TIGER BITES

The Auburn Volleyball team is in its 22nd year of existence and holds an all-time record of 333-332 for a .501 winning percentage... Head Coach Laura Farina is in her sixth season with the team and holds a 52-99 (.344) record at Auburn... Last season the Tigers finished with a 13-18 record and were 5-15 in SEC play, finishing sixth in the SEC West... Auburn returns six letterwinners, four starters, from 2006 and welcomes nine newcomers.

ON THE SCHEDULE THIS WEEK

The Tigers continue SEC play this weekend with matches against Tennessee (Friday, 7 p.m.) and Kentucky (Sunday, 1:30 p.m.). Both matches will be played at Auburn's Beard-Eaves Memorial Coliseum.

SERIES HISTORY

Tennessee holds a 17-9 all-time advantage against Auburn and has won the last 12 matches. Auburn's last win against the Volunteers was at home in 1998 in a sweep. Kentucky holds an 18-9 advantage over Auburn with the Tigers winning four of the past five meetings.

FOLLOW THE ACTION LIVE

Fans that cannot make it to the match have a few options to follow the Tigers this weekend. GameTracker for both matches will be available at AuburnTigers.com. A video Webcast will also be available from AuburnTigers.com/AllAccess. The Webcasts are a subscription-based service.

UP NEXT FOR THE TIGERS

Auburn continues SEC play next weekend with home matches against LSU (Friday, 7 p.m.) and Ole Miss (Sunday, 1:30 p.m.). Both matches are at Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum.

LAST TIME OUT

The Tigers are coming off a 1-1 weekend, opening SEC play at South Carolina and Florida. Auburn opened SEC play with a win for the first time since 1999 in a 3-2 victory over the Gamecocks on Friday. The Tigers then fell in a sweep to No. 6-ranked Florida on Sunday.

LAST SEASON VS. TENNESSEE

Jessica Glover led the team with 20 kills and 20 digs as Auburn lost 3-1 (21-30, 30-28, 28-30, 21-30) to the No. 17-ranked Volunteers in Auburn. Whitney Jacob chipped in 14 kills in the loss. The Tigers took another 3-1 loss (22-30, 30-27, 18-30, 27-30) to Tennessee in Knoxville in the season finale. Rachel Shanks led the team with 20 kills and 14 digs. Glover posted another double-double in the match with 10 kills and 18 digs.

LAST SEASON VS. KENTUCKY

Auburn pulled out a 3-2 win over Kentucky in one of its many five-game matches of the season, rallying from being down two games to win 23-30, 28-30, 30-28, 30-24, 15-12 in Auburn. Three Tigers picked up double-doubles in the match, led by Rachel Shanks with 20 kills and 11 digs. She was followed by Jessica Glover (15 kills, 17 digs) and Whitney Jacob (16 kills, 11 digs). UK earned the 3-2 (21-30, 30-24, 20-30, 30-25, 13-15) win in the meeting in Lexington. Shanks led the team with 24 kills and 13 digs, followed by Glover with 10 kills and 27 digs. Jelena Sekulic set the Auburn single-match record for digs with 36 in the match.

1,000 KILLS... AND COUNTING

At the 14-5 mark in Auburn's win over Kennesaw State, senior Rachel Shanks picked up her second kill of the match and the 1,000th of her career. She becomes only the 10th player in Auburn's history to pull off the feat and still has the rest of the season to build on it.

Currently, she is ninth all-time at Auburn in career kills with 1,060. Shanks is also nearing the 1,000 mark in career digs as she currently has 947. If she reaches the 1,000 digs mark, she will become only the fourth Tiger ever to make both lists.

OPENING WITH A WIN

Auburn took down a couple losing streaks in the SEC opener against South Carolina. With the 3-2 win, the victory marked the first win over USC since the 1995 season at the first win in Columbia since 1994. The win is also Auburn's first victory in a SEC-opener since 1999.

IRON WOMAN

Coming into this weekend, Auburn senior Whitney Jacob has started in 95 consecutive matches - every match played since she enrolled at Auburn. The Coppell, Texas native started in all 27 matches as a freshman, 24 as a sophomore and 31 as a junior. She has now started in all 13 matches this season.

SHANKS AND JACOB MAKE UTSA CLASSIC ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Leading Auburn to second place at the UTSA Classic, seniors Rachel Shanks and Whitney Jacob earned spots on the all-tournament team.

Shanks finished the tournament with 34 kills, five aces, five blocks and 31 digs. Jacob led the team in hitting with a .218 attack percentage. She also had 25 kills, six aces and five blocks.

