LAST WEEK AGAINST ALABAMA

Auburn faced Alabama last Friday scoring a 196.825 team total. The score tied for the eighth-highest score in program history, highest score at Alabama in history and second highest road score in history. The Tigers also scored team season-highs on vault with a 49.325 and beam with a 49.400. Caitlin Atkinson won her fourth-straight all-around title with a score of 39.475. Three of her all-around titles have come against teams ranked in the top-12. Lexus Demers tied her career record for the second straight week on vault scoring a 9.925. Freshman Abby Milliet set career-highs on bars, with a 9.825, and beam with a 9.850.

HEAD COACH JEFF GRABA QUOTES

On the meet being the highest ranked competition in Auburn Arena history...

"I'm really excited about it. First off, it's a privilege to be a part of something like this. It is historical. For our program, gymnastics being that kickoff is a big deal. On the other end, it also shows where we are finally. I really feel like we are a top-10 team. Everybody talks about our competitors and how hard it is to compete in the SEC. I'm hoping people eventually start talking about how hard it is to compete against us because we're ranked highly as well."

On improvement this week...

"We sat down on Saturday and all agreed we're just not where we need to be on floor. Floor is supposed to be our best event, the one we hang our hat on and get a big score there. We know we're a really good beam team and capable of a really good vault score, a really good bars score, but we should be doing a really good job on floor every night. It's usually the hardest one to get going and the slowest one to get turned around, but we've got to get that figured out real quick."

On Bri Guy's effect on the team...

"That's why we took her on the road last year. We needed her. She leads in so many different ways. I think the best thing it's done for this team is our six freshman get to see what real work ethic is, what real determination is right away. They all knew Bri when she got injured and felt the frustration and horror that came with that injury. Then to come in and see how hard she was working and how hard it is to push to get back into lineups. She was fighting them for lineup spots. Nothing fires you up more than your teammate fighting you for a spot in lineups. Then again, this girl is coming back from a double Achilles tear."

BRI GUY QUOTES

On tearing both Achilles last Valentine's Day in the Alabama meet

"I didn't know what was happening. It was definitely a freak accident. I don't know, it was a great day, a great meet. Everyone was in the zone, and we were feeling it that night. I had total confidence in what I was about to do. In my head, this was going to be the best double-half ever, I was going to stick it. I stuck it on my head though, so there's that. There was nothing before it to say 'this is going to happen' so it was a total freak accident, and I didn't think anything was going to go wrong. The surgeons were like 'yeah, that was just a freak accident' and in 14 plus years of tumbling aggressively it was bound to happen."

On her emotions...

"I can usually use my bubbly side to block it out but in my head there's explosions. I think I forgot how to block it out. The team helped with milestones cheering for me but I felt like I wasn't good."

On emotions at North Carolina in the season opener...

"I just liked putting on a leotard again and be on the equipment, not scooting around the arena. Warming up with the team, competing with them and being in the huddles contributing was awesome. The Preview meet (on Dec. 1) felt like a real competition to me. There was no one to compete against, but in my head I knew this is what it would be like and I needed to do it. I freaked out a little bit in warmups. When the crowd got out there and we were doing stuff, I settled down and had so much fun. At UNC, it was cool having another team to go against. There was some factors I wasn't ready for. I couldn't even look at my mom in the stands because I knew she was crying and I was going to cry and then I did. I wanted no one to look at me or react or say anything. When we got to vault, I completely forgot I had been training this in the gym. The whole not having feet for a while thing freaked me out. At the last second, it took one of my teammates stopping me and saying 'hey stop it. You're feet are fine, just go.' That just kind of did it."

NCAA REGULAR SEASON ALL-AMERICANS

Junior Caitlin Atkinson and sophomore MJ Rott were named 2014 Regular Season All-Americans for their performances in the all-around and vault competitions, respectively. Atkinson, who was also named a NCAA All-American in 2013, tied a career high with an all-around score of 39.550 in a meet against Missouri. She was named the team MVP for the second consecutive season. Rott tied the Auburn program record with a vault score of 9.975 in a meet at LSU and also posted scores of 9.950 and 9.925 during the season, tied for third and tied for eighth in program history.

SEASON TICKET SALES RECORD BROKEN

For the fifth consecutive season, the Auburn gymnastics season ticket sales record was broken. The record has been surpassed in each of head coach Jeff Graba's five seasons.

ALL-SEC COMPETITORS

Junior Caitlin Atkinson and seniors Megan Walker and Brittany Webster were named to the 2014 All-SEC Team in the two session format. It was Atkinson's second consecutive season in which she was named to the team. Also, sophomore MJ Rott received SEC All-Freshman Team honors in the two session format.

2014 POSTSEASON RESULTS

The 2014 Auburn gymnastics team finished fifth in both the SEC Championships and NCAA Regionals with scores of 195.550 and 195.050, respectively. The team's 195.550 points scored in the SEC Championships are the sixth most at the event in program history, and its 195.050 points scored at the NCAA Regionals are the eighth most at the event in program history.

2015 season, marking the most newcomers in a single class since adding seven team members in 2012. The six new members include freshmen Brooke Bray, Kennedy Finister, Sarah Garcia, Abby Milliet and Cara Stricklin, who will participate in the all-around competition, as well as freshman Blake Jones, who will compete in the floor and vault competitions.

NCAA REGIONAL RETURNS TO AUBURN

Auburn will once again host an NCAA Regional meet in Auburn Arena on April 4, 2015. The Tigers last hosted a regional meet in 2012. Auburn finished fourth on its home floor in 2012, but posted a score that was at that point the second-highest regional score in program history. Auburn finished third at the NCAA Gainesville Regional in 2013 and fifth in the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional in 2014.

HIGHEST PRESEASON RANKING IN PROGRAM HISTORY

Auburn gymnastics was ranked 12th nationally in the 2015 National Coaches Poll, the highest preseason ranking in school history after being ranked 13th in each of the last two seasons. Three SEC teams were ranked in the top four while there were six in the top 13 and seven ranked overall.

UP NEXT

Next week, Auburn will travel to Missouri to face the Tigers at 8 p.m. CT Friday, Feb. 20 live on the SEC Network. Auburn defeated Missouri in its last meeting at the 2014 SEC Championship 195.550-194.650.
