NOTABLES

The Tigers will play Florida in the opening round of the 2006 SEC Tournament ... The Tigers enter the tournament as the sixth seed, only the second time the Tigers have been lower than the fourth seed in the tournament's history ... The last time the Tigers were the sixth seed was in 2001, which was also the only time the Tigers reached the finals of the conference tournament ... Auburn went 0-5 against the five teams ahead of them in the seedings, losing to four of them 1-0 while AU fell to Florida, 2-1 ... AU and UF have met three previous times in the SEC Tournament (1995, '96, '01) with Auburn going 0-2-1 against them ... The tie came in 1995 and saw the Tigers defeat the Gators, 5-4, on penalty kicks ... That was the only time AU and UF met in the first round of the tournament.

QUOTING COACH HOPPA...

"The girls know this might as well be the NCAA's for us because if we lose our season is over. We need to play with that urgency. We know that we have to win Thursday to play Friday. We can't look beyond our first opponent. If we can get by Florida we will look beyond Florida on Friday.

"Florida is a tough (first-round) draw but if you look at any of the top five teams in the league, any of them would have been a tough draw. The good thing is we get Florida while we are fresh.

"I thought one of the keys to Florida beating us during the regular season was their depth. They scored two goals late in the first half when they had made a lot more subs than we could have.

"It will be great to get Florida on a neutral site and on a little bit bigger field than what they play on at home.

"We are going to try to make Orange Beach our home field because it is in our state and we played there in the preseason, so hopefully that will be an advantage for us."

SCOUTING THE SEC TOURNAMENT

Auburn, the sixth seed, will face the No. 3 seeded Florida Gators in the opening round of the tournament at 2:30 p.m. CT on Thursday. Should the Tigers advance to the second round, AU will face the winner of the #2 Ole Miss-#7 Kentucky game at 5:00 p.m. CT on Friday.

Against the teams in Auburn's bracket this season, the Tigers have gone 1-2, falling, 2-1, to Florida in Gainesville, losing 1-0 to Ole Miss at Oxford in overtime and defeating Kentucky, 2-1, in Auburn.

Of the five teams seeded ahead of the Tigers, AU has gone 0-5 against them, losing four 1-0 games and a 2-1 game to Florida.

SCOUTING THE GATORS

Florida has been playing very well since the Tigers went down to Gainesville two months ago. Since defeating AU 2-1, the Gators have gone 7-2 with their only losses being dealt by #20 Tennessee and Ole Miss, both one-goal games.

Cherry Pickman leads the Gators offensively with five goals and four assists (13 pts) but she is not the only threat with the ball as six Gators have at least 10 points on the year and a total of 17 players have earned a point this season.

The Gators have split the minutes in net between Brittini Goodwin (845 mins) and Jen Gardner (802 mins) with Goodwin posting a 0.75 GAA and Gardner a 1.23 GAA mark.

TIGERS AS THE SIXTH SEED IN THE SEC TOURNAMENT

The 2005 tournament will mark just the second time that Auburn has been the sixth-seed in the SEC Tournament, the last time coming in 2001. That was also the only other time that Auburn has ever advanced to the finals of the tournament as AU defeated Georgia and Ole Miss before falling to Florida in the championship game.

BACK TO THE BEACH

The trip to Orange Beach will be a return trip for the Tigers this season as AU spent a week of its preseason down on the coast, scrimmaging West Florida to a scoreless tie on Sunday, Aug. 14, on one of the practice fields at the complex.

THREE WINS NEEDED TO MAKE THE BIG DANCE

The Tigers need to win three straight games - and the tournament championship - to make the NCAA Tournament for a fifth consecutive year after finishing the regular season five games under .500, the minimum winning percentage needed to qualify for an at-large selection to the 64-team tournament.

THANK YOU, SENIORS

Barring an undefeated run through the conference tournament, this weekend represents the final games for seniors Jessie Allan, Courtney Crandell, Ashley Eason, Sara Power, Jada Stewart and Ashley Willis.

M	25	Kimberly Thorington	5-2	Fr.
F	15	Kara Kasten	5-5	Fr.	1G, 1A, 17Sh.

Combined, these six seniors have helped Auburn to a 50-24-8 (.659) record in their four seasons as well as an SEC-record of 26-10-4 (.700) and three straight SEC West Championships (2002-04). This class also played into the second round in the NCAA Tournament all three seasons thus far.

