2006 CAPITAL ONE BOWL

^{#7/7} AUBURN (9-2, 7-1) VS. ^{#21/20} WISCONSIN (9-3, 5-3)

FLORIDA CITRUS BOWL STADIUM (65,438) • ORLANDO, FL
 JANUARY 2, 2006 • 1 PM ET • TV: ABC

THE GAME

Auburn and Wisconsin meet in a bowl game for the second time in three seasons when the Tigers and Badgers battle in the Capital One Bowl. Auburn beat Wisconsin 28-14 at the 2003 Music City Bowl in Nashville, Tenn. The only other meeting between the teams was a 7-7 tie in 1931 in Madison.

AUBURN'S BOWL HISTORY

This season's bowl appearance marks the 32nd time that the Tigers have played in a bowl game. Auburn has a 17-12-2 record in its previous 31 bowl games and has played in a bowl game in 18 of the last 24 years.

The Tigers are appearing in a bowl game for the sixth straight year, which is the third longest streak in school history. Auburn had a streak of nine straight bowl appearances from 1982-90 and seven straight from 1968-74.

Since the 1974 Gator Bowl, Auburn is 12-5-1 in bowl games, winning four consecutive from 1974-84 ('74 Gator, '82 Tangerine, '83 Sugar, '84 Liberty) and three straight over the past three years ('03 Capital One, '03 Music City, '05 Sugar).

TUBERVILLE IN BOWL GAMES

Tommy Tuberville is 4-2 all-time in bowl games as a head coach, including a 3-2 mark at Auburn. Tuberville has guided the Tigers to three consecutive bowl wins, defeating Virginia Tech, 16-13, in the 2005 NOKIA Sugar Bowl, Wisconsin, 28-14, in the 2003 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl, and Penn State, 13-9, in the 2003 Capital One Bowl.

Tuberville also guided the Tigers to the 2001 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl (16-10 loss to North Carolina) and 2001 Capital One Florida Citrus Bowl (31-28 loss to Michigan). As a head coach at Ole Miss, Tuberville led the Rebels to a 34-31 win in the 1997 Motor City Bowl.

As both a head coach and an assistant coach, Tuberville is 9-5 in bowl games. While an assistant at Miami, Tuberville was 5-3 in bowl games, including five straight wins from 1988 to 1992 and three national championships.

IN THE CAPITAL ONE BOWL

Auburn will be making its fifth appearance in the Capital One Bowl, formerly known as the Citrus Bowl and Tangerine Bowl, and third trip to Orlando in the last six seasons. The Tigers are 3-1 all-time at the Capital One Bowl. The only bowl game in which the Tigers have made more appearances is the Gator Bowl (six), while the Tigers have also played in five Sugar Bowls.

RECORDS SET AT CAPITAL ONE

Auburn's top two bowl game rushing performances and top bowl game passing performance all took place at the Capital One Bowl. Ronnie Brown rushed for 184 yards and a touchdown on 37 carries vs. Penn State at the 2003 Capital One Bowl, while Brent Fullwood totalled 152 yards and a score vs. USC at the 1987 Citrus Bowl. In addition, Ben Leard's 394-yard passing game vs. Michigan at the 2001 Citrus Bowl is not only an Auburn bowl record, but tied for the second-best single-game performance in school history.

TIGERS' BOWL NOTABLES

Auburn will be searching for its first four-game bowl winning streak since the 1974-82-83-84 seasons when it won the 1974 Gator Bowl, 1982 Tangerine Bowl, 1984 Sugar Bowl and 1984 Liberty Bowl ... The Tigers are 16th all-time in bowl appearances (32) and tied for 13th all-time in bowl victories (17) ... Auburn's defense has held its last four bowl opponents to 16 points or less ... The Tigers are 10-3-2 in bowl games when scoring first ... Auburn is 12-2 in bowl games when scoring 20 or more points.

AGAINST THE BIG TEN

Auburn is 6-2-2 all-time against current members of the Big Ten Conference, with bowl games accounting for eight of those 10 games. The only two games that Auburn has played against Big Ten teams in non-bowl games were a scoreless tie against Ohio State in 1917 in Montgomery, and a 7-7 tie at Wisconsin in 1931.

FINAL GAME FOR TIGER SENIORS

The bowl game marks the final game for 15 Auburn seniors. Auburn's senior class has led the Tigers to a 39-11 record the past four seasons, including three SEC Western Division championships, while tying the Auburn record for most victories during a four-year period (39 - 1986-89).

The 2005 seniors include: WR Devin Aromashodu, DS Chas Crofoot, DT Wayne Dickens, DB Kevin Hobbs, DB David Irons, NG T.J. Jackson, OT Marcus McNeill, WR Anthony Mix, WR Ben Obomanu, OT Troy Reddick, C Steven Ross, FB Jake Slaughter, TE Cooper Wallace, LB Antarrrious Williams and LB Travis Williams.

TUBERVILLE VS. THE BIG TEN

The Nokia Sugar Bowl match-up against Wisconsin will mark Tommy Tuberville's fourth game against a Big Ten opponent as a head coach. Tuberville is 2-1 against Big Ten teams, with victories in the 2003 Capital One Bowl (13-9) vs. Penn State and the 2003 Music City Bowl (28-14) vs. Wisconsin. Tuberville lost to Michigan in the 2001 Citrus Bowl, 31-28.

ASSISTANTS IN BOWLS

Auburn's post-season appearance will mark a return visit to a bowl for several Tiger assistant coaches. Linebackers coach Joe Whitt will be making his 18th bowl appearance while quarterbacks coach Steve Ensminger will be going to his 11th bowl game. Offensive line coach Hugh Nall and defensive line coach Terry Price will be going to their 10th bowl. Ensminger played in three bowls at LSU as did Price while at Texas A&M. Nall played in two while at Georgia, while defensive coordinator David Gibbs played in two bowls while at Colorado.

Auburn Assistants' Bowl Appearances

| Coach | Appearances |
|--|--------------------|
| Joe Whitt (Linebackers) | 18th |
| Steve Ensminger (Tight Ends) | 11th |
| Hugh Nall (Offensive Line) | 10th |

| Eddie Gran (Running Backs/Special Teams) | 9th |
| Greg Knox (Wide Receivers) | 7th |
| Al Borges (Offensive Coordinator) | 6th |

WESTERN DIVISION CO-CHAMPS

With a 7-1 record in the SEC West, Auburn has now won outright or shared five SEC Western Division titles in the last six seasons, and six since the SEC split into two divisions in 1992. Auburn won the West outright in 2000 and 2004 and shared the division title in 1997, 2001, 2002 and 2005.

2005 AUBURN FOOTBALL

AUBURN CLIMBING THE RANKS

After falling out of the national rankings following a season-opening loss to Georgia Tech, Auburn has climbed all the way to No. 7 in the final regular season Associated Press Top 25 poll. Auburn did not break back into the AP poll until after an Oct. 1 victory over South Carolina improved the Tigers to 4-1 and pushed Auburn to No. 22 in the poll. Auburn is 13-6 all-time when ranked No. 7, but has not played a game with that ranking since a 49-38 loss to No. 3 Florida Oct. 14, 1995.

VS. TEAMS RANKED 21ST

Auburn has played just two games against teams ranked No. 21 in the Associated Press Top 25 poll. The No. 9 Tigers defeated No. 21 Ohio State, 31-14, Jan. 1, 1990, in the Hall of Fame Bowl, while Auburn, ranked 13th, lost to No. 21 LSU, 19-15, Sept. 21, 1996 in Jordan-Hare Stadium.

ON THIS DATE

Auburn has played four games previously on Jan. 2, winning three and losing one. The Tigers won the 1971 Gator Bowl (35-28) against Ole Miss, the 1984 Sugar Bowl (9-7) against Michigan, and the 1998 Peach Bowl (21-17) against Clemson. Auburn's only loss was a 13-7 defeat in the 1989 Sugar Bowl against Florida State.

