Auburn Academics

Auburn University is committed to maintaining the highest standard of academic excellence. Auburn's academic curriculum is recognized nationally and internationally by leading education publications for its services in preparing students for challenges of the future.

Auburn student-athletes excel because of one of the top student support service programs in the country. Virgil Starks, Sr. Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Support Services (SASS) and Assistant to the Provost, oversees a staff of seven full-time Academic Counselors, a Learning Specialist and two Eligibility Specialists.

The Charlotte G. Lowder Student Athlete Development Center

Charlotte G. Lowder Student Athlete Development Center

The Charlotte G. Lowder Student Athlete Development Center, with 33,000 square feet of dedicated space to students and learning, gives Auburn University the physical infrastructure that allows the ability to implement and expand the array of programs designed to enhance the academic performance of Auburn student-athletes. Located adjacent to the Auburn Athletic Complex, the facility is centrally located for easy access for all Tiger athletic teams.

The goals of the Charlotte G. Lowder Student Athlete Development Center are to create an opportunity for one-stop learning for all services including academic counseling, life skills, and tutorial services; to utilize the technology available to support academic missions; and to create a showplace that honors achievements of student-athletes. In addition, programs are designed to develop leadership skills and a strong altruistic attitude, which are fundamental characteristics of the Auburn graduate.

Within the walls of the center are the Academic Hall of Honor designed by Auburn student-athletes, two "smart" classrooms with new and innovative technology that hold 50 people per room, seven counselor offices as well as administrative support, the PAW (Promoting Academic Winners) office, Operation Follow-Through, the Student Athletic Advisory Committee office, 40 four-person tutorial rooms, a library resource area, a soft-study lounge, a 25-station computer classroom, the student "Cantina" for snacks and beverages and the tutor coordinator office.

The construction of the Student Athlete Development Center was made possible by the generosity of Robert and Charlotte Lowder and from the Lowder Family Foundation.

Academic Awards

A total of 21 football student-athletes were honored at the Tiger Torch Banquet in the spring for posting a 3.0 grade-point average. The group included: Cole Bennett, Kody Bliss, Jason Bosley, Brett Carr, Karibi Dede, Steven Gowland, Lee Guess, Brant Haynie, Will Herring, Zach Kutch, Tyler Maloney, Andrew McCain, Jake Slaughter, Tre Smith, Carl Stewart, Brian Summerhill, Josh Thompson, Cooper Wallace, Antarrious Williams, Jarvez Williams and Travis Williams.

Fourteen players were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll: Bennett, Bliss, Chas Crofoot, Dede, Guess, Haynie, Herring, T.J. Jackson, Slaughter, Smith, Stewart, Thompson, Antarrious Williams and Travis Williams.

Student-Athlete Support Services

The Tiger CHAMPS/Life Skills program focuses on five commitments that the NCAA has specified as necessary to a holistic approach to student development programming. Auburn University is committed to the growth and development of its student-athletes by promoting the following areas:

- Commitment to Academic Excellence
- Commitment to Athletic Excellence
- Commitment to Personal Development
- Commitment to Service, Outreach and Leadership
- Commitment to Career Development

The Tiger CHAMPS/Life Skills program at Auburn provides a series of classes, workshops, speakers and seminars that are designed to enhance the total development of student-athletes. The Tiger CHAMPS program is committed to meeting the needs of student-athletes and providing interactive activities which promote and develop skills necessary to compete in the "game" of life.

Student-Athlete Advisory Committee

The primary function of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) is to provide student-athletes with an official voice in the decision-making processes of the athletic department. Auburn's SAAC is comprised of two representatives from each athletic team. These two representatives serve as a liaison between the committee and their teams. Secondary functions of SAAC are the development of leadership skills and to promote citizenship through community service. The SAAC is involved in community service activities such as organizing canned food and clothing drives, visiting patients in area hospitals and nursing homes and hosting local elementary school children each year for National Student-Athlete Day. The Auburn University SAAC also plans and hosts an annual fall picnic and a spring social for all student-athletes in appreciation of their contributions to Auburn.

In order to accomplish this, the Student-Athlete Support Services (SASS) department has developed a comprehensive program which includes:

- Academic Counseling
- Tiger Tutor Program
- Specialized Services
- Study Table Program
- Life Skills Classes
- Promoting Academic Winners (P.A.W.)

Academic Counseling

- All staff members participate in recruiting scholar student-athletes.
- Student-Athlete Support Services maintains a book depository.
- Student-Athlete Support Services assists in advising degree curriculum for student-athletes.
- Student-Athlete Support Services monitors progress towards obtaining a degree.

Tiger Tutor Program

- This program is responsible for assigning tutors to student-athletes for one-on-one and group tutorial assistance.
- The Tiger Advantage Supplemental Instruction (SI) is designed to support the core curriculum.

Specialized Services

- An Eligibility Specialist monitors NCAA Eligibility Standards.
- A Learning Specialist serves as a liaison for the Program for Students with Disabilities.
- Student-Athlete Support Services provides an academic monitoring program.

Life Skills Program

The Student-Athlete Support Services life skills program offers four classes:

- Life Skills for Student-Athletes is a freshman/transfer class which provides a variety of life skills components and opportunities for the first-year student in a university setting. This class offers various activities, discussions, guest speakers and community service opportunities.

Auburn Football Among Tops Nationally In Academic Progress Rate

The Auburn football program posted an impressive multi-year academic progress rate of 981 in the 2004-05 Division I Academic Progress Rate (APR) report, which ranks in the 90th-100th percentile nationally.

Football received public recognition by the NCAA as being in the top 10 percentile by sport, for its score. Auburn's football program is one of only four BCS schools to earn such recognition, joining Boston College, Duke, and Stanford, making Auburn the only public BCS institution to earn such distinctions.

The national APR average for football at public institutions is 920, while the national average for football at all Division I-A institutions is 929.

- Career Awareness For Student-Athletes is a Freshman/Sophomore class where students learn to research their majors and professional career interest and develop resumes and portfolio resources.
- Career Success for Student-Athletes is a Junior/Senior class developed to explore careers based on their majors, skills and interests. Students also learn to aggressively market themselves through networking and other job search tactics. They are also actively engaged in enhancing their self-confidence by polishing their job search skills, interviewing and business etiquette.
- Athletes in Society is a course designed to help student-athletes with civic involvement and community service through service learning.

Other life skills programs include:

- Career Seminars for Student-Athletes
- Tiger Tracks Resume Portfolio
- Career Symposium for Student-Athletes
- Drug/Alcohol Education Program
- Adopt a School Program (Stay in Bounds)

The Life/Skills program is uniquely structured so that each counselor has the responsibility of planning activities and/or seminars in a given area of expertise. The Life/Skills coordinator directs the implementation of activities and spearheads the development of the Tiger CHAMPS Program.

Senior Karibi Dede reads to a group of local school children.

Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium

Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium, the nation's ninth-largest on-campus stadium with a capacity of 87,451, is entering its 67th year as home to the Auburn Tigers.

On football Saturdays in Auburn, Jordan-Hare Stadium becomes Alabama's fifth-largest city. More than 75,000 season tickets have been sold to Auburn home games in each of the last 13 years.

The stadium is named for Ralph "Shug" Jordan, Auburn's all-time winningest football coach, and Clifford Leroy Hare, a member of Auburn's first football team, president of the old Southern Conference and longtime chairman of Auburn's Faculty Athletic Committee.

Legendary coach Pat Dye has also had his name forever attached to Jordan-Hare Stadium, as the turf officially became known as Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium prior to the 2005 Iron Bowl. Dye, who served as head coach and athletics director at Auburn from 1981-92 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December of 2005, led Auburn to a 99-39-4 record and four SEC Championships in his 12 seasons on the Plains.

What is now Jordan-Hare Stadium was first opened and dedicated on Nov. 30, 1939, at the Auburn-Florida game. Babe McGehee, who passed away Oct. 1, 2005, scored the first touchdown in what was then called "Auburn Stadium," by catching a pass from Dick McGowen. McGowen, who later coached at Auburn under Jordan, kicked the extra point and Auburn tied Florida, 7-7.

That first stadium held 7,500 seats and consisted of what is now the bottom part of the lower west stands. When the stadium was renamed "Cliff Hare Stadium" in 1949, 14,000 seats—the present lower east stands—had been added, raising capacity to 21,500.

Jordan became head coach in 1951 and the stadium that was to bear his name underwent three major expansions in 15 years. More than 40,000 seats, virtually half of the stadium's present capacity, were added while Jordan was the coach.

Cliff Hare Stadium became Jordan-Hare Stadium in 1973. It was the first stadium in the country to be named for an active coach.

The history of Auburn Football can be seen by standing in the middle of the playing field and looking at various additions. The original stadium consisted of the bottom half of the lower west stands and later the east stands. Jordan teams added the top half of the lower west stands and the north and south end zone seats.

Players such as William Andrews, Joe Cribbs and James Brooks brought about the west side upper deck in 1980 and the success of Pat Dye-coached teams led to the addition of the east side upper deck and luxury suites in 1987.

A football attendance record for the state of Alabama was set in the very first game of the "new" stadium when 80,000 fans came to see Auburn defeat Texas 31-3 in the 1987 season opener. Two more 80,000-plus crowds came to Auburn that season and within two years Jordan-Hare Stadium — and Auburn — held every major football attendance record in the state of Alabama.

Overall, Auburn has played 316 games in Jordan-Hare Stadium, winning 249, losing 60 and tying seven for a winning percentage of .799 against some of the best teams in college football. Auburn's longest home winning streak is 30 games covering a period of nine years. It began with a 3-0 win over Clemson in 1952 and ended with a 14-12 upset loss to Kentucky in 1961.

The Jordan-Hare Stadium turf was named Pat Dye Field after Auburn's Hall of Fame coach prior to the 2005 Iron Bowl.

Jordan-Hare Stadium Locker Rooms

Prior to the 2000 season, the locker rooms in Jordan-Hare Stadium were rebuilt, making them some of the finest game-day locker rooms in college football. Auburn's locker room encompasses the entire south end zone, utilizing the space that was once both the Auburn and visitors' dressing areas.

Auburn's locker room increased in size from 1,300 square feet to 3,232 square feet. It houses oak lockers in an open area that is carpeted. The carpet includes a large AU logo in the center of the dressing room which, according to tradition started by the 2000 senior class, can not be stepped on by a player or coach. A matching AU hangs from the ceiling. The room is connected to the stadium's closed-circuit television system and has four monitors for viewing.

Adjacent to the main locker room is a renovated and enlarged ceramic tile shower and restroom facilities, an overflow locker room for non-conference games, an equipment room and a room that will be used for X-ray equipment in the future.

In addition to the main dressing area, the locker room also contains a state-of-the-art training room, media room and photographer's dark room.

The Tigers enter the field from the center of the south end zone. While "Eye of the Tiger" is played on the stadium sound system, Auburn takes the field through a cloud of smoke and thunderous cheers from more than 87,000 fans.