Jac Schwarz was due to exhaust her eligibility this season as well but a leg injury during the preseason enabled her to red-shirt this year, meaning she will be back for next season's campaign.

Jada Stewart, who is just a junior eligibility-wise, has decided to forgo her final year as she red-shirted in 2002 due to a foot injury. She instead will graduate and head off to graduate school.

POWER OUTTAGE

Auburn's offense has struggled to put balls in the goal this season, as evidenced by their 23 goals in 18 games leading up to the tournament. Currently, the 23 goals is the fewest in a single season for AU as the school-low to date is 24 goals during the 1998 season when the Tigers finished the season 5-12-0, 2-6-0 SEC. Though not the lowest, the 23 assists is also amongst the three-fewest assist marks in a season for a Tiger squad.

BROOKS NAMED SEC DEFENSIVE POW

Junior defender Ronda Brooks earned the Southeastern Conference's Defensive Player of the Week award (Oct. 17) after having a hand in both game-winning goals as Auburn swept its home SEC weekend from Arkansas and LSU. Against the LadyBacks she had the second assist on Jada Stewart's double-overtime game winner while on Sunday she scored the first goal in a 2-0 Auburn victory. Defensively she played 195 minutes on Auburn's backline, allowing just one goal between the two games.

STEWART TO STEWART ONCE AGAIN

The game-winning goal in double-overtime against Arkansas marked the second time in their careers that twin sisters Jada and Kristin Stewart hooked-up for a goal. The sisters first connected in 2002 when they were freshman as Jada assisted on Kristin's goal against Evansville, a 3-1 AU victory.

WILLIS GOES BIG AGAINST BULLDOGS

Senior forward Ashley Willis scored the first two goals of her career and assisted on another two during Auburn's 5-0 victory over Mississippi State (Oct. 7), giving her six points in the game. The school record for points in a game is eight, held by Tiffany Smith vs. LaGrange on Sept. 25, 1993. For Willis, the one-game total of six points far surpasses her career total of one point, which came against Alabama last season as she assisted on Sara Power's game-winner.

WHITWORTH RETURNS - IN MIDFIELD

After missing four games after suffering an upper-arm injury, goalkeeper Allison Whitworth rejoined the team for the Mississippi State game, though not in her original position. Instead she entered the game against the Bulldogs as a midfield substitution and also played 23 minutes in the midfield in the match with Ole Miss.

PLAYING THE BEST OF THE BEST

Auburn typically plays a very tough schedule to prepare themselves for the rigors of the SEC conference season and beyond. At the conclusion of the regular season, Auburn's opponents have put together a combined record of 172-121-34 (.578). The only other SEC squads that played tougher schedules this season was Florida (190-115-29 - .612) and Mississippi State (202-129-30 - .601).

NETTING 150

AU Head Coach Karen Hoppa tallied the victory she needed to reach the 150 career coaching wins mark over South Carolina on Friday, Sept. 23. Hoppa's first-ever win came in 1993 at Central Florida while her first win at AU was a 4-0 blanking of Southwest Texas State on Sept. 3, 1999. Hoppa also surpassed another milestone this season as the win against Rhode Island was the 75th of her career at Auburn, giving her more wins with the Tigers than she had amassed with the Golden Knights in six years.

GAME WINNERS

Of Kristin Stewart's four goals this season, three have been game winners as she scored the first goal in AU's 3-0 win over Rhode Island during the Auburn/Reebok Classic, then netted the game winner in the 1-0 victory at South Carolina and also scored the first goal in AU's 5-0 win over Mississippi State. Her only other goal was the first of the 2-1 victory over Kentucky.

TWO OUT FOR SEASON

Junior midfielder Amanda Garcia will join senior midfielder Jac Schwarz on the injured list for the rest of the season as Garcia went down with a leg injury during the loss to Miami while Schwarz went down during the preseason with a similar leg injury.

SAFETY NET

After losing goalkeeper Allison Whitworth to an upper-arm injury, the Tigers had a tryout for the emergency keeper spot and Courtney Crandell emerged as the one to wear the gloves should the Tigers need a second goalkeeper over the final few weeks of the season.

BROOKS AND EASON NAMED TO UNM ALL-CLASSIC TEAM

Senior defender Ashley Eason and junior midfielder/defender Ronda Brooks were each named to the UNM All-Classic Team. Brooks scored Auburn's lone goal at the UNM Classic, scoring on a penalty kick in the game against Arizona State. Eason showed her toughness as she played the entire second-half and overtime of the New Mexico game with her hand wrapped after injuring it during the first period. She then played the entire game against ASU with the same hand wrapped for protection.