TWO-YEAR DOMINATION

Auburn is 22-2 over the past two seasons, giving the Tigers the second-most wins and third-best record in the NCAA over the past two seasons. Only USC (25-0) and Texas (22-1) have better winning percentages than Auburn over the past two years.

DOUBLE DIP

With 22 victories over the past two seasons, Auburn has established a new school record for victories in a two-year period. The Tigers previously had four occurrences of 20 wins over a two-year span (1982-83; 1983-84; 1988-89; 1993-94).

WINNING THE CLOSE ONES

Auburn has had a knack for winning close ball games since Tommy Tuberville arrived as the Tigers' head coach. In his seven seasons at the helm, Auburn is 19-10 in games decided by seven points or less and has won seven of its last nine. Counting his four seasons at Ole Miss, Tuberville has a 19-15 record as a head coach in games decided by seven points or less.

WINNING IN THE SEC

Auburn has won 16 of its last 17 SEC games and 17 of 18 against SEC opponents. The Tigers have won nine straight home games against SEC opponents and are 8-1 in their last eight SEC road games with the only loss coming in overtime at No. 7 LSU (20-17).

With a 7-1 conference record, Auburn finished with another winning record in the SEC. This marked the sixth consecutive season that Auburn finished with an SEC record of no worse than 5-3. The last time Auburn had six straight winning conference records came from 1955-60. The Tigers had streaks of five straight winning SEC seasons from 1968-72 and 1986-90.

WINNING IN THE SEC, PART II

Auburn's 15-1 mark in the conference from 2004-05 marks the fourth time in SEC history (since divisional play began in 1992) that a team has won 15 or more conference games in back-to-back seasons.

| School | Seasons | Record |
|-----------|---------|--------|
| Florida | 1995-96 | 16-0 |
| Auburn | 2004-05 | 15-1 |
| Tennessee | 1997-98 | 15-1 |
| Florida | 1994-95 | 15-1 |

NOT SKIPPING A BEAT

There were many who assumed that after Auburn lost its 2004 starting backfield of Jason Campbell, Ronnie Brown and Carnell Williams, who were all first-round NFL draft picks, that the Tigers would struggle offensively in 2005. Instead, the Tigers' offensive numbers have improved this season.

Last year, Auburn averaged 32.1 points and 420.7 yards per game. This season, the Tigers are averaging 34.2 points and 425.6 yards per game - both numbers that would rank as the best ever during the Tommy Tuberville era. Auburn has also improved from last season in first downs (21.6 - 20.8), rushing yardage (202.7 - 183.3) and third-down conversions (.479 - .459).

The biggest difference from last year has come defensively, where the Tigers, although very solid this year, were tops in the nation in 2004. Last year's team gave up just 11.3 points per game, compared to 14.7 this season, and allowed only 277.6 yards per game as opposed to this season's 294.1. Still the 14.7 points allowed this year is second best at Auburn during the Tommy Tuberville era, and the 294.1 yards allowed ranks third.

BORGES BALL

In the four seasons prior to Al Borges' arrival as Auburn's offensive coordinator before the 2004 season, (2000-03), the Tigers scored 30 or more points in 22 of 62 (35.5%) games. Since Borges has taken the reigns of Auburn's offense, the Tigers have scored 30 or more points in 17 of 24 (70.8%) games.

STRIKE WHILE IRONS IS HOT

Kenny Irons leads the SEC and ranks 18th nationally averaging 109.5 yards rushing per game. More impressively, Irons has posted those numbers despite averaging just 10.8 carries during Auburn's first five games, including only one rush in the season opener vs. Georgia Tech.

After gaining 34 yards in the first two games of the season, Irons has rushed for more than 100 yards in eight of the last nine contests, averaging 130.1 yards per game with 13 touchdowns during that stretch while averaging 5.3 yards per carry. Irons has been a workhorse the last six games in particular, totaling 886 yards on 180 rushes (147.7 ypg; 30.0 carries per game).

On Oct. 15 at Arkansas, Irons ran for a then-career best 182 yards on 33 carries to earn SEC Offensive Player of the Week honors. On Oct. 22 at LSU, Irons posted the 14th-best single-game rushing total in Auburn history, gaining 218 yards on 27 carries, including a 74-yard scoring run in the third quarter. It was the most yards by an Auburn back since Rudi Johnson ran for 249 yards vs. Louisiana Tech Oct. 21, 2000.

Irons had 101 yards and a score Oct. 29 vs. Ole Miss and followed that with 103 and three TDs in one half vs. Kentucky. Nov. 12 at Georgia, Irons ran 37 times for 179 yards and two scores, earning SEC Offensive Player of the Week honors while tying for the fifth most rushes in a game in school history. He finished the regular season with 103 yards and a score on 28 carries vs. Alabama, becoming the second back in Auburn history to have six or more consecutive 100-yard rushing games.

Irons currently ranks tied for ninth in Auburn history for a single season with 1,205 yards rushing. By surpassing the 1,000-yard rushing mark, it marks the first time that Auburn has had a 1,000-yard rusher in four consecutive seasons.

IRONS SHINES VS. TOP DEFENSES

Auburn played two teams this season that are ranked in the nation's top 10 in rushing defense, and Kenny Irons went over the century mark against both teams.

Irons posted a career-best 218 yards on the ground Oct. 22 at LSU, which has the nation's No. 7-ranked rushing defense, allowing just 94.8 yards per game. Irons ran for 103 yards Nov. 19 vs. Alabama, which ranks No. 6 nationally giving up 93.5 yards per contest.

COX CONTINUES STEADY PLAY

In his first year as a starter at quarterback, sophomore Brandon Cox is having a stellar season. Cox has thrown for more than 200 yards in eight of his 10 games, and ranks second in the SEC averaging 218.7 yards passing per game. Cox's total of 342 yards passing in the season opener vs. Georgia Tech is the third-highest total in the SEC this season. His current passer rating of 138.43, which also ranks second in the SEC, would rank as the sixth-best single-season mark in Auburn history.

Cox is third in the Auburn single-season record book for most games throwing for 200 or more yards with eight, and he had six straight 200-yard passing games this season, which is tied for the second-best mark in Auburn history.

ON THE VERGE OF SEC HISTORY

Senior Anthony Mix is just one yard shy of becoming the 21st Auburn player to accumulate 1,000 career receiving yards, and if he reaches the mark, Auburn will become the first known team in SEC history to have four career 1,000-yard receivers on its team at one time. Prior to this season, the Tigers had never had three 1,000-yard receivers at once.

Currently, junior Courtney Taylor ranks 10th in Auburn history with 1,380 yards receiving, senior Devin Aromashodu is 12th with 1,317 yards and senior Ben Obomanu is 13th with 1,251 yards.

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT

Auburn's offense has shown that it has both quick-strike capability and the ability to put together long, sustained drives. In fact, the Tigers lead the SEC in both scoring drives of less than two minutes (20 - tied with Georgia) and greater than five minutes (13). Georgia, with one extra game, was the only other SEC team with more than 15 scoring drives of less than two minutes, and no other squad posted more than nine scoring drives of over five minutes.

DRIVE TIME

Auburn has had more offensive success per drive than any other team in the SEC this season. The Tigers lead all SEC teams in yards per drive (36.29), points per drive (2.75), scoring efficiency (44.2 percent) and touchdown efficiency (35.6 percent). Auburn has big leads in points per drive and touchdown efficiency, as second-place Georgia trails by nearly half a point in points per drive at 2.28, while the Tigers' touchdown efficiency is nearly 10 percent higher than second-place Florida and Vanderbilt (26.1).

SEC LEADERS

Auburn has emerged as the league leader in several statistical categories this season, including: scoring offense (34.2), total offense (425.6), third down conversions (47.9 percent), sacks (36) and sacks against (17). If scoring margin were a category in the SEC stats, the Tigers, at +19.5, would lead that category as well.