The visitor's locker room is now in the north end zone and contains a dressing room, coach's locker room, media room and training room. The visiting team enters the field through the northeast corner of the end zone.

Jordan-Hare Stadium Recruiting Lounge and Tiger Walk Plaza

The Tiger Walk Plaza was completed in the summer of 2001. The courtyard serves as the conclusion of Tiger Walk, the entrance to the home locker rooms and a recruit assembly room. The enclosed courtyard is paved with approximately 6,000 inscribed brick pavers purchased by Auburn alumni and friends.

The recruit assembly area is 3,065 square feet and serves as a reception area. This room provides a comfortable atmosphere with direct connections to the field and the stadium. The room houses graphics of past Auburn games and two large screen projection televisions which provide closed-circuit televised action of the game. A prep kitchen and restroom facilities also support the functions for this area. During the off-season, the room supports other events tied to athletics.

Jordan-Hare Stadium Murals

Prior to the 1998 season, 10 large murals were placed on the east side exterior of Jordan-Hare Stadium. Artist Michael Taylor created the murals which include pictures of early Auburn football teams and coaches, Heisman Trophy winners Pat Sullivan and Bo Jackson, as well as more recent history, including pictures from Auburn's 1993 undefeated season. Each mural is 11'x29' and Auburn's football history is displayed in chronological order from south to north.

A large AU logo is featured in the center of the home locker room.

Auburn Practice Facilities

Auburn boasts some of the top practice facilities in the nation with a state-of-the-art Sprinturf artificial field and two natural grass fields as well as an indoor practice facility, the John H. Watson Fieldhouse.

The John H. Watson Fieldhouse is a pre-engineered, structural steel, concrete and brick building which houses a 40-yard artificial turf field. The facility, which measures 155 feet by 210 feet, has a heating system and is cooled by large fans.

The facility, which gives the football team a place to practice during inclement weather, was dedicated on Sept. 4, 1999.

The construction of the fieldhouse was made possible because of a generous contribution from Dothan businessman John Watson who graduated from Auburn in 1960 with a degree in mechanical engineering.

James T. Tatum Strength and Conditioning Center

Auburn football players benefit from the direction of one of the finest strength and conditioning staffs in the country. Head strength coach Kevin Yoxall has implemented an extensive program for Auburn's football team which has improved the team's overall strength and conditioning levels.

The James T. Tatum, Jr., Strength and Conditioning Center stands as a testament to Auburn's commitment to providing state-of-the-art training facilities for its student-athletes. The center, which opened in January 2002, encompasses more than 14,000 square feet and is triple the size of the previous facility.

The first floor of the two-story center houses 20 power stations, which contain the majority of the equipment used by student-athletes during workouts and leads to effective and time-efficient training. Also, there are a variety of upper and lower body selectorized machines around the perimeter of the main floor. The second floor contains various machines, medicine balls, aerobic equipment and an open exercise area for additional overall strength and conditioning development of Auburn's student-athletes.

Adjacent to the weight room is a 20-yard astroturf hill, set at 45 degrees, which is used for speed and endurance conditioning. The center also houses the strength and conditioning coaches' offices.

The center is named for James T. Tatum, Jr., who served 16 years as a member of the Board of Trustees. Dr. Tatum believed strongly and devoutly in Cliff Hare's philosophy that "Athletics Makes Men Strong, Study Makes Men Wise and Character Makes Men Great." His support of Auburn's teams and programs throughout the years strongly illustrated that fact.

The center was dedicated in his memory on April 6, 2002.

Designed by The Butner and Associates Architectural Group, the facility was built by Bailey Harris Construction Corporation at a cost of $2.7 million.

Uniquely Auburn

Here's a quick look at what makes the Auburn football phenomena uniquely "Auburn."

All-America x 11

Jimmy "Red" Phillips made 11 All-America teams in 1957 before becoming an All-Pro with the Los Angeles Rams and Minnesota Vikings and leading the NFL in receiving in 1961.

Aubie

Auburn's award-winning mascot is a favorite for Tiger fans, both young and old. On the job since 1979, Aubie's existence began as a cartoon character drawn by Birmingham Post-Herald artist Phil Neel in 1959 for the Oct. 3, football game program.

Bacardi Bowl

Auburn's first bowl trip and the only bowl game to ever be played outside the United States. Auburn and Villanova battled to a 7-7 tie in Havana, Cuba on New Year's day in 1937. Billy Hitchcock scored the Tigers' only touchdown of the game on a 40-yard run.

Beard, Jeff

Garland Washington "Jeff" Beard could generally be considered the father of modern Auburn athletics. Serving as athletic director from 1951 through 1972, Beard hired legendary coach Ralph "Shug" Jordan, increased the capacity of what is now Jordan-Hare Stadium from 21,500 to 61,500 seats and is responsible for bringing Auburn's football games with Georgia Tech, Georgia and Tennessee to campus. His tenure also produced the basketball arena now named in his honor, the Wilbur Hutsell Track and Field complex and Sewell Hall. Beard is one of only six Auburn athletic directors who didn't serve as head football coach.

Bo over the top

The climax to a 23-22 Auburn victory over Alabama in 1982 which broke a nine-year losing skid to the Crimson Tide. Bo Jackson's 1-yard leap over the Alabama goal line capped a 66-yard drive and set the stage for what Auburn people consider the Tigers' "coming out" party in the 1980s.

December 2, 1989

Alabama came to Auburn's Jordan-Hare Stadium for the first time in the history of the rivalry. Prior to that, all games in the series had been played at Birmingham's Legion Field since the series was resumed in 1948. A 30-20 Auburn victory settled the score of the game, but the cross-state journey for the Tide settled a score which had brewed for nearly a century in the hearts of Auburn people. Alabama coach Ray Perkins once said "it won't happen". On Dec. 2, 1989, it did.

The Deep South's Oldest Rivalry

Auburn and Georgia. It began on Feb. 20, 1892 at Piedmont Park in Atlanta. Since 1898 the Tigers and the Bulldogs have played every year, 106 meetings total, with the exception of 1943, when Auburn didn't field a team due to World War II. To date, Auburn leads the series 53-48-8.

Donahue, Mike

"Iron" Mike Donahue won 99 games in two different stints as Auburn's head coach, tying him with Pat Dye for second on the all-time Auburn victories list. Donahue's 1913 Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship team not only went undefeated at 8-0, but did not allow a single point to be scored on them. On the flip side, his 1920 team averaged 42.5 points per game, despite being shut out twice. During his tenure, 38 players were named as All-Southern Conference. Donahue also served as the basketball, baseball and track coach as well athletic director.

Don't Make Us Go There

For years some of Auburn's chief rivals - Georgia, Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Alabama - never made it to The Plains. Auburn's "home" games with those schools were played in Montgomery, Mobile, Columbus and Birmingham. Athletic Director Jeff Beard changed all that starting in 1960. The Auburn-Georgia game was played in Columbus, Athens, Atlanta, Macon or Savannah from 1892 through 1959. In 1960 the Bulldogs finally came to Auburn and lost, 9-6. From 1906 until 1970 Auburn and Georgia Tech played in either Atlanta or Birmingham - 53 straight times in Atlanta - before the Yellow Jackets finally gave in and came to Auburn to lose 31-7. In a series that began in 1900, Tennessee finally played at Auburn in 1974, losing 21-0. In 1989, cross-state rival Alabama made the trip and left with a 30-20 defeat and dreams of an undefeated season ended.

Dye, Pat

Patrick Fain Dye won 99 games and four Southeastern Conference championships in 12 years as Auburn's head coach, but perhaps he will be remembered most for bringing Auburn's "home" game with Alabama to the Auburn campus on Dec. 2, 1989, a 30-20 Tiger victory. He also fielded such superstars as Bo Jackson, Kurt Crain and Tracy Rucker. Under his leadership as athletic director, Auburn football facilities were elevated to some of the finest in the nation with additions to Jordan-Hare Stadium increasing the seating capacity to 85,214 and 70 luxury suites.

Eleven and Ohhhhh!!!!

In 1993, first-year coach Terry Bowden directed Auburn to its first undefeated, 11-win season while the Tigers suffered through the first year of NCAA imposed sanctions which kept AU off television and out of the bowl scene. The 11 wins in 1993 were the opening act of a 20-game winning streak which would set the Auburn record for consecutive victories.

The Entrance

The Auburn team began a new tradition in 2000, entering the field from the middle of the south end zone through a cloud of smoke.

Four in The First

Auburn set a Southeastern Conference record when four Tigers were selected in the first round of the 2005 NFL Draft. Ronnie Brown went second overall to Miami, Carnell Williams fifth to Tampa Bay, Carlos Rogers ninth to Washington and Jason Campbell 25th to the Redskins. Auburn became just the 11th school to have four players selected in the first round of the same draft. Meanwhile, the backfield of Brown, Campbell and Williams became the first to all be selected in the first round in the same year.

Hare, Cliff

Cliff Hare was a member of Auburn's first football team who went on to serve as chair of the Auburn Faculty Athletic Committee. Auburn's football stadium is named for the longtime professor and dean of the School of Chemistry. He served as president of the Southern Conference before the formation of the Southeastern Conference.

Bo Over the Top

Uniquely Auburn

Heisman, John

The legendary coach for which college football's top honor is named coached at Auburn from 1895-99, posting a 12-4-2 record. Auburn is the only school where John Heisman coached to have a Heisman Trophy winner. Heisman left Auburn for Clemson and then Georgia Tech, where he lost 10 of 15 meetings with Auburn.

Heisman Trophy

Auburn has two. Pat Sullivan won the coveted award in 1971. Bo Jackson did the same in 1985.

Jordan, Ralph

Over the years no name has been more synonymous with Auburn football than Ralph "Shug" Jordan. The all-time winningest football coach at Auburn, Jordan won 176 games over a 25-year career on The Plains. A four-time Southeastern Conference coach of the Year, he was also named national coach of the year in 1957 after leading Auburn to its only football out-right national championship.

Jordan-Hare Stadium

Auburn's showcase football stadium which seats 87,451 with 70 luxury suites located between the lower level and upper deck on the East side of the stadium. The stadium was dedicated Nov. 30, 1939, with 7,500 seats that are now incorporated into the West stands. Ten years later 14,000 more seats were added and the stadium was named Cliff Hare Stadium, although only 12 home games were played there over that 10-year span. Additional seats were added in 1955, 1960 and 1970. The West upper deck was completed in 1980 and the East upper deck and suites were finished for the 1987 season. The facility was renamed Jordan-Hare Stadium in 1973.

Kick it Again

In September 2004, on its way to a perfect 13-0 season, Auburn played host to LSU just days after Hurricane Ivan swept through Alabama. Trailing 9-3, the game came to a climax when Jason Campbell connected with Courtney Taylor with 1:14 to play, tying the score 9-9. The ensuing extra point was missed, but an LSU penalty allowed for another attempt. John Vaughn promptly nailed the second chance, giving the Tigers the 10-9 advantage and ensuring Auburn's place in the record books.

