the last four years.
- Tulane improved to 66-58-2 all-time in season openers. In home openers, Tulane has posted an all-time mark of 72-50-4.

- Keyes recorded his first interception of the season and second of his career.
- Redshirt sophomore Willie Langham earned his first-ever career sack, with Tulane totaling two in the team's win over FIU.
- Moody led the Green Wave with seven total tackles, including three solo. Moody also recorded two pass breakups.

BIG PLAY WAVE

- Tulane had a flair for the big play in 2018, as it totaled 59 offensive plays that went for 20-yards-or-more.
- The Green Wave picked up right where they left off from a year ago with six plays that went for 20 yards or more.
- RB Corey Dauphine highlighted the Green Wave's play ability last week as he averaged 25.3 yards per carry in the Tulane's win over FIU last week. Dauphine finished the night with three carries for 76 yards.
- WR Darnell Mooney also showed off his big play ability, as he had 84 yards receiving on just four catches (21.0 yards per catch).

GOING TOE-TO-TOE WITH THE BIG BOYS

- Willie Fritz coached teams have made a habit of putting a big-time scare into their big-time opponents from the ACC, BIG 12 and SEC.
- In 2018, Tulane took Wake Forest into overtime, but fell 23-17.
- Fritz's Georgia Southern squad took Georgia into

- Tulane has rushed for 100 yards or more in 41 straight games.
- In 2018, Tulane rushed for 200 yards or more as a team in six games.

MCMILLAN RETURNS FOR THE BEGINNING OF HALL BALL

- Senior QB Justin McMillan returns to the lineup for his final season as the Green Wave starting quarterback.
- McMillan accounted for three touchdowns (two passing and one rushing) in the season opener against FIU. He also finished with 250 yards of total offense (199 yards passing and 51 yards rushing).
- In 2018, McMillan saw action in nine games and posted a 5-1 record as a starter, finishing the year with 1,304 passing yards, 10 touchdowns and just four interceptions.
- McMillan also proved to be a force in the running game for the Green Wave as he rushed for 238 yards.
- In 2019, McMillan will work under the direction of first-year offensive coordinator Will Hall, who arrives in Uptown after spending the 2018 campaign as the associate head coach/tight ends coach at the University of Memphis where he helped guide the Tigers to the American Athletic Conference Championship game for the second straight season and their fifth straight bowl appearance.
- During his lone season at Memphis, Hall helped guide the Tigers to a school record 42 rushing touchdowns during the regular season. In addition, Memphis finished the regular season with 3,311 rushing yards, which set a new school record.
- Hall joined the Tulane coaching staff prior to the Green Wave's appearance in the AutoNation Cure Bowl.

THE TAKEAWAY BEADS RETURN

- The college football phenomenon of awarding players who come away with a turnover got a little New Orleans flair on Aug. 31, 2018 as the Green Wave introduced the nation to the Takeaway Beads and forced three turnovers against Wake Forest in their season opener a year ago.
- Tulane's takeaway beads made their return in 2019, as senior cornerback Thakarius Keyes and Cameron Sample each came away with turnovers in the Green Wave's 2019 season opener against FIU.
- In 2018, Tulane forced 18 turnovers.

THE DARNELL MOONEY EXPERIENCE

- Senior Darnell Mooney, who was the last player to receive a scholarship offer in Coach Fritz's first recruiting class has evolved into one of the league's top receivers.
- Mooney enters the Green Wave's matchup with Auburn 1,058 yards away from surpassing 3,000 career receiving yards - a feat that only three receivers in Tulane history have accomplished.
- He needs just 58 yards receiving to surpass 2,000 career yards - a feat that only 10 wide receivers have accomplished.
- In the 2019 season opener against FIU, Mooney hauled in a game-high 84 yards receiving on four catches.
- In 2018, he posted team bests in receptions (48), receiving yards (993) and touchdowns (eight).
- His 20.6 yards per catch led The American and ranked sixth nationally a year ago.
- Mooney's 217-yard effort against ECU on November 10 was a performance for the ages, as he totaled 217 yards - the most by a wide receiver in The American last season.

- Mooney became just the sixth wide receiver in Tulane history to surpass 200 yards receiving in a game.
- His 36.2 yards per catch served as a school record and is the second-highest single-game average in league history.

