THIS IS AUBURN FOOTBALL

"You can't be anything but envious," said Jake Crouthamel, then the Syracuse athletic director who was a wide-eyed witness to all of the SU-Auburn doings. "You can't be anything but envious when you have that kind of support. I mean, there were 84,000 people in the seats. And the RVs and trailers were lined up five miles outside of town. When you talk about the epitome of what the college football experience is all about.....that's it. Auburn is the epitome. You couldn't possibly be unaware of the spectacle, even if you were trying to be unaware."

From the news story:
Go To Auburn, Be Forever Changed
By Bud Poliquin, Columnist
Oct. 2, 2002
Syracuse (N.Y.) Post-Standard

"Before the game, there is the great Tiger Walk during which the Auburn players march along Donahue Street through thousands of people, some of whom weep, and into the stadium. After the game, there is a mass papering of famous Toomer's Corner downtown. And between all of that, a golden eagle circles the place before landing on the field to a deafening roar."

Mission Statement

We have a two-fold purpose: To enable our student-athletes to be successful in all areas of their lives, athletics and academics, and personal endeavors, both now and in their future careers, by providing them with the best resources available in academics, facilities and coaches: And while meeting the needs of our student-athletes, to represent and promote Auburn University in a positive manner in all that we do.

The Auburn Athletics Department's absolute values are to always tell the truth and to treat others as we would like to be treated. We will also adhere to the timeless values of the Auburn Creed. We will lead the way to integrity, diversity, communications, both internally and externally, compliance and customer service.

We will function as a team, helping each other to be successful, rather than focusing on personal success. We will work for the benefit of others and for Auburn, not for personal gain. We will have an attitude of constructive discontent; always striving to be better.

Auburn Academics

Auburn University is committed to maintaining the highest standard of academic excellence. Auburn's academic curriculum is recognized nationally and internationally by leading education publications for its services in preparing students for challenges of the future.

Auburn student-athletes excel because of one of the top student support service programs in the country. Virgil Starks, Senior Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Support Services (SASS) and Assistant to the Provost, oversees a staff of seven full-time Academic Counselors, two Learning Specialists and two Eligibility Specialists.

The Charlotte G. Lowder Student Athlete Development Center

Charlotte G. Lowder Student Athlete Development Center

The Charlotte G. Lowder Student Athlete Development Center, with 33,000 square feet of dedicated space to students and learning, gives Auburn University the physical infrastructure that allows the ability to implement and expand the array of programs designed to enhance the academic performance of Auburn student-athletes. Located adjacent to the Auburn Athletic Complex, the facility is centrally located for easy access for all Tiger athletic teams.

The goals of the Charlotte G. Lowder Student Athlete Development Center are to create an opportunity for one-stop learning for all services including academic counseling, life skills, and tutorial services; to utilize the technology available to support academic missions; and to create a showplace that honors achievements of student-athletes. In addition, programs are designed to develop leadership skills and a strong altruistic attitude, which are fundamental characteristics of the Auburn graduate.

Within the walls of the center are the Academic Hall of Honor designed by Auburn student-athletes, two "smart" classrooms with new and innovative technology that hold 50 people per room, seven counselor offices as well as administrative support, the PAW (Promoting Academic Winners) office, Operation Follow-Through, the Student Athletic Advisory Committee office, 40 four-person tutorial rooms, a library resource area, a soft-study lounge, a 25-station computer classroom, the student "Cantina" for snacks and beverages and the tutor coordinator office.

The construction of the Student Athlete Development Center was made possible by the generosity of Robert and Charlotte Lowder and from the Lowder Family Foundation.

Student-Athlete Advisory Committee

The primary function of the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (SAAC) is to provide student-athletes with an official voice in the decision-making processes of the athletic department. Auburn's SAAC is comprised of two representatives from each athletic team. These two representatives serve as a liaison between the committee and their teams. Secondary functions of SAAC are the development of leadership skills and to promote citizenship through community service. The SAAC is involved in community service activities such as organizing canned food and clothing drives, visiting patients in area hospitals and nursing homes and hosting local elementary school children each year for National Student-Athlete Day. The Auburn University SAAC also plans and hosts an annual fall picnic and a spring social for all student-athletes in appreciation of their contributions to Auburn.

Athlete Support Services (SASS) department has developed a comprehensive program which includes:

- Academic Counseling
- Tiger Tutor Program
- Specialized Services
- Study Table Program
- Life Skills Classes
- Promoting Academic Winners (P.A.W.)

Academic Counseling

- All staff members participate in recruiting scholar student-athletes.
- Student-Athlete Support Services maintains a book depository.
- Student-Athlete Support Services assists in advising degree curriculum for student-athletes.
- Student-Athlete Support Services monitors progress towards obtaining a degree.

Life Skills Program

The Student-Athlete Support Services life skills program offers four classes:

- Career Awareness For Student-Athletes is a Freshman/Sophomore class where students learn to research their majors and professional career interest and develop resumes and portfolio resources.
- Career Success for Student-Athletes is a Junior/Senior class developed to explore careers based on their majors, skills and interests. Students also learn to aggressively market themselves through networking and other job search tactics. They are also actively engaged in enhancing their self-confidence by polishing their job search skills, interviewing and business etiquette.
- Athletes in Society is a course designed to help student-athletes with civic involvement and community service through service learning.

Other life skills programs include:

The Tigers often interact with children at Storybook Farm.

Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium

Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium

the nation's ninth-largest on-campus stadium with a capacity of 87,451, is entering its 69th year as home to the Auburn Tigers.

On football Saturdays in Auburn, Jordan-Hare Stadium becomes Alabama's fifth-largest city. More than 75,000 season tickets have been sold to Auburn home games in each of the last 15 years.

The stadium is named for Ralph "Shug" Jordan, Auburn's all-time winningest football coach, and Clifford Leroy Hare, a member of Auburn's first football team, president of the old Southern Conference and longtime chairman of Auburn's Faculty Athletic Committee.

Legendary coach Pat Dye has also had his name forever attached to Jordan-Hare Stadium, as the turf officially became known as Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium prior to the 2005 Iron Bowl. Dye, who served as head coach and athletics director at Auburn from 1981-92 and was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in December of 2005, led Auburn to a 99-39-4 record and four SEC Championships in his 12 seasons on the Plains.

What is now Jordan-Hare Stadium was first opened and dedicated on Nov. 30, 1939, at the Auburn-Florida game. Babe McGehee, who passed away Oct. 1, 2005, scored the first touchdown in what was then called "Auburn Stadium," by catching a pass from Dick McGowen. McGowen, who later coached at Auburn under Jordan, kicked the extra point and Auburn tied Florida, 7-7.

That first stadium held 7,500 seats and consisted of what is now the bottom part of the lower west stands. When the stadium was renamed "Cliff Hare Stadium" in 1949, 14,000 seats—the present lower east stands—had been added, raising capacity to 21,500.

Jordan became head coach in 1951 and the stadium that was to bear his name underwent three major expansions in 15 years. More than 40,000 seats, virtually half of the stadium's present capacity, were added while Jordan was the coach.

Cliff Hare Stadium became Jordan-Hare Stadium in 1973. It was the first stadium in the country to be named for an active coach.

The history of Auburn Football can be seen by standing in the middle of the playing field and looking at various additions. The original stadium consisted of the bottom half of the lower west stands and later the east stands. Jordan teams added the top half of the lower west stands and the north and south end zone seats.

Players such as William Andrews, Joe Cribbs and James Brooks brought about the west side upper deck in 1980 and the success of Pat Dye-coached teams led to the addition of the east side upper deck and luxury suites in 1987.

A football attendance record for the state of Alabama was set in the very first game of the "new" stadium when 80,000 fans came to see Auburn defeat Texas 31-3 in the 1987 season opener. Two more 80,000-plus crowds came to Auburn that season and within two years Jordan-Hare Stadium — and Auburn — held every major football attendance record in the state of Alabama.

Overall, Auburn has played 332 games in Jordan-Hare Stadium, winning 261, losing 64 and tying seven for a winning percentage of .797 against some of the best teams in college football. Auburn's longest home winning streak is 30 games covering a period of nine years. It began with a 3-0 win over Clemson in 1952 and ended with a 14-12 upset loss to Kentucky in 1961.

Jordan-Hare Stadium Locker Rooms

Prior to the 2000 season, the locker rooms in Jordan-Hare Stadium were rebuilt, making them some of the finest game-day locker rooms in college football. Auburn's locker room encompasses the entire south end zone, utilizing the space that was once both the Auburn and visitors' dressing areas.

Auburn's locker room increased in size from 1,300 square feet to 3,232 square feet. It houses oak lockers in an open area that is carpeted. The carpet includes a large AU logo in the center of the dressing room which, according to tradition started by the 2000 senior class, can not be stepped on by a player or coach. A matching AU hangs from the ceiling. The room is connected to the stadium's closed-circuit television system and has four monitors for viewing.

Adjacent to the main locker room is a renovated and enlarged ceramic tile shower and restroom facilities, an overflow locker room for non-conference games, an equipment room and a room that will be used for X-ray equipment in the future.

In addition to the main dressing area, the locker room also contains a state-of-the-art training room, media room and photographer's dark room.

The Tigers enter the field from the center of the south end zone. While "Eye of the Tiger" is played on the stadium sound system, Auburn takes the field through a cloud of smoke and thunderous cheers from more than 87,000 fans.

The visitor's locker room is now in the north end zone and contains a dressing room, coach's locker room, media room and training room. The visiting team enters the field through the northeast corner of the end zone.

Jordan-Hare Stadium Recruiting Lounge and Tiger Walk Plaza

The Tiger Walk Plaza was completed in the summer of 2001. The courtyard serves as the conclusion of Tiger Walk, the entrance to the home locker rooms and a recruit assembly room. The enclosed courtyard is paved with approximately 6,000 inscribed brick pavers purchased by Auburn alumni and friends.

The recruit assembly area is 3,065 square feet and serves as a reception area. This room provides a comfortable atmosphere with direct connections to the field and the stadium. The room houses graphics of past Auburn games and two large screen projection televisions which provide closed-circuit televised action of the game. A prep kitchen and restroom facilities also support the functions for this area. During the off-season, the room supports other events tied to athletics.

Jordan-Hare Stadium Murals

Prior to the 2006 season, 10 large murals were placed on the east side exterior of Jordan-Hare Stadium. Pamela Welch designed and updated the murals which include pictures of early Auburn football teams and coaches, Heisman Trophy winners Pat Sullivan and Bo Jackson, as well as more recent history, including pictures from Auburn's 1993 and 2004 undefeated seasons. Each mural is 11'x29' and Auburn's football history is displayed in chronological order from south to north.

A large AU logo is featured in the center of the home locker room.

Murals picturing Auburn's storied football history decorate the outside of Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Auburn Practice Facilities

Auburn boasts some of the top practice facilities in the nation with a state-of-the-art Sprinturf artificial field and two natural grass fields as well as an indoor practice facility, the John H. Watson Fieldhouse.

The John H. Watson Fieldhouse is a pre-engineered, structural steel, concrete and brick building that houses a 40-yard artificial turf field. The facility, which measures 155 feet by 210 feet, has a heating system and is cooled by large fans.

The Fieldhouse, which gives the football team a place to practice during inclement weather, was dedicated on Sept. 4, 1999.

The construction of the fieldhouse was made possible because of a generous contribution from Dothan businessman John Watson who graduated from Auburn in 1960 with a degree in mechanical engineering.

James T. Tatum Strength & Conditioning Center

Auburn football players benefit from the direction of one of the finest strength and conditioning staffs in the country. Head strength coach Kevin Yoxall has implemented an extensive program for Auburn's football team which has improved the team's overall strength and conditioning levels.

The James T. Tatum, Jr., Strength and Conditioning Center stands as a testament to Auburn's commitment to providing state-of-the-art training facilities for its student-athletes. The center, which opened in January 2002, encompasses more than 14,000 square feet and is triple the size of the previous facility.

The first floor of the two-story center houses 24 power stations, which contain the majority of the equipment used by student-athletes during workouts and leads to effective and time-efficient training. Also, there are several upper and lower body selectorized machines around the perimeter of the main floor. The second floor contains various machines, medicine balls, aerobic equipment and an open exercise area for additional overall strength and conditioning development of Auburn's student-athletes.

Adjacent to the weight room is a 20-yard astroturf hill, set at 45 degrees, which is used for speed and endurance conditioning. The center also houses the strength and conditioning coaches' offices.

The center is named for James T. Tatum, Jr., who served 16 years as a member of the Board of Trustees. Dr. Tatum believed strongly and devoutly in Cliff Hare's philosophy that "Athletics Makes Men Strong, Study Makes Men Wise and Character Makes Men Great." His support of Auburn's teams and programs throughout the years strongly illustrated that fact.

The center was dedicated in his memory on April 6, 2002.

Designed by The Butner and Associates Architectural Group, the facility was built by Bailey Harris Construction Corporation at a cost of $2.7 million.

Auburn's award-winning mascot, celebrating his 30th year in 2008-09, is a favorite for Tiger fans, both young and old. On the job since 1979, Aubie's existence began as a cartoon character drawn by Birmingham Post-Herald artist Phil Neel in 1959 for the Oct. 3, football game program.

Bacardi Bowl

Auburn's first bowl trip and the only bowl game to ever be played outside the United States. Auburn and Villanova battled to a 7-7 tie in Havana, Cuba on New Year's day in 1937. Billy Hitchcock scored the Tigers' only touchdown of the game on a 40-yard run.

Beard, Jeff

Garland Washington "Jeff" Beard could generally be considered the father of modern Auburn athletics. Serving as athletic director from 1951 through 1972, Beard hired legendary coach Ralph "Shug" Jordan, increased the capacity of what is now Jordan-Hare Stadium from 21,500 to 61,500 seats and is responsible for bringing Auburn's football games with Georgia Tech, Georgia and Tennessee to campus. His tenure also produced the basketball arena now named in his honor, the Wilbur Hutsell Track and Field complex and Sewell Hall. Beard is one of only six Auburn athletic directors who didn't serve as head football coach.