Lovelace Museum

Auburn's showcase of a rich athletic history is located off the lobby area of the Auburn Athletic Complex. Opened in April 1996, the John B. Lovelace Museum and Hall of Honor features displays and interactive exhibits which takes visitors from the training table to the Olympic games with Auburn athletes past and present. The museum is open during regular business hours, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Saturdays and during most campus Auburn athletic events. Admission is free.

Lupton, Frank

Frank Lupton, a halfback and captain of the 1892 football squad, scored the first touchdown and kicked the first conversion in Auburn football history in a 10-0 Auburn victory over Georgia on Feb. 20, 1892.

Nicknames

There is only one ... Tigers. There is no such thing as an Auburn War Eagle, an Auburn Plainsman or Plainsmen or an Auburn Lady Tiger. It is simply Tigers. "War Eagle" is a battle cry and The Plainsman is the name of Auburn's student newspaper.

Nix-to-Sanders

With starting quarterback Stan White lying in pain on the turf of Jordan-Hare Stadium and Auburn's undefeated season hanging in the balance against Alabama in 1993, sophomore quarterback Patrick Nix was summoned to the huddle to face a 4th-and-15 at the Alabama 35-yard line with Auburn trailing 14-5 and 6:09 left on the third quarter clock. Offensive coordinator Tommy Bowden relayed the call to the sidelines and "278Z Takeoff" would become a part of Auburn football lore. Nix, without a chance to loosen up, hung the ball up and receiver Frank Sanders pulled it down for a touchdown. Auburn went on to win 22-14.

Outland Trophy

Auburn players have won two. Zeke Smith won the first in 1958, Tracy Rocker the second in 1988. Rocker made it a clean sweep in 1988 by also winning the Lombardi Award.

Pat Dye Field

The turf at Jordan-Hare Stadium was officially named after Pat Dye, Auburn's Hall of Fame coach and athletics director, prior to the 2005 Iron Bowl. The Tigers posted a 99-39-4 record in 12 seasons under Dye from 1981-92, and won four SEC championships. Auburn's home games are now played at Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Perfect in 2004

It began with a 31-0 win over Louisiana-Monroe and culminated with a 16-13 victory over Virginia Tech in the NOKIA Sugar Bowl. The 2004 season will be forever known as Auburn's Perfect Season, a year in which the Tigers defeated four top 10 teams en route to a No. 2 national finish, their highest since ending the season No. 1 in 1957.

Auburn rode a high-powered offense and one of the nation's top defenses to its sixth-ever Southeastern Conference Championship and third straight bowl victory.

The 2004 SEC Champions posted Auburn's first-ever 13-0 season

"Phantom of Union Springs"

Jimmy Hitchcock, a Union Springs, Ala., native, was Auburn's first football All-American. The "Phantom of Union Springs" was also a baseball All-American who later returned to coach and hold a position on the Auburn University Board of Trustees. He earned his nickname, The Phantom, from his speed and ability to elude defenders on the football field. Auburn's baseball facility, Hitchcock Field at Plainsman Park, is named in honor of Jimmy and Billy Hitchcock, brothers who made a lasting impact on Auburn.

Uniquely Auburn

Picked off

Those who witnessed Auburn's 30-26 victory over LSU in 1994 saw one of the most bizarre finishes ever to a college football game. With LSU leading 23-9 going into the fourth quarter, Auburn safety Ken Alvis picked off an LSU pass and rambled 42 yards for a touchdown. Before the final horn sounded Fred Smith followed suit for 32 yards and a score, then Brian Robinson returned yet another pickoff for a 41-yard TD. In all, the Tigers intercepted five LSU passes in the fourth quarter to keep a 14-game winning streak alive.

Piedmont Park

The site of the first Auburn football game on Feb. 20, 1892, in Atlanta. Auburn defeated Georgia, 10-0, in that game, kicking off the oldest rivalry in the South. The Auburn and Georgia athletic departments held a joint ceremony at Piedmont Park on February 20, 1992, to commemorate the 100-year anniversary of football at both universities.

Petrie, Dr. George

Dr. George Petrie, a faculty member in the Agricultural and Mechanical College in 1892, organized and was the coach of Auburn's first football team. One of Auburn's academic buildings, Petrie Hall, was named in his honor.

"Punt Bama Punt"

Maybe the most famous and easily the most talked about Auburn-Alabama football game. Trailing 16-0 heading into the fourth quarter in the 1972 contest, Auburn's Gardner Jett made a field goal. Then lightning struck - twice. Bill Newton blocked an Alabama punt and David Langner returned it 25 yards for an Auburn touchdown. Three minutes later Newton blocked another punt and Langner ran 20 yards for the score. The Tigers defeated the Tide 17-16.

Retired Jerseys

There are only three at Auburn; Pat Sullivan's 7, Terry Beasley's 88 and Bo Jackson's 34. Sullivan and Beasley's jerseys were retired following Sullivan's 1971 Heisman Trophy season and Jackson's jersey was retired as part of Auburn's football centennial celebration in 1992.

Sullivan-to-Beasley

Auburn's most prolific passing combination. From 1969 to 1971 Pat Sullivan and Terry Beasley connected for more than 2,500 passing yards and nearly 30 touchdowns. Thirty-four years after the end of their careers, both Sullivan and Beasley still hold Auburn's career passing and receiving records, respectively.

Terry Beasley and Pat Sullivan

Tiger

The name of Auburn's golden eagle mascot. Not to be confused with "Tigers", which is the correct and only nickname for Auburn athletic teams.

Tiger Walk

An Auburn tradition which began in the early 1960s when Auburn players would walk from Sewell Hall to the football stadium and fans would line Donahue Drive to wish them well. Over the years Tiger Walk has grown into a major part of game day at Auburn, so much so that it is listed on the players' game weekend itinerary. The largest Tiger Walk is believed to have taken place prior to the 1989 Alabama game when more than 20,000 well wishers lined the street. Every Tiger Walk prior to home games draws thousands, and, over the last couple of years the Tiger Walk has become a standard as Auburn football players enter stadiums on the road. Tiger Walk is two hours before kickoff for every game.

Tiger Walk

Toomer's Corner

The center of town where the Auburn University campus meets the City of Auburn. Toomer's Corner, where College Street intersects Magnolia Avenue, has long been the gathering place for Auburn athletic celebrations. After any football win, and significant victories in other sports, Auburn students and citizens alike join forces to "roll" the trees (and anything else that doesn't move) at Toomer's Corner with toilet tissue. Celebrations after significant football victories can go on for hours and leave the heart of town looking like a blizzard passed through.

Toomer's Drug Store

An Auburn landmark at the corner of College and Magnolia reputed to serve the best lemonade in the country. It is Auburn legend that John Heisman used to frequent Toomer's Drugs for a taste of the now-famous lemonade.

Walk-ons

Auburn has a long and storied past of football walk-ons who have gone on to very successful football careers. One success story belongs to former three-time All-Pro and Defensive MVP (1995) defensive end Kevin Greene. After being cut once, Greene walked on at Auburn a second time and made the team. He went on to play 15 seasons in the NFL.

"War Eagle"

Auburn's battle cry, not Auburn's nickname. There are several legends concerning the origin of the War Eagle battle cry, dating back to 1864 and the Civil War at the Battle of the Wilderness in Virginia.

Rolling Toomer's Corner

The Fable of War Eagle

According to legend, football and the cry of “War Eagle” came to Auburn the same day.

It was Feb. 20, 1892, the day Auburn and Georgia met in the first game of the longest continuous football rivalry in the Deep South.

The story actually began before that. That first Auburn-Georgia game was only the culmination. It began in 1864 at the Battle of the Wilderness in Virginia.

An Auburn student had gone off to fight with Robert E. Lee and the Confederate troops. He was with them on the worst day of the long and fierce battle.

He was wounded, and when the armies retreated to their respective lines, he was left on the battlefield for dead. When he regained consciousness, there were only two living things as far as he could see, himself and a baby eagle.

Brought together by their common bond of misery, the soldier took the wounded bird with him and nursed him back to health. When he returned to Auburn after the war, the eagle came with him.

The student-turned-soldier came back to Auburn and ultimately became a member of the faculty. He was there that day in Atlanta’s Piedmont Park when Auburn and Georgia met in what would now be called “The Game of the Century.” As usual, the eagle—called War Eagle because of the circumstances under which he was found—was there with him.

When Auburn scored the first touchdown the old eagle broke free from its master and began to soar above the field. Auburn people looked skyward, saw the familiar figure, and shouted “War Eagle.”

At the end of the game which Auburn won 10-0, the old eagle collapsed and died, presumably having given his all in pursuit of victory for Auburn.

War Eagle’s body may have died that day, but his spirit lives forever in the hearts of Auburn people who love to stand and shout “War-r-r-r Eagle” long into the night following an Auburn victory.

The facts of this legend cannot be authenticated, but it makes a good story and is the one most used to describe how the “War Eagle” battle cry became associated with Auburn teams.

Auburn teams are known as “The Auburn Tigers,” but the cry of Auburn faithful is ever the same: “War-r-r-r Eagle!”

War Eagle V, which had represented Auburn for five seasons, died just days prior to the 1986 season-opener. Following a nationwide search for the perfect eagle, War Eagle VI was located at Land Between the Lakes, Ky. The female golden eagle underwent numerous tests and conditioning programs at the Auburn Vet School before making its debut at the Georgia game on Nov. 15, 1986 in Auburn.

Editor’s Note: Jim Phillips, former Plainsman editor, wrote this version of the fable of War Eagle in the late 1950s.

Auburn Nickname Explanation

Auburn’s nickname is the TIGERS.

Auburn’s battle cry is “WAR EAGLE!”

Through the years, these two Auburn terms have often been used interchangeably and incorrectly. There are hats and T-shirts with Auburn War Eagles on them. Even the news media has been known to refer to an Auburn team as the War Eagles or to an Auburn player as a War Eagle.

In fact, when the Tigers play a game on the road, there is often an article written in the local paper wondering why Auburn has three nicknames – the Auburn Tigers, the Auburn War Eagles and the Auburn Plainsmen.

To set the record straight, Auburn has only one nickname – the Auburn Tigers.

“War Eagle” is a battle cry, used by Auburn fans in the same manner Alabama fans yell “Roll Tide!” and Arkansas fans yell “Sooie Pig!” You never hear Alabama referred to as the Alabama Roll Tides or Arkansas as the Arkansas Sooie Pigs, and to call Auburn teams the Auburn War Eagles would be just as incorrect. The battle cry “War Eagle” should never have an “s” on the end of it.

The nickname “Tigers” comes from a line in Oliver Goldsmith’s poem, “The Deserted Village,” published in May 1770, “where crouching tigers wait their hapless prey...”

The term “Plainsmen” comes from a line in that same Goldsmith poem, “Sweet Auburn, loveliest (sic) village of the plain...” Since Auburn athletes were, in the early days, men from the Plains, it was only natural for newspaper headline writers to shorten that to “Plainsmen.”

