Head Coach Johnnie Harris

Johnnie
HARRIS

Head Coach

Second Season at Auburn • Second Season as a Head Coach

Pine Bluff, Ark. • Arkansas Baptist, 1996

Johnnie Harris enters her second year as head coach for Auburn women's basketball in 2022-23. A long-time Southeastern Conference assistant and 2018 WBCA National Assistant Coach of the Year, Harris was named Auburn women's basketball head coach on April 3, 2021.

Her first season on the Plains saw Auburn double its win total from the previous season and pick up three victories over nationally ranked opponents. Her first top-25 win came Nov. 21 with a 59-51 win at Georgia Tech, Auburn's first road win over a ranked foe since 2014. The biggest win of the season, and one of Auburn's biggest in decades, came Jan. 27 when the Tigers shocked No. 4 Tennessee 71-61 at home for their first SEC win of the season and their first win over a top-5 opponent since 1997. The Tigers added one more top-25 win, a 65-60 victory over No. 21 Georgia on Feb. 20. Sophomore Aicha Coulibaly was named to the All-SEC Second Team, and the Tigers landed a consensus top-25 recruiting class for 2022-23.

Prior to her arrival at Auburn, Harris spent 16 years combined at Arkansas, Texas A&M and Mississippi State, and spent the 2020-21 season as the Associate Head Coach at the University of Texas. She helped Texas to an Elite Eight appearance during the 2020-21 season, and she worked alongside Longhorn head coach Vic Schaefer the previous 10 years assisting Mississippi State to a pair of NCAA Championship game appearances. She was a central part of Mississippi State's success those eight seasons and is considered one of the nation's top recruiters.

Harris helped lead Mississippi State to a 221-62 [.781] record and five NCAA Tournament berths, including NCAA Championship Game appearances in 2017 and 2018. During that time, the Bulldogs also won the program's first Southeastern Conference regular-season championship and SEC Tournament Championship.

Harris' reputation as a tireless recruiter grew as she played an integral role in inking some of the top signing classes in Mississippi State history, including the 2013 class that achieved 111 wins and the 2014 class that tallied a school-record 126 victories. In the fall of 2018, the Bulldogs signed the top-ranked class in program history with a No. 6 national ranking by espnW Hoop Gurlz.

Harris' pupils in the past were some of the best in Mississippi State school history, led by Teaira McCowan, who Harris mentored during McCowan's record-setting junior and senior campaigns from 2017-19. The 2019 SEC Player of the Year and a consensus First-Team All-American, McCowan finished her career as Mississippi State's leader in rebounds and field-goal percentage, while ranking second in blocks and fourth in points and field-goals made.

The individual development McCowan showed during Mississippi State's run to a second consecutive national title game caught the attention of the coaching community, as Harris was tabbed the WBCA National Assistant Coach of the Year for the 2017-18 season.

In 2018-19, Harris helped transfer forward Anriel Howard combine with McCowan to create one of the best front courts in the country. In her lone season with the Bulldogs, Howard earned first-team All-SEC recognition by the AP and league coaches after averaging 16.4 points and 8.4 rebounds per game. Both McCowan [No. 3, Indiana Fever] and Howard [No. 24, Seattle Storm] were selected in the 2019 WNBA Draft.

Another Harris product, Chinwe Okorie, was an integral part of the Bulldogs' runs to the Final Four and 2016 Sweet 16 and finished her MSU career sixth in program annals in field-goal percentage, shooting 52.1 percent over 109 games. She raised her scoring average and field goal percentage each season of her three-year career, capped by her 7.5 ppg average on 56.4 percent shooting as a senior.

Harris' pupil, Martha Alwal, helped the Bulldogs make history in 2014-15 with their first NCAA Tournament berth since 2010. Under Harris' guidance, Alwal developed into one of the nation's top centers, earning First Team All-SEC and SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Year honors as a junior. She also claimed a pair of second-team honors, three-straight SEC All-Defensive Team accolades and won the Gillom Trophy. Three seasons Alwal become the second player in SEC history to lead the league in blocks four-straight years and just the third to claim 1,000 points, 1,000 rebounds and 300 blocks for her career.

Harris helped guide Texas A&M to four Sweet 16 appearances in her five seasons, including the program's first national championship in 2010-11. During her tenure with the Aggies, Harris helped sign and mentor junior college All-Americans Danielle Adams and Tanisha Smith.

