Series History:
 Kentucky leads 26-10

Last Meeting:
 9/16/11 at Lexington (L 0-3)

SETTING THE STAGE

The Auburn Tigers (9-11, 3-7 SEC) look to get back on the winning track this weekend after a tough, two-week road trip, but they will have to do so against a pair of nationally ranked Southeastern Conference opponents. The Tigers welcome No. 20-ranked Tennessee to the Plains at 7 p.m. Friday before No. 24-ranked Kentucky comes calling at 1:30 p.m. Sunday. Admission is free for both matches at the Student Activities Center.

ABOUT AUBURN VOLLEYBALL

This is the 26th year of intercollegiate volleyball at Auburn University. The Tigers enter this weekend with an all-time record of 387-411 (.486) and an all-time SEC mark of 126-241 (.343). Friday's match is the 800th in Auburn volleyball history (since the program was reinstated in 1986).

Auburn enters the week led offensively by senior Kelly Fidero, who has 219 kills (3.13/set) on the season, ranking 11th in the SEC. In Southeastern Conference play, Fidero ranks fifth in the league in kills with 133 (3.80/set) and among the league's best with a .301 hitting percentage. Camila Jersonsky ranks second in the SEC with a .357 hitting percentage for the year. Sarah Bullock anchors the other side of the floor with 109 kills (3.11/set) and 118 digs (3.37/set) in SEC play, ranking 10th in the league in digs. Chelsea Wintzinger has emerged as the team's primary setter, averaging 9.24 assists/set in SEC play to rank 7th in the league; she had a career-high 50 assists at Mississippi State on Oct. 9.

A LOOK AHEAD

Auburn makes its seventh road trip of the season next weekend with a pair of trips to SEC Western Division opponents. The Tigers will travel to Ole Miss for a 7 p.m. match Friday, Oct. 28, then head to Tuscaloosa to face archrival Alabama at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 30.

TENNESSEE SERIES NOTES

Tennessee has won 24 of the 35 all-time meetings between the two programs, but the series has been marked by long runs for each team. Auburn won six straight and nine out of 11 between 1990 and 1998, but the Lady Vols rolled off 13 in a row from 1999 to 2007. Auburn took a 3-1 win in Knoxville in 2007 to snap the long slide, then won again in 2009 at home.

Auburn is 8-10 all-time against the Lady Vols in matches played in Auburn. The last Tiger win in 2009, however, was the only home victory for Auburn over UT since 1998.

Tennessee won the season's first meeting 3-0 in Knoxville. The Lady Vols have won three in a row in the series.

LAST TIME vs. TENNESSEE - SEPT. 18

Senior Kelly Fidero led all hitters with 14 kills, but the Auburn volleyball team fell short in a 3-0 loss (15-25, 16-25, 20-25) to Tennessee Sunday afternoon at Thompson-Boling Arena, wrapping up a season-long nine-match road trip.

Auburn (6-6, 0-2 SEC) had trouble against Tennessee's serve all day as the Lady Vols (9-2, 2-0) recorded seven aces and forced numerous overpasses that were put down for easy kills. Auburn also struggled in its own service game with eight errors and no aces. The Tigers hit .129 in the match compared to Tennessee's .313, and the Lady Vols had 42 kills in the match against Auburn's 29.

Fidero's 14 matched a season high for the Tiger senior and equaled Sarah Bullock's 14-kill effort at Kentucky as the Tigers' best output in a three-set match this season. She also hit .393 in the match with just three errors in 28 attack attempts. Camila Jersonsky had seven kills in the match along with four assists, two digs and two blocks. MacKenzy Harper led the Tigers with 11 digs, and Chelsea Wintzinger's 16 assists led the way.

KENTUCKY SERIES NOTES

Kentucky leads the all-time series with Auburn 26-10, including an 11-7 mark in Auburn. The Wildcats have taken nine of the last 10 decisions in the series with last year's historic win in Auburn the only Tiger victory since 2006.

The Wildcats won the earlier meeting this season in Lexington 3-0 and have won five straight in the series on their home floor.

LAST TIME vs. KENTUCKY - SEPT. 16

Sarah Bullock had a season-high 14 kills, but the Auburn volleyball team fell in straight sets on Friday night, dropping a 3-0 (19-25, 12-25, 22-25) decision to the Kentucky Wildcats before 1,389 fans at Memorial Coliseum.

The Tigers (6-5, 0-1 SEC) dropped their SEC opener for third time in six seasons and fell to 3-12 all-time in Lexington. Kentucky (10-2, 1-0) won its eighth in a row, taking 24 of 25 sets in that stretch.

Bullock's 14 kills were the most in a three-set match by a Tiger this year and tied for the most in any match, matching Kelly Fidero's 14 in a five-set win over FIU. Bullock also had four digs in the match. Fidero, meanwhile, had eight kills. MacKenzy Harper had 11 digs to lead the Tigers, and Sarah Wroblicky had 10. Chelsea Wintzinger led Auburn with 28 assists, getting the majority of the touches as the Tigers ran a 5-1 offense for the first time this season.

In the service game, Auburn had two aces but made four errors, while Kentucky scored four service aces (along with eight errors). Kentucky hit .330 in the match to Auburn's .118, and had 42 kills to the Tigers' 34. Both teams had 41 digs, with Kentucky holding a 7-4 advantage in blocks.

NO PLACE LIKE HOME

After a nine-match road trip that spanned the first three weeks of September, the Tigers finally returned home three weeks ago. And they made the most of it, scoring a pair of 3-0 victories over Alabama and Ole Miss, running the consecutive home sets streak to nine straight.

In 2011, Auburn has a 4-1 record on its home court, winning 12 of 15 sets played. But with just five home matches, Auburn has played the fewest of any team in the SEC.

Auburn will play six of its final 10 matches in the friendly confines of the Student Activities Center after playing 15 of its first 20 on the road.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Auburn has been on the road six out of eight weekend so far in 2011. A total of 11 of Auburn's first 12 matches were on the road; the home opener against Alabama A&M on Aug. 30 being the only match within 300 miles of home in the first month of the season.

The team logged more than 3,500 miles of travel over the first four weeks of the season (round-trip mileage to Gainesville, Fla., Murfreesboro, Tenn, Coral Gables, Fla., and Lexington, Ky.). In fact, Auburn has only been home for two of the first eight weekends of the 2011 volleyball season.

So far in 2011, Auburn is 1-7 when playing on opponents' home courts (def. Middle Tennessee; lost to Miami, Kentucky, Tennessee, Georgia, Miss. State, Arkansas, LSU).

TOUGH SCHEDULE TO START

In their first 20 matches of the season, the Tigers have faced 12 teams that advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 2010, winning five of those contests. Seven of Auburn's 11 losses have been to teams that were either ranked or receiving votes in the Top 25 at the time or are currently ranked nationally.

FIERY FIDERO

Senior Kelly Fidero is serving notice to the rest of the league that she is a force to be reckoned with in the SEC this year. In her first 10 conference matches, she has 133 kills (3.80/set), ranking fifth in the league, and is hitting at a .301 clip to stand just outside the SEC's top 10.

In Auburn's two wins over Alabama and Ole Miss, Fidero totaled 29 kills - including a season-high 15 vs. Ole Miss - and hit .490 for the weekend.

Fidero has double-digit kills in 14 of 20 matches so far this season, including nine of 10 SEC matches.

BULLOCK BRINGS IT

Junior Sarah Bullock has 12 matches on the season with double-digit kills, but she blew all of her previous efforts away with a 17-kill, 20-dig performance at Georgia on Oct. 5. Both were season highs for both Bullock and Auburn as a team, and it gave Bullock her team-leading fourth double-double of the season.

Bullock now has seven double-doubles on the year, including six in SEC play.

