THREE HITS

- 1 The Auburn Tigers enter the week as in the No. 1 spot nationally, according to the National Collegiate Equestrian Association.
- 2 The Tigers return six NCEA All-Americans from last year's championship team.
- 3 Auburn's lineup against UTM features three new faces in junior transfer Kelsey Jung and freshmen Kara Kaufmann and Becky Kozma.

NO. 1 AUBURN TRAVELS TO UT MARTIN

The No. 1 Auburn equestrian takes to the road for a Thursday meet at UT Martin, Sept. 29. The Tigers and the Skyhawks square off at 1 p.m. CT at the Ned McWherter Agricultural Complex.

Auburn is coming off a successful showing vs. Ole Miss last week, Sept. 23, as they defeated the Rebels, 18-2, in exhibition. Going on the road to officially start the season will provide the team with new challenges, but also opportunities to grow.

"We're always ready to travel because we get to gel more as a team," head coach Greg Williams said. "It is great to have our team scrimmages and exhibitions because it shows where we are at this point in our riding. However, I really like getting the whole group away from Auburn and on the road together because it really helps the team focus on the task at hand."

Road meets present new obstacles for the team, especially to the new faces. The team will be competing on UTM horses, which will require even more focus than before.

"We've got a number of people that have a lot of experience on the road and that will allow our freshmen to lean on those who have done this before," Williams said. "Road meets are always a challenge and so we need to focus on not over doing it and forcing mistakes."

AUBURN LINEUP

A handful of returners are making their 2016-17 debut in the Auburn lineup this week.

The Hunt Seat crew is highlighted by five NCEA All-Americans in seniors Ashley Foster and Tory Hoft and sophomores Ashton Alexander, Caitlin Boyle and Hayley Iannotti. Foster, Alexander, and Boyle will compete in both Equitation Over Fences and Equitation on the Flat for the Tigers. Iannotti will ride in Fences, while Hoft earned a spot in Flat. Making her collegiate debut in Fences is freshman Becky Kozma, while junior Caitlin Creel will join the Flat group.

In Western, sophomore Lauren Diaz will compete in both Horsemanship and Reining for Auburn. Diaz is the reigning SEC Freshman Horsemanship Rider of the Year.

Two other veterans join Diaz in Horsemanship in senior Hannah Stephens and sophomore Megan Rauh. Riding for Auburn for the first time in the event is junior transfer Kelsey Jung and freshman Kara Kaufmann.

The Reining corps features a lineup of experienced collegiate riders. In addition to Diaz, the lineup is highlighted by NCEA All-American Alexa Rivard and NCEA All-Championship Team member Blair McFarlin. Sophomores Ali Fratessa and Betsy Brown round out the experienced group.

UT MARTIN SERIES HISTORY

Thursday's meeting is the 10th time the two teams have squared off in a dual format. The Tigers are 9-0 over the Skyhawks with a 7-0 record on the road in Martin.

Last year, Auburn traveled to UTM and came away with a 13-7 victory. Then-senior Elizabeth Benson was MOP in both Flat & Fences, while Lauren Diaz earned MOP honors in Horsemanship.

FIFTEENTH SEASON OF VARSITY EQUESTRIAN

The 2016-17 season marks the 15th year of varsity equestrian at Auburn. Head coach Greg Williams has guided the Tigers since the program was recognized by the Athletics Department and has amassed an impressive 118-48 overall record.

In 14 years, Auburn has earned four NCEA Championships (2006, 2011, 2013, 2016), one Southeastern Conference title (2016), three Southern Equestrian Conference crowns (2004, 2010, 2011) and three NCEA Hunt Seat championships (2008, 2011, 2013).

Individually, Auburn boasts 41 All-Americans and 34 All-SEC selections. The Southeastern Conference first began sponsoring equestrian in 2012-13.

