Tiger Headlines

Auburn is traveling to Athens, Ga., for the 2006 Women's NCAA Swimming and Diving Championships, which begin on Thursday, March 16, and run through Saturday, March 18 ... The Tigers are in search of their fourth NCAA title in five years ... The Tigers won their first NCAA Championship in 2002 at Texas and followed that up with wins in 2003 at Auburn and 2004 at Texas A&M ... Auburn finished second at the SEC Championships behind Georgia by 19 points last month ... Auburn finished the season ranked No. 2 in the CSCAA Dual Meet Poll, behind Georgia ... David Marsh is in his 16th season with the Tigers, owning a 106-17 (.862) dual meet record with three NCAA (2002, 2003, 2004) titles and three SEC crowns ... The Tigers finished the dual meet season 9-0 and earned their ninth undefeated season at home ... This is the second time Georgia has hosted the women's national event.

ished the dual meet season 9-0 and earned their ninth undefeated season at home ... This is the second time Georgia has hosted the women's national event.

Auburn at the NCAA Championships

The Tigers are in search of their fourth NCAA title in five years as AU captured three straight from 2002 to 2004. If this feat is accomplished, AU would join just three other school's that have posted four or more national championship victories - Georgia (4), Texas (7) and Stanford (8). Last year AU finished second behind Georgia in West Lafayette, Ind., by 117.5 points. Over the past six seasons, the Tigers have finished in the top five at NAAs every year. Since 1999, only two school's have been victorious at the national level - Auburn and Georgia.

Even though this year's squad boasts no individual national champions, 295 of the 492 (60 percent) points scored at last year's NAAs come from 13 All-American members that return this season. These 13 women have combined to earn 59 All-American honors during their careers on the Plains. Jana Kolukanova leads this group with 12 All-American honors and four top three finishes (three of which were with relays).

Auburn secured a program-best 63 All-America honors at the 2004 championships and was third all-time last season with 53 honors from 15 athletes. Of those 53 All-American honors, 35 are on this season's NCAA team. Auburn has had at least 45 All-America honors every year since the 2002 meet.

The Last Time

The last time Georgia hosted an NCAA Women's Championship was 1999. The Bulldogs also welcomed the men's championships to the Gabrielsen Natatorium in 2002 (AU men won that title). In 1999, AU's women finished 11th but earned 31 All-America honors from 10 individuals, including Mimi Bowen, Rada Owen and Katie Taylor. Georgia won its first of three straight in 1999 when the team put up 504.5 points.

For the Record

Tiger women hold NCAA (short course yards) records in one individual event and two relays. Former AU star Maggie Bowen set the 200 IM record on March 21, 2002, at the NCAA Championships with a winning time of 1:53.91. At the 2003 championships, AU women posted NCAA records in both medley relays. Jenni Anderson, Laura Swander, Margaret Hoelzer and Becky Short swam 1:36.69 to win the 200 MR. Kirsty Coventry, Maggie Bowen, Margaret Hoelzer and Becky Short posted the collegiate mark in the 400 MR - 3:31.45.

AU Places Second at SEC Championship

After a three year run as the SEC Champion, the Auburn women finished just 19 points behind Georgia at this year's championship, for the team's 10th straight top three finish. The point differential was the third lowest in the history of the conference meet. Three AU women earned individual titles - Rachel Goh (100 back), Hayley Peirsol (1650 free) and Julie Stupp (400 IM). The women's 400 medley relay of Goh, Stupp, Tawnie Bethune and Emily Kukors took the win with a then-national leading time of 3:36.33.

Emily Kukors led scoring effort on the AU team with 111.5 points which included three runner-up finishes - 100 free, 200 free and 200 IM - and four relay appearances (three in the anchor position). She was followed by newcomer Rachel Goh with 94 points. Goh was the SEC Champion in the 100 back and finished third in the 200 back. She also competed in the 50 free and with three relay's (all in the leadoff role).

Seven freshmen served as scorer's at the league meet and accounted for 327.5 of the 1075 total points. Goh posted the most of the group with 94 and was followed by Margo McCawley with 81.5 points.

ESPN2 Coverage of NCAA Championship

The 2006 Women's Swimming and Diving Championships will be produced by ESPN with the first air date set for March 24 at 4 p.m. ET on ESPN2. Former AU swimmer Rowdy Gaines will serve as the swimming analyst and Cynthia Potter will cover diving.