FIVE IN A ROW

The SEC coaches tabbed the Tigers to win their fifth consecutive SEC West crown in the annual preseason poll. The Tigers received 10 out of a possible 12 first-place votes in the division, with Ole Miss picking up the remaining two votes. In the overall race, Auburn received one vote to win the conference while Florida received six votes and Tennessee five.

HOUSTON, Texas – The Auburn soccer team opened its season with a 2-1 loss at Rice Friday night as the Owls were awarded two penalty kicks, capitalizing on one, which would be the game-winner.

The Tigers got on the board in the 24th minute as Courtney Crandell sent a hard shot in from the left sideline towards the goal. Junior defender Ronda Brooks was in position at the right side of the goal just two yards out when she headed in the shot directly from Crandell for the 1-0 Auburn advantage.

Auburn goalkeeper Anna Fiser, who made three saves in the half, was most closely-challenged on an Owls indirect kick just outside the box 25 minutes into the half. The half ended with the Tigers up 1-0 and shots tied at 3-3.

In the second half, Auburn had its chances as freshman Kara Kasten broke through the Rice defense on a pass from Jada Stewart, but the shot went high over the crossbar.

With 25:05 remaining on the clock, the Owls got the ball into the Auburn end. The ball hit off of a Tiger defender and to Rice midfielder Ashley Lucas, who sent the ball past Fiser from two yards out, tying the game at 1-1.

In the 77nd minute, the Owls were awarded a penalty kick, but Erin Droeger missed left, keeping the score at 1-1. Exactly five minutes later, Auburn was not so lucky as another penalty kick was awarded to Rice and this time Caitlin Robbins got the ball past Fiser for the score and the 2-1 advantage.

Rice out-shot Auburn 9-5 in the game, but corner kicks were 6-1 in favor of the Tigers for the contest.

YC-Texas #16 (37:06)

AUSTIN, Texas – Despite out-shooting the Longhorns 20-to-17, the Auburn soccer team could not pull out a victory as Texas defeated the Tigers 2-0 Sunday night at Myers Stadium in Auburn's first nationally-televised game, live on ESPNU.

Texas didn't waste any time as a corner kick set up the first goal just 3:07 into the game. Erin Davis took the corner, which Carrie Schmit tapped to Kasey Moore for the score, past AU goalkeeper Anna Fiser.

At the conclusion of the half, shots were in favor of Texas 9-to-8 and the Longhorns took four corner kicks to Auburn's one.

In the second half, Auburn came out quick with a chance by Sara Power that was knocked out by two Texas defenders inside the goal. Senior forward Courtney Crandell also had an opportunity that hit the post later in the half.

Another corner kick by Texas with 34:45 remaining in the game, put the Longhorns up 2-0 for good. Davis again took the corner and Schmit one-timed a header into the goal, this time past AU freshman goalkeeper Allison Whitworth.

The Tigers ended the game with 20 shots, seven on goal, and had four corner kicks in the match, to Texas' six.

YC-Cal State Fullerton #25 (53:42); YC-Auburn #3 (77:02); YC-Cal State Fullerton #12 (79:41); YC-Auburn #12 (98:10)

AUBURN, Ala. -- The Auburn soccer team dropped its home opener, 2-1, to Cal State Fullerton in double overtime on Friday night at the Auburn Soccer Complex in the second game of the Auburn/Reebok Classic. The loss dropped the Tigers to 0-3 on the season while the Titans improved to 2-1 on the young season.

Cal State Fullerton scored the game winner with just over one minute left in the final overtime period. Stacey Thompson put in a shot to the left of AU keeper Anna Fiser off of a pass from Desiree Flint with just 1:07 remaining, sending the Tigers to their first three-game losing streak since the 2000 season.

The Titans got on the board first as Kellie Cox scored her first goal of the season, sending in a corner kick from the right hand side down by the Auburn goal at the 5:09 mark of the first half.

The second half saw the Tigers get more aggressive, with the end result being an unassisted goal by Leah Blayney from the middle of the top of the box at the 60:21 mark.

Auburn was out shot 20-12 in the game. Fiser made four saves between the second half and the two overtimes. Allison Whitworth made five saves in the first half.

