The Auburn golf team is proud to have the finest golfing facilities for practice and competition of any college golf program in the country. With eight top-rated majestic courses, Auburn has every means possible for preparation.

The Tigers have the advantage to play any of the courses any day of the year. Golf is a 365-day a year event in the desirable and favorable weather conditions of Auburn.

AU Club at Yarbrough Farms

The city of Auburn, Alabama, is home to a 15-year-old golf club constructed by Auburn people for Auburn people, The Auburn University Club at Yarbrough Farms. The course opened in the fall of 1999 and hosted the opening stage of PGA Tour Q-School in 2009, 2010 and 2011.

The Auburn University Course also played host to the 2003 NCAA East Men's Regional and numerous PGA Qualifying School events over the years.

The Auburn University Club features an 18-hole championship golf course, state-of-the-art practice facilities and a full service clubhouse as well as office space for the Auburn University golf coaches and locker rooms for both the men's and women's golf teams.

On November 1, 2012, the NCAA announced Auburn University and the Auburn University Club would be one of six host sites for the 2014 NCAA Men's Golf Regional Championships.

Designer

Former Auburn golfer Bill Bergin designed The Auburn University Club at Yarbrough Farms. The four-time All-SEC selection and member of Auburn's 1981 SEC Championship team began his design career in 1990 under Bob Cupp, the 1992 Architect-of-the-Year.

Golf Course

Located off Shug Jordan Parkway, just north of campus, the Auburn University Club at Yarbrough Farms is situated on more than 200 acres of rolling wooded terrain. Endowed with outstanding natural amenities such as Yarbrough Lake, the 25-acre centerpiece of the property, and Saugahatchee Creek, which meanders along the 12th, 13th and 14th holes, the site is one of the top golf courses in the South.

At 7,326 yards from the back tees, the golf course carves through magnificent trees, across wetlands, along creeks and streams and around the lake. Natural and man-enhanced water features play a prominent role at The Auburn University Club as they blend throughout the property and are visible on 14 of 18 holes.

Designed with the intention of hosting an NCAA or other national championship, the course is a challenging yet playable for all levels of golfers. With subtly shaped Tift Eagle greens, surrounded by a balanced mix of chipping areas, bunkers and rough and fairways that roll and blend with the existing contours, The Auburn University Club at Yarbrough Farms is destined to become a distinguished addition to the Loveliest Village on the Plains.

Grand National

The 54-hole Grand National complex, part of the world-renown Robert Trent Jones Golf Trail, has two 18-hole par-72 courses and one 18-hole par-3 course. The Lake Course played host to the 2004 NCAA Women's Golf Championship and the 2000 NCAA Men's Golf Championship. It was also the site of the 1999 SEC Women's Golf Championship, 1998 LPGA Tournament of Champions, 1997 Nike Tour Championship, 1996 NCAA Women's Golf East Regional and the 1994 NCAA Men's East Regional.

The Links Course ranks as one of the most impressive tracks in the country. It played host to the 1997 SEC Men's Golf Championship. The 18-hole, par-3 course is a truly beautiful layout that allows Tiger golfers excellent practice on their iron and short game play. The driving ranges at The Trail courses are also a spectacle to see.

NICK CLINARD

HEAD COACH • SEVENTH YEAR

Nick Clinard will be entering his 15th year overall as a head coach and seventh season with the Auburn men's golf team in 2015-16. Under Clinard, the Tigers have reached four-straight NCAA Championships while earning 17 team and 20 individual titles and bringing in the strongest recruiting classes the Tigers have seen in years.

Clinard has posted a .756 winning percentage at Auburn with a record of 806-259-14. Auburn has made the NCAA Regionals each of his six seasons and have advanced to the NCAA Championship four straight years.

The Tigers had the fourth best NCAA Championship finish in school history by finishing 12th in 2015 and the Tigers are one of only eight teams to appear in four consecutive NCAA Championships.

Since Clinard came to Auburn in 2009, Auburn has produced six All-Americans, eight Academic All-Americans, 14 NCAA All-Southeast Region selections and 17 All-SEC selections, including four All-SEC first-team selections, six All-SEC second team picks, six Freshman All-SEC selections and one SEC Freshman of the Year.