TIGER "O" TOUGH ON SEC FOES

Auburn's offense has been tough for SEC defenses to stop, as the Tigers averaged 32.8 points in conference games, and scored 39 more points than the second-ranked team (Vanderbilt - 27.9). Auburn ranked first in total offense, averaging 413.6 yards per SEC game, which was 30 yards per game better than the second-ranked team (Vanderbilt, 383.8). The Tigers' balanced attack ranked first in rushing offense (197.6) and passing efficiency (140.7), and Auburn led the league with a 47.4 conversion rate on third downs in league games.

OTHER SEC SUPERLATIVES

In conference games, it's not just the Auburn offense that excelled, as the Tiger defense ranked third in the league in scoring (15.2) and rushing defense (95.1) and tied for fourth in total defense (295.0), while the special teams ranked second in kickoff returns (22.6).

Individually, Kenny Irons ranked first in SEC games in rushing (117.6), third in scoring (7.5) and fourth in all-purpose yards (134.2), Brandon Cox led the SEC in passing efficiency (140.4) and ranked third in passing average (209.2) and Kody Bliss averaged a league-best 45.8 yards per punt in league games.

THIRD TIME'S A CHARM

Auburn has had tremendous success on third downs this season, leading the SEC and ranking tied for 10th nationally by converting 47.9 percent (69-of-144) of its third downs. When the Tigers have 10 yards or less to reach a first down, that percentage climbs to 53.4 percent (62-of-118).

Meanwhile, Auburn's defense allows opponents to convert third-down chances just 31.2 percent of the time (48-of-154). Auburn makes its third-down superiority known right off the bat, as the Tigers are 21-of-37 (56.8 percent) on third downs in the first quarter, while opponents are just 6-of-27 (22.2 percent).

SEEING RED

There has been no stopping Auburn in the red zone this season. The Tiger offense has moved inside the opponents' 20-yard-line 49 times this season, and 42 of those possessions ended with scores, including 33 touchdowns, for a percentage of 85.7, which ranks third in the SEC.

Defensively, opponents have entered the red zone 30 times this year and managed just 12 touchdowns. Tiger opponents have also booted 10 field goals from inside the red zone, but average just 3.8 points per trip into the red zone, while Auburn averages 5.3 points per trip.

SEC SUCCESS

Auburn has won 16 of its last 17 Southeastern Conference games and 17 of its last 18 games against SEC schools, including the 2004 SEC Championship game victory over Tennessee. Auburn's success against conference schools dates back to more than last year's championship run, as over the past six seasons, the Tigers have the best SEC record among the 12 league schools. The following are the combined conference records of the 12 SEC schools from 2000-05.

SINGLE-SEASON RECORD CLIMBERS

With eight 100-yard rushing games, Kenny Irons now ranks tied for second with Bo Jackson's Heisman Trophy-winning 1985 season for most 100-yard rushing games in a single season in Auburn history, and his six straight 100-yard games ranks second.

Meanwhile, Brandon Cox has thrown for at least 200 yards in eight of his 10 games played this season, including six in a row. Cox ranks third in Auburn history for the most 200-yard passing games in a single season, and his streak of six straight is tied for second.

QUICK STARTS

Auburn has been a notoriously quick starter the past two seasons. The Tigers have outscored their opponents 403-103 in the first half over the past two years, including a 210-67 tally this season. Auburn has led by 10 or more points at the half in 11 of its 16 SEC games over the past two seasons. Auburn has made those early leads stand up, as the Tigers are 18-0 over the past two seasons when leading at the half.

The second quarter has been particularly kind to Auburn this year, as the Tigers hold a commanding 127-30 edge in points scored during that period.

QUARTER BY QUARTER

Auburn has shown consistency this season, holding a wide scoring margin in every quarter. The Tigers have outscored their opponents 83-37 in the first quarter, and own a whopping 127-30 edge in the second quarter. Auburn has a 79-27 advantage in the third period, and the Tigers have an 87-65 edge in the fourth quarter.

DEFENSIVE DISPLAY

The Auburn defense has been stingy when it comes to allowing points in recent seasons. In fact, in the past 43 games, the Tigers have allowed an opponent to score 30 points or more just twice (31 by LSU Oct. 25, 2003 in Baton Rouge; 30 by Georgia Nov. 12, 2005). During that same span, 29 opponents failed to score 20 points, and 16 were held to single digits.

TIGERS TOUGH ON TOP TEN

Auburn's 28-18 victory against then-No. 8 Alabama was its second of the season against a top 10 team. Auburn has won six of its last seven games against teams ranked in the Associated Press top 10, including a 31-30 victory at No. 9 Georgia Nov. 12. Dating back to the 2002 season,

Auburn has played 16 games against top 10 teams in its last 43 games (37.2 percent).

During the Tommy Tuberville era, Auburn is 12-10 in games played against top 10 teams, and has won 12 of its last 17 games dating back to a 23-20 upset of No. 1-ranked Florida Oct. 13, 2001.

PRIME PROTECTOR

A: Sept. 18, 2002.

Q: When was the last time Marcus McNeill, Auburn's All-American right tackle, allowed a sack?

McNeill has played 41 consecutive games, including 38 starts, since that game against Mississippi State, which was his third collegiate game, without allowing a sack. He was named a 2005 First Team All-American by Sports Illustrated, and is one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy.

JORDAN-HARE STADIUM

Now in its 66th year as home to the Auburn football team, Jordan-Hare Stadium is the nation's eighth-largest on-campus stadium, with a capacity of 87,451 fans. The Tigers are 249-60-7 (.799) at Jordan-Hare Stadium, including a 35-6 (.853) mark in the last six seasons. Auburn went 7-0 at home last season, marking the second perfect home season in the last five years (7-0 in 2000).

Auburn had an eight-game home winning streak prior to a season-opening loss to Georgia Tech Sept. 3, but won its last six home games this season and has now won 18 of its last 20 games at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

JORDAN-HARE TOUGH ON SEC

Jordan-Hare Stadium has proven to be a difficult place for opposing SEC teams to play. Auburn currently owns a nine-game winning streak in home games vs. conference opponents, not losing a home game to an SEC team since a 24-20 loss to Ole Miss in 2003.

RUNNING LONG DISTANCE

For the first time in school history, Auburn has had three different backs break a run of at least 70 yards in one season. Brad Lester was the first to accomplish the feat with a 70-yard dash vs. Ball State, Kenny Irons went 74 yards for a score at LSU, and Tristan Davis joined the group Nov. 5 at Kentucky with a 75-yard gallop for a touchdown. There had been two prior occurrences of Auburn having two different players with a 70-yard run in one season (Bo Jackson and Brent Fullwood, 1985; Ralph O'Gwynne and Jimmy Fenton, 1936).

In addition, Auburn has had four runs this season of at least 60 yards, marking the first time that the Tigers have had four 60-yard runs in one season since the 1985 team had five, and just the fifth time overall (1978, 1979, 1983, 1985).

NO PASSING ZONE

Auburn played its first eight games without allowing an opponent to throw for 200 yards in a game before surrendering over 300 in two straight contests. Still, Auburn ranks 24th nationally in pass defense, allowing 189.7 yards per game, but more impressively, the Tigers are tied for third nationally in fewest touchdown passes allowed, having surrendered just six passing scores all season. Only Maryland (4) and San Diego State (5) have allowed fewer touchdown passes than Auburn this season.

CLIMBING THE CHARTS

Senior Ben Obomanu leads all Auburn receivers with 28 catches for 295 yards and five scores, and now has 18 receiving touchdowns for his career. Obomanu ranks second on Auburn's career touchdown receptions list and 13th in Auburn history with 1,251 receiving yards.