AUBURN, Ala. -- Kristen Stewart's goal at the 22:29 mark of the first half was the only goal that Auburn needed to secure its first victory of the 2005 soccer season as the Tigers defeated Rhode Island, 3-0, on Sunday afternoon in the final game of the Auburn/Reebok Classic at the AU Soccer Complex.

Ashley Eason had two assists for the Tigers, who got goals from Stewart, Leah Blayney and Amanda Garcia, as AU moved to 1-3-0 on the young season.

2005 GAME RECAPS

Stewart got Auburn on the board early as Eason sent the ball up the right side of the field from 10-yards behind the midfield line to Kara Kasten, who dribbled up to the box before passing off to Stewart at the top of the box on the left hand side. Stewart then dribbled around the URI defender before firing a shot past Rams goal-keeper Ria Carroll's right for her first goal of the season and a 1-0 Tiger lead.

The game remained 1-0 Tigers until the 51:17 mark when Eason found Blayney in a two-on-one in front of the URI net. Blayney faked Carroll and then fired a shot past her for her second goal of the season.

The win snapped a three-game losing streak for the Tigers. Rhode Island fell to 0-4-0.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Neither team could find the back of the net on a rainy night at New Mexico's Soccer Complex as the Auburn soccer team played to a scoreless tie with the host Lobos in AU's first game of the UNM Classic on Friday night. With the tie the Tigers moved to 1-3-1 on the year. New Mexico is now 1-1-2.

Both teams had their opportunities, but neither defense would allow the other team a solid scoring chance along the way. Perhaps the best chance in the first half went to New Mexico as Asha Richardson had a clear breakaway with 4:20 left but was stifled on her chance as AU's Kori Hoelscher raced back and slid down to kick the ball away and thwart the scoring chance.

The Tigers best chance of the first half came when Kristen Stewart took a ball at the top of the box and rifled a shot into the midsection of a Lobo defender. It was one of only two shots for the Tigers in the first 45 minutes of play.

The Tigers upped their offensive pressure in the second half and overtime, taking six shots. In the second half the best scoring opportunity belonged to AU as Sara Powers' header was saved by UNM keeper Kristen Winters and Ashley Willis' subsequent shot was blocked by a group of Lobo defenders.

Ronda Brooks also had a chance to win it late in the second overtime as she put a shot on goal off of a Courtney Crandell corner kick, but it too ended up in the arms of Winters.

The scoreless tie was the first for Auburn since October 3, 2003, when AU and South Carolina played a scoreless tie in Columbia, S.C.

The double-overtime game was the second in three games for the Tigers, who lost to Cal State Fullerton, 2-1, last Friday night in the opener of the Auburn/Reebok Classic.

Cautions and Ejections

YC-Arizona State #13 (23:10)

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. - Arizona State scored two goals in the first 18 minutes of play and that was all the Sun Devils needed as the Auburn soccer team fell to ASU, 4-1, on Sunday afternoon at the UNM Soccer Complex as a part of the UNM Classic. The loss dropped the Tigers to 1-4-1 on the season as AU went 0-1-1 at the Classic.

ASU scored a goal at the 5:40 mark of the first period to take a quick lead as Stephanie Ebner scored from the top of the 18-yard box. ASU wasted little time scoring their second, as it was just over 12 minutes later when Manya Makoski beat AU keeper Anna Fiser with a shot to the top right of the AU net off of a feed from Brittany Cooper from 15 yards out.

The Tigers got one back on a penalty kick by Rhonda Brooks at the 18:55 mark of the first half to get within a goal, 2-1. AU was awarded the kick when Courtney Crandell was pulled down 15-yards away from the ASU net.

The second half was all ASU offensively as Makoski scored her second of the game and Elizabeth Bogus her first off of Cooper's second assist.

ASU moved to 4-2-0 on the season.

AUBURN, Ala. - Auburn had its chances early but they could not manage to make the net ripple enough as the AU soccer team fell to visiting Miami, 2-1, on Friday night at the AU Soccer Complex. Freshman Kara Kasten netted the first goal of her collegiate career in the losing effort for the Tigers, who dropped to 1-5-1 on the season.

Kasten got Auburn on the board first at the 40:52 mark of the first half as she took a ball off of a nice pass from Leah Blayney, beating the Miami keeper, Lauren McAdam, for a late first-half lead.

Miami would answer quickly, however, as Rebecca Tweneboah scored on a breakaway and beat AU's Allison Whitworth from the short side of field at the 43:27 mark of the first half.

