

Tony Barbee

Head Coach

Continued improvement and exceeding expectations. That is exactly what Tony Barbee has done in his six seasons as a head coach.

Barbee, the 2010 Conference USA Coach of the Year, did just that in his first two seasons at Auburn and in his four years at UTEP.

In his first year at Auburn in 2010-11, Barbee did this despite losing the entire starting lineup and the only returning player who had contributed the previous season in Frankie Sullivan.

Auburn finished 11-20 overall and 4-12 in the SEC in 2010-11 but won two of its last three games and went 3-4 in its last seven regular season games to finish fifth in the SEC's Western Division. The Tigers were a consensus preseason last place pick in the league and was called "the worst BCS conference team in the country" by some national prognosticators.

Barbee was being discussed as a candidate for SEC Coach of the Year by the media and league coaches in the latter part of the season.

The Tigers were one of the youngest teams in America with an average of 1.14 years of experience, ranked 315th out of 345 Div. I teams. There was not one senior on the roster and only 12 percent of Auburn's scoring returned from the previous season's team that finished 15-17 overall.

A trademark of each of Barbee's teams, it starts with defense as undermanned Auburn ranked second in the SEC with 7.8 steals per game.

The relentless Tigers, which took on the personality of their head coach, came back to win four games after trailing by 15 points or more, including wins over Mississippi State, Ole Miss and at LSU.

The 20-point comeback win over Ole Miss was the second largest in school history, just surpassing the 19-point comeback win over Mississippi State two weeks prior. Auburn upset Florida State which eventually came within one point of the NCAA Tournament Final Four.

Last season, the Tigers exceeded preseason expectations by finishing 10th in the SEC with a 15-16 overall record and a 5-11 league mark. Among the victories was a 65-55 victory over No. 23 Mississippi State.

From the previous season, Auburn improved its RPI to 145 from 253 and strength of schedule to 71 from 148.

When Barbee was named Auburn's 20th head basketball coach on March 24, 2010, he had advanced to postseason play in 18 of his 19 seasons as a head coach, assistant coach and player.

Barbee, 41, brought his energetic, exciting and uptempo brand of basketball to the Tigers, who begin their third season in the sparkling $86 million Auburn Arena.

In addition, can he ever recruit? He recruits not only the top players in the state and the Southeast but the nation as well.

His recruiting efforts don't stop at the players either. Barbee recruits Auburn fans, Auburn students and even the media.

Barbee, who averaged 20.5 wins per season in four years as head coach at UTEP, exceeded expectations each season in El Paso. He steadily improved each year with the Miners, capped with a 26-7 record, Conference USA regular season title and NCAA Tournament appearance in 2009-10. The Miners lost to eventual NCAA runner-up Butler in the NCAA Tournament.

The Miners finished 15-1 in Conference USA and had a 16-game winning streak and set a school record for consecutive road wins with seven while being ranked in the top 25 by both the Associated Press and ESPN/USA Today Coaches poll for the first time in 18 years.

Barbee, who was also named NABC

District 11 Coach of the Year, coached C-USA Player of the Year Randy Culpepper, All-CUSA second-team selection Derrick Character and C-USA All-Defensive Team member Julyan Stone.

Barbee coached Conference USA first-team selections in each of his final three seasons at UTEP to go along with four players who earned 10 All-C-USA honors combined.

Despite losing all-time leading scorer Stefan Jackson from the year before, the 2009-10 Miners cemented their reputation as one of the nation's top teams with tenacious defense.

UTEP lowered its opponent scoring average from 71.9 points per game in 2008-09 to 64.6 ppg the following season -- the second best scoring defense for the Miners in the last 18 years. UTEP's field goal pct. defense (.392) was its best in 36 years, and its 3-point field goal pct. defense (.313) tied for first in school history.

The Miners held 14 of 16 C-USA opponents below their season scoring averages and in league road games, held their opponents to a mere 35.9 percent shooting from the field.

One of UTEP's biggest wins was a 72-67 victory at Memphis on Jan. 20, ending Memphis' NCAA record-tying 64 game conference winning streak.

Barbee's record improved each of his four seasons at UTEP by going 14-17 in his first season in 2006-07, 19-14 in 2007-08, 23-14 in 2008-09 to 26-7 in 2009-10. His C-USA record improved each season as well from 6-10 to 8-8 to 10-6 to 15-1 and Conference USA Champions.