Head Coach Johnnie Harris

Adams earned MVP of the 2011 Final Four before being selected with the 20th pick in the 2011 WNBA Draft by the San Antonio Silver Stars. Adams was tabbed to the league's all-star game in her inaugural season. Smith earned Big 12 Newcomer of the Year and conference all-tournament honors in 2009. The Seattle Storm selected Smith with the 22nd pick in the 2010 WNBA Draft.

Harris' recruiting ability was crucial in building the Aggies into an annual championship contender and their signing classes annually rated in the top 20 nationally.

Harris assisted the Aggies to land the nation's No. 2 class in her final season in College Station. That class included a pair of McDonald's All-Americans in Jordan Jones and Courtney Williams. Texas A&M's 2010 class, which included McDonald's All-American and the nation's top post player, Karla Gilbert, rated third nationally. The two years prior she helped notch the nation's fifth- and sixth-rated classes. Harris played a key role in signing the major players in Texas A&M's national championship team that claimed a school-best 33 victories.

Prior to her stop in College Station, Harris spent three seasons at Arkansas, landing some of the Lady Razorbacks' top recruiting classes in program history. She signed Laura Ervin, a junior college All-American who went on to garner Second Team All-SEC accolades, as well as Freshman All-SEC selection Donica Cosby.

In 2007, she inked Gatorade state players of the year Whitney Zachariason [Arkansas] and Morgan Boyd [Kansas] as Arkansas finished with one of the nation's top-40 classes. Harris also recruited one of the top point guards in the nation in Shanita Arnold.

Harris has had the opportunity to learn from some of the game's top coaches, including Hall of Famer Kay Yow at N.C. State. She joined the program in the 2003-04 season and assisted the squad to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in two years. Harris and her fellow coaches helped the Wolfpack sign JUCO Player of the Year Tiffany Stansbury, who went on to play with the WNBA's Los Angeles Sparks and Minnesota Lynx.

Her first recruiting class in Raleigh was rated as one of the best in the nation. She also garnered a commitment from Gillian Goring, the nation's No. 1 post player who went on to play for the Washington Mystics.

Prior to jumping to the Division I level, Harris made her mark on the junior college level as an assistant coach at Arkansas-Fort Smith, where she brought in key players who led the school to the NJCAA Final Four in 2004. In two seasons coaching under the legendary Louis Whorton, she inked the nation's No. 1 class and a 34-8 record. UAFF's 2002-03 team went 26-2 and won a share of the Bi-State Conference championship.

The Arkansas-Fort Smith position kept the Pine Bluff native in her home state after she started her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Little Rock. Her hard work at UALR earned her a promotion to a full-time assistant position in 2000.

Harris, a 2014 inductee in the Watson's Chapel High School Hall of Fame, also coached AAU basketball with the Arkansas Kamikaze. She began her playing career at Arkansas-Pine Bluff before transferring to Arkansas Baptist for her final two seasons.

Harris is the mother of two children, Marcus and Kiera, and the legal guardian of Lily. She also has two grandchildren, Samarah and Kaiden.

Associate Head Coach Fred Williams

Fred
WILLIAMS

 @CoachFredW

Associate Head Coach

First Season at Auburn

Inglewood, California • Boise State, 1979

Veteran WNBA coach Fred Williams, who has spent the last 25 years coaching in the professional ranks, is in his first year as associate head coach for Auburn women's basketball.

Williams, who brings nearly 40 years of coaching experience to the Plains, spent the 2022 WNBA season as assistant coach and interim head coach for the Los Angeles Sparks. He helped lead the team to playoff appearances in 2019 and 2020.

"We are thrilled to add Fred Williams to our Auburn Women's Basketball Family as our associate head coach," Auburn head coach Johnnie Harris said. "He brings a wealth of experience from both the professional and collegiate levels, where he won championships, built trust with his players and developed them into All-Americans and WNBA All-Stars. Fred will be a huge asset to our staff, as we continue to build our fan base through community outreach and mold our student-athletes into champions on-and-off the court."

Williams has 10 years of head coaching experience in the WNBA and was also head coach at the University of Southern California. Prior to his stint with the Sparks, he spent five seasons as head coach of the Tulsa Shock/Dallas Wings, leading the franchise to a pair of playoff appearances.