CAMILA COMES BACK

Fresh off a two-month whirlwind tour of the world with the Argentinian Senior National Team, sophomore Camila Jersonsky made a strong return to the Auburn team with a stellar weekend at the Blue Raider Bash. In four matches, the Buenos Aires native hit for a .493 percentage, amassing 37 kills (2.31/set) on 69 attacks with just three errors. She also totaled 10 blocks on the weekend, earning a spot on the Blue Raider Bash All-Tournament Team. Her .493 hitting percentage led the Southeastern Conference after two weeks of play.

Kelly Fidero was also named to the Blue Raider Bash All-Tournament Team as she recorded double-digit kills in all four matches, including a season-high 14 against FIU.

DOUBLING DOWN WITH THE TIGERS

Junior Sarah Bullock leads the team with seven double-doubles during the 2011 season, including six in her last seven matches (see chart, next page).

Sophomore Vesela Zapryanova had her first career double-double in the Tigers' four-set victory over Austin Peay on Sept. 3, collecting 12 kills and 13 digs - both career-highs - in the winning effort. She also hit for a .455 percentage, second only to Camila Jersonsky's incredible .632 average in the match.

Zapryanova was one of three Tigers to record a double-double at the Blue Raider Bash. Sarah Bullock (10 kills, 12 digs) and Chelsea Wintzinger (29 assists, 13 digs) pulled off the feat against FIU on Sept. 2, becoming the first Auburn duo to post a double-double in the same match since Bullock and Katherine Culwell did so against then-No. 24 Kentucky last year.

Bullock picked up her second double-double of the year with 10 kills and 13 digs in a 3-0 win over Alabama (9/23), then got her third with 12 kills and 11 digs vs. South Carolina (10/2). Wintzinger also had her second against the Gamecocks with 27 assists and a career-high 14 digs.

Rick Nold, who served as head coach at Jacksonville State the previous nine seasons, was named the head volleyball coach at Auburn University on April 10, 2011.

Nold, 41, directed the Gamecocks to unprecedented heights during his tenure, winning three regular season conference titles, three conference tournament titles and making three NCAA postseason appearances. He compiled an overall record of 172-98, while posting an impressive 107-42 (72 percent) mark in league games.

A three-time conference Coach of the Year, Nold led the Gamecocks to Ohio Valley Conference regular season or tournament title in four of the previous six seasons. He captured the OVC regular season in 2006, '07 and '09, while winning the conference tournament title in 2005, '06 and '09.

Jacksonville State advanced the NCAA Division I Tournament in 2005, '06 and '09 under Nold, the only NCAA postseason appearances in the program's history. In 2009, Nold led the program to another milestone, by winning the school's first NCAA Tournament match, defeating Florida A&M.

Nold's 2009 team finished the season 27-8, which was the most wins in program history, swept both conference titles and advancing to the NCAA second round. He was rewarded by being named the OVC Coach of the Year as well as the Midwest Region Coach of the Year by the American Volleyball Coaches Association.

In 2006, the Gamecocks were 24-5 overall and posted a perfect 18-0 mark in conference play, sweeping all but one conference match. At one time that season, JSU won 49 consecutive games, the longest active streak in the nation.

A 1998 graduate of the University of Louisville, Nold's teams not only excelled on the court, but also in the classroom. During his tenure, JSU had 46 volleyball players named to the OVC Commissioner's Honor Roll, eight OVC Academic Medal of Honor winners, one Academic All-American and a two-time OVC Female Athlete of the Year.

Nold came to Jacksonville State from his alma mater, where he spent six years on the Cardinals' staff, the last four as a full-time assistant whose duties included recruiting coordinator. During his time at Louisville, the Cardinals won four Conference USA titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament five times, advancing to the Sweet 16 in 1996 and 1998.

During his time at Louisville, he was the head coach of the 16-and-under and 18-and-under teams for the Kentucky Indiana Volleyball Academy in Louisville, where he coached teams that won the 1996, 1997, 1998 and 1999 AAU National Championships. His teams also earned Top 5 finishes at the USA Volleyball National Championships in 1997, 1998, 2000 and 2001.

He also served as president of the Cheaha Juniors Volleyball Club program from 2002-03.

Nold began his coaching career as an assistant at Assumption High School in his hometown, where he helped the girls' varsity squad to three state championships and a 137-9 overall record before joining the University of Louisville staff in 1996.

Nold served as an intern with USA Volleyball, where he assisted the women's national team in preparations for the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta.

He received a bachelor's degree from Louisville in the spring of 1998 in Sports Administration. He is a member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, the Association of Volleyball Professionals and USA Volleyball Impact Certified Coach. He also serves on the All-Region and All-America selections committees and will be a voter in the USA Today/CSTV Top 25 Coaches Poll for the fourth-straight year.

MATCH 1 (Active Ankle Challenge)
NORTH CAROLINA 3, AUBURN 0 (15-25, 21-25, 26-28)
 Aug. 26, 2011 • Stephen C. O'Connell Center • Gainesville, Fla.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — Auburn had 10 blocks and got career-high kills from two players, but dropped the first match of the 2011 season to North Carolina, 3-0 (15-25, 21-25, 26-28), on Friday at the Active Ankle Challenge.

Junior outside hitter Brittney Rhude, making her first career start, set a career high with eight kills on 20 attacks; she also had a block and two digs in the match. Sophomore middle blocker Chloe Rowand also had a career-high four kills and six blocks as she made her first career start as well. Senior outside hitter Kelly Fidero had five kills and four blocks in the match.

The two teams traded the lead several times early in the first set before UNC pulled ahead 9-4. The Tigers (0-1), however, would stage a rally of their own to make it 13-10. But 10-1 run by the Tar Heels would prove to be the Tigers' undoing as North Carolina (1-0) took the opening set 25-15. UNC was able to score six of their 25 points via service aces, four of which came on Emily McGee's serve.

North Carolina increased its lead to 2-0 with a 25-20 win in set two. The second set was much more closely contested with four ties and three lead changes and remained close throughout. UNC pulled ahead 17-12, causing Auburn to call a timeout. But from there, the Tigers went on a 5-2 run and pulled within striking distance at 19-17, forcing a Tar Heel timeout. From that point, UNC would score three straight points and go on to win the set to take a 2-0 lead.

The third set would be a back-and-forth affair that saw the Tigers lead almost the entire way. Auburn jumped out to a 4-0 lead on the heels of three straight blocks; three of seven the Tigers would tally in the set. Auburn led by as many as four on several occasions, including an opportunity at set point at 24-21. But two attack errors by the Tigers and a block by the Tar Heels pulled the set even at 24-24. The Tigers would fight off one UNC match point at 25-24 with a big swing from Fidero to knot the score again, and a block from Fidero and Rowand gave Auburn another set point at 26-25. But a service error and two UNC kills would put the set away at 28-26, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory.

Auburn had a total of 10 blocks in the match — all coming in the second and third sets — something the Tigers did just three times last season in a three-set match. Auburn also held the edge in the dig battle, 47-46, but North Carolina had 38 kills to the Tigers' 26. Neither team hit particularly well, with UNC swinging at a .137 clip and the Tigers at .048.

MATCH 2 (Active Ankle Challenge)
AUBURN 3, BOSTON COLLEGE 0 (25-17, 25-23, 25-18)
 Aug. 27, 2011 • Stephen C. O'Connell Center • Gainesville, Fla.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. — Rick Nold earned his first victory as Auburn's head volleyball coach on Saturday afternoon as the Tigers defeated Boston College 3-0 (25-17, 25-23, 25-18) at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center in the team's final game of the Active Ankle Challenge.

The Tigers (1-1) led virtually the entire match and outhit Boston College (0-2) by a .309-.012 margin. It was a stark contrast from Auburn's match against North Carolina on Friday when the Tigers managed only a .048 hitting percentage.

Auburn was led by sophomore outside hitter Vesela Zapryanova, who tied a career high with nine digs and shattered a previous career-best with eight kills in the contest as she hit .353 on the day. But the best hitting percentage belonged to fellow sophomore Chloe Rowand, who hit .750 (9 kills on 12 attacks with no errors), setting a career-high in kills for the second straight match.