UP NEXT

Auburn remains on the road and travels to the state of Delaware for a pair of meets. The Tigers take on Delaware State, Oct. 7, and follow with a faceoff with Fresno State, Oct. 8. Both meets will take place at the Dovington Training Center in Felton, Del.

WE'RE NO. 1

After earning the No. 1 spot in the NCEA Preseason Poll, the Tigers enter this week's competition still in the top spot, the organization announced Wednesday.

"I would always prefer not to start at No. 1, but this team has earned it," Williams said. "I don't know who to be more amazed at right now, the team or Coach Jessica Braswell and Coach Mary Meneely. They constantly keep bringing riders to new height while keeping the hard-nose work that I love in play."

The Tigers hold the top spot, while SEC rival Georgia stands at No. 2. Texas A&M, TCU, and Baylor are ranked third through fifth, while SMU, Oklahoma State, South Carolina, Fresno State and New Mexico State round out the Top 10.

Auburn has held the No. 1 ranking since the November 17, 2015, rankings came out.

SUCCESSFUL EXHIBITION VS. OLE MISS

The No. 1 Auburn equestrian team kicked off the 2016-17 season hosting Ole Miss in an exhibition meet, Sept. 23, at the Auburn University Horse Center.

"It was good to see some new faces out there and to see the team compete well," head coach Greg Williams said. "We still have things to work on and get better at, but overall I'm pleased with today's effort and am looking forward to this season with this team."

The team was excited to show off the new additions to the AU Horse Center today. The program became the first equestrian team in the nation to have a permanent videoboard. Auburn also added a Scholarship Lounge to enhance gameday experience.

"We are so pleased and thankful with the new additions out here and I think having these elements has already brought our sport to another level," Williams said.

Auburn jumped out to a 9-1 lead to start competition. The Horsemanship crew went a perfect 5-0 against the Rebels with junior Kelsey Jung opening with a winning score of 71.5. Sophomore Megan Rauh followed with a 69-67 victory over Elizabeth Wooten and Kara Kaufmann won her match with a score of 73.5. Sophomore Lauren Diaz captured a 69.5-60.5 win before freshman Cydney Benes completed the shut out with a 65-60 victory.

The Equitation Over Fences corps had a successful day as well, finishing 4-1. Junior Abby Wagner posted a 77 in her win and was followed by freshman Bailey Brasington's 72-38 victory. Sophomore Alex Ladove scored a team-high 80 for the W and freshman Becky Kozma sent the Tigers into the break with a 79-70 win.

After intermission, the Flat riders put together a strong showing to finish a perfect 5-0. Kozma got the team started with a winning score of 71. Sophomore Kennedy Knapic followed with a 75 before Ladove earned her second win of the day, defeating Nora Heindel, 72-66. Freshman Anna Claire Smith posted an 81 and junior Caitlin Creel finished off the sweep with a team-high 84.

PLAYER TO WATCH: KARA KAUFMANN, WESTERN

>> Freshman Kara Kaufmann picked up MOP honors in Horsemanship against Ole Miss (9/23) after she picked up a 73.5-53.5 win at the Auburn University Horse Center.

The Tigers capped the day with a 4-1 victory in Reining. Sophomore Betsy Brown started the Tigers with a 63 in a win before classmates Blair McFarlin and Ali Fratessa posted a pair of 65s in their match wins. Diaz picked up a 63.5-61 victory for Auburn to also finish 2-0 on the day.

Auburn swept the MOP honors, taking home all four. Creel (Flat) and Ladove (Fences) were awarded in Hunt Seat, while Kaufmann (Horsemanship) and Diaz (Reining) were recognized in Western.

LEADERSHIP

Strong leaders are necessary for any team to succeed and Auburn's seniors have been preparing to lead for three years with some of the best coming before them.

The Tigers boast six seniors this season -- Caroline Becker, Ashley Foster, Lena Hernig, Tory Hoft, Jacqueline Shilen, and Hannah Stephens.

Foster and Hoft return to the team following All-America performances on Flat in 2015-16. Foster was placed on the NCEA second team, while Hoft received honorable mention honors.

