No. 8 Auburn Travels to No. 10 Georgia

The No. 8 Auburn gymnastics team hits the road for the last time in the regular season, traveling to No. 10 Georgia for a 6 p.m. CT meet Friday, March 4. The match up will be broadcast on SEC Network+.

"I think this is one of the toughest places in the country to come away with a win," head coach Jeff Graba said. "We have to be focused on what's important. We want to go in there and embrace the high-energy environment that they have. If we continue to do what we have done the past two weeks, we'll be in good shape this weekend."

In the Rankings

The Auburn gymnastics team enters the week once again in the eighth spot in the national rankings, holding an RQS score of 196.720.

The team upped their floor average this week and are seventh overall with a 49.365 following a season-best 49.500 against Missouri. Auburn is eighth on vault (49.195) and bars (49.240) and 11th on beam (49.120).

Individually, senior Caitlin Atkinson is sixth in the all-around with a 39.450, tied for 10th on floor (9.915) and tied for 11th on vault (9.878).

Scouting Georgia

The Georgia Bulldogs are the 10th-ranked team nationally with an RQS score of 196.380. The team is tied for second in the conference with a 4-2 record and is 4-5 overall. The Bulldogs picked up back-to-back wins at home to open February to highlight their SEC schedule so far, defeating Florida (196.400-196.350) and LSU (197.525-196.800). Georgia's score against LSU was a team-best this season.

The Bulldogs are fourth nationally in vault (49.335), sixth on bars (49.275) and ninth on floor (49.320).

Senior Brandie Jay is ranks 11th in the nation in all-around with a 39.420 and fourth on vault at 9.910. Senior Brittany Rogers is tied for sixth on bars with a 9.905 RQS.

Last Meeting

The teams last met at the 2015 SEC Championships, March 21, 2015. Auburn finished fourth with a 196.925, while Missouri came in fifth (196.000). In the regular season, the Tigers defeated Georgia for the first time since 2010 with a program-record 197.750 in Auburn.

Another 197+ Against Missouri

Auburn hosted Missouri, Feb. 26, and finished the night with a 197.200 in the win. The team's total marked the fourth-highest score in program history and the squad's third-straight score of 197+.

Senior Caitlin Atkinson captured all-around honors for the third time this season with a 39.625. She won two other event titles, taking bars and floor. Her 9.950 on floor set a new season-high, while her 9.900 on bars tied a season best.

Freshman Taylor Krippner set a new career-high on beam with a 9.825. She also tied a career-best on bars with a 9.875.

Making Moves on Floor

Auburn has consistently made improvements in what the team believes is their best event - floor. The team is coming off a season-best performance against Missouri, totaling a 49.500. The tumbling corps earned four 9.900s or better in their meet vs. Mizzou and collectively, the event has become the team's primary strength.

"We're throwing high difficulty and that gives us high reward," Jeff Graba said. "We knew that, at the beginning of the season, things would be shaky. But we've been building and bringing in more risks and it's paying off."

Program Record Broken at LSU

The Tigers traveled to then-No. 6 LSU last weekend and set a program road score record with a 197.125 in Baton Rouge, Feb. 19.

Freshman Samantha Cerio was named the gymnast of the week by her teammates as she set career-highs on bars (9.825) and beam (9.875). Senior Kait Kluz had a pair of season highs on bars (9.875) and vault (9.825).

On beam, redshirt senior Lexus Demers scored a season high 9.875, while sophomore Abby Milliet tied her season best with that same score.

Historic Win in Auburn Arena

No. 8 Auburn defeated No. 4 Alabama 197.275-197.250 Friday, Feb. 12, to snap a streak of 117-consecutive losses to the Crimson Tide in front of the third sellout in Auburn Arena gymnastics history.

Senior Caitlin Atkinson won all-around honors for the second time this season with a season-high 39.650 and swept all four events.

Atkinson, a Houston, Texas, native, was the last gymnast to perform for the night and went into her final routine on floor with Alabama leading 197.250-197.175. She nailed her routine with a 9.925 to give Auburn the final advantage.

Record Breakers

Auburn finished the 2015 season with 52 broken or tied program records following its incredible run to the Super Six for the first time in 22 years. Six of the top eight team totals in program history were scored this season led by Auburn's all-time highest team total of 197.750 vs. No. 9 Georgia in the first sellout in history. The Tigers also scored record team totals in the SEC Championship, NCAA Regional, NCAA Semifinal and the NCAA Super Six.

Auburn broke its all-time bars score after posting a 49.525 against No. 12 Arkansas in the first home SEC meet of the season. Three meets later, the Tigers scored a record 49.500 on vault against No. 2 LSU. MJ Rott tied her own Auburn vault record of 9.975 against No. 9 Georgia.

Auburn averaged 6,188 fans per home meet last season, for a total of 30,940 in attendance over the year. Both are program records and helped Auburn to the fifth-highest average attendance in the nation.

All-American Atkinson

Senior Caitlin Atkinson earned her second NAGC/W Regular Season All-America honor in all-around last season after breaking the school record with a score of 39.750 against Alabama in Birmingham on March 8.

The Houston, Texas native also earned NCAA All-America honors in beam and all-around, scoring a career high 9.950 on beam at the NCAA Championship semifinals on April 17. Atkinson won the all-around in the second semifinal with a total of 39.550, tying for third overall.

Jeff Graba Returns

Head coach Jeff Graba returns for his sixth season at the helm of the Auburn gymnastics program in 2016. In his first five seasons with the program, Graba has recorded a 61-80 (.433) overall record, giving him the third most registered wins in Auburn gymnastics history. Graba is also a three-time SEC Coach of the Year (2012, 2014, 2015). He is joined by reigning NCAA Co-Assistant Coach of the Year Kurt Hettinger, entering his eighth season with the program and assistant coach Mary McDaniel, who is in her first season at Auburn.

Up Next

Auburn closes out the regular season in Auburn Arena, March 11, hosting Arizona State in a non-conference meet. The Tigers and the Sun Devils will face off at 7 p.m. CT and the meet will be broadcast on SEC Network+.

The Tigers will honor their three seniors prior to the meet - Caitlin Atkinson, Lexus Demers and Kait Kluz.