The 2008-09 Miners advanced to the championship series of the College Basketball Invitational behind Stefon Jackson, who ended his prolific career as both UTEP's and Conference USA's all-time leading scorer with 2,456 points. UTEP went 23-14 overall and tied for fourth in C-USA at 10-6 as three players received All-C-USA honors: Jackson a first-team selection, Randy Culpepper a third-team pick and Arnett Moultrie an All-Freshman Team member.

In 2007-08, UTEP went 19-14 overall and tied for sixth in C-USA with an 8-8 record as Jackson was named first-team All-C-USA. Jackson led C-USA and was ranked seventh nationally in scoring at 23.6 ppg, eclipsing Dwyane Wade's C-USA junior scoring record with 778 points. Culpepper was selected the C-USA Sixth Man of the Year.

Despite being hired just two months prior to the start of practice and inheriting a roster with only three returning letterwinners, Barbee made UTEP competitive with a 14-17 record overall and 6-10 mark in C-USA, good for 10th in his first season. Jackson was an All-C-USA second-team selection.

Prior to his stint at UTEP, Barbee spent six highly successful seasons as an assistant coach at Memphis under John Calipari where he was considered one of the nation's top recruiters.

During Barbee's tenure as an assistant coach at Memphis from 2000-06, the Tigers won 148 games, an average of nearly 25 victories per season.

Memphis made six consecutive postseason tournament appearances (NCAA: 2003, 2004, 2006; and NIT: 2001, 2002, 2005). The Tigers earned three final AP top 25 rankings, fourth in 2006, 19th in 2003 and 24th in 2004.

In 2005-06, Memphis had a 33-4 record while reaching the NCAA Tournament Elite Eight. The Tigers won the C-USA regular season title and tournament championship while having two players chosen in the first round of the NBA Draft -- Rodney Carney (Philadelphia 76ers) and Shawne Williams (Indiana Pacers).

Memphis won a share of the 2004 C-USA regular season title, won the 2002 NIT and won the C-USA National Division in 2002 and 2003.

Barbee was named the top assistant in C-USA by Street & Smith in 2005-06 and was also honored by Rivals.com as the nation's No. 3 recruiter while at Memphis. HoopScoop magazine tabbed him as one of the nation's top assistant coaches in 2004.

Memphis produced top 10 recruiting classes in each of Barbee's six years, including the 2001 class that was ranked No. 1 in the country. The 2002 recruiting class would have been top-ranked had it not lost a player to the NBA.

Ten players coached by Barbee are playing or have played in the NBA - Derrick Caracter (Los Angeles Lakers), Arnett Moultrie (Philadelphia 76ers), Rodney Carney (Golden State Warriors), Joey Dorsey (Toronto Raptors), Chris Douglas-Roberts (Milwaukee Bucks), Earl Barron (Portland Trail Blazers), Shawne Williams (Portland Trail Blazers), Marcus Camby (Portland Trail Blazers), Dajuan Wagner (Cleveland Cavaliers) and Antonio Burks (Memphis Grizzlies).

Barbee began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at UMass for the 1995-96 season under Calipari. The Minutemen went 35-2 en route to the Final Four of the NCAA Tournament as Barbee was also the team's radio color analyst.

He was promoted to assistant coach at UMass from 1996-98 under Bruiser Flint while the Minutemen went to a pair of NCAA Tournaments.

Barbee was an assistant coach at Wyoming under Steve McClain in 1998-99 as the Cowboys went 18-10 and reached the NIT second round.

Barbee went back to UMass under Flint for the 1999-2000 season and advanced to the NIT.

As a player at UMass, Barbee was instrumental in the Minutemen posting a 91-39 record and earning four straight postseason tournament bids. UMass won back-to-back Atlantic 10 Conference regular season and tournament titles in 1992 and 1993.

Barbee still ranks among the school's all-time leaders in numerous statistical categories, including scoring with 1,643 points. He was a second-team All-Atlantic 10 player in 1991 and 1993 and All-Atlantic 10 Freshman team selection in 1990.

The Indianapolis, Ind., native helped UMass reach the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 in 1992 and the NIT Final Four in 1991.

He played professionally in Spain and France after his playing career at UMass.