SACK ATTACK

- Tulane finished 2018 with 41 sacks.
- The Green Wave had just 14 sacks in all of 2017.
- Tulane's 41 sacks rank fifth all-time for a single season in program history.
- In the Green Wave's season opener against FIU, the Green Wave registered three sacks.
- Tulane had a season-high seven sacks against Memphis in 2018.
- Sixteen different players on the team had at least half a sack a year ago.
- DL Patrick Johnson posted a team-best 10.5 sacks a year ago. In addition, his 10.5 sacks tied for 13th nationally and were tied for the most among all sophomores nationally.
- He also became just the third player in program history to finish the season with double-digit sacks.

THE NO FLY ZONE

- During the 2018 campaign, the Green Wave established themselves as one of the American Athletic Conference's top passing defense units.
- The Green Wave also led the league and ranked second nationally in passes defended, finishing with 88.
- In the Green Wave's matchup with ECU, Tulane was responsible for an NCAA-record 20 pass breakups.
- Tulane's secondary played a major role in generating turnovers as it collected 12 interceptions which ranked fourth in The American and 40th nationally.

BRADWELL BREAKS OUT

- Senior running back Darius Bradwell will look to build on a breakout junior campaign where he led the team in rushing, averaging 87.2 yards per game, which ranked eighth in The American.
- Bradwell also posted a single-season career best in rushing yards (1,134) and touchdowns (11).
- Bradwell capped the year on a high note as he earned 2018 Cure Bowl Most Valuable Player honors thanks to a game-high 150 yards rushing and a pair of touchdowns in the Green Wave's 41-24 win over Louisiana-Lafayette.
- In the 2019 season opener against FIU, Bradwell rushed for 90 yards on just 13 carries and averaged 6.9 yards per carry.

AMARE IN ACTION

- As a freshman in 2018, Amare Jones made a name for himself on special teams and established himself as one of the top all-purpose backs in The American.

- He finished 2018 with an AAC-best 27.9 kickoff return yards per game - a figure that also ranked fifth in the nation.
- He also ranked second among all freshman in The American with 939 all-purpose yards.
- In his 2019 debut, Jones accounted for 77 all-purpose yards and had one touchdown against FIU.

TWELVE PLAYERS NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AAC BY PHIL STEELE MAGAZINE

- Twelve Tulane University football players earned Preseason All-American Athletic Conference honors from Phil Steele Magazine.
- Junior Patrick Johnson and senior Geron Etherly headlined the list, as they were both named first team. Seniors Darius Bradwell, Darnell Mooney and Lawrence Graham each collected second team recognition. Junior Corey Dublin, senior Thakarius Keyes and sophomore Amare Jones were each selected third team.
- Graduate transfer Christian Montano, sophomore Ryan Wright and juniors Cameron Sample and Marvin Moody rounded out the Tulane list of honorees as they were each named fourth team All-AAC.

EATHERLY NAMED PRESEASON ALL-AMERICA BY PHIL STEELE MAGAZINE

- Senior long snapper Geron Eatherly was selected Phil Steele Magazine Fourth-Team Preseason All-America.
- The San Antonio, Texas, native earned the honor after serving as a key component to the Green Wave special teams unit in 2018. As a junior, he posted a 93.4 percent punt accuracy rate and a 100 percent field goal accuracy rate (statistics courtesy of Pro Football Focus). He also collected one tackle and one fumble recovery.
- Following the 2018 campaign, Eatherly earned Fourth Team All-America honors by Phil Steele Magazine.

TULANE ADDS FIVE GRADUATE TRANSFERS

- Tulane added graduate transfers Mike Hinton, Jalen McCleskey, Christian Montano, Malik Lawal and Ben Knutson over the offseason. All four student-athletes will be able to compete immediately.
- Hinton comes to Tulane after he spent the past four seasons at Columbia University. During his career at Columbia, Hinton played in 30 games and 28 starts.
- He also totaled 70 career tackles (26 solo), 4.5 sacks and 13.5 tackles for loss, while earning four varsity letters. He also was named as a semifinalist for the nationally prestigious William V. Campbell Trophy.
- McCleskey arrives in New Orleans following a stellar career at Oklahoma State where he totaled 167 career receptions for 1,865 yards and 17 touchdowns in four seasons. He currently ranks sixth all-time in receptions

- and ninth in touchdown catches at OSU.
- Montano begins the 2019 campaign following a decorated Ivy League career at Brown where he earned all-league honors in 2017 and was selected as a Phil Steele Preseason All-Ivy league selection in 2018.
- Lawal comes to Tulane following a 2018 season at Arizona State where he tallied 15 total tackles.
- Knutson rounds out the list of Green Wave graduate transfers, as he joins the team from the University of Virginia. In 2018, Knutson appeared in nine of UVA's 13 games, seeing a majority of his action on special teams.

