Quoting Head Coach Nell Fortner

On South Alabama . . .

"They are a really athletic team, they can push the ball and they are a nice 3-point shooting team — we remember that from last year and they have not let off the pedal since. We have to be ready for a motion offense where they push the ball with a lot of cutters to the basket and shooters spotting for 3s. They are tough to defend."

On what she hopes to see in last two games before finals . . .

"I would like to see some real consistency, better free throw shooting and taking better advantage of opportunities we create off our defense. I also want to see this team really start to come together and bond, and start establishing their identity."

On the full-team effort in the last game . . .

"We are trying to play an up-tempo style of basketball where you are pressing and running, and you are going to need fresh legs to play that tempo a lot. It gives us an opportunity to play a lot of kids and as long as we can keep a steady, consistent effort, we can do that."

TAMPA - Playing on the road for the first time this season, the Auburn women's basketball team struggled from the field, shooting 29 percent, as South Florida pulled out the 67-49 win. Junior Chantel Hilliard scored 16 points off the bench to lead the Tigers in the loss.

South Florida scored 22 of the first 25 points of the game, taking a 22-3 lead with 12:01 to go in the first half. The Tigers were able to get back on their feet, out-scoring USF 21-14 during the rest of the period to cut the Bull lead to 12 at halftime, 36-24.

Auburn came out of the locker room on a mission, scoring the first eight points, four from Hilliard, to cut the lead to four in the first three minutes of the second half, forcing USF to call a timeout at the 17:23 mark. That would be as close as the Tigers would come, though, as the Bulls came out of the timeout scoring the next four points to put its lead back to eight.

Led by 10 second-half points each from Hilliard and senior Jordan Greenleaf, Auburn was able to keep the South Florida lead in single digits for most of the remainder of the half.

A Hilliard layup cut the lead to seven with 7:58 to play, but that is as close as Auburn would get in the final minutes as USF's Andrea Smith answered with a 3-pointer, one of her eight on the night, to build the lead back to 10 with 6:47 to go.

Smith's 3-pointer opened up a 16-5 USF run to finish the game, building the lead back to as much as 19 points as the Bulls cruised to the 67-49 win. Smith would go on to score a game-high 33 points.
