TEXAS TECH IN THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP

- Texas Tech is in the second round of the NCAA Championship for a third-consecutive season. The Red Raiders previously fell to No. 2 seed Florida State, 3-2, in 2012 and tied No. 4 seed Texas A&M, 2-2, a year ago before falling in penalty kicks.
- Texas Tech is the No. 3 seed in the regional, marking the first time the Red Raiders have ever earned a national seed for the NCAA Championship.
- Texas Tech is 3-1-1 all-time in the NCAA Championship following its 8-0 rout of Prairie View A&M in last Friday's opening round match.
- Texas Tech is outscoring opponents, 17-5, all-time in the NCAA Championship, including a 13-0 advantage against non-seeded teams in the tournament.
- Texas Tech has scored at least two goals in all five of its previous NCAA Championship matches.
- Friday will mark Texas Tech's second ever postseason match against a current member of the Southeastern Conference (SEC). The Red Raiders previously finished in a 2-2 draw last season with Texas A&M.
- The Auburn match will be only the second neutral site contest all-time for Texas Tech in the tournament.

WHO TO WATCH

JANINE BECKIE
5-8 • F • JR

Beckie, the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, recorded her first career hat trick in Texas Tech's 8-0 rout of Prairie View to open the NCAA Championship. Beckie, who now has 16 goals this season, has 42 goals in her career, the most ever for a Red Raider in program history.

ASHLEY CASEY
5-5 • F • JR

Casey has presented Texas Tech another scoring option besides Beckie as of late as she connected on her fourth goal in the last three matches. Casey recorded her first career multiple-goal performance in the NCAA Championship opener last Friday, scoring twice against Prairie View A&M.

CAITY HEAP
5-4 • F/MF • JR

Heap was one of Texas Tech's top options in front of net against Prairie View A&M as she connected on her fourth goal of the season while adding a pair of assists as well. The junior is tied for third on the team this year for both goals and assists as she has dished out five this year.

LAUREN WATSON
5-10 • GK • SO

Watson has nine shutouts already this year and will be counted on again against Auburn. The sophomore, who is in her first year as Texas Tech's starting goalkeeper, is second all-time in Texas Tech single-season history with her nine shutouts, second-most in the Big 12.

TEXAS TECH IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

Texas Tech closed the regular season ranked No. 16 in the NSCAA/Continental Tire top-25 poll. The Red Raiders, who enter Friday's NCAA second round match against Auburn riding a six-match unbeaten streak, have been ranked in the poll all season, appearing as high as No. 6 in the rankings on Sept. 16. The No. 6 ranking, a spot Tech held for two full weeks, was the highest in school history. Tech has now been in the NSCAA top-25 poll for a school-record 23-consecutive weeks dating back to the 2013 season. The Red Raiders are also 11th in the latest poll by Top Drawer Soccer and 18th in the rankings compiled by Soccer America.

INSIDE THE AUBURN SERIES

Friday afternoon's NCAA second round match will be the third meeting all-time between Texas Tech and Auburn. The Red Raiders will be looking for their first ever victory over the Tigers as Auburn defeated the Red Raiders in both 2009 (3-2) and 2012 (2-1). This will be the first time the two schools have met at a neutral site as each of the previous two meetings took place at Auburn.

TEXAS TECH ALL-TIME AGAINST THE SEC

The Red Raiders will look Friday for their first victory over an original member the Southeastern Conference (SEC) since 2010 (not including Missouri or Texas A&M) when Texas Tech downed Mississippi, 2-0, at the Inn at Saint Mary's Classic hosted by Notre Dame. Tech is 12-42-2 all-time against current members of the SEC. This is the first time that the Red Raiders have faced a SEC opponent since Texas Tech faced former Big 12 member Texas A&M in the NCAA second round last year. That match ended in a 2-2 draw that saw the Aggies advance on penalty kicks.

RED RAIDERS EXPLODE FOR EIGHT GOALS IN NCAA OPENER

Texas Tech opened the NCAA Championship in style last Friday evening as the Red Raiders connected on eight goals in an 8-0 rout over Prairie View A&M. The rout marked the most goals ever by Tech in the NCAA Championship, breaking the previous mark of three set just a year ago against Minnesota. Tech and Virginia are currently tied for the most goals in this year's tournament as the Cavaliers also scored eight goals in their opening round thrashing of High Point.