TURNOVER TURNAROUND

In a season-opening loss to Georgia Tech, Auburn committed five turnovers while forcing just one. Since then, the Tigers have turned the ball over just 11 times in the last 10 games. After suffering four interceptions in the season opener, the Tigers have thrown just three interceptions in the past 10 games.

MANY HAPPY RETURNS

Auburn ranks second in the nation this season averaging 28.4 yards per kickoff return. Devin Aromashodu has averaged 24.6 yards on 18 returns, ranking third in the SEC and 33rd nationally, but is not the Tigers' only threat. Brad Lester averaged 60.3 yards on just three returns earlier this season, including a 93-yard return for a score vs. Ball State Sept. 17.

GOOD WILL HERRING

Junior Will Herring continues to excel in his third season as Auburn's starting free safety. Herring, who has started 35 consecutive games dating back to the third game of his freshman season, leads Auburn with 64 tackles, pushing his career total to 173. Herring had a career-high 13 tackles in the season opener vs. Georgia Tech, recovered a fumble for a touchdown Sept. 10 against Mississippi State and blocked a field goal attempt Oct. 15 at Arkansas.

WILLIAMS SQUARED

Auburn's defense is anchored by senior linebackers Travis Williams and Antarrrious Williams. Travis Williams, a pre-season All-SEC selection, is second on the squad with 62 tackles in 10 games, and has added 5.5 tackles for loss including 2.5 sacks, two forced fumbles and an interception. Antarrrious Williams, a second-team pre-season All-SEC pick, is third on the squad with 48 tackles. The Williams' have combined to play in 91 games including 56 starts (Travis - 48/35; Antarrrious - 43/21).

IRON MEN

Of Auburn's 15 seniors, 12 have seen time in at least 40 games during their careers. Devin Aromashodu, Wayne Dickens, Ben Obomanu and Cooper Wallace lead the list, playing in all 50 of the Tigers' games during the last four seasons. They are followed by T.J. Jackson (49), Travis Williams (48), Anthony Mix (48), Jake Slaughter (45), Marcus McNeill (44), Troy Reddick (44), Antarrrious Williams (43) and Steven Ross (41).

STARTS STREAKS

Four Tigers are in the midst of starting streaks of more than 20 games. Leading the way is FS Will Herring (35) and TE Cooper Wallace (30) who have started 30 or more straight contests. NG T.J. Jackson and OG Ben Grubbs are next with 24 consecutive starts each.

FOUR HUNDRED IN TWO GAMES

Kenny Irons achieved a rare feat by rushing for 400 yards during Auburn's games at Arkansas and LSU. Irons is just the fourth back in Auburn history to rush for 400 combined yards in back-to-back games, joining Joe Cribbs, James Brooks

SHUTOUT CITY

Auburn's 28-0 victory Sept. 10 over Mississippi State was the sixth shutout by the Tigers during the Tommy Tuberville era. Auburn is tied for the lead among all SEC teams since 2000 with six shutouts, including three vs. SEC schools (Vanderbilt, 2000; Alabama, 2000; Mississippi State, 2005). Tennessee has four shutouts against conference schools during that time span. Here are the number of shutouts for each SEC school since the 2000 season:

GOING PRO

Auburn has been very successful in terms of having players stick in the NFL, as the Tigers ranked eighth in the number of players on NFL rosters during the league's opening weekend with 31. Auburn was one of five SEC schools in the top 10, as the SEC led all conferences with 261 players. The top 10 and a list of other SEC schools' representation follows:

and Bo Jackson. Irons is the first to accomplish the feat during two road games.

Cribbs (1978) and Brooks (1980) each accomplished the feat once, while Jackson hit the milestone four times during his Heisman Trophy season in 1985.

Irons' 400 yards is the seventh-best two-game total in school history.

TUBERVILLE IN SEVENTH SEASON

Tommy Tuberville is in his seventh season at Auburn in 2005 and his 11th as a head coach in the SEC. Tuberville has the third-longest tenure in the SEC (second-longest active streak) behind Phillip Fulmer of Tennessee and Steve Spurrier of South Carolina, who are each in their 13th season in the league this year.

Tuberville has amassed a record of 60-26 in seven seasons at Auburn and has an overall mark of 85-46. He has led the Tigers to six straight bowl appearances including three straight victories: over Virginia Tech in the 2005 NOKIA Sugar Bowl, Wisconsin in the 2003 Gaylord Hotels Music City Bowl presented by Bridgestone and Penn State in the 2003 Capital One Bowl.

Tuberville is fourth all-time at Auburn in wins, and is the fifth-longest tenured coach in school history.

11 AND COUNTING

In his 11th year as a head coach, Tommy Tuberville has five assistant coaches who have been with him all 11 years. That group includes: defensive tackles/noseguard coach Don Dunn, running backs/special teams coach Eddie Gran, wide receivers coach Greg Knox, offensive line coach Hugh Nall and defensive ends coach Terry Price.

WHEN SCORING 20+ POINTS

Under Tommy Tuberville, Auburn is 53-4 when scoring 20 or more points, including a 51-3 mark in the regular season. Dating back to 1995, Auburn is 74-11 when scoring 20 or more points in a game.

30+ POINTS EQUALS VICTORY

Under Tommy Tuberville, Auburn is 37-0 when scoring 30 or more points in a game. Auburn has won 42 consecutive games when scoring 30 or more points in a game.

The last time the Tigers lost when registering at least 30 points was a 56-49, four overtime loss to Georgia in 1996.

In the last 22 years, Auburn is 111-2 when scoring 30 points.

THREE AND OUT

Three Auburn football players achieved a rare academic feat, graduating from college in only three years. WR Ben Obomanu (Finance) received his diploma in May, while WR Lee Guess (Business Marketing) and NG T.J. Jackson (Public Business Administration) both graduated from Auburn in August after just three years on campus.

TIGER GRADS

Auburn began the season with nine graduates on the roster, which is tied for second most among all Division 1-A football teams and is tops among SEC schools.

In addition to Guess, Jackson and Obomanu, the Tiger graduates include: DS Chas Crofoot (Entrepreneurial Family Business), C Steven Ross (Marketing), FB Jake Slaughter (Communications), TE Cooper Wallace (Business Administration), LB Antarrious Williams (Criminology) and LB Travis Williams (Criminology).

In December, Wayne Dickens, Kevin Hobbs and Troy Reddick all earned degrees, giving Auburn 12 graduates that will be on the team at the Capital One Bowl.

Listed are the top 10 programs of players who completed their bachelor's degrees prior to the 2005 season.

2005 AUBURN GAME RECAPS

GEORGIA TECH 23

#16 AUBURN 14

September 3, 2005 • ESPN
Jordan-Hare Stadium (87,451) • Auburn, Ala.

Georgia Tech forced five second-half turnovers and withstood Brandon Cox's 342 yards passing as the Yellow Jackets ended Auburn's 15-game win streak with a 23-14 victory in the season opener at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Cox's 342 yards on the night were the most passing yards for an Auburn quarterback in his first career start. Cox finished the night 22-of-44 with two touchdowns and four interceptions. The four interceptions led to six Georgia Tech points on two field goals and helped offset Auburn's 392-313 edge in total yards.

Auburn was held to just 50 yards on 23 carries on the ground, while the Tech offense ran for 139 yards on 39 rushes.

Georgia Tech running back P.J. Daniels led the team with 23 rushes for a game-best 111 yards with one touchdown. Jackets' quarterback Reggie Ball completed 17-of-36 passes for 174 yards including a 35-yard touchdown pass to Calvin Johnson in the first quarter.

After the Ball to Johnson touchdown, Georgia Tech followed up with a 32-yard Travis Bell field goal with 5:29 remaining in the first quarter, giving the Yellow Jackets a 10-0 advantage.

Auburn first scored on a 39-yard Cox pass to Devin Aromashodu 43 seconds into the second quarter. A John Vaughn extra point put the Tigers within three, 10-7.