Donahue, Mike

"Iron" Mike Donahue won 99 games in two different stints as Auburn's head coach, tying him with Pat Dye for second on the all-time Auburn victories list. Donahue's 1913 Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association championship team not only went undefeated at 8-0, but did not allow a single point to be scored on them. On the flip side, his 1920 team averaged 42.5 points per game, despite being shut out twice. During his tenure, 38 players were named as All-Southern Conference. Donahue also served as the basketball, baseball and track coach as well athletic director.

Don't Make Us Go There

For years some of Auburn's chief rivals - Georgia, Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Alabama - never made it to The Plains. Auburn's "home" games with those schools were played in Montgomery, Mobile, Columbus and Birmingham. Athletic Director Jeff Beard changed all that starting in 1960. The Auburn-Georgia game was played in Columbus, Athens, Atlanta, Macon or Savannah from 1892 through 1959. In 1960 the Bulldogs finally came to Auburn and lost, 9-6. From 1906 until 1970 Auburn and Georgia Tech played in either Atlanta or Birmingham - 53 straight times in Atlanta - before the Yellow Jackets finally gave in and came to Auburn to lose 31-7. In a series that began in 1900, Tennessee finally played at Auburn in 1974, losing 21-0. In 1989, cross-state rival Alabama made the trip and left with a 30-20 defeat and dreams of an undefeated season ended.

Dye, Pat

Patrick Fain Dye won 99 games and four Southeastern Conference championships in 12 years as Auburn's head coach, but perhaps he will be remembered most for bringing Auburn's "home" game with Alabama to the Auburn campus on Dec. 2, 1989, a 30-20 Tiger victory. He also fielded such superstars as Bo Jackson, Kurt Crain and Tracy Rocker. Under his leadership as athletic director, Auburn football facilities were elevated to some of the finest in the nation with additions to Jordan-Hare Stadium increasing the seating capacity to 85,214 and 70 luxury suites. In 2005, Jordan-Hare's field was named in his honor.

Eleven and Ohhhhh!!!!

In 1993, first-year coach Terry Bowden directed Auburn to its first undefeated, 11-win season while the Tigers suffered through the first year of NCAA imposed sanctions which kept AU off television and out of the bowl scene. The 11 wins in 1993 were the opening act of a 20-game winning streak which would set the Auburn record for consecutive victories.

The Entrance

The Auburn team began a new tradition in 2000, entering the field from the middle of the south end zone through a cloud of smoke.

Auburn players enter the field

Four in The First

Auburn set a Southeastern Conference record when four Tigers were selected in the first round of the 2005 NFL Draft. Ronnie Brown went second overall to Miami, Carnell Williams fifth to Tampa Bay, Carlos Rogers ninth to Washington and Jason Campbell 25th to the Redskins. Auburn became just the 11th school to have four players selected in the first round of the same draft. Meanwhile, the backfield of Brown, Campbell and Williams became the first to all be selected in the first round in the same year.

Bo Over the Top

Bo over the top

The climax to a 23-22 Auburn victory over Alabama in 1982 which broke a nine-year losing skid to the Crimson Tide. Bo Jackson's 1-yard leap over the Alabama goal line capped a 66-yard drive and set the stage for what Auburn people consider the Tigers' "coming out" party in the 1980s.

December 2, 1989

Alabama came to Auburn's Jordan-Hare Stadium for the first time in the history of the rivalry. Prior to that, all games in the series had been played at Birmingham's Legion Field since the series was resumed in 1948. A 30-20 Auburn victory settled the score of the game, but the cross-state journey for the Tide settled a score which had brewed for nearly a century in the hearts of Auburn people. Alabama coach Ray Perkins once said "it won't happen". On Dec. 2, 1989, it did.

The Deep South's Oldest Rivalry

Auburn and Georgia. It began on Feb. 20, 1892 at Piedmont Park in Atlanta. Since 1898 the Tigers and the Bulldogs have played every year, 111 meetings total, with the exception of 1943, when Auburn didn't field a team due to World War II. To date, Auburn leads the series 53-50-8.

Hare, Cliff

Cliff Hare was a member of Auburn's first football team who went on to serve as chair of the Auburn Faculty Athletic Committee. Auburn's football stadium is named for the longtime professor and dean of the School of Chemistry. He served as president of the Southern Conference before the formation of the Southeastern Conference.

Heisman, John

The legendary coach for which college football's top honor is named coached at Auburn from 1895-99, posting a 12-4-2 record. Auburn is the only school where John Heisman coached to have a Heisman Trophy winner. Heisman left Auburn for Clemson and then Georgia Tech, where he lost 10 of 15 meetings with Auburn.

Heisman Trophy

Auburn has two. Pat Sullivan won the coveted award in 1971. Bo Jackson did the same in 1985.

Jordan, Ralph

Over the years no name has been more synonymous with Auburn football than Ralph "Shug" Jordan. The all-time winningest football coach at Auburn, Jordan won 176 games over a 25-year career on The Plains. A four-time Southeastern Conference coach of the Year, he was also named national coach of the year in 1957 after leading Auburn to its only football out-right national championship.

Jordan-Hare Stadium

Auburn's showcase football stadium which seats 87,451 with 70 luxury suites located between the lower level and upper deck on the East side of the stadium. The stadium was dedicated Nov. 30, 1939, with 7,500 seats that are now incorporated into the West stands. Ten years later 14,000 more seats were added and the stadium was named Cliff Hare Stadium, although only 12 home games were played there over that 10-year span. Additional seats were added in 1955, 1960 and 1970. The West upper deck was completed in 1980 and the East upper deck and suites were finished for the 1987 season. The facility was renamed Jordan-Hare Stadium in 1973.

Kick it Again

In September 2004, on its way to a perfect 13-0 season, Auburn played host to LSU just days after Hurricane Ivan swept through Alabama. Trailing 9-3, the game came to a climax when Jason Campbell connected with Courtney Taylor with 1:14 to play, tying the score 9-9. The ensuing extra point was missed, but an LSU penalty allowed for another attempt. John Vaughn promptly nailed the second chance, giving the Tigers the 10-9 advantage and ensuring Auburn's place in the record books.

Lovelace Museum

Opened in April 1996, the John B. Lovelace Museum and Hall of Honor features displays and interactive exhibits which take visitors from the training table to the Olympic games with Auburn athletes past and present. Auburn's showcase of a rich athletic history is temporarily closed during construction in the Athletics Complex. It will be located in the new basketball arena and re-opened once construction on that building is completed.

Lupton, Frank

Frank Lupton, a halfback and captain of the 1892 football squad, scored the first touchdown and kicked the first conversion in Auburn football history in a 10-0 Auburn victory over Georgia on Feb. 20, 1892.

Nicknames

There is only one ... Tigers. There is no such thing as an Auburn War Eagle, an Auburn Plainsman or Plainsmen or an Auburn Lady Tiger. It is simply Tigers. "War Eagle" is a battle cry and The Plainsman is the name of Auburn's student newspaper.

Nix-to-Sanders

With starting quarterback Stan White lying in pain on the turf of Jordan-Hare Stadium and Auburn's undefeated season hanging in the balance against Alabama in 1993, sophomore quarterback Patrick Nix was summoned to the huddle to face a 4th-and-15 at the Alabama 35-yard line with Auburn trailing 14-5 and 6:09 left in the third quarter. Offensive coordinator Tommy Bowden relayed the call to the sidelines and "278Z Takeoff" would become a part of Auburn football lore. Nix, without a chance to loosen up, hung the ball up and receiver Frank Sanders pulled it down for a touchdown. Auburn went on to win 22-14.

Nova

The name of Auburn's golden eagle mascot. Nova is War Eagle VII and was introduced during halftime of Auburn's game against Georgia in 2006. Nova replaced Tiger, which served as War Eagle VI for 20 years, from 1986-2006.

Outland Trophy

Auburn players have won two. Zeke Smith won the first in 1958, Tracy Rucker the second in 1988. Rucker made it a clean sweep in 1988 by also winning the Lombardi Award.

Pat Dye Field

The turf at Jordan-Hare Stadium was officially named after Pat Dye, Auburn's Hall of Fame coach and athletics director, prior to the 2005 Iron Bowl. The Tigers posted a 99-39-4 record in 12 seasons under Dye from 1981-92, and won four SEC championships. Auburn's home games are now played at Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Perfect in 2004

It began with a 31-0 win over Louisiana-Monroe and culminated with a 16-13 victory over Virginia Tech in the NOKIA Sugar Bowl. The 2004 season will be forever known as Auburn's Perfect Season, a year in which the Tigers defeated four top 10 teams en route to a No. 2 national finish, their highest since ending the season No. 1 in 1957. Auburn rode a high-powered offense and one of the nation's top defenses to its sixth-ever Southeastern Conference Championship and third straight bowl victory.

"Phantom of Union Springs"

Jimmy Hitchcock, a Union Springs, Ala., native, was Auburn's first football All-American. The "Phantom of Union Springs" was also a baseball All-American who later returned to coach and hold a position on the Auburn University Board of Trustees. He earned his nickname, The Phantom, from his speed and ability to elude defenders on the football field. Auburn's baseball facility, Hitchcock Field at Plainsman Park, is named in honor of Jimmy and Billy Hitchcock, brothers who made a lasting impact on Auburn.

Uniquely Auburn

Picked off

Those who witnessed Auburn's 30-26 victory over LSU in 1994 saw one of the most bizarre finishes ever to a college football game. With LSU leading 23-9 going into the fourth quarter, Auburn safety Ken Alvis picked off an LSU pass and rambled 42 yards for a touchdown. Before the final horn sounded Fred Smith followed suit for 32 yards and a score, then Brian Robinson returned yet another pickoff for a 41-yard TD. In all, the Tigers intercepted five LSU passes in the fourth quarter to keep a 14-game winning streak alive.

Piedmont Park

The site of the first Auburn football game on Feb. 20, 1892, in Atlanta. Auburn defeated Georgia, 10-0, in that game, kicking off the oldest rivalry in the South. The Auburn and Georgia athletic departments held a joint ceremony at Piedmont Park on February 20, 1992, to commemorate the 100-year anniversary of football at both universities.

Petrie, Dr. George

Dr. George Petrie, a faculty member in the Agricultural and Mechanical College in 1892, organized and was the coach of Auburn's first football team. One of Auburn's academic buildings, Petrie Hall, was named in his honor.

"Punt Bama Punt"

"Punt Bama Punt"

Maybe the most famous and easily the most talked about Auburn-Alabama football game. Trailing 16-0 heading into the fourth quarter in the 1972 contest, Auburn's Gardner Jett made a field goal. Then lightning struck - twice.

Bill Newton blocked an Alabama punt and David Langner returned it 25 yards for an Auburn touchdown. Three minutes later Newton blocked another punt and Langner ran 20 yards for the score. The Tigers defeated the Tide 17-16.

Retired Jerseys

There are only three at Auburn; Pat Sullivan's 7, Terry Beasley's 88 and Bo Jackson's 34. Sullivan and Beasley's jerseys were retired following Sullivan's 1971 Heisman Trophy season and Jackson's jersey was retired as part of Auburn's football centennial celebration in 1992.

Sullivan-to-Beasley

Auburn's most prolific passing combination. From 1969 to 1971 Pat Sullivan and Terry Beasley connected for more than 2,500 passing yards and nearly 30 touchdowns. Thirty-seven years after the end of their careers, both Sullivan and Beasley still hold Auburn's career passing and receiving touchdown records, respectively.

Terry Beasley and Pat Sullivan

Thorpe Award

Carlos Rogers won the award in 2004 after finishing with two interceptions, 10 pass breakups and 47 tackles. The award is given annually to the nation's top collegiate defensive back.

Tiger Walk

An Auburn tradition which began in the early 1960s when Auburn players would walk from Sewell Hall to the football stadium and fans would line Donahue Drive to wish them well. Over the years Tiger Walk has grown into a major part of game day at Auburn, so much so that it is listed on the players' game weekend itinerary. The largest Tiger Walk is believed to have taken place prior to the 1989 Alabama game when more than 20,000 well wishers lined the street. Every Tiger Walk prior to home games draws thousands, and, over the last couple of years the Tiger Walk has become a standard as Auburn football players enter stadiums on the road. Tiger Walk is two hours before kickoff for every game.

Rolling Toomer's Corner

Toomer's Corner

The center of town where the Auburn University campus meets the City of Auburn. Toomer's Corner, where College Street intersects Magnolia Avenue, has long been the gathering place for Auburn athletic celebrations. After any football win, and significant victories in other sports, Auburn students and citizens alike join forces to "roll" the trees (and anything else that doesn't move) at Toomer's Corner with toilet tissue. Celebrations after significant football victories can go on for hours and leave the heart of town looking like a blizzard passed through.

Toomer's Drug Store

An Auburn landmark at the corner of College and Magnolia reputed to serve the best lemonade in the country. It is Auburn legend that John Heisman used to frequent Toomer's Drugs for a taste of the now-famous lemonade.

Walk-ons

Auburn has a long and storied past of football walk-ons who have gone on to very successful football careers. One success story belongs to former three-time All-Pro and Defensive MVP (1995) defensive end Kevin Greene. After being cut once, Greene walked on at Auburn a second time and made the team. He went on to play 15 seasons in the NFL.

"War Eagle"

Auburn's battle cry, not Auburn's nickname. There are several legends concerning the origin of the War Eagle battle cry, dating back to 1864 and the Civil War at the Battle of the Wilderness in Virginia.

The Fable of War Eagle

According to legend, football and the cry of “War Eagle” came to Auburn the same day.

It was Feb. 20, 1892, the day Auburn and Georgia met in the first game of the longest continuous football rivalry in the Deep South.

The story actually began before that. That first Auburn-Georgia game was only the culmination. It began in 1864 at the Battle of the Wilderness in Virginia.

An Auburn student had gone off to fight with Robert E. Lee and the Confederate troops. He was with them on the worst day of the long and fierce battle.

