AUBURN-ARKANSAS SERIES

This is the 40th meeting between the Tigers and Razorbacks with Arkansas holding a 24-15 series lead.

Auburn lost at Arkansas 82-79 in overtime on Feb. 6 in the teams' first meeting this year.

The Tigers have an 11-7 series edge in Auburn (all at BEMC).

Auburn swept Arkansas last year for the first time since 2003 and the third sweep over the Hogs in history. The Tigers also swept the Razorbacks in 1993, the final year of Barnhill Arena.

Auburn is 3-16 in Fayetteville, including a 2-15 mark in Bud Walton Arena. The Tigers' three wins in Fayetteville came in a 73-51 victory (Arkansas' worst loss ever in the 16-year history of Bud Walton Arena) on Jan. 24, 2009, a 52-37 victory in Bud Walton Arena on Jan. 11, 2003, and in a 100-89 victory over the eighth-ranked Razorbacks in 1993, the final season of Barnhill Arena.

The teams are 1-1 at neutral sites.

JEFF LEBO vs. ARKANSAS

Auburn's Jeff Lebo is 4-7 against Arkansas as a head coach.

Auburn lost an 82-79 heartbreaker at Arkansas on Feb. 6, two weeks ago.

The Tigers swept last year's season series and the teams split the series in 2005 and 2007. Arkansas swept Auburn in 2006 and 2008.

Lebo was 2-5 against the Razorbacks as an assistant.

JEFF LEBO vs. JOHN PELPHREY

Auburn's Jeff Lebo is 3-3 against Arkansas' John Pelphrey as a head coach. Auburn defeated Pelphrey's South Alabama Jaguars 82-71 in 2006 in Auburn, the Tigers lost to the Razorbacks twice in 2008 and Auburn swept Arkansas last year. The Hogs defeated the Tigers 82-79 in overtime earlier this season.

Auburn handed Arkansas its worst loss ever in the 16-year history of Bud Walton Arena in a 73-51 victory on Jan. 24, 2009.

Lebo is 4-7 against the Razorbacks while Pelphrey is 3-3 vs. Auburn.

LAST TIME OUT

Florida 78, Auburn 70 (Feb. 18, 2010, in Gainesville, Fla.)

DeWayne Reed scored 22 points, Tay Waller 13 and Brendon Knox 10 but it wasn't enough as Auburn was edged by Florida 78-70 in the O'Connell Center. Chandler Parsons scored 17 points to lead the Gators. Florida used a 12-1 run to turn a 42-40 lead into a 52-43 Gator advantage just over seven minutes into the second half. Tay Waller caught fire as he made three straight long range 3-pointers to draw Auburn to within 64-59 with 5:45 remaining. A conventional Reed 3-point play brought the Tigers to within 72-68 with 47.9 seconds left and then a pair of Reed foul shots made it 74-70 Florida with 23.9 seconds to go. Florida only scored one field goal in the final 11:25 of the game but went 17-of-23 from the foul line. For the game, the Gators went 32-of-40 from the free throw line to Auburn's 17-of-22 from the charity stripe. The two teams were nearly equal from the field with Auburn going 23-of-53 and Florida 22-of-50. The Tigers outshot the Gators from 3-point range, going 7-of-29 to 2-of-10 for Florida. Auburn had 16 turnovers to Florida's eight. Sullivan, who went 2-of-11 from the field including missing 8-of-9 from 3-point range, had seven points. For the Gators, Erving Walker scored all 14 of his points from the free throw line as he only missed two. Alex Tyus added 12 points.

LAST TIME vs. ARKANSAS
Arkansas 82, Auburn 79 (ot)
(Feb. 6, 2010, in Fayetteville, Ark.)