SUCCESS AT HOME

- Tulane's current three-game winning streak at home is tied for the longest at Yulman Stadium.
- With a 4-2 record at Yulman Stadium last season, the Green Wave finished 2018 with a 4-2 record at home for the second consecutive year.
- Tulane also won its home finale at Yulman Stadium for the second straight season, as it defeated Navy 29-28 to make the Green Wave bowl eligible.
- In the six home games a year ago, the Green Wave averaged 29.2 points, 200.2 rushing yards and 244.2 passing yards per game.

HOMETOWN BOYS

- Located in the iconic city of New Orleans, the Tulane football team has made a habit of keeping its local players at home. The 2019 roster features eight student-athletes who hail from New Orleans.
- Center Corey Dublin (Jesuit), defensive lineman Jeremiah Hernandez (De La Salle), offensive lineman Cameron Jackel (Archbishop Shaw), Jamiran James (De La Salle HS), defensive end Juan Monjarres (St. Augustine), offensive lineman Colby Orgeron (John Curtis), running back James Poche (Newman), tight end Connor Prouet (Jesuit) all played high school football in New Orleans.

FOUR YEARS WITH FRITZ

- Willie Fritz begins his fourth year (27th overall) as the Green Wave's head coach.
- In each of his previous three seasons, Tulane has improved its win total every year, winning four games in 2016, five in 2017 and seven in 2018. However it is his record in league play which has been most notable, as the Green Wave have gone from winning just one league game in his first season in 2016 to five games and a share of The American West Division title in 2018.

- The Green Wave will once again face a competitive schedule, as they face off against seven teams who earned a bowl bid in 2018.

- Tulane's 2019 opponents posted a combined mark of 80-72 during the 2018 season.
- The Green Wave's 2018 slate ranked as the 39th toughest schedule in the nation (NCAA.org), as Tulane opponents posted a mark of 89-68.

SLATTEN FAMILY STRENGTH CENTER TO OPEN ITS DOORS

- Tulane University Athletics opened the doors the department's new state-of-the-art Slatten Family Strength Center this fall.
- The $1.2 million dollar project will significantly enhance Tulane's primary weight room located inside the James W. Wilson, Jr. Center and will serve the needs of the Green Wave's sport programs.
- The Slatten Family Strength Center will feature all new equipment that will be customized specifically for Tulane student-athletes.
- In addition, the facility will undergo numerous structural enhancements, which include a higher ceiling, a new floor, a new lighting system, new windows to allow more natural light, a reconfigured office space for the strength and conditioning coaches and staff as well as additional storage space.

In just three seasons, Tulane football head coach Willie Fritz has already made an immediate impact, providing the program with a renewed sense of enthusiasm and a winning culture that has the Green Wave poised to make the 2019 season a year to remember. The 2019 season marks his 27th as a collegiate head coach and 23rd leading an NCAA program at the Division I or Division II level.

Fritz enters his fourth year in Uptown after directing the Green Wave to one of their most successful seasons in program history. In 2018, Fritz guided Tulane to its fifth bowl victory in 125 years, a share of the American Athletic Conference title and just its sixth winning season in the last 37 years, while facing the second toughest schedule among teams from the conference.

Tulane closed the year with wins in five of its last six games to earn a bid to the 2018 AutoNation Cure Bowl where it would post a convincing win over in-state rival Louisiana-Lafayette. Three of the Green Wave's losses in 2018 came by seven points or less.

Following the regular season, four Tulane players earned all-conference honors from The American, while eight players earned all-league recognition from Phil Steele College Football Magazine, including junior long snapper Geron Eatherly, who also earned fourth team all-America from the publication.

Under Fritz's watchful eye in 2018, Tulane's rushing attack was among the nation's best, ranking 23rd in the nation and fifth in The American, averaging 218.2 yards per game. The Green Wave rushing attack also proved to be an explosive unit, as they totaled 18 plays of 30 yards or more.