Tigers Finish Second in CSCAA Poll

The women concluded the season No. 2 in the CSCAA poll with 193 points and one first-place vote. Georgia, who was ranked ahead of Auburn all season, ended with 199 points and seven first-place votes. During the season, Auburn competed against eight teams that concluded the season in the top-25 CSCAA poll.

'A' Notch Above the Rest

The Tigers qualified a total of 13 swimmers automatically by hitting NCAA 'A' standards. Combined, they have earned 22 individual slots. Adrienne Binder, Emily Kukors and Julie Stupp led the way with three automatic times each. [Note - and individual can only swim in three individual events.]

Way to 'B'

Along with 22 automatic times, the Tigers clocked an astounding 40 NCAA 'B' cuts. Six AU women have provisional times in three events - Anne Amardeilh, Kara Denby, Emile Ewing, Chelsea Haser, Kristen Hastrup and Margo McCawley.

Saying Farewell

The 2006 NCAA meet marks the final competition for four Auburn seniors (Lauren Duerk, Jana Kolukanova, Jeri Moss, Erin Volcan). During their four-year careers, the Tigers have won 29 dual meets against just one loss, have won three SEC and two NCAA team titles. Talled together by individual accomplishments, this class has earned 28 All-American honors.

Freshmen Make Impact

Tiger freshmen have made an impact in just their first year on the Plains. At least one newcomer is listed on the Auburn seasonal top times list in every event including relays. At the SEC Championships, AU newcomers turned in 327.5 (30 percent) of AU's 1075 points [see box to left for breakdown]. The group includes two-time SEC Champion Rachel Goh.

Saving Your Best

Of the 24 athletes that competed at the SEC Championships, 11 of them had a best time in at least one event. Emile Ewing and Julie Stupp outdid the rest as each of them posted career-best times in all three individual events that they swam. In total, there were 22 career-best's performed at the meet.

Success in the Conference

The Auburn women's swimming and diving team has been dominant in the SEC since coach David Marsh's arrival on the Plains in 1990. Besides winning three of the last four SEC Championships, the Tigers have managed to put together an impressive 52-11 (.825) record inside the SEC since the 1990-91 season, Marsh's first. Since the 1996-97 the Tigers have only lost once to an SEC opponent (dual meets) - that came on Nov. 12, 2004, to No. 1 Georgia (138-105).

Diving Duo Advances to NAAs

For the first time in Auburn history, two female divers will represent AU at the NCAA Championships. Freshman Corey Gerlach and Lynnsey Segraves qualified for the championships after their performances at the Zone B Diving Championship. Even more impressive - Gerlach is the first freshman female diver to make the NCAA squad.

'0' So Happy

The AU women closed out the dual meet season 9-0, which included wins over then-ranked #5 Florida, #14 Penn State, #15 Indiana, #17 Florida State and #18 Virginia. The double dual victory over FSU and Arkansas to conclude the season (Jan. 28), marked the ninth undefeated season at the James E. Martin Aquatics Center.

Return Rate

Of Auburn's 47 swims that counted in prelims at the SEC Championships, 45 of them returned to swim in the night session, an amazing 98 percent return rate.

Best of All Time

Of the 14 events that make up the Auburn all-time list, four of them have a current Tiger holding the top time. Junior Adrienne Binder owns three of those records (500 free - 4:40.86, 1000 free - 9:38.12, 1650 free - 15:50.00) while classmate Tawnie Bethune is the record holder in the 200 fly (1:55.53).

Auburn - Home of Champions

For five consecutive years the Auburn women have had at least two women capture individual event (non-relay) NCAA titles. In 2003, the Tigers had three individual event champions and won four of five relays. Last season, Kirsty Coventry won three individual events (200 IM, 400 IM, 200 back) and Margaret Hoelzer was the 200 free champion.

Game On

According to the official psyche sheet, the Tigers are in position to finish second behind Georgia by 117.5 points. Last year, the official psyche sheet had Auburn winning by 11 points over Georgia - in the end UGA defeated AU by 117.5 points (coincidentally the same amount the psyche sheet says UGA will win by this year). By calculating their current positions, the top five teams in the final CSCAA poll would finish in this order:

5. Florida	103
4. Stanford	131
3. California	281
2. Auburn	333.5
1. Georgia	451

Keeping it in the Family

Auburn has pieced together a very strong tradition of winning, and that has translated over into multiple defenses of titles at the SEC Championships. This past year, the Tigers successfully defended their conference titles in the 1650 free (three straight years), 100 back (five straight years) and the 400 IM (seven consecutive years).