Born, Aug. 10, 1971, Barbee earned his B.A. in sports management from UMass in 1993, with a minor in African-American studies. He and his wife, Holly, have a daughter, Hayden Alexandra, and son, Andrew Marsh.

Miller, who spent two months at Missouri prior to coming to Auburn, coached the previous five years from 2007-12 as an assistant coach at New Mexico under head coach Steve Alford. He was a part of the most successful five-year period in New Mexico basketball history, helping the Lobos to a 126-46 record, five consecutive postseason appearances and a pair of NCAA Tournament berths.

New Mexico won two regular season Mountain West Conference Championships and one MWC Tournament Championship during his coaching stint.

"I'm excited about Ryan joining on our staff," said Barbee. "He is a close friend who I have known for quite a while now. He is going to add a lot to the program in all areas from recruiting to coaching to relationships with players."

Miller is considered one of the top recruiters in the country where he has contacts throughout the United States as well as foreign countries including Australia, where he also played competitively.

He was a basketball operations assistant at Memphis under head coach John Calipari from 2004-06 when Barbee was also an assistant coach on the staff. During Miller's three years at Memphis, the Tigers went 78-28 and made three postseason tournament appearances, including two NCAA Tournament berths.

Miller spent one year as an assistant coach at Pepperdine before joining the New Mexico staff prior to the 2007-08 season.

A native of Mitchell, S.D., Miller attended Northern State University in Aberdeen, S.D., where he was a two-time Northern Sun All-Conference and All-Academic selection. COACHING EXPERIENCE: College – Third year as assistant coach at Auburn (2010-pres.); Four years as an assistant coach at UTEP (2006-10); Nine years at Arkansas State (1997-2006), six of the years as assistant head coach and three years as assistant coach. High School – Assistant coach at Melrose High School in Memphis, Tenn., for three years (1994-97).

EDUCATION: Graduated from Melrose High School in Memphis, Tenn., in 1988; B.A. in Marketing from the University of Memphis in 1991.

PLAYING EXPERIENCE: High School – Lettered three years in basketball at Memphis Melrose High School (1985-88). College – Four-year letterman and three-year starter in basketball at Memphis (1988-92). Professional – Played one season professionally in South America (1992-93).

Tony Madlock enters his third season at Auburn and his seventh season under head coach Tony Barbee.

Madlock's coaching and recruiting played a key role during Barbee's first year at Auburn in landing a pair of top 100 players in 2011 and Jordon Granger this year. In his four years prior at UTEP, he recruited 2010 C-USA Player of the Year Randy Culpepper and Arnett Moultrie, a 2009 C-USA All-Freshman Team selection.

Inheriting a team that was a consensus preseason last place pick in the SEC and called "the worst BCS conference team in the country" by some national prognosticators, Auburn has improved in overall and league wins in each of the two seasons of the Barbee era.

UTEP won the 2010 Conference USA Championship with a 26-7 record overall and a 15-1 league mark as they advanced to the NCAA Tournament before losing to eventual NCAA runner-up Butler.

The Miners averaged 20.5 wins during the four-year Barbee era and the Miners record steadily improved each season. UTEP reached postseason play three straight years in El Paso.

He coached Stefon Jackson, who is the all-time leading scorer in UTEP and Conference USA history; C-USA Player of the Year Randy Culpepper, All-CUSA second-team selection Derrick Carracter, who was drafted by the two-time defending World Champion Los Angeles Lakers in 2010; and C-USA All-Defensive Team member Julyan Stone.

"Tony Madlock is a person who I have known for a long time," said Barbee. "Having worked at Memphis for six years and him being one of the outstanding former players from that university, we have developed a relationship through the years on the recruiting trail.

"He was a very key piece to my staff at UTEP and helped me bring in some talented members of our team there. His recruiting ties throughout the Southeast have been a valued piece to the puzzle. He has brought all those things here to us at Auburn."

Madlock spent six of his nine years at Arkansas State as the assistant head coach prior to going to El Paso. He helped Arkansas State to the 1998 Sun Belt Conference regular season championship and the 1999 Sun Belt Conference Tournament title as he recruited six junior college All-Americans to the school.

He also recruited the only junior college player in Arkansas State history to score 1,000 points in two seasons. He coached four all-conference players and the Sun Belt Conference Newcomer of the Year.