Tulane's defense also proved to be a force, as it ranked third in The American in total defense, but it was the Green Wave's ability to rush the quarterback that made the unit one of the best in the conference. In 2018, Tulane averaged just over three sacks per game (3.15), which led The American and ranked eighth nationally. Sophomore Patrick Johnson led the way for the Green Wave as he averaged nearly one sack a game (0.81), which ranked 12th in the FBS and second in The American.

This past April, Tulane continued its NFL Draft tradition, as cornerback Donnie Lewis Jr., was drafted in the seventh round by the Cleveland Browns. Lewis' selection on day three of the event marked the third consecutive year that a Tulane player was drafted.

Of Fritz's 209 wins, 73 have come on the NCAA Division I level (Football Bowl Subdivision and Football Championship Subdivision), and 158 of his wins have come at NCAA institutions.

The 2017 campaign saw Tulane finish the year with its highest win total since 2013 despite facing one of the nation's toughest schedules, as nine of its opponents earned invitations to bowl games. In addition, four of the Green Wave's losses came by six points or fewer.

The Green Wave earned three victories against bowl participants in 2017 while four players earned All-Conference honors. Among the players was former cornerback Parry Nickerson, who was named to the all-conference first team, and earned All-America honors from Sports Illustrated and SB Nation.

Under Fritz's direction, the 2017 squad featured an aggressive ground attack, which averaged 231.5 yards per game – a figure that ranked No. 20 nationally and fourth in The American – and an opportunistic defensive unit that recorded 19 turnovers.

The 2017 season also served as a milestone season for Fritz as he earned his 200th victory as a head coach and in the process became just the fourth active Football Bowl Subdivision head coach with 200 wins.

The program's success continued into April, as Fritz saw two of his players selected in the 2018 NFL Draft. Nickerson and defensive lineman Ade Aruna were both selected in the sixth round by the New York Jets and Minnesota Vikings, respectively.

In his first season in the Crescent City, Fritz guided Tulane to a 4-8 record and earned his first AAC victory in the team's season finale at UConn. The Green Wave posted 30 or more points in five games in 2016, four of which were in wins. Three of the eight losses were by seven points or fewer with Tulane leading in four of those games entering the fourth quarter.

Following the year, linebacker Nico Marley, defensive tackle Tanzel Smart and Nickerson earned All-AAC honors. In the spring of 2017, Smart was selected in the sixth round of the NFL Draft by the Los Angeles Rams.

The Shawnee Mission, Kansas, native was named the Green Wave's 40th head coach by director of athletics Troy Dannen on Dec. 15, 2015. At that time, he brought 33 years of collegiate experience as a football student-athlete or coach to Tulane, having led teams to six combined conference championships (one at every level he had coached) and two bowl appearances. He was twice named the national coach of the year, including the American Football Coaches Association FCS Coach of the Year in 2011 and the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year in 2012.

Fritz came to New Orleans from Georgia Southern where he spent two seasons and led the Eagles to a combined record of 17-7, a 2014 Sun Belt Conference title and the school's first-ever NCAA postseason bowl game with their berth in the 2015 GoDaddy.com Bowl. Georgia Southern concluded the 2015 regular season with an 8-4 overall record including a mark of 6-2 in conference play.

Fritz led the Eagles to a 9-3 overall record and a perfect mark of 8-0 in conference play during his first season at Georgia Southern in 2014, and was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year. However, the school's waiver claim to allow Georgia Southern to play in a bowl despite being in the second year of the NCAA's transition period was denied.

Prior to Georgia Southern, Fritz served as head coach at Sam Houston State from 2010-13 where he led the Bearkats to back-to-back Southland Conference titles, NCAA Division I Championship game appearances in 2011 and 2012 and a third straight NCAA playoff berth in 2013.

Honored as the American Football Coaches Association Regional Coach of the Year in 2011 and 2012, Fritz was selected by the media and his peers in the Southland Conference as the league's Coach of the Year in 2011 after his team went a perfect 7-0 in conference play.

In 2011 and 2012, Sam Houston State posted the two highest single-season win totals in program history with marks of 14-1 (2011) and 11-4 (2012) and Bearkat players were showered with accolades. More than 50 earned All-Southland Conference honors under Fritz in his last four years, not including additional Player of the Year, Offensive Player of the Year, Defensive Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year awards. All-America status from national coaching and media outlets were bestowed on 11 Sam Houston State players during his tenure.