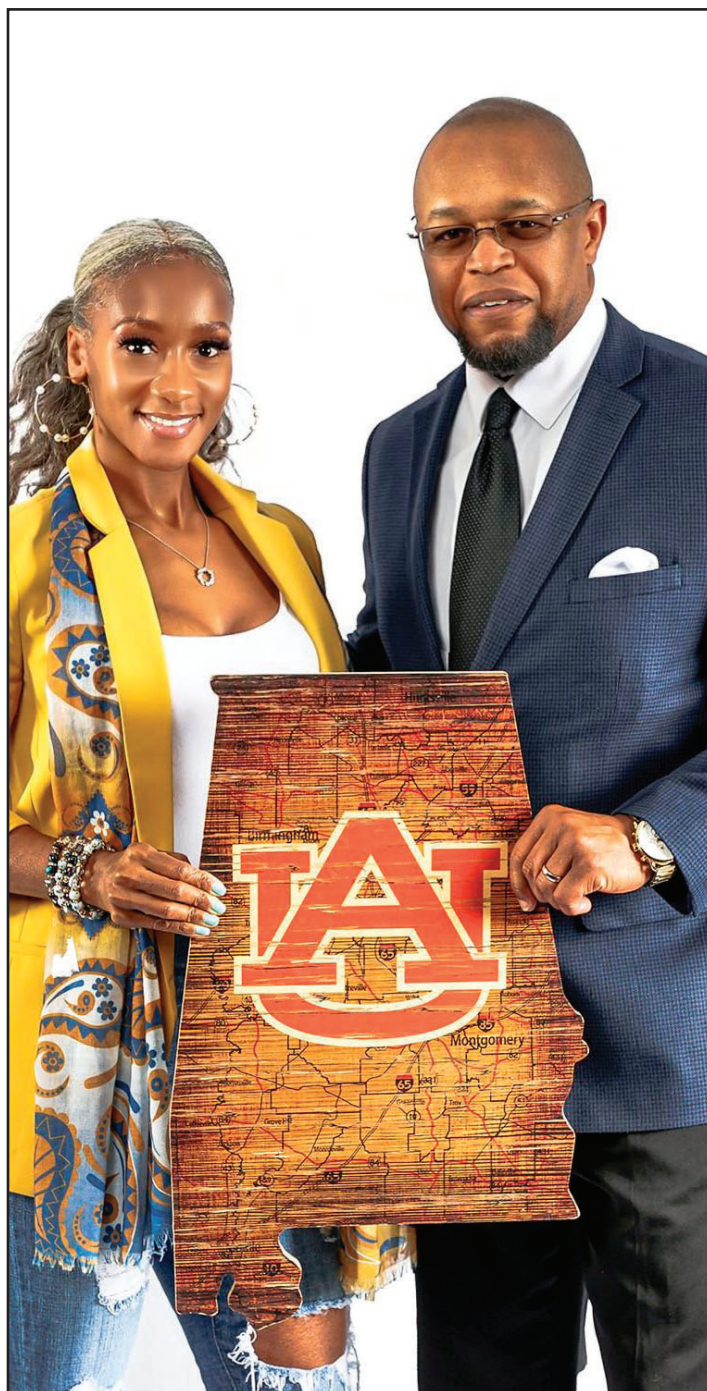

He was also head coach of the Atlanta Dream for the 2012 and 2013 seasons. Before taking over as head coach, Williams was an assistant for the Dream for three seasons. While in Atlanta, he was part of a staff that led the team to three WNBA Finals appearances in 2010, 2011 and 2013. He worked alongside legendary former Auburn Head Coach Joe Ciampi, who spent two seasons as an assistant for the Dream.

"My wife and I are excited to join the Auburn Family," Williams said. "It was just a good fit for me — a great opportunity to come in, help the program and make a difference in young peoples' lives. The SEC is the toughest women's basketball conference in the country. You always want to play the best and be tested.

"With the program's style of play, Auburn is emerging into a team that has challenged the upper half of the SEC. Coach Harris has also done a lot of great things recruiting-wise throughout her career, including the freshman class we have coming in. She is starting to implement her system, and I am happy to be a part of what she is building at Auburn."

Williams spent four seasons with the Utah Starzz, first as an assistant in 1998 and then as head coach from 1999-2001. He also spent two seasons as an assistant with the Charlotte Sting from 2003-04.

Additionally, he was as an advance scout in the NBA and WNBA for the Utah Jazz, Seattle Supersonics, Sacramento Kings and Washington Mystics. Williams also served as a basketball analyst for ESPN+.

