RAZORBACK NOTES

Season-High Outburst

The Razorbacks posted a season-high .407 hitting percentage in their three-set win over Missouri. In the match, Arkansas had five players with at least five kills including three with double-digit figures. The Razorbacks tied a season low with just 10 attack errors against Mizzou.

Call to Action

In her first career start for Arkansas, junior setter Ashley Vazquez responded with 38 assists and five kills. She guided the Razorback offense to a season-high .407 hitting percentage against Missouri, the top blocking team in the SEC. Vazquez distributed the volleyball to four different players with at least six kills.

What a Week

During the Razorbacks' weekend against Alabama and Missouri, senior Jasmine Norton led the team in kills (29), digs (26) and service aces (four). In the weekend opener, she had a match-high 19 kills and SEC-season high 21 digs for her 11th double-double of the season.

All times central (CT)

made her first start of the season Oct. 19 at Kentucky.

Fortado Breaks Out

Freshman opposite Liz Fortado equaled her SEC season high with 11 kills in Arkansas' straight-set win at Mississippi State. She began the weekend with seven kills and no attack errors at Kentucky. During the weekend, Fortado was the team's top attacker with a .484 hitting percentage.

Offensive Road Show

During weekend matches at Kentucky and Mississippi State, the Razorbacks posted a .345 team hitting percentage. Arkansas opened the weekend with a .330 figure against the Wildcats. The team closed out the weekend with a .360 mark against MSU.

Halting a Skid

Arkansas' three-set win at Kentucky snapped the program's 10-match skid to the Wildcats and was the team's first win in Lexington since the 2003 season.

Norton Moves to No. 2

With her 12th kill of the match against Texas A&M, Jasmine Norton moved into sole possession of second place on the program's all-time list. Norton began the season in sixth place. She moved past Denitza Koleva (2003-06) who finished her career with 1,595 kills. Norton is now the second player in program history to collect 1,600 career kills. The program record of 2,185 kills belongs to Krystal Osborne (1994-97).

Double Effort

With her 11th double-double of the season--33 assists and 12 digs against Tennessee--Raymariely Santos tied her single-season best in the category. Last season, she also had 11 double-doubles. Santos now has 25 career double-double performances.

First-Time Foes

For the first time in program history, the Razorbacks saw the Texas A&M Aggies on the other side of the net when the two Western Division teams met Oct. 12. Texas A&M is the sixth first-time opponent for Arkansas this season, along with Houston Baptist, Northwestern State, ULM, UMBC and UTEP.

Career High for Anderson

With 16 kills in a four-set win at Ole Miss, Amanda Anderson established a new career high. Anderson had just one attack error and hit .625 against the Rebels. Her previous best of 15 kills was set during her freshman season against Auburn. During the Florida-Ole Miss trip, Anderson had 3.57 kills per set, a .455 hitting percentage and 1.14 blocks per set.

1,000 (Again) for Norton

Jasmine Norton recorded her 1,000th career SEC kill in Arkansas' win at Ole Miss. With a match-high 18 kills against the Rebels, her current SEC total stands at 1,015 kills. Norton's overall career total is currently 1,584 kills.

Bollinger Equals Career High

In Arkansas' four-set win at Ole Miss, freshman Monica Bollinger equaled her career best with 12 digs. She previously had 12 digs in the SEC opener against Florida. Through the first seven conference matches of the year, Bollinger is averaging 1.88 digs per set.

Keeping Pace With Each Other

With their respective performances at Ole Miss, Jasmine Norton and Raymariely Santos registered double-doubles in the same match for the sixth time this season. Most recently, against the Rebels, Norton had 18 kills and 12 digs while Santos totaled 52 assists and 10 digs.

Three-Headed Monster

In its' four-set win over LSU, the Arkansas offense featured 15 kills from Roslandy Acosta and Janeliss Torres-Lopez and 14 kills from Amanda Anderson. The trio registered a collective .446 hitting percentage, including a career-high .700 figure by Torres-Lopez.

Running the Show

Raymariely Santos had her ninth double-double of the season with 47 assists and 14 digs in Arkansas' win over LSU. She added five kills, four total blocks and two aces and set the Razorbacks to a .310 hitting percentage against the Tigers. It was Arkansas' fifth match with an offensive output of .300 or higher.