Prior to his head coaching tenure at Sam Houston State, Fritz revitalized Central Missouri and guided the Mules to 11 winning seasons in 13 years. The NCAA Division II program's ledger included two 10-win seasons with the 2001

COACH FRITZ ON...

The importance on a Tulane degree

"I think the first thing that stands out about a Tulane degree is that it is a global degree. A degree from Tulane will not only help you regionally, but nationally and internationally as well. With a student body representing all 50 states and 78 countries from around the world, our graduates are going to make worthwhile connections no matter where they are from or where they want to work. The academic reputation at Tulane speaks for itself and helps our graduates stand out in the workforce as employers truly understand the significance of a Tulane degree."

What he looks for in recruits

"The No. 1 thing we look for is character. That is a big deal for us. We talk all the time about a guy being a 'Tulane Guy'. A 'Tulane Guy' for us is someone who is strong academically, a bona fide Division I football player and also someone who makes great decisions. All of those things are very important to us when we go out and recruit someone to bring into our family."

The team's style of play

"We are a disciplined team and program. To win, you cannot beat yourself. We feel like we do a good job teaching our guys the fundamentals to help them be the very best player they can be when they have that crucial one-on-one matchup."

How to build a program

"You have to recruit the right guys, retain them and then you have to develop them as students and as people. You do not want guys who come in for a year and then leave. You want guys to come in and have a great experience for four or five years."

Attending school in New Orleans

"Our guys don't like going to school here - they love going to school here. As a Tulane student-athlete, you have an opportunity to get a world-class education, you get to play big-time college football and you get to do this in the iconic city of New Orleans. New Orleans is the No. 1 destination city in the world. There are so many great things to do here in New Orleans. It is a unique city and I think that's why there are so many Tulane graduates that live in New Orleans. They don't want to leave after they get that degree."

The program's relationship with the New Orleans Saints

"We are so blessed to have a NFL team in our city that welcomes us with open arms. Not only do the Saints do a wonderful job with us, but they also do an outstanding job with the high school programs and the park league programs throughout the city. We have access to their indoor facility, which helps us out tremendously when we need to practice indoors because of the weather. They also have great people in place with the Benson Family and head coach Sean Peyton. They have been very gracious about sharing their facilities and time with Tulane football, and we could not be more appreciative."

THE FRITZ FAMILY

In 2002, Central Missouri made its first-ever appearance in the NCAA Division II playoffs and was the Mid-America Athletic Association (MIAA) co-champion a year later. A 97-47 mark in 13 seasons ranks Fritz as the winningest coach in the program's history. He was the only coach to ever win seven or more games in eight consecutive seasons, and his victory total ranked him 15th among active Division II coaches at the time. In addition to his impressive 67.4 winning percentage with the Mules, Fritz coached his student-athletes to achieve their potential on the field and in the classroom. More than 150 Mules were recognized with All-MIAA honors with 41 first-team selections and 24 All-Americans.

Under Fritz, Central Missouri recorded a graduation rate of 84 percent with 144 MIAA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll recipients, 14 Academic All-Region and three Academic All-Americans.

For all of his accomplishments guiding Central Missouri, Fritz was honored by the school with induction into its Athletics Hall of Fame on Feb. 11, 2017.

Prior to his time at Central Missouri and Sam Houston State as a head coach, Fritz spent two different stints as an assistant coach with the Bearkats. He first served as a graduate assistant during the 1984 and 1985 seasons when he earned a master's degree in kinesiology. During that two-year stretch, Sam Houston State posted a 16-6 record and won the 1985 Gulf Star Conference championship. He returned to Sam Houston State a second time in 1991 after spending two years at Coffeyville Community College in Kansas under legendary coach Dick Foster, earning a promotion to defensive coordinator after one year. He stayed another two years to work for Coach Foster and the Red Ravens.

When Fritz was brought back to Sam Houston State in 1991 under Ron Randleman as secondary and special teams coach, he instilled an attitude of excellence on special teams that would last more than a decade. The Bearkats' "block party" racked up 80 blocked punts, field goals and extra points beginning with Fritz in 1991 and lasting through 2004.

In Fritz's first year as a full-time assistant coach at Sam Houston State in 1991, the Bearkats won the Southland Conference. That league title and an eight-win season launched Sam Houston State to the program's second-ever appearance in the NCAA Division I Football Championship.

