JEFF LEBO vs. LSU

Auburn's Jeff Lebo is 2-7 against LSU as a head coach with two consecutive wins. However, Lebo was 7-2 against the Tigers as an assistant.

JEFF LEBO & TRENT JOHNSON

This is the first time Auburn's Jeff Lebo has coached against LSU's Trent Johnson.

MATCHUP OF SEC'S HOTTEST TEAMS

The Auburn at LSU game Saturday is a matchup of the two hottest teams in the SEC. LSU has won seven straight games and 10 of its last 11 while Auburn is on a four-game winning streak, its longest in SEC play since 2003.

LSU, whose only SEC loss came in the league opener at Alabama on Jan. 11, has a three game lead over five teams for the SEC regular season championship.

A SWEEP OF A SERIES

The series between both Tigers has been swept by either team in seven of the last 10 years. LSU has done it four times and Auburn three.

Both teams have split the season series last two seasons.

Auburn has swept the season series from LSU in 1999, 2001 and 2004 while LSU has returned the favor in 2000, 2002, won all three in 2005 and swept in 2006.

The only three years in the past 10 the teams have split came in 2003, 2007 and 2008.

included Alabama's Demetrius Jemison and Mikhail Torrance, Mississippi State's Brian Johnson, Lipscomb's Eddie Ard and Texas-Pan American's Paul Stoll.

In addition, Auburn's Quantez Robertson and LSU's Chris Johnson were teammates at Laurinburg (N.C.) Prep in 2004-05 in helping the team to a perfect 40-0 record and the prep school National Championship.

4 OF 5 ON THE ROAD

Auburn is in the midst of playing four of five games on the road as the Tigers won at Georgia 71-59 Wednesday in Athens to begin the stretch.

The Tigers play at LSU on Saturday before returning home to face Ole Miss on Feb. 25. Auburn completes the road swing bookends with games at Mississippi State on Feb. 28 and at Alabama on Mar. 3.

LAST TIME OVER .500 IN SEC THIS LATE?

Auburn is over .500 in SEC play this late in the season for the first time since 2002-03 when the Tigers were 6-3 on Feb. 8, 7-5 on Feb. 22 and 8-7 on Mar. 5.

The Tigers advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16 that season before losing a 79-78 heartbreaker to eventual NCAA Champion Syracuse in Albany, N.Y.

17 WINS - WINNING SEASON

Auburn has guaranteed itself of its second winning season in three years. The Tigers equalled the most wins in the five-year Jeff Lebo era with their 17th win of the season at Georgia on Wednesday. The Tigers went 17-15 (7-9 SEC) in 2006-07.

5 STRAIGHT SEC WINS?

Auburn is on a four-game SEC winning streak for the first time since the 2002-03 season when they started league play 4-0 en route to reaching the Sweet 16 of the NCAA Tournament.

With a win vs. LSU, Auburn would have won five straight SEC games for the first time since winning eight straight in the 1998-99 SEC Championship season.

MOST HOME WINS?

Auburn is 14-3 in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum this year and is one win shy of equal-ling the season record for home wins set in the 1998-99 and 2006-07 seasons.

Here is a listing of the top home win totals in the 41-year Coliseum history:

- 15-0 (1998-99)
- 15-5 (2006-07)
- 14-3 (2008-09)
- 14-1 (1999-2000)

FRANKIE SULLIVAN: SEC FROSH OF THE WEEK

Auburn's Frankie Sullivan was named SEC Freshman of the Week on Feb. 16 after averaging 10.0 points and 3.0 assists in the Tigers' wins over Arkansas and Mississippi State.

The Uniontown, Ala., native scored an SEC-high 14 points in 27 minutes off the bench in Auburn's 91-76 victory over Mississippi State on Feb. 14.

Sullivan totaled six points, four assists and a steal in only 18 minutes as Auburn completed a season sweep of Arkansas on Feb. 11. His insertion into the lineup helped the Tigers turn a 10-point second half deficit into a comfortable 75-62 come-from-behind victory over the Razorbacks.

Sullivan is averaging 7.1 points in only 19.3 minutes this season while shooting 40.9 percent from the field and 34.5 percent from 3-point range.

STATS IN 4 GAME WINNING STREAK

Since Auburn's listless 78-59 loss at Ole Miss on Feb. 4, the Tigers have won four consecutive games over Tennessee, Arkansas, Mississippi State and at Georgia. It is Auburn's longest SEC winning streak since the first four games of the 2002-03

REBOUNDING A BIG KEY

Auburn has been outrebounded in seven of its nine losses and is 1-7 in games on the year when it has been outrebounded. The only game the Tigers won that they were outrebounded in came in a 77-72 victory over Alabama State.

The only two losses on the season when Auburn outrebounded its opponents came at South Carolina (41-34) and vs. Northern Iowa (31-30).

The Tigers are 16-2 on the year when outrebounding its opponents.

FREE? THROWS

Auburn ranks last in the SEC shooting 59.7 percent from the foul line this year. Bad free throw shooting has cost the Tigers in four of their losses this year.

12th NATIONALLY IN STEALS

As of Monday's NCAA rankings, Auburn ranks 12th nationally and is second in the SEC averaging 9.3 steals per game. Three Tigers rank third through 10th in the SEC rankings led by DeWayne Reed in third with 2.0 steals per game, Tay Waller in seventh with 1.54 and Quantez Robertson in ninth with 1.50 steals per game.

Auburn ranks 38th nationally and third in the SEC with a +2.7 turnover margin.

4-YEAR STARTERS?

Not one four-year player in Auburn history has started every game in his career. Senior Quantez Robertson has started all but one of his 116 career games. He was close to becoming the first until he arrived late to the gym and did not start in the win vs. Tennessee Feb. 7, his 113th game at Auburn.

Robertson, who was at the barber, has never missed a game, practice, pre-season practice or workout in his career.

Bill Alexander (1967-70), John Mengelt (1968-71) and Odell Mosteller (1981-83) are the only Tigers who have started every game of their careers since records were kept in the late 1960s.

However, Alexander (76 starts) and Mengelt (77 starts) only played three varsity seasons because NCAA rules did not allow freshmen to play varsity. Mosteller only played two seasons at Auburn in his 56 starts.

PLAYER NOTES

BARBER SHOP • DOUBLE-DOUBLE AVERAGE IN SEC PLAY

Korvotney Barber is the only player in the SEC who is averaging a double-double in league play and one of only 11 players in BCS conferences to average a double-double in league play this year.

He is averaging 12.5 points and 11.2 rebounds in SEC games only.

As of Feb. 18, 2009, Barber is one of 11 players in BCS conferences who are averaging double-doubles in their respective leagues:

In all games, Barber ranks second in the SEC averaging 9.5 rebounds per game, is sixth in the league shooting 54.3 percent from the floor, leads the SEC with 3.5 offensive rebounds per game and is 20th averaging 12.6 points.

Barber has eight double-doubles on the season and 16 total in his career and has had a career-high 18 rebounds in three different games this year vs. South Carolina, at Arkansas and at Georgia.

He made the game-winning layup with four seconds remaining to upset Tennessee on Feb. 7.

Last year, he was leading the nation shooting 72.0 percent from the field when he broke his left hand three minutes into Auburn's Dec. 29, 2007, game vs. Towson and missed the rest of last season.

SPEED REED

DeWayne Reed is averaging team-highs of 13.1 points, 4.0 assists and is tied for third in the SEC with 2.0 steals per game.

He had career-high tying 22 points at Kentucky, 16 points, six rebounds and six assists at Arkansas, 19 points vs. Alabama and 21 points at South Carolina after having back-to-back 20 point games vs. Tulane and Southeastern Louisiana.

Reed flirted with a triple-double with 16 points, seven rebounds and six assists vs. Mississippi State on Feb. 14.

The Houston, Texas, native made the game-winning 3-pointer in Auburn's 58-56 victory at Virginia on Dec. 20 and made the game saving block of a UVa. 3-point attempt with five seconds remaining.

He had back-to-back game-highs with a career-high 22 points when Auburn only scored 59 points in a one-point loss to Dayton in overtime and followed that up with 21 points when Auburn scored 61 points vs. Northern Iowa.

Virgil Starks, who served as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Support Services at Auburn, passed away suddenly Nov. 8.

Starks, 46, joined the Auburn Athletics Department in September 1998. A native of Hartselle, Ala., Starks succumbed to cardiac arrest while returning home after the Auburn football game against Tennessee-Martin.

The Auburn basketball team is wearing the logo above on their jerseys in memory of Virgil Starks.

A fund in memory of Virgil Starks has been established in the Tigers Unlimited Foundation at the Auburn University Athletics Department. Check should be made payable to Tigers Unlimited Foundation, in memory of Virgil Starks. Checks can be mailed to TUF, P.O. Box 351, Auburn, AL 36831-0351.

MANCHESTER MATES

Manchester (Ga.) High School has been good to Auburn as two of the Tigers' top leading scorers, Korvotney Barber and Tay Waller, were teammates there.

Waller made a dramatic recovery of the basketball, dribbled over midcourt and assisted a Barber layup with four seconds remaining to give the Tigers a 78-77 victory over Tennessee on Feb. 7.

The duo is combining for 34.8 percent of Auburn's scoring and 33.1 percent of the Tigers' rebounding by averaging 25.0 points and 12.2 rebounds per game.