Nice Start

With their Sept. 28 win against Auburn, the Razorbacks improved to 12-3 through their first 15 matches of the season. This year's team is now tied with the 1997 team for the second-best record in program history through 15 matches. The 1998 team was 13-2 through its first 15 matches.

Balanced Attack

Six players had at least five kills in Arkansas' three-set win over Auburn. Roslandy Acosta led the way with 10 kills and was joined by Amanda Anderson with eight, Raymariely Santos and Janeliss Torres-Lopez with seven, Jasmine Norton with six and Liz Fortado with five.

Strong SEC Start

Through five SEC matches, the Razorbacks have three players ranked inside the top 10 for hitting percentage. Janeliss Torres-Lopez leads the SEC with a .471 hitting percentage in league play, while Amanda Anderson is fourth at .407 and Roslandy Acosta is ninth at .357. Acosta is also 15th with 3.16 kills per set in SEC-only matches.

Defender of the Week

Behind 1.57 blocks per set during Arkansas' weekend sweep at No. 21 Tennessee and Georgia, Janeliss Torres-Lopez was named the SEC Defensive Player of the Week. She helped the Razorback defense limit the opponents to a .117 hitting percentage. Offensively, Torres-Lopez also hit .419 with 2.29 kills per set.

Getting It Done in Knoxville

The Razorbacks began their SEC road slate with a four-set win at No. 21 Tennessee. The victory was Arkansas' first against the Lady Vols since the 2007 season. That season was also the last time the program knocked off a ranked team.

First Line of Defense

Arkansas tied its season high with 16 total blocks in its four-set win at No. 21 Tennessee. Individually, Amanda Anderson had a match-high eight total blocks, Janeliss Torres-Lopez had seven total blocks and Liz Fortado and Jasmine Norton each tallied five total blocks.

Another Milestone

With an ace in the second set at No. 21 Tennessee, Jasmine Norton recorded her 100th career service ace. She became the 10th player in program history to reach the milestone and the first to do so since Denitza Koleva joined the club in 2006.

Packing Barnhill

The Sept. 14 crowd of 3,015 fans at Barnhill Arena more than doubled the old school mark, previously established at 1,407 fans last year against Colorado State. Three of the top 10 attendance figures in school history have been posted this season. After the match, the Razorback faithful held a pep rally for the Arkansas football game the next day vs. No. 1 Alabama.

An Elite Number

With her first kill against No. 13 Florida, Jasmine Norton became just the third player in program history to total 1,500 career kills. She joins a list that includes Denitza Koleva (1,595 kills) and all-time leader Krystal Osborne (2,185 kills).

Hot-Hitting Roslandy

Roslandy Acosta continued her strong start to the 2012 season with a .437 hitting percentage during the week, including an .800 mark (13-15) against UMBC at the adidas/Michigan Challenge. Through the first two weeks of the season, she had double-digit kills in six of seven matches with a .300 hitting percentage in five of seven matches.

Tournament Tested

Four of the last five opponents--Tulsa, Central Michigan, Michigan and Oklahoma--for Arkansas competed in the 2011 NCAA Tournament. Central Michigan lost in first round to Illinois, Oklahoma and Tulsa faced off in the first round and Michigan advanced to the regional semifinal round of last year's championship event.

Norton Reaches 1,400

With her 10th kill of the match against Tulsa, senior outside hitter Jasmine Norton became the fifth player in program history to reach 1,400 career kills. She ended the night with a match-high 14 putaways. With her weekend numbers at the adidas/Michigan Challenge, Norton moved into fourth place on the program's all-time kills list.

Downright Defensive

Against Tulsa, the Razorback defense tallied 65 digs in the team's straight-set win. Junior libero Emily Helm led the charge with a match-high 22 digs, including 14 in the second set. Entering the adidas/Michigan Challenge, Arkansas is third in the SEC with 17.43 digs per set and, individually, Helm is fifth with 5.07 digs per set.

Career-High Efficiency for Acosta

With 10 kills on 16 attempts and just one error against Tulsa, senior outside hitter Roslandy Acosta posted a career-high .562 hitting percentage, surpassing her previous best of .500 (8-0-16) set last year vs. South Carolina.