The Hurricanes put the Tigers away midway through the second half as Paulette Ricks-Chambers scored her second goal of the season off of a feed from Bryn Heinicke, beating Anna Fiser, who came in for Whitworth halfway through the second half. Whitworth was taken out of the game after a mid-air collision with one of the U of M forwards.

Auburn had multiple chances in the first half to break the game open, the most significant coming off of the foot of Blayney at the 37:37 mark, who hit the crossbar after firing a shot from the top of the box.

Blayney's chance was not the only one as a little more than 15 minutes later Courtney Crandell had a chance to score from in close but could not get a shot off as McAdam raced out to cover the ball. Crandell wasn't finished there as with 7:24 left, she again had a chance from in close, this one less than 10-yards out, but again McAdam got to the ball, this time making the save.

The Tigers out-shot the Hurricanes, 15-11 and led in corners, 5-2.

With the win, Miami improved to 5-2-1.

YC-South Carolina #3 (34:15); YC-Auburn #3 (38:02)

COLUMBIA, S.C. - Kristin Stewart's second-half goal broke open a scoreless game and propelled the Auburn soccer team to a 1-0 victory over South Carolina in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams on Friday night at Stone Stadium. The win snapped a three-game winless streak for the Tigers, who moved to 2-5-1, 1-0-0 SEC on the season.

Stewart's second goal of the season came as a result of constant pressure in front of the Carolina net by the Tigers midway through the second half. Sara Power had the first shot at the Carolina goal during a minute of constant pressure, only to get the ball blocked by the USC defense. Stewart then corralled the rebound and, after putting a move on the defender, dribbled forward and shot from 16 yards out. The shot again found the legs of the Carolina defense but the shot kept on towards the net and the deflection only fooled Carolina keeper Laura Armstrong and slowly rolled past her to her right, giving AU the 1-0 lead.

Anna Fiser made two saves in net for the Tigers, who opened up their self-proclaimed 'new year' with the victory.

The first half was a half of missed opportunities for both teams as both had plenty of chances to score. Auburn's two best chances came from in close as Leah Blayney fired a crossing-shot from 16-yards out and to the right of Armstrong, forcing the Gamecock netminder to make a diving move to her left to make the save. Later on in the period it was Courtney Crandell who was inside the inner box and put one past Armstrong, but Crandell had committed a foul before taking the shot, negating the goal.

USC also had a couple of close calls in the first half, most notably two headers from inside the inner box that both went wide.

The scoreless first half for the Tigers was the fourth time that Auburn was not able to light up the scoreboard in the first 45 minutes of play this season.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. - Florida scored two goals within a two-minute span and then the #17 Gators held on to defeat Auburn, 2-1, on Sunday afternoon at UF's Pressly Stadium. The loss dropped the Tigers to 2-6-1, 1-1-0 SEC while Florida moved to 6-2-1, 1-0-1 SEC.

Florida got two goals within a two-minute span late in the first half as both Jessica Young and Bianca Gibbs found a hole in the AU defense and beat AU goalkeeper Anna Fiser.

Young's goal came after a short Florida offensive barrage as Young corralled a rebound off of a Fiser save and put in the unassisted goal at the 39:21 mark from two yards out.

Two minutes later it was Gibbs who took a short pass from Young six-yards out and again found the back of the net, putting the Gators up 2-0 heading into the half.

Courtney Crandell brought the Tigers within a goal at the 59:52 mark as she took a long clearing pass from Lauren Stewart and split the UF defense, firing in a long shot from the top of the box for her first goal of the season.

Crandell was inches away from knotting the game up later on in the second as her shot from inside the 18-yard box with 13:00 minutes left found the right post.

Brooks also had a solid chance as with 14 seconds left she took another long clearing pass and fired a shot, but it went up and over the net, ending the AU threat.

Florida recorded 18 shots to Auburn's eight with Fiser making 14 saves for AU.

Cautions and Ejections

YC-Vanderbilt #6 (32:29); YC-Auburn #12 (73:53)

AUBURN, Ala. - One goal was all it took for Vanderbilt to hold off the Auburn soccer team as the Commodores posted a 1-0 shutout over the Tigers on Friday night at the AU Soccer Complex. The loss dropped the Tigers to 2-7-1, 1-2-0 SEC while Vanderbilt moved to 10-1-0, 3-0-0 SEC.

The lone goal in the game came midway through the second half as Vanderbilt's Sarah Dennis took a long pass from Kim Perkins and split the AU defense before firing what would prove to be the game winner into the top-right hand corner of the net past AU goalkeeper Anna Fiser from 15-yards out.