Senior Kelly Fidero fell just short of double-digit kills with nine on the day, hitting .316 (9-4-16), and sophomore Kathia Rud set a career-high with nine digs in the match. MacKenzy Harper, starting at libero for the first time, had seven digs and a pair of service aces. Senior setter Christina Solverson had 21 assists on the day.

Auburn came out hitting much better in today's match, swinging at a .357 clip in the first set as they took a 25-15 win to open the match. The Tigers took the first three points and never trailed, increasing their lead to 15-10 after MacKenzy Harper served up two straight aces, forcing an Eagle timeout. The Tigers then scored four more straight points to make it a 7-0 run, forcing another Boston College timeout. After having set point at 24-14, the Eagles rolled off three in a row before a setter dump from Chelsea Wintzinger ended the set at 25-17.

Game two was much more closely contested, but the Tigers held the Eagles to a negative hitting percentage and overcame six service errors to win 25-23. Auburn jumped out to an early 4-0 lead, but saw that evaporate as Boston College went on a 5-1 run to tie the score at 6-6. It would again be tied at 14-14 before Auburn went on a 7-3 run, forcing a pair of Eagle timeouts and taking a 21-17 lead. However, the Eagles would fight their way back and tie things up at 23-23. But a kill from Rowand gave the Tigers a chance at set point, and a hitting error by the Eagles gave Auburn the set win and a 2-0 lead.

Boston College put up a big fight early in the third set, taking the lead for the first time in the match at 7-6. The Eagles still led at 11-10 when a Fidero kill swung the momentum back Auburn's way. From there, the Tigers went on a 10-3 run to take a 21-14 lead, then put the match away with a pair of Fidero kills and a service ace from Zapryanova to clinch the win.

AUBURN 3, ALABAMA A&M 0 (25-12, 25-14, 25-16)

Aug. 30, 2011 • Student Activities Center • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN – The Auburn volleyball team got a season-high 10 kills from senior Kelly Fidero and held Alabama A&M to a negative hitting percentage in a 3-0 (25-12, 25-14, 25-16) victory Tuesday night at the Student Activities Center.

Auburn (2-1) hit .286 for the match and had 41 total kills, compared to 12 kills and a -.063 hitting percentage for Alabama A&M (1-4). It was the Tigers' sixth win in their last eight home openers and improved the team to 20-6 all-time in their first match at home. In addition, Auburn improved to 6-0 all-time against Alabama A&M.

Fidero had Auburn's first double-digit kills game of the season, putting down 10 balls on 18 attempts with just two errors for a .444 hitting percentage. Redshirt sophomore Courtney McDonald made the most of her first home match in two years with a career-high eight kills and a .538 hitting percentage (8-1-13).

Sophomore MacKenzy Harper had a team-high 11 digs as she made her second start at the libero position. Senior Christina Solverson and sophomore Chelsea Wintzinger split the assists with Wintzinger posting 17 and Solverson with 15 helpers.

The first set was all Auburn as the Tigers had 12 kills and held the Bulldogs to zero kills on 23 attacks with six errors for a -.261 hitting percentage. After the teams traded early service errors, the Tigers went on a 13-1 run, taking a 15-3 lead on back-to-back kills by Fidero; she had four in the first set. A&M went on a mini-run to pull back within reasonable range at 16-8, but a pair of kills from Kathia Rud started the final push that ended with a pair of Bulldog errors, one of which came at the hands of a block assist from Fidero and McDonald.

Set two was more of the same as the Tigers hit .455 as a team (11 kills, 22 attacks, just one error) and held the Bulldogs to -.067 for a 25-14 win. Auburn jumped out to a 4-0 lead with kills from Vesela Zapryanova and Kathia Rud and a block from Brittney Rhude and Chloe Rowand. It was 9-3 before the Bulldogs recorded their first kill of the night as Karensa Beckford got A&M's first. Beckford then scored three of the next four points to make it 10-6; the Bulldogs kept it close at 14-10 before Auburn called its first timeout of the match.

Out of the timeout, the Tigers started a 6-1 run to make it 20-11, and it was all but over from there. Zapryanova and McDonald had three kills apiece in the set, and Rowand assisted on three blocks to give Auburn a 2-0 lead at the break.

Alabama A&M came out strong in the third set, leading early and pulling even at 5-5. But Auburn would go on a 13-2 run and coast to the finish for a 25-16 win to clinch the match. Fidero and McDonald each had four kills in the set as the Tigers scored 18 of their 25 points in the final frame on kills, hitting at a .306 clip (18-7-36).

MATCH 4 (BLUE RAIDER BASH)

AUBURN 3, FLORIDA INT'L 2 (25-22, 15-25, 22-25, 25-18, 17-15)

Sept. 2, 2011 • Alumni Memorial Gym • Murfreesboro, Tenn.

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. – Despite trailing after three sets, Auburn staged a late-match comeback and took a thrilling 3-2 victory (25-22, 15-25, 22-25, 25-18, 17-15) over Florida International in the team's opening match of the Blue Raider Bash.

The Tigers (3-1) got a jolt to their offensive capabilities with junior outside hitter Sarah Bullock and sophomore middle blocker Camila Jersonsky returning to the lineup, and came up with several clutch defensive plays down the stretch from libero Sarah Wroblecky to secure the win over FIU (2-2).

Bullock finished with Auburn's first double-double of the season, putting down 10 kills along with 12 digs in her initial appearance of the season. But she wouldn't be the only Tiger recording a double-double as setter Chelsea Wintzinger tallied 29 assists and 13 digs for her fourth career double-double.

Senior Kelly Fidero led the offensive attack with 14 kills; she also contributed five digs and a block on the night. Jersonsky was stellar in her 2011 season debut, recording nine kills on 16 attacks with no errors for an outstanding .562 hitting percentage. She also had a pair of solo blocks and a block assist in the match. And Chloe Rowand came up with several huge blocks late in the match; she would finish with five on the night to go along with five kills.

Vesela Zapryanova and Kathia Rud both notched career-high kills with Rud hitting double-digits for the first time with 10 and Zapryanova putting down nine attacks on the night.

But the key to Auburn's eventual victory may have been Wroblecky. Returning to the floor as libero in the fourth set for the first time since leaving the North Carolina match with an apparent ankle injury, she finished with 11 digs, including a game-saver on match point in the fifth set.

Auburn hit .211 for the match, narrowly outpacing FIU's .202 mark. The teams were even with nine blocks apiece, while Auburn won the digs battle 72-69. Five Tigers had double-digit digs, led by Wintzinger's 13. FIU had seven more kills than the Tigers (66-59), led by Jovana Bjelica's 24.

MATCH 5 (BLUE RAIDER BASH)

AUBURN 3, AUSTIN PEAY 1 (19-25, 25-17, 25-22, 25-19)

Sept. 3, 2011 • Alumni Memorial Gym • Murfreesboro, Tenn.

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. — Four Auburn players had double-digit kills, and Auburn rebounded after dropping the first set to take a 3-1 (19-25, 25-17, 25-22, 25-19) win over Austin Peay on Saturday afternoon at the Blue Raider Bash. Auburn (4-1) hit for their highest percentage of the season at .333 while holding Austin Peay (1-5) to a .220 hitting percentage. The Tigers also had 61 kills on the day to the Lady Govs' 48.

Leading the way was Vesela Zapryanova, who had her first career double-double with a career-high 12 kills and 13 digs; she hit .455 for the match and assisted on a pair of blocks as well. Camila Jersonsky continued to provide a spark on offense as she shared the team lead with Zapryanova with 12 kills; she had no errors on the day and hit at a .632 clip. Sarah Bullock and Kelly Fidero each had 10 kills, and Chelsea Wintzinger led the team with 28 assists. Courtney McDonald led the Tigers with a career-high five blocks to go along with seven kills.