He was wounded, and when the armies retreated to their respective lines, he was left on the battlefield for dead. When he regained consciousness, there were only two living things as far as he could see, himself and a baby eagle.

Brought together by their common bond of misery, the soldier took the wounded bird with him and nursed him back to health. When he returned to Auburn after the war, the eagle came with him.

The student-turned-soldier came back to Auburn and ultimately became a member of the faculty. He was there that day in Atlanta’s Piedmont Park when Auburn and Georgia met in what would now be called “The Game of the Century.” As usual, the eagle—called War Eagle because of the circumstances under which he was found—was there with him.

When Auburn scored the first touchdown the old eagle broke free from its master and began to soar above the field. Auburn people looked skyward, saw the familiar figure, and shouted “War Eagle.”

At the end of the game which Auburn won 10-0, the old eagle collapsed and died, presumably having given his all in pursuit of victory for Auburn. War Eagle’s body may have died that day, but his spirit lives forever in the hearts of Auburn people who love to stand and shout “War-r-r-r-r Eagle” long into the night following an Auburn victory.

The facts of this legend cannot be authenticated, but it makes a good story and is the one most used to describe how the “War Eagle” battle cry became associated with Auburn teams.

Auburn teams are known as “The Auburn Tigers,” but the cry of Auburn faithful is ever the same: “War-r-r-r-r Eagle!”

Nova, War Eagle VII, was formally introduced as Auburn’s newest symbol in November 2006. Hatched at the Montgomery Zoo in 1999, Nova, a male Golden Eagle, came to Auburn in 2000 and flew for the first time as Auburn took on Kentucky in 2004.

War Eagle V, which had represented Auburn for five seasons, died just days prior to the 1986 season-opener. Following a nationwide search for the perfect eagle, War Eagle VI was located at Land Between the Lakes, Ky. The female golden eagle, Tiger, underwent numerous tests and conditioning programs at the Auburn Vet School before making its debut at the Georgia game on Nov. 15, 1986 in Auburn.

Editor’s Note: Jim Phillips, former Plainsman editor, wrote this version of the fable of War Eagle in the late 1950s.

Auburn Nickname Explanation

Auburn’s nickname is the TIGERS.

Auburn’s battle cry is “WAR EAGLE!”

Through the years, these two Auburn terms have often been used interchangeably and incorrectly. There are hats and T-shirts with Auburn War Eagles on them. Even the news media has been known to refer to an Auburn team as the War Eagles or to an Auburn player as a War Eagle.

In fact, when the Tigers play a game on the road, there is often an article written in the local paper wondering why Auburn has three nicknames – the Auburn Tigers, the Auburn War Eagles and the Auburn Plainsmen.

To set the record straight, Auburn has only one nickname – the Auburn Tigers.

“War Eagle” is a battle cry, used by Auburn fans in the same manner Alabama fans yell “Roll Tide!” and Arkansas fans yell “Sooie Pig!” You never hear Alabama referred to as the Alabama Roll Tides or Arkansas as the Arkansas Sooie Pigs, and to call Auburn teams the Auburn War Eagles would be just as incorrect. The battle cry “War Eagle” should never have an “s” on the end of it.

The nickname “Tigers” comes from a line in Oliver Goldsmith’s poem, “The Deserted Village,” published in May 1770, “where crouching tigers wait their hapless prey...”

The term “Plainsmen” comes from a line in that same Goldsmith poem, “Sweet Auburn, loveliest (sic) village of the plain...” Since Auburn athletes were, in the early days, men from the Plains, it was only natural for newspaper headline writers to shorten that to “Plainsmen.”

It may be confusing to an outsider, but to Auburn people, it is very simple. That’s why War Eagle VII, Auburn’s golden eagle symbol, is named Nova!

War Eagle (Fight Song)

War ... Eagle, fly down the field, Ever to conquer, never to yield War ... Eagle fearless and true. Fight on, you orange and blue.
Go! Go! Go!
On to vic'try, strike up the band,
Give 'em hell, give 'em hell.
Stand up and yell, Hey! War ... Eagle, win for Auburn, Power of Dixie Land!

Auburn's Mascot, "Aubie"

Aubie

Aubie, Auburn's costumed Tiger mascot, is in his 30th year as a spirit leader and goodwill ambassador for Auburn University.

A popular character among Auburn fans and one of the more animated mascots in the country, Aubie has been on the job since 1979.

Aubie's existence began as a cartoon character that first appeared on the Auburn/Hardin-Simmons football program cover on Oct. 3, 1959. Birmingham Post-Herald artist Phil Neel created the cartoon Tiger who continued to adorn Auburn program covers for 18 years.

Aubie's look changed through the years. In 1962, he began to stand upright and the next year, 1963, wore clothes for the first time—a blue tie and straw hat.

Aubie's appearances on game programs proved to be somewhat of a good luck charm for Coach Ralph "Shug" Jordan's teams. The Tigers were victorious in the first nine games he graced the cover and, in his first six years, Auburn posted a 23-2-1 home record. Auburn's home record during the 18 years Aubie served as cover tiger was 63-16-2.

Aubie's last appearance on the game program cover was Oct. 23, 1976, when Auburn downed Florida State, 31-19, but Aubie returned to Auburn's cover against Alabama on Nov. 30, 1991, Auburn's last home game at Legion Field.

In 1979, Aubie came to life at the Southeastern Conference basketball tournament. James Lloyd, Auburn spirit director for the Student Government Association, with help from the Alumni Association, contacted Brooks-Van Horn Costumes in New York, N.Y. The company was provided with copies of the 1961 Auburn-Alabama and 1962 Auburn-Georgia Tech game programs to use for reference in creating a costume of the cartoon character. The firm, which also provided costumes for Walt Disney, designed and produced a Tiger costume for $1,350. Individual contributions from various Auburn clubs, alumni and friends helped pay for the first costume.

Aubie proudly marched into the Birmingham-Jefferson Civic Center on Feb. 28, 1979, and helped lead first-year Auburn coach Sonny Smith's team to an upset of Vanderbilt. The following day, Aubie returned to the arena and the Tigers surprised Georgia in the longest game in SEC tournament history, four overtimes. Before the weekend was complete, Aubie helped lead the ninth-place team in the regular season to the semifinals of the tournament.

Aubie was selected as the nation's No. 1 college mascot in 1990-91 by the Universal Cheerleader Association as Chris Wood, Mike Jernigan and Rob Thomson represented Aubie in the suit. And the 1994-95 Aubies, Trey Humphreys, Mike Murphy, and Billy Stephens, received No. 1 college mascot again. In 1995-96, the three Aubies, Billy Stephens (head Aubie) of Metairie, La., along with Mike Griffin and Josh Agerton, both of Auburn, claimed the title again. In 1998-99, the Aubie's, J.G. Carver (head Aubie) of Huntsville, Eric Krausse of Chesterfield, Va., and Brannon McKim of Montgomery captured Auburn's fourth national championship. Aubie's fifth national championship was awarded in 2002-03, with the following students representing Aubie in the suit: Taylor Griswold (head Aubie) from Montgomery, Jeremy Legg from Franklin, Tenn., and Trey Mock from Marietta, Ga. The most recent championship was brought home in 2005-06 by Evan Thomas, (head Aubie) from Dothan, David Smith from Ozark and Chris Delvzizis from Brentwood, Tenn.

Along with Aubie's six national championships he was the first collegiate mascot inducted into the Mascot Hall of Fame. Aubie received this honor at an

The Alma Mater

On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath its sun-kissed sky,
Proudly stands, our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise,
From hearts that love so true,
And pledge to thee our Loyalty and ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

Hear thy student voices swelling,
Echoes strong and clear,
Adding laurels to thy fame
Enshrined so dear.

From thy hallowed halls we'll part,
And bid thee sad adieu;
Thy sacred trust we'll bear with us
The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow

The Auburn Creed

I believe that this is a practical world and that I can count only on what I earn.
Therefore, I believe in work, hard work.
I believe in education, which gives me the knowledge to work wisely and trains my mind and my hands to work skillfully.
I believe in honesty and truthfulness, without which I cannot win the respect and confidence of my fellowmen.
I believe in a sound mind, in a sound body and a spirit that is not afraid, and in clean sports that develop these qualities.
I believe in obedience to law because it protects the rights of all.
I believe in the human touch, which cultivates sympathy with my fellowmen and mutual helpfulness and brings happiness for all.
I believe in my Country, because it is a land of freedom and because it is my own home, and that I can best serve that country by "doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with my God."
And because Auburn men and women believe in these things, I believe in Auburn and love it.

Nova/Tiger/Spirit

For over 100 years, eagles have been associated with Auburn University's football program. From a static presence on the sidelines to rousing flights over the field, WAR EAGLE has become an Auburn icon.

The role of Auburn University's eagles is to promote wildlife conservation as a part of the education initiatives of the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and the College of Veterinary Medicine's Southeastern Raptor Center. The USF&WS permits the Raptor Center to house eagles and use them on hundreds of educational presentations each year – including Auburn's home football games. Currently, three flighted eagles and numerous other non-releasable raptors are used for these educational programs. Eagles stir emotions in many people as they have come to symbolize strength, power and courage as well as other important values such as freedom, American heritage and the preservation of our environment. Golden Eagles Tiger (War Eagle VI), Nova (War Eagle VII) and Spirit (a Bald Eagle) are the eagles who have inspired football fans with their graceful flights over Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Tiger was hatched in captivity in 1980 and came to live at Auburn University in 1986. A frequent sideline fixture, she made her first free flight at the Wyoming game on Aug. 31, 2000. Since then, she has flown prior to many games as well as at educational programs and the 2002 Winter Olympics. At the Georgia game in November 2006, Tiger made her last stadium flight and is now "retired." A halftime ceremony at that game recognized her contributions to the Auburn community and to the USF&WS conservation mission. Golden Eagle Nova was then inaugurated as War Eagle VII. Tiger will continue to appear at some educational presentations and is doing well despite a diagnosis of skin cancer in 2006. Tiger has already outlived the average lifespan for a Golden Eagle.

Although not titled War Eagle VII until November 2006, Nova's first pre-game flight was at the Kentucky game in 2004. Nova was hatched in 1999 at the Montgomery Zoo and came to Auburn in 2000. Nova looks similar to Tiger but has a smaller stature because he is a male. In many raptors, the females are noticeably larger. Like Tiger, Nova appears in scores of educational programs every year.

Spirit is the only Bald Eagle that has ever flown in Jordan-Hare Stadium. His first game flight was in 2001. You can recognize Spirit soaring before kickoff because unlike the Golden Eagles, Spirit has bright white head and tail feathers. In 1995, Spirit was discovered as an injured fledgling in Florida. He came to Auburn in 1998 and joined the educational collection at the Raptor Center. Due to a damaged beak, he is not releasable. Bald Eagles are found throughout Alabama and wild ones can sometimes be seen soaring in Auburn skies.

In the 1970's, a group from Auburn's College of Veterinary Medicine began an intensive effort to treat and rehabilitate injured raptors. This initiative led to the creation of what is now known as the Southeastern Raptor Center. The SRC is the oldest and only full-service medical and surgical wildlife rehabilitation facility in the Southeast dedicated solely to birds of prey. SRC is supported by the College of Veterinary Medicine and is a non-profit organization that depends upon public and private contributions to accomplish its mission. Hundreds of educational programs per year for schools and other groups help to generate these funds.

The Southeastern Raptor Center's mission is to rehabilitate and release injured and orphaned birds of prey, educate the public about the role and importance of raptors, and to research raptor-related issues. At SRC, birds of prey (such as hawks, owls, eagles and falcons) are admitted with a variety of injuries and ailments. Many birds are rehabilitated and released. When release is not an option, the bird may become a permanent resident of the center or transfer to another licensed educational facility.

If you locate an injured raptor, call your local conservation officer or the College of Veterinary Medicine at 844-4690. Raptors should be handled with caution and brought to the emergency door of the Small Animal Clinic. To inquire about scheduling an educational program for your group, call 844-6943 or visit www.auburn.edu/raptor.

Quoting Head Coach Tommy Tuberville

OFFENSE

"The offense is going to have a new look this year after changing coordinators. We are excited about the diversity, which I think is going to help our offense be able to move the ball. It's going to give different players more opportunities to be a part of the offense. Plus, we are going to have an opportunity to play a lot more players. That puts a premium on wide receivers. We had to go out and recruit a few more guys that we felt would fit this offense."

QUARTERBACKS

"The offense is built around your quarterback, as almost every offense is. The difference with this offense is you need a more versatile quarterback. You need a guy that can make decisions and throw the ball. But, he must also be able to carry the ball and be tough enough to take hits and be able to keep his senses and keep on going.

"That's the reason it's going to be a premium on having more than one. We'll have a true starting quarterback. We won't have rotation quarterbacks, but we will have other quarterbacks that will play during the game in certain situations.

"Kodi Burns had a great spring. He improved his technique and fundamentals and he got more comfortable with the scheme. I thought he learned a lot, not only from (Offensive Coordinator) Tony Franklin, but also Chris Todd who is battling him for the number one spot.

"Chris was kind of like a coach on the field to all the quarterbacks. He has run this offense most of his football life. Chris has a lot of savvy. Both Chris and Kodi are good leaders and that's what it's going take. Neil Caudle is more of a drop-back quarterback, but he'll see some playing time. I'm excited about the future for that position.

"Barrett Trotter is coming in as a freshman.

Brad Lester

He ran this offense in high school. I think he has a very good arm. He is quick and he's tough. I think he's going to fit into the offense."

OFFENSIVE LINE

"The offensive line is probably one of the stronger groups we've had. It's led by two seniors, Tyronne Green and Jason Bosley. Both of these guys are very smart and versatile. Jason has been the leader of our offensive line. Tyronne is starting to become more of a leader. He will have a chance to play on the next level, as will Jason.

"Bosley is the starter at center, but we have Ryan Pugh and Mike Berry behind him. Ryan will also play at right tackle. Ryan played most of the games last year. He is what you are looking for in an offensive lineman.