Stephens played a crucial role in Auburn's run to an SEC Championship, earning MOP honors in the title match vs. Georgia after scoring a 152 in Horsemanship.

But leadership is also coming from freshmen, sophomores and juniors alike.

Junior Alexa Rivard weighed in on what the driving force behind the team is this year from the perspective of one of only 11 upperclassmen.

"We definitely have a big target on our back," Rivard said. "I guess what we're focusing on is how we're riding individually as well as a whole team. We are working on staying focused individually but also staying focused together."

NEW FACES

With 12 freshmen and one junior transfer the team is primarily made up of underclassmen, and while a young team means less experience in collegiate riding it does not mean less determination.

EXPERIENCED RETURNERS

The Tigers return six NCEA All-Americans from last year's championship squad. Sophomore Caitlin Boyle is coming off an outstanding freshman season where she was the SEC Freshman Rider of the Year in both Fences and Flat. She was placed on the NCEA All-Championship team in both events, while being named the championship's MOP in Fences.

Joining Boyle in Hunt Seat are seniors Ashley Foster and Tory Hoft and sophomores Hayley Iannotti and Ashton Alexander. Foster and Hoft were All-Americans in Flat, while Iannotti and Alexander were honored in Fences.

On the Western side, sophomores Lauren Diaz and Blair McFarlin and junior Alexa Rivard highlight the talented crew returning to The Plains this season. Rivard is a NCEA All-America honoree in Reining, earning All-SEC nods in the discipline as well. Diaz was named the conference's Horsemanship Freshman Rider of the Year, while McFarlin was placed on the NCEA All-Championship Team after going undefeated in Reining at the national meet.

Adding to the Western depth are sophomores Megan Rauh and Ali Fratessa. The pair were placed on the SEC All-Freshman team in Horsemanship and Reining, respectively.

RING CEREMONY

The 2015-16 Auburn team was honored prior to the Auburn/LSU football game Saturday, Sept. 24. The team was presented with both their SEC and NCEA championship rings.

EQUESTRIAN 101: SCORING AND RULES

GENERAL RULES

1. In equitation/horsemanship classes, only the rider is being judged therefore no penalty should be assessed because of the horse's conformation, color or movement.
2. Falling off a horse results in elimination.
3. Three refusals over jumps by a horse results in elimination.
4. Any rider not having her mount under sufficient control shall be removed from the ring by the show stewards and shall be disqualified or remounted at their discretion.
5. Riders must remain on the same mount throughout all phases of an equitation or horsemanship class unless the judge or coaches requests a re-ride.

COMPETITION RULES

Riders from opposing teams compete on the same horse. Each rider receives a score. The competitor with the highest score receives one point for their team.

Each rider from each team is given a 4 minute warm-up on the horse she drew in Equitation on the Flat and Equitation over Fences.

- Riders from Home team will warm up with each other. Riders from Visiting Team will warm-up with each other. Riders in Equitation over Fences are only allowed to jump 4 fences in their warm-up.

Each rider from each team is given a 4 minute warm-up on the horse she drew in Horsemanship.

- Riders from Home team and Visiting Team will warm-up together at the same time if the size of the ring allows for this.

Each rider from each team is given a 5 minute warm-up on the horse she drew in Reining.

- Riders from Home team will warm up with each other. Riders from Visiting Team will warm-up with each other.

HUNT SEAT RULES

General-- The rider should have a workmanlike appearance, seat and hands light and supple, conveying the impression of complete control.

Equitation on the Flat

Scoring: Scored out of 100. There are 9 movements as well as a collective mark. These are based out of 1-10 points for each movement and overall position. 1 meaning not executed and 10 meaning excellent.

Equitation over Fences

Scoring: Scored out of 100. Based on the rider's equitation, complete control of the horse, executing the jumps in correct form, and staying consistent.