Barber is averaging 12.6 points, is second in the SEC with 9.5 rebounds per game, is sixth in the league shooting 54 percent from the field, leads the SEC with 3.5 offensive rebounds per game and is 20th averaging 12.6 points.

Waller is averaging 12.4 points, is second in the SEC with 75 made three-point field goals and is third in the league shooting 36.1 percent from behind the arc.

T(R)AY WALLER

Tay Waller is averaging 26.0 points and shooting 52.2 percent (12-of-23) from 3-point range in Auburn's last two games.

He ranks third in the SEC shooting 36.1 percent from 3-point range and is second in the league with 75 made 3-pointers.

The Manchester, Ga., native scored a career-high 32 points by making a career-high 8-of-12 three-pointers in the win vs. Mississippi State on Feb. 14. Five of his 3-pointers came in the first 4:20 of the game.

3 OR MORE 3s FOR T(R)AY?

Auburn is 9-2 on the season when Tay Waller makes three or more 3-pointers in a game. When the Manchester, Ga., sharpshooter makes fewer, the Tigers are 8-7 on the year.

In SEC play only, Auburn is 4-1 when Waller makes three or more treys and is 2-4 when he makes fewer.

BARRETT 16th IN CAREER SCORING

Senior Rasheem Barrett now has 1,272 career points and is 16th in all-time scoring at Auburn. He is 60 behind Doc Robinson for 15th, 62 behind Gary Redding for 14th and 114 behind Aaron Swinson and Lee DeFore for 12th.

BARRETT BUCKETS

Rasheem Barrett is averaging 12.8 points in Auburn's SEC games this year after averaging only 6.0 points in non-conference play.

He scored a career-high 29 points, making 5-of-10 three-pointers, against Vanderbilt on Jan. 31.

The following Saturday, he scored 18 first half points en route to a game-high 27 points to lead Auburn to a 78-77 victory over Tennessee on Feb. 7.

COOL HAND LUKE

Lucas Hargrove is averaging 9.0 points (72) and 5.5 rebounds (48) in Auburn's last eight games while shooting 44.4 percent (8-of-18) from 3-point range.

Hargrove had a season-high 14 points, making 5-of-7 field goal attempts, to go along with eight rebounds vs. Arkansas Feb. 11.

He had 10 first half points and seven rebounds in the win vs. Tennessee on Feb. 7.

The Pontiac, S.C., native totaled 11 points, six rebounds and three assists vs. Vanderbilt on Jan. 31 while making 3-of-4 three-pointers.

He has had a career-high 10 rebounds at Virginia and at Georgia.

FRANKIE GOES HOLLYWOOD

Freshman Frankie Sullivan earned SEC Freshman of the Week honors on Feb. 16 after scoring an SEC-high 14 points in the win vs. Mississippi State on Feb. 14. He also had four rebounds, two assists and a steal in 27 minutes.

He made his first collegiate start at Ole Miss on Feb. 4 and responded with an a then SEC-best 12 points against the Rebels.

Sullivan is averaging 7.1 points in only 19.3 minutes per game this year.

He scored a career-high 23 points in only 23 minutes off the bench to go along with six steals in Auburn's 81-74 loss at Xavier Dec. 3.

The Uniontown, Ala., native scored 17 of his points in the second half, including 13 straight for the Tigers as they cut a 22-point Xavier lead down to six.

Sullivan went 6-of-9 from the field, including 4-of-6 from 3-point range and a perfect 7-of-7 from the foul line.

FORT KNOX

In the two games prior to going scoreless at Georgia Wednesday, Brendon Knox averaged 7.0 points and 3.5 rebounds.

He totaled back-to-back SEC-highs of six points, four rebounds in 15 minutes and a season-high two blocks vs. Arkansas Feb. 11 and then had eight points and three rebounds vs. Miss. State on Feb. 14.

He had scored only three points total in Auburn's first eight SEC games.

SENIOR TIGER TRIO STARTERS

Auburn's senior trio of Quantez Robertson, Korvotney Barber and Rasheem Barrett has started all but 43 combined games (including 17 this year plus 20 last year with Korvotney Barber injured) of the 116 games they have played in during the last four seasons.

Robertson has started all but one game (Tennessee, Feb. 7, 2009) in his Tiger career, while Barber has started 92 of 96 games that he has played and Barrett has started 78 of 114 games.

Here is a listing of games started to games played in their careers:

	Started	Played	Pct.
Q. Robertson	115	116	.991
K. Barber	92	96	.958
R. Barrett	78	114	.684

LAST TIME OUT

Auburn 71, Georgia 59 (Feb. 18, 2009, in Athens, Ga.)

Auburn scored 22 straight points midway through the first half and held Georgia to only seven points for the first 14:29 as the Tigers won their fourth consecutive game in a 71-59 victory over Georgia Wednesday in Stegeman Coliseum. It was the Tigers' largest margin of victory in Athens since 1977. Tay Waller led the Tigers for the third straight time with a game-high 20 points and Korvotney Barber added 11 points and a career-high tying 18 rebounds, his eighth double-double of the season. Waller scored 12 of Auburn's first 20 points as the Tigers jumped out to a 38-9 lead with 5:20 to go in the half as Auburn made 11 of its first 15 shots while Georgia was only 2-of-18 from the field. The Tigers led 45-19 at the half while shooting 50 percent (17-of-34) from the field and 46.7 percent (7-of-15) from 3-point range. Auburn outrebounded Georgia 27-15 behind 11 first half rebounds by Korvotney Barber. Auburn, which had 10 offensive rebounds, also had a 14-3 edge in points off turnovers while forcing the Bulldogs into 10 and only committing five in the first 20 minutes. With Auburn leading 49-22 with 15:36 remaining in the game, Georgia went on a 32-5 run to close to within 60-54 with 4:12 left with the help of four 3-pointers by Dustin Ware and Trey each from Ricky McPhee and Troy Brewer. Auburn only scored 12 points in the first 15 minutes after intermission. Auburn missed all six of its 3-point attempts in the second half while Georgia made 8-of-17 (.471). Auburn had lost three straight games to Georgia and five of the previous six and was the Tigers first in Athens since 1999. It was the Tigers' second straight win when facing a SEC Eastern Division team. The Tigers have won four straight SEC games for the first time since starting league play in 2002-03 with four consecutive wins. Auburn is over .500 in league play for the first time this late in the season since that same year when the Tigers reached the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16, losing to eventual National Champion Syracuse by one point. The win guarantees Auburn of its second winning season in three years and equals the most wins in a season for Lebo at Auburn with the 2006-07 Tigers. Ware led Georgia with 14 points, all in the second half, Trey Thompkins had nine points and Terrance Woodbury, who was coming off a career-high 32 point performance in the win vs. Florida Saturday, was held to seven points on 2-of-10 shooting from the field.

LAST TIME vs. LSU

LSU 81, Auburn 80 (Jan. 30, 2008, in Auburn, Ala.)

Marcus Thornton scored a career-high 38 points and drilled a pair of 3-pointers in the final 55 seconds to help LSU earn its first SEC win in an 81-80 victory over Auburn in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. Quan Prowell tied a career-high with 26 points to lead Auburn. DeWayne Reed's 3-pointer gave Auburn an 80-75 lead with 1:19 to play but Thornton, who went 8-of-15 from 3-point range, closed the gap to 80-78 on his trey with 55 seconds left. Reed then had a layup blocked with :41 left but Lucas Hargrove blocked a layup by LSU 6-foot-11 center Chris Johnson with :26 remaining. Auburn's Quantez Robertson missed the front end of a one-and-one with :21 left after Auburn was a perfect 14-of-14 from the foul line for the game. Thornton made the game-winning 3-pointer with 3.8 seconds left with the 6-foot-6 Hargrove contesting the shot. Prowell stepped on the end line throwing in the ball but Anthony Randolph, who finished with 21 points, missed the front end of a one-and-one. Frank Tolbert's desperation halfcourt shot before the buzzer fell short. Auburn scored the first 10 points of the game, but Thornton put LSU up 12-10 with four 3-pointers and then tied the game at 15 on his fifth 3-pointer with 13:16 left in the first half. There were 15 lead changes and nine ties in the game. Thornton fell six points short of tying the opponent scoring record in the Coliseum set by LSU's Pete Maravich (44) in 1969.

LAST TIME vs. LSU in Baton Rouge
Auburn 74, LSU 67
(Jan. 16, 2008, in Baton Rouge, La.)

Auburn came back from a 17-point deficit to win its first SEC game of the season in a 74-67 victory at LSU in the Maravich Assembly Center. Sophomore DeWayne Reed scored a career-high 20 points to go along with five assists and three steals to lead Auburn while Frank Tolbert added 16 points and a game-high nine rebounds. LSU jumped out to a 17-2 lead six minutes in and led 24-7 lead with 6:26 left in the first half before Auburn began to chip away. Auburn cut it to 10 points with 4:54 left in the half and to 28-26 with two minutes remaining before settling for a 32-28 halftime deficit. LSU pushed its lead to nine at 43-34 almost seven minutes into the second half before Auburn caught fire again. A 9-0 Auburn run tied it for the first time at 43 with 10:46 to play. There would be a total of eight ties and five lead changes over the next seven minutes. Auburn took its first lead of the game at 51-49 on a 3-pointer by Lucas Hargrove with 8:54 to go. With LSU leading 61-60 with 3:48 left, Auburn went on the game-deciding 11-0 run. Reed's 3-pointer from the corner gave Auburn a 67-61 lead with 2:15 left and Quan Prowell made a pair of free throws followed by a Rasheem Barrett layup for a 71-61 Auburn lead with 59 seconds remaining. Since being down by 17 points, Auburn outscored LSU 67-43 the rest of the way. Auburn shot a torrid 69 percent from the field in the second half, including 56 percent (5-of-9) from 3-point range.