JACOB NAMED TO ALL-TOURNAMENT TEAM

Following her performance at the University of Denver Invitational volleyball tournament, Auburn's Whitney Jacob was selected to the all-tournament team.

The Coppell, Texas native was the most efficient Tiger, hitting .362 in the three matches with 27 kills in 58 attempts with only six errors. The senior also had four service aces, six digs and 11 total blocks over the weekend.

Crouch, a libero, currently leads the team in digs with 3.68 per game. Auburn is now 4-2 in season-opening matches under head coach Laura Farina and 5-1 when they open the season at home. For their performance the opening-weekend's War Eagle Invitational, three Auburn players earned their way on to the All-Tournament team. Rachel Shanks led the way, being named Most Outstanding Player and making the team for the fourth year in a row - a distinction that only she holds. Shanks averaged five kills per game over the course of the two-day tournament. Also on the team were fellow seniors Whitney Jacob and Jelena Sekulic. Jacob led the team, hitting .357 with nine aces while Sekulic finished with 38 kills, hitting .273, including a career-high of 21 kills against TSU.

SISTER-TO-SISTER

Fans attending the Nicholls State match got to see something you do not see very often as redshirt-freshman setter Sara Shanks found her older sister, Rachel, in back-to-back points, picking up the assists for her older sibling. With Auburn leading 19-12 in game three, Sara came in for Nicki Gerig and set four of the next five Tiger points, including two to her older sister.

YOUTH AND EXPERIENCE

The starting lineup in Auburn's season-opener against Troy illustrated the mix of youth and experience that head coach Laura Farina is working with right now. Of the seven Tiger starters (six players + libero), three were freshmen, three seniors and one junior. Auburn won the season-opening match, 3-1.

SCOUTING TENNESSEE

Tennessee enters the 2007 season with 12 letterwin-

ners and three starters from its squad last year that went 19-12 (10-10 SEC), finishing third in the SEC East. The Volunteers are coached by 11th-year head coach Rob Patrick who is 216-110 in his 11 season in Knoxville.

The Volunteers were picked to finish third in the SEC East with 25 points in the pre-season coaches poll.

Tennessee split in its opening weekend of SEC play, falling in a sweep to Alabama before beating Mississippi State, 3-1. The Volunteers have definitely been battle-tested this season, opening up against top-ranked Nebraska, losing 3-0, and following up with a 3-2 win over No. 21 Utah.

COACH FARINA ON TENNESSEE

“Tennessee has some solid experience in the middle, they are very big, very good at blocking. We’re going to have to be prepared to set very well against a block and defend it very well.”

COACH FARINA ON KENTUCKY

“Kentucky’s middles have had a very solid season. Their setter is in her second year and is much more experienced in using their hitters. They are well trained, we are going to have to play a very solid match against them.”

GOING TO THE BENCH

With so much youth on this year’s team, one of the challenges is working the new players into playing rotations. Only eight matches into the season, Coach Farina has already worked every healthy Tiger into at least one game to allow them some real-time playing experience.

COMING BACK STRONG

Even with all the new faces around the Auburn volleyball team this season, the Tigers bring back a strong core from last year’s team. With six returning players, including four that were starters, Auburn brings back 76% (1,338 of 1,726) of its kills, 77% (1,512 of 1,957) of its digs and 53% (253 of 473) of its blocks from the 2006 season.

AUBURN VOLLEYBALL PICKED FIFTH IN PRESEASON POLL

The Auburn University volleyball team was voted to finish fifth in the SEC Western Division for the second consecutive year by the league’s head coaches, conference officials announced Tuesday, Aug. 14.

In 2006, the Tigers finished with a 13-18 record, going 5-15 in SEC play to finish sixth in the SEC West. AU returns seven players from last season’s squad, four of which were starters, and brings nine newcomers to the team for the 2007 season.

In-state rival Alabama tops the SEC West with 14 points and is followed closely by LSU at second with 17 points. Arkansas comes in at third (28), followed by Ole Miss (36) and Auburn (47). Mississippi State rounds out the division in sixth with 53 points. In the SEC East, Florida comes out on top with 10 points while also earning the distinction of being the favorite to win the SEC overall crown with 10 of 11 possible first-place votes.

AUBURN NETWORK TO BROADCAST 12 VOLLEYBALL MATCHES IN 2007

For the fourth-straight year, the Auburn Network will broadcast play-by-play coverage of Auburn Volleyball, carrying 12 matches in 2007. Of the 12 matches, 11 are at home with the lone road broadcast being the Nov. 4 match at Alabama. Ben Taylor returns for his third season behind the microphone, calling the play-by-play.