WESTERN RULES

General-- The rider will be judged on seat, hands, and the ability to control and show the horse. Results as shown by the performance of the horse are not to be considered more important than the method used by the rider in obtaining them.

Reining

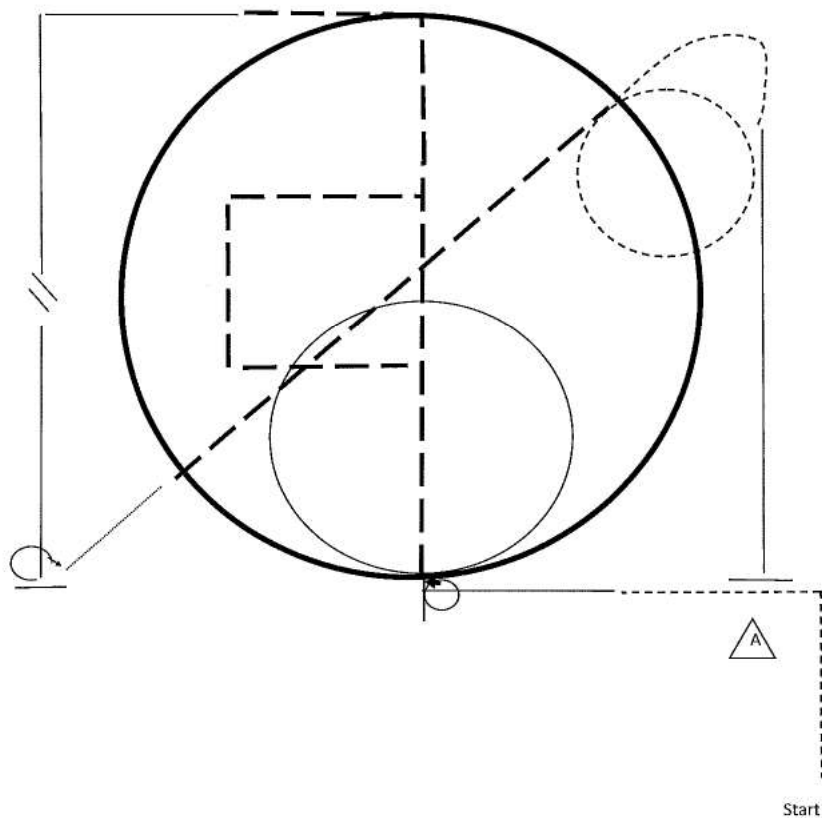

Scoring: Base score is a 70. There are 7-8 maneuvers depending on the pattern, as well as a collective mark. NRHA/AQHA patterns 1-10 must be used. In these patterns, there are spins, circles, lead changes, stops, rollbacks, and back. Within each maneuver one can score anywhere from a -1.5 to +1.5 points... -1.5 is extremely poor, +1.5 is excellent, and 0 points added to the maneuver means it was done correctly. There are also penalties such as kick outs, break of gait, missing leads, etc. that can be anywhere from -.5 to 5 penalty points.

Horsemanship

Scoring: Base score is a 70. There are 7-9 maneuvers depending on the pattern, as well as a collective mark. Within each maneuver one can score anywhere from a -1.5 to +1.5 points... -1.5 is extremely poor, +1.5 is excellent, and 0 points added to the maneuver means it was done correctly. There are also penalties such as kick outs, break of gait, missing leads, etc. that can be 1,3 or 5 penalty points depending on severity.