Georgia Tech answered back late in the half on a Daniels two-yard touchdown run, culminating from a 77-yard drive with 1:48 left in the second. The Bell extra point again gave the Yellow Jackets a 10-point cushion over the Tigers, 17-7.

Just 1:07 later, Auburn attempted to break up the Tech momentum with a score of its own. Cox connected with AU wide receiver Ben Obomanu for a 15-yard touchdown, capping off a six-play, 61-yard drive. After another Vaughn extra point, Auburn headed into the lockerroom down 17-14.

Both teams were held scoreless in the third, but Georgia Tech pulled away in the fourth quarter, scoring two field goals off of interceptions.

Bell hit a 21-yard field goal with 10:16 remaining in the game after a 14-yard Georgia Tech drive.

The final score of the game came again from Bell on a 28-yard field goal with 1:32 on the clock.

MISSISSIPPI STATE 0

AUBURN 28

September 10, 2005 • JP Sports
Jordan-Hare Stadium (81,921) • Auburn, Ala.

Auburn rebounded from a season-opening loss to shut out Mississippi State 28-0 in the teams' Southeastern Conference opener as the Tigers scored a touchdown in each of the four quarters of play.

Auburn's win over Mississippi State gave the Tigers a 10-game win streak in SEC conference games and an 11-game streak over SEC member teams.

Auburn quarterback Brandon Cox threw to nine different receivers for a 12-of-18 effort for 202 yards passing. Auburn tight ends appeared to be the targets of choice as Cooper Wallace had a team-high three receptions for 21 yards and Cole Bennett grabbed two passes for 45 yards and a touchdown.

Carl Stewart rushed for 44 yards on nine carries on the day and was followed by Brad Lester with 39 yards on six carries. Kenny Irons added 35 yards on 13 carries.

Auburn got on the board on its second drive with a 33-yard pass to Bennett from Cox at the 6:56 mark in the first quarter.

On the Tigers' ensuing possession, Cox found Devin Aromashodu from 5-yards out, giving Auburn a 14-0 lead with 13:04 remaining in the second quarter.

The Auburn defense remained strong, giving Auburn an opportunity for a shutout. The Tigers added to their lead as safety Will Herring rounded up a Mississippi State fumble in the end zone, giving Auburn a 21-0 advantage.

Auburn had a few firsts down the stretch including the Tigers' final score of the day, a 6-yard touchdown rush by Brad Lester, the first of his career. In just three plays and 30 yards, Auburn captured its 28-0 shutout of the Bulldogs.

With 202 yards passing on the day, Cox became the first Auburn quarterback since Dameyune Craig in 1997 to throw for more than 200 yards in the first two games of the season.

Mississippi State quarterback Omarr Conner completed 10 passes for 116 yards and one interception and was sacked five times by the Auburn defense. Tee Milons led the team with four receptions for 54 yards and Derek Ambrose collected 42 yards on six carries.

Mississippi State troubles continued with the loss to Auburn as the game marked the 13th consecutive road loss and the 18th straight SEC road loss for the Bulldogs.

The Auburn offense was running on all cylinders against Ball State as the Tigers scored on all nine possessions in a 63-3 victory over the Cardinals.

The Tigers accumulated 572 yards — 390 rushing and 182 passing — and rushed for seven touchdowns. Redshirt freshman Brad Lester scored two rushing touchdowns and recorded a 93-yard kickoff return for a score. Lester's kickoff return for a score was the first by an Auburn player since Tim Carter in 2000 versus LSU.

Junior Kenny Irons led the Auburn ground attack with 148 yards on two touchdowns on just 11 carries. His biggest score of the day, however, came on a 68-yard run in the second quarter, giving Auburn a 28-0 advantage.

Auburn took a 35-0 lead into the lockerroom at the half, but the next score came from Ball State on a 33-yard field goal with 9:06 remaining in the third quarter. Prior to the Ball State score, the Auburn defense had held opponents scoreless for 97:26.

Auburn scored a touchdown on its next four possessions including a 93-yard kickoff return by Lester after the Ball State field goal, giving Auburn a 42-3 advantage.

Auburn's next three touchdowns were all on the ground including a 6-yard rush by Tre Smith, a 3-yard Lester run and a 52-yard rush by Tristan Davis.

Senior Ben Obomanu and freshman Prechae Rodriguez each caught passes for 39 yards on the day and Obomanu added a 3-yard touchdown reception from quarterback Brandon Cox with just :30 remaining in the first half of play.

Cox completed 16-of-19 passes for 171 yards and one touchdown.

Devlin Aromashodu returned a Ball State kickoff 52 yards to open the game, setting up the Tigers' first score, which came on a 13-yard run by Irons with 12:06 left in the first quarter. The return was the longest of Aromashodu's career.

Defensively, Merrill Johnson led the team with nine tackles, including one for a loss and Karibi Dede added six tackles, including one for a loss.

Auburn won its third consecutive game, but this time had to do it without their offensive leader as redshirt freshman quarterback Blake Field earned his first career start as the Tigers defeated Western Kentucky 37-14.

Field threw for 200 yards and three touchdowns, in place of Brandon Cox, who was out due to an illness. The redshirt freshman completed 13-of-22 passes, including a 38-yard touchdown pass to Brad Lester in the second quarter. The touchdown pass was the first of Field's career and was the first receiving touchdown of Lester's.

John Vaughn got the Tigers out to an early lead on a 28-yard field goal on just his second attempt of the season, capping off a 58-yard drive in the first quarter.

Running back Kenny Irons, who rushed for a game-best 111 yards on the day, ran in the end zone from 8 yards at the 2:48 mark in the first quarter, giving Auburn a 10-0 advantage.

The Field to Lester touchdown pass came at the 4:41 mark of the second quarter and was just the beginning of Field's scoring on the day. With just 13 seconds remaining in the half, Field completed a 9-yard pass to Anthony Mix, giving Auburn a 24-0 lead heading into the lockerroom.

Vaughn was kept busy in the victory over the Hilltoppers as the junior scored 13

SOUTH CAROLINA 7 AUBURN 48

October 1, 2005 • ESPN2

Jordan-Hare Stadium (87,451) • Auburn, Ala.

Auburn was clicking on all cylinders as the Tigers cruised to a 48-7 victory over South Carolina, handing Gamecock Coach Steve Spurrier his second-worst loss as a head coach.

The win was Auburn's 18th in its last 20 tries and extended its winning streak over SEC teams to 12 games.

Auburn scored five rushing touchdowns as running backs Kenny Irons and Brad Lester each ran for two touchdowns, while Carl Stewart added one on the ground in the win.

Sophomore quarterback Brandon Cox helped lead Auburn to a 31-0 halftime lead, directing the Tigers to five scores in seven first-half possessions.

The Auburn defense was dominant in the contest as USC was unable to cross midfield until its touchdown drive midway through the fourth quarter. The Tigers held the Gamecocks to just 199 yards of total offense on the night.

South Carolina native Travis Williams led the team with 11 tackles, including five for a loss, and a forced fumble, which led to an Auburn field goal.

Marques Gunn totaled seven tackles on the night including four tackles for loss and T.J. Jackson added six stops and three tackles for a loss.

#21 AUBURN 34 ARKANSAS 17

October 15, 2005

Reynolds Razorback Stadium (71,673) • Fayetteville, Ark.

For the first time in the 2005 season, Auburn found itself on the road and passed the test behind a 182-yard rushing performance by Kenny Irons as the Tigers defeated Arkansas 34-17 at Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

The victory improved Auburn's consecutive win streak over SEC teams to 13 and its SEC road win streak to five games.

Irons' career-high 182 yards on 33 carries gave him the top single-game performance in the Southeastern Conference to date in 2005.

Auburn continued its domination in the red zone as it scored on all six chances.

For the first time since the season-opener against Georgia Tech, the Tigers found themselves down as Arkansas jumped out to a 10-6 lead in the first half.

Auburn and quarterback Brandon Cox, responded with three second half touchdowns in the air and a rushing TD from Tre Smith. Cox ended the game completing 17-of-26 for 203 yards and three touchdowns.

In the second half, Auburn dominated from the line of scrimmage, outscoring the Razorbacks 28-7, while accumulating 253 yards of total offense in the final 30 minutes.

In the air, Devin Aromashodu, Cooper Wallace and Smith connected with Cox for touchdowns, the second time this season the Tigers have had three touchdown receptions.

John Vaughn contributed two field goals on the night (22 and 38 yards).

The Auburn defense held the nation's third ranked rushing team to 138 yards below its average as Arkansas managed just 148 yards on the ground.

In the third quarter, the Tigers held Arkansas to just 25 total yards while Auburn totaled 158.

Linebacker Karibi Dede had an interception, a fumble recovery and six tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss.

Aromashodu had six receptions for 98 yards and a touchdown.

#7 LSU 20 (OT)

October 22, 2005 • ESPN
 Tiger Stadium (92,664) • Baton Rouge, La.

Kenny Irons catapulted himself into the Auburn record books with a 218-yard rushing performance at No. 7 LSU, but it was not enough, as LSU defeated Auburn 20-17 in overtime at Tiger Stadium.

The loss halted Auburn's 13-game win streak over SEC teams and continued the trend of the home team victories in the series, extending it to six games.

Irons' 218 yards made him just the 14th player in Auburn history to rush for over 200 yards and the first since Carnell Williams ran for 204 against Alabama on Nov. 22, 2003.

The Auburn defense held LSU to 4-of-15 on third down conversions and allowed just one offensive touchdown on the night.

Brandon Cox finished the night completing 16-of-40 passes for 221 yards and a touchdown to Anthony Mix.

LSU's Skyler Green returned an Auburn punt 66 yards for a touchdown with 5:20 remaining in the first quarter.

After a 26-yard John Vaughn field goal early in the second quarter, Irons gave Auburn the lead on a 74-yard touchdown run, putting AU ahead 10-7 in the third.

LSU answered with a Dwayne Bowe 18-yard touchdown reception from JaMarcus Russell.

Auburn capped off its scoring with a 13-play, 87-yard drive, which ended with a fourth down 5-yard touchdown pass from Cox to Mix with 4:52 remaining.

LSU answered Auburn's score with an eight-play, 48-yard drive which set up a Chris Jackson 44-yard field goal with 1:40 remaining in regulation to tie the game, 17-17.

In overtime, Jackson struck again with a 30-yarder to give LSU the 20-17 advantage.

Vaughn came in for Auburn to attempt a 39-yard field goal to send the game into double overtime, but the kick hit the left upright, giving LSU the win.

Led by Irons' 218 yards, Auburn rushed for 230 yards against the SEC's top run defense.

Defensively, Will Herring and Travis Williams each tallied seven tackles on the night and Karibi Dede added six tackles including one tackle for loss.

For the first time in seven games during the season, neither Auburn, nor the Tigers' opponent had a turnover.

October 29, 2005 • JP Sports
 Jordan-Hare Stadium (85,791) • Auburn, Ala.

The Auburn defense held Ole Miss to just 23 yards rushing on 27 attempts and running back Kenny Irons notched his third consecutive 100-yard rushing game as the Tigers defeated the Rebels 27-3 at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

For the fourth time in the 2005 season, Auburn held its opponent to a single-digit score with UM's Matt Hinkle connecting on a 43-yard field goal in the second quarter for Ole Miss' lone score of the game.

Irons finished with 101 yards and one touchdown on 32 attempts. Irons' 101 yards versus Ole Miss made him the first player since Carnell Williams in 2003 to rush for three consecutive 100-yard games.

Wide receiver Courtney Taylor took on a different role for Auburn's first score of the game. Taylor connected on a 28-yard pass to Devin Aromashodu in the end zone early in the second quarter.

Kicker John Vaughn had a solid day connecting on 35 and 39-yard field goals in the second quarter.

In the third quarter, Auburn added to its point total on a 1-yard Brandon Cox pass to Ben Obomanu for a touchdown. Obomanu finished the game with 43 yards rushing and 8 yards receiving.

Irons' rushing TD from 4 yards out in the fourth quarter capped the scoring for the Tigers.

While Irons led the ground game, sophomore wideout Prechae Rodriguez tied a career best three catches for 55 yards.

Cox finished the game completing 17-of-27 for 205 yards and a touchdown.

On the other side of the ball, defensive end Marquies Gunn finished the day with a career-high three tackles for loss, including a quarterback sack.

Steve Gandy, earning his first career start, intercepted a pass in the second quarter and ran it back 29 yards, the longest interception return for the Tigers this season.

Montavis Pitts finished the game with seven solo tackles followed by Gunn and Jonathan Wilhite, who each had six unassisted stops.

Auburn (7-2, 5-1 SEC) relied on its ground game, rushing for 388 yards and six touchdowns, as the 17th ranked Tigers defeated Kentucky (2-6, 1-4 SEC), 49-27, in their first game in the Blue Grass State since 1995. It was Auburn's 15th consecutive win over the Wildcats dating back to 1966.

Running back Kenny Irons posted his fourth consecutive 100-yard rushing game, as the junior ran for 103 yards on 23 attempts with three touchdowns—all in the first half.

Defensive back turned running back Tristan Davis gained a team-high 162 yards on just eight carries, for an average of 20.5 yards per carry, including a 75-yard TD run on his first touch of the game. Tre Smith added 99 yards on 13 attempts, including a 46-yard TD run.

After the Tigers fell behind 7-0 early in the first quarter, Irons scored from 9-yards out midway through the first to tie the game then gave Auburn the lead for good early in the second quarter with a 1-yard touchdown run.

Quarterback Brandon Cox, who finished the day 13-of-21 for 201 yards, connected with Prechae Rodriguez for a 41-yard TD in the second quarter and Irons scored from the 2-yard line with less than a minute left in the half, giving AU a 28-10 lead.

Auburn used a steady diet of running plays in the second half, gaining 255 yards on 24 carries, including Davis' 75-yard score on its second possession of the half and a 46-yard TD run by Smith on its final possession of the game.

The Tigers finished with 589 yards of total offense, the third most in the Tommy Tuberville Era, and had five touchdown drives of 75 yards or more.

Defensively, junior Stanley McClover had seven stops including four for loss and two sacks. Quentin Groves added three TFLs and two sacks while cornerback Jonathan Wilhite had seven tackles and his first career interception.

UK running back Rafael Little had 124 yards rushing and 122 yard receiving, while wide out Keenan Burton had 100 yards receiving.

The Deep South's oldest rivalry also proved to be the most exciting as Auburn defeated No. 9 Georgia 31-30 in Athens in a game that had nine lead changes, including four in the final quarter.

Junior placekicker John Vaughn's 20-yard field goal with :06 remaining was the game winner, giving the Tigers their 10th win in the last 12 tries in Athens.

The field goal was set up four plays earlier by a 62-yard reception from quarterback Brandon Cox to Devin Aromashodu on a 4th-and-10 from the Auburn 35-yard line. Auburn's game-winning drive which started with 3:25 remaining in the game, took up 77 yards in 10 plays over 3:19.

Auburn led 21-20 entering the fourth quarter and the two teams traded touchdowns, including linebacker Karibi Dede's 15-yard fumble return giving the Tigers a 28-27 advantage.

The lead was short lived as Georgia took a 30-28 lead 2:20 later on a 41-yard field goal by Brandon Coutu.

AU running back Kenny Irons extended his streak of 100-yard rushing games to five consecutive with a 179-yard, two-touchdown performance on 37 carries. Irons led the Tigers' offensive attack in the first half, rushing for 125 yards and two touchdowns on 19 carries.

The Tigers totalled 506 yards of total offense, while the Bulldogs countered with 446 yards of their own. Cox completed 16-of-28 for 279 yards on the evening while Georgia signal caller D.J. Shockley was 20-of-36 with 306 yards and two TDs.

Aromashodu led Auburn's receivers with four receptions for a career-high 135 yards including catches of 62 and 53 yards.

Dede, who recovered two fumbles, snatched one on special teams setting up a 30-yard touchdown on an end around by Ben Obomanu midway through the third quarter.

DB David Irons and LB Antarrrious Williams led the Tigers defensively with six tackles each.

Jordan-Hare Stadium (87,451) • Auburn, Ala.

Auburn won its fourth straight game over Alabama in convincing fashion, scoring three first-quarter touchdowns against the nation's top scoring defense en route to a 28-18 victory over the No. 8 Crimson Tide at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

The victory gave the Tigers at least a share of the SEC West Division crown. It is the Tigers' fifth SEC West title in Tommy Tuberville's seven-year tenure as head coach.

The win put No. 11 Auburn (9-2 overall, 7-1 Southeastern Conference) on a four-game winning streak against the Crimson Tide for the first time since 1986-89. It also marked Auburn's sixth win in its last seven games against top 10 teams.

The Tiger offense was led by running back Kenny Irons, who finished with 103 yards rushing -- his sixth straight game over the century mark -- and wide receiver Ben Obomanu, who had both a receiving and rushing touchdown. Quarterback Brandon Cox, meanwhile, finished 14-of-21 for 118 yards and two touchdowns.

The Auburn defense picked up where the team's offense left off, holding the Crimson Tide (9-2, 6-2) to 188 total yards of offense while posting a season-high 11 sacks. Stanley McClover led the team with 3.5 sacks and four tackles for losses. He was followed closely by T.J. Jackson and Antarrrious Williams, who both had 1.5 sacks in their final game at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

Obomanu opened the game's scoring with a 7-yard touchdown reception in the first quarter. It was the 18th of his career, moving him into sole possession of second place in AU history.

Three minutes later, the Tigers saw Irons cross the plane on an 8-yard run to make it 14-0.

Obomanu made it a comfortable 21-0 lead at the 4:01 mark of the first quarter when he scored on a 45-yard reverse.

The Crimson Tide scored its first points of the game early in the second quarter on a Tim Castille 1-yard touchdown run.

Cole Bennett finished Auburn's scoring with a 5-yard touchdown reception at the 2:07 mark of the second quarter.

Alabama added a field goal in the third quarter and a 1-yard touchdown run by backup quarterback John Parker Wilson with 23 seconds left in the fourth, but it was not enough to overcome Auburn's fast start.

Auburn allowed a second-quarter sack, which was the first sack surrendered by the Tigers since allowing one in the third quarter vs. Mississippi State Sept. 10 ... Kenny Irons rushed for two touchdowns in the first half, scoring on a 1-yard run in the first quarter and a two-yard plunge in the second period. It gave Irons five rushing touchdowns in the last three weeks ... Wayne Dickens had his first career fumble recovery in the first quarter ... Brad Lester had his fourth and fifth rushing touchdowns of the season ... Ben Obomanu caught his 16th career touchdown pass in the second quarter, a 15-yarder from Brandon Cox. The touchdown moved Obomanu into sole possession of third place on Auburn's career touchdown receptions list ... Brandon Cox completed passes to 10 different receivers, and connected on 19-of-29 passes for 245 yards one touchdown and no interceptions. Cox had not been picked off since the season opener against Georgia Tech ... Carl Stewart's 1-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter was his second of the season and the fourth of his career.

ARKANSAS

Auburn won its third straight game vs. Arkansas, marking the first three-game winning streak for either team in the 15-game series ... Auburn won its 12th consecutive SEC game and 13th straight game against SEC opponent ... Auburn's 13 consecutive wins against SEC opponents was one shy of the school record set in 1993-94 ... Auburn extended its SEC road winning streak to five games ... Auburn improved to 3-0 in the SEC for the fifth time in the last six seasons ... Auburn was playing its first road game of the season. Auburn and Nebraska, which also played its first road game Oct. 15, were the last two Division I-A teams to play a road game this season ... Arkansas' first-quarter field goal marked the first points allowed by Auburn in the first half this season since the season opener vs. Georgia Tech. The Tigers had shut out their last four opponents during the first half ... Will Herring's blocked field goal in the second quarter was the second blocked field goal by the Tigers this year ... Arkansas' 10 first-half points all came after Auburn turnovers. Prior to the game, the Tigers had allowed just six points off turnovers all season ... Auburn outscored Arkansas 14-0 in the third quarter, moving its scoring advantage to 51-3 in the third quarter this season ... Auburn was six-of-six on scoring opportunities in the red zone (four touchdowns, two field goals), improving to an SEC-best 28-of-30 in the red zone this season ... Brad Lester made his first career start at tailback for Auburn ... Kenny Irons finished with a career-high 182 yards rushing on 33 carries. It marked his third 100-yard rushing game of the season and third in the last four contests ... Brandon Cox completed 17-of-26 passes for 203 yards and three touchdowns ... Devin Aromashodu's 98 yards receiving pushed his career total to 1,068. He became the 20th Auburn player to surpass 1,000 yards receiving and joined Courtney Taylor and Ben Obomanu to mark the first time in Auburn history that the Tigers have had three players with 1,000 career receiving yards on their team at one time ... Brandon Cox's interception on the opening drive was his first interception thrown, and the first thrown by any Tiger, since the season opener vs. Georgia Tech. Cox had thrown 69 straight passes without an interception ... Karibi Dede had his first career interception in the fourth quarter on a pass that was deflected by Montavis Pitts ... Tre Smith's 5-yard touchdown reception in the third quarter was his second career receiving touchdown, and first since a 5-yard TD grab his freshman season against Louisiana-Monroe ... Smith's 7-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter is his second of the season ... Cooper Wallace's 9-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter was his first touchdown reception of the season and the fourth of his career.

LSU

Auburn's streak of 12 consecutive SEC victories came to a close with the 20-17 overtime loss at LSU ... Auburn fell to 3-4 in overtime games. The Tigers' last overtime game was a 30-23 loss at Florida on Oct. 19, 2002 ... Skyler Green's 66-yard punt return for a touchdown was the first punt returned for a touchdown vs. Auburn since James Riddle of Syracuse went 85 yards in 2002 ... Auburn trailed at the half, 7-3. It marked just the third time this season that Auburn has trailed at the half (Georgia Tech, Arkansas) ... The Auburn defense held LSU to 111 total yards and no offensive touchdowns in the first half. LSU entered the game averaging 386.4 yards and 30.8 points per game ... LSU's third-quarter touchdown was the first touchdown allowed by Auburn in the third quarter this season. Auburn entered the game with a 51-3 advantage in points scored during the third quarter ... Auburn trailed 14-10 entering the fourth quarter. It was just the second time this season that Auburn trailed after three quarters (Georgia Tech) ... Kenny Irons' 218 yards rushing vs. LSU ranks 14th in Auburn's single-game rushing list. Irons is just the 14th player in school history to rush for over 200 yards in a single game. The last Tiger to rush for 200+ yards in a game was Carnell Williams with 204 vs. Alabama on Nov. 22, 2003 ... Irons' 74-yard touchdown run in the third quarter was a career-long rush for Irons and the longest play from scrimmage for Auburn this season. The previous long was a 70-yard run by Brad Lester vs. Ball State ... Irons' 74-yard burst is tied for the 24th-longest rush in Auburn history and the longest since Carnell Williams went 80 yards on the first play of the 2003 game vs. Alabama ... Kody Bliss had a 63-yard punt late in the second quarter that went out-of-bounds at the LSU 4-yardline. It was a season and career long punt for Bliss, whose previous career long was a 62-yard boot in 2003 vs. Louisiana-Monroe ... Jake Slaughter's 19-yard reception in the third quarter was his first reception since 2003 and the fourth of his career ... Anthony Mix's 5-yard touchdown reception in the fourth quarter was his second of the season and the seventh of his career.