Marcus Thornton led LSU with 27 points and Garrett Temple added 17.

QUOTING JEFF LEBO (On LSU)

"The main thing about them is they are experienced. They have five seniors. Two of those seniors started on their Final Four team. Tasmin Mitchell back healthy now with them is obviously a difference maker for them. They can score a variety of areas with (Marcus) Thornton on the perimeter and Mitchell inside and out. They have a great shot blocker inside in Chris Johnson, who I think is just a few blocks away from (Mississippi State's Jarvis) Varnado (who is leading the NCAA in blocks). They have been winning without Bo Spencer, who is probably one of the most improved players in the league ... him and DeWayne Reed at the point guard position. You look at their experience and their toughness, and they really defend. They are really committed to the defensive end. It is hard to get a lot of shots against them, and they are playing very well at home. They are 17-1 at home."

(On Marcus Thornton scoring 38 points at Auburn last year)

"He made them every which way that you can make shots. He's had a lot of big games against everybody. He is just a great player. I think he is a prototype NBA two guard who can score on the dribble, get it going offensively. He is tough. He leads them in the ability to get to the foul line. He can score quickly, 8-10-12 points in two minutes. He's had some big games, and he has really, really hurt us in the past. What makes him so hard to defend is he has good size, and he can shoot it kind of leaning back kind of like Tay (Waller). But, he is a little bit bigger and stronger and better taking the ball to the basket."

(On the Georgia win)

"The first half we were awfully good. Offensively and defensively, it was good to see. We are playing pretty well right now. We have to be good offensively. That is what makes the difference for us. It was fun to watch that first half. It was probably one of the best halves of basketball, obviously, that we have played this year. It is probably one of the best halves of basketball that Auburn has played since I've been here. To do it on the road is big."

(On Korvotney Barber)

"He has been terrific rebounding the ball. Defensively, he is our best defensive player, best, most savvy defensive player understanding what we want. I think he is in better shape now, and he's been a little bit more physical. I still think offensively, and I tell him this all that time, that he leaves 8-10 points on the court every night. I just think he can be consistent making foul shots, and he still misses a couple of easy ones around the bucket. He can be getting 16 points a night. He was terrific on the defensive boards last night. He has been so active there, pulling down balls in traffic and going and getting balls out of his area. He has really had a good senior year for us, and I am happy for him."

(What allows Korvotney Barber to go against guys who are bigger?)

"His athleticism and his quickness. He has a good nose for the ball. He can rebound out of his area. The ball doesn't have to come right to him to go get a defensive rebound. The other thing about him is he is such a quick jumper. He can make multiple jumps. There are a lot of guys who can go after it once that if they don't get it, they are done. He can go one, two, three quickly off the floor back up and keep the ball live and go get a rebound. That is just a talent that he has always had. He has always been a pretty good rebounder."

(On Frankie Sullivan)

"Toughness. He was really good defensively (against Georgia). He is getting better defensively. He is getting through screens. He understands scouting reports pretty good for a freshman. He makes adjustments out there quickly in a game, and he also gives us an added scorer out there. He can shoot the ball. He has good savvy, and he is a winner. He is tough, tough as nails ... mentally and physically. He brings a lot and obviously has some leadership characteristics for a young kid. I think he really wants to do more with that but he is just a freshman. So, he knows he has to wait his turn a little bit."

(Is it a surprise to see such an impact from Frankie as a freshman?)

"We saw intangible things with him. He is a winner. He has won a lot of state championships. His demeanor on the court, when we watched him play in high school, was that of a winner. He wasn't afraid to take the big shot or make the big play. He was always coaching on the floor. He always had an heir about him as a leader, and that is what you like to see. He is very, very coachable ... very coachable. He fell to the ground before the Georgia game in practice right on his back and head and popped up and most guys maybe would have been done for a week. He popped right back up and didn't want to let anybody know that if it did hurt, that they saw him hurt at all."

(On Auburn with the 4-game winning streak)

"They are confident. That's one thing. They believe in themselves. Offensively, I think we have been consistent. When we make shots, it gives us energy to defend on the other end. That's an area where we have been way better. If you look at us where we are in the SEC in defense, field goal percentage defense and points compared to the last couple of years we are much better there. They have bought into that a little bit. We are still deficient in some areas but we try to cover those up pretty well to date."

(On Auburn playing well on the road this year)

"Besides one (at Ole Miss), I think we have battled pretty hard. Our experience and you have to have good guards when you go on the road. We have experienced guards in Quantez (Robertson) and DeWayne Reed has been through it and two other seniors in Rasheem (Barrett) and Vot (Barber) have played on the road so that's been helpful. Tay (Waller) has just been terrific. When you get them off the gate early, it seems to be a big key for us. I enjoy playing on the road. When I was playing, that was more fun than playing at home to me. It is much more difficult maybe."

(Have you talked to your team about postseason?)

"I think it is too early yet. I think they know about it, but it's still not there yet to talk about it much right now. Our focus right now with our staff and our team is staying the course and the old cliché of one game at a time. That is what you have to do. We can control a little bit here, but we can't control who picks them in the end. This is how we can control it by each game."

(On building off the Tennessee win with the 4-game winning streak)

"Our bench has been much better. We have three guys coming off the bench who have added a lot to us. Anytime you beat a team like Tennessee that was picked to win the SEC, it gave us some energy and it gave us some momentum and we have built upon that pretty well. We have won different ways. The last couple of games we came from behind and the last game that we had, we had a big lead that we had to hang on to at the end. Our rotation has been good. Our minutes have been good and have been down for our players. We seem to be in a nice area and a nice groove right now for our team. I think they understand where they are going to play and what is expected of them. We still don't have Johnnie Lett in there, and he is one of our big guys. Maybe it has helped our rotation a little bit with our kids off the bench."

SEASON NOTES

LIVE NEW ARENA CONSTRUCTION WEB CAM

NEW ARENA OPENING 2010-11

The official groundbreaking of the new $92.5 million Auburn basketball arena and practice facility was on Aug. 29, 2008, and the arena will open prior to the 2010-11 season.

The arena, with an approximate capacity of 9,600, will include over 29,000 square feet of student-athlete space, a two-court practice facility, coaches offices, the Auburn University Athletic Ticket Office, an AU Team Store, the relocated Lovelace Museum, two food courts along with many other amenities.

360 Architecture of Kansas City, Mo., has been working with Davis Architects of Birmingham on the design of the arena. The firm of Robins & Morton of Birmingham will serve as construction manager. The 243,792 square foot facility will be built on campus north and west of the existing Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum on Roosevelt Drive, across the street from the Student Activities Center parking lot.

The new arena will feature chair back seats along with bleacher seating for students. The building also will provide improved facilities for the student-athletes, including men's and women's locker room suites with sports medicine facilities, lounges and team meeting rooms. Along with a strength and conditioning center, a two-court practice facility will enable the men's and women's teams to practice simultaneously and while the arena is in use for other purposes.

The arena will have 12 luxury suites on the arena level that will not only open inside the facility, but will also open on the outside of the arena for multiple entertaining opportunities throughout the year. Loge box seating will also be available as well as on-site food preparation.

The seating configuration will offer better sight lines and will move fans closer to the court. The furthest seat will be just 43 feet in elevation from courtside, compared to 60 feet in elevation at Beard-Eaves, with two-thirds of the seats in the new facility being less than 27 feet in elevation from courtside.

The scoreboard will feature a high-definition video board with full message/information center technology. For the student fan amenities, there will be a private entrance, a private courtside commons and food court and courtside seating that permits standing with unobstructed views.

The new facility will serve as more than a sports complex. With over 12,000 square feet of banquet/entertainment space, its design affords ready adaptation into a site for concerts, other cultural events, convocations and other community gatherings. On-campus student housing is being constructed adjacent to the new arena creating a unique "student village" experience.

Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum is entering its 41st year of service to the University, while the new arena will be Auburn's fifth home arena in the 104 years of basketball. The Tigers other arenas have been The Gymnasium (1906-16), Alumni Gym (1916-48) and the Sports Arena (1948-69).

360 Architecture has been selected to design the new Oakland A's stadium and has designed the Miami Heat's American Airlines Arena, NHL's Columbus Blue Jackets' Nationwide Arena, the University of Missouri's Mizzou Arena and the Sprint Center in Kansas City, Mo.

NOTES FROM THE WIN AT ARKANSAS
JAN. 24

- The Razorbacks' worst loss in the 16-year Bud Walton Arena history.
- The Tigers' largest margin of victory in an SEC road game since 1999.
- The sixth largest league road win in history.
- Auburn made eight of its first 10 three-point attempts in the first 13 minutes of the game to take a 31-21 lead.
- After Arkansas drew to within 54-49 on a Michael Sanchez layup with 9:22 to play, Auburn went on a 19-2 run to end the game.
- The win was only Auburn's third win, all by double digits, in Fayetteville in 18 tries with this 22-point victory being the largest margin.
- The win was Coach Jeff Lebo's second largest margin of victory in an SEC game, with the 81-57 win over No. 12 Alabama in 2007 being the largest.

