MEN'S SWIMMING & DIVING

#3 AUBURN TIGERS AT THE NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS

MARCH 15-17

UNIVERSITY AQUATIC CENTER • MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

What's Ahead

Auburn travels to Minneapolis, Minn., for the 2007 NCAA Swimming & Diving Championships March 15-17. Prelims begin at noon each day with finals starting at 7 p.m. All events will take place at the University Aquatic Center on the campus of the University of Minnesota.

Auburn at the NCAA Championships

Auburn is in search of its fifth consecutive NCAA title and seventh overall. The Tigers won their first NCAA title in 1997 in Minnesota and have also won at Indianapolis (1999), Texas (2002), New York (2004) and again in Minnesota (2005). Auburn's six titles is tied with Indiana for sixth-most in NCAA history, two behind Stanford for fifth. Auburn is seeking to become just the third school to win five or more consecutive NCAA swimming and diving titles, joining Michigan (1937-41) and Indiana (1968-73).

Last year Auburn defeated runner-up Arizona in Athens, Ga., by 40 points. Over the past 12 seasons, the Tigers have finished in the top three at the NAAs every year except 2001, when Auburn placed seventh.

The Tigers return the NCAA individual champion in the platform in Steven Segerlin, and three of the members of the winning 200 free relay return (Cesar Cielo, Matt Targett, Bryan Lundquist). Of the 480.5 points scored by Auburn last year, individuals accounting for 285 points (61.4 percent) are back this season. Twelve individuals who have combined for 41 All-American honors during their careers are back, led by Segerlin (eight All-American honors), Lundquist (five) and Cielo (five).

The 2006 championship team had 51 All-America honors from 16 athletes. Of those 51 honors, 32 are on this season's team. Auburn has had at least 50 All-America honors in each of its championship seasons.

Tiger Tidbits

Auburn successfully defended its Southeastern Conference title for the 11th straight season ... Auburn finished the season ranked No. 3 in the CSCAA Dual Meet Poll ... David Marsh is in his 17th season with the Tigers, owning a 106-19 (.848) dual meet record with six NCAA (1997, 1999, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006) titles and 11 straight (13 total) SEC crowns ... This is the sixth time Minnesota has hosted the men's national event, having previously hosted in 1937, 1994, 1997, 2000 and 2005. Auburn won national championships in 1997 and 2005, placed second in 2000 and was fourth in 1994.

History in Minnesota

The last time Minnesota hosted an NCAA Men's Championship was 2005, when Auburn rolled to a 77-point victory over runner-up Stanford. Fred Bousquet highlighted the meet by becoming the first person to go under 19 seconds in the 50 free, clocking a time of 18.74 seconds in the prelims before winning the final in 18.90. Matt Bricker was Auburn's other individual champion, taking the diving title on the platform.

Auburn won just one event title in 2000 (200 free relay), but in 1997, the Tigers took five titles, including four relays (200 free, 400 free, 200 medley and 400 medley). Current Auburn assistant Brett Hawke won the 50 free and also swam on the winning free relays and the first-place 200 medley relay team.

For the Record

Only one NCAA short course yards (SCY) record is held by an Auburn man - Fred Bousquet - in the 50 free. Bousquet turned in a world record 18.74 on March 24, 2005, on the first day of the NCAA Championships (prelim session). He became the first individual to clock a sub-19-second 50-yard freestyle and duplicated this performance during the final's session later that night to become the third man to successfully win three in a row in the 50 free.

ESPN2 Coverage of NCAA Championship

The 2007 Men's Swimming and Diving Championships will be produced by ESPN with the first air date set for March 20 at 2 p.m. ET on ESPN2. Former Auburn great Rowdy Gaines is among those who will provide commentary on the broadcast.

Four Champions Return

Auburn has four members of its team who are NCAA Champions, although just one is an individual champion. Steven Segerlin won the men's platform competition at last year's NCAA meet with a school-record score of 469.30. Auburn also returns the first three legs of last year's NCAA Champion 200 free relay team that posted a winning mark of 1:16.15: Cesar Cielo, Matt Targett and Bryan Lundquist. That group posted a winning time

Top Scorers Return

The Tiger men return 14 All-Americans from the 2006 NCAA Championship team, including four NCAA Champions and seven SEC Champions. The Tigers are without five All-Americans from last year's team: George Bovell, Kurt Cady, Rory Connell, Eric Shanteau and Doug Van Wie.