The Tigers had three very good scoring chances during the first half, but mustered just one shot on goal in those three chances. With 20 minutes left, Sara Power found herself in good position on the short side of the VU net but her shot found VU keeper Tyler Griffin's hands, who deflected the ball over the end line.

2005 GAME RECAPS

The Tigers again put the pressure on the Commodores four minutes later as Kristin and Jada Stewart did a pair of touch passes to each other at the top of the 18-yard box but this time it was the VU defense that thwarted the scoring opportunity.

Auburn put another solid rush on another four minutes later as this time Kristin Stewart seemed to be on a mini-breakaway but was dragged down by a VU defender, negating the rush.

The shutout marked the third time that Auburn was held without a goal this season while the final score marked the sixth one-goal game of the season for the Tigers.

Auburn was out-shot 15-5 in the game.

YC-Kentucky #12 (63:39); YC-Kentucky #TM (82:49)

AUBURN, Ala. - After adjusting the starting lineup it was a pair of substitutes that scored goals for the Tigers as Auburn defeated Kentucky, 2-1, on Sunday in Southeastern Conference soccer action. Courtney Crandell scored the game winner while Kristin Stewart netted the first goal of the game for the Tigers, who moved to 3-7-1, 2-2-0 SEC and handed Kentucky (5-1-6, 1-1-2) its first loss of the season.

Ashley Willis started the final rush that provided the game-winner for the Tigers as she raced down field, pressuring UK goalkeeper Anne Ogundele, who came out of the net to stop the attack. Ogundele could not hold on to the ball, however, and it popped out to Crandell at the top of the box, who fired in a shot for her second goal of the season at the 81:54 mark.

Stewart opened the scoring with her third goal of the season after a great feed from Crandell, who fed her the ball from behind the midfield stripe. From there it was all Stewart, who dribbled down the field and fired a shot past Ogundele for the early one-goal lead at the 28:05 mark of the first half.

Kentucky knotted the game at 1-1 at 64:47 after working out of a scramble near the top of the box. Nicola Holdsworth somehow found a way out to get the ball through the pack of Auburn players and to her teammate Sarah Gaunt, who beat AU keeper Anna Fiser.

Fiser made seven saves for the Tigers as UK took 13 shots.

The one-goal game was the seventh for the Tigers this season.

STARKVILLE, Miss. - Senior Ashley Willis scored two goals and assisted on another two as the Auburn soccer team defeated Mississippi State, 5-0, on Friday night at the MSU Soccer Field. The two goals were the first two goals of Willis' career as the Tigers (4-7-1, 3-2-0 SEC) handed the Bulldogs (1-8-3, 0-5-0 SEC) their worst loss in over five seasons.

The Tigers used two breakaway goals in the first half to take a 2-0 halftime lead as both Kristin Stewart and Willis found the back of the net, setting up the Tigers for a big night.

Stewart scored her fourth goal of the season off of a long pass from Willis, who had taken control of the ball after an MSU defender turned it over near the midfield circle. After a few dribbles, Willis passed the ball up to Stewart, who moved into the 18-yard box and then fired one to the right of MSU keeper Emily Meyers just 9:23 into the game.

Stewart returned the favor to Willis a few minutes later as Stewart dribbled down the left side of the field and crossed a long pass to Willis who fired a shot from just inside the 18-yard box that hit the left post and ricocheted back into the net at the 26:28 mark. The goal was the first of Willis' four-year career with the Tigers.

Freshman Jenn Johnson made it a 3-0 game just over a minute into the second half as she took a pass from Willis, who found a loose ball after a scramble in front of the net, and Johnson buried it into the lower righthand corner for the first goal of her career.

Willis cemented the outcome just three minutes after Johnson's goal as she took a long feed from Jada Stewart from the midfield and outraced an MSU defender to the ball. Willis then fired in her second goal of the game at the 47:38 mark of the game.

Leah Blayney scored her third of the season with 2:59 left in the game as she collected a long deflection after a corner kick and put it in from 15-yards out for the final tally of the night.

The five goals were the most scored by the Tigers in a game this season and the two first-half goals marked the first time that the Tigers have scored two in the first frame of a game this season.

Stewart's goal was her third game-winner of the season and marked a new single-season career high for the junior.

The victory was the biggest for the Tigers since Sept. 31, 2002 when AU defeated Middle Tennessee by the same score. The loss was MSU's worst since Oct. 26, 2001, when the Bulldogs fell to Florida, 6-0.