COLISEUM RECORD LOW POINTS

Auburn allowed its fewest points in the 41-year history of Beard-Eaves-Memorial in the 75-32 victory over Tuskegee on Dec. 17. Tuskegee's 32 points were the fewest an Auburn opponent scored since a 55-23 victory over Oglethorpe on Feb. 12, 1948.

7 POINTS IN ONE POSSESSION

In Auburn's 85-71 victory over Alabama on Jan. 17, the Tigers scored seven points in one possession while the Tide had only six total points for the game at the time. Here it is:

With 15:51 remaining in the first half and Auburn holding a 13-6 lead on Alabama, Auburn's DeWayne Reed stole the ball from Alabama's Mikhail Torrance, drove down the court, was intentionally fouled on a layup ... that went in (for two points). Reed then made the two foul shots (from the intentional foul). The Tigers then had possession and Auburn's Frankie Sullivan made a 3-pointer all for a seven point possession for the Tigers. With only nine seconds elapsed from the clock, Auburn increased a 13-6 lead to 20-6.

2008 FALL SIGNEES

- Robert Chubb, 6-10, 220, C Peachtree City, Ga. (Montverde Academy, Orlando, Fla.)

Chubb attended McIntosh High in Peachtree City, Ga., where he averaged 14 points and 10 rebounds as a junior last season. He transferred to Montverde Academy in Orlando for his senior season.

- Kenny Gabriel, 6-8, 200, F Charlotte, N.C. (Paris, Texas, JC)

Gabriel signed with Auburn last year out of United Faith Christian Academy in Charlotte, N.C., but he went to Paris (Texas) Junior College for this season. He will have four years to play three seasons at Auburn. Gabriel averaged 22 points, 12 rebounds and three blocks as a senior at United Faith Christian last year and 17 points and eight rebounds as a junior. He is averaging 15.2 points and 8.5 rebounds per game, leading Paris to an 8-0 record to start the season.

- Andre Malone, 6-5, 202, G Atlanta, Ga. (South Atlanta)

Malone, who is ranked as the 19th best shooting guard in the country by Rivals.com and the 74th best player overall, averaged 16.6 points, 9.0 rebounds, 2.9 steals and 2.1 assists as a junior at North Clayton High in College Park, Ga., last year. He will play his senior season at South Atlanta High.

- Earnest Ross, 6-5, 215, G Cary, N.C. (Panther Creek)

In the prestigious Glaxo Smith Kline Invitational from Dec. 26-30, he won the scoring title by leading all scorers in the tourney with 79 points in three games. The tournament had 20 plus future D-I players including signees of North Carolina, Duke, Memphis, N.C. State, South Carolina and Miami. He has led his team to a conference championship and a 22-2 record. Panther Creek was ranked No. 1 in state in Class 4A for six consecutive weeks. He was voted the Player of the Year in the conference while averaging 21 points and 8 rpg on the season. Ross averaged 26 points, 10 rebounds and five assists per game last year as a junior at Panther Creek High.

TIGERS IN BEMC

In its 41st year of play in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum, Auburn boasts a 290-114 record (.718) over the past 25 seasons. Overall, the Tigers are 377-176 (.682) since their first season in the Coliseum in 1968-69. Only five times in the 41-year history of the arena has Auburn experienced a losing record at home. The Tigers are 14-3 at home this season.

AUBURN TRIPLE-DOUBLES?

Never in the 103 seasons and 2,235 games of Auburn Basketball (1195-1039-1) (.535) has a Tiger recorded a coveted triple-double.

OVERTIME RECORD

Auburn has a 44-43 (.506) record in overtime games in its history. The Tigers last overtime game was a 60-59 loss to Dayton in the Chicago Invitational on Nov. 28, 2008. Auburn is 0-1 in overtime games this year.

AUBURN'S POSTGAME PROCEDURE

The Auburn locker room is closed. Coach Jeff Lebo and selected Tiger players will be brought to the interview room after the 10-minute "cooling off" period.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Auburn returns home for its only home game in a five-game span as it faces Ole Miss (14-11, 5-6) on Wednesday at 7 pm Central. The Rebels routed the Tigers 78-59 in Oxford on Feb. 4 behind 19 points from freshman Terrico White. David Huer-tas ranks fourth in the SEC averaging 19.0 points per game and is second in the league shooting 36.2 percent from 3-point range. White adds 11.6 points per game and shoots 36.2 percent from 3-point range. The Rebels defeated Tennessee 81-65 Wednesday behind 21 points from White and 18 points and 13 rebounds from Murphy Holloway. Ole Miss had lost two straight at Vanderbilt and at LSU after winning three consecutive over Kentucky, at Mississippi State and Auburn. The Rebels play host to Georgia Saturday prior to playing at Auburn.

Auburn, Ala.

Tay Waller scored a game-high 27 points in only 21 minutes to lead Auburn to a 98-50 exhibition victory over Morehouse College. Waller made 7-of-12 shots from 3-point range as part of 10-of-16 shooting from the field while not playing the final 12:18 of the game. Quantez Robertson added 19 points making all four 3-pointers attempted, and had 10 rebounds and 5 assists in 31 minutes. Auburn led by as much as 51 at 92-41 with 3:56 left. The Tigers pulled away in the final five minutes of the first half as they increased a 24-15 lead to as much as 46-19 before settling for a 46-22 halftime edge. Auburn led 71-31 with 13:29 left in the game and the lead never dipped below 40 points the rest of the way. For the game, Auburn shot 51 percent from the field (39-of-76) and 46 percent from 3-point range (15-of-33) but was poor from the foul line shooting 36 percent (5-of-14). Morehouse College was led by Kenney Boyd's 21 points and 10 rebounds as the Maroon Tigers were held to 36 percent shooting from the field, 22 percent from 3-point range and were outrebounded 47-35.

Auburn 75, Missouri State 50
November 14, 2008
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Korvotney Barber tied a career high with 22 points to lead Auburn to a 75-50 victory over Missouri State before 5,148 in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum Friday in the season opener for both teams. The Tigers used an 11-2 run to take a 63-53 lead with 5:14 to play after the Bears closed to within 52-51 with 9:13 left. Missouri State could only get to within 67-60 with just under two minutes to play before Auburn scored the final eight points of the game. The first half was much like the second half as the Tigers broke open a 27-25 lead with two minutes left by scoring the final seven points to take a 34-25 lead at the break. Auburn bridged the two halves together with a 12-0 run to go up 39-25 less than two minutes in. Trailing 45-33, Missouri State outscored Auburn 15-3 to close to within 50-48 at 10:49 as the Bears made seven of their first nine 3-pointers of the second half. That's when Auburn's defense took over as it forced three straight Missouri State turnovers that led to three consecutive Auburn layups by DeWayne Reed, Brendon Knox and a dunk by Tay Waller. Barber finished the game shooting 10-of-14 from the floor and 2-of-3 from the foul line to go along with five rebounds, two blocks, an assist and steal. Waller added 14 points on 4-of-8 three-point shooting for the Tigers, Hargrove had 13 points, five assists and three rebounds, Brendon Knox 10 points and three rebounds off the bench and Quantez Robertson seven points, seven rebounds and four assists. Chris Cooks led Missouri State with 18 points and Spencer Laurie added 14 points and six rebounds while Cardell McFarland had 14 points and three rebounds. Auburn had 20 assists on its 28 made field goals and outscored Missouri State 42-14 in the paint.

Mercer 78, Auburn 74
November 19, 2008
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Chicago Inv. 1st Round • Auburn, Ala.

James Florence scored a game-high 25 points as Mercer outrebounded its way to a 78-74 upset of Auburn in the Chicago Invitational first round in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. The Tigers were outrebounded 46-21 by the Bears and only made 6-of-14 foul shots in the second half, including a poor 2-of-8 in the final 7:20 after Auburn took a 67-65 lead. Atlantic Sun Conference member Mercer improved to 2-0 against the SEC Western Division as it won at Alabama 72-69 four days prior. Tay Waller led Auburn with 22 points on 6-of-13 three-point shooting but missed several minutes down the stretch with cramps. Korvotney Barber had 17 points and three blocks while DeWayne Reed added 11 points, five assists and zero turnovers and Quantez Robertson 10 points, five assists and a game-high six rebounds. Waller scored the first basket of the game and then Florence made a foul shot and Emerson a jumper to give Mercer a lead that they didn't relinquish until Robertson made a pair of free throws for a 30-28 lead with 4:39 left in the half. The Bears led by as much as 13-4 five minutes in and had its largest lead at 22-12 before the Tigers used an 8-1 run to get back into the game. Leading 44-40 at the half, Mercer pushed its lead to 47-40 on a conventional 3-point play by Calvin Henry. Auburn then scored eight straight points for a 48-47 lead with 18:16 left and the margin never went above more than three points either way until a Florence three-pointer to give Mercer a 72-68 lead with 4:11 left. The Tigers trailed 73-68 with 2:29 remaining but were down only 76-74 with nine seconds left and had the ball. Robertson drove the length of the court and missed a contested shot in the lane that went out of bounds under the glass with five seconds left. The official under the glass pointed Auburn's direction and then the official by midcourt over-ruled him by calling a charge on Robertson. After an Auburn foul, Calvin Henry sank two foul shots to seal the game. The Tigers only committed seven turnovers while forcing 19 Bears turnovers.