The first set belonged to Austin Peay by a 25-19 count. In the set, the Tigers hit a respectable .300, but APSU went for a .429 clip. The Tigers led early at 7-5, but the Lady Govs went on a 6-0 run to take a lead they would not relinquish in the game. Peay's lead increased to as much as 18-12 before Auburn tried to close the gap, getting as close at 22-18, but APSU would pull away to take the opening set.

Auburn took the second set 25-17, thanks to hitting a stellar .481 with 15 kills and just two errors. Despite the Lady Govs jumping out to a 3-0 lead and leading 9-7 later in the set, Auburn went on a 7-0 run to take a 14-9 lead after a pair of attack errors and a kill for Courtney McDonald. Kills from Fidero, Jersonsky and Bullock would help pad the Auburn lead as they would score the set's final three points to tie the match at the break.

It was more of the same for Auburn in the third set as the Tigers took a 25-22 win after climbing their way out of an early hole. The Tigers kept hitting well, swinging at a .333 clip and getting 18 of their 25 points on kills. Jersonsky had four of those and Zapryanova had three. Austin Peay led early and held the lead all the way until the later stages of the set when Auburn would finally take its first lead at 20-19. From there, the Tigers would win three of the next four rallies and put the set away on a huge kill from Bullock.

Auburn would hit just .233 in the fourth set, but it would be enough to outpace APSU's .067 mark and take a 25-19 decision to clinch the match. After jumping out to a 4-1 lead, Auburn would never trail in the frame with Fidero putting down four kills in the game, including the final play to give the Tigers their fourth straight victory.

MATCH 6 (BLUE RAIDER BASH)

AUBURN 3, MTSU 2 (25-22, 15-25, 25-23, 19-25, 15-11)

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. — For the second straight night, Auburn rallied from multiple deficits and prevailed in a deciding fifth set to take a 3-2 (25-22, 15-25, 25-23, 19-25, 15-11) victory over tournament host Middle Tennessee on Saturday night at the Blue Raider Bash.

The Tigers (5-1) have won five matches in a row, matching their longest winning streak from the 2010 season, and won despite being bested in nearly every statistical category by MTSU (2-3). The Blue Raiders outhit the Tigers .276 to .173, had 14 more kills, two fewer errors, 14 more digs and one more block; yet the Tigers' never-say-die attitude and continued aggressiveness when faced with large deficits in all five sets prevailed.

Sarah Bullock led Auburn with 12 kills in the match to go along with seven digs and three blocks. Camila Jersonsky had the Tigers' best hitting percentage at .435 with 11 kills and four blocks. Kelly Fidero also had 11 kills on the night, while Vesela Zapryanova had seven kills and seven digs. Sarah Wroblicky, making her first start at libero since the season's opening match, finished with a career-high 15 digs and also had a kill on a mishandled overpass.

Auburn took the first set 25-22 on the strength of six kills from Kelly Fidero and an outstanding .500 hitting percentage where the Tigers had 15 kills with just three errors. But MTSU was equally impressive with a .357 average as the Tigers had to come from behind to take an early lead in the match. But the second set was all Blue Raiders as MTSU rolled to a 25-15 win. Auburn hit a flat .000 and especially had trouble from the outside as three attack attempts either hit or went outside the antennas.

It was setting up to be more of the same in the third as Middle Tennessee had a 22-18 lead. But a great rotation with Chelsea Wintzinger serving sent the Tigers on a 6-0 run that would give them their first lead since early in the set and lead to a 25-23 win. Set number four was quite similar to the second as MTSU jumped out to a 10-4 lead and never really looked back en route to a 25-19 win.

The fifth set was a real barn-burner with eight ties and four lead changes. The teams traded leads until Auburn got the first advantage at 8-6 on a pair of kills from Bullock just before the teams changed ends.

A kill from Fidero to make it a one-point game at 11-10 would force a timeout by MTSU. Little did the Raiders know it would be the start of a 6-0 run to end the match. With Zapryanova serving, a bad set by MTSU tied the match, and a block from Jersonsky gave the Tigers a 12-11 lead. Zapryanova would then serve up an ace to make it a 13-11 game, and Jersonsky put down two kills to end the match and set off a joyous celebration by the Tiger bench.

MATCH 7 (BLUE RAIDER BASH)

MISSOURI 3, AUBURN 0 (22-25, 13-25, 17-25)

Sept. 3, 2011 • Alumni Memorial Gym • Murfreesboro, Tenn.

MURFREESBORO, Tenn. — The Auburn volleyball team saw its five-match winning streak come to an end Sunday afternoon with a 3-0 loss to Missouri (22-25, 13-25, 17-25) in the final match of the Blue Raider Bash at Middle Tennessee's Alumni Memorial Gym.

Auburn (5-2) lost for the first time since the season's opening match while Missouri (8-1) won its fourth in a row to capture the Blue Raider Bash tournament title.

Sophomore Camila Jersonsky and senior Kelly Fidero were named to the Blue Raider Bash all-tournament team. For the week, Jersonsky finished with a .493 hitting percentage, scoring 37 kills on 69 attacks with just three errors. Fidero led the Tigers in kills during the tournament with 46 on 111 attacks for a .297 hitting percentage.

In today's match, Missouri out-hit Auburn by a .452 to .131 margin, despite a stellar performance from Fidero with 11 kills on 22 attacks, hitting .409. Kathia Rud had seven kills on 14 attempts with two errors (.357). Sarah Wroblecky led Auburn with six digs in the match. Christina Solverson had three aces in the match, matching a career high.

Auburn fought hard in the first set but came up just short as Mizzou took a 25-22 decision. Auburn hit for a very respectable .353 average in the set, but Missouri was stellar at .536. Missouri jumped out to an early lead and held on for the majority of the set, although Auburn made several runs and closed the gap to as few as two points late in the match. Fidero was outstanding for Auburn in the opening frame with seven kills on seven attacks for a perfect 1.000 hitting percentage.

The second set, however, was all Missouri as the Tigers from Columbia took a two-set lead with a 25-13 win. In the set, Missouri bettered their already outstanding hitting percentage with a .556 effort while Auburn hit just .032. MU jumped out to a 10-4 lead and never looked back, leading by as much as a 20-8 margin.

Missouri kept up the pressure in the third set, but Auburn refused to go quietly. Despite Mizzou jumping out to a 12-2 lead, Auburn kept fighting and closed the gap to 20-13 and eventually 22-16 with time running short. But Missouri would keep coming at Auburn with relentless defense and a strong block, eventually leading to a 25-17 third-set win and a sweep in the match.

Mizzou won the digs battle 38-29 and had one more block than Auburn. Three Missouri players hit .500 or better for the match.

MATCH 8 (HURRICANE INVITATIONAL)

MIAMI 3, AUBURN 0 (14-25, 22-25, 16-25)

Sept. 9, 2011 • James L. Knight Sports Complex • Coral Gables, Fla.

CORAL GABLES, Fla. — Auburn matched their season-high with 10 blocks against a tough Miami squad on Friday night, but fell to the Hurricanes 3-0 (14-25, 22-25, 16-25) in the opening match of the Hurricane Invitational at the James L. Knight Sports Complex.

The Tigers (5-3) were strong defensively as they had their second match of the season in double-figures with blocks, but Miami (8-0) proved to be too strong with their attack and remained undefeated on the year.

Sarah Bullock led the Tigers with eight kills; she also had nine digs in the contest. Kelly Fidero finished with six kills, five digs and four blocks, while Camila Jersonsky had five blocks along with three kills. Libero Sarah Wroblecky finished with a team-high 14 digs, and Chelsea Wintzinger recorded 22 assists.

Miami out-hit Auburn by a .268 to .139 margin, recording 46 kills against the Tigers' 34. The Hurricanes also won the digs battle 61-54, but were outblocked 10-4 by the Tigers.