Leaders on the Psyche Sheet

Auburn had 16 swimmers listed on the official psyche sheet for the NCAA meet. The Tigers were the only team to have 16 swimmers on the psyche sheet. Stanford and Florida had 15 each, followed by Texas and Minnesota (13)

Three Divers Advance From Zone B

Senior Steven Segerlin and freshmen Dan Mazzaferro and Kelly Marx all advanced to the NCAA Championships from the Zone B Diving Championships. Segerlin, the defending NCAA Champion on the platform, won that event at the zone meet and placed third on the 1-meter board, while Mazzaferro finished third on the platform. Marx earned a spot with a fifth-place finish on the 3-meter board. It marks the first time since 2004 that Auburn has had three divers at the NCAA meet. In 2004, Segerlin joined Caesar Garcia and Matt Bricker at the NCAA meet.

Auburn Wins SEC Championship

Auburn won its 11 consecutive SEC championship last month in Lexington, Ky., scoring 934 points to beat second-place Florida (819.5 points) by a margin of 114.5 points, with no other team anywhere in sight as Georgia finished third with 395 points.

Highlights for the men's team included Cesar Cielo setting SEC records while winning both the 50 free (19.03) and the 100 free (41.85), and Steven Segerlin becoming just the third male to win all three diving events at one championship meet. Other individual winners for Auburn were Scott Goodrich (100 back) and Alexei Puninski (100 fly), while the Tigers also won the 200 free relay, 400 free relay, 200 medley relay and 400 medley relay.

Jeff Shaffer Named SEC Male Diving Coach of the Year

Jeff Shaffer was named SEC Male Diving Coach of the Year following the diving championships. Shaffer, who is in his eighth season at Auburn, earned his third career SEC Diving Coach of the Year award, having previously won the men's award in 2004 and the women's award in 1994 while coaching at LSU.

Shaffer, who has coached the SEC men's platform champion in each of the past five seasons, led the Auburn men to a dominating performance during the SEC Diving Championships. The Tigers' four divers totaled a whopping 177 points in the three events, which was 106 more than the next highest total. They combined for 11 of a possible 12 appearances in the finals, winning all three tiles and posting six top-five finishes.

Steven Segerlin Named SEC Male Diver of the Year

Steven Segerlin was named SEC Male Diver of the Year following the diving championships. Segerlin became the third male in SEC history to win all three diving events at the SEC Championships, joining Georgia's Chris Colwill (2006) and Alabama's Mark Rourke (1991). He started the weekend by winning the 1-meter event, coming from behind on his final dive to win with a score of 380.50. He then set a new school and SEC record on Day 2 with a score of 427.80 on the 3-meter board, and capped the weekend with another SEC record point total of 452.80 on the platform. He earned the Commissioner's Trophy as the highest male point scorer at the SEC Swimming and Diving Championships.

Dan Mazzaferro Earns SEC Male Freshman Diver of the Year Award

Dan Mazzaferro was named SEC Male Freshman Diver of the Year following the diving championships. Mazzaferro had a strong showing at the SEC Championships, placing in the top six on all three boards. He was runner-up to Steven Segerlin on the platform, scoring a personal best 396.60. Mazzaferro also placed fifth on the 3-meter board with a score of 360.30, missing a career high by less than one-tenth of a point, and placed sixth on 1-meter with a new personal best of 323.40. He placed second earlier this season at the Georgia Diving Invitational on both the platform and the 3-meter board, trailing only Segerlin.

Auburn in the Rankings

Auburn has been holding steady at No. 3 in the CSCAA National Rankings, trailing only Texas and Stanford. Auburn has defeated current No. 8 Florida and No. 15 Florida State in dual meets this season.

Saying Goodbye

The Florida State dual meet was the final one for eight Auburn seniors (Mark Johnson, Bryan Lundquist, Sean Osborne, Joey Schneider, John Scott, Steven Segerlin, Daniel Slocki and James Wike). During their four-year careers, the Tigers have posted a 31-1 dual meet record, have won four SEC titles and three NCAA titles. Tallying their individual accomplishments, this class has won 12 SEC titles and two NCAA titles to go along with 21 NCAA All-American honors.