Auburn won three consecutive tournaments with three straight medalists, all different, in the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate, Tiger Invitational Presented by Jason Dufner and the Schenkel Invitational in 2015.

Ben Schlottman was named Golfweek honorable mention All-American, the first freshman in school history to receive All-America honors.

Five Tigers were named to the NCAA All-Southeast Region team as No. 1 Illinois and No. 2 Texas were the only three schools in the nation to have five players named NCAA All-Region.

Schlottman and Matt Gilchrest were both named first-team All-SEC while Michael Johnson was a second-team selection. Schlottman also became the first Auburn freshman to be named All-SEC first-team in history while also being tabbed SEC Freshman of the Year.

2014-15 SEASON RECAP

The Auburn men's golf team had another outstanding season under sixth-year head coach Nick Clinard, culminating with a 12th place finish at the NCAA Championship, the fourth-best finish in school history, a final ranking of eighth in the Sagarin rankings and an overall record of 148-38-4 (.789).

Auburn had the lowest stroke average in the nation at 283.23 as Clinard-coached Auburn teams hold the four lowest averages in school history.

The Tigers won three straight team titles at the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate, the Tiger Invitational presented by Jason Dufner and the Schenkel Invitational while claiming four individual titles en route to slashing the school's season stroke average record of 285.30 set in 2011-12 with a mark of 283.23 strokes per round.

Auburn's four individual tournament winners were with Michael Johnson winning the first two tournaments of his career in the Tiger Invitational presented by Jason Dufner and tying for medalist honors in the Gary Koch Invitational. Sophomore Matt Gilchrest tied for medalist honors in the Mobile Sports Authority Intercollegiate while Dan Stringfellow won his first collegiate tournament at the Schenkel Invitational.

Ben Schlottman became the first freshman in school history to earn All-America honors, earning honorable mention by Golfweek. He was also the first Tiger freshman to be named first-team All-SEC and was named SEC Freshman of the Year and to the Freshman All-SEC team. The Advance, N.C., native finished with the fourth-lowest single season stroke average in school history, lowest by a freshman, at 70.96.

Gilchrest also earned first-team All-SEC honors with a 71.33 stroke average as he was named to the Paul Hogan Award Watch List and the SEC Community Service Team. Stringfellow finished with a 71.71 stroke average on the season while Benton had a 72.08 average and Will Long 72.65.

Johnson, who finished with a 71.35 stroke average, was named All-SEC second-team and delivered a school-record 54-hole score of 16-under 200 at the Primland Collegiate Invitational. The Birmingham, Ala., native led the Tigers to a runner-up finish.

At the SEC Championship at Sea Island, Ga., Schlottman led the Tigers to a tie for fourth as he finished as the runner-up at 8-under, the best finish by a freshman in school history. Benton tied for sixth, the best finish of his career in a team tournament.

The Tigers earned a No. 3 seed in the 13-team Lubbock Regional. With a final round 4-under 67 from Stringfellow and 3-under 68 from Benton, the Tigers advanced to the NCAA Championships for the fourth consecutive year, one of only eight teams to achieve this feat. It was Auburn's 20th overall appearance.

Auburn was only one of three teams nationally to have five players named All-Region, No. 1 Illinois and No. 2 Texas being the others, as Schlottman, Gilchrest, Stringfellow, Johnson and Benton were all named NCAA All-Southeast Region.

In addition to the team's three victories, Auburn had three runner-ups, 10 top-five finishes, and 12 of 13 top-10 finishes.

AUBURN GREATS

Will Blackmon

Blackmon was Auburn's first and only winner of the Ben Hogan Award and an All-SEC first-team selection in 1994. He was also an Academic All-American in 1994.

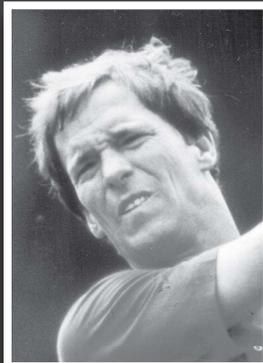

During the summer leading into his senior year, he won three amateur competitions: the Southeastern Amateur, National Invitation and the Mobile Labor Day Invitational.

