The men's team posted four regional qualifying marks while also competing at both the Texas Relays and the Seminole Invitational last weekend. All four of the marks came at the Texas Relays, although just three men made the trip. Ty Akins posted a new personal best in the 110m hurdles, finishing third in the finals with a time of 13.76 seconds, which ranks him fourth in Auburn outdoor history. Reuben McCoy took fifth in the finals of the 400m hurdles with a time of 50.84, which ranks seventh in the NCAA this season. Tavaris Washington qualified in two events, reaching the finals of the 400m hurdles with a time of 51.52 seconds in the prelims, and posting a mark of :14.21 in the prelims of the 110m hurdles.

Records Continue To Fall

Auburn set two more new school records during the Texas Relays April 6-8, bringing the list of records set this season to five. Ronda Gullatte broke Stacy Martin's record in the hammer throw with a mark of 58.95m (193-5), and the women's 4x400m relay team of Josanne Lucas, Kerron Stewart, Tamara Thomas and Markita James set a new school mark with a time of 3:28.47.

Long-Time Records Fall

Two long-standing school records fell on the same day as new Auburn records were set March 31 in both the men's and women's 10,000m at the Stanford Invitational.

Andrew Heath broke the men's record with a time of 28:55.48, just breaking the previous record of 28:55.54 set by Terry Baker in 1977. Baker's record was one of three that still stood from the 1977 season that were the oldest in the books at Auburn. Heath's time was also a provisional qualifying mark.

Angela Homan put her name at the top of the women's list by clocking a time of 33:25.40 while finishing ninth and automatically qualifying for the NCAA Outdoor Championships. Homan broke the 10-year-old school record of 33:26.91 set by Rachel Sauder in 1996.

James Ranks Among World Elite

At the Yellow Jacket Invitational April 1, Markita James not only broke the school record with a time of :55.40, but she also ran what was then the fastest time by an American and the fastest time by a collegian this season. James' time, which broke teammate Josanne Lucas' record of 55.59 seconds set last year, still ranks her seventh in the world and second among Americans this season.

Nationally Ranked

The Auburn women are ranked ninth in the latest installment of the Trackwire 25 which was released on trackwire.com April 10. The men's team, which is redshirting some of its top performers, dropped out of the rankings. The women's team was ranked seventh in the first rankings released April 3.

Tigers Excel At NCAA Indoor Meet Again

The Auburn women's team finished tied for eighth at the NCAA Indoor Championships, marking the third time in the last four years Auburn placed in the top 10 at the national meet. The men tied for 19th, giving the Auburn men four straight top-20 finishes at the indoor championships.

All-Americans Abound

Seven different Tigers earned All-American honors at the NCAA Indoor Championships, led by a school record-tying three by Kerron Stewart, who earned All-American honors in the 60m, 200m and 4x400m relay. Stewart became just the fifth Auburn athlete, male or female, to earn three All-American honors at one NCAA indoor championship meet. Markita James earned All-American honors in both the 400m and the 4x400m relay for Auburn, while Angela Homan (5,000m), Josanne Lucas (4x400m relay) and Tamara Thomas (4x400m relay) also earned All-American status. For the men's team, Cory Martin and Jacob Dunkleberger both earned All-American honors in the weight throw.

Two Top-Five Finishes A Rarity

Cory Martin and Jacob Dunkleberger achieved a rare feat at the NCAA Indoor Championships. Martin finished third in the weight throw with a school-record mark of 22.89m, while Dunkleberger was fifth with a top throw of 22.17m. It marked the first time the Auburn men's team has had two top-five performers in one event at the NCAA Indoor Championships since 1989, when Alexander Wright and Clifton Campbell placed third and fifth, respectively, in the 200m.

Women Second, Men Eighth At SEC Indoor Championships

The Auburn women's team finished a close second at the SEC Indoor Championships, matching the team's best-ever finish while posting the highest point total in team history with 96 points. Auburn had four individual winners, including two victories by Kerron

Stewart, who won the 55m and the 200m. Stewart, who set a new school record in the 55m of 6.71 seconds, became Auburn's third ever double-winner at the SEC Indoor Championships. Auburn also swept the horizontal jumps, as Jovane Jarrett won the long jump and Michelle Vaughn won the triple jump. Angela Homan finished second in the 5000m and third in the 3000m and Markita James was second in the 400m.

The men's team finished eighth, but still had some solid individual performances. Cory Martin repeated as SEC indoor champion in the weight throw, breaking his own school record with a mark of 22.24m (72-11.75). Ty Akins finished a close second in the 55m hurdles with a provisional qualifying time of 7.25. Jacob Dunkleberger finished fourth in the shot put with a provisional mark of 18.18m, while Reuben McCoy finished fifth in the 400m with a provisional time of 47.61.

Commissioner's Trophy

Kerron Stewart was awarded the Commissioner's Trophy at the SEC Indoor Championships for being the highest female point scorer (22 points). Stewart won the 55m and the 200m while also running on the second-place 4x400m relay team. Stewart became just the second Auburn woman to be the top point scorer at the SEC meet, joining Elva Goulbourne, who scored 28 points at the 2003 meet.

Impressive Feat

The second-place showing for the Auburn women's team at the SEC Indoor Championships is even more impressive when one considers the number of athletes that Auburn had participating in Gainesville. In the 15 individual events excluding the two relays, Auburn had a total of 25 entrants. Georgia, which won the team title, was able to field 45 entrants in those 15 events. In fact, every team in the top eight had more entrants than Auburn, yet the Tigers still managed to finish second, just 5.5 points behind Georgia for first and at least 17.5 points ahead of every other team.

Up Next

Auburn will host the Auburn Invitational April 22 at Hutsell-Rosen Track.