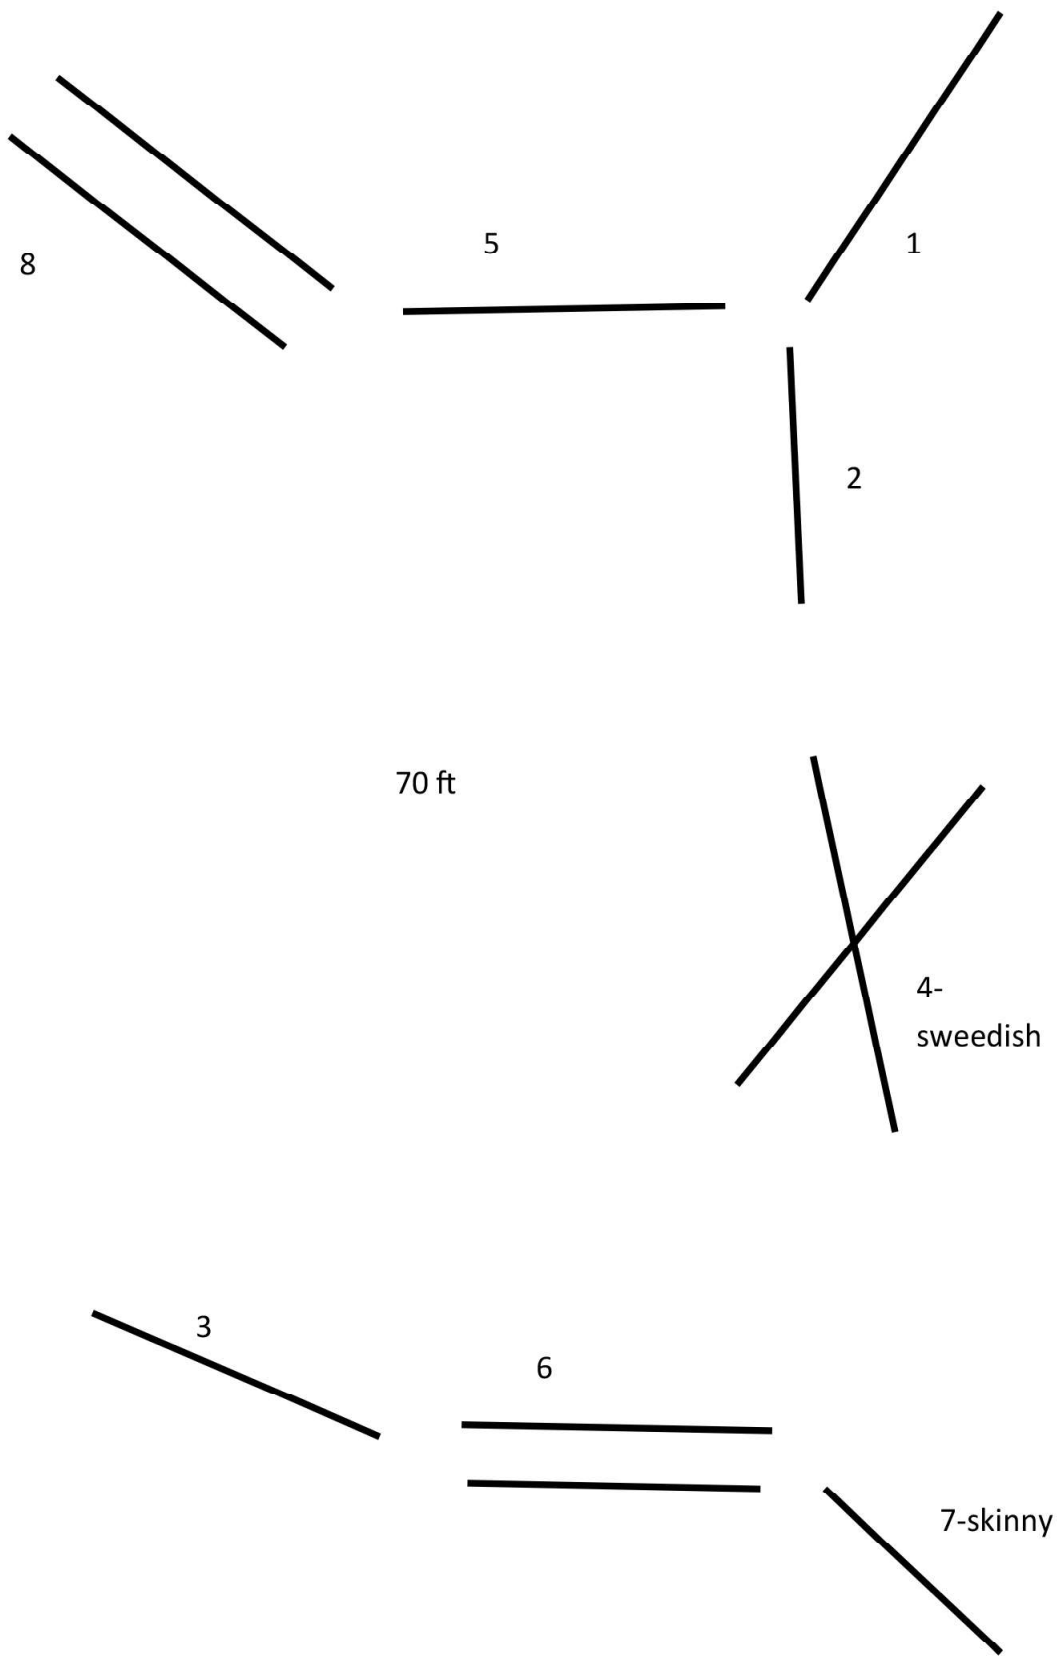

HORSEMANSHIP PATTERN

Pattern #29

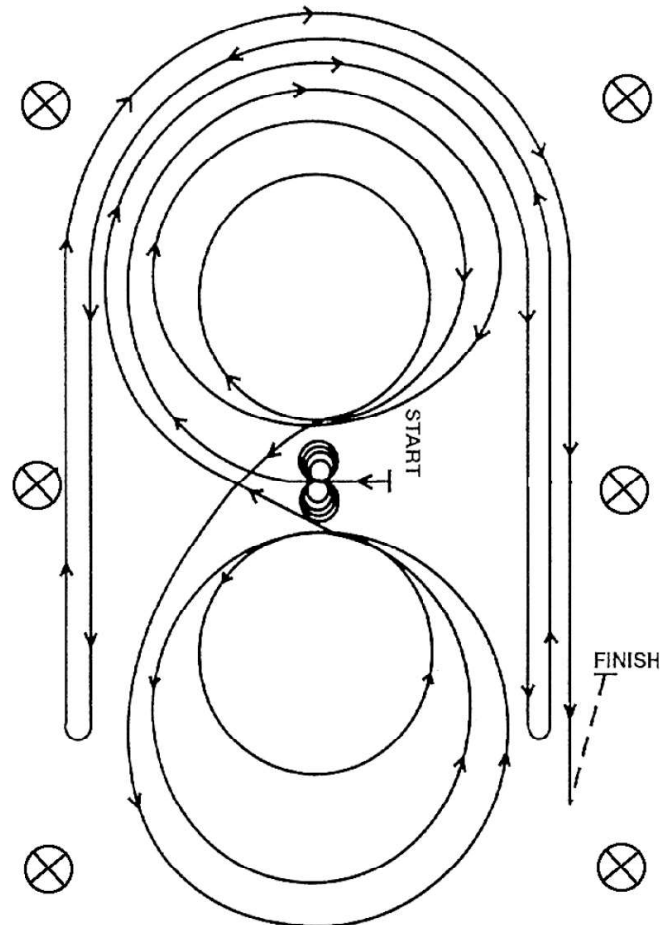

1. Start jogging before A. Square corner left. Lope right lead.
2. At center extended lope circle right. At completion, slow to lope and lope small circle right. Stop.
3. 630° turn left. Drop stirrups. Extended trot, box to left, square corner left.
4. Lope right lead, counter canter corner left. Change leads.
5. Continue loping left lead. Stop. Approximately 260° turn right.
6. Walk, extended trot across the diagonal. Slow to jog, jog small circle right.
7. Jog arc right. Lope left lead. Stop in front of A. Walk to exit