Jason Dufner

A 1997 honorable mention All-America selection and was a three-time All-SEC second-team pick, Dufner holds the 17th lowest career scoring average in school history with a 73.34.

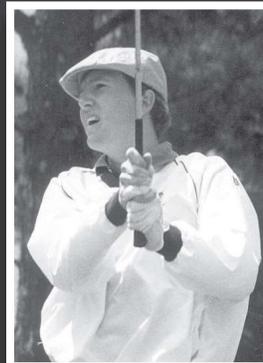

Dufner won the 1997 Topy Cup in Tokyo, Japan with a 73-72-70--215.

Buddy Gardner

Gardner still holds down the second and fifth spots for single season scoring averages in the Auburn record books with his 70.90 in 1976 and 71.40 in 1977.

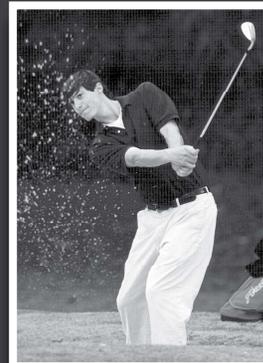

From 1974-1977, Gardner averaged 72.91 strokes per round, the 10th best career average in school history.

Jimmy Green

A three-time All-America selection, three-time All-SEC pick and 1989 SEC Freshman-of-the-Year, Green won the individual titles at the 1990 NCAA East Regional and the 1991 SEC Championship.

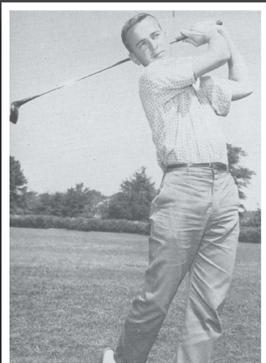

Green won six collegiate events for the Tigers, more than any other golfer in Auburn history.

Kevin Haefner

Haefner was a two-time All-American and All-SEC selection from 1999-2002.

He finished 2001-02 with a 71.59 stroke average, which still stands as the sixth lowest in school history.

Morris Slingluff

Auburn's first All-American, Morris Slingluff holds the seventh lowest careerscoring average in the Auburn books with a 72.81 from 1961-63.

His 1963 (72.20) and 1962 (72.30) averages rank 18th and 19th, respectively, all-time.

Chip Spratlin

Spratlin became the only Auburn golfer to win the NCAA Championship in 1995, claiming medalist honors.

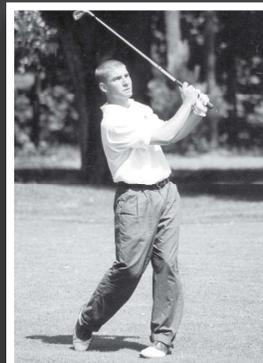

He was a first-team All-America selection and All-SEC first-team pick in 1995.

Iain Steel

Steele was a 1995 All-American and is Auburn's only SEC Player of the Year. Steel was also a first-team All-SEC selection in 1995.

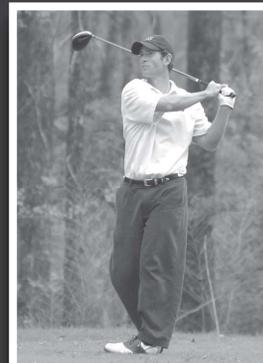

Sixth in Auburn career scoring average, Steel put up 72.80 shots per round from 1993-95.

Roland Thatcher

Thatcher was a second-team All-America selection and won medalist honors for the SEC Championship in 2000.

He finished in the top-5 in four of the last six events of the 1999-2000 season, including victories at the Alabama Spring Invitational and the SEC Championship.

Lee Williams

Williams was a two-time U.S. Walker Cup member and was on the U.S. World Amateur team.

In 2003, he was the NCAA Championship runner-up and third-team All-American.

Williams was a three-time All-SEC pick, including two first-team selections in 2002 and 2005.

His 72.38 career stroke average is third in Auburn history.

Blayne Barber

A two-time All-America and All-SEC selection in 2011 and 2012, Barber finished his career at Auburn among one of the all-time greats.