It may be confusing to an outsider, but to Auburn people, it is very simple. That’s why War Eagle VI, Auburn’s golden eagle symbol, is named Tiger!

War Eagle (Fight Song)

War ... Eagle, fly down the field, Ever to conquer, never to yield War ... Eagle fearless and true. Fight on, you orange and blue.
Go! Go! Go!
On to vic’try, strike up the band,
Give ‘em hell, give ‘em hell.
Stand up and yell, Hey! War ... Eagle, win for Auburn, Power of Dixie Land!

Auburn's Mascot, "Aubie"

Aubie

Aubie, Auburn's costumed Tiger mascot, is in his 28th season as a spirit leader and goodwill ambassador for Auburn University.

A popular character among Auburn fans and one of the more animated mascots in the country, Aubie has been on the job since 1979.

Aubie's existence began as a cartoon character that first appeared on the Auburn/Hardin-Simmons football program cover on Oct. 3, 1959. Birmingham Post-Herald artist Phil Neel created the cartoon Tiger who continued to adorn Auburn program covers for 18 years.

Aubie's look changed through the years. In 1962, he began to stand upright and the next year, 1963, wore clothes for the first time—a blue tie and straw hat.

Aubie's appearances on game programs proved to be somewhat of a good luck charm for Coach Ralph "Shug" Jordan's teams. The Tigers were victorious in the first nine games he graced the cover and, in his first six years, Auburn posted a 23-2-1 home record. Auburn's home record during the 18 years Aubie served as cover tiger was 63-16-2.

Aubie's last appearance on the game program cover was October 23, 1976, when Auburn downed Florida State, 31-19, but Aubie returned to Auburn's cover against Alabama on Nov. 30, 1991, Auburn's last home game at Legion Field.

In 1979, Aubie came to life at the Southeastern Conference basketball tournament. James Lloyd, Auburn spirit director for the Student Government Association, with help from the Alumni Association, contacted Brooks-Van Horn Costumes in New York, N.Y.

The company was provided with copies of the 1961 Auburn-Alabama and 1962 Auburn-Georgia Tech game programs to use for reference in creating a costume of the cartoon character. The firm, which also provided costumes for Walt Disney, designed and produced a Tiger costume for $1,350. Individual contributions from various Auburn clubs, alumni and friends helped pay for the first costume.

Aubie proudly marched into the Birmingham-Jefferson Civic Center on Feb. 28, 1979, and helped lead first-year Auburn coach Sonny Smith's team to an upset of Vanderbilt. The following day, Aubie returned to the arena and the Tigers surprised Georgia in the longest game in SEC tournament history, four overtimes. Before the weekend was complete, Aubie helped lead the ninth-place team in the regular season to the semifinals of the tournament.

Aubie was selected as the nation's No. 1 college mascot of 1990-91 by the Universal Cheerleader Association as Chris Wood, Mike Jernigan and Rob Thomson represented Aubie in the suit. And the 1994-95 Aubies, Trey Humphreys, Mike Murphy, and Billy Stephens, received No. 1 college mascot again. In 1995-96, the three Aubies, Billy Stephens (head Aubie) of Metarie, La., along with Mike Griffin and Josh Agerton, both of Auburn, claimed the title again. In 1998-99, the Aubies, J.G. Carver (head Aubie) of Huntsville, Eric Krausse of Chesterfield, Va., and Brannon McKim of Montgomery captured Auburn's fourth national championship. The most recent and fifth national championship was awarded in 2002-03, with the following students representing Aubie in the suit- Taylor Griswold (head Aubie) from Montgomery, Jeremy Legg from Franklin, Tenn., and Trey Mock from Marietta, Ga.

This year's Aubies are Chris Delvzizis (head Aubie) of Brentwood, Tenn., Justin Shugart of Fairhope and Shelton Tate of Spartanburg, S.C.

The Alma Mater

On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath its sun-kissed sky,
Proudly stands, our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise,
From hearts that love so true,
And pledge to thee our Loyalty and ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Hear thy student voices swelling,
Echoes strong and clear,
Adding laurels to thy fame
Enshrined so dear.

From thy hallowed halls we'll part,
And bid thee sad adieu;
Thy sacred trust we'll bear with us
The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

The Auburn Creed

I believe that this is a practical world and that I can count only on what I earn.
Therefore, I believe in work, hard work.
I believe in education, which gives me the knowledge to work wisely and trains my mind and my hands to work skillfully.
I believe in honesty and truthfulness, without which I cannot win the respect and confidence of my fellowmen.
I believe in a sound mind, in a sound body and a spirit that is not afraid, and in clean sports that develop these qualities.
I believe in obedience to law because it protects the rights of all.
I believe in the human touch, which cultivates sympathy with my fellowmen and mutual helpfulness and brings happiness for all.
I believe in my Country, because it is a land of freedom and because it is my own home, and that I can best serve that country by "doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with my God."
And because Auburn men and women believe in these things, I believe in Auburn and love it.

Auburn's Symbol

Tiger

Auburn University's icon, War Eagle VI, won a place in the hearts of college football fans across the country as she gracefully soared onto the field before each home football game. The 27-year old golden eagle is a proud representation of the Auburn spirit.

Tiger's role is to help promote wildlife conservation as a part of the conservation education efforts of Auburn's Raptor Center, where she is housed by permission of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, the federal agency responsible for protecting fish, wildlife and plants and their habitats for the continuing benefit of the American people. Tiger was rescued in the mid-1980s by the Fish and Wildlife Service from an illegal breeding operation in Missouri.

Birds of prey, such as Tiger, are among the most popular forms of wildlife in the world. They symbolize strength and courage as well as other important values, such as freedom, heritage and the preservation of our natural environment. With this charismatic quality, they can be used as flagship species to focus attention on the need for wildlife research and conservation.

Auburn's Raptor Center

Almost 30 years ago, a group from Auburn's College of Veterinary Medicine began an intensive effort to treat and rehabilitate raptor populations, which led to the creation of the Raptor Center. The Raptor Center's mission is to conserve birds of prey and natural systems through education, rehabilitation and research. Educational programs are provided by the Raptor Center throughout the Southeast on topics such as habitat destruction, endangered species, water quality and raptor issues. Educational programs that feature raptors in flight are presented to school groups, conservation societies and at various public events to spread the word about wildlife conservation.

The Raptor Center houses a number of species including bald eagles, golden eagles, peregrine falcons, great horned owls, red-tailed hawks and many others. The center has also earned national recognition from the National Wildlife Rehabilitators Association for award-winning research in raptor biomedicine and for rehabilitation and environmental education efforts.

Perhaps the biggest recognition the Raptor Center has received was during the Opening Ceremonies of the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City, when Tiger flew across the ice in front of thousands in the stadium and billions of viewers worldwide. After her outstanding performance, Tiger was also featured on NBC's Today Show.

Threats to Raptors

Raptors have proven sensitive to many forms of environmental change, such as chemical pollution and habitat degradation. Because of this sensitivity, raptor communities serve as an early warning system, or indicators, for environmental pollution and other change.

As predators, raptors also have been extensively killed to protect game and livestock, so that numbers in some areas may still be well below the level that contemporary landscapes can support. Other than minimizing the use of chemicals which can harm raptors and their reproductive cycle, protecting natural landscapes is the most important thing we can do to protect raptors like Tiger for future generations.

100 Years of Conservation

Tiger's role as a steward for conservation is especially significant as last year marked the Centennial of the National Wildlife Refuge System. With nearly 540 national wildlife refuges and encompassing nearly 95 million acres, the National Wildlife Refuge System is the only system of federal lands dedicated primarily to the protection of fish and wildlife.

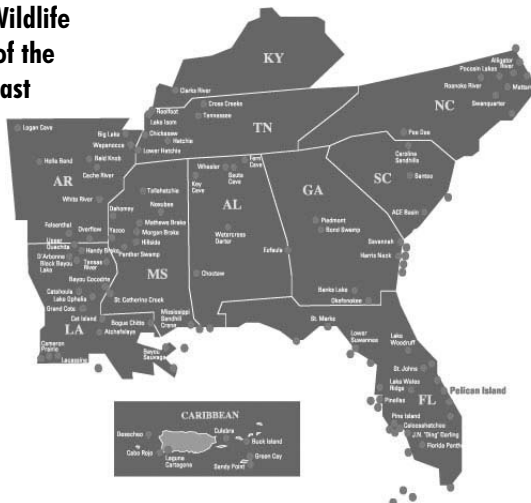

The system was established in 1903 when president Theodore Roosevelt ordered that Pelican Island, a five-acre island along the east coast of Florida and one of the last breeding grounds for brown pelicans, be federally protected. Today refuges protect some of our nation's most pristine and unique fish and wildlife habitats. National wildlife refuges play an important role by protecting natural habitats for raptors like Tiger.

More than 120 national wildlife refuges can be found in the southeastern United States. Alabama is home to nine national wildlife refuges, which protect more than 58,000 acres of fish and wildlife habitat, and Georgia has 10 national wildlife refuges protecting more than 480,000 acres.

Previewing the 2006 Season

Quoting Head Coach Tommy Tuberville

Quarterbacks

"Brandon Cox is coming off a successful first year as a starter, but he has a lot of room for improvement. He has gotten stronger and bigger and knows more about the offense. He's going to have to depend on some young guys around him, but this is a year Brandon needs to make a statement for himself. He has two years remaining and he needs to take more of a leadership role. Now that he has the experience, and I think he will do that.

"Blake Field is much better than he was this time last year. He will be our backup going into the season, but needs to show improvement as Brandon has over the past couple of years. We then have a couple young players who we will look to to be our third quarterback going into the season."

Running Backs

"Kenny Irons is back for his senior year and he should be one of the top players in college football. He worked very hard in the offseason on some of the things he didn't do well last year. He has a great work ethic. He is primed to have a good year.

"Brad Lester, Carl Stewart and Tre Smith are all guys who have played and continue to improve. I'm really excited about Brad. He's going to be a big special teams player for us. Tre Smith lost some weight and gained some quickness. Carl Stewart will be at tailback and fullback, and had a very productive spring.

"Ben Tate is a freshman who went through spring practice. I think he will have a chance to help us this year. It's still a possibility to redshirt him, but with the strong spring that he had and if he continues to improve, he could be beneficial in helping us win games this year."

Kenny Irons

Fullbacks

"Mike McLaughlin had knee surgery in the spring, but he has really worked hard to get back. We'll have to wait and see if he'll be in the mix in two-a-days. Andrew Turman, Steven Gowland and Danny Perry will all be given opportunities at fullback, along with Carl Stewart, who can play both fullback and tailback."

Wide Receivers

"This is one of the big question marks of our offense. Courtney Taylor might be one of the best players in our conference, if not the country, at that position. He is very athletic, skilled and experienced. He is a big-play man, and will also be involved in special teams at punt or kickoff returns. But behind him there is not a lot of experience.