"Mike moved over in the spring and really played well as a sophomore. I think Mike was really one of the more improved players on the team in that area.

"At left tackle, Lee Ziemba is probably one of the more athletic big players that we've had. I'd compare him a lot to Marcus McNeill. He had a good spring. We moved him to left tackle from right tackle. I think that set him back a little bit. Lee is going to be a big-time football player for us. Jared Cooper redshirted last year and is behind Lee. He has all kinds of talent. He'll play several positions on the offensive line.

"Andrew McCain came out of spring moving around different positions. He played right tackle and left tackle. He'll be a swingman. I think he's improved quite a bit.

"Tyronne Green at left guard has a lot of chances to be a heck of a player. Redshirt freshman Kyle Coulahan is behind him. The most improved player on the offensive line is probably Byron Isom, who is starting at right guard. He is very athletic and he runs well. Bart Eddins, a former defensive player, also made a lot of improvement since last year and will back-up Isom.

"Chaz Ramsey had an injury during the spring and had offseason surgery. He is working his way back. He has a lot of athletic ability and just needs to work through the injury."

TIGHT ENDS

"A guy who really stood out in the new offense this spring was Tommy Trott. He caught the ball well and ran with it after the catch. He is very knowledgeable about running routes. Gabe McKenzie is a little bit different in terms of physical ability. He is a very good blocker. He has improved catching the ball. He will be a big part of what we are doing. Brent Slusher is a sophomore. We have moved him from defense to offense. He is playing behind two good guys that he can learn a lot from. He'll be the tight end of the future. Bailey Woods got better in the spring, and just needs to continue to improve."

WIDE RECEIVERS

"We will play a slew of guys because we are going to be in a four and five receiver set a lot of the time. We play an X, a Z, and an H, and we'll move those guys back and forth. The good thing about this offense is that most of these receivers can play every position.

"Robert Dunn is a returning senior. This offense was built for him. Terrell Zachery, who did not play most of last year except for the bowl game, is going to benefit from this offense. He is a possession type of receiver. MARIO FANNIN QUOTE MARIO FANNIN QUOTE MARIO FANNIN QUOTE.

"We are looking for leadership and consistency from Rodgeriquis Smith. That is what we worked on with him in the spring. Montez Billings, a junior, had probably one of the better springs he has had. We are going to need him to step up and start making plays along with Quindarius Carr, who redshirted last year. We probably should have played him because he is a guy who is active with the ball.

"The most improved guy that this offense brought out is James Swinton. He has come out of his shell a little bit. He has tremendous speed. Chris Slaughter played last year as a true freshman. He has ability galore, he just needs to be more consistent and bring himself to another level. Charles Olatunji, a senior walk-on, had a very good spring. He is a big receiver who can help us at that position because of his size."

RUNNING BACKS

"Brad Lester is a senior and he has done a lot of great things. He had a very good spring and had to carry the load because, really, he was the only healthy running back. We are excited about his senior leadership and his ability to score from anywhere on the field.

"Ben Tate got hurt during the spring but with his work ethic he will bounce back. He is a little bit different from Brad. He can run inside and outside. We expect big things out of him.

"Tristan Davis just had some bad luck his junior year (2007) with a broken toe, broken foot

Previewing the 2008 Season

Sen'Derrick Marks

and then he ended up spraining his toe in spring practice. But the experience is there. He is one of the fastest players on the team.”

DEFENSE

“I think (Defensive Coordinator) Paul Rhoads is a very good fit for what we are doing here. He understands techniques and fundamentals. The players really accepted him in spring practice. He has a tough act to follow from the defense last year. The problem we had was giving up a lot of big plays, which was because of technique and fundamentals. That was a point of emphasis in the spring.”

DEFENSIVE LINE

“The defense is led by a couple of juniors, Antonio Coleman and Sen'Derrick Marks. They should have been All-SEC last year, but were overlooked by a lot of people. They play hard and they make big plays. Even as sophomores they were leaders.

“Antonio had a good spring at defensive end, but had an injury about halfway through. We are excited about his speed on the outside. His back-up, Antoine Carter, was a true freshman and he played quite a bit last year. He is the perfect size defensive end.

“At the other defensive end position is Michael Goggans, the most improved player on the defense. Really, as we say, he learned what it was all about during spring. Goggans, along with redshirt freshman A.J. Greene and Raven Gray, a true junior college player, will rotate in and out and will all help each other each week.

“Defensive tackle is headed by Sen'Derrick Marks. He has been picked to several All-America teams already and will be a big time player for us the next two years. Mike Blanc is behind Marks. He is a 6-4, 290-pound sophomore. Mike was on the verge of going to the offensive line, but proved he can be an effective defensive lineman.

“Darrell Roseman has fought through injuries. He has had hairline fractures in his shins the last couple of years and they finally operated on him. He was like a new person this past year.

“At the other tackle position is Jake Ricks. Again, another guy that we thought could possibly move to offensive line but he wasn't going to have much to do with that. He is physical, he is maturing and he has a lot of ability. Zach Clayton is behind Ricks and he is a physical young man who has a lot of ability. I think he will make strides towards possibly becoming a starter as the year goes on.”

LINEBACKERS

“We have some guys who have a lot of experience. Craig Stevens will be on the strong side. He has the height and speed to play on that side. Courtney Harden is a senior that has been behind him and played all positions.

“Inside is Tray Blackmon who has been up and down. I think in the spring he saw the light and is now more physical and disciplined. Josh Bynes is behind him. Josh is a prototype middle linebacker. Adam Herring redshirted last year. He comes from a football family and will also get some playing time.

“The unsung hero of the team last year was Chris Evans. He and Merrill Johnson came out of spring at the other outside spot. Merrill may be the best athlete that we have at linebacker.”

SECONDARY

“We lost some corners and that was one of our concerns going into the spring. The player of the year for us was Jerraud Powers. He is one of the most intense football-minded players that I have ever coached.

“Aairon Savage moved from safety to corner. There is a battle there with Walter McFadden who played corner last year. We are going to need both of them. One of them will play quite a bit as a nickel back and one will play corner full-time. They will work both sides.

“With Aairon, Walter and Jerraud, that will really be our three corners going into the year. With the safeties, Mike McNeil is back after starting and playing most of the season. Zac Etheridge also played last year. He has a lot of things going for him in terms of football anticipation. Mike Slade, also a redshirt freshman, is a physical guy.”

SPECIAL TEAMS

“They are the same as they were last year except for our holder. Wes Byrum is coming back after a very good true freshman year. We expect some bigger things out of him. I think Morgan Hull could possibly be the kick-off guy. He is also our backup field goal guy, with Wes being the starter.

“There is a lot of competition at punter. Ryan Shoemaker had a good year last year, but not a great year. Ryan has a chance to be a really good player, but he has guys behind him. Clinton Durst had a good spring, and also Patrick Tatum. I think there is going to be a lot of competition there.

“Robert Shiver is back as our deep snapper. We did bring in Dax Dellenbach to be his back-up. Clayton Crowfoot and John Cubelic will work at holder this summer to see who is more consistent and who the placekickers like.

“At returner, Robert Dunn along with Tristan Davis and Brad Lester will be the guys we look at. We will also look at Philip Pierre-Louis, a true freshman with lot of ability and speed.”

SCHEDULE

“The schedule will be tough. We pick up Tennessee in conference and then we play Southern Miss and West Virginia non-conference.

“Southern Miss has been a perennial nemesis for SEC teams. It should be interesting, especially since we are playing them early. Mississippi State will be our first conference game and they had a great year last year. We play LSU at home and that game always has ramifications on who wins the SEC West.

“We get Tennessee at home and then have to go to Vanderbilt. It will be tough playing them after facing LSU and Tennessee. Bobby Petrino is the new coach at Arkansas. He is a very good offensive guy and that is a tough SEC stretch.

“Then we have a non-conference game on Thursday night at West Virginia. They are a perennial top 10 team. Houston Nutt is at Ole Miss and they have a lot of talent there. For Homecoming we will host Tennessee-Martin. Then Georgia comes to town. After that is the Iron Bowl and we are looking forward to going to Tuscaloosa and playing Alabama, which should have a good team this year.”

PRIORITIES GOING INTO TWO-A-DAYS

“Going into two-a-days we have to solidify what we are doing on offense and get everyone on the same page. Paul Rhoads will put his stamp on the defense in terms of getting ready for a game plan for the season. I think we have some good senior and junior leadership on that side, we just need some of the younger players to step up.”

Head Coach Tommy Tuberville

Ready to embark on his 10th season at Auburn, head coach Tommy Tuberville has established his program as one of the nation's elite. In the last four seasons, Tuberville has directed the Tigers to 42 wins and an .824 winning percentage (42-9) which is fifth best in the country in both categories. Over the last eight seasons, Auburn has been one of the most successful programs in the Southeastern Conference.

In 2007, Tuberville led Auburn to an 9-4 mark, including a 5-3 record in the Southeastern Conference with wins at No. 4 Florida and a record-setting sixth consecutive win over Alabama in the Iron Bowl. The Tigers concluded the season with an overtime victory over Clemson in the Chick-fil-A Bowl, marking the program's fifth bowl victory in the last six seasons. For the second consecutive year, Tuberville was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award for his efforts on and off the field.

The 2006 season saw Tuberville direct the Tigers to their second season with at least 10 wins in the previous three years with an 11-2 record after a 17-14 victory over Nebraska in the AT&T Cotton Bowl Classic. One of three finalist for the inaugural Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year award, Tuberville's 2006 squad was the only program in the country to defeat two teams ranked in the top five nationally - National Champion Florida and LSU.

Coming off a perfect 13-0 season in 2004, expectations for Tommy Tuberville's 2005 Auburn squad were modest after the Tigers lost four players to the first round of the NFL draft, including their entire starting backfield. But Auburn surprised many of the experts, finishing 9-3 and earning a share of its fifth Southeastern Conference Western Division title in six years.

Auburn ended the regular season with back-to-back victories over Georgia and Alabama - two teams ranked at the time in the top 10 - setting a new school record in the process with 22 victories over a two year period.

In 2004, Tuberville led Auburn to its best season ever as the Tigers won a school-record 13 games and captured the SEC Championship and the NOKIA Sugar Bowl title. Auburn won its first conference title since 1989 including its first outright championship since 1987.

Auburn defeated five top 15 teams, becoming just the 10th NCAA Division I-A team to finish 13-0 or better. The Tigers earned their first ever berth in a Bowl Championship Series game and defeated Virginia Tech, 16-13 in the Sugar Bowl. For his efforts, Tuberville was named the AFCA, Associated Press, Paul "Bear" Bryant, FCA, SEC and Walter Camp Coach of the Year.

The season before Tuberville's arrival, Auburn finished with a dismal 3-8 overall record and a last place finish in the SEC Western Division. Tuberville guided the program back to the top of the league standings, leading Auburn to an SEC Championship, five Western Division titles including outright championships in 2000 and 2004 and co-championships in 2001, 2002 and 2005. Since 2000, the program is tied for the best conference record among SEC teams with a mark of 47-17 (.734). Tuberville has directed Auburn to eight consecutive bowl appearances, including five New Year's Day bowl berths and three consecutive January 1 bowl games from 2005-07.

Tuberville accomplished these feats while playing 24 percent of his games against top 10 opponents and 33 percent against teams ranked in the nation's top 25. His Auburn record stands at 80-33 while his overall record in 12 years as a head coach is 105-53. Remarkably, Tuberville has won nine of his last 12 games against top 10 teams, including 15 of his last 22.

Plainly stated, in nine seasons at Auburn, Tuberville has built a program that excels both on and off the field.

Players have excelled under Tuberville's guidance as Auburn has earned 35 first-team All-Southeastern Conference awards, eight All-America honors, 24 SEC All-Freshmen accolades, 54 SEC Player of the Week honors, two SEC Player of the Year awards, two Jacobs Awards presented annually to the league's top blocker and one Most Valuable Player of the SEC Championship game.

Twenty-nine players have been selected in the NFL Draft including an SEC-record four in the first round of the 2005 Draft. Running backs Ronnie Brown and Carnell Williams were taken second and fifth respectively, while cornerback Carlos Rogers was selected ninth overall and quarterback Jason Campbell was picked 25th in the first round. It also marked the first time in NFL Draft history that an entire backfield from the same team was taken in the first round.

Since 2004, 23 Auburn players have been drafted, including 19 in the last four drafts. Of those 19 selections since 2005, almost half have been selected in the first two rounds--five first-round selections and four second-round picks.

Carnell Williams earned NFL Offensive Rookie of the Year honors in 2005, while in 2006 Marcus McNeill became the first NFL rookie offensive lineman in 16 years to start in the Pro Bowl. McNeill was named to the 2007 Pro Bowl making him just the second NFL lineman ever to be named to the Pro Bowl in their first two years.

The East team head coach at the 2006 Hula Bowl, Tuberville is currently on the Board of Trustees of the American Football Coaches Association and is serving a three-year term on the AFCA rules committee. For his numerous achievements during his career, Tuberville was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in February, 2008.

Off the field, Auburn has earned more than 81 SEC Academic Honor Roll distinctions during Tuberville's tenure and when the NCAA released its Academic Progress Report (APR) in February 2006, Auburn football had a multi-year score of 981, which was the highest score among public BCS conference institutions. The program received public recognition from the NCAA for being in the top 10 percentile nationally and was one of only four BCS institutions to earn such distinctions.

Entering the 2007 season, 10 players had graduated before the start of the season. Coupled with four December graduates, Auburn played in the Chick-fil-A Bowl with 14 graduates on its roster.

In 2006, 11 players had graduated before the start of the season, and Auburn had 16 graduates on its 2007 AT&T Cotton Bowl roster. In 2005, 12 players graduated prior to the Capital One Bowl, while in 2004, nine players who had already earned their degrees played in the Nokia Sugar Bowl. In 2003, linebacker Dontarrious Thomas, a three-time SEC Honor Roll selection, was one of eight Division I players named a National College Scholar-Athlete which awarded him a $18,000 post-graduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame.