Cautions and Ejections

YC-Auburn #12 (93:13); YC-Auburn #31 (107:50)

OXFORD, Miss. - Jennifer Hance's header off of a corner kick with 13 seconds left in the second overtime gave Ole Miss a 1-0 victory over the Auburn soccer team on Sunday afternoon at the Ole Miss Soccer Complex.

The game winner came after a non-call inside of the 18-yard box on the Auburn end of the field as Ole Miss' Austin Brown charged into the box and steamrolled AU goalkeeper Anna Fiser 10 yards from the AU net. Instead of calling a foul on Brown, a corner kick was awarded to the Rebels, which turned into the game-winning goal.

The Tigers (4-8-1, 3-3-0 SEC) had a few good scoring chances in the second half as Kristin Stewart, Courtney Crandell and Kara Kasten all found themselves in good positions to score at different points during the second 45 minutes. Stewart's chance came when she headed a cross from Kasten into the 6-yard box, only to have Ole Miss keeper Megan Vickery stop the chance.

With 21:05 left in regulation Crandell had Auburn's best opportunity to dent the net as she took a pass from Jada Stewart inside the 6-yard box and rocketed a shot that also could not find the back of the net.

2005 GAME RECAPS

With 1:11 left in regulation it was Kasten who had the chance as Jenny Zarzour crossed a pass off of a free kick that Kasten could not put a head on as she was open in front of the Ole Miss net.

Both teams had good chances to light the scoreboard up during the first frame as well. Less than a minute into the game AU's Sara Power put a header on net that Ole Miss's first-half goalkeeper Ann Shelton kept from getting past her. The Tigers kept the pressure on the Ole Miss keeper early again as Kristin Stewart put a shot on net, hers from 16-yards out, forcing Shelton to make a diving save to her right.

Ole Miss (11-3-0, 5-1-0) also had a solid chance in the first as Kelly Renie found herself wide open in front of the wide side of the AU net but could not get a shot off as the cross went through her legs and rolled over the end line for an AU goal kick.

The final score represented the eighth one-goal game for the Tigers this season.

Cautions and Ejections

YC-Arkansas #20 (77:17); YC-Arkansas #7 (77:59)

AUBURN, Ala. - Jada Stewart's goal off of a cross from twin sister Kristin with 5:09 remaining in the second overtime gave the Auburn soccer team a 2-1 victory over Arkansas on Friday night at the AU Soccer Complex. The goal was the first of the season for Stewart, who helped move the Tigers to 5-8-1, 4-3-0 SEC on the season.

The game winner was set up when AU goalkeeper Anna Fiser played a ball out to AU defender Ronda Brooks, who fed Kristin Stewart at the midfield. Kristin turned up-field with the ball and raced down the sideline, angling in towards the Arkansas box, drawing two defenders and the LadyBacks' goalkeeper to her side of the field. Kristin then slipped a beautifully played cross to Jada, who did not have an Arkansas player within 10 yards of her, and Jada buried the game winner into the top corner from two-yards out.

The Tigers found themselves down a goal at the half as Arkansas' Megan McCool took a breakaway feed from Christina Burger and beat an AU defender in a foot race to the ball before slipping a shot past Fiser just 5:33 into the game.

It seemed the Tigers had tied the game up with 2:44 remaining in the first half when Courtney Crandell blistered a shot on net, forcing Arkansas' goalkeeper, Carrier Dillsaver, to make a diving save. After the save the ball trickled past the downed Dillsaver, and seemingly over the goal line, but instead the side official ruled that the ball did not cross the line, preserving Arkansas' 1-0 lead going into the half.

Crandell would not be denied on the night, however, as 8:31 into the second half she found a loose ball in front of the Arkansas net after a scramble and drilled a shot in from eight yards out, knotting the game at 1-1.

The Tigers controlled most of the game, taking a season-high 25 shots while limiting Arkansas (5-8-1, 1-6-0 SEC) to just nine. The Tigers also took 10 corner kicks to Arkansas' two.

AUBURN, Ala. - Ronda Brooks' goal off of the crossbar with a little over 10 minutes remaining in the first half proved to be all that Auburn needed on Sunday afternoon as the Tigers defeated LSU, 2-0, in Southeastern Conference soccer action. The win assured the Tigers a fifth-consecutive trip to the SEC Tournament next month in Orange Beach.