Prior to his time in the professional ranks, Williams served as head coach at USC from 1995-97 and assistant coach from 1983-90. The team rose to national prominence as he coached legends in Cheryl Miller, Cynthia Cooper and Tina Thompson, who helped lead the Women of Troy to national titles in 1983 and 1984.

As for his philosophy in developing players, Williams looks forward to rolling up his sleeves and getting into the gym.

“Make them work hard and sweat,” he said. “Make each individual better, play as a team and having certain goals each and every day to achieve. A team working toward being champions.”

A native of Inglewood, Calif., Williams is a graduate of Boise State University, where he was an All-Big Sky Conference player for the Broncos. He is married to Bo Talley-Williams, and the couple have five children and two grandchildren.

Associate Head Coach Damitria Buchanan

Damitria BUCHANAN

Associate Head Coach / Recruiting Coordinator

Second Season at Auburn

Houston, Texas • Texas A&M, 2010

Damitria Buchanan enters her second season on the Auburn women's basketball staff in 2022-23. She was promoted to associate head coach in May of 2022.

Buchanan serves as the Tigers' recruiting coordinator and helped land a consensus top-25 class in her first year on the Plains; that group will be joining the Tigers for the 2022-23 season.

Named Auburn's assistant coach on April 14 of last year, she helped Harris and the Tigers double their win total from the previous season and pick up three victories over top-25 opponents in 2021-22, including one of the nation's biggest upsets with a 71-61 victory over No. 4 Tennessee on Jan. 27.

"Coach D" spent the previous six seasons at Kansas, where she managed and oversaw the day-to-day recruiting operations as recruiting coordinator for head coach Brandon Schneider and his staff. She played for Harris at Texas A&M and came to Auburn with 10 years of Division I coaching experience.

Buchanan helped piece together the 2019 signing class at Kansas ranked No. 31 in the nation by Dan Olson Collegiate Girls Report, which was the third-highest ranking among Big 12 Conference programs.

During the 2017-18 signing period, Buchanan helped Schneider and the Jayhawks ink their second five-star recruit in four seasons with the signing of Brooklyn Mitchell.

Buchanan joined the Jayhawks after spending the 2013-15 seasons at Texas Tech. While in Lubbock, Buchanan mentored the frontcourt and assisted with scouting, recruiting and academics. With the Lady Raiders, Buchanan played an integral part in helping land one of their most promising recruiting classes in 2014 after just one year on the South Plains.

Prior to her two-year stint with the Lady Raiders, Buchanan was a part of the coaching staff at Stephen F. Austin under Schneider. She mentored Porsha Roberts to multiple all-conference accolades, including Southland Conference Freshman of the Year and all-conference second team as a sophomore.

Buchanan helped guide the Ladyjacks to the Southland Conference Tournament Championship and a 23-win season in 2011-12. The increase in 11 wins from the 2010-11 season (12) to 2011-12 (23) was tied for the sixth-biggest turnaround in the nation.

After receiving her bachelor's degree from Texas A&M, Buchanan remained in the College Station area to pursue a master's degree while serving as a teacher and coach at A&M Consolidated Middle School.

During her playing days while Harris was coaching at TAMU, Buchanan helped guide the Aggies to three Big 12 Conference titles and four top-25 finishes, including top-10 finishes in each of her final three seasons. Buchanan was named team captain during her senior season, and was a two-time All-Big 12 First Team selection.

CHAPEL

 @KetaraChapel

Assistant Coach

Second Season at Auburn

Temple, Texas • Mississippi State, 2017

Ketara Chapel enters her second season as an assistant coach for Auburn women's basketball. She joined the staff on April 13, 2021.

In her first season on the Auburn bench, she helped lead the Tigers to 10 victories, which doubled their win total from the previous season and included three wins over top-25 opponents. The Tigers' 71-61 win over No. 4 Tennessee on Jan. 27 shocked the women's basketball world as it was Auburn's first win over a top-25 opponent since 1997. Auburn also earned victories over No. 18 Georgia Tech and No. 21 Georgia and showed improvement across the board in the first year under Johnnie Harris and her staff.

Chapel joined the Auburn Family after spending the 2020-21 season as Coordinator of Player Development at Texas, joining Harris on the Longhorn staff. The Longhorns had a strong first season under Harris and head coach Vic Schaefer's staff, compiling a 21-10 overall record and advancing to the Elite Eight.