Madlock began his coaching career as an assistant and teacher at his alma mater, Melrose High School, in Memphis. The Golden Wildcats posted a 67-29 mark over the three seasons with Madlock on the staff, and Melrose was the 1997 state tournament runner-up with a 32-7 record.

Madlock also starred at Melrose, receiving honorable mention All-America and first-team All-State honors as a point guard while lettering three years.

Milt Wagner enters his third season at Auburn, his seventh season under head coach Tony Barbee and his 13th overall with Barbee. He is one of the few players in history who has won championships at the professional, collegiate and prep levels as a player.

Inheriting a team that was a consensus preseason last place pick in the SEC and called "the worst BCS conference team in the country" by some national prognosticators, Auburn has improved in overall and league wins in each of the two seasons of the Barbee era.

He recruited a pair of top 100 players in Jordan Price and Shaquille Johnson in 2012.

Wagner spent four successful seasons at UTEP from 2006-10 and six seasons at Memphis from 2000-06 while helping lead the Tigers to six straight postseason appearances, including the Elite Eight of the 2006 NCAA Tournament.

UTEP won the 2010 Conference USA Championship with a 26-7 record overall and a 15-1 league mark as it advanced to the NCAA Tournament before losing to eventual NCAA runner-up Butler.

UTEP averaged 20.5 wins during the four-year Barbee era and the Miners record steadily improved each season. UTEP reached postseason play three straight years.

The Miners went 27-8 in 2004-05 and won the WAC Tournament title en route to earning its second straight NCAA Tournament appearance. UTEP won 21 games in 2005-06 and went 11-3 in Conference USA while advancing to the NIT.

(Milwaukee Bucks), Antonio Burks (Memphis Grizzlies), Shawne Williams (Portland Trail Blazers) and Earl Barron (Portland Trail Blazers).

The Camden, N.J., native led Louisville to the 1986 NCAA Championship along with three Final Four berths while still ranking fifth (was fourth after finishing collegiate career) in Cardinal history with 1,836 career points.

The Cardinals' 1986 NCAA Championship team defeated Duke 72-69 in the championship game and Auburn 84-76 in the Elite Eight. Louisville also advanced to the NCAA Final Four in 1982 and 1983 as well as to the 1984 NCAA Sweet 16. Wagner helped the Cardinals to a 113-32 record, three Metro Conference regular season titles and two Metro Conference Tournament crowns during his college career.

One of the most clutch performers in U of L basketball history, he ranked sixth in career assists (432) and seventh in career free throw percentage (.808, 336-of-413). He redshirted the 1985 season with a broken foot.

"Milt Wagner is a guy who I have known and worked with on the same staff at Memphis, who when you talk basketball resumes, there are very few people in his stratosphere when you talk about a playing career having won high school state championships in Camden, N.J., having won the National Championship at Louisville and also having won a NBA World Championship with the Los Angeles Lakers in that group with Magic Johnson," said Barbee.

"There hasn't been a more accomplished basketball resume from the playing side, and Milt is developing his coaching resume in the things that he has accomplished in the short period of time having worked with him closely at Memphis and then having him as a part of my staff at Auburn and UTEP. His connections are not only nationwide, but they are worldwide because of his experience playing in Europe for several years and obviously the name Milt Wagner rings a bell throughout the country. People remember his success as a player which has helped him be a very successful recruiter. He has brought all of that experience and connections with him to help us get it done at Auburn."

Following his brilliant college career, Wagner was selected in the second round of the 1986 NBA Draft by the Dallas Mavericks. He went on to enjoy a 13-year professional career which included an NBA title for the 1988 World Champion Los Angeles Lakers.

A four-year letterman at Camden (N.J.) High School, he was a member of the 1979 state high school championship team and was a high school teammate and college teammate of Billy Thompson.

Wagner was one of 10 Louisville players named to the U of L Dream Team. He was a second-team selection on the squad which was picked during a three-month period of fan voting during the 1992-93 season. In 2000, Wagner's No. 20 jersey was retired at the University of Louisville.

He earned his bachelor's degree in Sports Communication from Memphis in 2004.

Born Feb. 20, 1963, Wagner is married to the former Jan Ford of Memphis and they have a daughter, Janay Elise (8). He also has a son Dajuan (29), who played for Memphis and was selected sixth overall by the Cleveland Cavaliers in the 2002 NBA Draft, and has two daughters, Munirah Walker (30), and Dashonda Wagner (25).
