Barbara Camp/Unsung Hero

Barbara Camp was the SWA at Auburn from December of 1992 until the end of the 2005-06 school year and was one of the key forces in Auburn adding a women's soccer program beginning in the 1993 season. As the program continued its rise through the end of the decade, she hired current head coach Karen Hoppa away from Central Florida to guide the Tigers to prominence. For all of her hard work and dedication to the program, the soccer staff renamed the team's unsung hero award the Barbara Camp Unsung Hero Award in the spring of 2006. The award goes to the player who consistently makes a difference on the field, but rarely gets the recognition that she deserves. The award goes to a player who does her job and who the team knows they can count on.

The Southeastern Conference

The Southeastern Conference has continued its rise as one of the top conferences in women's soccer.

The 2007 women's soccer season reaffirmed the SEC's prominence in the country. Six teams from the SEC were invited to the NCAA Tournament. Auburn, Florida, Georgia, LSU, South Carolina and Tennessee all made the 64-team field. The six teams combined for a record of 5-5-2 with both the Gators and Lady Vols advancing to the third round. The SEC now has a 41-47-8 (.469) NCAA Tournament record in 50 appearances.

SEC women's soccer will begin its 16th season in the year of 2008 deeply rooted in the national scene of collegiate soccer. Since the SEC initiated women's soccer as a varsity sport in 1993, the sport's popularity has grown through the country and especially in the Southeast. A defining point in the SEC's women's soccer success came in 1995 when FOX Sports South broadcasted the SEC Tournament Championship match between Alabama and Kentucky on a tape-delayed basis, signifying the first appearance of an SEC women's soccer match on television. Southeastern Conference women's soccer continued to grow over the next couple of years as the conference made a name for itself nationally. In 1998, the SEC had its breakout season with Florida winning the conference's first NCAA title in women's soccer in just the program's fourth year of existence. The league led the nation with six NCAA Tournament teams that year, an accomplishment which firmly inserted the SEC as one of the major conferences in women's soccer. The SEC also made bigger strides in its television coverage with three regular season matches and the SEC Tournament championship match shown live on the SEC-TV package. In 2003, the SEC Soccer Tournament moved to a neutral site in Orange Beach, Alabama, signifying the growth of the sports' popularity. In 2006, SEC-TV's women's soccer coverage was increased to four regular-season matches, in addition to the SEC Tournament championship match. That incremental growth, combined with increasing exposure on the national and regional scene, has SEC women's soccer looking to blossom to new heights in the year 2008 and beyond.