Courtney Fortson scored 10 of his game-high 24 points in overtime and had 10 rebounds and 7 assists to lead Arkansas to an 82-79 victory over Auburn in Bud Walton Arena. Frankie Sullivan and Tay Waller each scored 18 points and Lucas Hargrove 15 to lead the Tigers. Fortson split a pair of foul shots with 4.2 seconds left to put the Hogs up 82-79, and then Sullivan just missed a game-tying 3-pointer from over halfcourt that would have sent the game into double overtime. Sullivan's shot bounced off the back of the rim in front of a crowd of 15,036. Fortson's acrobatic layup with 14.1 seconds remaining in regulation gave Arkansas a 67-65 lead. Andre Malone then caught Sullivan's desperation missed 3 from the corner under the basket to send the game into overtime with 1.6 seconds left. Sullivan tracked down Waller's missed 3-pointer heaving the ball to the basket before going out of bounds. It was Malone's only points of the game. Waller's 3-pointer put Auburn up 63-62 with 3:09 left. Waller then gave the Tigers a 65-62 lead with his toes on the 3-point line with only 1:06 left. Marshawn Powell, who finished with 19 points, fouled Brendon Knox out of the game with a layup with 58 seconds to play and then made the foul shot to tie it at 65. Auburn was on fire as it built its lead to 36-27 on a Reed long range 3-pointer with seven minutes before the half as the Tigers were shooting 62 percent from the field and made 6-of-12 shots from 3-point range. However, the Tigers would only score again on a Knox putback with 1:35 left before holding a 38-36 halftime lead. The Tigers drought continued to the second half as Auburn only scored four points in 11 minutes stretched over both halves. A Reed 3-pointer from the corner tied it at 47 with 12:39 to play. Waller then drained a trey to put Auburn back in front at 50-49 a minute later Auburn stretched its lead to 54-49 on a Hargrove 3-pointer from the corner, capping a 7-0 Tiger run.

LAST TIME v. ARKANSAS in Auburn
Auburn 75, Arkansas 62
(Feb. 11, 2009, in Auburn, Ala.)

Auburn roared back from a 10-point second half deficit to take the season series from Arkansas in a 75-62 victory.

It was the Tigers' first sweep of the Hogs since 2003 and the third overall. The final 10 minutes were much like the game in Fayetteville. Auburn outscored Arkansas 16-2 in the final 6:32 in Auburn and 19-2 in the final 9:22 in Fayetteville on Jan. 24. Tay Waller and Lucas Hargrove each had 14 points to lead Auburn, Rasheem Barrett added 13 points, DeWayne Reed 11 and Korvotney Barber had 11 rebounds and eight points. Auburn trailed 39-31 at the half, 43-33 with 18:16 to play and was down 47-38 with 15:24 left. The Tigers scored nine straight points in three minutes to tie the score. Stefan Welsh's 3-pointer put the Razorbacks ahead 60-59 with 6:33 to play and that's when the Tigers began their 16-2 run to end the game. Reed hit a 3-pointer to give Auburn the lead for good. With the Tigers up 64-60, Courtney Fortson picked up his fifth foul and then was called for a technical. Tay Waller made a pair of free throws for the technical and then Reed split a pair of foul shots for a 67-60 lead with 4:23 left. A pair of Michael Sanchez free throws closed the Hogs to within 67-62 with 3:46 remaining but they wouldn't score again. Welsh and Rotnei Clarke had 14 points apiece for Arkansas.

QUOTING JEFF LEBO
(On playing Arkansas 2 weeks ago, what does that do for preparation?)

"We only have one day, and we really have to simplify. Last time we played Arkansas, we had a week off to get ready. With one day of prep time coming off the road, it really shortens what we can give our kids. Because of (John) Pelphrey's background at Florida, they do a lot of similar things but we will have to give our kids a very condensed package. Coaches can make the transition a lot easier than the players can in a short turnaround as far as prep. The kids have a little bit of a harder time with one day. This is our third one day prep that we've had this year so they are used to it."

(On Auburn's bench play at Florida)

"I thought Ty (Armstrong) did some good things. I thought Earnest Ross did some nice things out there for us. Both of those guys earned some minutes. Ty played 16 minutes and Earnest played 13 minutes so they did some good things. We just have to be able to play our bench a little bit more. We started to play it a little more the last couple of games, and those guys need to develop for us and get after it and give us something positive."

(On getting the bench minutes early)

"We wanted to get them in early. We wanted to get our guys some rest early to hopefully be there at the end. We've been struggling at the end a little bit. We came back a little bit in this game and had a chance with under a minute, it was a four point game. We are trying to keep them a little fresher. You are getting a little fatigued at this time of the year. We are coming off three out of four on the road. Not only a physical fatigue, but a mental fatigue gets there so we wanted to play our bench a little earlier in this game."

(On not getting everyone to play well in the same game)

"Frankie (Sullivan) struggled, and we were still in the game. Frankie struggled from three and had some really good looks from three. Actually the ones that Tay (Waller) missed, he made his tougher ones and missed his easier looks. Still, if we can get three of those backcourt playing well, we are hard to guard. We got good looks last night against Florida and forced them into the zone probably earlier than they would have liked. But, we didn't capitalize on them when they went to the zone by making some perimeter shots."