Auburn 83, George Washington 71
November 22, 2008
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Auburn came back from a 15-point halftime deficit to double up George Washington in the second half for an 83-71 victory in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. Tay Waller scored 19 points and Frankie Sullivan had 17 points on 4-of-7 three-pointers to lead the Tigers. It was a tale of two halves as the Tigers trailed 44-29 at intermission after the Colonials shot 57 percent from the field and 59 percent (10-of-17) from 3-point range. In the second half, Auburn limited George Washington to only 33 percent shooting from the field and 22 percent (2-of-9) from 3-point range. Auburn outscored George Washington 54-27 in the second half mostly by turning a 51-41 deficit almost six minutes into a 54-53 Tiger lead, capping a 12-3 Auburn run on a Tay Waller 3-pointer with 10 minutes to play. It was Auburn's first lead since 20-17 with eight minutes in the first half. Trailing by one, Auburn went on an 8-1 mini-run to go up 64-57 with six minutes left. After GW closed to within two a minute later, Auburn scored eight straight points for a 72-62 lead, the last bucket on Waller's fifth 3-pointer of the game with 2:43 remaining. The final minutes were a stark contrast from the 78-74 loss to Mercer when Auburn missed 6-of-8 free throws in the final 7:20. Against George Washington, Auburn drained 14-of-17 foul shots in the final 4:15 as the Colonials started fouling intentionally with three minutes to play. After being outrebounded by 25 against Mercer, the Tigers had a 37-26 edge on the Colonials even after being outrebounded by three at the half.

Auburn 61, Bethune-Cookman 46
November 25, 2008
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Chicago Inv. 2nd Round • Auburn, Ala.

DeWayne Reed scored 14 points and Quantez Robertson added 12 points to lead Auburn to a 61-46 victory over Bethune-Cookman in the Chicago Invitational second round in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. The Tigers outscored the Wildcats 15-6 to open the second half to push their lead to 43-22 with 11:44 remaining. Auburn enjoyed its largest lead at 56-33 on a Frankie Sullivan 3-pointer with 4:38 left before Lebo emptied his bench. Tay Waller, who came into the game as Auburn's leading scorer with an 18.3 points per game average, was held scoreless as he missed all six of his shots taken, all from 3-point range, and only one of them coming in the second half. Korvotney Barber, who was averaging 16.7 points, was hampered by foul trouble as he scored only eight points in 24 minutes while being saddled with four fouls. Robertson added eight rebounds and two assists to his stat line while Lucas Hargrove had nine points, five rebounds and five assists in 28 minutes. Brendon Knox chipped in eight points and seven rebounds in 18 minutes off the bench while Frankie Sullivan was also strapped with three fouls and scored six points by going 2-of-3 from 3-point range in only 17 minutes. Bethune-Cookman was led by Jarrell Thomas' 16 points and John Holmes' 13 points and seven rebounds. A Johnnie Lett layup put Auburn ahead to stay at 4-2 and the sluggish Tigers grew their lead to 28-16 at the half.

Chicago Invitational Third Round
Sears Centre • Hoffman Estates, Ill.

Despite DeWayne Reed's career-high 22 points, including 21 in the second half, Auburn lost to Dayton 60-59 in overtime in the Chicago Invitational third round at the Sears Centre. The Flyers set a NCAA record by missing all 24 three-point attempts but outrebounded the Tigers 60-43 while Auburn made only 12-of-26 free throws. Auburn held Dayton to only two points over the final 5:13 of regulation but could only muster four points themselves as the game was forced into overtime. Neither team scored in the final 3:13 of regulation after a Korvotney Barber dunk tied it at 47. The overtime period was nothing like the game as Dayton outscored Auburn 13-12 in the extra five minute period. Reed scored nine of the Tigers overtime points. The Flyers scored the first three points in overtime, but a Reed 3-pointer tied it for the seventh and final time at 52-52 with 1:50 to play. Dayton scored the next four points to hold a 56-52 edge with 34 seconds remaining. A Tay Waller 3-pointer brought the Tigers to within 56-55 with 20 seconds left. Dayton's Marcus Johnson made a pair of free throws and then the Flyers fouled Reed to put him at the line for a one-and-one. Reed made both foul shots with 11 seconds on the clock. Johnson made another pair of free throws with four seconds remaining and Dayton again fouled Reed to send him to the line for a one-and-one with 1.6 seconds remaining. Reed made the first and tried to miss the second on purpose by shooting a 10-foot high rainbow, but ironically, it went in. Dayton made 16-of-18 foul shots, including 15 straight, in the second half and overtime combined after going only 4-of-13 from the charity stripe in the first half to finish 20-of-31 for the game. Auburn only led for 34 seconds in the entire game when a Lucas Hargrove layup gave the Tigers their only lead at 14-13 with 8:25 left in the first half.

November 29, 2008
Chicago Invitational Final Round
Sears Centre • Hoffman Estates, Ill.

Auburn lost to Northern Iowa 67-61 in the final round of the Chicago Invitational at the Sears Centre as DeWayne Reed once again led the Tigers with a game-high 21 points. Auburn had an 18-6 run to turn an 11-7 deficit into a 25-17 lead with 4:27 left in the first half as a pair of Tay Waller 3-pointers contributed to it. The Tigers held a 28-20 lead with 3:18 remaining in the half on a Brendon Knox jumper, but Northern Iowa scored the final eight points of the half to tie the score at 28-28. With the score tied at 34, the Panthers scored 10 straight points to take their largest lead of the game at 44-34 just over six minutes into the second half. Eight points by Reed helped bring the Tigers to within 46-44 with 10:55 left. Northern Iowa pushed the margin back up to nine at 58-49 with 2:27 remaining, but the Tigers still had life left as a Reed layup closed it to within 64-58 with 35 seconds left. Rasheem Barrett then stole the ball and missed a 3-pointer from the right baseline that would have cut the lead in half with 28 seconds on the clock. Korvotney Barber recorded his first double-double of the season with 11 points and 10 rebounds while Tay Waller added 10 points. 7-foot-1 center Jordan Eglseder had 10 points and 10 rebounds for Northern Iowa, Ali Farokhmanesh scored a team-high 14 points and Johnny Moran added 13 points.

#14 Xavier 81, Auburn 74
December 3, 2008
Cintas Center
Cincinnati, Ohio

B.J. Raymond scored a career-high 32 points to lead No. 14 and undefeated Xavier to an 81-74 victory before 9,648 in the Cintas Center. Raymond made 7-of-9 three-point shots for the Tigers after making 6-of-8 against them last season in Auburn. Freshman Frankie Sullivan put on a show as he brought Auburn back from a 22-point deficit at 56-34 with 11:36 left to within 74-68 with 52 seconds remaining. Sullivan scored 13 straight points for the Tigers during the comeback stretch. Sullivan scored a team-high 23 points in only 23 minutes off the bench to go along with a career-high six steals for Auburn. He shot 4-of-6 from 3-point range. A Sullivan 3-pointer closed Auburn to within 29-26 with 90 seconds left in the first half but back-to-back 3-pointers by Raymond and a pair of free throws allowed the Musketeers to score eight straight points to lead 37-26 at the half. Xavier scored the first five points after intermission and another Raymond trey put the Musketeers up 48-28 two and a half minutes into the second half. The rest of the Tigers shot 3-of-17 from 3-point range as Xavier shot 54 percent from the field, 57 percent (13-of-23) from 3-point range but a poor 61 percent (22-of-36 from the foul line. Auburn shot 77 percent from the foul line and forced 22 Xavier turnovers and had 12 steals.

Auburn 78, Louisiana-Monroe 55
December 6, 2008
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Auburn had a school record 21 steals and forced 29 turnovers in a 78-55 win over Louisiana-Monroe in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. Korvotney Barber led the Tigers with 18 points and six rebounds in 28 minutes while going 8-of-11 from the field. Tay Waller added 15 points on 3-of-6 three-point shooting, DeWayne Reed had 14 points and four assists and Lucas Hargrove 11 points, six rebounds and four steals. Quantez Robertson totaled seven assists, five rebounds, five steals and three points. Auburn outscored the Warhawks 27-11 in points off turnovers and limited them to 36 percent (16-of-44) shooting from the field and 38 percent (8-of-21) from 3-point range. Auburn shot 48 percent (30-of-62) from the field, 29 percent (6-of-21) from 3-point range and 46 percent (12-of-26) from the foul line. After Louisiana-Monroe scored 10 straight points to cut Auburn's lead to 58-48 with 8:54 remaining, Auburn used a 10-0 run of its own to make a 61-50 game into a 71-50 lead on a Brendon Knox dunk with 3:37 to play. The Tigers and Warhawks were tied 19-19 10 minutes into the game, but the Tigers exploded on a 20-4 run to take a 39-23 lead with 2:44 left before settling for a 40-26 halftime lead. Malcolm Thomas led Louisiana-Monroe with 18 points, all scored in the first half, and Jarvis Hill, a former Auburn signee, added 17 points and eight rebounds. Auburn outscored Louisiana-Monroe 28-2 off the bench and 38-8 in the paint.