Arkansas Invitational Champions

In front of 1,208 fans at Barnhill Arena, the Razorbacks beat Kansas in four sets to win the season-opening Arkansas Invitational. In addition to their win over the Jayhawks, Arkansas registered wins over Northwestern State and UT-Martin during the weekend.

All-Tournament Team

Roslandy Acosta (3.73 k/s, .315 hitting pct.) was named the MVP of the Arkansas Invitational and was joined on the all-tournament team by Jasmine Norton (3.64 k/s, 3.82 d/s) and Raymariely Santos (10.36 a/s, 2.45 d/s).

Fifth Place for No. 5

With 20 kills against Kansas, Jasmine Norton moved into fifth place on Arkansas' career kills list. She moved past Denise Baez (1994-96).

Fans Show Up in Support

During the Arkansas Invitational, the Razorbacks played in front of home crowds of 1,265 vs. UT-Martin and 1,208 vs. Kansas, the fourth- and ninth-largest attendance numbers in program history.

Preseason All-SEC Team

For the third consecutive year, Jasmine Norton was selected to the Preseason All-SEC Team. Voted on by the league's head coaches, Norton is one of nine players on the team overall, along with being one of three seniors and two from the SEC West.

SEC Preseason Coaches' Poll

Arkansas was picked to finish third in the SEC Western Division in the 2012 preseason coaches' poll, behind Texas A&M and LSU, respectively. The top three teams in the division were separated by just seven points.

Freshman Class Ranked 26th

The 2012 incoming class for the Razorbacks was ranked No. 26 by PrepVolleyball.com's Top 30 annual list. The ranking is the highest in program history by the publication. Arkansas' latest recruiting class includes Monica Bollinger, Liz Fortado, Ana Sofia Jusino, Summer Morgan and Adrien Wohlschlaeger.

The Roster: Returners

The Razorbacks return 10 letterwinners from last season, including five starters and the starting libero. The list of returners includes Roslandy Acosta, Christa Alvarez, Amanda Anderson, Kasey Heckelman, Marci King, Hayley Koop, Jasmine Norton, Clarissa Pavey, Raymariely Santos and Janeliss Torres-Lopez.

The Roster: Newcomers

Arkansas' roster will feature eight newcomers with the addition of junior transfers Emily Helm, Avery Lewis and Ashley Vazquez; and freshmen Monica Bollinger, Liz Fortado, Ana Sofia Jusino, Summer Morgan and Adrien Wohlschlaeger.

The Staff

Head coach Robert Pulliza returns to the sidelines for his fifth season at the helm of the Razorback volleyball program. He is joined by assistants Carol Price-Torok, in her fifth season, and Anders Nelson, in his first season at Arkansas. The 2012 staff also includes volunteer assistant Ethan Pheister and Director of Operations Blaire Hiler.

On the Small Screen

As part of the SEC Volleyball TV package, Arkansas will make three television appearances in 2012. The Razorbacks are set to host LSU (Cox Sports) on Sept. 30 and Kentucky (Sport-South) in a Nov. 11 match at Barnhill Arena, and play at LSU (ESPNU) on Nov. 21 during the final week of the regular season.

Representing the USA

Head coach Robert Pulliza and senior outside hitter Jasmine Norton represented the USA at the 2nd Annual China-USA Challenge. During the July tour of China, the USA/BIP Development Team competed against the top clubs from Liaoning, Shanghai and Tianjin.

Six Spot

Through the first three seasons of her Razorback career, Jasmine Norton totaled 1,350 kills, good for sixth place on the program's all-time kills list. She began the 2011 season in 14th place on the all-time list and registered 403 kills during her junior campaign.

The University of Arkansas added one of the nation's top recruiters to its athletic staff when Robert Pulliza was introduced as the head coach of the Razorbacks on July 11, 2008. Pulliza, who is one of just a handful of coaches in the country to play and coach in the Final Four, became the second head coach in program history. As a player, Pulliza was a two-year captain for the Ball State men's volleyball team and helped lead the Cardinals to the NCAA Final Four in 1994 and 1995. Then as an assistant coach at Wisconsin, Pulliza helped guide the Badgers to the Final Four during the 2000 season.

Heading into his fifth season at Arkansas, Pulliza spearheaded the program's recruiting efforts that brought in the No. 26 recruiting class in the nation in 2012, according to PrepVolleyball.com's Top 30 annual list. The ranking is the highest in program history by the publication. Only three SEC teams were ahead of the Razorbacks in the rankings. This marks Pulliza's fourth recruiting class.