PRAIRIE VIEW A&M POSTGAME NOTES

- Texas Tech improved to 3-0 all-time when hosting the opening round of the NCAA Championship. The Red Raiders are outscoring opponents by a combined score of 13-0 in those matches.
- Texas Tech's eight goals were its most ever in a NCAA Championship match. The Red Raiders finished two goals shy of the NCAA record for a tournament match (record set by Texas A&M in 2004).
- Janine Beckie recorded her first career hat trick in the rout - all three of which came in the first 22 minutes of the match. Of the 42 goals scored in Beckie's career, eight of those have come in NCAA Championship matches, the most for any Red Raider in school history.
- Ashley Casey recorded the first multiple-goal performance of her career as she found the back of the net in the 21st and 51st minutes. Her four points also marked a career high for Casey, who now has three goals in her career, all that have come this season.
- Maddy Crabtree scored her first goal of the season in the 63rd minute and then added another goal in the 66th for her first career multiple-goal performance.
- Caity Heap scored the fourth goal of the season while adding two assists in the victory. Her four points and two assists matched her career high set previously against Arkansas-Pine Bluff last season and earlier this year against UC Riverside.
- Heap and fellow teammate Meagan McCullough are the only Red Raiders in school history to record two or more assists in a NCAA Championship match.

RED RAIDERS BACK IN THE POSTSEASON ONCE AGAIN

Over the span of the past three seasons, the Texas Tech soccer program has established a new tradition - advancing to the NCAA Championship. Prior to 2012, the Red Raiders had not previously been selected to tournament in the history of the program. Texas Tech is one of two Big 12 programs to advance to the post-season in each of the past three seasons (West Virginia is the other). Tech is the only conference program to advance to the second round of the NCAA Championship in each of those three seasons.

BECKIE SNAPS TEXAS TECH CAREER RECORD FOR GOALS IN TOURNAMENT OPENER

Janine Beckie made Texas Tech history in the NCAA Championship opener against Prairie View A&M as the junior recorded her first career hat trick which helped her snap the Texas Tech career goal record in the process. Beckie, who leads the Big 12 Conference with 16 goals already this season, has connected on 42 goals now in her career, one more than Kristy Frantz, who originally set the school record with 41 goals from 1996-99. Her hat trick against Prairie View marked the 11th match she has scored in this season, which includes six of the past 10 matches. It was the fourth multiple-goal performance of the year for Beckie, who has six goals in Tech's last four matches. Beckie moved into the top five in school history for career goals earlier this season, passing the likes of Jessica Fuston (2010-13), Amy Rustein (1995-98) and Kristi Patterson (1994-96). Beckie is the only player in school history to record 10 or more goals in at least three seasons as she totaled 14 as a freshman in 2012 and 12 a year ago.

RED RAIDERS WELL RESTED

After the wear and tear of an 18-match regular season, Texas Tech entered the NCAA Championship well rested as last Friday's tournament opener was only the second contest for the Red Raiders since the Oct. 26 regular season finale against Iowa State. Tech previously faced Texas on Nov. 5 after waiting over a week before opening the Big 12 Championship in Kansas City. Since facing Iowa State on Oct. 26, the Red Raiders waited 19 total days with just one match during that span prior to their contest against Prairie View A&M.

BECKIE HIGHLIGHTS TEXAS TECH'S SUCCESS IN POSTSEASON PLAY

Janine Beckie has been Texas Tech's most likely scoring options during its previous trips to the postseason. Beckie, the reigning Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, has scored eight goals in five career NCAA Championship matches which leads all Red Raiders. She has scored two or more goals in three of those matches as Beckie has failed to find the back of the net just once all-time in the NCAA Championship.

