HEAD COACH NICK CLINARD

Nick Clinard is in his 17th year overall as a head coach and ninth season with the Auburn men's golf team in 2017-18.

Auburn is one of six teams in the nation ... Florida State, Illinois, Oklahoma, Texas and USC the others ... who have made at least six-straight NCAA Championship appearances.

The Tigers recorded the fourth best finish in school history by placing 11th at the 2017 NCAA Championship.

Auburn had been ranked as high as No. 2 nationally in 2016-17 while winning four team titles: Inverness Intercollegiate, Jerry Pate Intercollegiate, Tiger Invitational and Gary Koch Invitational.

Trace Crowe, who was an All-SEC second-team selection, won medalist honors at the Gary Koch. Matt Gilchrest was a Byron Nelson Award finalist, and Trace Crowe an All-Region selection. Gilchrest and Ryan Benton were named All-America Scholars and the team was named an All-Academic Team for the eighth consecutive year by the GCAA.

Under Clinard, the Tigers have reached six-straight NCAA Championships while earning 25 team and 27 individual titles and bringing in the strongest recruiting classes the Tigers have seen in years.

The Tigers were ranked No. 1 nationally for the much of the 2015-16 fall season while senior Michael Johnson was ranked No. 1 nationally in the Golfweek individual rankings and second in the Palmer Cup rankings.

Through Sept. 12, 2017, Clinard has posted a .753 winning percentage at Auburn with a record of 1139-367-21. Auburn has made the NCAA Regionals each of his eight seasons and have advanced to the NCAA Championship six straight years, including finishing 11th in 2017 and 12th in 2015.

Auburn won four tournaments in 2015-16 including the Carpet Capital Collegiate, U.S. Collegiate Championship, Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate and the Seminole Intercollegiate while finishing as runner-up in four others. Auburn had a perfect 1000 APR score.

The Tigers had five medalists with Michael Johnson winning three, the Primland Collegiate, Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate and the Schenkel Invitational. Freshman Graysen Huff won the ASU Fall Beach Classic while Will Long was co-medalist at the U.S. Collegiate Championship.

Michael Johnson was named Golfweek first-team All-American, PING second-team All-American, first-team All-SEC and was a semifinalist for both the Jack Nicklaus Award and Ben Hogan Award and was on the Haskins Award Watch List. Jacob Solomon was a Freshman All-SEC selection in 2016. Johnson and Solomon were both named to the PING All-Southeast Region team.

The Tigers had the fourth best NCAA Championship finish in school history by finishing 12th in 2015 and the Tigers are one of only eight teams to appear in four consecutive NCAA Championships.

Auburn won three consecutive tournaments with three straight medalists, all different, in the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate, Tiger Invitational Presented by Jason Dufner and the Schenkel Invitational in 2015.

Ben Schlottman was named Golfweek honorable mention All-American, the first freshman in school history to receive All-America honors.

Five Tigers were named to the NCAA All-Southeast Region team as No. 1 Illinois and No. 2 Texas were the only three schools in the nation to have five players named NCAA All-Region.

Schlottman and Matt Gilchrest were both named first-team All-SEC while Michael Johnson was a second-team selection. Schlottman also became the first Auburn freshman to be named All-SEC first-team in history while also being tabbed SEC Freshman of the Year.

2016-17 IN REVIEW

Auburn men's golf had another outstanding season during 2016-17, culminating in an 11th-place finish at the NCAA Championships, the fourth-highest finish in school history. The Tigers climbed to as high as second in the polls.

The Tigers won four tournaments: the Inverness Intercollegiate, Jerry Pate National Intercollegiate, Tiger Invitational and the Gary Koch Invitational. Additionally, they had a pair of runner-up finishes at the Carpet Capital Collegiate and the NCAA Regional.

Senior Matt Gilchrest led the team to a runner-up finish at the West Lafayette Regional, as he finished runner-up individually 2-under 214. The Southlake, Texas native was one of five finalists for the prestigious Byron Nelson Award and was a PING All-Southeast Region selection.