Sophomores Shine

Although the senior class is often the key to Auburn's success at the SEC and NCAA Championships, Auburn's sophomore class may have the most firepower. Last season, Jakob Andkjaer, Cesar Cielo, Anthony Fleming, Alexei Puninski and Jon Roberts combined to account for a 373 points at the SEC Championships, which was more than any of Auburn's other classes, and 86 points at the NCAA Championships. All but Fleming are back this season, and the remaining four are joined by Logan Madson to form a formidable class.

Cielo Named SEC Swimmer of the Week

Sophomore Cesar Cielo was named SEC Male Swimmer of the Week Jan. 30 for his performance in Auburn's final dual meet against Florida State. Cielo won the 50 free in 19.72 seconds, which was the second-fastest mark in the SEC, and also led off two relay teams that posted 'B' cut times. He swam a 19.89 opening leg on the 200 free relay team that finished in 1:20.16, which was third best in the SEC this year, and opened for the 200 medley relay team that posted a time of 1:28.04, which ranked second in the SEC.

Seegerlin Earns Two SEC Diver of the Week Awards

Senior Steven Seegerlin has twice been named the SEC Male Diver of the Month this year. He earned the honor after sweeping all three events at the Georgia Diving Invitational Jan. 3-5, becoming just the second person in 11 years of the event to sweep all three events. He won the award again after winning both the 1-meter and 3-meter competitions vs. Florida.

Denniston and Gaines Receive NCAA Honors

Former Auburn swimming national champions Dave Denniston and Rowdy Gaines were honored Jan. 7 as the 2007 recipients of the NCAA Inspiration and the NCAA Silver Anniversary Awards, respectively. Denniston and Gaines were presented the annual awards at the NCAA Honors Celebration at the Gaylord Palms Osceola Ballroom. The NCAA Honors Celebration aired Feb. 2 on ESPN2.

The Inspiration Award was created in 2001 to honor individuals who, when confronted with a life-altering situation, used perseverance, dedication and determination to overcome the event and now serve as a role model to give hope and inspiration to others in similar situations.

The Silver Anniversary Award is given annually to six former student-athletes who have made significant professional and civic contributions since they completed their intercollegiate eligibility 25 years ago.

Seegerlin Makes History At Georgia Diving Invitational

Senior Steven Seegerlin became just the second diver in the 11-year history of the Georgia Diving Invitational to win all three diving events at the competition, joining Georgia's Chris Colwill who achieved the feat in 2006. Seegerlin, who was featured in Sports Illustrated's Faces in the Crowd for his accomplishment, won the platform (357.45), 3-meter (348.10) and 1-meter (343.90) competitions. He has not lost all season on the platform or 1-meter board, and has just one runner-up finish on 3-meter this season.

Marsh to Step Down Following Season to Join USOC

Auburn Director of Competitive Aquatics David Marsh is resigning from his current position at the conclusion of the 2006-07 season to accept a position with the Mecklenburg Aquatic Club, which established the United States Olympic Committee Center of Excellence, in Charlotte, N.C. In his new role, Marsh will serve as the Head Elite Coach and CEO of the program, directing the development of future United States' Olympic swimmers.

In his 17 seasons at Auburn, Marsh has guided the program to six men's and five women's NCAA crowns and a combined 17 Southeastern Conference titles. The men won national crowns in 1997, 1999, 2003, 2004, 2005, and 2006, while the women captured titles in 2002, 2003, 2004, 2006 and 2007.

Marsh's teams have earned a combined 1,367 All-America honors by 295 athletes, along with 44 NCAA individual championship titles and 25 NCAA relay crowns. At the conference level, Marsh's swimmers and divers have captured 192 individual SEC championships and 60 relay conference victories.

Since Marsh took over the Auburn program, the Plains have been home to 22 Olympians, who captured seven medals. Over the course of his coaching career, Marsh has been named National Coach of the Year a total of nine times and the SEC Coach of the Year 14 times. For his outstanding work with the men's and women's squads, Marsh was named the 2003 National Collegiate and Scholastic Swimming Trophy recipient. It was the second time in his career that he was so honored, also garnering the distinguished award in 1999. Marsh is the first to ever receive this prestigious award more than once.

