HEAD COACH MICKEY DEAN

Mickey Dean has been named Auburn’s head softball coach, former Auburn Director of Athletics Jay Jacobs announced Sept. 14. Dean comes to Auburn after five seasons as the head coach at James Madison.

Dean is widely regarded as one of the elite coaches in the country for taking programs to unprecedented heights while developing student-athletes to earn national acclaim.

“Coach Dean’s accomplishments at JMU are remarkable,” Jacobs said. “He’s won consistently at every level throughout his career. He’s done it the right way, winning with class and integrity while graduating his student-athletes at a high level. Auburn already has a winning program and we’re going to get even better. He’s a great fit for Auburn.”

In 11 years at the collegiate level, Dean has coached seven NCAA Tournament teams, including one super regional participant, and won nine conference championships.

A native of Elkton, Va., Dean has guided 76 all-conference players, 40 all-region honorees and seven all-Americans, including 2017 National Player of the Year, Megan Good. He has also been touted as the conference coach of the year eight times.

“It is an honor to be named the leader of the Auburn softball program,” Dean said. “I want to thank President Leath, Director of Athletics Jay Jacobs and the Board of Trustees for the exciting opportunity to lead this program.

“The future is bright for Auburn softball. We want the fans to be as excited as we are to come out and watch the program represent them in the highest standing.”

During his five-year stint at James Madison, Dean compiled a record of 237-56 (.809). He amassed five 40-win seasons, including the final two campaigns with 52 and 50 victories, respectively.

The Dukes broke 104 program records, including over 40 pitching records while boasting one of the nation’s top staffs under Dean’s guidance.

Prior to his reign in Harrisonburg, Va., Dean spent six seasons as the head coach at Radford where he took the Highlanders to their first-ever NCAA Tournament appearances in 2009 and 2010.

Before taking the position at Radford, Dean served as an assistant coach at Akron (2001-02), Indiana (2002-04) and Longwood (2005-06).

In addition to his collegiate coaching experience, Dean has also worked on the professional and international level.

He was the pitching coach for the Venezuelan National Team (2002-08) and the head coach for the Chicago Bandits (2004-10) that finished as the National Pro Fastpitch regular season champions five times and won the title in 2008.

Dean was named NPF Manager of the Year three times and coached world-renowned pitcher Jennie Finch, who was the NPF’s Co-Pitcher of the Year in 2005 and has a gold and silver medal from her two Team USA Olympic appearances.

A 1987 graduate of Elon University, Dean was a pitcher on the baseball team where he was a four-year letterwinner.

Dean and his wife, Liz, have one son, Isaac, and one daughter, Caroline.

ELITE PROGRAM BUILDER

Mickey Dean is the only head coach in NCAA Division I softball to win 40 or more games in the last five seasons and improve the win total each season.

Eddy Ketelhut has been tabbed as an assistant coach for the Auburn softball program, head coach Mickey Dean announced Jan. 11.

"Eddy brings a great deal of playing experience," Dean said. "He played men's fastpitch for 15 years, including seven years on the United States national team. He's also coached championship-level ball with his team winning the PGF national championship last summer.

"Eddy is a grinder. He's brings a great deal of knowledge to the game. He's a hard worker and a good family man. I think he fits really well with our staff."

Ketelhut was most recently the head coach of the Beverly Bandits 16U club team that went 68-6 over the last two seasons and won two titles, including the Triple Crown National Championship.

"I'd like to thank Mickey Dean to be at Auburn University and its heralded tradition," Ketelhut said. "I look forward to the task at hand getting to know the kids, getting to know the university and competing for championships."

Ketelhut also has experience at the collegiate level as he served as the hitting coach at the University of Detroit Mercy in 2013. While with the Titans, he was tasked with analyzing and evaluating swings, scouting reports and practice plans.

Before arriving on The Plains, Ketelhut was the owner and instructor for EK Fastpitch LLC, beginning in 2010. There, he provided lessons and clinics for elite travel teams.

Ketelhut was a two-year letterwinner as a member of the baseball team while attending Central Michigan University. During his time in Mount Pleasant, Mich., Ketelhut and the Chippewas won 59 games, including 37 in the Mid-American Conference.

Before playing at the Division I level, Ketelhut attended Seminole Junior College for two seasons.

Ketelhut and his wife, Sarah, have two children, Kaylee and Easton.

ASSISTANT COACH EDDY KETELHUT

Annie Smith has joined the Auburn softball program as an assistant coach, head coach Mickey Dean announced Sept. 21. Smith was most recently on the staff at LSU.

"We're excited to have Annie join our program," Dean said. "She's had the experience of coaching in the Southeastern Conference. She's had experience as a head coach and was the coach of the year in her conference multiple times. I think she is a coach that the players will find it easy to relate to."

Smith comes to Auburn after stints at LSU, Georgia Southern, Mississippi State and Missouri where she coached seven All-Americans, 49 All-Conference selections and 36 All-Region honorees. Smith's squads have been equally as impressive in the classroom, garnering 123 NFCA Academic Scholar-Athlete honors.

"I am very excited for this opportunity to work with Coach Dean and Auburn University," Smith said. "He has a great vision for the program. Auburn is a great university with a great softball program and in the best softball conference in the country."

Smith also boasts professional experience, as she was an assistant coach for the Chicago Bandits of the National Pro Fastpitch (NPF) league this past summer, where she guided former Auburn standout Emily Carosone.

Before her brief stint with LSU, Smith served as the head coach at Georgia Southern, where she compiled 176 wins and reached the NCAA Tournament twice. Smith and the Eagles captured the Southern Conference title in 2012 and in 2014. The Eagles also won the conference tournament in 2012 and 2013. For her efforts, Smith was honored as the conference's coach of the year in 2012 and 2014.

Smith joined the Eagles from Mississippi State, where she spent five seasons as an assistant coach before being promoted to associate head coach following the 2007 season.

The Manhattan, Kan. native helped the Bulldogs to 295 victories and six NCAA Regional appearances. Smith's duties at Mississippi State primarily focused on offense and the outfield while also acting as the recruiting coordinator.

Smith received her bachelor's degree in history and psychology from Grinnell College where she was a captain on the softball team. She went on to earn a master's degree from Missouri in health and exercise science with an emphasis in sports psychology.