Sophomore Trace Crowe won medalist honors for the second time of his young career at the Gary Koch Invitational en route to earning Second Team All-SEC honors. Crowe finished as the Tigers' leader in scoring average at 71.82 strokes, a mark that ranks in the top-15 in school history. He had four top-20 finishes and tied for the team lead with nine rounds in the 60s. Crowe also earned a spot on the All-Southeast Region Team

Freshman Jovan Rebula had an immediate impact in his debut season, earning SEC Freshman of the Week honors twice in the span of just over a month. The George, South Africa native led the team at the NCAA Championships, finishing in a tie for 23rd at 1-over 289.

Auburn extended their NCAA Championship appearance streak to six-straight years, one only six teams in the nation - Florida State, Illinois, Oklahoma, Texas and Southern California - to achieve the feat.

The Tigers also impressed in the classroom with the team being named All-Academic for the eighth-consecutive year by the GCAA. Gilchrest and Ryan Benton were named All-American Scholars.

Sophomore Trace Crowe was named Second Team All-SEC after averaging a team-best 71.82 strokes and seven top-25 finishes.

Jovan Rebula earned SEC Freshman Golfer of the Week twice. He finished the year third on the team in stroke average at 72.24.

Senior Matt Gilchrest led the Tigers to a runner-up finish at the NCAA Regional and was a finalist for the 2017 Byron Nelson Award.

A two-time All-America and All-SEC selection in 2011 and 2012, Barber finished his career at Auburn among one of the all-time greats.

He set the Auburn single-season scoring average record with a 70.76 in 2012 while his 70.91 scoring average in 2011 ranks third in school history. Additionally, his 70.83 career scoring average is best in school history - nearly 1.5 strokes better than Niclas Carlsson's career scoring average of 72.28 turned in from 2010-2014.

Will Blackmon

Blackmon was Auburn's first and only winner of the Ben Hogan Award and an All-SEC first-team selection in 1994. He was also an Academic All-American in 1994.

During the summer leading into his senior year, he won three amateur competitions: the Southeastern Amateur, National Invitation and the Mobile Labor Day Invitational.

Jason Dufner

A 1997 honorable mention All-America selection and was a three-time All-SEC second-team pick, Dufner holds the 17th lowest career scoring average in school history with a 73.34.

Dufner won the 1997 Topy Cup in Tokyo, Japan with a 73-72-70--215.

Buddy Gardner

Gardner still holds down the second and fifth spots for single season scoring averages in the Auburn record books with his 70.90 in 1976 and 71.40 in 1977.

From 1974-1977, Gardner averaged 72.91 strokes per round, the 10th best career average in school history.

Jimmy Green

A three-time All-America selection, three-time All-SEC pick and 1989 SEC Freshman-of-the-Year, Green won the individual titles at the 1990 NCAA East Regional and the 1991 SEC Championship.

Green won six collegiate events for the Tigers, more than any other golfer in Auburn history.

Kevin Haefner

Haefner was a two-time All-American and All-SEC selection from 1999-2002.

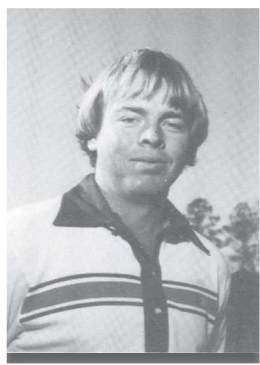

He finished 2001-02 with a 71.59 stroke average, which still stands as the sixth lowest in school history.

Michael Johnson

Johnson had a monster 2016 season that saw him claim a school-record three individual wins and set the single-season stroke average at 70.37 en route to earning First Team All-American honors.

His five career wins rank second in school history.

Ricky Smallridge

Smallridge was a two-time First Team All-SEC selection in 1979 and 1980, along with a Third Team All-American nod in the '79 season.

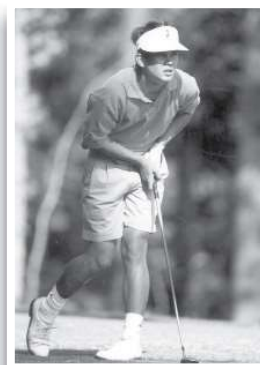

His four career individual wins rank third all-time in school history.