WADE BENSON JOINS AUBURN STAFF

Wade Benson, the head volleyball coach at Eastern Washington University the past seven seasons, has been named an assistant coach at Auburn, announced head coach Laura Farina Friday. Benson replaces Liz Underwood, who accepted a head coaching position at Lee-Scott Academy in Auburn in June.

Under Benson’s direction, EWU won three Big Sky Conference regular-season titles (2002, 2003, 2004) and a Big Sky Tournament title in 2001. The 2001 title gave the Eagles a berth in the NCAA Tournament and a victory over Oregon State, equaling the highest advancement in league history. Benson tallied a .737 winning percentage. Prior to coming to Eastern, Benson was the head coach at Western Oregon where he put together a 42-7 record and finished third in the NAIA Championship.

Head Coach Laura Farina

Beginning her sixth season leading the Auburn volleyball program is Laura Farina. Named the Tigers' eighth head coach on March 29, 2002, the 38-year-old Farina is in the process of returning the program back to the prominence it once enjoyed during late 1990's.

Farina's rebuilding process took a major step toward solidifying the foundation during the 2004 campaign as the Tigers collected six conference wins, the most for the Tigers since the 1999 season.

Auburn's trip to the SEC post-season was also its first since 1999 as the Tigers battled eventual SEC Tournament Champion Tennessee through a tough four-game match.

Throughout the course of the season, Farina's recruits began to show why they were so highly sought after with the culmination coming in late November when then-freshman Whitney Jacob was named to the SEC's All-Freshman team.

In 2006, Farina led the Tigers to 13 wins, the most for her as Auburn's head coach and the most for the team since the 2000 season. Highlighting the season was a sweep over Alabama on Sept. 22 in front of 1,211 fans at Beard-Eaves Memorial Coliseum, giving her Farina her first career win over the Tide.

Also during the 2006 season, Farina produced Auburn's first CoSIDA/ESPN The Magazine Academic All-American in nearly 15 years as Rachel Shanks picked up third-team honors for her work both in the classroom and on the court. Shanks was also named SEC Volleyball Scholar-Athlete of the Year, making her the first AU volleyball player to earn the honor.

In her second year as head coach, she guided the Tigers to an incredible nine-win turnaround, posting 10 wins following consecutive one-win seasons for the program. With the change in record was a renewed enthusiasm for Auburn volleyball.

Farina came to the Plains after a three-year stay at Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wisc., where she took over a Golden Eagle team that had won just 11 matches in the year prior to her first year on the job. During her stint in Milwaukee, her teams collected two 18-plus win seasons as well as two sixth-place finishes in Conference USA. Farina's first year at the helm in 1999 saw MU go 18-13 for a .581 winning percentage, the best by a Marquette team since 1985. The Golden Eagles' 9-7 C-USA record also represented MU's highest number of conference wins since joining the league in 1995.

The Strasburg, Ill., native has coached a SEC All-Freshman selection, seven All-Conference USA players, one all-region selection and 15 of her players have earned all-academic honors during her tenure.

Prior to her arrival at Marquette, Farina spent six seasons (1993-98) at Michigan State where she served as the first assistant coach.

During her time with the Spartans, Farina helped build a program that won Big Ten Championships in 1995 and 1996, made five consecutive NCAA Tournament Championships (1994-98) and was a NCAA national semifinalist in 1995. She developed and implemented the team's national recruiting strategy that enabled the Spartans to land six Fabulous 50 recruits during that span.

Farina went to Michigan State after a year as a teacher and coach of the Mile High Volleyball Club in Denver, Colo.

During the summer of 1998, she toured Europe with the American Management Group (AMG), which exposed college players to international volleyball.

Farina, the former Laura Bush, led Illinois to four straight NCAA Tournament appearances as a player including back-to-back trips to the national semifinal in 1987 and 1988.

A two-time Academic All-American, Farina was also named to the AVCA/Russell All-America Second Team in 1989. She was named the Illinois Female Athlete of the Year in 1990 and still ranks among the top 10 in several Illini all-time categories, including career aces and digs.

A 1992 graduate of the University of Illinois, Farina earned her bachelor's degree in English.

While pursuing her master's degree in student affairs administration from Michigan State, which she received in 1998, she was a 1995 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship recipient. Farina was also selected as a role model for the NCAA Student-Athlete Leadership Conference in May of 1997.