"Prechae Rodriguez, Lee Guess, James Swinton, Ulysses Alexander, Montez Billings, Robert Dunn and Rodgeriquis Smith - we have a list of players who are capable of doing the job, but who do not have a lot of experience. We'll go into the season looking for two-deep. I think the guys with experience, such as Prechae and Robert, have the upper hand. We will also look at a few true freshmen coming in and mixing into the rotation."

Tight Ends

"We lost a very good tight end in Cooper Wallace, but Cole Bennett is back for his senior year. Basically, he has as much experience as any tight end we've had, but he's one of those guys who's been used more as a role player and in blocking. He can also catch the ball.

"Tommy Trott had a very good spring. He is a very athletic redshirt freshman. We will use him in several roles, as a tight end, maybe fullback. Gabe McKenzie is very physical. I think he has an opportunity to be a starter this year. He has a very good work ethic and his attitude has been outstanding. Those three guys have the capabilities to be one of the best tight end groups in the conference."

Offensive Line

"The center of our offensive line, Joe Cope, is very strong. Tim Duckworth and Ben Grubbs, our guards, have proven themselves over the past couple of years. They have had a very good offseason. They have some young guys behind them in Tyrone Green at one guard and Jason Bosley at center, and Nathan Farrow at the other guard. Now we have to put together two new tackles, who are starting for the first time after we lost two three-year starters in Troy Reddick and Marcus McNeill.

"King Dunlap, the heir apparent to the left tackle position, needs to have a lot of improvement in two-a-days, coming off a big spring. He, along with Oscar Gonzalez, will be at left tackle. King is going to be a very big key to our success, whether it's running the ball or throwing it.

"At right tackle, we have Jonathan Palmer, who came out of the spring as probably our starter, along with Leon Hart and Antwoin Daniels. Jonathan is very athletic and we need to see him do it on a consistent basis. There's going to be a lot of competition between him, Leon Hart and Antwoin Daniels going into two-a-days."

Defensive Line

"We're a little bit smaller and younger than in the past, but very athletic. Josh Thompson is not an overly quick person, but has a lot of strength. He's had an opportunity to show his leadership during the spring. Backups Tez Doolittle and Pat Sims have to come through for us to have a real solid defensive line and for depth. Doolittle and Sims had a more productive spring than they've had in the past, but there's a lot of room for improvement.

"We moved Christopher Browder from the defensive end position to tackle. He has gained some weight; we are looking for him to be around 280 by the time we start two-a-days. Sen'Derrick Marks is going to be a good football player for us but he is a redshirt freshman. He's going to have to play a role for us this fall at tackle for us to have a productive defensive line because of depth.

"Marquies Gunn, coming back at the defensive end position, has a chance to have an All-SEC caliber year, along with junior Quentin Groves. Those guys have speed and quickness and are very physical. Antonio Coleman and Octavious Balkcom are also two guys who have played end before. Antonio will see playing time this year along with a guy who is probably an undersized linebacker and will eventually be an every-down player in Alonzo Horton."

Linebackers

"We've moved Will Herring and I thought that was one of our better moves from the spring. He will be at the strong linebacker position along with Kevin Sears and Patrick Trahan. Those guys I thought did a very good job during the spring and there will be a lot of competition there.

Previewing the 2006 Season

"One area where we're not very big but we are athletic is middle linebacker. Karibi Dede, a two-year starter, will move inside after playing outside linebacker, along with Chris Evans and Courtney Harden. Merrill Johnson and Tray Blackmon will fight it out for the weakside linebacker position. Merrill's progress has been slowed some because of a bad ankle sprain in the spring. Tray got a lot of repetitions and was probably the highlight of the spring at linebacker with his athletic ability and willingness to fly around and make tackles from anywhere on the field."

Secondary

"Eric Brock is the only true player at the safety position who has played a lot that is coming back as a starter. Steve Gandy and Blake Shrader are playing behind him. We feel solid there, but we need some improvement with all the defenses we are running. Eric started catching on late in the spring. Steve needs to play more and I think that will give us two real strong guys at strong safety.

"Tristan Davis, moving from running back to free safety, along with Lorenzo Ferguson, will compete to be the starter at that position. Aairon Savage moved from corner to safety late in the spring, and with his athletic abilities he will have the opportunity to play at either free safety or strong safety, depending on where we're going to need more help.

"Cornerback could be the strength of our defense. We have David Irons, maybe the quickest corner I've ever coached, coming back after a productive year. I think he has the possibility of being a first-round draft pick if he continues to improve. He has a lot of competition behind him in Patrick Lee, who is a junior who is working his way up the depth chart, along with Zach Gilbert.

"On the other side, Jonathan Wilhite beat out Montavis Pitts, but there will be a lot of competition in the summer and during two-a-days to see who will win that position, along with redshirt freshmen Jerraud Powers and Walter McFadden.

Special Teams

"We have most of our starters back: holder Matthew Motley, deep snapper Pete Compton, placekicker John Vaughn, punter Kody Bliss and a kickoff guy in Matt Clark. Everything is in place to have a successful year in special teams. We need a little more consistency from John. Kody, coming off a great year, has a chance to be a first-team all-American if he continues his improvement. It looked like Courtney Taylor came out of spring as a returner on punts, but we have a lot of speed, and in two-a-days, we'll look for the right guys to be return specialists."

Priorities in Two-a-Days

"Priorities in two-a-days will be to get as far along in the two-deep as we can. We feel like we have a good handle on a lot of our starters at most positions. There's going to be a lot of competition at some positions on both sides of the ball. There is a lot up in the air for backup positions. There's going to be an attitude we're going to have the first 10 days of practice to come up with a depth chart early so we can work on our assignments and things we're going to do on both sides of the ball, more than a week before the first game. We want to get two weeks in with everybody going into the season because we have 12 games in a row. I don't foresee us doing a lot of scrimmaging this two-a-days because of that. We will get one good scrimmage in. Where it's going to fall, I don't know. We want to find out where that two-deep is at, get them on the field, teach them what's going on and get ready for a long 12-game stretch."

Two New Defensive Coaches

"Will Muschamp, running the defense, will have some new ideas. We want to continue with the things we really know how to do, but it will give us an opportunity to do some things that might catch people by surprise.

"James Willis played here, has coached here before and is in tune to what we're doing and how we're doing it. He's really done well with a lot of younger players. He's brought them along very quickly, which is what we needed to have happen.

"This might be our best staff in terms of how they work together, how they're doing things on and off the field and how they're putting together game plans. There's a lot of knowledge on this staff, but the biggest thing I like is the enthusiasm, and it spilled over onto both sides of the field this spring."

Senior Leadership

"You build leadership during the summer in tough workouts, and this year is no different. We're going to have good leaders. We have a good senior bunch. You can't win without leadership no matter how talented you are. I think our players understand that. It starts with their individual coaches and works down through the third and fourth teams. Leadership is going to be a priority this season."

Schedule

"The schedule is very difficult. Probably half the teams we play will be ranked in the top 25 at one point or another. We do have a very favorable schedule in that a lot of tough teams we play will be at home. But you can't tell a lot about how a team's going to be until you get closer to the time of playing them. When you look at the schedule, it will be one of the most difficult we've played. There were a couple coaches last year who were in their first year and are now more familiar with the league. We get back on the schedule against Florida for the first time in four years and we go to South Carolina for the first time since I've been at Auburn. So it's going to be a very difficult schedule, but everybody has to play basically the same thing in conference. We're looking forward to the challenge."

Overall expectations

"We have high expectations every year. A lot of the magazines are picking us in the top 10. But there are a lot of teams in the top 10 we are playing. I'm excited about the preseason expectations because I think they're predicted off of what you've done the last few years. Most people have recognized that we've had one of the best teams in the country the last several years. We have the best record in the conference since the year 2000. We've been more consistent than everybody and just been a few plays away from having a couple more championships. We've been on the verge, we crossed that threshold one time, in 2004. Is this a championship team? I think it has the makings of a team that can compete for it and have an opportunity. Now we have to go out and get the job done. That's the reason you play the games. We're excited about it. We're excited about the recruiting, the prospects, the work ethic, the attitude and all our academic successes we've had. We're just looking forward to getting back on to the field in 2006."

Head Coach Tommy Tuberville

Coming off a perfect 13-0 season in 2004, expectations for Tommy Tuberville's 2005 Auburn squad were modest after the Tigers lost four players to the first round of the NFL draft, including their entire starting backfield. But Auburn surprised many of the experts, finishing 9-3 and earning a share of its fifth Southeastern Conference Western Division title in the last six years.

Auburn ended the regular season with back-to-back victories over Georgia and Alabama - two teams ranked at the time in the top 10 - setting a new school record in the process with 22 victories over the previous two seasons. Tuberville, whose 2005 senior class also tied a school mark with 39 wins over the past four seasons, has won six of his last seven games against top 10 teams, and 12 of his last 17.

In 2004, Tuberville led Auburn to its best season ever as the Tigers won a school-record 13 games and captured the SEC Championship and the NOKIA Sugar Bowl title. Auburn won its first conference title since 1989 including its first outright championship since 1987.

Auburn defeated five top 15 teams, becoming just the 10th NCAA Division I-A team to finish 13-0 or better. The Tigers earned their first ever berth in a Bowl Championship Series game and defeated Virginia Tech, 16-13 in the Sugar Bowl. For his efforts, Tuberville was named the AFCA, Associated Press, Paul "Bear" Bryant, FCA, SEC and Walter Camp Coach of the Year.

Under Tuberville's guidance, Auburn's 22 wins and .880 winning percentage (22-3) over the last two years is the third best in the country in both categories. Since 2000, the program has the best conference record among SEC teams with a mark of 36-12 (.750).

Plainly stated, in seven seasons at Auburn, Tuberville has built a program that excels both on and off the field.

The season before Tuberville's arrival, Auburn finished with a dismal 3-8 overall record and a last place finish in the SEC Western Division. Tuberville guided the program back to the top of the league standings, leading Auburn to an SEC Championship, five Western Division titles including outright championships in 2000 and 2004 and co-championships in 2001, 2002 and 2005. Under his direction, the Tigers have made six consecutive bowl appearances including four New Year's Day bowl berths.

Tuberville accomplished these feats while playing 25 percent of his games against top 10 opponents and 39 percent against teams ranked in the nation's top 25. His Auburn record stands at 60-27 while his overall record in 11 years as a head coach is 85-47.

Players have excelled under Tuberville's guidance as Auburn has earned 29 first-team All-Southeastern Conference awards, seven All-America honors, 15 SEC All-Freshmen accolades, 36 SEC Player of the Weeks honors, one SEC

Player of the Year award, two Jacobs Awards presented annually to the league's top blocker and one Most Valuable Player of the SEC Championship game.

Nineteen players have been selected in the NFL Draft including an SEC-record four in the first round of the 2005 Draft. Running backs Ronnie Brown and Carnell Williams were taken second and fifth respectively, while cornerback Carlos Rogers was selected ninth overall and quarterback Jason Campbell was picked 25th in the first round. It also marked the first time in NFL Draft history that an entire backfield from the same team was taken in the first round.

