Tiger Tales

- ▶ No. 6 Auburn (3-3, 1-2 SEC) will host No. 7 Arkansas (6-1, 3-0 SEC) on Friday at 7 p.m. in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. Live stats will be available on auburntigers.com.
- ▶ Arkansas marks the fourth top-10 opponent the Tigers have faced this season.
- ▶ Auburn suffered a 197.250-195.925 loss at third-ranked Georgia on Feb. 7.
- ▶ Rookie Kylie Shields made her bars debut against the Bulldogs. She competed on three events for the first time this season. The freshmen trio of Shields, Allyson Sandusky and Kendall Swartz have appeared in every meet this season.
- ▶ Last week against Georgia marked the first time this season that an Auburn gymnast did not win an event title. The Tigers have claimed 19 event titles, led by Lindsey Puckett with 12, A.J. Mills has claimed six and Rachel Inniss has one.
- ▶ The Tigers have hit 137-of-144 (.951) routines and have not counted a fall.
- ▶ Auburn is ranked sixth this week with a 196.175 average. The Tigers are No. 4 on floor (49.158), No. 6 on beam (49.017), No. 8 on bars (48.967) and No. 12 on vault (49.033).
- ▶ In the NCAA Central Region, Auburn is ranked second and holds the top spot on floor. The Tigers rank second on bars and beam and fourth on vault. Puckett and Mills are tied for first in the Central Region's all-around rankings and hold a .02 advantage on LSU's Ashleigh Clare-Kearney.

The Series: Auburn vs. Arkansas

► Friday's meet will be the 13th all-time meeting between Auburn and Arkansas. The Razorbacks' gymnastics program is in only its sixth season, but holds a 7-5 series advantage against the Tigers.

► Auburn has one dual win over the Razorbacks in six head-to-head meetings. The Tigers defeated Arkansas 196.300-194.975 in the first-ever meeting on Feb. 14, 2003, in Auburn.

► The Tigers' four other wins against Arkansas have come at the SEC Championship, most recently outscoring the Razorbacks 196.100-194.650 in 2008.

► At last year's meet in Fayetteville, the Razorbacks posted a 196.425 to Auburn's 195.950.

Scouting the Razorbacks

► No. 7 Arkansas (6-1, 3-0 SEC) will spend its second straight week on the road Friday night at Auburn.

► Last week the Razorbacks were in action against Kentucky in Lexington, Ky., winning its third league meet 195.075-194.500. The 195.075 was a season low for the Razorbacks. Even though Arkansas picked up the win, the Razorbacks posted a season-low 48.975 in the third rotation on floor and had two gymnasts fall on beam to finish with a 47.925 on the final event.

► The Razorbacks have won three SEC dual meets this year. That is a program-best, bettering Arkansas' two league wins in each of the previous five seasons. At home in Barnhill Arena, Arkansas has knocked off Florida (196.375-195.425) and Alabama (196.625-196.525) and defeated Kentucky (195.075-194.500) on the road.

► The only blemish on the Razorbacks' record is a loss to Oregon State in a tri-meet with California.

► Rookie Jamie Pisani has twice been named the SEC Freshman of the Week.

► In the Feb. 9, installment of GymInfo's rankings, Arkansas is ranked third on floor (49.179), sixth on bars (49.104) and 11th on both vault (49.046) and beam (48.783).

► Casey Jo Magee is the nation's fifth-ranked all-arounder, averaging a 39.367. She is Arkansas' only top-10 gymnast on an event, listed ninth on beam averaging a 9.862. Magee also ranks 14th on bars with a 9.854 average.

► Also appearing in the top-20 rankings is junior Michelle Stout, ranked 14th on vault with a 9.871 average. Pisani owns a pair of top-20 rankings at No. 16 on both vault (9.867) and floor (9.854).

Auburn in the Southeastern Conference

- ▶ Auburn is tied with Alabama for fifth in the overall SEC standings with a 1-2 record. Georgia and Arkansas are tied for first with a 3-0 mark, followed by LSU and Florida who sport 2-2 records.
- ▶ Auburn is the third-highest ranked SEC team behind No. 3 Georgia and No. 5 Alabama. Five SEC teams are currently ranked in the top 10.
- ▶ As a team, the Tigers boast the second-highest beam score in the league (49.350 at Illinois-Chicago).
- ▶ Lindsey Puckett has posted the third-best all-around score (39.550) in the league and A.J. Mills has posted the fifth-best with a 39.500.
- ▶ Puckett is one of five gymnasts to post a 9.95 on vault to lead the SEC.
- ▶ Mills owns the third-highest bars score with a 9.9 and shares that with five other gymnasts.
- ▶ Puckett's 9.975 ties for second on beam with Georgia's Grace Taylor. Mills' 9.925 at Illinois-Chicago ranks third.