Tuberville also believes in giving back to the community. Among other activities, he hosts charity golf tournaments for Camp ASCAA, the Girls and Boys Club of Montgomery, the Auburn University Marching Band and the Alabama Sheriff's Youth Ranch.

Tuberville's community service reached well beyond the local, state and national level in May 2008, when he participated in the inaugural Armed Forces Entertainment Coaches Tour in the Middle East with fellow college coaches Mark Richt of Georgia, Randy Shannon of Miami (Fla.), Jack Siedlecki of Yale and Charlie Weis of Notre Dame. With a mission to help boost troop morale, the six-day tour made stops at military bases in Germany, Qatar, Bahrain, United Arab Emirates and a visit to the USS Nassau in the Persian Gulf.

In addition, Tuberville continually stresses the importance of participating in community service projects to Auburn's football team. Auburn football players regularly read at local schools, serve as mentors and visit with the elderly. The last two summers, the football team spent a day working at Story Book Farm which is a non-profit organization that provides therapeutic horseback riding for children suffering from disabilities, chronic illnesses or those who have suffered a loss.

It's evident that Tuberville has built a strong program both on and off the field. He has also spearheaded efforts to upgrade and improve Auburn's football facilities. Since Tuberville took over the program in November 1998, the Tigers have seen their stadium locker room rebuilt, making it one of the finest game-day facilities in the country. An assembly center and the Tiger Walk Plaza were completed in time for the 2001 season. In 2001, a 14,000-square foot weight room and a state-of-the-art training rehabilitation facility were built adjacent to the Athletic Complex. Prior to the 2003 season, Auburn added a Sprinturf field to its practice fields. Due for completion in the Summer of 2008 will be the complete renovation of the Tigers' practice locker room and athletic training facilities at the Athletic Complex.

Tuberville understands the process and commitment it takes to build a successful program. Coaching stops at perennial college football powers University of Miami and Texas A&M and a four-year head coaching stint at the University of Mississippi gave him the background in building and maintaining a successful program.

While at Ole Miss from 1995-98, Tuberville posted a 25-20 record. Inheriting a Rebel program plagued by NCAA sanctions and probation, he guided Ole Miss to a winning record in his first season in 1995, despite having just 61 players on scholarship. He did not have a full complement of scholarship players to work with in any of his four years at Ole Miss.

By the time he had three recruiting classes under his belt, Tuberville led Ole Miss to an 8-4 mark and a victory in the inaugural Motor City Bowl in 1997. His efforts earned him Associated Press SEC Coach of the Year Honors and American Football Quarterly magazine selected him as runner-up for its Schutt Sports Coach of the Year honor.

Prior to becoming head coach at Ole Miss, Tuberville served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Texas A&M for one season. In 1994, he helped lead the Aggies to a 10-0-1 record and No. 8 final ranking by the Associated Press. Under his direction, the Aggie defense finished fourth nationally in scoring defense (13.1 ppg), fifth in total defense (265.5 ypg) and sixth in rushing defense (92.4 ypg).

Tuberville served as a member of the University of Miami staff for eight seasons from 1986-93, taking over as defensive coordinator in 1993.

While serving on the staffs of Jimmy Johnson and Dennis Erickson at Miami, Tuberville was a defensive coach on teams which won three national championships, posted an 87-9 record and played in nine consecutive New Year's Day bowls.

As defensive coordinator for the Hurricanes in 1993, Tuberville directed a Miami defense which was ranked No. 3 nationally in scoring defense (12.6 ppg) and No. 5 nationally in pass defense (91.15 ypg).

Tuberville began his collegiate coaching career at Arkansas State in 1980, coaching various segments of the Indians' defense over the next five seasons. During a five-year stay at Arkansas State, Tuberville coached defensive backs, nose guards and linebackers. During his final year at ASU, the Indians advanced to the second round of the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs.

He began his coaching career at Hermitage (Ark.) High School where he spent two years as an assistant and two as a head coach. After three straight four-win seasons, Tuberville guided HHS to a 7-3 mark in 1979 before moving to Arkansas State.

A 1976 graduate of Southern Arkansas University, Tuberville was a letterman at free safety and a two-year member of the golf team at SAU. He is a 1972 graduate of Harmony Grove High School in Camden, Ark.

Tuberville is married to the former Suzanne Fette of Guilford, Ind. They are the parents of two sons, Thomas Tucker (14) and Troy Allen (12).

#18 AUBURN 23
 Sept. 1, 2007 • ESPN
 Jordan-Hare Stadium (86,439) • Auburn, Ala.

No. 18 Auburn scored two touchdowns a mere 50 seconds apart in the final 2:01 to come back for a thrilling 23-13 season-opening victory over Kansas State at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Trailing 13-9 with 2:01 remaining, Brandon Cox connected on the Tigers' first touchdown of the game, a 3-yard pass to tight end Gabe McKenzie, to give Auburn a 16-13 lead. Fifty seconds later, defensive end Quentin Groves sacked K-State quarterback Josh Freeman, forcing a fumble that was scooped up by end Antonio Coleman and returned 34 yards to seal the victory.

The Wildcats took the opening kickoff and drove 61 yards to the Auburn 2 before settling for a Brooks Rossman 20-yard field goal to give K-State a 3-0 lead.

A 55-yard Cox-to-Rodgericus Smith pass to the Wildcat 18 set up the first of freshman Wes Byrum's three field goals, a 20-yarder with 14:07 to go in the half, to tie the game at 3. Byrum closed out the first half scoring with a 39-yard field goal with 6:22 to give Auburn its first lead at 6-3.

After allowing Kansas State 91 yards offense in its first two drives, the Tigers defense allowed the Wildcats just 34 yards over their final five drives of the first half.

On its first possession of the second half, Kansas State had a 6-play, 69-yard drive that was capped by a trick play in which wide receiver Jordy Nelson threw a 21-touchdown pass to tailback Leon Patton for a 10-6 lead less than two minutes into the third quarter.

K-State lengthened its lead to 13-6 on a Rossman 40-yard field goal with 7:31 left in the third. Byrum brought Auburn to within 13-9 with a 31-yard field goal with 1:46 left in the third.

Cox finished 17-of-30 for 229 yards and a touchdown while Ben Tate gained 82 yards on 23 carries. Prechae Rodriguez caught six passes for 73 yards while McKenzie had four receptions for 42 yards.

Auburn improved to 88-25-2 all-time in season opening games and ended K-State's string of 17-straight season-opening wins.

#17 AUBURN 23 <sup>OT</sup>
 Sept. 8, 2007 • ESPN2
 Jordan-Hare Stadium (82,617) • Auburn, Ala.

No. 17 Auburn overcame five turnovers to take South Florida into overtime, but the Bulls prevailed 26-23 on a game-winning 14-yard touchdown pass from Matt Grothe to Jessie Hester.

Auburn had taken a 23-20 advantage off a Wes Byrum 39-yard field goal to start overtime, but South Florida responded with the winning score moments later.

Auburn committed five turnovers, including three inside its own 25-yard line, in the game, but the Bulls did not turn any of those opportunities into points, thanks in part to four missed field goals.

South Florida jumped on the board early, scoring 14 points in the first quarter off a 1-yard run by Grothe and a 2-yarder by Mike Ford. Byrum put up Auburn's only points in the first quarter, a career-best 49-yard field goal.

Auburn would regroup in the second quarter, pulling within four early in the quarter as Mario Fannin ran four yards for a score.

The Tigers took their first lead of the game with 29 seconds remaining in the half when Gabe McKenzie grabbed a 3-yard pass from Cox.

Missed opportunities were the story of the third quarter for South Florida as kicker Delbert Alvarado missed a 21-yarder and three other field goals, including one that was blocked by Sen'Derrick Marks on the final play of the third quarter.

South Florida evened the ledger at 17 with 7:28 left to play in regulation after a 38-yard field goal by Alvarado.

With 2:54 left in the fourth quarter, Byrum kicked a 46-yarder to give Auburn a 20-17 lead after Cox completed 4-of-5 passes for 50 yards on the drive.

South Florida responded when Jerome Murphy dashed 59 yards down the left sideline on the kick return to the Tigers' 32. After two completions by Grothe, the Bulls stood on the Auburn 2-yardline, but had to settle for an Alvarado 18-yard field goal to tie the game with 55 seconds remaining, sending the game into overtime.

 Sept. 15, 2007 • Lincoln Financial

Christian Ducre scored the go-ahead touchdown with 5:15 remaining in the game and Auburn's final drive came up nine yards short as Mississippi State earned a 19-14 victory at Jordan-Hare Stadium in Auburn's SEC opener.

It was a game of quarterbacks as Auburn and MSU used a combined five different QB's during the game. Tiger fans got a glimpse of true freshman Kodi Burns, who saw action after two quick Brandon Cox interceptions.

Mississippi State got on the board fast even after losing starting quarterback Michael Henig on the first drive. Adam Carlson booted a 32-yarder to put the Bulldogs up 3-0.

Derek Pegues intercepted Cox's first pass and returned it 20 yards for a touchdown less than a minute later, giving MSU an early 10-0 lead.

After Anthony Johnson intercepted Cox's second pass on Auburn's next offensive drive, Burns took over the reins for the majority of the game.

The Bulldogs extended their lead to 13-0 on an Adam Carlson 30-yard field goal early in the second quarter.

Auburn responded at the 4:18 mark in the second quarter as Ben Tate scored on a 28-yard touchdown run, marking the first TD run of the season for AU.

Burns put the Tigers up 14-13 on a one-yard sneak into the endzone with 30 seconds left in the half.

The second half was scoreless until MSU's late scoring drive. Cox returned to the game and drove the Tigers 67 yards, including passes of 12 and 23 yards to Rodgeriqu Smith and a 17-yard run by Tate.

But on fourth down with 53 seconds to play, Cox's pass fell short of Smith in the end zone, giving Mississippi State its first win over Auburn since 2000.

The Auburn defense allowed the Bulldogs' trio of quarterbacks only 41 total yards in the air. Auburn out gained the Bulldogs 323 to 213, but five costly turnovers thwarted the Tigers offensive efforts.

Cox led a 9-play, 62-yard drive that was capped off by a 1-yard touchdown run by Mario Fannin, giving Auburn a lead that it would not relinquish.

Auburn took over in the second half. Jonathan Wilhite intercepted his first of two passes on New Mexico State's first series, which led to an 18-yard touchdown pass from Cox to Smith. A minute later, Sen'Derrick Marks intercepted a Holbrook pass and returned it to the 2. Cox finished the deal from a yard out to put the Tigers up 35-20.

Wilhite's second interception led to a Ben Tate 2-yard score to open the fourth quarter. The Tigers put the finishing touches on the Aggies minutes later when Fannin added a 5-yard run to put Auburn up 48-20. Fannin closed the game with an exclamation point, running 67 yards for the final score with 22 seconds left.

Tate finished the game with 111 yards on 21 rushes, while Fannin ran 15 times for 103 yards and three touchdowns. It marked the first time since 2005 an Auburn player rushed for three TDs in a game.

GAME 5

AUBURN #4 FLORIDA

20 17

Sept. 29, 2007 • ESPN

Ben Hill Griffin Stadium (90,685) • Gainesville, Fla.

Freshman Wes Byrum kicked a game-winning 43-yard field goal as time expired to lift Auburn to a 20-17 victory over No. 4 Florida in front of 90,685 stunned fans at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium. Byrum actually made the final field goal twice, but his first attempt was nullified by a timeout called just before the snap.

The Tigers snapped the defending national champion's 11-game winning streak and gave Florida coach Urban Meyer his first home loss since he took over the program in 2005.

With 3:38 remaining, the Tigers used up as much time as possible on the game clock as Brandon Cox led a 10-play, 35-yard game-winning drive that included Ben Tate running for 19 yards and Rodgeriqu Smith and Prechae Rodriguez combining for 16 yards through the air.

Cox finished the game completing 17-of-26 passes for 227 yards.

The Auburn defense was the difference maker, as it held Florida to just 17 points, 312 yards of offense and 14 first downs. Entering the contest, Florida was averaging 49.2 points, 517.8 yards and 25 first downs per game.

In addition, Auburn shut out Florida in the first half, becoming the first team to hold Florida scoreless during the opening half since South Carolina on Nov. 14, 1992. The Tiger defense allowed just one play over 25 yards and held Florida without a first down on five of 10 offensive possessions.

The Tigers got on the board on their first possession as Cox took Auburn on its longest drive of the year. With the help of Tate and Mario Fannin's 42 yards on the ground and 35 yards in the air by Smith and Montez Billings, Kodi Burns was able to come in at quarterback and dart up the middle for a six-yard touchdown to cap the 14-play, 86-yard drive that consumed 7:32.

Auburn totaled 113 yards and eight first downs in the first quarter. Cox hit all five of his passes on Auburn's first drive that ended with Burns' score.

Brandon Cox marched Auburn 50 yards in a minute and 15 seconds and handed over the reigns to Wes Byrum, who booted a 20-yard field goal with 21 seconds left to give Auburn a 9-7 win over Arkansas in Razorback Stadium.

Defense was the story of the game as the Tigers held the nation's best running duo - Darren McFadden and Felix Jones - to a mere 85 yards on the ground. It was their lowest combined total since Nov. 25, 2005.

Arkansas' running game averaged 338 yards per game entering the contest, but finished with a net of 67. McFadden brought with him the nation's third-ranked rushing game, averaging 155.8 yards, but was held to 43 total yards on 17 carries against the AU defense.

The Razorbacks were No. 10 in the nation in scoring at 42.6 points a game, but the Tigers limited Arkansas to seven points, which were not scored until 1:36 left in the fourth quarter.

After trailing most of the game, the Razorbacks were given new life when Byrum missed a 46-yard field goal with 4:19 left, keeping the score 6-0. A pass interference call against Auburn started the drive, and Arkansas took the lead after Casey Dick hit Lucas Miller with a 13-yarder in the end zone.