The East team head coach at the 2006 Hula Bowl, Tuberville is currently on the Board of Trustees of the American Football Coaches Association and is serving a three-year term on the AFCA rule committee.

Off the field, Auburn has earned more than 65 SEC Academic Honor Roll distinctions during Tuberville's tenure and when the NCAA released its Academic Progress Report (APR) in February 2006, Auburn football had a multi-year score of 981, which was the highest score among public BCS conference institutions. The program received public recognition from the NCAA for being in the top 10 percentile nationally and was one of only four BCS institutions to earn such distinctions.

Last season, 12 players graduated prior to the Capital One Bowl, while in 2004, nine players who had already earned their degrees played in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. In 2003, linebacker Dontarrious Thomas, a three-time SEC Honor Roll selection, was one of eight Division I players named a National College Scholar-Athlete which awarded him a $18,000 post-graduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame.

Tuberville also believes in giving back to the community. Among other activities, he hosts charity golf tournaments for Camp ASCAA, the Girls and Boys Club of Montgomery, the Auburn University Marching Band and the Alabama Sheriff's Youth Ranch.

In addition, he continually stresses the importance of participating in community service projects to Auburn's football team. Auburn football players regularly read at local schools, serve as mentors and visit with the elderly. The last two summers, the football team spent a day working at Story Book Farm which is a non-profit organization that provides therapeutic horseback riding for children suffering from disabilities, chronic illnesses or those who have suffered a loss.

It's evident that Tuberville has built a strong program both on and off the field. He has also spearheaded efforts to upgrade and improve Auburn's football facilities. Since Tuberville took over the program in November 1998, the Tigers have seen their stadium locker room rebuilt, making it one of the finest game-day facilities in the country. An assembly center and the Tiger Walk Plaza were completed in time for the 2001 season.

In 2001, a 14,000-square foot weight room and a state-of-the-art training rehabilitation facility was built adjacent to the Athletic Complex. Prior to the 2003 season, Auburn added a Sprinturf field to its practice fields.

Tuberville understands the process and commitment it takes to build a successful program. Coaching stops at perennial college football powers University of Miami and Texas A&M and a four-year head coaching stint at the University of Mississippi gave him the background in building and maintaining a successful program.

While at Ole Miss from 1995-98, Tuberville posted a 25-20 record. Inheriting a Rebel program plagued by NCAA sanctions and probation, he guided Ole Miss to a winning record in his first season in 1995, despite having just 61 players on scholarship. He did not have a full compliment of scholarship players to work with in any of his four years at Ole Miss.

By the time he had three recruiting classes under his belt, Tuberville led Ole Miss to an 8-4 mark and a victory in the inaugural Motor City Bowl in 1997. His efforts earned him Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year Honors and American Football Quarterly magazine selected him as runner-up for its Schutt Sports Coach of the Year honor.

Prior to becoming head coach at Ole Miss, Tuberville served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Texas A&M for one season. In 1994, he helped lead the Aggies to a 10-0-1 record and No. 8 final ranking by the Associated Press. Under his direction, the Aggie defense finished fourth nationally in scoring defense (13.1 ppg), fifth in total defense (265.5 ypg) and sixth in rushing defense (92.4 ypg).

Tuberville served as a member of the University of Miami staff for eight seasons from 1986-93, taking over as defensive coordinator in 1993.

While serving on the staffs of Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson at Miami, Tuberville was a defensive coach on teams which won three national championships, posted an 87-9 record and played in nine consecutive New Year's Day bowls.

As defensive coordinator for the Hurricanes in 1993, Tuberville directed a Miami defense which was ranked No. 3 nationally in scoring defense (12.6 ppg) and No. 5 nationally in pass defense (91.15 ypg).

Tuberville began his collegiate coaching career at Arkansas State in 1980, coaching various segments of the Indians' defense over the next five seasons. During a five-year stay at Arkansas State, Tuberville coached defensive backs, noseguards and linebackers. During his final year at ASU, the Indians advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

He began his coaching career at Hermitage (Ark.) High School where he spent two years as an assistant and two as a head coach. After three straight four-win seasons, Tuberville guided HHS to a 7-3 mark in 1979 before moving to Arkansas State.

A 1976 graduate of Southern Arkansas University, Tuberville was a letterman at free safety and a two-year member of the golf team at SAU. He is a 1972 graduate of Harmony Grove High School in Camden, Ark.

Tuberville is married to the former Suzanne Fette of Guilford, Ind. They are the parents of two sons, Thomas Tucker (12) and Troy Allen (10).

Auburn won its third consecutive game, but this time had to do it without starting quarterback Brandon Cox as redshirt freshman quarterback Blake Field earned his first career start as the Tigers defeated Western Kentucky 37-14.

Field threw for 200 yards and three touchdowns, in place of Cox, who was out due to an illness. The redshirt freshman completed 13-of-22 passes, including a 38-yard touchdown pass to Brad Lester in the second quarter. The touchdown pass was the first of Field's career and was the first receiving touchdown of Lester's.

John Vaughn got the Tigers out to an early lead on a 28-yard field goal on just his second attempt of the season, capping off a 58-yard drive in the first quarter.

Running back Kenny Irons, who rushed for a game-best 111 yards on the day, ran in the end zone from 8 yards at the 2:48 mark in the first quarter, giving Auburn a 10-0 advantage.

The Field to Lester touchdown pass came at the 4:41 mark of the second quarter and was just the beginning of Field's scoring on the day. With just 13 seconds remaining in the half, Field completed a 9-yard pass to Anthony Mix, giving Auburn a 24-0 lead heading into the lockerroom.

The Hilltoppers' 42-yard rushing touchdown by Justin Haddix in the fourth quarter was the first touchdown allowed by the Auburn defense in 13 quarters of play, dating back to the first game of the season against Georgia Tech.

Auburn concluded its scoring on a Lee Guess 13-yard reception from Field in the fourth quarter. Western Kentucky's Lerron Moore ran Kenny Irons catapulted himself into the Auburn record books with a 218-yard rushing performance at No. 7 LSU, but it was not enough, as LSU defeated Auburn 20-17 in overtime at Tiger Stadium.

The loss halted Auburn's 13-game win streak over SEC teams and continued the trend of home team victories in the series, extending it to six games.

Irons' 218 yards made him just the 14th player in Auburn history to rush for over 200 yards and the first since Carnell Williams ran for 204 against Alabama on Nov. 22, 2003.

The Auburn defense held LSU to 4-of-15 on third down conversions and allowed just one offensive touchdown on the night.

Brandon Cox finished the night completing 16-of-40 passes for 221 yards and a touchdown to Anthony Mix.

LSU's Skyler Green returned an Auburn punt 66 yards for a touchdown with 5:20 remaining in the first quarter.

After a 26-yard John Vaughn field goal early in the second quarter, Irons gave Auburn the lead on a 74-yard touchdown run, putting AU ahead 10-7 in the third.

LSU answered with a Dwayne Bowe 18-yard touchdown reception from JaMarcus Russell.

Auburn capped off its scoring with a 13-play, 87-yard drive, which ended with a fourth down 5-yard touchdown pass from Cox to Mix with 4:52 remaining.

LSU answered Auburn's score with an eight-play, 48-yard drive which set up a Chris Jackson 44-yard field goal with 1:40 remaining in regulation to tie the game, 17-17.

In overtime, Jackson struck again with a 30-yarder to give LSU the 20-17 advantage.

Vaughn came in for Auburn to attempt a 39-yard field goal to send the game into double overtime, but the kick hit the left upright, giving LSU the win.

Led by Irons' 218 yards, Auburn rushed for 230 yards against the SEC's top run defense.

Auburn won its fourth straight game over Alabama in convincing fashion, scoring three first-quarter touchdowns against the nation's top scoring defense and setting a school record with 11 sacks en route to a 28-18 victory over the No. 8 Crimson Tide at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

The victory gave the Tigers a share of the SEC Western Division crown. It is the Tigers' fifth SEC West title in Tommy Tuberville's seven-year tenure as head coach.

The win gave No. 11 Auburn its first four-game winning streak against the Crimson Tide since 1986-89. It also marked Auburn's sixth win in its last seven games against top 10 teams.

The Tiger offense was led by running back Kenny Irons, who finished with 103 yards rushing -- his sixth straight game over the century mark -- and wide receiver Ben Obomanu, who had both a receiving and rushing touchdown. Quarterback Brandon Cox, meanwhile, finished 14-of-21 for 118 yards and two touchdowns.

1958 Outland Trophy

Zeke Smith

G • 6-2 • 215 • 3L • Uniontown, Ala.

Individual Defensive Statistics were not recorded in Zeke Smith's playing days. Here is his bio from the 1959 Auburn Football Media Guide, the season after he won the Outland Trophy:

ROGER DUANE (Zeke) SMITH—22—6-2—215—Sr.—Uniontown, Ala. ... Won Outland Award in 1958 as nation's most outstanding lineman ... Greatest guard in history of Auburn ... All-SEC and All-America in 1958 by unanimous choice ... Considered best line-backing guard in Dixie ... Selected to first-string All-America on following teams: Look Magazine, Associated Press, NEA, FWA, Football Digest, Time Magazine, Sports Illustrated, Chicago Tribune, Coach and Athlete ... All-SEC on Associated Press and United Press International and SEC Lineman of the Year choice of Atlanta Touchdown Club and Birmingham Quarterback Club ... Lineman of the Week by the Associated Press for his play against Tennessee in 1958 season opener ... Led a Tiger defense which allowed the Vols no first downs and minus-33 yards total offense for the afternoon ... Third-string frosh center who was held out as a sophomore ... Came to Auburn as a slow-footed runner but worked hard to obtain powerful muscles and agility ... Has tremendous quickness, speed and power ... Plays left guard on offense but becomes middle linebacker on a five-man line, which Auburn uses 70 percent of the time ... Voted "Best Offensive Guard in SEC" by conference coaches in 1958 ... Speed and quickness make him a natural on pulling and blocking ends (Auburn guards pull on about 80 percent of all plays) ... Drafted by Baltimore Colts following 1958 season as fourth draft pick despite having another year of eligibility ... Turned down $15,000 to sign with Canadian League team because, as he said: "Auburn took me when no one else wanted me. I'm where I am today because of Coach Ralph Jordan and Auburn, and I believe I owe Auburn more than I could ever give" ... Education major.

OTHER CHARACTERISTICS OF ZEKE SMITH—Handsome blond with blue eyes ... Born on Sept. 29, 1936, at Walker Springs, Ala. ... Moved to Uniontown (Pop. 2,000) when he was six years old ... Unheralded as a high school fullback, he was not approached by another college ... Nicknamed "Zeke" by high school coach who said he ran like Zeke Bratkowski (Georgia's famed "Brat" averaged losing 200 yards rushing each year) ... First-string Scholastic All-America by the Peoples Encyclopedia Company ... Called, along with Lou Michaels of Kentucky, "The Greatest Lineman in the SEC in the past 10 years," by Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd ... Will be always remembered by football writers who attended the Look Magazine party in New York for accepting the OUTLAND AWARD by saying, "Thank you gentlemen for this HEISMAN TROPHY ... I mean OUTLAND AWARD." Smith did this twice within 30 seconds ... Spent this past summer as assistant sergeant-at-arms in Alabama Senate ... Pre-season All-SEC and All-America ... Married this summer.