After helping build Mississippi State into a national contender as a player, Chapel spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at her alma mater.

Chapel joined Dominique Dillingham as part of the first recruiting class signed by Schaefer at MSU. As freshmen in 2013-14, they helped guide Mississippi State to the quarterfinals of the WNIT. The following year, they led the Bulldogs to the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance since 2010.

After helping take Mississippi State to the Sweet 16 as a junior, Chapel led the Bulldogs to a thrilling win against Baylor that clinched the Oklahoma City Regional championship and the program's first trip to the Final Four.

Chapel was a key part of MSU's historic upset of top-ranked UConn that gave the Bulldogs a berth in the first of back-to-back national championship games.

The Temple, Texas, native and four-time SEC Academic Honor Roll selection was part of 111 victories in her four seasons in Starkville. During that time, she appeared in 142 games and started 61 contests, averaging 4.1 points and 2.8 rebounds per contest.

A 2017 graduate of Mississippi State with a bachelor's degree in coaching & teaching, Chapel later earned her master's degree from her alma mater in teaching - community college education in 2020.

She is the daughter of Ankara McNeil, a former women's basketball student-athlete, who still ranks in the Top 10 in career rebounds at UTSA (1992-95). Her family also includes brother, Kiron Griffin Jr.

In her spare time, Chapel enjoys reading, coloring and listening to 90s and R&B music.

ATLANTA-- Auburn's defense put together its best performance of the year, and Honesty Scott-Grayson turned in her second straight standout game as the Tigers upset No. 18 Georgia Tech 59-51 Sunday afternoon at McCamish Pavilion.

The Tigers (2-2) jumped out to a big early lead -- increasing it to as much as 22 in the second half -- and held off a comeback bid by Tech (4-1) for its first road win over a ranked opponent in nearly eight years.

Honesty Scott-Grayson never came off the floor, scoring 18 points along with six rebounds and three assists. She had her best 3-point shooting game of her career as well, going 4-of-8 from long range. Aicha Coulibaly added 14 points with five boards, and Sania Wells delivered four clutch free throws in the final minute to clinch the victory; she finished with eight points.

Annie Hughes also played all 40 minutes, finishing with seven points and a pair of assists. Jala Jordan turned in a strong performance on both ends of the floor, finishing with four points and three rebounds while also drawing three charges to help Auburn set the tone early. As a team, Auburn shot a season-best 40.7 percent while holding Tech to a season-low 35.2 percent. Auburn was 10-of-14 at the free-throw line (71.4%) and made five 3-pointers; the Tigers also committed just nine turnovers while turning 15 Tech turnovers into 12 points.

Auburn hit its first seven shots of the game to build an early 16-6 lead less than seven minutes in. Scott-Grayson hoisted a 25-footer at the buzzer to give the Tigers a 19-6 lead after one. Tech went nearly 10 minutes without scoring as Auburn pushed its lead to as many as 20 points at 29-9 with 5:14 to play in the half. The Jackets would finally find the hoop, but Auburn led 33-16 at the half.

An opening layup from Coulibaly and a 3-pointer from Scott-Grayson gave Auburn its largest lead at 38-16 with 8:42 left in the third. But from there, the Tigers hit a cold spell as Tech heated up, cutting that advantage to just seven points after three, 44-37. The Yellow Jackets would get as close as five points with just over two minutes to go. But a pair of stops led to Tech having to foul in the final minute. Wells was sent to the line twice, knocking down all four free throws to stay perfect on the season, and Scott-Grayson hit one more late to seal the final margin.

LITTLE ROCK-- The Auburn women's basketball team was unable to climb out of an early hole Wednesday afternoon at Little Rock, falling to the Trojans 57-49 at the Jack Stephens Center. The Tigers (2-3) trailed nearly from start to finish, cutting the deficit from double-digits to as little as one point, but could never get over the hump as Little Rock (4-1) had an answer every time. Sania Wells led Auburn with 11 points and Aicha Coulibaly added 10, but buckets were hard to come by for the Tigers as Auburn shot 32.2 percent (19-59) from the field. Honesty Scott-Grayson was Auburn's leading rebounder with seven, but early foul trouble limited her offensive output and she finished with six points. Auburn out-rebounded Little Rock 39-26 and converted 16 Trojan turnovers into 20 points, but the Trojans shot 45.8 percent from the field and were 3-of-9 from 3-point range. After trailing for nearly the whole first half, Auburn closed on a 5-0 run to cut the halftime deficit to 27-24. A Coulibaly layup to open the third quarter got Auburn within a point, but Little Rock would go on 7-0 run over the next three-plus minutes to move back ahead by eight. That lead would balloon to as many as 13 before Auburn closed the third quarter on a 4-0 run, trailing 43-34 headed to the fourth. With Little Rock leading by 9, Auburn cut the deficit to 3 thanks to buckets from Coulibaly, Wells and Amoura Graves, getting within 50-47 with 2:28 to play. It was still a 3-point game with a minute to go, but Auburn was unable to convert a free-throw opportunity, and the Trojans knocked down five free throws in the final minute to secure the final margin.

