FSN SOUTH AND SPORTSOUTH TO TELEVISION SEC MEN'S HOOPS PREVIEW SHOWS

Local SEC Teams Featured in Individual 30-Minute Season Preview Specials

FSN South and SportSouth will televise a series of 30-minute men's basketball preview shows spotlighting all 12 member institutions of the Southeastern Conference. Specifically produced for each school, all 12 SEC men's basketball preview shows will be televised on FSN South and SportSouth throughout the month of November. See attached schedule.

Shot on location at each school campus, the SEC men's hoops preview shows provide an in-depth review of the 2006-07 season, a look ahead at the 2007-08 schedule and a round up of the SEC's Eastern and Western Divisions. In addition, the preview shows feature exclusive interviews with each school's head coach and a key player including:

Alabama – Richard Hendrix
Arkansas – Patrick Beverley
Auburn – Korvotney Barber
Florida – Walter Hodge, Marreese Speights, Jonathan Mitchell and Dan Wern
Georgia – Sundiata Gaines
Kentucky – Ramel Bradley
LSU – Tasmin Mitchell
Ole Miss – Jermy Parnell
Mississippi State – Barry Stewart
South Carolina – Devan Downey
Tennessee – JP Price
Vanderbilt – Alex Gordon

Nine of the 12 SEC basketball preview shows on FSN South and SportSouth – Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi State, Ole Miss, South Carolina, Tennessee and Vanderbilt – are hosted by Natalie Taylor and include analysis and insight from reporter Dave Neal and SEC basketball analysts Tom Werme and Barry Booker. Also scheduled to be televised by FSN South and SportSouth, the Arkansas, Florida and LSU basketball preview shows were produced by other FSN regional networks.

FSN South, the nation's largest regional sports network, reaches more than 12 million homes in seven states in the Southeast. SportSouth reaches 9 million cable and satellite subscribers across a six-state region. Through its affiliates and other Fox Networks Group-owned networks, FSN reaches more than 82 million homes through 22 regional networks. Headquartered in Los Angeles, FSN owned or affiliated regional sports networks serve as the TV home to 64 of the 82 MLB, NHL and NBA teams based in the United States.