No. 5 Auburn Topped by No. 3 Georgia

- ▶ Fifth-ranked Auburn suffered a 197.250-195.925 loss to third-ranked Georgia in front of a sellout crowd of 10,224 in Stegeman Coliseum on Feb. 7. Despite the loss, the Tigers hit 23-of-24 routines and did not have a fall.
- ▶ Lindsey Puckett finished as the all-around runner-up, posting a 39.325, and senior counterpart A.J. Mills placed third with a 39.125. For the first time in her career, rookie Kylie Shields competed on three events, bars, vault and beam. A regular competitor on vault and beam, it was Shields bars debut. She also exhibitioned on floor.
- ▶ Auburn combined for a 48.825 on bars. Mills and Krissy Voss led the rotation posting a 9.825 and 9.8, respectively. Voss' 9.8 matched a career high.
- ▶ Puckett led the way for the Tigers by earning a 9.875 on vault. Mills posted a 9.825 in the No. 5 spot and Sandusky and Voss provided a pair of 9.8s.
- ▶ Carmen Nelms got things started for Auburn on floor with a 9.8, followed up with a 9.825 from Voss. In the No. 4 spot, Rachel Inniss tumbled to a 9.875.
- ▶ Puckett closed out beam with a 9.875. Shields delivered in the No. 3 position, earning a 9.825. Brzostowski earned a season-high 9.775 in the lead-off spot.

Sandusky Named SEC Freshman of the Week

- ▶ Auburn gymnast Allyson Sandusky has been named Southeastern Conference Freshman Gymnast of the Week the league office announced on Feb. 3. Sandusky is the first Tiger gymnast to receive conference honors this season.
- ▶ Sandusky provided solid and career-high scores on vault and bars as Auburn topped No. 10 LSU 196.575-195.300 on Jan. 30.

No. 6 Tigers Dominate in Victory Over No. 10 LSU

► Sixth-ranked Auburn topped No. 10 LSU 196.575-195.300 in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum on Jan. 30. It was Auburn's the first win over LSU on its home mat since 2003.

► Auburn's 196.575 was the highest score achieved this season and the Tigers posted season-high marks on vault, bars and floor. Seven gymnasts matched or set career highs. The Tigers were again consistent, hitting 23-of-24 routines.

► Puckett won vault, tied for first on beam and claimed her third all-around title of her senior campaign by tying her career-high score of 39.550. Her 39.550 also ranks second on Auburn's all-time all-around scores.

No. 6 Auburn Denies No. 18 ISU on Record-Setting Night

► The senior duo of Lindsey Puckett and A.J. Mills stole the show as the sixth-ranked Auburn routed No. 18 Iowa State 196.275-195.225 on Jan. 23, in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. Puckett and Mills combined for the Tiger sweep on all four events and the duo finished one-two in the all-around on career-high marks.

► Puckett was the vault, balance beam, floor exercise and all-around champion on a career night. She won the all-around, but made her mark by earning a 9.975 on beam for the second-highest score on the event in Auburn history. She was awarded a 9.95 and a perfect 10.0 to combine for the 9.975. It was the first time in Puckett's career that she had earned a 10.0.

► Mills had a career night of her own, scoring a personal best 9.9 on uneven bars to claim the individual title. She finished as the all-around runner-up with a career-best performance of 39.500, a mark that ranks among Auburn's top-10 all-around scores.

No. 4 Auburn Suffers Narrow Loss to No. 1 Florida

► Fourth-ranked Auburn was narrowly defeated by top-ranked Florida 196.500-196.250, on Jan. 9, in the Stephen C. O'Connell Center. The Tigers had eight individual career-high scores set or matched and as a team, Auburn established two event team scores and tied a season high on another.

► Senior Lindsey Puckett captured her first balance beam title of the season, was the runner-up on vault and placed third in the all-around. Sophomore Rachel Inniss and senior A.J. Mills completed the Auburn sweep on beam.

Tiger Gymnastics Jumps 11 spots to No. 4

► Auburn gymnastics, ranked 15th in GymInfo's preseason poll, jumped 11 spots in the first installment of rankings to No. 4 the website released on Jan. 12. The No. 4 ranking is the highest ranking for the Tigers since Jan. 2005, when Auburn was ranked seventh.

No. 15 Auburn Edged By No. 6 Alabama

► In the closest ever finish between Auburn and Alabama gymnastics, the Tigers came up .025 short, as sixth-ranked Alabama escaped Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum with a 195.675-195.650 win over No. 15 Auburn on Jan. 9. Auburn hit 22-of-24 routines and crowned two individual champions and the all-around champion in the loss.

► Senior A.J. Mills tied for the floor title with a career-high 9.9, tied for first on the uneven bars and was first in the all-around. Senior counterpart Lindsey Puckett tied for first on bars and floor.

No. 15 Tigers Roll Over Illinois-Chicago to Open Season

► The No. 15 Auburn gymnastics team opened the season by defeating Illinois-Chicago 196.375-193.850 on Jan. 4, in the UIC Physical Education Building. The Tigers captured all four event titles and four freshmen made their collegiate debut. The team score also marked the highest season-opening score in the program's history.

► Seniors Lindsey Puckett and A.J. Mills placed first and second on two events. On vault, Puckett brought home the title and Mills was second. On balance beam it was Mills finishing first and Puckett second. Sophomore Rachel Inniss was the floor exercise champ, followed by teammates Puckett and Mills. Mills was the uneven bars titlist and Puckett placed third. In all-around competition, Puckett was first with a 39.475 and Mills followed with a 39.450 for runner-up honors.
