HEAD COACH JEFF GRABA QUOTES

On improving this week...

"I'm anticipating they'll be fine. Everything we've done here, they've handled it really well. Typically this group and most gymnastics teams are going to start a little bit slow. You can't simulate the stress that you're under in a meet environment, and we're throwing a lot of difficulty into our routines."

On being a part of the first live televised SEC meet...

"I'm really excited about it. I think it's going to be awesome for our sport and fantastic for our fans. It's going to be a bit of a rollercoaster the first meet. We've been involved in a lot of television meets, but the fact that it's live and we're working on a different time frame and time crunch, it's good and bad for us."

On the environment at Florida...

"I think the competition environment is a big part of it. A lot of times that matches up well against really aggressive teams like Florida. When you go up against a top ranked team and you're the underdog, I think it brings out the best of you."

ALL-SEC COMPETITORS

Junior Caitlin Atkinson and seniors Megan Walker and Brittany Webster were named to the 2014 All-SEC Team in the two session format. It was Atkinson's second consecutive season in which she was named to the team. Also, sophomore MJ Rott received SEC All-Freshman Team honors in the two session format.

2015 SEC WEEKLY HONORS

GYMNAST OF THE WEEK

Jessie Jordan
LSU|Senior

Jordan posted the highest all-around total in the nation with a 39.550 in LSU's season-opening victory over Iowa. She led the Tigers to the best overall team opening score in the SEC with a 197.125. Jordan tied her career high on bars, beam and floor with a 9.925 on each event. She claimed the beam, floor and all-around titles with a second place finish on bars.

FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Shauna Miller
Missouri|Freshman

In her first collegiate meet, Miller won the all-around (39.325) title against Towson and Kent State after capturing individual wins on vault (9.950), bars (9.850) and beam (9.825). Her 9.950 on vault is a Missouri freshman record. The score also ties her for second nationally in the event. In addition to her ranking on vault, Miller ranks eighth nationally in the all-around and tied for 23rd on bars.

SPECIALIST OF THE WEEK

Bridget Sloan
Florida|Junior

Sloan posted the first perfect 10.0 mark of the season with her performance on vault against Ball State Sunday. She is the only Gator to post a perfect mark on three events in their career- beam, floor and vault. She split the uneven bars title with a score of 9.950, giving her 58 event titles in her career.

2014 POSTSEASON RESULTS

The 2014 Auburn gymnastics team finished fifth in both the SEC Championships and NCAA Regionals with scores of 195.550 and 195.050, respectively. The team's 195.550 points scored in the SEC Championships are the sixth most at the event in program history, and its 195.050 points scored at the NCAA Regionals are the eighth most at the event in program history.

WELCOME TO THE PLAINS

The Auburn gymnastics team includes six newcomers for the 2015 season, marking the most newcomers in a single class since adding seven team members in 2012. The six new members include freshmen Brooke Bray, Kennedy Finister, Sarah Garcia, Abby Milliet and Cara Stricklin, who will participate in the all-around competition, as well as freshman Blake Jones, who will compete in the floor and vault competitions.

UP NEXT

Next week Auburn will have its home opener against Arkansas in Auburn Arena Friday, January 23, at 7 p.m. CT. Auburn is 11-13 all-time vs. Arkansas and defeated the Razorbacks twice last season, a 196.550-196.100 win in Fayetteville for the first time in history and a 195.550-194.900 victory in the SEC Championships in Birmingham, Ala.

NCAA REGIONAL RETURNS TO THE PLAINS

Auburn will once again host an NCAA Regional meet in Auburn Arena in 2015. The Tigers last hosted a regional meet in 2012. Auburn finished fourth on its home floor in 2012, but posted a score that was at that point the second-highest regional score in program history. Auburn finished third at the NCAA Gainesville Regional in 2013 and fifth in the NCAA Baton Rouge Regional in 2014.