AUBURN-- The Auburn women's basketball team withstood a second-half offensive barrage from North Florida, playing strong defense down the stretch to earn a 72-65 win Tuesday night at Auburn Arena.

Led by another big night from sophomore Aicha Coulibaly, the Tigers (4-3) overcame a late deficit with a 12-2 run over the last five minutes to pick up their second straight win at home.

North Florida (5-3) led 63-60 at the under-5 timeout of the fourth quarter. But the Tigers would get defensive stops on the Ospreys' next six possessions, starting with a game-tying layup from Honesty Scott-Grayson, then a drawn charge by Scott-Grayson that led to a Jala Jordan bucket to push Auburn ahead 65-63. From there, Auburn would never trail again as UNF went nearly five minutes without scoring. Over the final 81 seconds, the Tigers would make seven of eight free throws to seal the win.

Coulibaly led four Tigers in double figures, topping the 20-point mark for the second straight game. She finished with 23 points, eight rebounds, three steals, two assists and a block. Scott-Grayson overcame early foul trouble to post a 13-point night, and Sania Wells and Annie Hughes added 10 apiece. Wells was clutch at the free-throw line, hitting 8-of-8 attempts as she stayed nearly perfect on the season.

Jordan made a big impact off the bench, especially late, finishing with five points and seven rebounds, along with a key block on a UNF jumper in the paint with just over a minute to play.

As a team, Auburn matched a season-best from the floor, shooting 44.6 percent. The Tigers really came up big at the free-throw line, hitting 18-of-22 attempts for 81.8 percent. Auburn out-rebounded UNF 35-27 and turned 19 Osprey turnovers into 28 points. North Florida out-shot Auburn, hitting 45.8 percent from the field, including six 3-pointers.

Auburn led 37-30 at halftime after a pair of Amoura Graves 3-pointers pushed a one-point lead to seven just before the break. The Tigers would extend that lead to 11 early in the third at 41-30. But from there, North Florida would connect on nine shots in a row over the next five minutes to turn an 11-point deficit into a three-point lead at 52-49. A late free throw by Auburn would tie the score at 54-all headed to the fourth.

AUBURN-- The Auburn Tigers shocked the women's college basketball world, pulling one of the season's biggest upsets with a 71-61 win over No. 4 Tennessee, earning their first league win of the season and knocking the Lady Vols from the ranks of the unbeaten in league play. Auburn forced Tennessee into 22 turnovers, converting those into 25 points, and never faltered in the face of several Lady Vol runs in a game that featured nine lead changes, six of those in the second half. Aicha Coulibaly led four Tigers in double-figures with 26 points, and she also pulled down seven rebounds to lead the Tigers. Sania Wells scored 13 points, Jala Jordan added 11 points and six rebounds in her second SEC start, and Annie Hughes scored 10.

Auburn shot 39 percent (25-64) from the field but matched a season-high with seven made 3-pointers, two apiece from Jordan, Hughes and Coulibaly.

Tennessee jumped out to a 17-7 lead midway through the first quarter. But the Tigers ended the period on a 9-0 run, then took the lead on a Jordan 3-pointer early in the second. That Auburn run would extend to 20-4 over an eight-minute stretch, and the Tigers would ultimately take a 39-28 lead at halftime after another Jordan trey right before the buzzer.

But the Lady Vols stormed back early in the third, opening the second half on a 14-2 run of their own to move back into the lead with just over five minutes to play. The teams would trade buckets down the stretch, but Bostic would take advantage of a late UT turnover and go coast-to-coast as the clock wound down to sink a layup as time expired, cutting the Lady Vol lead to one at 51-50 after three.