Marsh and Tierney-Walker Named to USA Swimming International Staffs

Auburn head swimming coach David Marsh and co-women's head coach Dorsey Tierney-Walker were named United States assistant coaches for the 2007 Pan American Games in Brazil and the 2007 World University Games in Thailand, respectively.

Marsh is no stranger to the United States international swimming staff as he most recently served in a similar role for the World Championship men's team in 2005. In 2003 Marsh was the head coach for the U.S. World Championship team and has also been head men's coach for the 2003 Mutual of Omaha Duel in the Pool and 1995 Pan-Pacific team.

Tierney-Walker will serve in the same role on the World University Games coaching roster that she did in 2001, when she coached Susan Woessner to a silver medal in the 100m back, bronze in the 50m back and a silver as part of the 400m medley relay. Tierney-Walker has also had international experience in the pool, captaining the 1991 U.S. Pan American team that traveled to Cuba, where she collected three gold medals and set the Pan-Am Games record in the 200m breast.

Tigers Honor Ralph Crocker

For those who might be wondering why the letters "RHOP" can be found on much of Auburn's t-shirts and apparel, it is in honor of Ralph Crocker, Auburn's Associate Director of Intercollegiate Swimming and Diving who passed away Jan. 14 after a lengthy illness at the age of 52. A former Auburn swimmer and 1977 Auburn graduate, Crocker had been with the Auburn swimming and diving program since June, 1999.

As an assistant at Auburn, Crocker had extensive experience working with all groups, but primarily the distance group, or as they fondly call it, "Ralph's House of Pain (RHOP)."

During Crocker's seven full seasons he coached 82 swimmers to 660 All-American honors, and during his tenure eight distance freestyle swimmers won a combined 10 NCAA and SEC individual event crowns.

Auburn Upends Florida on Senior Day

Auburn celebrated senior day in fine fashion, as the Tigers rolled to a victory over Florida in the final home meet for Auburn's eight seniors and David Marsh's last home dual meet as Auburn's Director of Competitive Aquatics. The third-ranked men posted a 163-137 victory over the No. 11 Gators. Cesar Cielo made his season debut a successful one, winning the 100 free with an 'A' cut time of 43.19 seconds, which is the best mark in this year in the SEC, and the 200 free with a time of 1:38.14. Jakob Andkjaer (44.15) and Bryan Lundquist (44.74) completed a sweep of the top three spots in the 100 free.

All Good Things Must End

Auburn's six-year winning streak in dual meets was snapped Jan. 11 by No. 1 Texas, 130-113, breaking the string at 42 straight dual meets won. The Tigers had not suffered a loss since the Longhorns knocked off the Tigers six years to the day, 136.5-103.5, on Jan. 11, 2001, and the Longhorns went on to win the NCAA title that season.

Tigers Continue Dominance Over Tide

Auburn defeated Alabama Nov. 17, 143.5-99.5, pushing Auburn's winning streak against the Crimson Tide to 14 consecutive dual meets. The highlight of the meet for Auburn included 1-2-3 finishes in both the 200 back (Matt Bartlett, John Long and Joey Schneider) and the 200 fly (John Scott, Tyler McGill, Jordan Anderson).

Taming the Bayou Bengals

In Auburn's first contest of the season against LSU, the men dominated the competition by winning 11 of 13 events when not exhibiting, en route to a 182-110 victory. James Wike was Auburn's lone qualifier as the senior took the win in the 200 back with a 'B' cut time of 1:46.89.

Leading the Way

Seniors John Scott, Steve Segerlin and James Wike are co-captains for the 2005-06 squad.

Fresh Faces

The Tigers added 17 newcomers to the mix this season. The group hails from 10 different states (Connecticut, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, North Carolina, Oregon, Virginia and Washington) and two foreign countries (Ireland and Canada).

Interview Policies

Coach Marsh, his assistants and all swimmers and divers are available for phone and in-person interviews by contacting Brad Gust in the media relations office at 334-844-9703. Post-meet interviews will be allowed following the 10-minute cooling-off period.