QUALITY SCHEDULE HAS RED RAIDERS PREPARED FOR NCAA CHAMPIONSHIP

There is no doubt that Texas Tech is well prepared for the NCAA Championship after facing a tough non-conference schedule and then the annual journey through Big 12 play. Even with what head coach Tom Stone describes as "the most difficult schedule we have put together in my eight seasons," the Red Raiders managed to win 14 contests in another successful regular season. Tech was ranked 12th in the final NCAA RPI poll that factors in strength of schedule and road wins among other aspects. The Red Raiders were ultimately rewarded with a No. 3 seed, marking the first time in program history where Tech has received a regional seed. The Red Raiders were the ONLY school in the country with three true road victories over an opponent currently ranked in the top 25 of the RPI (Notre Dame, California, Kansas).

MURPHY SNAPS TEXAS TECH SINGLE-SEASON ASSISTS RECORD

Alli Murphy placed her named atop the Texas Tech record book in the season finale against Iowa State as the junior recorded a pair of assists in the 6-1 rout, giving her 12 now for the season. Her 12 assists break the previous single-season school record of 11 that was set by former Red Raider great Taylor Lytle during the 2009 season. Murphy is among the national leaders for assists this season as she ranks 11th for total assists and 12th for assists per match.

TEXAS TECH SINGLE-SEASON ASSISTS LEADERS

1. Alli Murphy (2014) 12
2. Taylor Lytle (2009)..... 11
3. Kristi Patterson (1994) / Kristy Frantz (1996).....9

WATSON CLOSING IN ON ONE OF BEST SEASONS FOR A RED RAIDER GOALKEEPER

With four shutouts in the Red Raiders' last six matches, Lauren Watson is now among the elite goalkeepers in Texas Tech history as the sophomore has nine shutouts already this year which is second all-time in single-season school history. Watson's nine shutouts, two of which that have come against ranked opponents, are one more than Stephanie Carter's total from the 1995 season. Even if Tech were to reach the title game of the NCAA Championship, Watson would not be able to catch record holder Victoria Esson, who posted 15 shutouts a year ago which ranked among the national leaders.

TEXAS TECH SINGLE-SEASON SHUTOUT LEADERS

1. Victoria Esson (2013) 15
2. Lauren Watson (2014)..... 9
3. Stephanie Carter (1995) 8
3. Victoria Esson (2011-12) 7

STRAHAN MOVES INTO TOP 10 ALL-TIME FOR GOALS SCORED

Paige Strahan's goal in just the fourth minute at West Virginia moved the senior into the top-10 in Texas Tech history as she connected on the 15th of her career against the Mountaineers. She added her 16th career goal late in the first half against TCU which proved to be the game-winner in Tech's 1-0 victory. Strahan, a former walk-on who quickly turned into one of Tech's leaders in the midfield, is tied for ninth all-time in program history with Julie Clement (1994-96) and Melanie Brosnahan (2000-01). The goal against TCU was the fourth of the season for Strahan, who also ranks sixth for game-winning goals and 10th for career assists.

BECKIE HIGHLIGHTS TEXAS TECH'S SIX ALL-BIG 12 SELECTIONS

Texas Tech junior Janine Beckie was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year, highlighting six total selections to the All-Big 12 teams that were determined in a vote of the conference coaches. In addition to being named as the league's top offensive performer, Beckie was also an All-Big 12 honoree as she joined fellow teammates Jaelene Hinkle and Paige Strahan on the first team. Tech's three first team selections were tied with Kansas and West Virginia for the conference high. Hannah Devine and Lauren Watson made up Tech's two selections on the second team while Cassie Conarty rounded out the group as a member of the all-newcomer team. The six total selections marked the third-straight season where the Red Raiders have at least five honorees.

TEXAS TECH ALL-BIG 12 NOTES

- Beckie is the first Red Raider in school history to be named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Year.
- Beckie and Hinkle were both named to the first team for the third-consecutive season, the longest streak in school history.
- Hinkle is the only Red Raider in school history to be named to one of the All-Big 12 teams in each of her four seasons (2011 second team; first team in 2012-14).
- The trio of Beckie, Hinkle and Strahan represent three of just five players in school history who have earned a mention on either the first or second team three times in a career, joining the likes of Kristy Frantz and Taylor Lytle.
- Devine and Watson were both honored for the first time in their respective careers, giving Tech five total first or second team selections which tied West Virginia for the most in the conference.
- Conarty is the 12th Red Raider to be recognized on the newcomer team since the 2007 season, Stone's first year guiding the Red Raiders. Only Texas has garnered more honorees during that span as the Longhorns have combined for 13 overall.