Passing the Torch

The Tigers have claimed the NCAA title in the 200 free during the last three championships. Margaret Hoelzer won back-to-back in 2004-2005 and Heather Kemp was the champion in 2003. Emily Kukors enters this years championship with the highest ranking on the psyche sheet as the sophomore is third in the 200 free.

Top Competitor

According to the official psyche sheet, the Tigers have the top competitor in just one individual event and no relays. However, AU has swimmers in the top three in three individual events and one relay.

400 IM - Julie Stupp

In comparison, Georgia owns the top time in four relays and five individual events.

Depth on Auburn's Side

Sixty-one team's received invites to the 2006 NCAA Championships. Of this group, Auburn was the only group that included a full team of 18. Georgia was second with 16, following by Arizona (15), Texas (13), Penn State, Cal-Berkeley and SMU (12 each). The SEC produced the most qualifiers - 67 - followed by the Pac-10 (63) and Big 10 (57). Seventy-eight freshmen qualified for the meet, AU has six, versus just 60 sophomores (AU has four), seventy-seven juniors (AU has four) and sixty-six seniors (AU has four).

Back Attack

The backstroke continues to be a strength for the AU women as 11 women were included on the psyche sheet combined from both distances. Leading the back group is freshman Rachel Goh who is listed No. 2 in the 100 back and No. 13 in the 200.

Breakdown of All-time NCAA Titles

Auburn ranks fourth on the all-time titles list with three (2002-2004) and is one title shy of being tied for third with Georgia. Stanford owns the most NCAA titles with eight (the last title the Cardinals won was in 1998).

1. Stanford	8
2. Texas	7
3. Georgia	4
4. Auburn	3
5. Southern Cal	1
5. Florida	1

All Around All-Stars

The individual medley also happens to be one of Auburn's strengths again this year. Of Auburn's top-10 performers all-time in the 200 and 400 IM, five of them are current swimmers. Last year Kirsty Coventry swept the IM events at NCAAs and it marked the fourth time an Auburn swimmer has captured both IM titles. Maggie Bowen took the 200 and 400 IM's for three consecutive years (2001-2003). This year Emily Kukors is ranked No. 4 in the 200 IM and Julie Stupp is No. 1 in the 400 IM as the duo look to continue the Tigers success in the all-around of swimming.

Italics indicates person already has A cut time.

Making the Cut

Of all of Auburn's NCAA times, all but one AU athlete with a provisional time was invited to the championships. That particular 'B' cut was made after the official psyche sheet was released.

Tigers Well Represented on College Quick 100

Of the 13 individual events on the College Quick 100 provided Stu Corliss of Taper & Shave, at least one Auburn woman is listed in the top 15 of every event except the 100 fly (top person is ranked No. 16). In fact, of the 13 events AU has one athlete ranked in the top-five in five of them.

Hoelzer Takes Trio of Titles at American Short Course

Former AU swimmer Margaret Hoelzer walked away from the three-day American Short Course Championships with a trio of titles under her belt. Hoelzer claimed the 100 fly and swept the backstroke events in Austin, Texas.

Binder Earns NCSW and SEC Honors

Junior Adrienne Binder was named one of six National Collegiate Swimmers of the Week and the SEC Female Athlete of the Week after her performance against No. 4 Florida on Jan. 21. Binder won the distance events by putting up two NCAA 'A' qualifying times in both the 500 (4:43.81) and 1650 Free (15:56.41). She is Auburn's second athlete this season to earn his honor. Senior Jeri Moss was named a NCSW after the Virginia meet.

Home Sweet Home

The Tigers have enjoyed much success since the opening of the James E. Martin Aquatics Center in October 1993. Since the Tigers moved in, AU owns a 40-5 record, which includes the hosting of two SEC Championships (AU went 1-1 in those, placing second in 1994 and winning in 2003) and a NCAA Championship in 2003. AU has managed only one home loss in the past seven seasons, which includes the 2003 SEC and NCAA Championships. On Nov. 12 2004, Georgia narrowly defeated the Tiger women by 33 points. Prior to this, the last home defeat was on Jan. 8, 1999, when Stanford defeated AU, 171-129. In total, AU has had nine undefeated seasons at home.