Brooks' scored the game winner from 15-yards out as she took a back-pass from Ashley Eason, who had moved up on the play, and dribbled right through two LSU defenders. She then fired a shot high, with the shot hitting the underside of the crossbar and deflecting down into the goal. The goal was the third of the year for Brooks.

Ashley Willis added an insurance goal for Auburn at the 66:02 mark of the game as she took a pass from Jenny Zarzour at the top of the 18-yard box and fired a shot to the top-left corner for her third goal of the year.

The Tigers (6-8-1, 5-3-0 SEC) took 16 shots while LSU (6-7-2, 2-5-1) mustered just six.

Anna Fiser was solid in net for Auburn, stopping all five shots that LSU put on net.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. - Tennessee's goal 4:01 into the first half was all that the Volunteers needed before holding on to defeat Auburn, 1-0, on Friday night at the Tennessee Soccer Complex. The loss dropped the Tigers to 6-9-1, 5-4-0 SEC while Tennessee moved to 10-5-1, 8-1-0 SEC.

Tennessee got on the board early as Emily Redberg put in her second goal of the season, this coming from 16 yards out off of a Genna Gorman pass after Auburn turned the ball over on their half of the midfield stripe.

The Tigers, who were held without a shot in the first half for the first time this season, had few scoring chances, though none were closer than Leah Blayney's shot with 3:38 left in the game when she rocketed a shot from 25-yards out off the crossbar.

Tennessee out-shot the Tigers 13-7 on the night, with all seven of Auburn's shots coming in the second half.

The start of the game was delayed 88 minutes due to severe weather in the Knoxville area.

AUBURN, Ala. - Ali William's first-half goal proved to be the difference as Georgia defeated Auburn, 1-0, in the final home game for the Tigers' soccer team on Sunday afternoon.

Williams' 13th goal of the season came off of an Auburn defensive turnover inside of its own 18-yard box. After collecting the ball at her feet, she dribbled in and beat AU goalkeeper Anna Fiser from four-yards out at the 20:06 mark.

The Tigers (6-10-1, 5-5-0 SEC) had their chances to score, but could not solve UGA keeper Lauren Church. The biggest threat came midway through the second half when the Tigers' Kristin Stewart was pulled down to the left of the UGA (12-4-2, 6-3-1) net, inside of the 18-yard box, setting up a penalty kick. Senior Ashley Eason took the kick for the Tigers, but her shot failed, preserving the one-goal lead for the Bulldogs.

The 1-0 loss was the second consecutive game decided by that same score for the Tigers and was the 11th one-goal game of the season for Auburn.

Probst responded to Zarzour's goal at the 34:56 mark as she fired in a shot from 12-yards out before Natalie Kohn scored her first of the season off of a header off of a corner kick for a 3-1 UA lead at intermission.

The three goals allowed in the first half was the most AU allowed in the first 45 minutes of play this season.

Fiser actually needed to make a couple of spectacular saves to keep the score what it was in the first, none more impressive than the dive to her left on a shot to the upper right-hand corner.

Kylie Boyd scored the game winner just 2:16 after intermission as she fired in an unassisted goal from 18-yards out.

After two more UA goals, Sara Power put in her first of the year as she bounded a goal in off of the left post at the 80:01 mark. Crandell then connected on a penalty kick at the 85:49 mark, making the final score.

The Tigers actually out-shot the Crimson Tide 22-15 in the game.

The six goals allowed by the Tigers was the most by an AU opponent six 20th-ranked Florida defeated AU 6-0 on Oct. 22, 2000.

YC-Alabama #10 (79:53)

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Auburn allowed three Alabama three first-half goals and the Tigers could not recover as Alabama scored three quick goals in the second half en route to a 6-3 victory on Friday night at the Alabama Soccer Complex. The Tigers finished the regular season 6-11-1, 5-6-0 SEC while the Crimson Tide moved to 8-8-2, 2-7-2 SEC.

Libby Probst scored two first-half goals for Alabama, including the first of the game at the 11:06 mark as she headed in a deflection from inside the 6-yard box.

Jenny Zarzour knotted the game at 1-1 at the 18:46 mark as she and Courtney Crandell played a little give-and-go at the top of the 18-yard box. Zarzour started the play after taking the ball away from a Crimson Tide player and handed it off to Crandell, who was shielding a defender on her back at the top of the box. Crandell gave it right back to Zarzour, who took two dribbles and fired a shot into the middle of the net for her first goal of the season.