Auburn 75, Tuskegee 32
December 17, 2008
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Auburn held Div. II Tuskegee to the fewest points in the 41-year history of the Coliseum and the fewest for an Auburn opponent in 61 years in a 75-32 victory in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. Auburn, which was coming off a 10-day layoff, scored the first 11 points of the game and didn't allow Tuskegee to score until six minutes in. In the first half, the Tigers led by as much as 27-7 before settling for a 30-11 half-time lead. Auburn scored the first four points of the second half and led 34-11 before Tuskegee scored eight consecutive points to come within 34-19 with 16:24 left in the game. Leading 49-28, Auburn went on a 21-2 run to take a 70-30 lead with 1:23 remaining. Korvotney Barber led five Tigers who scored in double figures with 14 points and seven rebounds in only 19 minutes. This was the second game of historical significance for Auburn this year as Dayton set a NCAA record by going 0-of-24 from 3-point range in a 60-59 overtime victory for the Flyers in the Chicago Invitational Nov. 28.

Auburn 58, Virginia 56
December 20, 2008
John Paul Jones Arena
Charlottesville, Va.

Tay Waller and DeWayne Reed made back-to-back 3-pointers in the final two minutes and Reed blocked a game-winning 3-point attempt to give Auburn a 58-56 victory at Virginia before a raucous crowd of 11,070 at John Paul Jones Arena. Virginia scored 12 straight points to turn a 50-42 deficit with 9:15 remaining into a 54-50 lead with 4:45 left. The two teams then traded baskets with Virginia going up 56-52 with 4:02 left on a Sammy Zeglinski jumper, which turned out to be Virginia's final points of the game. Auburn had its largest lead ahead by 13 points at the 18:24 mark of the second half. After Virginia battled back to regain the lead, Auburn answered with a 3-pointer by Waller to draw the Tigers to within 56-55 with 2:16 left. Waller was 1-of-9 from behind the arc before the shot. Korvotney Barber, who led the Tigers with team-bests of 14 points and a season-high 13 rebounds, stole the ball from Virginia's Mike Scott on the ensuing possession. It was Barber's second double-double of the season. The Tigers then turned the turnover into what was the shot of the game by Reed, who drained a 3-pointer to give Auburn the lead for good at 58-56 with 1:24 remaining. Virginia had two more possessions to tie or take the lead but Zeglinski, who scored all nine of his points in the second half, had his game-winning 3-point attempt blocked by Reed on the right baseline with four seconds on the clock. Auburn opened the game with a 9-2 run less than three minutes in, and Virginia only led for two seconds in the first half at 12-11. A pair of Sylvan Landesberg free throws tied it at 21 with 6:02 left in the half, but the Cavaliers wouldn't score again as the Tigers closed on a 11-0 run for a 32-21 halftime advantage. In fact, Virginia didn't score a field goal in the final 7:48 of the first half and a point in the final 4:02 of the game. The Tigers outrebounded the Cavaliers 44-30, including a whopping 14-2 advantage on the offensive glass. Auburn had a 12-0 advantage in second chance points. Virginia was led by Landesberg's game-high 22 points, including 10-of-14 shooting from the foul line. Auburn played the game without a pair of players in guard Frankie Sullivan and forward Brendon Knox. Sullivan did not make the trip as he was attending the funeral of his cousin who died tragically in an automobile accident.

Auburn 77, Alabama State 72
December 22, 2008
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Auburn scored 17 straight points and forced eight consecutive turnovers to erase an 11-point deficit in the final 8:33 to claim a 77-72 victory over Alabama State. Auburn won its fourth straight game and trailed 54-43 with 8:33 remaining before it started to inch back into the game. Trailing 59-51 with 5:47 remaining, the Tigers went on their 17-0 run in just over three minutes to take a 68-59 lead on a Tay Waller 3-pointer with 2:25 left. Alabama State did not attempt a shot from the field during the span. Alabama State has lost to Auburn, Ole Miss and Mississippi State by a combined 18 points. The Hornets used an 11-0 run midway through the first half to take a 21-15 lead on a Rashad Provitt 3-pointer. Auburn scored six straight to tie the game at 21 but Alabama State scored another eight straight points to go up 29-21 before settling for a 29-24 lead at intermission. Leading 38-37 with 13:04 to play, Alabama State scored 10 straight points to take a 48-38 lead with just under 11 minutes to play. The Hornets pushed their lead to 11 points on two separate occasions before Auburn mounted its comeback. Tay Waller tied a career-high with six made 3-pointers on 12 attempts to lead Auburn with 21 points, five rebounds and four steals as five Tigers scored in double figures. Rasheem Barrett continued his stellar play off the bench as he chipped in 12 points, five rebounds (four offensive) and three assists in 28 minutes. Quantez Robertson added 11 points while Lucas Hargrove and Korvotney Barber had 10 points apiece. Barber recorded his second straight double-double with 10 rebounds, and it was his third this season and 11th of his career. Brandon Brooks led Alabama State with a game-high 24 points, seven rebounds and six turnovers. Rashad Provitt scored 14 points and had a game-high 14 rebounds.

Auburn 82, Alabama A&M 40
December 29, 2008
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Tay Waller scored 14 points and Korvotney Barber added 11 points and eight rebounds as both only played 22 minutes to lead Auburn to its fifth straight victory in an 82-40 win over Alabama A&M in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. Frankie Sullivan had 12 points and six rebounds in 30 minutes, DeWayne Reed notched 10 points and Quantez Robertson totaled eight points, six rebounds and six assists. Robertson moved into fifth on Auburn's all-time assist list with 467. Johnnie Lett scored a career-high eight points in 17 minutes. Leading 18-12, Auburn went on a 10-0 run over a five minute period to take a 28-12 lead with 9:33 left in the half as Alabama A&M went scoreless for seven minutes. The Tigers then coasted to a 46-28 halftime lead as they made 9-of-15 (.600) shots from 3-point range. The Tigers limited the Bulldogs to only 12 second half points as the Bulldogs made only 3-of-23 (.130) shots from the field and 1-of-9 (.111) from 3-point range. For the game, Alabama A&M shot 22 percent (11-of-50) from the field and 32 percent (6-of-19) from behind the arc. Auburn shot 53 percent (31-of-59) from the field, a season-best 47 percent (9-of-19) from 3-point range and 65 percent (11-of-17) from the foul line. The Tigers outrebounded the Bulldogs 49-24 and outscored them in second chance points, 19-3. Auburn has only allowed 51.0 points per game in its last five games and has won a pair of games this season by 42 points or more. Trant Simpson was the only Bulldog to score in double figures as he led Alabama A&M with 15 points.

Auburn 77, Southeastern Louisiana 65
December 31, 2008
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

DeWayne Reed scored 20 points and Korvotney Barber recorded his third double-double in four games with 10 points and a career-high tying 16 rebounds to lead Auburn to its sixth straight victory in a 77-65 win over Southeastern Louisiana. The six straight wins are the most in the Coach Jeff Lebo era. Trailing 23-11 with nine minutes to play in the first half, Auburn went on a 24-4 run over the next four-plus minutes to take a 35-27 lead with 4:36 left before settling for a 39-34 halftime lead. Trailing 43-37, Southeastern Louisiana scored nine straight points in three possessions on two 3-pointers by Chris Cyprian and another trey by Kevyn Green over a 41 second span to take a 46-43 lead with 17:11 to play in the game. Lucas Hargrove quickly tied the game on a 3-pointer and Reed gave the Tigers the lead for good on a layup with 16:33 remaining. Barber picked up his fourth foul and went out of the game with the Tigers leading 59-56 with 8:06 to play, but Auburn held the Lions at bay with a 7-2 run over the next four minutes. Auburn used a 6-0 run to take a 68-58 lead with 3:44 left and coasted in from there. With Auburn shooting only 22-of-56 (.393) from the field and Southeastern Louisiana only 23-of-56 (.411), the difference in the game came at the foul line where the Tigers made 27-of-39 (.692) free throws compared to the Lions' woeful 11-of-26 (.423). Green led Southeastern Louisiana with 17 points.

Auburn 78, Tulane 65
January 3, 2009
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

DeWayne Reed scored 20 points for the second straight game and Korvotney Barber recorded his fourth double-double in five games with 15 points and 10 rebounds to lead Auburn to its seventh straight victory in a 78-53 win over Tulane. The seven straight wins are the most in the Coach Jeff Lebo era, and the most since the opening of the 2003-04 season. Tulane scored the first 10 points of the game as Auburn was held scoreless for the first three minutes. The Tigers closed to within 13-12 and tied the game at 17 on a conventional 3-point play by Barber midway through the first half. In the midst of a 10-0 run of its own, Auburn took the lead for the first time at 24-22 on a Tay Waller dunk with 7:17 left in the half and never trailed again. The Tigers pushed it to 30-22 before settling for a 40-27 halftime lead, outscoring the Green Wave 40-17 after falling behind 10-0. The Green Wave's Kevin Sims made a pair of free throws to bring Tulane to within 59-49 but the Tigers outscored the Green Wave 20-4 in the final 8:34. Tulane's Asim McQueen, an Auburn High graduate, led the Green Wave with 16 points while Kevin Sims had 14 points and Robinson. Auburn's smothering defense has allowed only 53.3 points per game during the Tigers' seven game winning streak.