The first set started well for the Tigers as they jumped out to an early 5-2 lead, but the Hurricanes would go on a 6-0 run to force an Auburn timeout. From there, the Hurricanes stayed in control, extending their lead throughout the set and eventually taking a 25-14 win. In the set, Auburn hit .091 while the Hurricanes swung at a .368 clip.

Set number two saw the Tigers outhit Miami .191-.143, but the Hurricanes took a 25-22 win to take a two-game lead in the match. The difference in the second set was in the service game as Miami scored a pair of aces with no errors while the Tigers had no aces but three errors on serve. Auburn never led in the set, but rallied from a 19-15 deficit to cut the margin to 22-21. Miami then scored two in a row, and Auburn was able to fight off one set point but not the second.

Miami jumped out to a 6-0 lead in the third set, but Auburn would not go away quietly. The Tigers rallied to cut the deficit to 13-9 after three straight kills from Vesela Zapryanova, Bullock and Fidero, but Miami would then pull away with three straight points of their own. Miami had 15 kills to Auburn's 11 in the set, out-hitting the Tigers .333 to .129.

#18 OKLAHOMA 3, AUBURN 0 (19-25, 16-25, 16-25)

Sept. 10, 2011 • James L. Knight Sports Complex • Coral Gables, Fla.

CORAL GABLES, Fla. — TThe Auburn volleyball team fell in its first match of the season against a nationally ranked opponent, dropping a 3-0 decision (19-25, 16-25, 16-25) to the 18th-ranked Oklahoma Sooners on Saturday morning in the team's second match of the Hurricane Invitational, which is taking place at the University of Miami.

Auburn (5-4) dropped its third straight match - all coming against teams that participated in last year's NCAA Tournament - while Oklahoma (9-1) won for the fifth time in a row.

Camila Jersonsky led Auburn with seven kills, while Vesela Zapryanova had six and Chloe Rowand and Kelly Fidero finished with five apiece. Rowand also had four blocks on the day, and Zapryanova had a team-leading eight digs.

The Sooners had 43 kills to the Tigers' 35, while Oklahoma had just nine attack errors in the match compared to Auburn's 21. Four of those nine Oklahoma errors came courtesy of Auburn blocks. Oklahoma also won the digs battle 49-40 and hit .347 for the match compared to Auburn's .124.

Oklahoma took the first set 25-19 as Auburn hit just .088 to the Sooners' .324. The first few points went back and forth, but the Sooners jumped out to a 10-5 lead to prompt a Tiger timeout. From there, Oklahoma's lead would continue to grow as it pulled out to a 21-14 advantage and eventually had set point at 24-16. Auburn fought off three potential game-winners, but not a fourth as the Sooners took a 1-0 lead in the match. Bullock had three kills and four digs in the set, while Rowand was involved in three blocks.

The second set was more of the same as the Sooners took a 25-16 decision, despite five kills on seven attacks for Rowand. Auburn had 13 kills in the set, just two fewer than Oklahoma, but the Tigers were hampered by eight attack errors to the Sooners' one.

Auburn jumped out to an early lead in the third set, but a 12-1 run by Oklahoma proved to be the difference as the Sooners earned the sweep with a 25-16 win. Courtney McDonald had four kills for the Tigers in the set, while Zapryanova had two kills and four digs. However, four of Auburn's six service errors for the match came in set three.

MATCH 10 (HURRICANE INVITATIONAL)

AUBURN 3, FLORIDA A&M 0 (25-22, 25-17, 25-23)

Sept. 10, 2011 • James L. Knight Sports Complex • Coral Gables, Fla.

CORAL GABLES, Fla. — Auburn hit for a season-best percentage and snapped a three-match losing streak with a 3-0 sweep of Florida A&M (25-22, 25-17, 25-23) in the teams' final match at the Hurricane Invitational, hosted by the University of Miami.

The Tigers (6-4) hit .419 - a season-high and the 15th-best hitting performance in program history - and held Florida A&M (0-7) to a .122 hitting percentage, despite games one and three being extremely competitive. Auburn also recorded a season-high 11 blocks in the match. It wrapped up a 1-2 weekend that saw the Tigers finish the Hurricane Invitational in third place.

Sarah Bullock led all hitters with 11 kills on 18 attacks, hitting a stellar .556 for the match with just one error. Bullock led the team with 22 kills and 23 digs on the weekend, hitting for a .302 percentage. She fell one dig short of a double-double with nine in the match, and she also recorded a block and three assists.

Brittney Rhude posted a career-high nine kills and hit .500 with just one error in 16 attacks. Camila Jersonsky finished a solid weekend with four kills and seven blocks against the Rattlers; giving her a team-high 12 blocks for the week to go along with 14 kills, earning a spot on the Hurricane Invitational All-Tournament Team.

The Tigers took a wild first set, winning 25-22 despite Florida A&M taking advantage of several mistakes and favorable calls. With Auburn leading 19-17, Wintzinger appeared to have executed a perfect setter dump to give Auburn a three-point lead. But she was called for a back-row attack, giving the point to Florida A&M and setting off a protest from the Tiger bench that resulted in a red card, giving another point to FAMU. From there, though, Auburn would get kills from Fidero and Jersonsky to close out the set and take a 1-0 lead in the match.

Set number two, however, was all Auburn as the Tigers rolled to a 25-17 win. Auburn was outstanding offensively, hitting at a .480 clip while holding FAMU to .038. Bullock had five kills on six attacks in the set, and Auburn had just three errors on 25 total attempts. Auburn pulled away early, jumping out to a 10-4 lead and never looking back as the lead ballooned to 20-10. Despite FAMU fighting off three set points, Auburn finally put the game away with a kill from Bullock.

The third set was a back-and-forth affair that featured 15 ties and six lead changes before the Tigers finally held on for a 25-23 win. The Rattlers led by as many as four, jumping out to a 13-8 lead, but a 5-0 run by the Tigers, highlighted by kills from Wintzinger and Rhude along with a block from Kelly Fidero, forced a timeout by FAMU. After the teams traded blows, Auburn broke a 23-23 tie and put the match away with a kill and a block from Jersonsky, giving the Tigers the victory.

KENTUCKY 3, AUBURN 0 (19-25, 12-25, 22-25)

Sept. 16, 2011 • Memorial Coliseum • Lexington, Ky.

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Sarah Bullock had a season-high 14 kills, but the Auburn volleyball team fell in straight sets on Friday night, dropping a 3-0 (19-25, 12-25, 22-25) decision to the Kentucky Wildcats before 1,389 fans at Memorial Coliseum.

The Tigers (6-5, 0-1 SEC) dropped their SEC opener for third time in six seasons and fell to 3-12 all-time in Lexington. Kentucky (10-2, 1-0) won its eighth in a row, taking 24 of 25 sets in that stretch.

Bullock's 14 kills were the most in a three-set match by a Tiger this year and tied for the most in any match, matching Kelly Fidero's 14 in a five-set win over FIU. Bullock also had four digs in the match. Fidero, meanwhile, had eight kills. MacKenzy Harper had 11 digs to lead the Tigers, and Sarah Wroblicky had 10. Chelsea Wintzinger led Auburn with 28 assists, getting the majority of the touches as the Tigers ran a 5-1 offense for the first time this season.

In the service game, Auburn had two aces but made four errors, while Kentucky scored four service aces (along with eight errors). Kentucky hit .330 in the match to Auburn's .118, and had 42 kills to the Tigers' 34. Both teams had 41 digs, with Kentucky holding a 7-4 advantage in blocks.

Auburn had some momentum early in the first set after two kills by Vesela Zapryanova put the Tigers ahead 6-5. But things seemed to turn when a would-be ace from Harper was overturned when the Kentucky libero collided with the line judge trying to play a bad pass. Instead of a 7-5 Tiger lead, a replay was called and the Wildcats went on a 6-0 run, forcing Auburn into a timeout. It proved to be the turning point in the set as Kentucky went on to take a 25-19 victory. The Tigers hit just .054 in the set compared to .379 by the Wildcats; however, Bullock did have seven of the Tigers' 12 kills to lead all hitters.