RED RAIDERS ARE SAFE WHEN BECKIE SCORES

Texas Tech is usually safe when Janine Beckie scores a goal in the match as the Red Raiders are 27-3-2 when the junior finds the back of the net during her career. Since the start of the 2013 season, Tech is 18-1-2 when Beckie scores, including a 9-1-1 mark so far this season. West Virginia is lone opponent to defeat the Red Raiders during that span as Beckie scored late in a 4-2 loss to the Mountaineers.

SECOND HALF BELONGS TO THE RED RAIDERS

Through 19 matches so far this season, Texas Tech has made it a point to dominate the second half. The Red Raiders, behind leading goal scorer Janine Beckie, have totaled 22 second half goals so far this season while allowing just three, one of which that came Sept. 28 against UC Riverside. West Virginia connected on the other two second-half goal in a 4-2 victory in Morgantown. Dating back to the start of the 2012 season, Tech is outscoring opponents 72-21 in the second half.

RED RAIDERS LEAD THE BIG 12 FOR VICTORIES SINCE 2012

Winning has pretty much become contagious for the Red Raiders the past two-plus seasons under Tom Stone. During that stretch, Texas Tech has recorded 49 victories and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Championship in each of the past three seasons. This is the winningest stretch for the Red Raiders in school history as Tech won 16 matches in 2012 and then followed up with a school-record 18 victories a year ago. That success has made Tech the winningest Big 12 program the past two-plus seasons as the Red Raiders lead all league opponents in victories as West Virginia has totaled 43 victories while Baylor has recorded 39 during that span.

TOTAL VICTORIES AMONG BIG 12 PROGRAMS (2012-PRESENT)

Texas Tech	49
West Virginia	43
Baylor	39

RED RAIDERS RANK AMONG NCAA LEADERS IN ATTENDANCE

Since the John Walker Soccer Complex opened in 2008, Red Raider fans have flocked to the complex, setting numerous attendance records during that span. Texas Tech had another capacity crowd on Oct. 3 when the Red Raiders hosted Oklahoma in front of 1,753 fans, the fifth-largest crowd in complex history. Tech currently ranks 21st in the country, averaging 1,046 fans per match which puts the Red Raiders on pace to finish in the top-25 in attendance for the fifth-consecutive season. Behind the support from Red Raider fans, Tech is 51-15-3 all-time at the John Walker Soccer Complex, including a near-perfect 8-1-1 mark this season.

THE HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

The John Walker Soccer Complex has become quite the home-field advantage for the Red Raiders the past few seasons. Texas Tech, behind its normal raucous crowd, is an impressive 27-3-1 at home since 2012 with victories over in-state rival Texas and Big 12 regular season champion West Virginia during that stretch. The Red Raiders snapped the single-season school record with 10 home victories in 2013, breaking the previous mark of nine set just the year before.

BECKIE AGAIN NAMED BIG 12 OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Texas Tech junior forward Janine Beckie was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 28 after her three goal performance in wins over Baylor and Iowa State. This is the second time this season where Beckie has been named the conference's Offensive Player of the Week as she also earned the honor on Sept. 16. It is the sixth time in her career where she has received a Big 12 weekly award. Beckie was the driving force for a Red Raider attack that totaled seven goals in two matches, three of which that came off the foot of Beckie. She scored the game-winner in Tech's 1-0 victory over Baylor and then followed up with a pair of goals and an assist in a 6-1 rout of Iowa State.

MARMUREANU NAMED BIG 12 NEWCOMER OF THE WEEK

Texas Tech freshman forward Alex Marmureanu was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Week on Oct. 21 after she scored the game-winning goal in a 1-0 victory at No. 9 Kansas. Marmureanu connected on her first career goal with less than a minute remaining before the half as she took advantage of a Kansas miscue in the box as the Jayhawks failed to clear a Tech cross from the left side. The Los Angeles native was waiting towards the top of the box where she fired to the upper right post, giving the Red Raiders a 1-0 lead at the break they would not relinquish. The goal came just 27 seconds after Marmureanu entered the match late in the half. Marmureanu is the first Red Raider to be named the Big 12's Newcomer of the Week since teammate Janine Beckie earned the honor on Sept. 18, 2012. She is the fourth Red Raider to earn a Big 12 weekly award this season, joining Beckie, Hannah Devine and Lauren Watson.