(On how Auburn's newcomers are playing this year)

"Earnest started out well, and Tay got back (from injury) and his minutes dipped down a little bit. Earnest gives us a physical presence defensively. He is a factor rebounding the ball. The one area where Andre (Malone) and EJ (Earnest Ross) have struggled is surprisingly a little bit to me is shooting the ball from three. That's an area where I thought they could be really good for us, and they just haven't been consistent from out there with their jump shots. I thought this year would be one of our best shooting teams. Kenny Gabriel is another kid who has been hurt. He's got hurt three times this year and hasn't really been able to get in the flow. He has missed a ton of practice. He is another guy who can really shoot the basketball for us. You think of him as sophomore now, but he played junior college last year, and this is his first year at this level. He really hasn't been out on the court very much for us. Ty Armstrong is a kid who has really gotten better. He is understanding defensively what we are looking for and he's earned the minutes he got against Florida. You will see him out there more because he is an active live body."

(On playing Arkansas, the SEC Western Division leader)

"We are coming off three out of four on the road, and we have to play well here at home. Our kids are playing well, but we haven't been able to win. We've been in a position to win but haven't been able to close out some games. We are playing against a team who I think is very difficult to defend. They can put four guys out there on the court that are capable of getting 20 in a particular night. When you have four scorers, and they are all a little bit different. I think offensively with them, it is hard to try to figure out how to defend them. They have shooters. They have drivers. They have post players. They can score a variety of ways, and they are playing pretty solid defense. They really got after us at their place and pressured us. They are kind of similar to us but are a little bit better inside scoring than us, but very similar in not being particularly big in the backcourt. Both teams match up pretty well with each other."

(On Arkansas turning it around from last year by winning 6 of its last 7 games)

"With (Courtney) Fortson back they are a different team. You add him to the mix, and it makes them a completely different team. They've won a lot of close games. You look at the difference there and some of those overtime games, a couple of close games here and there, a couple of comebacks from behind that they have had, it makes their record a lot different than it was last year when they might have lost a couple of those games."

(How do you keep Auburn playing so hard when you aren't getting the desired results?)

"I think it is frustrating for everybody. You just have to stay the course. The guys are really offensively doing some nice things. I still think we are playing some of our best basketball but just not enough to win. That's been frustrating. We are sitting here very close to having four out of five or five in a row if a couple breaks go our way, and we make a couple of plays. We haven't been able to do that. It's frustrating, but the kids continue to work hard, and they come in every day and work. In this game, you have to be able to put the wins and losses behind you quickly and be ready for the next one. That's just what we talk about with them, and they have done a good job with that, and they have been prepared to play every single night we've gone out to play. We've really only had out of 11 games, two bad halves the whole conference so far, and that was the second half against Vanderbilt and Tennessee. That's been it. Needing to make some plays here, some shots, some stops at crucial times late in games has been an issue for us."

E PLAYS D

Auburn freshman Earnest Ross grabbed a huge offensive rebound off a DeWayne Reed missed free throw with :30 to play and Auburn holding a 79-76 lead at LSU to give Auburn another possession.

Ross became a defensive specialist as he came in to slow down LSU's Tasmin Mitchell, who had 31 points in the first 24 plus minutes of the game. Mitchell finished with only seven points in the final 16 minutes of the contest as Auburn pulled out an 84-80 win on Jan. 20.

Coming into the Arkansas game on Feb. 20, Ross has averaged 4.0 points and 2.5 rebounds in Auburn's last two games after going through a stretch of only 0.6 points per game in the 11 games prior.

DR. DRE

NEW AUBURN ARENA OPENS NEXT SEASON

The official groundbreaking of the new $92.5 million Auburn basketball arena and practice facility was on Aug. 29, 2008, and the arena is ahead of schedule and is on track to be finished this July prior to the start of the 2010-11 season.

The Auburn Arena, with an approximate capacity near 9,000, will include over 29,000 square feet of student-athlete space, a two-court practice facility, coaches offices, the Auburn University Athletic Ticket Office, an AU Team Store, the relocated Lovelace Museum and two food courts along with many other amenities.

360 Architecture of Kansas City, Mo., has been working with Davis Architects of Birmingham on the design of the arena. The firm of Robins & Morton of Birmingham will serve as construction manager.