He set the Auburn single-season scoring average record with a 70.76 in 2012 while his 70.91 scoring average in 2011 ranks third in school history. Additionally, his 70.83 career scoring average is best in school history - nearly 1.5 strokes better than Niclas Carlsson's career scoring average of 72.28 turned in from 2010-2014.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY

Auburn's beautiful main campus--graced by greenery and open spaces and highlighted by historic Samford Park--is made up of 375 buildings spread across 1,875 acres. Buildings in the main campus area are within walking distance of each other. Residence halls are only a short walk from classrooms, dining and athletic facilities. Auburn is located in the Southeastern United States in east-central Alabama about 30 miles from the Georgia border.

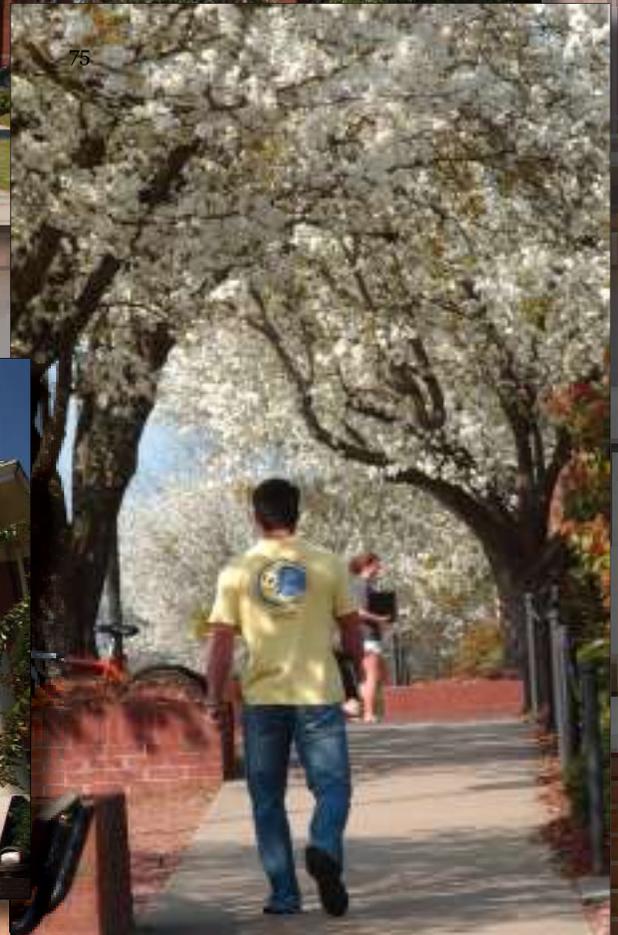

- Auburn has been ranked in the top 50 of public institutions for the past 20 years by U.S. News & World Report and was placed 37th in the 2011 rankings. Auburn was also listed in Princeton Review's 2010 edition of "Best 371 Colleges" and "Best 301 Business Schools."

- Auburn invests in extensive national assessments to obtain quality, data driven information for measuring and continually improving instruction and student preparation.

- More than 92 percent of our students and more than 95 percent of our alumni say that if they could start college over again, they would choose Auburn.

- A 2005 Harvard survey ranked Auburn as one of the top six colleges and universities in the country as a place for young faculty to work, which has a lot to do with actively engaging students.

- Auburn is the only university in the country to offer an undergraduate degree in wireless engineering, and the first in the Southeast to offer degrees in software engineering.

- Auburn's Draughon Library is the largest library in the state, with 2.9 million volumes. The library subscribes to 19,000 journals and 256 electronic databases, provides library instruction and tours to students, prospective students and parents, and serves as an instructional resource for faculty.

Auburn faculty and alumni are world-class achievers in practically every arena. Here are just a few examples:

- AU has graduated more than 210,000 students since it began in 1856. Currently, we have more than 202,000 alumni living around the world.

DID YOU KNOW?

Auburn was named the No. 2 place to live in the country by U.S. News and World Report in its 2009 rankings.

One of the state's fastest growing cities, Auburn has a population of about 53,000. An adjacent twin-city, Opelika, has a population of about 30,000. Atlanta, Ga., is only 100 miles to the northeast via Interstate 85; Birmingham is 100 miles to the north via U.S. 280 or I-85/65; Montgomery is 50 miles to the east via I-85; and the Gulf beaches are about 200 miles away. The university enjoys the advantages of security, seclusion and clean air and water. Auburn is a clean city with a mild climate that offers many cultural opportunities.