Two more UT turnovers put Auburn in the lead. Honesty Scott-Grayson took advantage of a UT shot clock violation to hit a go-ahead layup, then Bostic stole the ball just seconds later and scored in transition to put Auburn up 54-51.

After Auburn extended its lead to 60-55, UT cut it down to one with 4:32 to play. But a Coulibaly offensive board led to a second-chance layup, then a dagger 3-pointer from Hughes with 2:27 to play put the Tigers ahead 65-59. From there, the Lady Vols never scored until the final seconds as Bostic and Wells salted the game away at the free-throw line in the final minute.

NASHVILLE -- A hot-shooting Vanderbilt team pulled away early as Auburn fell to the Commodores 81-66 Sunday afternoon at Memorial Gym. The Tigers ran into early foul and turnover trouble, and Vanderbilt could hardly miss, hitting 20-of-23 shots over a 17-minute stretch to build a 25-point halftime lead they would not relinquish. Auburn was able to cut what had been as much as a 27-point deficit down to as few as 12 late in the fourth, but the Tigers could get no closer despite their highest-scoring second half of the year. Aicha Coulibaly led Auburn with 21 points, scoring 15 of those in the second half, and Honesty Scott-Grayson added 14. Each player had a team-leading five rebounds. Mar'Shaun Bostic and Annie Hughes had four assists apiece, and Coulibaly led the Tigers with four steals. Jala Jordan added nine points and three blocks. Auburn forced Vandy into 27 turnovers, converting those into 23 points, but the Commodores took greater advantage of early Auburn miscues, converting 15 turnovers into 24 points. Vandy shot a season-best 58.3 percent from the field and knocked down 7-of-10 3-point attempts. Auburn, meanwhile, hit for 44 percent from the floor. The Tigers were held to a season-low 23 rebounds. Auburn jumped out to a 7-0 lead in the first three-plus minutes, but the next 17 would be all Vanderbilt. An 11-0 run led to the first media timeout, and a further 11-2 finish to the quarter gave Vandy a 22-9 lead after one period. Turnovers and foul trouble continued to plague the Tigers -- along with Vanderbilt shooting 73 percent from the floor -- as the Commodores extended their lead to 46-21 at the half. Vandy missed its first four shots of the game, then hit 20 of their next 23. That lead would grow to as much as 27 points in the third quarter as the Commodores took a 64-40 lead to the final period. Auburn would go on a 20-7 run over the first eight minutes of the fourth, cutting the deficit to

LIVESTATS
AUBURN – Honesty Scott-Grayson matched a season-high with 23 points, and Auburn's defense came up huge in the fourth quarter as the Tigers fought back for a 65-60 win over No. 21 Georgia Sunday afternoon at Auburn Arena.

The Tigers picked up their third win over a top-25 opponent this season, rallying from an eight-point deficit in the fourth quarter as they held Georgia scoreless for the final 7:16 of the game.

Scott-Grayson's 23 points led all scorers; she also had four rebounds, five steals and three assists. Aicha Coulibaly added 19 points with a game-high eight rebounds. Samia Wells had eight points, a team-leading four assists and three steals, and Jala Jordan added eight points and seven rebounds off the bench.

Auburn shot 40.7 percent from the floor (22-54) but knocked down 6-of-15 3-pointers (40%). Georgia took advantage of its size for 36 point points to Auburn's 26, and the Bulldogs were 15-of-18 at the free-throw line. The Tigers also forced Georgia into 21 turnovers, converting those into 17 points.

The teams traded buckets early, but Auburn ended the first quarter on a 9-2 run to take a 20-14 lead after 10 minutes. Georgia took advantage of multiple free-throw opportunities in the second quarter – UGA was 11-of-11 at the line in the first half – to take a 33-30 lead at the break.

Auburn would get within two at 47-45 late in the third, but Georgia kept pounding the paint to take a 54-48 lead to the final period. That lead would increase to 56-48, and a Jenna Staiti bucket with 7:16 to play made it 60-54 Bulldogs.

But Georgia would never score again. Three straight buckets off UGA turnovers tied the game, and a Jordan free throw brought two more defensive stops put Auburn in the lead at 61-60 with 2:14 to play. Neither team could get a shot to fall for the next minute-plus, but Auburn kept getting defensive stops, then took advantage at the line. Coulibaly made it a 3-point game with 27 seconds left, and Wells – the SEC's best free-throw shooter – iced the game with two more in the final 20 seconds.