ALL STREAKS EVENTUALLY COME TO AN END

Texas Tech's 24-match unbeaten streak finally came to an end Sept. 26 when Texas handed the Red Raiders a 1-0 overtime loss in Austin. The setback marked Tech's first regular season loss since falling 3-2 to Long Beach State on Sept. 1 of last year following a last-second goal that shocked the then-No. 23 Red Raiders at home. Since that night, Tech was previously 21-0-2 in regular season matches, marking the longest unbeaten streak in regular season matches in school history.

WATSON REPEATS AS BIG 12 DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Texas Tech sophomore goalkeeper Lauren Watson earned Big 12 Defensive Player of the Week honors for the second-consecutive week on Sept. 23, the conference office announced. Watson recorded her fifth shut-out already this season in a 1-0 victory over Memphis at the Oklahoma State Invitational. She recorded a career-high eight saves in the win that continued Tech's undefeated 9-0 start to the season. The Woodlands, Texas native faced 29 shots combined last weekend against both Tulsa and Memphis as she surrendered just one goal during that time. It was just the fourth goal allowed by the Tech defense so far this season. Watson currently leads the Big 12 and ranks 12th nationally in goals-against average (0.42). Her five shutouts are tied for the conference high as well as Tech has boosted one of the league's top defenses through the first month of the season.

RED RAIDERS KNOCK OFF ANOTHER RANKED OPPONENT IN NO. 11 CAL

Texas Tech defeated its second ranked opponent of the season when the Red Raiders traveled to down No. 11 California, 1-0, on Sept. 12 in Berkeley. Janine Beckie connected on the game-winning goal against the Golden Bears, heading in an Alli Murphy corner kick with just 32 seconds remaining in double overtime. Tech previously topped then-No. 11 Notre Dame, 2-1, on Aug. 29 this year, marking the highest-ranked opponent the Red Raiders have ever defeated on the road. Tech is now 4-2 all-time against ranked non-conference opponents under eighth-year head coach Tom Stone.

BECKIE NAMED ESPNW NATIONAL PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Texas Tech junior forward Janine Beckie added yet another honor to her collection on Sept. 16 as she was named the ESPNW National Player of the Week following her two goal performance against California and Abilene Christian. Beckie connected on the game-winning goal in both victories which improved the Red Raiders to 7-0 on the year, their best start to a season in school history. Tech is one of just seven teams nationally with a perfect record. This is the second national honor for Beckie so far in her career as she was named the NSCAA National Player of the Week as a freshman on Oct. 31, 2012. She is the only Red Raider in school history to garner a national player of the week award.

BECKIE, WATSON EARN BIG 12 WEEKLY AWARDS

Following a pair of victories against No. 11 California and Abilene Christian, Texas Tech junior forward Janine Beckie was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 16 while sophomore goalkeeper Lauren Watson garnered Defensive Player of the Week accolades. This is the fifth career weekly award for Beckie, who has previously been named the Offensive Player of the Week three times during the past two seasons and the conference Newcomer of the Week once in 2012. Watson, meanwhile, received her first career weekly award after posting a pair of shutout victories last weekend. She now has four shutouts on the season, having allowed only three goals over the first seven matches. In just the sixth start of her career, Watson collected four saves against Cal, shutting down a Golden Bears attack that had previously outscored opponents, 19-3, heading into the contest. Dating back to 2013, Cal had not been shut out in its previous 10 matches. Watson is tied for the Big 12 lead in shutouts so far this year and also leads the conference in goals against average as well, ranking 14th nationally in the latest NCAA rankings that were released Monday.

DEVINE NAMED BIG 12 OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Texas Tech junior midfielder Hannah Devine was named the Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week on Sept. 9 following her three goal performance in wins over Sam Houston State and Portland State. This is the first weekly honor of Devine's career and the first for a Red Raider this season. Tech had not previously garnered Offensive Player of the Week honors since Oct. 29 last year when Janine Beckie received the accolade. Devine was crucial in keeping the Red Raiders undefeated, scoring a pair of goals in a 3-1 victory over Sam Houston State before nailing the lone goal in a 1-0 double-overtime win over Portland State.