The second set was more of the same as Kentucky rode a 15-3 run to a 25-12 win and a two-set lead in the match. Auburn had just seven kills along with seven errors for a .000 hitting percentage in the set while Kentucky racked up 12 kills with just two errors, hitting .345 in the game. Six of the Tigers' seven hitting errors were courtesy of Kentucky blocks.

Set number three, however, was a fight to the finish. The teams traded leads throughout the first several rallies with Kentucky finally gaining the upper hand at 15-11, forcing an Auburn timeout. But from there, the Tigers would go on a 6-2 run, punctuated by a block from Camila Jersonsky and Fidero to tie the game at 17-17. Auburn took its first late lead at 19-18 off a kill from Courtney McDonald, and McDonald then delivered a second straight kill to make it 20-18. After a Kentucky error to give the Tigers a three-point lead, the Wildcats called timeout. But from that point, the Wildcats would finish on a 7-1 run — two kills from Lauren O'Connor and a service ace ended the game — to take a 25-22 decision and a sweep in the match.

TENNESSEE 3, AUBURN 0 (15-25, 16-25, 20-25)

Sept. 18, 2011 • Thompson-Boling Arena • Knoxville, Tenn.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — Senior Kelly Fidero led all hitters with 14 kills, but the Tigers fell short in a 3-0 loss (15-25, 16-25, 20-25) to Tennessee Sunday afternoon at Thompson-Boling Arena, wrapping up a season-long nine-match road trip.

Auburn (6-6, 0-2 SEC) had trouble against Tennessee's serve all day as the Lady Vols (9-2, 2-0) recorded seven aces and forced numerous overpasses that were put down for easy kills. Auburn also struggled in its own service game with eight errors and zero aces. The Tigers hit .129 in the match compared to Tennessee's .313, and the Lady Vols had 42 kills in the match against Auburn's 29.

Fidero's 14 matched a season high for the Tiger senior and equaled Sarah Bullock's 14-kill effort at Kentucky as the Tigers' best output in a three-set match this season. She also hit .393 in the match with just three errors in 28 attack attempts. Camila Jersonsky had seven kills in the match along with four assists, two digs and two blocks. MacKenzy Harper led the Tigers with 11 digs, and Chelsea Wintzinger's 16 assists led the way.

Tennessee took the first set by a 25-15 score to take the early lead in the match. Auburn fell behind early as Tennessee's service game caused problems for the Tigers. The Lady Vols had three aces in the opening game and were able to take Auburn out of its system on other occasions, jumping out to a 19-12 lead. However, when the Tigers were able to pass well, it set up the offensive attack nicely. Fidero and Jersonsky each had four kills in the set.

Statistically, the second set was very similar to the first as Tennessee took a 25-16 decision. In the set, Auburn hit .172 against Tennessee's .320, giving up three service aces and committing four service errors. Fidero was the offensive leader in the game with six kills, and Jersonsky had three kills in the set. With the score still close at 14-10, Tennessee went on a 4-1 run to extend its lead to 18-11 and take command of the game.

Much like the third set at Kentucky on Friday, the Tigers put up a great fight in today's third set before dropping a 25-20 decision. Three kills from Sarah Bullock and four from Fidero helped keep the score close as the set was tied nine times and the lead changed hands on seven occasions. With Auburn trailing 15-13, two kills from Bullock and one from Vesela Zapryanova propelled the Tigers on a 4-0 run to give them a 17-15 lead and force a Tennessee timeout. But from that point, UT went on a 4-0 run of its own to retake the advantage at 19-17. The Lady Vols then took three of the next four points, moving ahead 22-18 on their seventh service ace of the match.

Sept. 23, 2011 • Student Activities Center • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN – The Auburn volleyball team played what Head Coach Rick Nold called their best match of the season, defeating archrival Alabama 3-0 (25-22, 25-13, 25-23) Friday night before a capacity crowd of 1,037 fans at the Student Activities Center.

Auburn (7-6, 1-2 SEC) recorded 50 kills in the match – a season-high in a three-set match – and hit at a .381 clip, the team's second-best mark of the season, to win their fourth-straight over the Crimson Tide. Alabama (6-7, 0-3 SEC) lost a three-set match for just the first time this season.

Three Tigers recorded double-digit kills, led by senior Kelly Fidero. She recorded 14 kills on the night, matching her season high for the second straight week; she also had 14 at Tennessee last Sunday. Fidero also hit a season-best .522, charged with just two errors on 23 attacks.

Junior Sarah Bullock recorded her second double-double of the season, putting down 10 kills and registering a season-high 13 digs. Vesela Zapryanova had her second double-digit kills game of the year with 11 on the night, hitting at a .455 clip. Camila Jersonsky and Chelsea Wintzinger both hit .417 on the night with Wintzinger dropping a career-high six kills on 12 attacks. Wintzinger also had a career-high 35 assists while serving up two of the Tigers' aces; Jersonsky and Bullock also had two apiece.

The first set was very tightly contested with nine ties and a pair of lead changes. However, Auburn was able to maintain a slim lead most of the way despite four service errors in the opening frame. But the Tigers managed to jump to a 15-11 lead before Alabama closed the gap to one point at 19-18. Back-to-back service errors kept things close, and Alabama finally took the lead at 22-21 off a kill from Kayla Fitterer, forcing an Auburn timeout. From there, a kill from Bullock and two from Fidero would put the Tide away.

Auburn stormed to a 4-0 lead in the second set and never looked back en route to a 25-13 win. Alabama would get as close as 7-6, but the Tigers would roll off a 9-1 run to take a 16-7 lead. The Tide would be no closer than eight points the rest of the way as six kills from Zapryanova and four each from Fidero and Bullock led the way.

Set number three was mostly controlled by the Tigers as they took a 25-23 win, but they had to fight hard to pull it out. The Tigers led by as many as four at 13-9, but Alabama's Fitterer almost single-handedly willed the Tide back into the set with seven kills; as such, the Tide took a 21-19 lead and forced a Tiger timeout. A kill from Jersonsky would pull things even at 22-22, but the lead would go right back to Alabama on a service error. Jersonsky, though, would come up big again, with two straight kills to give Auburn match point at 24-23, forcing Alabama to call its final timeout. The Buenos Aires native would make it three in a row with another kill as she scored Auburn's last four points to close out the match.

AUBURN 3, OLE MISS 0 (25-19, 25-22, 25-12)

Sept. 25, 2011 • Student Activities Center • Auburn Ala.

AUBURN – Led by a season-high 15 kills from senior Kelly Fidero, the Auburn volleyball team stayed undefeated at home this season with a 3-0 (25-19, 25-22, 25-12) sweep of Ole Miss on Sunday afternoon at the Student Activities Center.

Auburn (8-6, 2-2 SEC) avenged a pair of defeats at the hands of the Rebels (5-7, 1-3 SEC) last season and won its third straight home match to open the season.

Fidero, who racked up 14 kills in three previous matches this season, bettered her 2011 best on the Auburn's penultimate point, sending the Tigers to match point at 24-11. With just three errors in her 26 attacks, she hit .462 in the match, giving her a weekend total of 29 kills (4.83/set) and a .490 hitting percentage.

Sophomore setter Chelsea Wintzinger had 29 assists on the night and equaled her career-high with six kills; she also had six digs and assisted on a block. Junior Sarah Bullock finished with 10 kills and nine digs, one shy of her second consecutive double-double. Camila Jersonsky and Vesela Zapryanova had five kills apiece, and MacKenzy Harper tied for the team lead with nine digs.

