Southeastern Conference

The Southeastern Conference has continued its rise as one of the top conferences in women's soccer. The 2004 women's soccer season reaffirmed the SEC's prominence in the country. Three teams from the SEC were invited to the NCAA tournament. Auburn, Florida and Tennessee made the 64-team field. The three teams combined for a record of 3-3 with the Lady Vols advancing to the Third Round before falling at Ohio State. The SEC now has a 33-34-3 (.493) NCAA Tournament record in 31 appearances.

SEC women's soccer will begin its 13th season in the year of 2005 deeply rooted in the national scene of collegiate soccer. Since the SEC initiated women's soccer as a varsity sport in 1993, the sport's popularity has grown through the country and especially in the Southeast. A definitive point in the SEC's women's soccer success came in 1995 when FOX Sports South broadcasted the SEC Tournament Championship match between Alabama and Kentucky on a tape-delayed basis, signifying the first appearance of an SEC women's soccer match on television. Southeastern Conference women's soccer continued to grow over the next couple of years as the conference made a name for itself nationally. In 1998, the SEC had its breakout season with Florida winning the conference's first NCAA title in women's soccer in just the program's fourth year of existence. The league led the nation with six NCAA Tournament teams that year, an accomplishment which firmly inserted the SEC as one of the major conferences in women's soccer. The SEC also made bigger strides in its television coverage with three regular season matches and the SEC Tournament championship match shown live on the SEC-TV package. In 2004, SEC-TV's women's soccer coverage was four regular-season matches, in addition to the SEC Tournament championship match. That incremental growth combined with increasing exposure on the national and regional scene has SEC women's soccer looking to blossom to new heights in the year 2005 and beyond.

Tie with Tide clinches SEC crown for Tigers

Special to The News

Auburn soccer head coach Karen Richter's birthday could not get much better Friday night.

Her team's 1-1 tie against Alabama in Auburn clinched the Tigers' regular-season SEC championship.

The title is the first for the program list — just three seasons ago — was just in the conference.

"This tie was bittersweet, but like Niki (Schier) said, 'who cares,'" head coach Karen Richter said in winning the SEC administration has been so supportive of everything we have needed and the crowd tonight was great to come out and get behind us like they did."

The match was dominated by superb keeping on both sides of the field. Alabama's Laura Lowman and Auburn's Megan Rivera both made game saving stops in each half.

In the first half, the Tigers made several attempts to put points on the board. Seemingly to be her trademark, Sarah Steinmann was able to make many runs down the leftside of Alabama's defense.

Steinmann penetrated to the endline and would send balls through the box, looking for an attacking Auburn player.

Auburn, however, wasn't able to capitalize as the team took nine shots, throughout the half, without putting one in the net.

In the second half, Alabama began to mount an attack on the Auburn goal. With fluid passing, the Alabama attack was able to move the ball down the field and get its first real shot on goal. Deep in the Auburn half, an Alabama forward was able to make a through pass to a waiting teammate in the box. The teammate ripped a shot to the far post, only to have Rivera make a diving save on the line.

Near the end of the second half, Auburn came back to try and snatch a win. On the Tigers' best chance of scoring in the second half, Jerr Walters tried an opportunity towards the goal that was blocked.

In overtime, both teams played very physical and were unable to maintain much possession.

As the horn sounded to end the second overtime and the game in a 0-0 tie, only one shot had been registered — from Auburn.

Auburn soccer clinches SEC West

STAFF WRITER

BAYTON ROUGE, La. — The No. 19-ranked Auburn soccer team (12-2-1, 7-3-1 SEC) captured its fourth consecutive SEC Western Division title Sunday afternoon with a 2-1 win over LSU (6-8, 1-6 SEC).

"It wasn't pretty and we didn't dominate in the second half like we wanted to, but this team always finds a way to win," head coach Karen Hoppa said. "Now that we have won the West, we can finally look towards our matchup with Tennessee on Friday. That game will be a battle for the SEC title and I hope all the Auburn faithful come out to support us. We need the 12th man in the stands."

The Tigers also took a 1-0 win over Arkansas on Friday as junior Courtney Crandall scored the game's lone goal with a 1:11 left.

Against LSU Sunday, Auburn took a 2-0 lead in the half with scores from Sarah Steinmann and Christie Cigno. Steinmann just the first goal on the board at the 15:10 mark with an outstanding individual effort.

Steinmann dribbled the ball down to the left endline and blocked a clearing attempt by an LSU defender. Steinmann picked up the blocked shot and got off a shot of her own, sending the shot past LSU goalkeeper Robyn Desormeaux for the 1-0 lead.

"The key was to come out hard and that they would see so we focused on winning the 45-60 balls," Steinmann said. "It gets hard to keep your composure because it gets heated out there. We are so glad to come out of here with a win and with the West title."

Cigno picked up her fourth goal of the season at the 96:36 mark. Junior forward Jac Schwanz dribbled the ball down, the left side and took a shot from just outside the box. Desormeaux came out to save and Cigno headed the ball into the goal for the score and the 2-0 lead heading into the half.

"We did a good job of getting two goals in the first half and luckily, that was all we needed," Hoppa said.

Auburn's Christie Cigno (22) and Ole Miss' Karen Hall (17) collide in mid-air going for a header in Auburn's 2-1 victory over the Rebels on Oct. 10. Auburn clinched the SEC West over the weekend with a pair of wins over Arkansas and LSU.