BECKIE BREAKS SCHOOL RECORD FOR CAREER GAME-WINNING GOALS

Janine Beckie's goal with 32 seconds remaining in double overtime at Cal broke the Texas Tech career record for game-winners as it was her 12th in just two-plus seasons as a Red Raider. Beckie added another game-winner in the final game of the weekend against Abilene Christian, marking the 13th of her career. She broke the previous record of 11 set by Kristi Patterson (1994-96) and former teammate Jessica Fuston (2010-13). Her goal against ACU also moved her into a tie for second all-time in total goals as Beckie now has 30 in just over two seasons.

STRAHAN COMES IN CLUTCH WHEN NEEDED

During her four seasons as a Red Raider, Paige Strahan has found a way to be at the right place at the right time. That habit occurred once again on Aug. 31 when she tapped in the game-winning goal in Texas Tech's 2-1 overtime victory over Eastern Washington. It was the 13th goal of Strahan's career and seventh that went for a game-winner. Her seven career game-winning goals now rank fourth all-time at Texas Tech.

RED RAIDERS OPEN 2014 WITH 5-0 ROUT OF ORAL ROBERTS

Texas Tech opened its season with a victory for the seventh-straight year on Aug. 24 with a 5-0 rout over Oral Roberts at the John Walker Soccer Complex. Five different Red Raiders scored in the rout, beginning with Megan McCullough in just the eighth minute. Janine Beckie (12th minute) and Hannah Devine (21st minute) both added first-half goals to give Tech a 3-0 lead at the half before Caity Heap and Cassie Conarty connected on goals of their own over the final 45 minutes. The shutout victory was Tech's sixth in its last seven season openers as the Red Raiders out-scoring opponents by an impressive 21-1 margin during that stretch. The 5-0 rout also matched the largest margin of victory for Tech all-time in a season opener.

MURPHY SETS TEXAS TECH ASSISTS RECORD IN SEASON OPENER

Alli Murphy etched her name into the Texas Tech record book in the season-opening rout of Oral Roberts where the junior midfielder dished out a single-match record four assists. Murphy contributed to Tech's final four goals in its 5-0 victory as she found four different Red Raiders for goals. Her four assists broke the previous Tech single-match record of three that was set by former Red Raider great Taylor Lytle on Sept. 4, 2009, at TCU. Murphy, despite just playing one match during the first weekend of the season, ended the week as the Big 12 leader for assists and among the conference leaders for points.

MCCULLOUGH, CONARTY CONNECT ON FIRST CAREER GOALS AGAINST ORU

The Oral Roberts victory was a special one for sophomore defender Meaghan McCullough and freshman defender Cassie Conarty who both scored their first career goal in the rout. McCullough connected on the first of five goals for the Red Raiders, taking a failed clear attempt by Oral Roberts and firing a liner from 24 yards out that sailed up and over ORU goalkeeper Maddie Rhodes. Conarty, meanwhile, added Tech's final goal as she knocked in an Alli Murphy corner kick in the 7th minute. She was the first Red Raider freshman to score in a season opener since Janine Beckie did so in 2012 against Idaho.

BECKIE, HINKLE NAMED TO MAC HERMANN TROPHY WATCH LIST

Janine Beckie and Jaelene Hinkle received the highest preseason honor in college soccer earlier this summer when the two Red Raiders were named to the MAC Hermann Trophy watch list. Tech was one of just six programs nationally with multiple players on the watch list that totaled 35 women's players overall, three of which that came from the Big 12 Conference. This is the second-straight season where Beckie has been named to the watch list. Hinkle, meanwhile, is a candidate for the first time in her career. The 2014 MAC Hermann Trophy, which is presented annually to the top player in the country, will be presented Jan. 9 at the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis.