Bousquet and Hoelzer Tally a Combined Six Medals at World Cup

Former Tiger swimming stars Fred Bousquet and Margaret Hoelzer combined to bring home six medals from New York at the FINA World Cup on Feb. 3-4. Bousquet took the 50m free title and Hoelzer claimed gold in the 100m and 200m back's.

Christmas in the Caribbean

The Auburn swim team traveled to Nassau, Bahamas, after Christmas for a week-long training session.

Tigers Take Chlorine Bowl

Auburn swimming concluded the 2005 dual meet season on Nov. 18 against Alabama. AU defeated the Crimson Tide, 144.5-91, to remain undefeated this season. Junior Hayley Peirsol picked up Auburn's second 'A' cut of the season in the 500 free (4:45.33) after swimming back-to-back events. In diving action, newcomer Corey Lynn Gerlach turned in a new Auburn record on the 3-meter with a personal best score of 333.30.

3-meter Record Falls at Florida

Corey Lynn Gerlach broke her own AU record on 3-meter at the Florida dual meet. The freshman bettered her record by 10 points and took the win - 344.03

Welcome to The Plains

The AU women's team welcomed freshman Rachel Goh, who joined the Tigers after the New Year. The Melbourne, Australia, native joins the Tigers after a brief stint at Monash University in Australia.

Marsh Earns Centennial Victory in Baton Rouge

Not only did AU head coach David Marsh lead the women to its third victory of the season at LSU, but it also marked his 100th win on the women's side. Auburn's women defeated LSU in Baton Rouge, La., 135-101, to give Marsh this landmark victory.

Coventry and Hoelzer Pick Up Individual Wins at FINA World Cup

At the Sydney Olympic Park and Aquatics Center, former Tigers Kirsty Coventry and Margaret Hoelzer swam to individual victories at the FINA World Cup 2 in Australia, in the 200 IM and 200 back (short-course), respectively.

Hoelzer Selected to 2006 U.S. World Champ. Team

Former Auburn National Champion Margaret Hoelzer was selected to represent the United States at the 2006 Short Course World Championships in China. Twelve Olympians (including Hoelzer) will lead a strong contingent of U.S. swimmers at the FINA World Championships (25m), April 5-9, in Shanghai, China. The squad boasts a collective 142 medals from previous international competition.

Duo of Tiger Women on National A Team

Current AU junior Hayley Peirsol was named to the National A Team in the 800 free after turning in stellar performances during the summer season, including picking up two World University Game medals in the distance events. Former AU great Margaret Hoelzer was also named to the A team (200 back) after winning silver in the event at the World Championships this past July and gold just a week later at the second annual Duel in the Pool.

The Assistants

Auburn swimming and diving welcomed the addition of Dorsey-Tierney Walker and Brian Barnes to the coaching staff after last season. Tierney-Walker will be serving as the co-women's head coach and Barnes will be an assistant working with both the men and women. Both Tierney-Walker and Barnes come to the Plains from Indiana.

Top Scorer's Return

The Tiger women return 10 NCAA qualifiers, seven of which were scorer's, from the 2005 NCAA Runner-up and SEC Champion team. Gone from the mix are Jenni Anderson, Kirsty Coventry and Margaret Hoelzer.

Leading the Way

Senior Erin Volcan and junior Anne Amardeilh are the captains for the 2005-06 squad.

Fresh Faces

The Tigers added 16 newcomers to the mix this season; one of the largest incoming freshman classes in the Marsh era. The group hales from 13 different states and three foreign countries (Australia, Bahamas, Guatemala).

Seeing Double

Eight total medals were won at the 2005 World University Games (Izmir, Turkey) and three athletes won double medals. Junior Hayley Peirsol took gold in the 1500 free in WUG record time and silver in the 800 free. Former All-American Demerae Christianson also won two medals - gold with the US 400 free relay team and bronze in the 100 fly. Current junior Anne Amardeilh also competed at the WUG for France.

Crossing the Border

At this summer's 2005 World Championships in Canada, Auburn had nine current or former athletes competing. Two of Auburn's best ever female swimmers brought back medals as Kirsty Coventry collected two gold and two silver and Margaret Hoelzer won silver. Other AU women competing were current senior's Jana Kolukanova (Estonia) and Jeri Moss.

Interview Policies

Coach Marsh, his assistants and all swimmers and divers are available for phone and personal interviews by contacting Carol White in the media relations office at 334-844-9182. Post-meet interviews will be allowed following the 10-minute cooling-off period.