Having completed his fourth season with the Razorbacks in 2011, Pulliza continued to guide his team toward joining the nation's elite. At season's end, Arkansas owned an 18-13 overall record-its highest win total since 2005-and a 10-win Southeastern Conference tally-the most by the program since the league went to the double round-robin format. The Razorbacks finished second in the SEC Western Division and fifth overall, the team's best conference finish since the 2005 season.

Pulliza's effect on the Arkansas program can also be measured by the team's reflection in the Rating Percentage Index (RPI). When he took over in 2008, the Razorbacks were ranked No. 140. However, the team reached a season-high No. 56 in October 2011.

Pulliza engineered the turnaround with just three recruiting classes under his belt. Among that collective group of players, he has an AVCA All-American in Norton, three All-SEC performers with Jasmine Norton, Amanda Anderson and Raymariely Santos and an Olympian in Roslandy Acosta.

As part of its non-conference schedule, Arkansas claimed a pair of tournament titles with victories at the Deacon Invitational in Winston-Salem, N.C., and the West Point Challenge in New York. The Razorbacks' record to start SEC play (8-3) was the sixth-best in program history.

Arkansas also posted a pair of all-time offensive performances with a .430 hitting percentage against South Carolina and .421 mark against McNeese State. The team's effort against the Gamecocks is tied for the fifth-highest percentage in school history and the fourth best in an SEC match. The Razorbacks' figure against McNeese State ranks as the ninth-best hitting percentage in program history.

Individually, Norton, a preseason All-SEC selection, and Kelli Stipanovich capped their respective seasons by earning All-SEC honors. Norton was named to the All-SEC First Team and Stipanovich, the fourth all-conference performer under Pulliza, was named to the All-

SEC Second Team. For the first time since 2003, Arkansas had two players on either the league's First- or Second-Team. Norton added to her collection of honors with a selection to COBRA Magazine's Midsouth All-Region Team.

Using a fast-paced offense and building a home schedule that featured five teams to play in the 2011 NCAA Tournament, Pulliza built a fan-friendly brand of volleyball that brought in the fans. The Razorbacks' 2011 home attendance grew to a program high for the third consecutive season. In the season opener, a program-record 1,407 fans were in attendance as Arkansas hosted No. 15 Colorado State. By season's end, the Razorbacks had played in front of four of the top-10 home crowds in the storied history of Barnhill Arena. Eight of the top-10 home attendance figures have come during the past two seasons.

In addition to his success at the collegiate level, Pulliza has also gained international experience with the Puerto Rico and USA National Team programs.

Most recently, Pulliza continued his international outreach in July 2012 where he served as the head coach for the USA/BIP Development Team at the 2nd Annual China-USA Challenge. During the tour, Pulliza and his team, which included Norton, competed against the professional teams from Liaoning, Shanghai and Tianjin.

In the spring of 2010 and with Pulliza on staff, the Puerto Rico Youth National Team won the bronze medal at the NORCECA Girls' Youth Continental Championship. The top-three finish ensured a trip to the 2011 FIVB Youth World Championship in Turkey. In February 2010, Pulliza was part of the coaching staff that took the Puerto Rico Junior National Team to Lima, Peru, to compete in the Summer Cup.

Pulliza who is in his second season as a member of the AVCA Postseason Awards Committee for the South Region has been actively involved in the community during his stay in Fayetteville. Along with his wife, he established the Robert and Jamie Pulliza Opportunity Scholarship in 2009.

In a further show of his dedication to the University and community, Pulliza is a member of the Athletic Director's Council on Diversity. In 2012, El Latino, an Arkansas Times publication, named Pulliza to the Who's Who list of the Latino Community in the state of Arkansas.

Pulliza came to Fayetteville after stops at Kentucky (2006-08), Texas (2001-04), Wisconsin (1999-2001), Northern Illinois (1998) and James Madison (1996-97).

A native of San Juan, Puerto Rico, Pulliza is a 1996 graduate of Ball State with a degree in general studies. Pulliza received his master's degree in athletics administration and coaching in 1998 from James Madison University. His wife, Jamie, is a speech pathologist.