The 243,792 square foot facility will be built on campus north and west of the existing Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum on Roosevelt Drive, across the street from the Student Activities Center parking lot.

The new arena will feature chair back seats along with bleacher seating for students. The building also will provide improved facilities for the student-athletes, including men's and women's locker room suites with sports medicine facilities, lounges and team meeting rooms. Along with a strength and conditioning center, a two-court practice facility will enable the men's and women's teams to practice simultaneously and while the arena is in use for other purposes.

The arena will have 12 luxury suites on the arena level that will not only open inside the facility, but will also open on the outside of the arena for multiple entertaining opportunities throughout the year. Loge box seating will also be available as well as on-site food preparation.

The seating configuration will offer better sight lines and will move fans closer to the court. The furthest seat will be just 43 feet in elevation from courtside, compared to 60 feet in elevation at Beard-Eaves, with two-thirds of the seats in the new facility being less than 27 feet in elevation from courtside.

The scoreboard will feature a high-definition video board with full message/information center technology. For the student fan amenities, there will be a private entrance, a private court side commons and food court and court side seating that permits standing with unobstructed views.

The new facility will serve as more than a sports complex. With over 12,000 square feet of banquet/entertainment space, its design affords ready adaptation into a site for concerts, other cultural events, convocations and other community gatherings. On-campus student housing is being constructed adjacent to the new arena creating a unique "student village" experience.

Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum is entering its 41st year of service to the University, while the new arena will be Auburn's fifth home arena in the 104 years of basketball. The Tigers other arenas have been The Gymnasium (1906-16), Alumni Gym (1916-48) and the Sports Arena (1948-69).

360 Architecture has been selected to design the new Oakland A's stadium and has designed the Miami Heat's American Airlines Arena, NHL's Columbus Blue Jackets' Nationwide Arena, the University of Missouri's Mizzou Arena and the Sprint Center in Kansas City, Mo.

Auburn 69, Niagara 65
November 13, 2009
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Glenn Wilkes Classic • Auburn, Ala.

Auburn came back from a seven point deficit and outscored Niagara 11-0 in the final 89 seconds to stun the Purple Eagles 69-65 in the final season opener in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum Friday. DeWayne Reed scored a career-high 24 points to lead the Tigers. Niagara used an 11-2 run to take a 65-58 lead with 2:24 to play but did not score again as Reed scored eight straight points to give Auburn a 66-65 lead with 12.5 seconds left. In that incredible run, Reed made a conventional 3-point play with 1:29 left, stole a pass and dunked it on the other end with 52 seconds to go and then had another conventional 3-point play to close out the run. Lucas Hargrove set up the go ahead basket with a huge game-saving block of Rob Garrison's layup with two seconds remaining. The game was close throughout as neither team had a lead larger than five until Niagara went up by seven with 2:24 to go. Auburn played without senior starting guard Waller, who was out with a quad injury. Waller ranked second in the SEC last year with 100 made 3-pointers. The Tigers finished shooting 35.1 percent from the field and 18.2 percent (4-of-22) from 3-point range. Auburn did, however, make 25-of-30 free throws for 83.3 percent. Sophomore Frankie Sullivan added 10 points and seven rebounds while Brendon Knox chipped in seven points and five boards in 22 minutes. Villanova transfer and fifth-year senior Bilal Benn led Niagara with 16 points and a game-high 13 rebounds while Anthony Nelson added a team-high 17 points and Demetrius Williamson 16 points and seven rebounds.

Daytona Beach, Fla.