South Carolina 68, Auburn 56
January 10, 2009
Colonial Life Arena
Columbia, S.C.

Zam Fredrick scored a game-high 27 points to lead South Carolina to a 68-56 victory over Auburn in the Colonial Life Arena in the SEC opener for both teams. DeWayne Reed led the Tigers with 21 points and Korvotney Barber had a career-high 18 rebounds and six points but Auburn committed a season-high 24 turnovers. The Gamecocks made a pair of free throws with a second left in the half for a 30-28 lead. That ignited a 19-2 run that saw South Carolina take a 47-30 lead with just over 13 minutes to go in the game. Auburn, which had 11 first half turnovers, had six more in the first six-plus minutes after halftime that saw the Gamecocks take control. Auburn closed to within 60-53 with 3:32 remaining but couldn't get any closer. After taking a 5-4 lead almost four minutes into the game, Auburn led for all but 23 seconds of the remainder of the first half as the Tigers enjoyed their largest lead at 22-16. Auburn shot 37 percent from the floor, 29 percent from 3-point range and 43 percent from the foul line. South Carolina shot 56 percent from the field in the second half to finish at 46 percent from the game. The Gamecocks shot 24 percent from 3-point range and 67 percent from the foul line. The Gamecocks had 18 turnovers but outscored the Tigers in points off turnovers, 25-13.

Florida 68, Auburn 65
January 14, 2009
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Florida made three more free throws than Auburn in a 68-65 Gator victory in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. Both teams made 25 field goals apiece and five 3-pointers, but Florida went 13-of-19 from the foul line while Auburn was a poor 10-of-21. Nick Calathes led the Gators with 17 points and Alex Tyus added 14 points and 12 rebounds. Rasheem Barrett scored a season-high 15 points off the bench to lead Auburn while Korvotney Barber added 14 points, DeWayne Reed 13 points and Lucas Hargrove 11 points and eight rebounds. Florida jumped out to a quick 9-2 lead and led 40-34 at the half. Holding the Gators to only 11 points in the opening 15 plus minutes of the second half, Auburn tied it for the first time at 48 with 9:34 left. The Tigers took their first lead at 50-48 to cap a 9-0 run with 7:32 remaining. The two teams traded leads five more times before the Gators took the lead for good at 57-55 on Erving Walker's second consecutive 3-pointer with 3:46 to play. Florida pushed its lead to nine on a 10-0 run with 27 seconds left and led by eight with six seconds before the Tigers scored the final five points. Quantez Robertson missed all six of his free throw attempts for Auburn.

Auburn 85, Alabama 71
January 17, 2009
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Tay Waller scored a career-high tying 22 points, DeWayne Reed 19 points and Korvotney Barber had 18 points and nine rebounds to lead Auburn to an 85-71 victory over Alabama in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. It was the Tigers' fourth win in five games over the Crimson Tide while notching season-highs in points and 3-point field goal pct. (.500). Auburn jumped out to a 23-6 lead five minutes into the game while scoring seven points in one possession in an unusual play. With Auburn up 13-6 with 15:51 left, Reed was intentionally fouled on a layup that went in, made the two foul shots and then Frankie Sullivan made a 3-pointer for a 20-6 lead nine seconds later. The Tigers' seven point possession was more than Alabama's six points for the game. Trailing 42-35 at halftime, Alabama scored the first basket of the second half to close to within five points. Auburn went on a 19-2 run to take its largest lead of the game at 61-39 with 15:26 remaining. Alabama wouldn't get closer than the final margin. Mikhail Torrance scored a career-high 24 points for Alabama. Auburn forced 20 turnovers to outscore Alabama 34-14 in points off turnovers.

Kentucky 73, Auburn 64
January 21, 2009
Rupp Arena
Lexington, Ky.

Jodie Meeks scored a game-high 31 points, Patrick Patterson added 12 points and a career-high 18 rebounds and Perry Stevenson 13 points and 12 boards to lead Kentucky to a 73-64 victory over Auburn before 22,760 in Rupp Arena. DeWayne Reed tied a career-high with 22 points while Rasheem Barrett had a season-high 17 points to lead Auburn. The Tigers were outscored 26-2 from the free throw line. Frankie Sullivan scored five straight points to cap off a 13-2 Auburn run to give the Tigers a 51-48 lead with 9:09 to play. The Wildcats responded with a decisive 12-0 run to take a 60-51 lead with 4:40 left. The game was close throughout as there were 14 lead changes and eight ties. In the first half, the largest lead by either team was four points and a Quantez Robertson 3-pointer gave Auburn a 31-28 lead with 2:43 before halftime. The Tigers led by one going for the last shot and Patterson blocked a Reed jumper with five seconds on the clock and assisted Ramon Harris on a layup just before the buzzer to give Kentucky a 34-33 halftime lead. Auburn forced 22 Kentucky turnovers, but the Wildcats outshot the Tigers from the foul line, 26-of-32 to 2-of-6.

Auburn 73, Arkansas 51
January 24, 2009
Bud Walton Arena
Fayetteville, Ark.

Korvotney Barber totaled 15 points and a career-high tying 18 rebounds while DeWayne Reed added 16 points, six rebounds and six assists to lead Auburn to a 73-51 victory over Arkansas before 18,246 in Bud Walton Arena Saturday. It was the Razorbacks' worst loss in Bud Walton Arena history, and the Tigers' largest margin of victory in an SEC road game since 1999 and the sixth largest league road win in history. Auburn made eight of its first 10 three-point attempts in the first 13 minutes of the game to jump on Arkansas. After the Razorbacks cut the Tigers' 10-point lead in half at 54-49 on a Michael Sanchez layup with 9:22 to play, Auburn went on a 19-2 run to end the game. Arkansas' only points the rest of the way came on a Marcus Britt jumper with 6:09 left. Tay Waller, who finished with 14 points on 4-of-10 shooting from 3-point range, gave the Tigers the lead for good at 8-6 with a 3-pointer to start a 9-0 Auburn run for a 14-6 lead almost six minutes in. The Hogs came within five at 26-21, but the Tigers scored seven straight points to take their largest lead of the first half at 33-21 on a Frankie Sullivan layup with 5:55 remaining. Holding a 38-31 halftime edge, Auburn scored the first four points of the second half on a pair of layups off a Reed steal leading to a Barrett fastbreak layup and a Barber block leading to a Waller fastbreak layup. Auburn's staunch defense held Arkansas to only 30.2 percent shooting from the field and 20.8 percent from 3-point range for the game and smothered the Hogs into only 22.6 percent shooting from the field in the second half. The Tigers shot 51.7 percent from the field in the second half as they scored 22 of their 35 points in the paint. The win was only Auburn's third win, all by double digits, in Fayetteville in 18 tries with this 22-point victory being the largest margin.

Auburn 66, Texas-Pan American 63
January 27, 2009
Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

DeWayne Reed scored 14 points and Korvotney Barber had nine points, 10 rebounds and five blocks to help Auburn to a 66-63 victory over Texas-Pan American in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. The Tigers scored the first 14 points of the game and were coasting before shooting only 26 percent from the field in the second half. Texas-Pan American's Nick Weiermiller missed a game-tying 25-foot 3-pointer beyond the top of the key just before the buzzer. Texas-Pan American, a NCAA Div. I independent, outscored Auburn 21-7 in the first 11:33 of the second half to turn a 39-28 halftime deficit into a 49-46 lead with 8:27 to play in the game. The Broncos continued to lead for another two minutes before a Tay Waller steal led to a Reed layup to give Auburn the lead for good at 52-51 with 6:16 to play. Auburn's lead, however, never was larger than five points the rest of the way. Nick Weiermiller's 3-pointer brought Texas-Pan American to within 59-58 with 2:27 left but two Lucas Hargrove free throws 13 seconds later and another one with 42 seconds remaining along with a Quantez Robertson foul shot with 24 seconds on the clock gave Auburn a 63-58 point cushion.

Vanderbilt 82, Auburn 75

January 31, 2009

Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Jermaine Beal scored a career-high 21 points by making a career-high seven 3-pointers in eight attempts to lead Vanderbilt to an 82-75 victory over Auburn in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. Rasheem Barrett scored a career-high 29 points for Auburn, who only had the services of leading scorer DeWayne Reed for three minutes. Reed, who led the Tigers with 14.0 points, 3.9 assists and was third in the SEC with 2.1 steals per game coming into the game, had arrived late to the Coliseum pregame and was held out of the starting lineup. He checked into the game with 10:58 to go in the first half before being pulled three minutes later. Both teams shot better from the field than the free throw line as Vanderbilt outshot Auburn 60.9 to 50 percent from the field, 58.8 to 42.9 percent from 3-point range and 51.6 to 46.7 percent from the foul line. The Commodores were shooting 25 percent from 3-point range in SEC play entering the game. Back-to-back Lucas Hargrove 3-pointers enabled Auburn to tie the score at 70 with 3:15 to play but two-straight 3-pointers by Jermaine Beal put Vanderbilt up for good at 76-70 with 1:51 remaining. The Tigers closed to 77-75 on another Hargrove trey with 1:09 left but Auburn wouldn't score again. Hargrove missed a jumper, Barrett missed a 3-pointer and Quantez Robertson missed all four free throw attempts. Vanderbilt raced out to a 16-5 lead almost six minutes in and stretched it to 13 points twice, the last at 38-25 with 3:44 left in the half. Auburn outscored Vanderbilt 11-3 to trail only 41-36 at the half despite allowing the Commodores to shoot 57.7 percent (15-of-26) from the field and 50 percent (5-of-10) from 3-point range. After Auburn closed to within two, Brad Tinsley answered with a 3-pointer to put Vandy up 80-75 with 36 seconds to go in the game. Auburn lost its 13th straight game to an SEC Eastern Division team, a streak that dates back two years exactly.