Brad Lester returned the ensuing kick 22 yards to the Auburn 47 and Cox took over. He hit Rodgeriqu Smith for eight yards and Montez Billings for three before connecting with Robert Dunn for a 30-yard gain, the longest play of the game for either team. Ben Tate ran three times and set up Byrum for the game-winning kick.

Jerraud Powers ended any hope for the Razorbacks when he intercepted a pass as the game clock expired.

For the third straight game, Auburn scored on its opening drive. The Tigers moved 67 yards on 14 plays and settled for a 22-yard Byrum field goal. Arkansas' best chance of scoring in the first half ended quickly when Alex Tejada missed a 41-yard field goal attempt with 10:51 left in the second quarter.

Auburn had two other scoring opportunities in the second half, but Byrum missed on a 36-yard field goal attempt on the last play of the third quarter and on the 46-yarder with 4:19 left in regulation.

Auburn's defense limited Ole Miss to 193 total yards and Brandon Cox threw a late 34-yard pass to Rodgeriquis Smith to clinch Auburn's 17-3 win over Ole Miss before a sellout crowd of 87,451 at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

The Tigers led just 10-3 and faced third-and-eight at the Ole Miss 34 with 3:24 left in the game, when Cox hit Smith 10 yards downfield. Smith did the rest of the work himself, outracing the defenders to the end zone for the clinching score.

Auburn's defense forced a pair of three-and-out drives to start the game, and after the Tigers' promising opening drive was halted by a fumble, Cox marched Auburn 60 yards in nine plays on the second drive that included a 27-yard pass to Mario Fannin. Brad Lester ran in for the 1-yard score and Zach Kutch added the extra point to put Auburn up 7-0 with 2:41 left in the first quarter.

Ole Miss got on the board at the end of the second quarter after a 14-play 56-yard drive that ended with a 51-yard field goal by Joshua Shene. The drive used up the final 3:57 of the half.

Auburn made it 10-3 when Byrum, who was nursing a quad injury, kicked a 36-yard field goal with 7:59 left in the third quarter.

After a pooch punt by Byrum in the fourth quarter put Ole Miss at its own 1-yard line, the Rebels made a strong attempt to tie the score. Ole Miss drove 79 yards in 13 plays to the Auburn 20, even while starting Rebel quarterback Seth Adams was replaced in the drive by Brett Schaeffer after sustaining an injury. But on second-and-eight from the 20, Schaeffer fired a deep pass into the end zone that landed in the hands of Patrick Lee.

On the ensuing drive, Cox converted third-down plays with a 23-yard pass to Smith and a 12-yarder to Montez Billings, setting up the clinching score three plays later.

Smith finished with a career-high 111 yards on eight catches. The Tigers finished the game with 420 yards on 74 snaps, including 231 yards rushing, while Ole Miss managed just 193 yards on 57 plays.

Lester carried 23 times for a career-high 96 yards, just missing the first 100-yard day of his career. Ben Tate had 15 runs for 72 yards, including a game-high 24-yard carry.

Brandon Cox played just three possessions but engineered three touchdowns to help Auburn putt away Tennessee Tech, 35-3, on Homecoming.

Auburn marched 64 yards in eight plays on its opening drive as Cox set up Ben Tate for a 2-yard touchdown run after just three minutes had ticked off the game clock.

Tennessee Tech's Henry Sailes returned the ensuing kickoff 67 yards to the Auburn 16. But the Golden Eagles gained just 6 yards on three plays, setting up Justin Kraemer for a 28-yard field goal. It would be Tennessee Tech's only points of the game.

A career-long 55-yard pass reception by Carl Stewart on Auburn's next drive set up his ensuing 2-yard rush up the middle for the score, as Auburn led 14-3 after one quarter.

Cox completed his first seven passes, and connected four times on the Tigers' third offensive drive that ended with Robert Dunn's 16-yard touchdown to open the second quarter. It was Dunn's first career touchdown. With the score 21-3 and 13:59 remaining in the half, Cox made his exit from the game.

Blake Field, one of four quarterbacks to get playing time, hit Dunn with a 20-yard touchdown pass with five minutes left in the third quarter, putting Auburn ahead 28-3.

The Tiger defense provided the final score of the game, as Walter McFadden intercepted a Lee Sweeney pass and returned in 93 yards for the score. It was the third longest interception return in Auburn history.

In his short stay in the game, Cox completed 9-of-11 passes for 167 yards and a score. Field connected on 6-of-11 for 92 yards and a TD.

Auburn's running game felt the loss of Brad Lester, who sat out with a minor groin injury. Tennessee Tech out-gained the Tigers on the Jordan-Hare Stadium (87,451) • Auburn, Ala.

Auburn ran its winning streak against Alabama to a school-record six games, limiting the Crimson Tide to season lows in points and total offense during a 17-10 victory at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

The Tigers scored 10 first-quarter points then let their defense take over, as Alabama managed just 225 yards of offense, including a season low 113 through the air.

Auburn started strong, forcing a three-and-out, and then driving 65 yards on 12 plays, capped by a 3-yard touchdown run by Ben Tate to take a 7-0 lead.

The Tigers' next possession started with a 31-yard pass from Brandon Cox to Rodgeriquis Smith, and ended with a 37-yard field goal by Wes Byrum for a 10-0 advantage.

Alabama answered with an 11-play, 54-yard drive, but found itself facing a fourth down just outside the 1-yard line. John Parker Wilson's quarterback sneak appeared to come up short at first glance, but he eventually forced his way across the goal line for a touchdown to close the Tide within 10-7 with 11:37 left in the second quarter.

Alabama was driving towards another score late in the first half, but with just 17 seconds left, Jerraud Powers popped a potential 11-yard touchdown pass out of DJ Hall's hands, then caught the ball himself for an interception as the Tigers took a 10-7 lead into the lockerroom.

Auburn forced Alabama to punt on the Tide's first four possessions of the second half, and Robert Dunn's 31-yard punt return after the last punt set up Auburn's final scoring drive. Starting at the Alabama 44 with 8:48 left in the game, the Tigers ran nine plays before Cox snuck over from a yard out with 3:58 left to give Auburn a 17-7 lead.

GAME 13	#15 CLEMSON	20	OT 23
	#22 AUBURN
Dec. 31, 2007 • ESPN • Chick-fil-A Bowl Georgia Dome (74,413) • Atlanta, Ga.

Kodi Burns scored on a 7-yard run in overtime to lift No. 22 Auburn to a 23-20 victory over No. 15 Clemson in the Chick-fil-A Bowl, in the first overtime game in Auburn's bowl history.

Burns' score put the finishing touches on a performance that saw the Tigers record season highs in plays and yards with a spread offense installed by new offensive coordinator Tony Franklin, who was hired earlier in the month. With just eight practices to prepare, Auburn ran 90 plays for 423 yards, including 47 rushes and a season-high 43 passes.

Auburn scored first in a low-scoring first half, following a three-and-out by Clemson on the opening possession with an 11-play, 58-yard drive that culminated in Wes Byrum's 36-yard field goal.

After managing just 52 yards of offense in the first quarter, Clemson got a big chunk in a hurry early in the second quarter, as C.J. Spiller evaded a couple of defenders near the line of scrimmage before racing 83 yards down the left sideline to give Clemson a 7-3 lead. Neither team managed to score again in the opening half, as both teams missed field goals.

Auburn took the opening kickoff in the second half and marched 78 yards on 10 plays, rotating Burns and Brandon Cox at quarterback, with Cox completing three passes and Burns rushing twice for 17 yards on the drive. With Auburn on the Clemson 22, Burns switched roles, hitting Mario Fannin with a 22-yard pass to give Auburn a 10-7 lead.

Clemson finished an 11-play drive with a 22-yard field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter, knotting the score at 10-10.

After Cox was intercepted, Clemson quickly drove 32 yards for the go-ahead score when James Davis plunged in from a yard out with 11:24 remaining.

Auburn answered right back, again mixing Cox and Burns in the backfield successfully during an 11-play, 70-yard drive. Cox's 18-yard pass to Robert Dunn and a 15-yard rush by Burns set up Ben Tate for a 1-yard run that tied the score at 17-17 with 8:27 left.

Both teams had opportunities to score over the final eight minutes of regulation, reaching the other team's territory, but could not push their way into field goal range, as the teams headed to overtime.

Clemson had the first chance to score, reaching the Auburn 8-yard line, but Patrick Lee broke up a pass in the end zone on third down and Clemson had to settle for a 25-yard field goal.

On Auburn's overtime possession, Cox found Rodgeriqu Smith for 12 yards on 3rd-and-13, then snuck ahead for two yards and the first down. Two plays later, Burns powered in for the score, sending the Auburn sideline into a frenzy.

Cox connected on 25-of-39 passes for 211 yards in his final game for Auburn, while 10 different Tigers caught passes, led by five each by Fannin and Dunn. Burns had a team-high 69 yards on the ground, followed by Brad Lester (14 for 57) and Tate (14 for 47).

The Auburn defense, led by defensive MVP Pat Sims, held Clemson to just 293 yards of offense and 12 first downs. Sims had five tackles, including three for losses and a sack, while Zac Etheridge and Josh Thompson had eight stops each.

It marked the 42nd win over the past four seasons for Auburn, giving the outgoing senior class a new school record for victories in a four-year period. It also marked the fourth consecutive year Auburn won at least nine games.

1958 Outland Trophy

Zeke Smith

G • 6-2 • 215 • 3L • Uniontown, Ala.

Individual Defensive Statistics were not recorded in Zeke Smith's playing days. Here is his bio from the 1959 Auburn Football Media Guide, the season after he won the Outland Trophy:

ROGER DUANE (Zeke) SMITH—22—6-2—215—Sr.—Uniontown, Ala. ... Won Outland Award in 1958 as nation's most outstanding lineman ... Greatest guard in history of Auburn ... All-SEC and All-America in 1958 by unanimous choice ... Considered best line-backing guard in Dixie ... Selected to first-string All-America on following teams: Look Magazine, Associated Press, NEA, FWA, Football Digest, Time Magazine, Sports Illustrated, Chicago Tribune, Coach and Athlete ... All-SEC on Associated Press and United Press International and SEC Lineman of the Year choice of Atlanta Touchdown Club and Birmingham Quarterback Club ... Lineman of the Week by the Associated Press for his play against Tennessee in 1958 season opener ... Led a Tiger defense which allowed the Vols no first downs and minus-33 yards total offense for the afternoon ... Third-string frosh center who was held out as a sophomore ... Came to Auburn as a slow-footed runner but worked hard to obtain powerful muscles and agility ... Has tremendous quickness, speed and power ... Plays left guard on offense but becomes middle linebacker on a five-man line, which Auburn uses 70 percent of the time ... Voted "Best Offensive Guard in SEC" by conference coaches in 1958 ... Speed and quickness make him a natural on pulling and blocking ends (Auburn guards pull on about 80 percent of all plays) ... Drafted by Baltimore Colts following 1958 season as fourth draft pick despite having another year of eligibility ... Turned down $15,000 to sign with Canadian League team because, as he said: "Auburn took me when no one else wanted me. I'm where I am today because of Coach Ralph Jordan and Auburn, and I believe I owe Auburn more than I could ever give" ... Education major.

OTHER CHARACTERISTICS OF ZEKE SMITH—Handsome blond with blue eyes ... Born on Sept. 29, 1936, at Walker Springs, Ala. ... Moved to Uniontown (Pop. 2,000) when he was six years old ... Unheralded as a high school fullback, he was not approached by another college ... Nicknamed "Zeke" by high school coach who said he ran like Zeke Bratkowski (Georgia's famed "Brat" averaged losing 200 yards rushing each year) ... First-string Scholastic All-America by the Peoples Encyclopedia Company ... Called, along with Lou Michaels of Kentucky, "The Greatest Lineman in the SEC in the past 10 years," by Georgia Tech's Bobby Dodd ... Will be always remembered by football writers who attended the Look Magazine party in New York for accepting the OUTLAND AWARD by saying, "Thank you gentlemen for this HEIS-MAN TROPHY ... I mean OUTLAND AWARD." Smith did this twice within 30 seconds ... Spent this past summer as assistant sergeant-at-arms in Alabama Senate ... Pre-season All-SEC and All-America ... Married this summer.

Auburn All-Americans

JIMMY HITCHCOCK

The "Phantom of Union Springs," Jimmy Hitchcock became Auburn's first All-American in 1932. He was an offensive triple threat as a passer, runner and punter who led Auburn to the 1932 Southern Conference Championship. Against Tulane in 1932 Hitchcock returned an interception 60 yards for an Auburn touchdown and later returned an errant punt snap 63 yards for a second score. Duke head coach Wallace Wade said, "Hitchcock is the finest all-around back ever to play against any of my teams." Hitchcock also received All-America honors in baseball and played briefly in the Major Leagues after leaving Auburn.

WALTER GILBERT

Auburn's only three-time All-American, Walter Gilbert played center on the 1934, 1935 and 1936 teams. Known as one of the first "roving centers," he also excelled at linebacker. Then Auburn assistant Ralph Jordan described Gilbert "as possibly the greatest linebacker-center in the history of Southern football." Gilbert became a member of the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame in 1956. Since 1981, Auburn University has issued the Walter Gilbert Award to Auburn athletes who have distinguished themselves through achievements after graduating from Auburn.

MONK GAFFORD

With 1,414 career rushing yards, Gafford averaged 6.4 yards per carry and was named SEC Player of the Year by the Birmingham Quarterback Club in 1942. Coach Bernie Moore of LSU called Gafford "the best back the SEC had seen in the last 10 years." A great punter and fine defensive player, he will be best remembered for his performance in the 1942 Georgia game. Gafford had 119 yards on 21 carries and returned three punts for a total of 92 yards leading the Tigers to defeat the No. 1 Bulldogs, 27-13.

TEX WARRINGTON

As Auburn's second center to win All-American honors, Tex Warrington was known for his love of contact and ability to size up situations on the field. He was a determined and dedicated blocker as well as a talented linebacker. Warrington was named All-American by the NCAA Guide in 1944.