NC State's Tracy Smith banked in a 5-footer in the lane with 1.3 seconds to go after a Julius Mays missed 3-pointer from the corner to give the Wolfpack a 60-58 victory over Auburn in the Ocean Center. Frankie Sullivan scored a game-high 21 points and went 6-of-11 from 3-point range while recording his career-best string of three straight 20-plus point games. Lucas Hargrove inbounded the ball under the Tigers basket throwing it to Frankie Sullivan, who caught it shy of midcourt and didn't get his shot off in time. Sullivan made his career-best sixth 3-pointer with 1:58 to play to break a 51-51 tie, giving the Tigers a 54-51 lead. Dennis Horner answered with a 3-pointer for the Wolfpack to tie it at 54-54 13 seconds later. An Earnest Ross driving layup put the Tigers back in front 56-54 with 1:01 to play, setting up the final second heroics. Smith, the tournament's MVP who finished with 11 points and 15 rebounds on 4-of-18 shooting, made a conventional 3-point play to allow the Wolfpack to regain the lead at 57-56 with 50 seconds remaining. Sullivan missed a trey on Auburn's next possession, and following a Tiger offensive rebound, Reed missed a 3-pointer short of the rim, but Hargrove collected the ball and laid it in to tie it at 58 with 12.4 seconds left. After scoring the final four points of the first half to take a 26-25 halftime lead, NC State continued with 7 straight points, closing an 11-0 run with a 35-25 lead almost 3 minutes in that grew to 39-28. Auburn answered with 10 straight points, capped on a Sullivan 4-point play, to draw the Tigers to within 39-38 with 11:31 to play. A Sullivan trey enabled Auburn to regain the lead at 43-41 and then Reed nailed another trey on the Tigers' next possession for a 46-43 lead. An Andre Malone free throw and a Johnnie Lett tip-in putback gave the Tigers their largest lead at 49-43, ending a 21-4 run in just over seven minutes midway through the second half. Auburn held the NC State scoreless for 5:35 and only four points in 11 minutes from the 15:41 mark to the 4:39 mark in the second half. After the dry spell, NC State drained back-to-back 3-pointers by Javier Gonzalez and Julius Mays to tie it at 49-49 with four minutes to play. Auburn 87, Alabama A&M 52
December 1, 2009
Von Braun Center
Huntsville, Ala.

Lucas Hargrove recorded his second straight double-double with 22 points and a career-high 13 rebounds as Auburn scored a season high in points with an 87-52 rout of Alabama A&M in Huntsville's Von Braun Center, marking coach Jeff Lebo's 200th career win. Tay Waller added 13 points in 17 minutes, making 3-of-4 shots from 3-point range in his first game this season after being out with a quad injury. Auburn fell behind 7-2 early, but Waller scored his first points of the season on his first shot attempt, a 3-pointer from the corner to give the Tigers their first lead of the game at 10-9. Frankie Sullivan had his streak of 27 consecutive free throws made to start the season come to an end with his miss on the front end of pair of technical foul shots. It is the longest recorded made streak in Auburn history. After Alabama A&M closed to within 23-21 with 8:12 left, Auburn ended the half on an 18-3 run to take a 41-24 lead. The Bulldogs went the last 6:21 without a field goal. Auburn picked up in the second half where it left off in the first by outscoring Alabama A&M 17-6 and stretched its lead to 58-30 with 13:33 left, capped off by five straight points by Hargrove. The Tigers continued to build their lead to 63-32 with Lebo emptying his bench with 11:11 remaining. Andre Malone's putback monster dunk gave the Tigers their largest lead at 80-44 with 3:04 remaining. The win was coach Jeff Lebo's 200th of his career, 85 of them while at Auburn.

Auburn 68, Virginia 67
December 7, 2009

Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Brendon Knox's putback with 1.4 seconds left propelled Auburn to a thrilling 68-67 victory over Virginia in the Coliseum. DeWayne Reed led the Tigers with 18 points and 7 assists while Lucas Hargrove added 13 points and 9 boards, Frankie Sullivan 12 points and Knox 11 points and 6 rebounds. With the game tied at 58, Auburn scored 8 straight points in just over 2 minutes on a Reed 3-pointer, a Knox follow dunk and a Waller 3-pointer to take its largest lead of the game at 66-58 with 4:24 to play. The Tigers didn't score again until Knox's heroics to win it. Virginia then scored 7 consecutive points to take a 67-66 lead on 3 Sammy Zeglinski foul shots with 7 seconds left. Zeglinski fouled on a 3-point attempt by Hargrove. Auburn then called timeout to ice Zeglinski before his first foul shot and then before his third attempt, setting up Reed's drive to the basket and shot that was rebounded and put in by Knox. Virginia led by as much as 11 in the first half, leading 25-14 on a Jeff Jones 3-pointer with 8:16 left. The Cavaliers then were up 10 points at 34-24 with only 1:49 before the half. A free shot by both Reed and Waller, a 3-pointer by Waller and a 25-foot rainbow fall-a-way trey by Sullivan over UVA 7-footer Assane Sene at the buzzer brought Auburn to within 34-32. In the final 1.4 seconds of each half, Auburn scored 5 points combined. The second half was close throughout with seven ties. Zeglinski, who finished with 18 points on 5-of-9 shooting from 3-point range, scored the first points of the second half with a trey to give Virginia a 37-32 lead, the Cavaliers' largest of the period. The Tigers then reeled off 10 straight points to take a 42-37 lead just over three minutes in. It was Auburn's first lead since 13-12 only 4:36 into the game. Virginia was led by Sylven Landesberg's 20 points, although only three of those came in the second half on 0-of-6 shooting from the field as he was guarded by Sullivan.