NASHVILLE-- Auburn took a lead to the fourth quarter, but a late cold spell for the Tigers allowed Alabama to pull ahead and hold on Auburn fell 75-68 Wednesday afternoon at Bridgestone Arena in the first round of the SEC Tournament.

Auburn used a 10-0 run midway through the third quarter to turn a 7-point deficit into as much as a five-point lead, but a 9-0 run for Alabama early in the fourth put the Tide back ahead for good.

The Tigers' season came to an end with a final record of 10-18 overall that doubled the program's win total from a season ago and featured three victories over top-25 opponents.

Four players finished in double-figures for the Tigers. Honesty Scott-Grayson led Auburn with 13 points, Annie Hughes had 12, and Aicha Coulibaly and Sania Wells added 10 apiece. Precious Johnson led the Tigers with six rebounds and three steals, and Wells had a team-best four assists.

Auburn shot 41 percent from the field (25-61) to Alabama's 49.1 percent (26-53). The Tide hit two more 3-pointers than Auburn and out-rebounded the Tigers 42-33. Auburn turned 22 Alabama turnovers into 19 points, and the teams were even in the paint with 38 points apiece. But free throws were a major struggle for Auburn as they went 14-of-28 at the line.

A late Alabama run in the first quarter gave them a 22-15 lead, but Auburn answered quickly to start the second, cutting the deficit to two points at 22-20. But a 7-0 Alabama run over the next 90 seconds pushed the Tide advantage back to nine points at 29-20. A couple of late stops helped Auburn cut the halftime deficit down to four at 35-31.

Auburn would push back ahead midway through the third with a 10-0 run to move ahead 43-40. The Tigers maintained that lead through the rest of the period, leading by as many as five with just over a minute to go before taking a 53-50 lead to the fourth. Auburn led 56-54 with 7:36 to play, but a cold stretch coupled with a 9-0 Alabama run over the next two-plus minutes, gave the Tide a lead they would not relinquish.

Neville Arena

The Auburn men's and women's basketball teams are in their 13th season at Neville Arena. Built at a cost of $86 million and opening in October 2010, Neville Arena seats 9,121 fans for basketball games, bringing Tiger fans closer to the action.

Built with the fan in mind, the furthest seat from the floor in Auburn Arena is 43 feet away while two-thirds of the seats in the facility are less than 27 feet in elevation from courtside. The Arena also features a team store, six concession stands, three elevators, 94 HD televisions, and family restrooms and customer service kiosks on all seating levels. Auburn students have their own entrance, lobby and concessions area at the Arena, and are allotted 1,500 floor-level seats. For special events, 12,000 square feet of banquet space, including tailgate and super suites, is available.

For the teams, Neville Arena offers an office suite for the coaches, recently renovated locker rooms and a 13,970-square foot practice facility and weight room.

Also featured in the Arena is the Jonathan B. Lovelace Museum & Hall of Honor, located on the concourse at the main entrance. Fans who visit the Lovelace Hall of Honor at Auburn Arena will take an interactive walk through Auburn Athletics history.

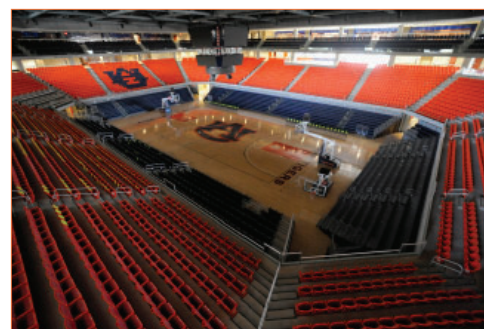

The ground-breaking ceremony for the arena was held on Aug. 30, 2008 with work beginning in July, 2008. The Tiger basketball teams moved into the facility in August 2010 and a ribbon-cutting ceremony was held on Oct. 15, 2010. The Arena Grand Opening was held the night of Oct. 15 with the Auburn men's and women's basketball teams joining the Harlem Globetrotters in christening the facility.

Play officially began in the Arena with the Auburn women taking a 79-61 win over Mercer on Nov. 12, 2010. The Tiger men followed with a 70-69 overtime loss to UNC-Asheville. Auburn's volleyball and gymnastics teams also compete in the Arena.

Built as Auburn Arena, the facility was renamed Neville Arena in honor of Bill and Connie Neville, members of the Pat Dye Society, Tigers Unlimited's highest level of giving. Neville Arena was officially dedicated March 4, 2022.