TRAVIS TIDWELL

As a freshman in 1946, Travis Tidwell led the nation in total offense with 1,715 yards. His 3,280 career offensive yards set and held the Auburn record for two decades. Tidwell was a leader on offense and defense. Chosen as a Williamson All-American, he was virtually single-handedly responsible for Auburn's 14-13 victory over Alabama in 1949. After his successful tenure at Auburn where he also lettered in baseball, Tidwell went on to play for the New York Giants in 1950 and 1951.

JIM PYBURN

During his sophomore year Jim Pyburn caught 25 passes for 379 yards and three touchdowns. One year later he had 28 receptions for 460 yards and two touchdowns. He once held the Auburn record for yards by a receiver in a season. Coach Ralph Jordan said, "We have a passing attack ... just throw the ball in Pyburn's direction." Pyburn was named All-American after his junior year and passed up his senior season to play professional baseball. After playing with the Baltimore Orioles, Pyburn returned to SEC football as an assistant coach at the University of Georgia.

JOE CHILDRESS

Joe Childress was a threat as both a full-back and a placekicker for the 1953-1955 squads. He led the team in rushing as a junior with 836 yards on 148 carries. His top game in his Auburn career came against fifth-ranked Miami in 1954 when he gained 164 yards on 29 carries as Auburn won 14-13. Childress was selected MVP in the 1954 and 1955 Gator Bowls and was also selected All-SEC in those years. Childress was named All-American by the Football Writers of America in 1955. After leaving Auburn, Childress played in the NFL for 10 years with the Chicago and St. Louis Cardinals.

FRANK D'AGOSTINO

A quick, powerful tackle and explosive blocker, Frank D'Agostino made four All-America teams as a tackle including the Associated Press team in 1953. He was known for his ability to block at the point of attack and was a talented downfield blocker. Regarded as one of the quickest tackles to ever play in the SEC, D'Agostino was a first-team All-SEC selection in 1953 and 1955. Following his tenure at Auburn, he returned home to Philadelphia and played briefly with the Philadelphia Eagles.

Auburn All-Americans

FOB JAMES

After gaining 879 yards on 123 carries in 1955 including 178 against Chattanooga, Fob James held the record as Auburn's all-time leading rusher with 1,913 yards. His record stood for 21 years. James was named All-American by Movietone News and International News Service in 1955. He was also selected SEC Back of the Year by the Atlanta Touchdown Club the same year. James later served as Alabama's governor from 1979-1983 and again from 1995-1999.

JIMMY PHILLIPS

Jimmy Phillips is one of Auburn's most celebrated All-Americans, making 11 All-America teams in 1957. He averaged 23.8 yards per reception and caught four touchdown passes that year. Phillips led the SEC in receiving in 1956 with 23 receptions for 383 yards and four touchdowns. In 1955, he was named the SEC's Sophomore of the Year and was named national Lineman of the Week for his performance in Auburn's 14-12 victory over Georgia Tech, Auburn's first win over the Yellow Jackets in 15 years. Phillips was later an all-pro receiver for the Los Angeles Rams and Minnesota Vikings and led the NFL in receiving in 1961.

ZEKE SMITH

In 1958, Zeke Smith won the Outland Trophy given to the nation's top lineman and was selected as an All-America guard. He was the ringleader of a Tiger defense that held Tennessee to minus-33 yards offense and no first downs. Smith was named All-SEC later that year. Bobby Dodd, then Georgia head coach, called Smith and Kentucky lineman Lou Michaels "the greatest linemen in the SEC in the past 10 years." After leaving Auburn, Smith played professional football for the Baltimore Colts and New York Giants. Since 1977, Auburn has presented the Zeke Smith Award to the team's defensive Player of the Year.

JACKIE BURKETT

Though he played college baseball and basketball, Jackie Burkett will be remembered as one of Auburn's greatest centers. # Auburn University

Auburn University has a proud and dynamic history. The institution was chartered on February 1, 1856 as the East Alabama Male College, a private liberal arts school established by Alabama Methodists to foster Christian education.

A single four-story building was completed at a cost of $111,000 in 1859 with 80 students enrolled and a faculty of five. Five male students were graduated in the first commencement held. When Alabama seceded from the Union, faculty and students resigned to enlist for the duration of the Civil War. Among those joining was William J. Samford, later Governor of Alabama.

The college building, then named Old Main, was used as a Confederate hospital from 1864 until classes resumed in 1866. When fire destroyed Old Main in 1887, it was replaced on the same site in 1888 by Samford Hall, named after Alabama's governor, William James Samford. Today Samford Hall serves as the university's administrative headquarters.

The college struggled in the shattered Southern economy during the years after the Civil War. It was a ruined economy and those that pledged large sums to the college went bankrupt and could not meet their pledges. The Methodist Church granted the institution to the state in 1872 for use as a land-grant university under the Morrill Act, signed by President Lincoln in 1862. The institution then became the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Alabama, changing from the private liberal arts school to a state-supported college with an emphasis on the new scientific and agricultural programs.

Continuous expansion followed. In 1899, the Alabama Legislature decided a new name was needed to reflect the expanded role of the institution. The college's name was changed to the Alabama Polytechnic Institute.

From the beginning, however, virtually everyone connected with the university ignored official names, preferring always the name selected for the town, founded in 1836, where the institution was located — Auburn. Elizabeth Harper, the daughter-in-law of the settlement's founder, was inspired by a line from Oliver Goldsmith's poem, "The Deserted Village," which reads, "Sweet Auburn, loveliest village of the plain." Would the history of this institution have been the same had it been named Geneva as once was proposed for naming the town? The story goes that straws were drawn for naming the town Geneva or Auburn. Auburn won out.

As Charles C. Thach, the university's sixth president said, "The Alabama Polytechnic Institute, a high sounding phrase, is fit for legal documents and grave legislation, but not to conjure with and not to yell and not to dream with as is 'Fair Auburn.'" The Legislature agreed, and in 1960 Alabama Polytechnic Institute became Auburn University.

Women students were first admitted to Auburn in 1892, making Auburn the oldest four-year co-educational school in Alabama and the second oldest in the Southeast.

Twelve undergraduate schools and colleges advance the university's outstanding programs of teaching, research and service. The current colleges and schools and the dates of their original inception are:

College of Agriculture, 1872; College of Architecture, Design and Construction, 1907; College of Business, 1967; College of Education, 1915; Samuel Ginn College of Engineering, 1872; School of Forestry and Wildlife Sciences, 1984; College of Human Sciences, 1916; College of Liberal Arts, 1986; School of Nursing, 1979; James Harrison School of Pharmacy, 1885; College of Sciences and Mathematics, 1986; College of Veterinary Medicine, 1907; Graduate School, 1872. In 1986, a university reorganization created the College of Liberal Arts and the College of Sciences and Mathematics from the former school of Arts and Sciences (1872), as well as portions of the School of Agriculture and Biological Sciences and the School of Architecture and Fine Arts (both subsequently renamed).

Auburn's greatest growth and development came after World War II. From a campus of 35 buildings in 1946, the university's multi-million dollar physical complex has grown to approximately 89 major buildings on 1,843 acres. The Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station conducts crop, animal and soil experimentation statewide, and Extension agents are stationed in all 67 Alabama counties.

Today, Auburn University has provided instruction, research, and outreach to benefit the state and nation for more than 150 years, and is among a distinctive group of universities designated as Land, Sea, and Space Grant institutions. AU makes a nearly $5 billion economic contribution to the state each year, has more than 250,000 graduates and provides 130 degree options to more than 24,000 graduate and undergraduate students.

In 1967, the State Legislature approved a $5 million bond issue for the purpose of establishing a four-year university at Montgomery under the supervision and control of the Auburn University Board of Trustees. It is named Auburn Montgomery. AUM began operation in the former Extension Center of the University of Alabama temporarily in 1969. Money was raised by the Montgomery community to purchase a 500-acre site seven miles east of the city on Interstate 85 on which to build. The new campus was built and occupied in 1971. Currently its enrollment stands at approximately 5,000.

Economic Impact Highlights

- AU provides a $4.85 billion economic contribution to the state of Alabama, including a $1.7 billion direct impact on the economy and a $3.15 billion impact in "human capital" from the earning power of more than 97,119 alumni working in the state.
- With $10 million in support from the state, $5 million from the city of Auburn and a pledge of services in kind from the Lee County Commission, AU broke ground in November 2005 on a research park to occupy a 156-acre site. The initial phase is projected to create some 1,500 new jobs from direct employment by firms within the park and some 2,500 additional jobs in the area. At full build-out, the research park is projected to directly and indirectly provide more than 12,000 new jobs for the area.
- AU provides the principal academic support for Alabama agricultural, construction and manufacturing industries, which represent hundreds of thousands of employees. It also supports these industries with research that results in new product development, and product innovation.

- AU is the primary source of instruction and research for Alabama's aerospace, automotive, microelectronics, biotech, and wireless industries.

- AU's Technical Assistance Center has worked with the state's business and industry to help them improve efficiency and competitiveness. ATAC projects during the past 10-year outreach effort have resulted in some $53 million in retained sales by its client companies, $103 million in increased sales, $39 million in cost savings, $46 million in new investment, and more than 1,000 retained and new jobs.

Research Highlights

- AU's combined research funds from competitive contracts and grants increased at an annual average of 17 percent over the past decade. Fiscal 2005 research funding totaled more than $72 million and AU's federal appropriations for that same year totaled $58 million.

- AU's Canine and Detection Research Institute and Canine and Detection Training Center has continued to set the nation's standard for producing canines and handlers for defense, transportation security, and security for detection of explosives and weapons of mass destruction. The institute also conducts first-responder training for government agencies, military groups and major municipalities.

- AU holds an exclusive license for emergency preparedness simulation training software originally developed by Lawrence Livermore Laboratories. Using this software, AU and its subcontractor, Emergency Response Training Systems, Inc., have conducted training with emergency management agencies throughout the Southeast and beyond.

- An Auburn-invented microscope technology was ranked by R&D Magazine among the top 100 most technologically significant products introduced in 2005.

Instruction/Academics Highlights

- AU has been ranked in the top 50 of public institutions for the past 15 years by U.S. News & World Report, is among the top 15 percent of colleges ranked by the Princeton Review, and has academic programs that score high in national surveys.

Buildings in the main campus area are within walking distance of each other. Residence halls are only a short walk from classrooms, dining and athletic facilities. Auburn is located in the Southeastern United States in east-central Alabama about 30 miles from the Georgia border.

One of the state's fastest growing cities, Auburn has a population of about 47,000. An adjacent twin-city, Opelika, has a population of about 30,000. Atlanta, Ga., is only 100 miles to the northeast via Interstate 85; Birmingham is 100 miles to the north via U.S. 280 or I-85/65; Montgomery is 50 miles to the east via I-85; and the Gulf beaches are about 200 miles away.

The university enjoys the advantages of security, seclusion and clean air and water. Auburn is a clean city with a mild climate that offers many cultural opportunities.

JAY JACOBS Director of Athletics

Auburn Director of Athletics Jay Jacobs has a vision of leading Auburn Athletics to becoming the nation's preeminent Athletics Department. In his brief tenure at the helm of the Tigers' program, the department has prospered athletically, academically and financially.

Under Jacobs' leadership, Auburn Athletics has made major strides that have benefitted

Auburn student-athletes, coaches and fans.

Athletically, the Tigers have claimed seven national championships under Jacobs, including a school-record four titles in 2005-06, along with 11 Southeastern Conference titles. In 2007-08, Auburn had seven programs finish in the top 15 nationally, four of which were top 10 finishers, including two national runners up.

Auburn produced 102 All-American honors, 45 All-SEC performers, seven NCAA individual and relay champions and 27 Southeastern Conference champions in 2007-08. Four Tiger student-athletes were named SEC Athlete of the Year in their respective sports.

Academically, Auburn has earned five public recognitions by the NCAA for scoring in the 90th-100th percentile nationally in the Academic Progress Rate (APR). The APR, which is a formula based upon student-athletes' retention and eligibility, has honored the men's golf program in 2005, 2006 and 2007, and the football team in 2006.

In 2007-08, four Auburn student-athletes were Academic All-Americans, two were named SEC Scholar Athletes of the Year, 119 earned Academic All-SEC honors and swimmer Kristen Hastrup was named the female Southeastern Conference H. Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year Award, which is the highest award a student-athlete can receive from the SEC. Hastrup and fellow swimmer Kara Denby also both received NCAA postgraduate scholarship awards from the NCAA. A total of 42 percent of Auburn student-athletes earned grade point averages of 3.0 or better during the Spring 2008 semester, including 176 student-athletes that were honored at the annual Tiger Torch Banquet.

Jacobs, who gained strong business expertise as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Tigers Unlimited prior to his appointment as Director of Athletics, has initiated several successful business ventures for the Athletics Department.

In December 2005, Auburn signed a five-year contract with Under Armour Performance Apparel to be the official outfitter of the University's athletic teams. The five-year contract, worth over $10.6 million in sponsorship, product and additional benefits, provides Auburn's athletic teams Under Armour uniforms, cleats, apparel and accessories.

Auburn also extended its multimedia rights contract with ISP Sports for an additional nine years following the end of the current agreement in 2007. The new terms include revenue to the Athletics Department of an average of more than $5.8 million annually, more than double the previous contract of nearly $2.4 million per year.

Under Jacobs' leadership, Auburn has also moved forward with numerous facility projects designed to benefit

Meagan, Angie, Jayne, Jay and Haley Jacobs

Tiger athletic programs and their fans.

The approval in June 2007 of a new $92.5 million state-of-the-art basketball arena and practice facility ranks among Jacobs' most significant accomplishments. Groundbreaking for the new arena began in the summer of 2008 with the facility opening prior to the 2010-11 season.

The 243,792-square foot facility, which will be built on campus northwest of the existing Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum on Roosevelt Drive, will have an approximate capacity of 9,600. It will include over 29,000 square feet of student-athlete space, a two-court practice facility, coaches' offices, the Auburn University Athletic Ticket Office, an AU Team Store, the relocated Lovelace Museum and two food courts, along with many other amenities.