Tallahassee, Fla.

DeWayne Reed scored all 17 of his points in the final 20:01 and Frankie Sullivan added 17 points and a career-high nine rebounds, but it wasn't enough as Auburn lost a 76-72 heartbreaker at Florida State. After trailing by as many as 14 points in the second half, Auburn went on a 24-10 run to tie it at 59-59 on a Sullivan 3-pointer with 6:46 left. That was the first time the Tigers were tied since holding a 12-10 lead. Tied at 63, Florida State scored four straight points. Lucas Hargrove sank a 3-pointer to bring the Tigers to within 69-67 with 1:01 left. Solomon Alabi, who scored a game-high 22 points for the Seminoles, made a conventional 3-point play with 36 seconds to go to give Florida State a 72-67 edge. Tay Waller hit two treys to open the game to give Auburn a 6-0 lead, but DeWayne Reed picked up two quick fouls in the first three minutes and went to the bench for the next 10:29 of the first half. Florida State got into the free throw bonus in only the first 5:42 of the game. Florida State didn't score a basket for nearly the final 7:29 of the first half until Deividas Dulkys sank his third 3-pointer of the period with one second to go as the Seminoles went up 33-25. The Seminoles did make five free throws during the span. Auburn only scored two baskets in the final 9:09, the last one on Sullivan's trey with 4:41 remaining, and added a Reed foul shot with 7.4 seconds left. The Tigers were saddled with serious first half foul trouble as three players, Reed, Lucas Hargrove and Johnnie Lett each had three fouls while Frankie Sullivan had two, and picked up his fourth only 3:12 into the second half. After being down by as much as 49-35, Auburn scored nine straight points to close to within 49-44 with 11:29 remaining. #2 Kentucky 72, Auburn 67
January 16, 2010
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Down by 19 points with less than two minutes left in the first half, Auburn tied it at 60 and DeWayne Reed missed a game-tying 3-pointer with 12 seconds left to allow No. 2 Kentucky to hold on for a 72-67 victory over Auburn. Reed scored a game-high 19 points and dished out 6 assists while Frankie Sullivan added 15 points on 3-of-5 3-point shooting in only 22 minutes after being saddled with foul trouble before an overflow crowd of 11,669. Kentucky's John Wall sank two foul shots with :09 left to allow the Wildcats to win their 18th straight game to open the season. Reed sank back-to-back 3s as Auburn closed to within 39-26 at halftime. The Tigers, who outscored the Wildcats 40-21 to tie it at 60 on Sullivan 3-pointer with 8:24 remaining, closed to within 46-41 on Hargrove's 3-point shot into the second half. It was a dogfight from that point on. Kentucky pushed its lead back to 50-41 a minute later, but Auburn kept chipping away and an Andre Malone steal led to a Reed layup to bring the Tigers to within 53-52 with 10:42 remaining. Darius Miller missed a 3-pointer on the Wildcats' next possession, and the Tigers had a chance to take their first lead of the game, but Reed walked the ball up the court and was whistled for a 10 second violation. Kentucky quickly answered with a DeAndre Liggins 3-pointer from the corner and a pair of Wall free throws to go back up by six. A Sullivan layup, Tay Waller 3-pointer closed the Tigers back to within 58-57. After Sullivan's try tied it at 60, Liggins' layup gave the Wildcats the lead for good but the margin was never more than six points the rest of the way. Hargrove's fall-a-way 10-footer closed Auburn to within 64-62 with 4:34 to play while a pair of Reed free throws brought Auburn to within 70-67 with 1:09 left. Eric Bledsoe missed a 3-pointer on Kentucky's next possession with 39 seconds remaining to give Auburn a shot to tie it. Brendon Knox's shot in the lane was blocked out of bounds by DeMarcus Cousins with 19 seconds to go to set up the in-bounds play that led to Reed's missed game-tying 3-pointer. Cousins led Kentucky with 16 points and 11 rebounds while Wall and Bledsoe had 13 points apiece and Patrick Patterson 12 points. Auburn forced National Player of the Year candidate Wall into seven turnovers, including six in the second half.