University

Auburn University

Auburn University has a proud and dynamic 150-year history. The institution was chartered on Feb. 1, 1856 as the East Alabama Male College, a private liberal arts school established by Alabama Methodists to foster Christian education.

A single four-story building was completed at a cost of $111,000 in 1859 with 80 students enrolled and a faculty of five. Five male students were graduated in the first commencement held. When Alabama seceded from the Union, faculty and students resigned to enlist for the duration of the Civil War. Among those joining was William J. Samford, who would later become governor of Alabama.

The college building, then named Old Main, was used as a Confederate hospital from 1864 until classes resumed in 1866. When fire destroyed Old Main in 1887, it was replaced on the same site in 1888 by Samford Hall, named after Gov. Samford. Today Samford Hall serves as the AU's administrative headquarters.

The college struggled in the shattered Southern economy during the years after the Civil War. It was a ruined economy and those that pledged large sums to the college went bankrupt and could not meet their pledges. The Methodist Church granted the institution to the state in 1872 for use as a land-grant university under the Morrill Act, signed by President Lincoln in 1862. The institution then became the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Alabama, changing from the private liberal arts school to a state-supported college with an emphasis on the new scientific and agricultural programs.

Continuous expansion followed. In 1899, the Alabama Legislature decided a new name was needed to reflect the expanded role of the institution. The college's name was changed to the Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

From the beginning, however, virtually everyone connected with the university ignored official names, preferring always the name selected for the town, founded in 1836, where the institution was located- Auburn. Elizabeth Harper, the daughter-in-law of the settlement's founder, was inspired by a line from Oliver Goldsmith's poem, "The Deserted Village," which reads, "Sweet Auburn, loveliest village of the plain." Would the history of this institution have been the same had it been named Geneva as once was proposed for naming the town? The story goes that straws were drawn for naming the town Geneva or Auburn. Auburn won out.

As Charles C. Thach, the university's sixth president said, "The Alabama Polytechnic Institute, a high sounding phrase, is fit for legal document; and grave legislation, but not to conjure with and not to yell and not to dream with as is "Fair Auburn." The Legislature agreed, and in 1960 Alabama Polytechnic Institute became Auburn University.

Women students were first admitted to Auburn in 1892, making Auburn the oldest four-year coeducational school in Alabama and the second oldest in the Southeast.

Twelve schools and colleges advance the University's outstanding programs of teaching, research and service. The current colleges and schools and the dates of this original inception are: College of Agriculture, 1872; College of Architecture Design and Construction, 1907; College of Business, 1967; College of Education, 1915; Samuel Ginn College of Engineering, 1872; School of Forestry and Wildlife Sciences, 1984; College of Human Sciences, 1916; College of Liberal Arts, 1986; School of Nursing, 1979; James Harrison School of Pharmacy, 1885; College of Sciences and Mathematics, 1986; College of Veterinary Medicine, 1907; Graduate School, 1872. In 1986, a university reorganization created the College of Liberal Arts and the College of Sciences and Mathematics from the former school of Arts and Sciences (1872), as well as portions of the School of Agriculture and Biological Sciences and the School of Architecture and Fine Arts (both subsequently renamed).

Auburn's greatest growth and development came after World War II. From a campus of 35 buildings in 1946, the university's multi-million dollar physical complex has grown to approximately 375 buildings on 1,840 acres. The Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station conducts crop, animal and soil experimentation statewide, and Extension agents are stationed in all 67 Alabama counties. Main campus enrollment currently exceeds 23,000, with about 1,250 faculty.

In 1967, the State Legislature approved a $5 million bond issue for the purpose of establishing a four-year university at Montgomery under the supervision and control of the Auburn University Board of Trustees. It was name Auburn University at Montgomery. AUM began operation in the former Extension Center of the University of Alabama temporarily in 1969. The Montgomery community raised money to purchase a 500-acre site seven miles east of the city off I-85. The new campus was built and occupied in 1971. Currently its enrollment stands at approximately 5,000.

Auburn University is a pre-eminent land-grant and comprehensive research institution with nearly 23,000 students and 6,500 faculty and staff. Ranked among the top 50 public universities nationally, Auburn is Alabama's largest educational institution, offering more than 230 undergraduate, graduate, and doctoral degree programs.

Economic Impact Highlights

- A recent study determined AU had a nearly $4 billion economic impact on the state of Alabama.
- AU provides principal academic support for Alabama agricultural, construction and manufacturing industries.
- AU is the primary source of instruction and research for Alabama's emerging aerospace, automotive, microelectronics, and wireless technology industries.
- AU has partnered with the state to develop a hotel and conference center at Gulf State Park, which will offer hands-on education to students and attract tourism to Alabama.

Research Highlights

- Sponsored research at AU totals more than $71 million annually.

Auburn University

- Auburn devotes extensive research funding to seven Peaks of Excellence: cellular and molecular biosciences, detection and food safety, fisheries and aquaculture, forest sustainability, information technology, poultry products safety/quality and transportation.

Research Highlights

- AU research has led to licensing and sponsorship agreements with more than 250 commercial firms in less than three years to transfer a variety of its research developments to the marketplace.

- AU is in the planning phase for a research park to attract significant technology business and industry to the area and enhance and support AU's research mission.

- AU is one of six universities selected by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security to provide experts for a homeland security "think tank."

Instruction/Academics Highlights

- U.S. News & World Report ranked two AU colleges in the top 100 in their fields nationwide. The Ginn College of Engineering was ranked 77th and the AU College of Education was ranked 82nd. The rankings were compiled as part of its America's Best Graduate Schools 2006.

- U.S. News & World Report - for the 12th consecutive year - ranked AU in the top 50 public universities in the nation.

- The November 2003 edition of Kiplinger's magazine ranked AU among its best values in U.S. public institutions, as did the 2004 Princeton Review. Kiplinger rated AU 26th in terms of in-state student value and 31st for out-of-state student value.

- AU is the only university in the country to offer a degree in wireless technology, and the first in the Southeast to offer degrees in software engineering.

- AU is known for its "rocket science": six NASA astronauts graduated from AU, and the current director and one past director of Kennedy Space Center are also AU alumni.

DR. ED RICHARDSON Interim President

The Board of Trustees unanimously named Dr. Ed Richardson as interim president of Auburn University on January 20, 2004. As State Superintendent of Education, Richardson had served on the Auburn University Board of Trustees from 1995 until his interim appointment.

Upon accepting the position, his primary task was to convince the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools to lift the probationary status placed upon Auburn University late in 2003. Clearing the university's name with regard to its accreditation status in December 2004 was the culmination of a year of difficult work.

With the SACS accreditation problem behind him, Richardson began working on projects of lasting importance: positioning Auburn to attract a permanent president with outstanding qualifications.

To that end, Richardson put before the AU Board of Trustees an aggressive agenda for 2005-2006.

The agenda places major emphasis on the development of Auburn University's Research Park, improving its airport, effecting changes in the current structure of AU's agriculture programs, establishment of a closer working relationship with AU-Montgomery and formation of a process to conduct academic program reviews including post-tenure review and student assessment. The agenda also includes the formation of an Auburn University and University of Alabama team to work for better state funding.

Prior to assuming the post at Auburn, Richardson had served as State Superintendent of Education since October, 1995.

Before he became state superintendent, Richardson was superintendent of schools for the Auburn City Board of Education for 13 years. He spent eight years as a teacher, assistant principal and principal in the Montgomery County school system and served eight years as principal of Andalusia High School. Richardson has earned three degrees from Auburn University a B.S. in science education in 1962, an M.Ed. in 1967, and an Ed.D. in 1972, both in educational administration.

Richardson is married to Nell Campbell Richardson, a retired school teacher. Born in Selma, Auburn's future first lady moved to Montgomery at age 16, and graduated from Sidney Lanier High School in 1961.

Mrs. Richardson, who attended AUM, but earned a bachelor's degree from AU in 1983, taught English and French at several high schools. She also served as an adjunct instructor at Southern Union and Alex City Community College. Mrs. Richardson retired from Montgomery Public Schools in 2004 to join her husband in Auburn when he was named the university's interim president. Mrs. Richardson is now compiling a booklet featuring Auburn University's first ladies that lived in the current president's home.

The Richardsons have two daughters, Merit and Laura, both graduates of Auburn. The Richardson family also includes three grandchildren: Seth, 12, Molly 5, and the latest addition, Gunnar who was born April 3 of this year, along with two grand-dogs, Destin and Buckley.

JAY JACOBS Athletics Director

Auburn Athletics Director Jay Jacobs has a vision of leading Auburn Athletics to becoming the nation's preeminent Athletics Department. In his brief tenure at the helm of the Tigers' program, Jacobs has set out on a path that has seen the department prosper athletically, academically, and financially, making sound decisions that have benefited Auburn student-athletes, coaches, and fans.

Athletically, the Tigers have claimed five national championships under Jacobs, including a school-record four titles in 2005-06 along with six Southeastern Conference titles. Last year, the Auburn men's and women's swimming programs each won NCAA titles, the women's outdoor track and field team won its first-ever national championship, and the equestrian team captured the national varsity equestrian crown.

Individually in 2005-06, Auburn produced 54 All-Americans, 52 All-SEC performers, six NCAA individual and relay champions, 21 Southeastern Conference champions, and five Tiger student-athletes were named SEC Athlete of the Year in their respective sport.

Perhaps more impressive than Auburn's athletic achievements, are the successes by Tiger student-athletes in the classroom. The NCAA's Academic Progress Report (APR) that was released in February 2006, recognized three Auburn programs for scoring in the 90th-100th percentile nationally. The APR, which is a formula based upon student-athletes' retention and eligibility, saw the Auburn football team post the highest score of any Division I public institution from a Bowl Championship Series conference. The men's cross country and men's golf programs posted perfect APR scores of 1,000 and joined the football program to receive public recognition by the NCAA.

In 2005-06, five Auburn student-athletes were Academic All-Americans, 122 earned Academic All-SEC honors, and cross country and track and field All-American Angela Homan won the NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and received the prestigious Auburn University Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award. A total of 200 Auburn student-athletes earned grade point averages of 3.0 or better during the Fall 2005 semester and a record 185 student-athletes were honored at the annual Tiger Torch Banquet.

Jacobs, who gained strong business expertise as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Tigers Unlimited prior to his appointment as Director of Athletics, has initiated several successful business ventures for the Athletics Department.

In December 2005, Auburn signed a five-year contract with Under Armour Performance Apparel to be the official outfitter of the University's athletic teams. The five-year contract, worth over $10.6 million in sponsorship, product, and additional benefits, provides Auburn's athletic teams Under Armour uniforms, cleats, apparel, and accessories.