WATSON GARNERS FIRST CAREER START, SHUTOUT AGAINST ORAL ROBERTS

Texas Tech sophomore goalkeeper Lauren Watson earned her first career start in front of the net against Oral Roberts where she played all 90 minutes in the 5-0 victory. The shutout was the first in Watson's career as she collected two saves in the rout. Watson joined former Tech goalkeeper Victoria Esson (2011-13) as the only Red Raiders to record a shutout in their first career start during the Tom Stone era (2007-present).

FANS PACK JOHN WALKER SOCCER COMPLEX FOR SEASON OPENER

Since the John Walker Complex opened in 2008, large crowds have become quite normal as Texas Tech has averaged roughly 1,000 fans each of the past four seasons. That statement was true again this past Sunday when 1,811 fans - the third largest crowd in John Walker Soccer Complex - watched the Red Raiders hand Oral Roberts a 5-0 season-opening loss. It was the largest crowd to ever watch a Texas Tech season opener, breaking the previous mark of 1,584 in 2013 when the Red Raiders hosted Colorado State.

BECKIE SHINES AT FIFA U-20 WORLD CUP

Janine Beckie made what she described as a "trip of a lifetime" this past summer. Beckie, arguably one of the top forwards in the collegiate game, shined on the international stage as she helped lead Canada to the quarterfinals of the FIFA U-20 World Cup behind a pair of goals in the pool play stage. Beckie led all Canada players with two goals in the tournament, the first coming in a 3-2 come-from-behind victory over Finland that all but kept Canada's chances of advancing alive. She also provided the game-winning assist in the Finland victory. Beckie provided the game-winning goal herself in her next outing, a 1-0 victory over North Korea that advanced Canada past the pool play round and into the knockout stage. Germany ended Canada's tournament run in the quarterfinals, though, with a 2-0 victory. Beckie was able to play in front of several friends and family throughout the tournament as Canada was the host country for the FIFA U-20 World Cup.

BECKIE, HINKLE GARNER PRESEASON ALL-BIG 12 HONORS

In addition to being named to the prestigious MAC Hermann Trophy watch list, Janine Beckie and Jaelene Hinkle were both honored as preseason All-Big 12 selections by the conference coaches. Hinkle, who has received numerous preseason accolades this summer, was a unanimous selection to the team for the second-straight season after leading the Red Raiders with a team-high six assists a year ago. She and Beckie were both preseason All-Big 12 selections a year ago as well before eventually earning All-Big 12 first team honors at the end of the year.

STRAHAN GOES FROM FRESHMAN WALK-ON TO SENIOR CAPTAIN

When Paige Strahan began preseason practice as a freshman in 2011, she was a walk-on out of Odessa Permian High School who was looking to not just make the team but instead earn a starting spot right away. Strahan, a relatively unknown at the time, earned that start in the 2011 season opener against Rice. Since then, she has been a regular on the field for the Red Raiders, totaling 12 goals and seven assists during that span. Her efforts were rewarded prior to this season as she and fellow senior Jaelene Hinkle were elected captains, a high honor for a Red Raider playing under Tom Stone.

RED RAIDERS PICKED SECOND IN BIG 12 PRESEASON POLL

Following the best season in school history, Texas Tech was picked to once again finish second in the Big 12 Preseason Poll released earlier this summer. This is the second-straight season where the Red Raiders have been slotted in second place by the conference coaches. Tech followed through with its 2013 preseason prediction as the Red Raiders finished 6-0-2 in Big 12 play, ending the year a point back of preseason favorite West Virginia for the Big 12 regular season title.

RED RAIDERS WELCOME NINE NEWCOMERS TO 2014 ROSTER

Texas Tech welcomed nine newcomers to its roster this fall, another talented recruiting class from Tom Stone, who has landed several of the nation's top recruits in recent years. The class of newcomers features eight freshmen and one transfer in Makenzie Kahan, who arrives at Tech as a junior following two seasons at Oklahoma State. Several freshmen are expected to contribute right away, notably Sara Summers, a native of University Park, Texas, who was a consistent scoring threat during preseason practices. The true freshmen class also includes goalkeepers Carissa Christensen and Marissa Torres, forwards Natalie Schmutz and Alex Marmureanu, midfielder Haleigh Fancher as well as defenders Rebekah O'Brien and Cassie Conarty.