Baton Rouge, La.

DeWayne Reed scored 21 points while Frankie Sullivan added 15 and the go-ahead 3-pointer with 1:10 to go to give Auburn an 84-80 victory over LSU in the Maravich Assembly Center. Auburn held LSU scoreless for all but nine seconds in the final 3:29. After LSU took a 76-72 lead with 3:29 to play, Auburn scored 10 straight points to put the game away. LSU wouldn't score again until Dennis Harris' put-back with :09 left. With LSU up 76-75, Sullivan nailed the big trey from the right corner to give Auburn the lead for good at 78-76 with 1:10 left. Tasmin Mitchell, who totaled 38 points and 10 rebounds, pushed off on LSU's next possession for an offensive foul. Reed was then fouled by Bo Spencer and sank one free throw and missed the second, but freshman Earnest Ross came up with the biggest rebound of the game as Auburn then called time out with 30 seconds to go. Sullivan sank a pair of foul shots to put Auburn up 81-76 and to seal the win. After LSU scored the first six points to open the game, Auburn went on a 16-4 run to take a 16-10 lead on a Lucas Hargrove 3-pointer with 13:38 left. Reed picked up his second foul 40 seconds later and went to the bench for the rest of the half. Freshman walk-on Josh Wallace played the remaining 13 minutes of the half and scored 4 points. Wallace had only played 6 total minutes in Auburn's previous three SEC games. Auburn led by as many as nine points at 27-18 with 8:42 left in the half on a pair of Hargrove free throws. With Vanderbilt holding a 65-60 lead, Auburn's Frankie Sullivan was whistled for a charge that erased his made layup. With a made free throw to follow, the lead could have been cut to two with 5:47 remaining. The Commodores then quickly scored six straight points to push their lead to 71-60 with 4:32 to play, and the lead never dipped below eight points the rest of the way. Auburn jumped out to a quick 20-10 lead almost seven minutes in, but Vanderbilt scored seven straight points. The Tigers used a 9-0 run to push their lead back up to 33-19 on a Reed 3-pointer from the left corner with 5:38 on the clock. A Ty Armstrong tip-in and a Lucas Hargrove gave Auburn its largest lead at 41-25 with just over three minutes to go before holding a 43-32 lead at the half. Vanderbilt started SEC play 4-0 for the first time since 1965-66 as it ran its overall record to 15-3. Jeffery Taylor scored 18 points to lead four Commodores in double figures as A.J. Ogilvy had 17 points and eight rebounds, Brad Tinsley 15 points and Jermaine Beal 14.

Auburn 58, Alabama 57
January 30, 2010
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Tay Waller scored a game-high 20 points and Lucas Hargrove made the game-winning free throw with 3.1 seconds left to give Auburn a 58-57 victory over Alabama in the final game between the two rivals in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum history. It was the Tigers' sixth win in the last seven games against the Crimson Tide and the fourth straight in Auburn. DeWayne Reed set up Hargrove's free throw when he stole the ball from Mikhail Torrance just shy of midcourt with :05 left. Hargrove missed the second free throw and Alabama called time out with 2.6 seconds left. On the in-bounds play, Tony Mitchell threw the a baseball pass to Justin Knox just beyond the foul line. After Knox caught it, Sullivan knocked the ball away as time ran out. Alabama took its largest lead of the game at 40-33 on a Torrance jumper with 13:30 left, but Auburn scored 10 straight points to regain the lead at 43-40, capped on a Waller steal and dunk with 9:35 to play. The lead by either team never was greater than four points after that. Torrance's layup gave the Crimson Tide a 57-53 lead with 2:22 left, but Alabama wouldn't score again. Hargrove's conventional 3-point play drew the Tigers to within 57-56 with 2:02 left, and it stayed that way until Reed split a pair of free throws with :12 to go to tie it. Reed's free throw came after Torrance, the SEC's leading free throw shooter at 86.2 percent, missed the front end of a one-and-one with :22 left and the Tide up by one. Alabama didn't score its first points of the game until a Justin Knox layup almost five minutes in. Alabama went into the locker room leading 27-24. For the Tigers, Hargrove had 14 points and Reed 10 while Torrance led the Crimson Tide with 13 points.