The Tigers out-hit Ole Miss .296-.124, improving to 7-0 on the season when hitting .200 or better. It was the fifth time this year Auburn held an opponent below .200 for the match; the Tigers are 4-1 in those contests. Auburn had 43 kills to the Rebels' 29 and also won the digs battle 46-34.

The first set was a back-and-forth affair early, but the Tigers took control with four straight points to take an 11-7 lead. That lead would eventually swell to 18-10, mainly thanks to five Ole Miss attack errors and a service ace from Harper. From there, Fidero would take control, scoring the Tigers' final four points on kills to give Auburn a 25-19 win in set number one. Fidero would record five kills in the opening set while Bullock was the defensive leader with six digs.

In set two, the Ole Miss lead would eventually swell to 11-5, forcing a timeout, and remained a five-point game at 15-10. From that point, though, the Tigers would go on a 5-1 run, cutting the deficit to a single point on two kills from Bullock and an ace from Zapryanova to make it a 16-15 game. Another kill from Bullock and a Rebel error tied the score for the first time at 17-17, and a Fidero kill put Auburn ahead for the first time at 19-18.

Auburn completely dominated the third set, taking control early and never looking back in a 25-12 whitewash. The Tigers hit .500 in the final game, compared to the Rebels' .094, and had 15 kills to the Rebels' nine. In fact, Ole Miss did not score a point on serve in the entire set; Auburn was 12-for-12 in sideout opportunities. After taking a 13-8 lead midway through the set, the Tigers would go on a 9-1 run to put things out of reach at 22-9.

Sept. 30, 2011 • Student Activities Center • Auburn, Ala.

AUBURN – The Auburn volleyball team gave No. 13 Florida all it could handle, but the Tigers fell short in a 3-0 (24-26, 20-25, 23-25) setback to the Gators on Friday night at the Student Activities Center.

Auburn (8-7, 2-3 SEC) had leads late in the first and third sets, but could not close the deal against the physically imposing front line of Florida (10-3, 3-1 SEC).

Senior Kelly Fidero led Auburn with 11 kills, her fourth straight outing with double-digit kills and ninth of the season. She also hit for a .318 percentage to lead all Tigers with at least 10 attacks. Sophomore Vesela Zapryanova finished with eight kills on the night.

Junior libero MacKenzy Harper led Auburn with 11 digs, her sixth time in double figures so far this year; junior Sarah Bullock and sophomore Chelsea Wintzinger had nine and eight digs, respectively. Wintzinger also led with 27 assists, while sophomore Camila Jersonsky had four blocks on the night.

Thanks to six kills from Fidero and four blocks in the set, the Tigers jumped out early in the first set and saw their lead swell to as much as 15-12 before the Gators called their first timeout. However, Auburn would continue to hold the lead, pushing ahead 20-17 on another Fidero kill that forced another Florida timeout. But from that point, Florida went on a 7-0 run during Cassandra Anderson's term of service, mainly thanks to four blocks in a five-rally stretch; Betsy Smith was involved in four of those to give Florida set point at 24-20. However, the Tigers would fight back with four of their own, including two kills from Fidero and another from Christina Solverson to tie the set at 24-24. But a Florida kill and an Auburn ball-handling error would give the Gators a 26-24 decision in set one.

Florida took control early in the second set and never relinquished the lead, although Auburn never let Florida put it out of reach. That lead would swell to 22-16 on a Florida kill and a block. A pair of Gator errors would make it a four-point game, but Florida would take a 25-20 win in the second set after two kills and an Auburn service error ended the frame.

Auburn was in control throughout nearly the whole third set, never allowing Florida to take the lead until set point. The Tigers jumped out to a 4-0 lead and maintained the advantage, getting kills from Courtney McDonald and Jersonsky to take a 17-14 lead and force a Gator timeout. Florida would cut the lead to one point at 19-18 and then tie the score at 20-20 before Auburn pulled back ahead on a Gator service error and a kill from Zapryanova. With the score then tied 23-23, Florida would take its first lead on a service ace that caught just millimeters of the end line, forcing a Tiger timeout at 24-23. The Gators would end matters on a kill, taking a 25-23 set three win and a 3-0 victory in the match.

AUBURN 3, SOUTH CAROLINA 0 (25-19, 25-19, 25-17)

Oct. 2, 2011 • Student Activities Center • Auburn Ala.

AUBURN – Three Tigers had double-digit kills, and two posted double-doubles as the Auburn volleyball team swept away SEC foe South Carolina 3-0 (25-19, 25-19, 25-17) on Sunday afternoon at the Student Activities Center.

Auburn (9-7, 3-3 SEC) earned its fourth win over South Carolina (9-6, 0-5 SEC) in the teams' last five meetings, and the Tigers improved to 4-1 on their home court in 2011.

Senior Kelly Fidero led Auburn offense with 14 kills, one shy of a season-high and her fifth-straight match with double-digit kills. Junior Sarah Bullock picked up her third double-double of the season with 12 kills and 11 digs, and sophomore Camila Jersonsky had 11 kills on 18 attacks with no errors for a sparkling .611 hitting percentage.

Sophomore Chelsea Wintzinger was a key to both the Tigers' offensive and defensive efforts, posting her second double-double of the year with 27 assists and 14 digs.

Auburn hit .237 for the match and held the Gamecocks to a .086 percentage. The Tigers scored 41 points off kills and won the digs battle 58-49 against the nation's ninth-best squad in digs per set; MacKenzy Harper had a career-high 14 to match Wintzinger for the team lead. The Tigers also had eight blocks in the game, led by Courtney McDonald with three. Auburn also matched a season high with six service aces; Wintzinger and Harper had two apiece.

Both offenses were a bit sluggish in the first set, but the Tigers were able to pull ahead at 14-11 thanks to a Harper ace, a block from Vesela Zapryanova and a kill from Jersonsky. That lead would eventually become 20-16 after kills from Fidero and Bullock, and another Fidero kill and a McDonald block made it 22-17. Another block from Bullock would end matters with the Tigers taking a 25-19 first-set decision despite hitting just .150 as a team; Carolina managed just an .024 mark.

In set two, the Tigers jumped out to an early lead and never trailed after the first few points, building a 12-7 lead. Back-to-back service aces from Wintzinger made it 15-10 and forced a Gamecock timeout before Carolina then rolled off three in a row. From there, though, Auburn would make a 5-2 run to get it back to a five-point lead, and held on for a 25-19 second-set win.

Set three, however, was all Auburn as the Tigers rolled to a 25-17 victory. Auburn jumped out to a 6-1 lead and were ahead by as wide a margin at 13-4 before Carolina scored three in a row to make it 15-10. The Gamecocks, however, would get no closer than five as Auburn hit .484 in the set – 17 kills with just two errors on 31 attacks – and held Carolina to an .097 clip. Jersonsky and Bullock carried the Tiger offense in the third with both recording five kills; Jersonsky scored four of Auburn's final five points to close out the match.

GEORGIA 3, AUBURN 1 (25-19, 22-25, 19-25, 19-25)

Oct. 5, 2011 • Ramsey Student Center • Athens, Ga.

ATHENS, Ga. – Junior Sarah Bullock had a season-high 17 kills and 20 digs, but Auburn's volleyball team dropped a 3-1 decision (25-19, 22-25, 19-25, 19-25) to the Georgia Bulldogs on Wednesday night at the Ramsey Student Center.

Auburn (9-8, 3-4 SEC) had a match go past three sets for the first time since Sept. 3 at Middle Tennessee; it was the Tigers' first loss in a four- or five-setter this season (now 3-1). Georgia (7-10, 3-4) snapped a two-match losing streak to the Tigers and prevented Auburn from winning three in a row in the series for the first time since 1998-99.

Bullock had her best match of the season, picking up her fourth double-double of the year with a 17-kill, 20-dig performance; she had reached double digits in both categories before the halfway point of the second set. Both numbers were season highs for any Auburn player, and her digs total fell one short of a career-high. She also had a pair of service aces.