Chip Spratlin

Spratlin became the only Auburn golfer to win the NCAA Championship in 1995, claiming medalist honors.

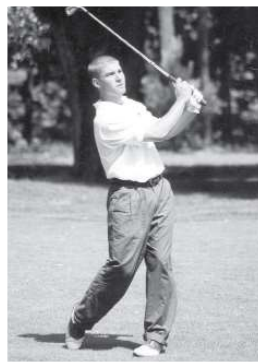

He was a first-team All-America selection and All-SEC first-team pick in 1995.

Iain Steel

Steele was a 1995 All-American and is Auburn's only SEC Player of the Year. Steel was also a first-team All-SEC selection in 1995.

Sixth in Auburn career scoring average, Steel put up 72.80 shots per round from 1993-95.

Roland Thatcher

Thatcher was a second-team All-America selection and won medalist honors for the SEC Championship in 2000.

He finished in the top-5 in four of the last five events of the 1999-2000 season, including victories at the Alabama Spring Invitational and the SEC Championship.

Lee Williams

Williams was a two-time U.S. Walker Cup member and was on the U.S. World Amateur team.

In 2003, he was the NCAA Championship runner-up and third-team All-American.

Williams was a three-time All-SEC pick, including two first-team selections in 2002 and 2005.

FACILITIES AND HOME COURSES

JACK KEY PRACTICE FACILITY

The new Jack Key Golf Facility features three indoor hitting bays, lounge and locker rooms, club repair and video analysis. Utilizing 22 acres, the practice facility features a range of nearly 400 yards with tees at both ends allowing players to train in a variety of wind conditions.

There is also a new 8,300 square-foot teaching facility on the north end of the range, which includes three indoor hitting bays, locker rooms and video analysis.

AU Club at Yarbrough Farms

The city of Auburn, Alabama, is home to a 15-year-old golf club constructed by Auburn people for Auburn people, The Auburn University Club at Yarbrough Farms. The course opened in the fall of 1999 and hosted the opening stage of PGA Tour Q-School in 2009, 2010 and 2011.

The Auburn University Course also played host to the 2003 NCAA East Men's Regional and numerous PGA Qualifying School events over the years.

The Auburn University Club features an 18-hole championship golf course, state-of-the-art practice facilities and a full service clubhouse as well as office space for the Auburn University golf coaches and locker rooms for both the men's and women's golf teams.

On November 1, 2012, the NCAA announced Auburn University and the Auburn University Club would be one of six host sites for the 2014 NCAA Men's Golf Regional Championships.

Grand National

The 54-hole Grand National complex, part of the world-renown Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail, has two 18-hole par-72 courses and one 18-hole par-3 course. The Lake Course played host to the 2004 NCAA Women's Golf Championship and the 2000 NCAA Men's Golf Championship. It was also the site of the 1999 SEC Women's Golf Championship, 1998 LPGA Tournament of Champions, 1997 Nike Tour Championship, 1996 NCAA Women's Golf East Regional and the 1994 NCAA Men's East Regional.

The Links Course ranks as one of the most impressive tracks in the country. It played host to the 1997 SEC Men's Golf Championship. The 18-hole, par-3 course is a truly beautiful layout that allows Tiger golfers excellent practice on their iron and short game play. The driving ranges at The Trail courses are also a spectacle to see.

Designer

Former Auburn golfer Bill Bergin designed The Auburn University Club at Yarbrough Farms. The four-time All-SEC selection and member of Auburn's 1981 SEC Championship team began his design career in 1990 under Bob Cupp, the 1992 Architect-of-the-Year.

Golf Course

Located off Shug Jordan Parkway, just north of campus, the Auburn University Club at Yarbrough Farms is situated on more than 200 acres of rolling wooded terrain. Endowed with outstanding natural amenities such as Yarbrough Lake, the 25-acre centerpiece of the property, and Saugahatchee Creek, which meanders along the 12th, 13th and 14th holes, the site is one of the top golf courses in the South.

At 7,326 yards from the back tees, the golf course carves through magnificent trees, across wetlands, along creeks and streams and around the lake. Natural and man-enhanced water features play a prominent role at The Auburn University Club as they blend throughout the property and are visible on 14 of 18 holes.
