Auburn Visits Florida State for Seminole Invitational

The Auburn men's and women's track and field teams compete in their third meet of the outdoor season when the Tigers compete at the Seminole Invitational hosted by Florida State this Friday and Saturday (April 8-9).

Friday's action consists of four field events and four distance races, beginning at 4 p.m. ET. Saturday's field events start at 10 a.m. ET, while running events begin at 1 p.m. ET. The meet is scheduled to conclude at approximately 5 p.m. ET.

Sizing Up the Competition

The Seminole Invitational will include a limited number of teams, but the competition will still be tough. The host Seminoles have the nation's No. 4-ranked men's team, while the women are ranked eighth. Georgia Tech is also slated to compete, as are teams from Coastal Carolina, Georgia Southern and Samford, among others.

Recapping the Tiger Track Classic

Auburn won seven event titles and had the top collegiate mark in three others as the Tigers hosted the Tiger Track Classic last Friday and Saturday at Hutsell-Rosen Track.

On the men's side, Auburn had the top two finishers in the 100 meters in a near dead heat. Keenan Brock won with a time of 10.21 seconds, while Harry Adams was a close second, also in 10.21 seconds. Their times rank sixth and seventh in Auburn history. In the 4x100m relay, Stephen Fly, Adams, Clay Porter and Brock won with a time of 40.17 seconds. Stephen Saenz won the discus for the second weekend in a row with a top throw of 52.84 meters (173-4) to edge Mke Schallmo of Duke by one inch. In the final event of the evening, Ben Cheruyot won the men's 3,000 meters, breaking the facility record with a time of 8:09.10. DJ Smith was second overall but first among collegians in the men's high jump, clearing 2.18 meters (7-1.75) for the second straight week.

For the women, Auburn cruised to victory in the 4x100-meter relay, as the team of Joanna Atkins, Sheniqua Ferguson, Kai Selvon and Nivea Smith clocked a time of 43.80 seconds that ranks seventh in school history. The Tigers also won the 4x400-meter relay, with the team of Atkins, Smith, Ferguson and Selvon posting a time of 3:38.82. Holly Knight breezed to an easy victory in the 1500 meters, recording a time of 4:26.68 that ranks seventh in Auburn outdoor history. She finished nearly 10 seconds ahead of her nearest competitor. In the high jump, Maya Pressley was second overall and first among collegians with a leap of 1.75 meters (5-8.75). Cache Armbrister finished third overall but first among collegiate runners in the 400 meters, recording a time of 54.41 seconds.

National Rankings

The Auburn women are ranked 12th and the men are 16th in the April 5 Top 25 rankings published by the United States Track and Field and Cross Country Coaches Association. The rankings were determined based on a combination of marks from this season plus marks from last season by returning student-athletes for each school.

Freshman Honored

True freshman Keenan Brock was named the SEC Freshman of the Week following his performance at the Tiger Track Classic April 2. Brock won the 100 meters with a time of 10.21 seconds that ranks third in the NCAA this year and is the top mark among wind-legal marks with a wind of +2.0 or less. His time also ranks sixth in Auburn history. In addition, he anchored Auburn's winning 4x100-meter relay team that posted the 18th-ranked time in the NCAA this year.

Qualification Process for Outdoor Championships

The 2011 outdoor season will be the second season to utilize the new qualification process for the NCAA Outdoor Championships. The regional qualification marks that individuals and relays had strived to achieve in previous seasons are no longer part of the process. Instead, Auburn athletes will simply be trying to earn marks that will rank them in the top 48 of the East region (top 24 for relays) at the end of the regular season to qualify for the NCAA East Preliminary Round of the NCAA Championships.

Recapping the 2011 NCAA Indoor Championships

The Auburn men's team finished tied for 20th and the women tied for 57th at the NCAA Indoor Track and Field Championships, with six athletes earning All-American honors.

All 11 points for the men's team came in the shot put, where senior Eric Werskey finished third and redshirt freshman Stephen Saenz placed fourth, as both earned First Team All-American honors. Werskey topped his personal best twice, including a mark of 19.64 meters (64-5.25) that was just two inches shy of the school record. Saenz recorded a mark of 19.32 meters (63-4.75) on his sixth and final attempt. It marked the 17th straight year that Auburn had at least one All-American at the NCAA Indoor Championships. The Tigers' only other competitor, Harry Adams, was charged with a false start in the 60 meters, disqualifying him from the competition.

The women's team had four athletes garner All-American honors, including one first-team honor. Sophomore Maya Pressley earned the first-team recognition after finishing eighth in the high jump with a leap of 1.81 meters (5-11.25) to earn one team point for the Tigers. In the 200 meters, junior Nivea Smith finished 10th with a season-best time of 23.21 seconds, while senior Sheniqua Ferguson was 13th in 23.50 seconds, earning both Second Team All-America status. Ferguson also competed in the 60 meters, placing 17th in 7.38 seconds. Senior Holly Knight also received Second Team All-America honors after placing 12th in the 5,000 meters with a time of 16:22.14. Senior Joanna Atkins, who had qualified for the meet in the 400 meters, was unable to compete due to injury.

Top 48 Tigers

The following Tigers are ranked in the top 48 of the East Region. Athletes ranked in the top 48 of the region (top 24 for relays) at the conclusion of the regular season are eligible for the Preliminary Round of the NCAA Championships. The exception is in the multi-events where top 24 nationally advance directly to the championships.

Top SEC Freshman

Stephen Saenz was named the SEC Freshmen Men's Field Athlete of the Year on March 7. Saenz earned the award for being the top-ranked freshman in the nation in the shot put, and having reached the NCAA automatic qualifying mark in that event three times. He finished third in the shot put at the SEC indoor championships, and has twice been named the SEC Men's Freshman of the Week this year.

Back-to-Back Records

Senior Holly Knight pulled off a rare feat in February, breaking two school records that had stood for years in consecutive weekends. First she broke a 20-year-old record in the 3,000 meters on Feb. 4 at the GaREAT Invitational in Geneva, Ohio, clocking a time of 9:20.56. One week later at the Flotrack Husky Invitational in Washington, she broke a 15-year-old school record in the 5,000 meters with a time of 16:04.86.

Auburn All-Americans

Auburn has 17 track and field and/or cross country All-Americans currently on the 2011 roster - nine on the men's side and eight from the women's team. From the men's team, Marcus Rowland leads the team with six All-American honors, collecting three in each of his first two seasons. Michael DeHaven is next with four All-American awards. Harry Adams, Stephen Fly, Ryan Fleck and Eric Werskey have two honors each, while Ben Cheruiyot, Neil Danville and Stephen Saenz all have one award.

The women are led by two NCAA Champions: Joanna Atkins and Sheniqua Ferguson, who have both earned six career All-American awards. Nivea Smith has won three All-American honors, as has Holly Knight, who earned two in track and one in cross country. Cache Armbrister has won two, while Maya Pressley, Kai Selvon and CeCe Williams have one All-American award each.

Record Holders on the Roster

Three members of the Auburn teams own school records - all coming during the indoor seasons - with Holly Knight claiming two records. Auburn's record holders include:
