'THREE MORE DAYS'

» After bowing out of the Women's College World Series gracefully last season, the Tigers were determined to get back to the big stage in 2016. With its 3-2, nine inning loss, to top-ranked Florida in the semifinal round, Auburn was just three days away from competing in the national championship series. Now, the Tigers look to go three more days in 2016 and reach a pinnacle never before seen in Auburn softball history.

TIGERS IN THE POLLS

» Auburn remained at No. 3 in the polls following a 3-2 week with wins over Tennessee State (2x) and going 1-2 vs. Florida.

» The No. 3 ranking matches last years for the highest ranking in program history.

ALL-AMERICAN LINEUP

» Emily Carosone, Kasey Cooper and Tiffany Howard were each named to the 2016 Preseason All-SEC team prior to the season. All three players are coming off stellar seasons that included All-American, All-Region and All-SEC selections.

» Carosone batted .438 last season to lead the team, which was also a new career-high and the second highest average in a season by an Auburn player.

» The Orlando-native had 85 hits with 88 runs scored, 18 doubles, 18 home runs and 80 RBI. Her 88 runs scored set a new Auburn single-season record and was the second-most in a season by an SEC player. She also set the new Auburn single-season record for RBI, breaking the record set by former All-American Branndi Melero back in 2014.

» As for Kasey Cooper, the now-junior has put together arguably two of the best seasons in Auburn softball history.

» Last year, Cooper played in 64 games at third-base, batting .391 with 75 hits, 18 home runs and 64 RBI. That batting average was good for third-best on the team, while the home run total tied for second-most, setting a new personal-best for home runs in a single season. She also had 14 doubles equaling a .745 slugging percentage, finishing just behind Carosone in the category.

» Finally, Tiffany Howard is entering 2016 as one of Auburn's best hitters after helping the Tigers to a Women's College World Series run. As Auburn's everyday left fielder last year, Howard started all 67 games and batted .415, which was the second-highest average on the team.

» She ended the year with a team-high 86 hits, 72 runs scored, seven doubles, six triples and 25 RBI. All of those totals were new career-highs.

COOPER AND CAROSONE NAMED TO TOP 50 WATCH LIST

» Auburn softball will have two representatives on the Top 50 Watch List for the 2016 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award, announced by ASA/USA Softball. Senior Emily Carosone and junior Kasey Cooper, who are both coming off All-American seasons, will represent the Tigers on the prestigious list.

2015 RECAP

» The Tigers won 56 games in 2015, a new program-record and went on to garner a national seed in the NCAA Tournament, holding home field advantage throughout. Auburn went on to reach the semifinals of the Women's College World Series and finishing third in the final national polls.

» This year, Auburn returns 15 starters from a year ago, including all of its infielders, catchers and pitchers. Of those returning are its three All-Americans: Tiffany Howard, Emily Carosone and Kasey Cooper. Carosone and Cooper are both two-time All-Americans, the first in Auburn history.

'STRIKE OUT HUNGER'

» All this season at Jane B. Moore Field, the Auburn softball team will be hosting the "Strike Out Hunger" food drive to support the community and the Food Bank of East Alabama.

» Each person who brings a nonperishable food donation to any Auburn Softball home game will receive a $1 beverage coupon to use at the concession stands at Jane B. Moore Field.

» Donated food is channeled into the senior programs, soup kitchens, low-income day cares, emergency food pantries, missions, and rehabilitation centers that are served by the Food Bank.

» Through four weeks Auburn has raised 2,525 pounds of food.

CLINT MYERS » HEAD COACH

Clint Myers, who led Arizona State to two NCAA Championships, was named Auburn softball's second head coach in program history on June 14, 2013. In eight years at the helm of the Sun Devil program, Myers took seven trips to the Women's College World Series. Most recently, he made his eighth trip to the WCWS, taking Auburn for the first time in program history in 2015.

In just his second season as the head Tiger, Myers guided the Auburn program to a record 56 wins and its first Women's College World Series appearance. It was a season of firsts for the Tigers as the team won its first NCAA Regional, first NCAA Super Regional and two games in its first WCWS.

Myers did it all in just year two on The Plains, setting records offensively in batting average (.339), runs (526), hits (606), home runs (99) and RBI (474). He also helped set records in attendance at Jane B. Moore Field. Over 36,000 fans attended Auburn softball games in 2015, including a season-high 2,006 that came out for the series finale against Alabama.