Fritz departed Huntsville for a second time prior to the 1993 season for an opportunity to be the head coach at Blinn College, where he would turn around a program that had only five wins in its previous three seasons.

From 1993-96, Fritz and the Buccaneers would rack up 39 victories against only five losses with a tie and claim two national junior college championships. He was inducted into the NJCAA Football Hall of Fame for the environment of success he created at Blinn.

One of seven children, Fritz is the son of the late Harry Fritz, who coached the Central Missouri football team in 1952 before continuing his career as the Executive Director at the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) in Kansas City. The elder Fritz also served at several colleges and universities in administration as an athletics director.

Fritz played on two conference title teams and was a four-year starter at defensive back for Randleman at Pittsburg State and remained at his alma mater as a student assistant coach in 1982. Early coaching stops included a year at Shawnee Mission Northwest (Kansas) High School in 1983 and Willis (Texas) High School in 1986, with his return to Sam Houston State for graduate school in between those years.

Fritz and his wife Susan have three children, a son and two daughters. Their son Wesley, who was married in the summer of 2019 to his wife Rebecca, is a member of the Tulane football staff and serves as the Director of Player Personnel. The couple's daughter Lainie is a sports broadcaster in Houston and their youngest daughter Brooke is a graduate student at the University of Georgia.

GREEN WAVE GAME

TULANE FOOTBALL GOES DOWN UPTOWN AT YULMAN STA-

Yulman Stadium, the crown jewel of the university's athletics complex, opened its gates for the first time in front of a capacity crowd on September 6, 2014, against Georgia Tech. Yulman Stadium marked the beginning of a renaissance of Tulane Athletics, which saw Green Wave football return to campus for the first time in nearly 40 years.

Tulane's new home field advantage came from the generosity of three couples in particular: Richard Yulman and his late wife Janet; Gayle and the late Tom Benson; and Jill and Avie Glazer.

Richard Yulman, the retired chairman and owner of mattress manufacturing giant Serta International, donated $15 million toward construction of this $73 million facility. Yulman Stadium is named in honor of Richard, Janet and the Yulman family.

The late New Orleans Saints owner Tom Benson and his wife Gayle, a member of the Board of Tulane, donated $7.5 million to Yulman Stadium. Benson Field, which hosts the games of Yulman Stadium, is named in their honor.

Jill and Avie Glazer supported the stadium with a multi-million dollar gift. The Jill H. and Avram A. Glazer Family Club, the premium space in which to experience games at Yulman Stadium, is named in their honor.

Construction of Yulman Stadium began in January 2013. Gould Evans and Associates and Lee Ledbetter & Associates served as the project architects, while Woodward Design + Build LLC was the contractor.

Tulane football has been a part of the fabric of New Orleans since the Green Wave played their first season back in 1893. Generations experienced college football at the old Tulane Stadium from 1926-74.

It is not hard to find a story about someone's experience at old Tulane Stadium. Boy Scouts selling programs, a record crowd of 86,598 watching the Green Wave defeat LSU in 1973, the annual Sugar Bowl and early Saints football are all part of the story of Tulane Stadium.

Now in its fifth year, a new chapter continues to be written in a new home by a new (and old) generation of Green Wave fans.

Game 1 • Tulane 42, FIU 14

Yulman Stadium • New Orleans
Aug. 29, 2019 • 16,361 Attendance

NEW ORLEANS – The Tulane football team built an early advantage behind four first-half touchdowns and racked up 545 yards of offense en route to a 42-14 season-opening victory over FIU at Yulman Stadium.

Tulane (1-0) quarterback Justin McMillan accounted for three touchdowns – two through the air and one on the ground – while completing 14 of 18 passes for 199 yards and rushing for 51 more. Running back Corey Dauphine touched the ball three times and ran for 76 yards and two scores.

The Green Wave outgained FIU (0-1) on the ground by a 350-59 margin, as the defense surrendered just 267 total yards to the Panthers.

Running back Darius Bradwell led the Wave with 90 rushing yards on 13 carries, while wide receiver Darnell Mooney racked up 84 yards on four receptions with one touchdown.

Tulane's four first-half touchdowns were the most since accomplishing the same feat in the 62-28 home win over Tulsa on Oct. 7, 2017.

Tulane outgained FIU, 310-113, in total yardage in the first half, including a 178-39 advantage on the ground.