Arkansas 82, Auburn 79 (ot)
February 6, 2010
Bud Walton Arena
Fayetteville, Ark.

Courtney Fortson scored 10 of his game-high 24 points in overtime and had 10 rebounds and 7 assists to lead Arkansas to an 82-79 victory over Auburn in Bud Walton Arena. Frankie Sullivan and Tay Waller each scored 18 points and Lucas Hargrove 15 to lead the Tigers. Fortson split a pair of foul shots with 4.2 seconds left to put the Hogs up 82-79, and then Sullivan just missed a game-tying 3-pointer from over halfcourt that would have sent the game into double overtime. Sullivan's shot bounced off the back of the rim in front of a crowd of 15,036. Fortson's acrobatic layup with 14.1 seconds remaining in regulation gave Arkansas a 67-65 lead. Andre Malone then caught Sullivan's desperation missed 3 from the corner under the basket to send the game into overtime with 1.6 seconds left. Sullivan tracked down Waller's missed 3-pointer heaving the ball to the basket before going out of bounds. It was Malone's only points of the game. Waller's 3-pointer put Auburn up 63-62 with 3:09 left. Waller then gave the Tigers a 65-62 lead with his toes on the 3-point line with only 1:06 left. Marshawn Powell, who finished with 19 points, fouled Brendon Knox out of the game with a layup with 58 seconds to play and then made the foul shot to tie it at 65. Auburn was on fire as it built its lead to 36-27 on a Reed long range 3-pointer with seven minutes before the half as the Tigers were shooting 62 percent from the field and made 6-of-12 shots from 3-point range. However, the Tigers would only score again on a Knox putback with 1:35 left before holding a 38-36 halftime lead. The Tigers drought continued to the second half as Auburn only scored four points in 11 minutes stretched over both halves. A Reed 3-pointer from the corner tied it at 47 with 12:39 to play. Waller then drained a trey to put Auburn back in front at 50-49 a minute later Auburn stretched its lead to 54-49 on a Hargrove 3-pointer from the corner, capping a 7-0 Tiger run.

Mississippi State 85, Auburn 75 (ot)
February 13, 2010
Humphrey Coliseum
Starkville, Miss.

Dee Bost scored a career-high 32 points on 7 made 3-pointers as Miss. State outscored Auburn 11-1 in overtime to claim an 85-75 victory in Humphrey Coliseum. Tay Waller led the Tigers with 21 points on 5-of-11 3-pointers along with 7 rebounds while Lucas Hargrove had his second straight double-double with 20 points and 10 rebounds. DeWayne Reed sent the game into overtime with a layup with :15 left in regulation over Jarvis Varnado, the nation's second leading shot blocker in history, tying the game at 74-74. The Bulldogs had just taken a 74-72 lead on a conventional 3-point play dunk by Romero Osby that fouled out Brendon Knox with :30 left. Bost was defended well on a potential game-winning layup that was rebounded by Frankie Sullivan with 2.1 seconds remaining. After a time out, Auburn, which had to go the full length of the court, inbounded the ball to Sullivan on the run just beyond State's 3-point arc, but he was met with contact while taking a desperation shot. Bost, who had come into the game in a 5-of-34 3-point shooting slump, was on fire as he made 7-of-12 shots from behind the arc to go along with nine rebounds and four assists. Waller scored nine straight points for Auburn as he brought the Tigers back from a 63-61 deficit to a 70-67 lead on a beautiful alley-oop layup from Sullivan with 2:05 left and a pair of Reed free throws gave Auburn a 72-69 lead with 1:24 left. The lead was never more than 3 points in the final 11 minutes. State tied it at 42 for the first time since Auburn was ahead 15-13, and the Bulldogs regained the lead at 45-44 on Bost's fifth 3-pointer of the game. Brendon Knox put the Tigers back in front at 55-54 on a layup. Auburn used a 14-0 run to take a 23-13 lead and then Waller's third of his four first half 3s gave the Tigers their largest lead at 31-17 with nine minutes to play, capping a 22-4 run. Mississippi State responded with 10 straight points, and Auburn only held a 38-35 halftime lead. Both teams combined to shoot 67 3-pointers as Auburn went 9-of-33 (.273) while Mississippi State was 11-of-34 (.324). In overtime, the Tigers missed all nine field goal attempts. Auburn suffered its second consecutive road overtime loss. Reed finished with 13 points on 5-of-21 shooting for Auburn.