HINKLE RATED NO. 9 PLAYER IN THE COUNTRY BY TOP DRAWER SOCCER

Jaelene Hinkle was rated as the ninth-best player in the country prior to the season by the soccer website TopDrawerSoccer.com. Hinkle, who was also honored on Soccer America's Preseason All-America squad, was the third-highest ranked defender on Top Drawer's list of the top-100 players in the country. Tech was one of just 10 programs nationally and the only one from the Big 12 Conference to have two players ranked in the top 50 as Janine Beckie also made the list at No. 44 overall.

RED RAIDERS RETURNERS BY THE NUMBERS

Texas Tech returns the bulk of its roster from a year ago, including its top scorers in Janine Beckie, Alli Murphy, Caity Heap and Briana Rohmer. Below are the percentages per statistical group of returning Red Raiders:

PERCENTAGE OF STATS RETURNING (OFFENSIVE)

Statistic	Percentage Returning
Goals	79
Assists	78
Points	79
Shots	76
Shots-on-Goal	75
Game-Winning Goals	72

DEFENSE, DEFENSE, DEFENSE

While the Red Raiders have become known for their offense the past several years, it was their effort on the defensive end last season that boosted the Red Raiders to an 18-2-3 season and another trip to the NCAA Tournament. The Red Raiders posted a school-record 17 shutouts in 2013, ranking second nationally for shutout percentage and third for goals-against average after allowing only nine goals all season. Tech shut out 17 of its 23 opponents on the year for a .739 shutout percentage. Tech's nine goals allowed matched the Big 12 record for fewest in a season that previously belonged to Oklahoma State from 2011.

NARVAIZ RETURNS FROM KNEE INJURY

Lubbock native Taylor Narvaiz will return to the field this fall after missing the entire 2013 season due to a preseason knee injury. Narvaiz, who redshirted the 2013 season, will have two years of eligibility remaining. She combined to play 36 matches while making 18 starts during the 2011 and 2012 seasons.

TEXAS TECH SET FOR PAIR OF ROAD MATCHES AT NOTRE DAME, CAL

The Red Raiders will face a pair of challenging road tests early in the season with trips to California and Notre Dame both on the docket. The two road matches should benefit Texas Tech late in the year when the ratings percentage index (RPI) rankings are released by the NCAA. Both Cal and Notre Dame regularly rank among the top women's programs in the country with Notre Dame debuting at No. 16 in the NSCAA/Continental Tire rankings while Cal is receiving votes in the poll as well. The Notre Dame match will mark the first time the Red Raiders have battled a ranked opponent on the road since topping No. 20 Long Beach State on Sept. 14, 2012.

TEXAS TECH, WEST VIRGINIA SELECTED TO APPEAR ON NSCAATV

Texas Tech's match at West Virginia on Oct. 10 was selected this summer to appear on NSCAATV.com, marking one of just five women's contests nationally to be selected by the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) and the only one to feature a pair of Big 12 programs. This is the third time in the past four seasons where the NSCAA has selected a Texas Tech match for its television schedule. The Red Raiders previously faced Oklahoma State during both the 2011 and 2012 seasons as the NSCAA Game of the Week.

TEXAS TECH TOPS DENVER IN LONE EXHIBITION MATCH

No. 17 Texas Tech overcame an early first-half deficit with goals from Paige Strahan and Alli Murphy on Aug. 16 to top No. 25 Denver, 2-1, in the lone exhibition match of the preseason. The victory marked the second-straight year where the Red Raiders have defeated a talented Denver squad in preseason action. Denver got on the board first in just the third minute, but Tech responded shortly after with Strahan finding the back of the net in the 18th minute. Tech had to wait until midway through the second half for Murphy to connect on the game-winner in the 71st minute of play. Denver wrapped the 2013 season with 18 victories en route to advancing to the NCAA Tournament.

ATTENDANCE RECORDS

Each fall, the John Walker Soccer Complex is home to one of the top collegiate soccer atmospheres in the country. Since it's opening in 2008, Red Raider fans have packed the complex on Friday evenings, creating one of the most unique home-field advantages nationally.

Texas Tech has ranked among the national leaders in attendance each of the past four seasons, averaging roughly 1,000 fans per game during that span.