AUBURN TRADITIONS

Auburn's Eagles

For over 100 years, eagles have been associated with Auburn University's football program. From a static presence on the sidelines to rousing flights over the field, WAR EAGLE has become an Auburn icon.

The role of Auburn University's eagles is to promote wildlife conservation as a part of the education initiatives of the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and the College of Veterinary Medicine's Southeastern Raptor Center. The USF&WS permits the Raptor Center to house eagles and use them on hundreds of educational presentations each year – including Auburn's home football games. Currently, three flighted eagles and numerous other non-releasable raptors are used for these educational programs. Eagles stir emotions in many people as they have come to symbolize strength, power and courage as well as other important values such as freedom, American heritage and the preservation of our environment. Golden Eagles Tiger (War Eagle VI), Nova (War Eagle VII) and Spirit (a Bald Eagle) are the eagles who have inspired football fans with their graceful flights over Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Auburn Fight Song

War...Eagle, fly down the field,
Ever to conquer, never to yield.
War...Eagle fearless and true.
Fight on, you orange and blue.
Go! Go! Go!
On to vic'try, strike up the band,
Give 'em hell, give 'em hell.
Stand up and yell,
Hey! War...Eagle, win for Auburn,
Power of Dixie Land!

"WAR EAGLE"

Auburn's battle cry, not Auburn's nickname. There are several legends concerning the origin of the War Eagle battle cry, dating back to 1864 and the Civil War at the Battle of the Wilderness in Virginia.

Auburn Alma Mater

On the rolling plains of Dixie
‘Neath its sun-kissed sky,
Proudly stands, our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we’ll sing thy praise,
From hearts that love so true,
And pledge to thee our
Loyalty the ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Hear thy student voices swelling,
Echoes strong and clear,
Adding laurels to thy fame
Enshrined so dear.

From thy hallowed halls we’ll part,
And bid thee sad adieu;
Thy sacred trust we’ll bear with us
The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Auburn Creed

I believe that this is a practical world and that I can count only on what I earn. Therefore, I believe in work, hard work.

I believe in education, which gives me the knowledge to work wisely and trains my mind and my hands to work skillfully.

I believe in honesty and truthfulness, without which I cannot win the respect and confidence of my fellow men.

I believe in a sound mind, in a sound body and a spirit that is not afraid, and in clean sports to develop these qualities.

I believe in obedience to law because it protects the rights of all.

I believe in the human touch, which cultivates sympathy with my fellow men and mutual helpfulness and brings happiness for all.

I believe in my Country, because it is a land of freedom and because it is my own home, and that I can best serve that country by “doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with my God.”

And because Auburn men and women believe in these things, I believe in Auburn and love it.

Auburn Director of Athletics Jay Jacobs has a vision of leading Auburn Athletics to becoming the nation's pre-eminent Athletics Department.

In his tenure at the helm of the Tigers' program, the department has prospered athletically, academically and financially.

Under Jacobs' leadership, Auburn Athletics has made major strides benefiting Auburn student-athletes, coaches and fans. The department has focused on five strategic goals under his leadership: Winning, graduating student-athletes, managing the department's fiscal affairs, complying with SEC and NCAA rules and providing a positive game day experience.

The Auburn Athletic Department has consistently ranked in the top 10 percent of the NACDA Directors Cup and has claimed eight national championships under Jacobs, including a school-record four titles in 2005-06, along with 15 Southeastern Conference titles.

Department, including a lucrative contract with Under Armour Performance Apparel, which was extended in 2009, and a nine-year extension with multimedia rights holder ISP Sports.

During Jacobs' tenure, Auburn has also moved forward with numerous facility projects designed to benefit Tiger athletic programs and their fans, most notably, the construction of the $92.5 million state-of-the-art Auburn Arena and basketball practice facility opened prior to the 2010-11 season. The most recent facilities upgrade was a $16 million multipurpose 100-yard indoor practice facility that allows Auburn teams to practice indoors during inclement weather.

Jacobs was named Auburn's 14th Director of Athletics on Dec. 22, 2004, after working in almost every area of the Auburn Athletic Department for the previous 20 years.