OLE MISS

Irons became the 19th player in school history to rush for 10 or more rushing touchdowns in a single season ... Irons carried the ball 23 times, all in the first half, giving him 115 rushing attempts in his last four games ... Tristan Davis also surpassed 100 yards rushing, finishing with 162, marking the first time Auburn has had two backs rush for more than 100 yards since Ronnie Brown (147) and Carnell Williams (122) both went over the century mark in 2004 at Mississippi State ... Brandon Cox finished with 201 yards passing, giving him seven games with 200 or more passing yards this season ... With two catches for 28 yards, Anthony Mix moved into Auburn's top 20 for career pass receptions ... Prechae Rodriguez caught a 41-yard touchdown pass from Brandon Cox in the second quarter. It was the first touchdown catch of Rodriguez's career ... Tristan Davis' 75-yard touchdown run in the third quarter was his second rushing touchdown of the season on just his third attempt. He had a 52-yard touchdown run earlier this season vs. Ball State, giving him 124 yards rushing on his first three career attempts ... Davis' 75-yard run was the longest play from scrimmage for Auburn this season, surpassing Kenny Irons' 74-yard touchdown run at LSU. It was tied for the 23rd-longest run in Auburn history ... Kody Bliss had punts of 59 and 57 yards ... Jonathan Wilhite had his first career interception in the third quarter. Wilhite became the eighth different Tiger to intercept a pass this season ... Tre Smith's 46-yard touchdown run in the fourth quarter marked his third rushing TD this season and the 12th rushing TD of his career ... Tristan Davis just missed setting the Auburn record for single-game highest yards per rush average (20.25, eight carries for 162 yards). Brent Fullwood averaged 20.7 yards per rush vs. Vanderbilt in 1986 with 145 yards on seven carries.

GEORGIA

Auburn won for the 10th time in its last 12 games in Athens ... Auburn moved one game ahead of Georgia for the best record in the SEC since 2000 with a record of 35-12 during that span ... The 31 points scored by Auburn were the most allowed by Georgia this season and the most since 2003 ... Auburn's 92-yard touchdown drive on the opening possession was its longest of the season in terms of yards ... Georgia entered the game allowing an average of 13.8 points and 288.9 yards per game. Auburn scored 14 points and had 274 yards in the first half alone ... Auburn won its 11th game in its last 16 tries vs. teams ranked in the top 10 ... John Vaughn's 20-yard field goal late in the fourth quarter gave the Tigers their first fourth-quarter comeback since a 10-9 victory over LSU in 2004. Vaughn also kicked the extra point to give Auburn the win in that game ... There were nine lead changes in the game, including four in the fourth quarter ... Kenny Irons surpassed the 1,000-yard rushing mark for the season, marking the 17th 1,000-yard season in Auburn history ... Irons went over the 100-yard rushing mark on his 14th carry in the second quarter. It was the fourth time this season he surpassed 100 yards rushing in the first half ... Irons had his seventh 100-yard rushing game of the season, tying for third most in a single season in Auburn history ... Irons had his fifth consecutive 100-yard rushing game, tying for the second-best streak in Auburn history and the longest since Rudi Johnson in 2000 ... Irons' two touchdown runs in the first half (30 and 6 yards) gave him 12 for the season, moving him into a tie for ninth on Auburn's single-season rushing touchdowns list ... Devin Aromashodu had 135 receiving yards, which is a season best for Auburn and the most since a 150-yard receiving performance from Ben Obomanu vs. Ole Miss in 2003 ... Brandon Cox threw for 279 yards for his eighth 200-yard passing game of the season, moving him into sole possession of third place in Auburn's single-season history ... Cox threw for more than 200 yards for the sixth straight game, moving him into a tie for second in Auburn history for consecutive 200-yard passing games. Pat Sullivan holds the record with seven in 1970 ... Cox was intercepted on Auburn's second drive, snapping a string of 110 consecutive passes thrown without an interception. Cox had not been picked off since the first half of an Oct. 15 game at Arkansas ... Brad Lester had a 30-yard run on his first carry since Oct. 15 at Arkansas. It was his fourth run of at least 20 yards this season ... Ben Obomanu's 30-yard touchdown run in the third quarter was his first career rushing touchdown ... Brandon Cox's 53-yard pass to Devin Aromashodu in the fourth quarter was Auburn's longest pass play of the season. The previous long was a 41-yard touchdown strike to Prechae Rodriguez at Kentucky ... Karibi Dede recovered two fumbles, returning one 15 yards for a touchdown ... Dede's fumble recovery was the second defensive score of the season for Auburn.

ALABAMA

Auburn won its fourth straight game over Alabama for the first time since 1986-89 ... The last time Auburn beat an Alabama team ranked eighth or higher was in 1989 (No. 2 Alabama) ... Auburn improved to 12-5 in its last 17 games against teams ranked in the Associated Press Top 10, winning five of its last six ... Auburn clinched a share of the SEC Western Division title, and has now won or shared six of the last seven SEC Western Division titles ... Auburn's 15 seniors played their final game in Jordan-Hare Stadium. Auburn improved to 39-11 over the past four seasons, tying for the most wins during a four-year span in Auburn history ... Auburn has won 22 games over the past two seasons, which is the most over a two-year span in school history ... The Tigers improved to 7-0 this season when scoring first ... Auburn led 21-0 at the end of the first quarter. The 21 points scored by Auburn in the opening period were the most scored by Auburn against Alabama in any quarter since the Tigers scored 21 points during the fourth quarter of a 49-26 Auburn victory in 1969 ... The Auburn defense held Alabama to minus-17 yards of offense in the first quarter, including minus-35 yards during Alabama's first four drives ... The Auburn defense recorded a school record 11 sacks, including five in the first quarter alone ... Auburn scored more points in the first half (28) than Alabama had allowed in any game this season ... The 28 first-half points scored by Auburn were the most by the Tigers against Alabama in any half since Auburn scored 35 second-half points vs. the Tide in 1969 ... Ben Obomanu's seven-yard touchdown reception was the 18th touchdown catch of his career, moving him into sole possession of second on Auburn's career touchdown receptions list ... Obomanu's 45-yard touchdown run marked his second consecutive game with a touchdown run ... With two touchdown passes, Brandon Cox moved into a tie for eighth on Auburn's single-season touchdown passes list with 14 ... Kenny Irons finished with 103 yards rushing, marking his eighth 100-yard rushing game of the season and sixth in a row. His eight 100-yard games is tied for second most in a season in Auburn history with Bo Jackson in 1985, and his six straight 100-yard games is the second-best streak in school history, one behind Joe Cribbs' record of seven set in 1978 ... Irons' eight-yard touchdown run in the first quarter was the 13th of the season, moving him into a tie for sixth on the school's single-season rushing touchdowns chart. It was his fifth consecutive game with a rushing touchdown ... With an 18-yard reception in the second quarter, Anthony Mix became the fourth current Auburn player to surpass 1,000 career receiving yards. It is the first known occurrence in SEC history of one team having four career 1,000-yard receivers on its squad at the same time. However, Mix later lost two yards on his next catch, pushing his career total back to 999 ... Cole Bennett had his second touchdown catch of the season and first since the Mississippi State game in the second quarter. It was his third receiving touchdown of his career and fourth overall ... John Vaughn made four extra points, and in the process, became Auburn's all-time leader in extra points made and attempted, passing Damon Duvall (1999-2002) in both categories. Vaughn improved to 127-of-128 for his career in extra points.