Senior Kelly Fidero had 13 kills for the Tigers, hitting double digits for the sixth straight match. Sophomore Chelsea Wintzinger had a career-high 40 assists along with seven digs and four kills, and junior MacKenzy Harper and sophomore Sarah Wroblicky split time at the libero position, each recording 13 digs.

Auburn hit just .181 in the match, falling to 1-8 on the season when falling below the .200 mark; Georgia finished with a .222 percentage. Four Bulldogs had double-digit kills, led by Brittany Northcutt's 14.

Georgia totaled 75 digs in the match, the most by any Auburn opponent this season, while the Tigers had 69. It was also Auburn's first loss of the season when winning the first set.

MATCH 18

MISS. STATE 3, AUBURN 2 (22-25, 25-23, 25-18, 20-25, 11-15)

Oct. 9, 2011 • Newell-Grissom Building • Starkville, Miss.

STARKVILLE, Miss. – The Auburn volleyball team could not capitalize on a 2-1 lead on the road and fell to Mississippi State 3-2 (22-25, 25-23, 25-18, 20-25, 11-15) on Sunday afternoon at the Newell-Grissom Building on the MSU campus.

The Tigers (9-9, 3-5 SEC) fell to 0-4 on the road in SEC play and dropped a five-set match for the first time this year. Mississippi State (9-8, 4-4 SEC) surpassed its SEC win total from the 2010 season and defeated Auburn for the first time in the last six meetings.

Redshirt sophomore Courtney McDonald had one of the best offensive games of her career, racking up a career-best 13 kills with a .476 hitting percentage to go along with three blocks and two digs. Senior Kelly Fidero also had 13 kills to go along with six blocks.

Junior Sarah Bullock posted her fourth double-double in the last five matches, finishing with 11 kills and 18 digs along with matching a career-high with four blocks. Sophomore Camila Jersonsky posted a season-high eight blocks along with 11 kills.

Sophomore Chelsea Wintzinger bettered her career-best in assists for the second straight match with 49 helpers on the day, and sophomore Sarah Wroblicky shattered her career-high in digs with 22 in today's match.

The Tigers posted a season-high 15 blocks as a team, the most in a single match since also recording 15 in a victory over South Carolina on Oct. 17, 2010. Auburn was out-hit .249-.228, marking the first time this season the Tigers failed to win when hitting .200 or better as a team (now 8-1 in those matches).

Caitlin Rance led State with a career-high 26 kills, and Paris Perret had 60 assists for the Bulldogs. Libero Hillary Parker added 27 assists.

MATCH 19

ARKANSAS 3, AUBURN 1 (23-25, 25-22, 15-25, 19-25)

Oct. 14, 2011 • Barnhill Arena • Fayetteville, Ark.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. – Auburn got double-digit kills from four different players, but the Tiger volleyball team dropped their third straight match Friday night with a 3-1 loss (23-25, 25-22, 15-25, 19-25) to Arkansas at Barnhill Arena.

Auburn (9-10, 3-6 SEC) fell to 1-5 on the road this season despite a strong offensive effort and some improvement in the service game. Arkansas (12-7, 4-4 SEC) improved to 4-4 at home and snapped a two-game losing streak to the Tigers.

Junior Sarah Bullock recorded her fourth straight double-double and sixth of the year with 12 kills and 16 digs, leading the team in the defensive category. Senior Kelly Fidero led Auburn with 13 kills while Camila Jersonsky and Courtney McDonald added 10 apiece. Jersonsky also tacked on five of the Tigers' six blocks on the night while McDonald led the team with a .438 hitting percentage.

Chelsea Wintzinger had 25 assists to lead the Tigers while Christina Solverson added 18 as she played most of the third and fourth sets. Arkansas was led by Jasmine Norton with 17 kills and 16 digs, while Kelli Stipanovich posted 13 kills.

The Razorbacks totaled 55 kills to Auburn's 50, while the Tigers won the digs battle 62-58. It was just the third time this season for Auburn to lose when out-digging its opponent (now 8-3 in those matches).

It was Rhude's ace that gave Auburn a 19-17 lead in set one, but the Razorbacks rolled off three straight to take a 20-19 lead and force an Auburn timeout. From there, the Arkansas lead swelled to 24-21, forcing another Tiger timeout. Two straight kills from Jersonsky kept the Tigers alive at 24-23, but a big swing from Norton gave the Hogs the first set at 25-23.

In the second set, the Tigers brought out their big guns, getting a combined nine kills from McDonald and Jersonsky to take a 25-22 win and square the match at one set apiece. McDonald hit .571 in the set with five kills on seven attempts (just one error), and Jersonsky was even more efficient at .800 (4-0-5) to go along with three blocks.

Set three, however, belonged to Arkansas from the first point as the Razorbacks took a 25-15 win. Auburn managed just a .100 hitting percentage compared to Arkansas' .385, with six of the Razorbacks' 19 kills coming from Norton. The Hogs jumped out to a 7-1 lead that eventually became 15-6, and the Tigers could never recover.

The Tigers were strong offensively in the fourth set and won most every statistical category, but four service errors and two aces by Arkansas made up for the difference in kills and digs as the Hogs took a 25-19 win to clinch the match. Auburn had 15 kills to Arkansas' 10 in the set, but the Tigers also had eight errors as they hit .152 in the final frame.

MATCH 20

Oct. 16, 2011 • Pete Maravich Assembly Center • Baton Rouge, La.

BATON ROUGE, La. – The Auburn volleyball team put up a strong fight on the road, but fell to SEC West-leading LSU 3-1 (17-25, 25-23, 21-25, 22-25) on Sunday afternoon at the Pete Maravich Assembly Center.

Auburn (9-11, 3-7 SEC) fell for just the second time all season when hitting .200 or better, and LSU (13-6, 6-3 SEC) extended its lead in the SEC Western Division as they look to win their seventh straight divisional crown.

Senior Kelly Fidero led the Tigers with a season-high 18 kills, falling one short of a career-high while notching her 14th match in double-figures this season; she also had three blocks and three digs. Junior Sarah Bullock was also a dominating presence for Auburn, recording her fifth consecutive double-double and sixth in 10 SEC matches with 14 kills and 14 digs; she also recorded three blocks and three assists.

Sophomore Chelsea Wintzinger led Auburn with 37 assists while added a kill and two blocks, and Sarah Wroblicky posted a team-high 16 digs along with a pair of assists from the libero position. Camila Jersonsky was also strong for Auburn with seven kills and a team-best .353 hitting percentage along with a team-best five blocks and one service ace. Courtney McDonald added four blocks of her own. Auburn totaled 10 blocks as a team to LSU's seven, but LSU won every other statistical category, including an 82-61 margin in digs.

After the teams traded the first few points, LSU went on a 6-0 run to take an early 8-3 lead, forcing Auburn to call its first timeout. It would be no closer than four points the rest of the way as LSU hit .303 and held Auburn to a .143 percentage, recording 13 kills to Auburn's 11. Auburn did manage to fight off three set point attempts, but the LSU lead was too great by that point.

Auburn refused to give up, fighting hard throughout set two and finally retaking the lead at 17-16 on a kill from McDonald, forcing an LSU timeout. From there, Auburn would never trail again, getting a kill from Jersonsky to extend the lead to 22-20 and a big swing from Bullock to put the set away at 25-23.

The third set was a back-and-forth affair that featured nine ties and saw the lead change hands seven times. But it was eventually LSU that would come out on top with a 25-21 win to take a 2-1 lead in the match. Neither team was sharp offensively as Auburn hit .108, and LSU was little better at .167.

Set four was even closer with 12 ties and seven lead changes, but LSU would hold on in the closing rallies to take a 25-22 win. Auburn looked to be in good shape after taking a 19-16 lead and forcing an LSU timeout, but LSU would rally for four straight points and take a 20-19 lead on two kills from Jones and an error by Auburn.