Ole Miss 78, Auburn 59

February 4, 2009

Tad Smith Coliseum
Oxford, Miss.

Terrico White scored a game-high 19 points to lead five Ole Miss players in double figures as the Rebels won their third straight in a 78-59 victory over Auburn in Tad Smith Coliseum. Korvotney Barber led the Tigers with 17 points and 13 rebounds. Auburn jumped out to an early 9-4 lead, but Ole Miss answered with a 21-5 run over the next six minutes to take a commanding 25-14 edge. The Rebels then upped the margin to 36-23 before stretching it to a 46-28 halftime lead. In the first half alone, the Rebels outrebounded the Tigers 28-15 and outscored them 12-7 in second chance points. Ole Miss nearly outrebounded Auburn on offensive rebounds alone as the Rebels had 12 in the first half. Ole Miss made 6-of-17 shots from 3-point range and freshman Terrico White had 14 points. The closest Auburn ever came in the second half was 13 points early on before Ole Miss stretched its lead to 63-42 with 7:36 to play and to as much as 78-56 with just over a minute left. For the game, Auburn shot only 36.5 percent (23-of-63) from the field and 22.2 percent (6-of-27) from 3-point range while Ole Miss finished 42.9 percent (27-of-63) shooting, including 35.7 percent (10-of-28) from 3-point range. DeWayne Reed had 14 points for the Tigers and freshman Frankie Sullivan notched a SEC high 12 points in the first start of his career. Barber recorded his sixth double-double in the last 13 games. David Huertas added 16 points for the Rebels, Zach Graham had 11 points on 3-of-4 three-point shooting and Terrance Henry and Malcolm White, both had 10 points and five rebounds apiece.

Auburn 78, Tennessee 77

February 7, 2009

Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Korvotney Barber's game-winning layup with 4 seconds to play on a Tay Waller assist gave Auburn a 78-77 victory over Tennessee. Rasheem Barrett had 27 points and 7 rebounds and Barber added 21 points making all eight field goal attempts with 8 rebounds to lead the Tigers. Tennessee held a 77-76 lead and Lucas Hargrove missed two free throws with 16 seconds to play. The second barely grazed the front of the rim, Barrett grabbed the offense rebound and was trapped close to the far corner and a timeout was called with 13 seconds left. The Volunteers nearly intercepted DeWayne Reed's long inbounds pass to halfcourt. Tennessee's Wayne Chism battled Barrett for the ball at midcourt causing both to fall to the floor, and Waller picked up the loose ball. Waller dribbled past halfcourt to right in front of the Auburn bench and found his former Manchester (Ga.) High teammate, Barber, open under the basket for the game-winner. Auburn jumped out to a quick lead at 15-6 and still held a 40-32 edge with four minutes before halftime. Tennessee closed it out with a 9-3 run to trail only 43-41 at halftime. Barrett scored 18 first half points on 9-of-12 shooting from the field to lead Auburn. Scotty Hopson nailed a 3-pointer to give Tennessee its first lead of the game at 53-52 with 15:23 remaining. The game would then have 11 more lead changes the rest of the way. The Vols took their largest lead at 62-56 with 12:59 left, and Auburn answered with a 9-2 run to regain the lead at 65-64. Tennessee led 75-71 on a Chism layup at the three minute mark. A Reed jumper and a huge Waller 3-pointer from the top of the key with 1:10 to play put Auburn back ahead at 76-75. Tyler Smith's layup with 38 seconds left put UT ahead 77-76 and set up the dramatic finish. After Barber's game-winner, Prince missed an off balance 3-pointer just before the buzzer. Senior Quantez Robertson was late for the game and was held out of the starting lineup to end his streak of starting all 112 games played in his career at Auburn. Playing a career-low nine minutes, Robertson would have become Auburn's first-ever four-year player to start every game of his career. Auburn outscored Tennessee 19-2 in second chance points and Smith led the Vols with 21 points and J.P. Prince added 18 points.

Auburn 75, Arkansas 62
February 11, 2009

Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Auburn roared back from a 10-point second half deficit to take the season series from Arkansas in a 75-62 victory. It was the Tigers' first sweep of the Hogs since 2003 and their third overall. The final 10 minutes were much like the game in Fayetteville. Auburn outscored Arkansas 16-2 in the final 6:32 in Auburn and 19-2 in the final 9:22 in Fayetteville on Jan. 24. Tay Waller and Lucas Hargrove each had 14 points to lead Auburn, Rasheem Barrett added 13 points, DeWayne Reed 11 and Korvotney Barber had 11 rebounds and eight points. Auburn trailed 39-31 at the half, 43-33 with 18:16 to play and was down 47-38 with 15:24 left. The Tigers scored nine straight points in three minutes to tie the score. Stefan Welsh's 3-pointer put the Razorbacks ahead 60-59 with 6:33 to play and that's when the Tigers began their 16-2 run to end the game. Reed hit a 3-pointer to give Auburn the lead for good. With the Tigers up 64-60, Courtney Fortson picked up his fifth foul and then was called for a technical. Tay Waller made a pair of free throws for the technical and then Reed split a pair of foul shots for a 67-60 lead with 4:23 left. A pair of Michael Sanchez free throws closed the Hogs to within 67-62 with 3:46 remaining but they wouldn't score again. Welsh and Rotnei Clarke had 14 points apiece for Arkansas.

Auburn 91, Mississippi State 76
February 14, 2009

Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum
Auburn, Ala.

Tay Waller scored a career-high 32 points on a career-best 8-of-12 from 3-point range to lead Auburn to a 91-76 victory over Mississippi State in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. It was the Tigers' third straight SEC victory to reach the .500 mark in league play. Waller hit his first five 3-point attempts in the first 4:20 to help Auburn to an 18-8 lead. The Tigers led by as much as 32-15 nine minutes into the half, but the Bulldogs answered with a 25-8 run to tie it at 40 with a minute to go. Brendon Knox and DeWayne Reed each split a pair of free throws to give Auburn a 42-40 halftime lead. Waller hit his sixth 3-pointer to put Auburn up five but State scored 10 straight points to take its largest lead at 50-45. Reed made two free throws to give Auburn the lead for good at 53-52 with 15:49 left. Back-to-back Waller and Reed 3-pointers gave the Tigers a 73-63 cushion with 8:48 remaining. Auburn led only 81-75 with four minutes to play, but the Tigers outscored the Bulldogs 10-1 the rest of the way. Auburn totaled a season-high 91 points and 13 three-pointers made. The Tigers shot 48.1 percent (13-of-27) from 3-point range and 75 percent (24-of-32) from the foul line, including 16-of-19 in the second half. Auburn entered the game last in the SEC shooting 59 percent from the foul line. Reed added 16 points for the Tigers and Frankie Sullivan added an SEC-best 14 points. Jarvis Varnado led Mississippi State with 20 points while Barry Stewart had 18 points. The Tigers outrebounded the Bulldogs 39-37 for the first time in 16 games.

Auburn 71, Georgia 59
February 18, 2009

Stegeman Coliseum
Athens, Ga.

Auburn scored 22 straight points midway through the first half and held Georgia to only seven points for the first 14:29 as the Tigers won their fourth consecutive game in a 71-59 victory over Georgia in Stegeman Coliseum. It was the Tigers' largest margin of victory in Athens since 1977. Tay Waller led the Tigers with a game-high 20 points and Korvotney Barber added 11 points and a career-high tying 18 rebounds, his eighth double-double of the season. Waller scored 12 of Auburn's first 20 points as the Tigers jumped out to a 38-9 lead with 5:20 to go in the half as Auburn made 11 of its first 15 shots while Georgia was only 2-of-18 from the field. The Tigers led 45-19 at the half. With Auburn leading 49-22 with 15:36 remaining in the game, Georgia went on a 32-5 run to close to within 60-54 with 4:12 left with the help of four 3-pointers by Dustin Ware. Auburn only scored 12 points in the first 15 minutes after halftime. Auburn missed all six of its 3-point attempts in the second half while Georgia made 8-of-17 (.471). Auburn had lost three straight games to Georgia and five of the previous six and was the Tigers first in Athens since 1999. The Tigers have won four straight SEC games for the first time since starting league play in 2002-03 with four consecutive wins. Auburn is over .500 in league play for the first time this late in the season since that same year. The win guarantees Auburn of its second winning season in three years and equals the most wins in a season for Lebo at Auburn. Ware led Georgia with 14 points, all in the second half, Trey Thompkins had nine points and Terrance Woodbury, who had a career-high 32 points vs. Florida the game before, was held to seven points on 2-of-10 shooting from the field.