Auburn also extended its multi-media rights contract with ISP Sports for an additional nine years following the end of the current agreement in 2007. The new terms include revenue to the Athletics Department of an average of more than $5.8 million annually, more than double the previous contract of nearly $2.4 million per year.

Under Jacobs' leadership, Auburn has also moved forward with several facility projects designed to benefit Tiger athletic programs and their fans. The most recognizable update has been the Jordan-Hare Stadium Phase 1C renovation, set for completion in August 2006. The renovations include new concessions and expanded restroom facilities on the west and east concourses along with a spacious plaza on the west side of the stadium.

In 2005-06, Auburn opened the new Hutsell-Rosen Track and a new wood floor surface was placed over the old tartan floor at Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. Other projects set for ground-breaking in 2006-07 include a new tennis facility west of campus, an outdoor training pool located at the old Luther Young Tennis Complex and a new golf training center.

For Jacobs, it was only fitting that he was named Auburn's 14th Director of Athletics on December 22, 2004, after working in almost every area of the Auburn Athletics Department for the previous 20 years.

It was the final step for Jacobs in a career that had allowed him to gain a wide-range of experiences in collegiate athletics, from the perspective of a student-athlete, to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director for Tigers Unlimited, Auburn's fund-raising arm.

Jacobs grew up just 20 miles from Auburn in LaFayette and made several trips a year to the campus to watch athletic events. Later, after moving to Jacksonville, Fla., to attend high school, he returned to Auburn for college. After walking on the Auburn football team, he earned two letters as an offensive tackle in 1982 and 1983. As a senior, he started for the SEC Championship Tigers that finished the season ranked third nationally.

Not long after his career ended against Michigan in the 1984 Sugar Bowl, Jacobs started the journey that led him to being named Athletics Director.

After one season as a coach at Lee-Scott Academy in Auburn, Jacobs returned to his alma matter in 1985 as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach. After serving two seasons (1986-87) as a graduate football coach, Jacobs was named Conditioning Coach, a position he held for three years (1988-91).

In 1991, he became an Assistant Athletics Director. Three years later, he was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Operations, overseeing a variety of support functions in the Athletics Department.

As the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Tigers Unlimited from 2001-05, Jacobs oversaw the fund-raising efforts that secured approximately $60-million in gifts the last three years. He spearheaded a $90 million capital campaign which is the largest in Auburn athletic history.

Jacobs earned his undergraduate and master's degree in business administration from Auburn in 1985 and 1988, respectively. He is married to the former Angie Sapp of Dublin, Ga. The couple has three daughters, Haley, Meagan, and Jayne.

The NCAA Rules and You

Auburn University is committed to full compliance with all Southeastern Conference (SEC) and National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA) rules and regulations. Therefore, Auburn University is responsible for insuring its student-athletes, coaches, faculty and staff, alumni, donors, boosters and friends adhere to the rules of the SEC and NCAA.

The loyalty and support demonstrated by our fans, alumni and friends is unparalleled. Please help Auburn University position itself for greatness today and in the future by reviewing this summary of NCAA rules.

I. Representatives of Athletic Interests.

A "representative of Auburn's athletic interests," or booster is anyone who:

- Has ever participated in or is currently a member of any of the various athletic department support groups or Auburn Clubs nationwide.
- Has made a donation to the athletics program;
- Has helped arrange for summer and/or vacation employment for student-athletes or provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes;
- Has assisted in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes; or
- Has been involved, in any way, in the promotion of Auburn University's athletic program.

II. Recruiting.

Only coaches and athletic department staff can be involved in the recruiting process. Athletic representatives are prohibited from contacting a prospective student-athlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter or in person for the purpose of encouraging participation in athletics at Auburn University. Please contact the coaching staff if you know of a prospect that may have the interest and ability to participate in intercollegiate athletics at Auburn University. The coach can then take appropriate action.

III. Prospective Student-Athlete.

A prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth (9th) grade. In addition, a student-athlete who has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospective student-athlete if the institution provides such an individual (or the individual's relatives or friends) any financial assistance or other benefits that the institution does not provide to prospective students generally.

IV. Extra Benefits.

An extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or a representative of the institution's athletics interests to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. Extra benefits would include, but are not limited to:

- Cash or loans in any amount
- Co-signing or arranging a loan
- Gifts or free services (e.g., airline ticket, restaurant meals, etc.)
- Use of an automobile
- Rent-free or reduced-cost housing
- Money for, or a guarantee of, bail or bond
- Employment of a student-athlete at a rate higher than the wages paid for similar work
- Payment to a student-athlete for work not performed

Your commitment to helping Auburn University comply with the letter and the spirit of the rules and regulations of the SEC and the NCAA is greatly appreciated.

If you have any questions concerning SEC or NCAA rules which help govern Auburn Athletics, please contact the Auburn Compliance Office at (334) 844-9736.

Auburn University Athletic Department Mission Statement

"The Department of Athletics, in keeping with the mission of the University, and in a spirit of inclusion, encouraging diversity and equitable treatment for all, will seek to abide by the rules, to manage its fiscal affairs in a responsible manner, to educate its student-athletes, and to win championships, thereby bringing credit to Auburn and its people."

City of Auburn

Auburn, Alabama was founded in 1836 by Judge John J. Harper of Harris County, Georgia. Envisioned as a religious, educational and cultural center, Auburn was incorporated as a town on Feb. 2, 1839. By 1856, Auburn University was chartered as the East Alabama Male College and has since become a thriving addition to the city.

With each year, "the loveliest village of the plains" continues to grow and improve. With a steadily increasing population of over 42,000, Auburn offers big-city appeal in a hometown atmosphere. Cultural activities, sporting events and educational opportunities are never in short supply. Auburn also boasts a newly expanded mall, Colonial University Village, a number of unique downtown shops and over 100 restaurants, two bed and breakfasts, four campgrounds and 1,550 hotel rooms.

consists of 38 granite plaques bearing the names of those honored along the Trail. Each year new plaques are added as more Auburn women and men are recognized for their contributions to Auburn. The Tiger Trail is sponsored by the Auburn Chamber of Commerce and funded by Auburn people. This tradition represents a connection between the city of Auburn and Auburn University that will remain forever.

Truly, the city of Auburn is unique to the state of Alabama. Once the "Auburn Spirit" gets in your blood, you will never want to leave. Come to visit and stay a lifetime.

Some of the activities Auburn offers include:

CHEWACLA STATE PARK

A 696-acre park with a 26-acre lake, offers rustic cabins, tennis courts, nature trails and camping facilities.

KIESEL PARK

Willed to the city by Dr. Goerge Kiesel, this property has been developed as a "nature park." A two and one-half mile walking and jogging trail winds in and around gurgling streams, over rolling, tree-covered hills and through a wildflower meadow.

GOLF

In an area known for big time sports and small town charm, a golfer's dream awaits. The Auburn area offers more than 162 holes of great golf: Auburn University Club, Auburn Links at Mill Creek; Grand National; Indian Pines Golf Complex; Moore's Mill Country Club, Pin Oaks Golf Club; Saugahatchee Country Club and the Driver's Club, a lighted driving range.

A 696-acre park with a 26-acre lake, offers rustic cabins, tennis courts, nature trails and camping facilities.

Geographically, the city of Auburn and Auburn University meet at what is known as "Toomers Corner." Here the flourishing community and expanding university create a warm, friendly spirit that can only be described as "Auburn."

The bond between the city and university is exemplified along the streets of downtown Auburn where tribute is paid to Auburn University's greatest athletes, coaches and administrators. Known as Tiger Trail of Auburn, this walk of fame

Media Relations Working Policies

The Auburn Media Relations staff appreciates your interest in Auburn and constantly strives to assist you in your coverage of the Tigers and to make your job easier and more enjoyable.

We have certain policies and procedures that we ask you to abide by. These policies and procedures are designed to take your needs as well as the needs of our players and coaches into consideration and create a good working situation for all.

As always, we seek your suggestions and will try to handle any special requests you may have.

Player Interviews

Interviews with our players are encouraged.

All player interviews must be arranged through the Media Relations Office.

This policy is not intended to limit media access to players. It is intended to ensure to the fullest degree possible that members of the media get needed interviews and that the interviews are conducted at the best time for the media representative and for the player. Players are usually available after the Tuesday press conference, and after practice in most instances.

Players will be available following the Tuesday press conference through prior arrangement with the Media Relations Office. Requests for players should be made to Brad Gust by 4 p.m. on Mondays prior to the Tuesday press session. All requests for Coach Tuberville should be made through Kirk Sampson. Please do not expect players to be available if you have not made arrangements for them to be there. In cases of conflicting circulation or coverage areas, priority will be given to media outlets which request in advance.

Post-practice interviews may be arranged by contacting a member of the Media Relations staff. The player will be brought to the press workroom AFTER his football and academic obligations have been completed.

The Media Relations Office will make every effort to arrange telephone interviews, but player telephone numbers will not be given out. Because it would be difficult for players to distinguish legitimate media calls from calls from individuals claiming to represent the media, players are instructed not to conduct a telephone interview unless it is cleared through the

Media Information

Media Relations Office. When conducting telephone interviews, players will return calls at an agreed upon time.

All player interviews must be completed by Wednesday evening on game weeks. Auburn's quarterbacks will not be available after Tuesday on game weeks.

PER SEC REGULATIONS, PLAYERS ARE NOT PERMITTED TO DO LIVE TELEVISION OR RADIO INTERVIEWS.

Dorm Rooms, Apartments, Locker Rooms and Training Rooms

Players' rooms, apartments, the locker room and the training room are off-limits to everyone except staff. Interviews should be conducted in the press workroom or at other sites arranged by the Media Relations Office.

Football Practice

The first 15-30 minutes of Auburn football practice will usually be open to the media. If you want to attend practice, contact Brad Gust to be sure that practices will be open on that particular day.

Television and still photographers are welcome to shoot any part of the practice that is open. All media representatives are asked and expected to stay in the area between practice fields for safety reasons.

SEC Media Services

Press Credentials

Working press and photographer credentials for Auburn's home games will be handled by Auburn Media Relations Director Kirk Sampson.

All credential requests should be made in writing by Sports Editors or Sports Directors of accredited media outlets on company letterhead. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made within seven days of the game will not be considered.

Pilots are not considered working media involved in coverage of the game and therefore will not be allowed in the press box. We will not be responsible for pilot tickets.

The credential authorizes the use by an accredited organization for news coverage of the game. Any unauthorized use of credentials subjects the bearer to ejection from the stadium and subjects the accredited organization to revocation of its credentials for future Auburn athletic events. The accredited organization and bearer assume all risk incident to the performance by the bearer.

No online service will be allowed "real-time" transmission of Auburn's home football games. Only the Auburn Athletic Department or the Auburn Network will be allowed "real-time" transmission during home games. This includes any on-line media that provides continual on-line play-by-play, digital images, audio or video of an event.