The most recognizable completed project under Jacobs' watch has been the Jordan-Hare Stadium Phase 1C renovation, which was completed in August 2006. The renovations included new concessions and expanded restroom facilities on the west and east concourses along with a spacious plaza on the west side of the stadium.

Last football season, Auburn fans enjoyed a new $2.9 million high definition (HD) video display scoreboard in the south end zone. The first of its kind in the Southeastern Conference, the HD display measures approximately 30 feet high by 74 feet wide.

In 2005-06, Auburn opened the new Hutsell-Rosen Track. Projects completed during the 2007-08 academic year include the City of Auburn/Auburn University Yarbrough Tennis Center, the Jack Key Golf Teaching Facility and an outdoor training pool located at the old Luther Young Tennis Complex.

For Jacobs, it was only fitting that he was named Auburn's 14th Director of Athletics on Dec. 22, 2004, after working in almost every area of the Auburn Athletics Department for the previous 20 years.

It was the final step for Jacobs in a career that had allowed him to gain a wide range of experience in collegiate athletics, from the perspective of a student-athlete, to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director for Tigers Unlimited, Auburn's fund-raising arm.

Jacobs grew up just 20 miles from Auburn in LaFayette and made several trips a year to the campus to watch athletic events. Later, after moving to Jacksonville, Fla., where he attended high school, he returned to Auburn for college. After walking on the Auburn football team, he earned two letters as an offensive tackle in 1982 and 1983. As a senior, he started for the SEC Championship Tigers that finished the season ranked third nationally.

Not long after his career ended against Michigan in the 1984 Sugar Bowl, Jacobs started the journey that led him to being named Director of Athletics.

After one season as a coach at Lee-Scott Academy in Auburn, Jacobs returned to his alma mater in 1985 as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach. After serving two seasons (1986-88) as a graduate assistant football coach, Jacobs was named Conditioning Coach, a position he held for three years (1988-91).

In 1991, he became an Assistant Athletics Director. Three years later, he was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Operations, overseeing a variety of support functions in the Athletics Department.

As the Senior Associate Athletics Director in charge of Tigers Unlimited from 2001-05, Jacobs oversaw the fund-raising efforts that secured approximately $60 million in gifts the last three years. He spearheaded a $90 million capital campaign, the largest in Auburn athletics history.

Jacobs earned his undergraduate and master's degree in business administration from Auburn in 1985 and 1988, respectively. He is married to the former Angie Sapp of Dublin, Ga. The couple has three daughters, Haley, Meagan and Jayne.

The NCAA Rules and You

Auburn University is committed to full compliance with all Southeastern Conference (SEC) and National Collegiate Athletics Association (NCAA) rules and regulations. Therefore, Auburn University is responsible for insuring its student-athletes, coaches, faculty and staff, alumni, donors, boosters and friends adhere to the rules of the SEC and NCAA.

The loyalty and support demonstrated by our fans, alumni and friends is unparalleled. Please help Auburn University position itself for greatness today and in the future by reviewing this summary of NCAA rules.

I. Representatives of Athletic Interests.

A "representative of Auburn's athletic interests," or booster is anyone who:

- Has ever participated in or is currently a member of any of the various athletic department support groups or Auburn Clubs nationwide.
- Has made a donation to the athletics program;
- Has helped arrange for summer and/or vacation employment for student-athletes or provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes;
- Has assisted in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes; or
- Has been involved, in any way, in the promotion of Auburn University's athletic program.

II. Recruiting.

Only coaches and athletic department staff can be involved in the recruiting process. Athletic representatives are prohibited from contacting a prospective student-athlete or members of his/her family by telephone, letter or in person for the purpose of encouraging participation in athletics at Auburn University. Please contact the coaching staff if you know of a prospect that may have the interest and ability to participate in intercollegiate athletics at Auburn University. The coach can then take appropriate action.

III. Prospective Student-Athlete.

A prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth (9th) grade. In addition, a student-athlete who has not started classes for the ninth grade becomes a prospective student-athlete if the institution provides such an individual (or the individual's relatives or friends) any financial assistance or other benefits that the institution does not provide to prospective students generally.

IV. Extra Benefits.

An extra benefit is any special arrangement by an institutional employee or a representative of the institution's athletics interests to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. Extra benefits would include, but are not limited to:

- Cash or loans in any amount
- Co-signing or arranging a loan
- Gifts or free services (e.g., airline ticket, restaurant meals, etc.)
- Use of an automobile
- Rent-free or reduced-cost housing
- Money for, or a guarantee of, bail or bond
- Employment of a student-athlete at a rate higher than the wages paid for similar work
- Payment to a student-athlete for work not performed

Your commitment to helping Auburn University comply with the letter and the spirit of the rules and regulations of the SEC and the NCAA is greatly appreciated.

If you have any questions concerning SEC or NCAA rules which help govern Auburn Athletics, please contact the Auburn Compliance Office at (334) 844-9736.

Auburn University Athletic Department Mission Statement

"The Department of Athletics, in keeping with the mission of the University, and in a spirit of inclusion, encouraging diversity and equitable treatment for all, will seek to abide by the rules, to manage its fiscal affairs in a responsible manner, to educate its student-athletes, and to win championships, thereby bringing credit to Auburn and its people."

Auburn, Alabama was founded in 1836 by Judge John J. Harper of Harris County, Georgia. Envisioned as a religious, educational and cultural center, Auburn was incorporated as a town on Feb. 2, 1839. By 1856, Auburn University was chartered as the East Alabama Male College and has since become a thriving addition to the city.

With each year, "the loveliest village of the plains" continues to grow and improve. With a steadily increasing population of over 42,000, Auburn offers big-city appeal in a hometown atmosphere. Cultural activities, sporting events and educational opportunities are never in short supply. Auburn also boasts a newly expanded mall, Colonial University Village, a number of unique downtown shops and over 100 restaurants, two bed and breakfasts, four campgrounds and 1,550 hotel rooms.

of those honored along the Trail. Each year new plaques are added as more Auburn women and men are recognized for their contributions to Auburn. The Tiger Trail is sponsored by the Auburn

Chamber of Commerce and funded by Auburn people. This tradition represents a connection between the city of Auburn and Auburn University that will remain forever.

Truly, the city of Auburn is unique to the state of Alabama. Once the "Auburn Spirit" gets in your blood, you will never want to leave. Come to visit and stay a lifetime.

Some of the activities Auburn offers include:

CHEWACLA STATE PARK

A 696-acre park with a 26-acre lake, offers rustic cabins, tennis courts, nature trails and camping facilities.

KIESEL PARK

Willed to the city by Dr. Goerge Kiesel, this property has been developed as a "nature park." A two and one-half mile walking and jogging trail winds in and around gurgling streams, over rolling, tree-covered hills and through a wildflower meadow.

GOLF

In an area known for big time sports and small town charm, a golfer's dream awaits. The Auburn area offers more than 162 holes of great golf: Auburn University Club, Auburn Links at Mill Creek; Grand National; Indian Pines Golf Complex; Moore's Mill Country Club, Pin Oaks Golf Club; Saugahatchee Country Club and the Driver's Club, a lighted driving range.

A 696-acre park with a 26-acre lake, offers rustic cabins, tennis courts, nature trails and camping facilities.

Geographically, the city of Auburn and Auburn University meet at what is known as "Toomers Corner." Here the flourishing community and expanding university create a warm, friendly spirit that can only be described as "Auburn."

The bond between the city and university is exemplified along the streets of downtown Auburn where tribute is paid to Auburn University's greatest athletes, coaches and administrators. Known as Tiger Trail of Auburn, this walk of fame consists of 38 granite plaques bearing the names

Media Relations Working Policies

The Auburn Media Relations staff appreciates your interest in Auburn and constantly strives to assist you in your coverage of the Tigers and to make your job easier and more enjoyable.

We have certain policies and procedures that we ask you to abide by. These policies and procedures are designed to take your needs as well as the needs of our players and coaches into consideration and create a good working situation for all.

As always, we seek your suggestions and will try to handle any special requests you may have.

Player Interviews

Interviews with our players are encouraged. All player interviews must be arranged through the Media Relations Office.

This policy is not intended to limit media access to players. It is intended to ensure to the fullest degree possible that members of the media get needed interviews and that the interviews are conducted at the best time for the media representative and for the player. Players are usually available after practices on Sunday and Tuesday.

Players will be available following the Tuesday morning practice through prior arrangement with the Media Relations Office. Requests for players should be made to Brad Gust by 4 p.m. on Mondays prior to the Tuesday press session. All requests for Coach Tuberville should be made through Kirk Sampson. Please do not expect players to be available if you have not made arrangements for them to be there. In cases of conflicting circulation or coverage areas, priority will be given to media outlets which request in advance.

Post-practice interviews may be arranged by contacting a member of the Media Relations staff. The player will be brought to the press workroom AFTER his football and academic obligations have been completed.

The Media Relations Office will make every effort to arrange telephone interviews, but player telephone numbers will not be given out. Because it would be difficult for players to distinguish legitimate media calls from calls from individuals claiming to represent the media, players are instructed not to conduct a telephone interview unless it is cleared through the Media Relations Office. When conducting telephone interviews, players will return calls at an agreed upon time.

All player interviews must be completed by Tuesday evening on game weeks.

PER SEC REGULATIONS, PLAYERS ARE NOT PERMITTED TO DO LIVE TELEVISION OR RADIO INTERVIEWS.

Dorm Rooms, Apartments, Locker Rooms and Training Rooms

Players' rooms, apartments, the locker room and the training room are off-limits to everyone except staff. Interviews should be conducted in the press workroom or at other sites arranged by the Media Relations Office.

Football Practice

The first 15 minutes of Auburn football practice will usually be open to the media. If you want to attend practice, contact Brad Gust to be sure that practices will be open on that particular day.

Television and still photographers are welcome to shoot any part of the practice that is open. All media representatives are asked and expected to stay in the area between practice fields for safety reasons.

Press Credentials

Working press and photographer credentials for Auburn's home games will be handled by Auburn's Chuck Gallina.

All credential requests should be made by visiting Auburn's on-line credentialing website: www.sportssystem.com/auburn. All requests should be made as early as possible and should be limited to working press only. Requests made within seven days of the game will not be considered.

Pilots are not considered working media involved in coverage of the game and therefore will not be allowed in the press box. We will not be responsible for pilot tickets.

The credential authorizes the use by an accredited organization for news coverage of the game. Any unauthorized use of credentials subjects the bearer to ejection from the stadium and subjects the accredited organization to

No online service will be allowed "real-time" transmission of Auburn's home football games. Only the Auburn Athletic Department or the Auburn Network will be allowed "real-time" transmission during home games. This includes any on-line media that provides continual on-line play-by-play, digital images, audio or video of an event.

Credential and Access Guidelines for Media Covering Auburn Athletics

* Auburn's goal is to disseminate information as widely, uniformly and fairly as possible using normally accepted media standards.

* Media must meet the following guidelines in order to be granted credentials. Only media that meet the criteria will be considered for access to Auburn's press conferences and other media opportunities.

* The number of credentials issued is limited by available resources. Due to space and facility restrictions, access, seat assignments on press row as well as sideline photography will be made on a space available basis. In some situations, pool reporting may be necessary.

PRINT

1. Daily newspapers are eligible to apply for credentials and access to media opportunities. The granting and number of credentials will be based on circulation of the newspaper on a space available basis.

2. Weekly newspapers should contact the Alabama Press Association to request credentials.

3. Speciality publications that cover college football or sports in the host site of the two participating schools are eligible to be granted credentials on a space available basis.

TELEVISION

1. Television stations that have nightly news broadcasts that include sports coverage are eligible to apply for credentials. All other stations will be filled on a space available basis.

2. Student television stations from the two participating schools are eligible to apply for credentials.

RADIO

1. National and regional networks are eligible to apply for credentials.

2. Radio stations that employ a full-time

INTERNET

1. Internet sites of the home and visiting school (as determined by the Media Relations Director) are eligible to apply for credentials.

2. The internet site that is the official online service of the national cable network that is televising the game will receive credentials in accordance with conference contractual obligation.

3. Auburn's policy is to issue credentials only to those organizations whose primary purpose is gathering news and disseminating it and for which other commercial activities are ancillary.

4. Other internet sites must meet each of the following guidelines in addition to meeting the above criteria to be eligible to apply for credentials and access as determined on a space available basis.

*Web site must be a legal, corporate entity.

*Web site must provide daily coverage of Auburn or the visiting team with its own full-time staff of reporters, photographers and equipment.

*Web site must travel to and cover all away games and all major post-season events.

INTERNET REAL-TIME POLICY

By acceptance and use of an Auburn media credential, the holder agrees to the following conditions as established by the Southeastern Conference:

1. The SEC and its member institutions grant a media organization a limited license to use certain gathered information on the media organization's own Internet or online site beginning at the start of an athletic event and up to the conclusion of such event, all subject to the following limitations and conditions:

(a) No more than 10 still photographs may be used for news coverage of the game and other editorial purposes. Such still photographs must be used on a time-delayed basis, that is at least five (5) minutes after the happening of the event depicted by the still photograph.

(b) It is agreed that video tape is NOT to be used on an Internet or online site (except that video tape may be shown as part of a single, non-archived, online "simulcast" of a television station's regularly-scheduled news program.

(c) While a game is in progress, the use of textual statistical information is time-delayed and limited in amount (e.g., updates pertaining to score, injuries and national, conference or institutional record-breaking performances, a condensed half-time story) so that an organization's Internet or online game coverage does not undercut the authorized and rights-paying fee organization's rights to play-by-play accounts of the game and/or exclusivity as to such rights.

This policy is in effect for all Auburn sporting events including championships. The limitations for football are three per quarter and one at halftime.

3. Should any of these conditions be breached, the Auburn and/or the SEC will issue a written warning for the first violation. If this violation occurs during the last game of the institutions' regularly-scheduled season, the media organization may not be credentialed for the SEC Football Championship Game. A second violation of this policy will result in revocation of credentials to cover future football games hosted by the SEC and/or its member institutions.