Emily Carosone, Kasey Cooper and Tiffany Howard were named NFCA All-Americans in 2015. Cooper and Carosone were named to the first team, while Howard made the third team for her first career All-American honor. In just two seasons under Myers, Auburn has had four players given All-American status; Carosone and Cooper became Auburn's first two-time All-Americans.

In 2014, his first with the Tigers, Myers led the team to 42 wins and only totaled 19 losses, tying for the second-most wins in one year in Auburn softball history. The team returned to the SEC Tournament after a one-year hiatus and the NCAA Tournament reaching the Minneapolis Regional final against No. 14 Minnesota. Auburn took the Golden Gophers to a deciding final game with the winner advancing to an NCAA Super Regional, something Auburn had never done.

Under Myers, Auburn's offense skyrocketed to some of its highest totals in program history. The total number of runs scored (440), home runs hit (83) and RBI (411) were the highest in any season in Auburn's history. The team batting average (.305) was also the highest in the last nine years.

As important as offense was to his philosophy, Myers also put major emphasis on defense. The nation took notice as AU's fielding percentage tied for the best in the country in 2013. The Tigers generated a .979 fielding percentage, tying with Kansas and standing only one one-thousandth of a percent higher than Florida and Oklahoma in 2014 (.978). Auburn turned 38 double-plays that year, most in the SEC and second-most in the country.

Myers captained the Sun Devils to national titles in 2008 and 2011, and made the trip to Oklahoma City seven times in eight years. In his only miss of the WCWS, he took ASU to an NCAA Super Regional. Under his guidance, ASU has averaged 53 wins per season, including 60-plus wins twice. He became the third coach in Sun Devil softball history to amass 400 victories.

"I am very excited to begin what I expect to be a challenging, rewarding and fulfilling life change with my move to become the Head Softball Coach at Auburn University," Myers said. "This opportunity to coach with my family and to become part of what I feel is a total community family in the town of Auburn was one I absolutely could not pass up. Thank you for giving me and my family this "Alabama Adventure". We hope that you will enjoy the ride with us for years to come."

The Bismarck, N.D., native has also led his teams to great success off the field, twice being honored in the top 10 percent in APR scores among NCAA softball teams. ASU softball was recognized for the four-year cohort ending in 2010-11 and 2009-10, with a 2011 compiled score of 998.

"When we began our search for a new softball coach, the goal was to find a proven winner who could help us compete for championships," Director of Athletics Jay Jacobs said. "We could not have found a coach who better fits that criteria than Clint Myers, who has consistently reached the pinnacle of success in college softball. Anytime you can hire a coach who has won two National Championships and been to the Women's College World Series seven out of eight years, it's obviously a huge win for your program. No less important is the fact that Coach Myers' student-athletes have also been consistent winners in the classroom. I am delighted to welcome Coach Myers and his wife, Katie, to the Auburn family."

Prior to his stint at ASU, Myers spent 19 highly successful years coaching Central Arizona College's baseball and softball teams. From 1996-2005, he was the head baseball coach where he took the Vaqueros' to the Junior College World Series twice, winning the NJCAA National Championship in 2002. Myers posted a 406-192 record (.678 winning pct.) at Central Arizona College and earned the NJCAA Coach of the Year award in 2002.

From 1987-95, Myers built a record of 481-43 (.917 winning pct.) as the skipper of the softball team. With softball, he won six national titles including a string of five straight from 1988-1992. He was named the NJCAA national coach of the year on six occasions. Myers was also selected as the National Softball Coaches Association (NSCA) regional and National Coach of the Year in 1990, 1991 and 1992.

Myers was inducted into the NJCAA Softball Hall of Fame in 1998 and the Arizona Softball Foundation Hall of Fame in 2001.

A 1976 graduate of Arizona State, Myers was a member of the Sun Devil baseball team from 1970-73 and played on the College World Series runner-up squads in 1972 and 1973. He was later selected by the St. Louis Cardinals in the third round of the 1973 Major League Draft.

Myers and his wife, Katie, have two sons, Casey and Corey. They also have three grandchildren; grandsons, Cole and Christian, and granddaughter, Carlee.
