Season Outlook

Go to any Auburn women's basketball practice and some of the first words you will hear are "fast," "hungry" and "up-tempo." With five starters and nine letterwinners returning from last year's team, seventh-year head coach Nell Fortner is looking to take her team to another gear as the Tigers move into the 2010-11 season.

The team's hunger comes after the Tigers went 15-16 (5-11 SEC) last season, just one year after winning the Southeastern Conference title and a second-consecutive NCAA Tournament berth. With a group that had grown accustomed to winning, Auburn is ready to get back on that track.

"We are definitely returning a lot of players that had a lot of playing experience," said Fortner. "Last year was a year of trying to really find ourselves after winning the SEC championship and losing four starters, four great players off that team. And we just struggled in finding our identity."

"The neat thing is that everyone's back from last year that played a major role and they have tremendous experience. But they are very hungry because they did not win as much as we were used to winning and so they have been extremely hungry with everything that they do."

That hunger has been exhibited in the team's work ethic, both on the court and in the weight room, in the off-season. With Auburn hosting the first and second rounds of the 2011 NCAA Tournament at the new Auburn Arena, Fortner's Tigers have a daily reminder of what their goal is this year.

"What I am seeing them embracing is a tremendous work ethic and I think the work ethic stems from their hunger to win," said Fortner. "We host the NCAA first and second rounds and we surely do not want to be sitting in the stands watching it. That fuels a big fire in all of us, but it was just over a year ago that we were SEC champions and they liked that, so they want that feeling again too. We have a lot to play for."

That work ethic will also pay off as Fortner ramps up the pace of her team to a more fast-paced, up-tempo style of basketball, similar to what the team played during the 2008-09 season. After losing only one player from last year's squad in KeKe Carrier while adding five newcomers, the added depth will allow Auburn to run at a faster pace and go deeper into ball games.

"We are going to play fast this season and hopefully when we get to the SEC portion of the season, we will be firing on all cylinders," said Fortner. "I like up-tempo, I like to coach it and the kids like to play it."

"This is the first time we've had this much depth and the quality of the depth is exciting. It is going to allow us to play up-tempo and be a lot more versatile defensively. I would like to create a lot of offense through our defense, and I think we're going to be able to do that with being able to throw some different looks at people."

Among those players coming back are seniors Alli Smalley (Arab, Ala.) and Jordan Greenleaf (Rex, Ga.). Smalley, an All-SEC Second-Team selection, was Auburn's leading scorer last season with a career-high 15.7 points per game. Greenleaf was third on the team with 7.9 points per game and was second in rebounding with 7.1 per game.

"We have Alli Smalley coming back for her senior year and she looks great, she has worked extremely hard in the offseason to tone down and be a better scorer," said Fortner. "She has great experience and she knows we are going to rely on her heavily to score this season."

Greenleaf, a fifth-year senior, will anchor the post for the Tigers. A vocal leader on the floor, she will also be looked upon to help guide the younger front court players.

"Jordan Greenleaf is returning for her senior year and that's a tremendous amount of experience to have on the floor," said Fortner. "Jordan has just really worked hard to have a great senior season and I am excited about her and the energy and leadership that she brings every day."

Other returning starters are sophomore point guard Morgan Toles (Fayetteville, Ga.) and junior forward Parrisha Simmons (Macon, Ga.). Sophomore guard/forward Blanche Alverson (Andalusia, Ala.) was also a part-time starter last season.

Toles was named to the SEC All-Freshman Team a year ago, scoring 7.6 points per game along with 4.4 assists. She ranked fifth in the SEC, 81st in the country, in assists per game and was ninth in the league in assist-to-turnover ratio.

Toles started the entire season at point guard after Morgan Jennings (Atlanta, Ga.) was injured in summer workouts. Jennings was cleared for the second half of the season, scoring 1.5 points per game while backing up Toles at the point.

"It is really nice to have our starting point guard, Morgan Toles, back, but also to have Morgan Jennings back, healthier than she was last year," said Fortner. "The battle and the competition between them is just tremendous. They are great athletes, both of them, and can play on the floor at the same time."

Simmons filled the role of defensive stopper and rebounding specialist for the Tigers a year ago. She started 22 games, averaging 5.1 rebounds and 3.1 points per game.

“Talk about somebody coming back, Parrisha Simmons just really looks great right now,” said Fortner. “She is part of some great quickness on this team that we are really going to try to take advantage of with our defense. We are really going to try to be a lot more versatile defensively and I am excited about the possibilities of that.”

Rounding out the returning starters is Alverson, who started in 13 games a year ago. The team’s second-best 3-point threat behind Smalley, she shot 35.8 percent from beyond the arc while posting 6.9 points and 3.8 rebounds per game.

“Blanche is a versatile player, she plays inside and outside,” said Fortner. “She gives us a lot of options with our lineup because she is big enough to play in the post, but also has a nice outside shot.”

Others returning from last year’s squad include Chantel Hilliard (Biloxi, Miss.), Nicolle Thomas (Moultrie, Ga.) and Pascale “P.J.” West (LaGrange, Ga.).

Thomas played in 23 games, starting in seven, and averaged 6.1 points per game. Hilliard came off the bench for 3.5 points and 2.4 rebounds per game while West saw limited action while adding 0.8 points, 1.3 rebounds and 0.9 blocks per game.

“Chantel Hilliard is a very versatile post player and she has really looked good in the pre-season,” said Fortner. “P.J. really put some good work in the offseason and we are really hoping to get some good minutes out of her this year.”

Along with the nine returners, Auburn brings in five freshmen for the 2010-11 season: Peyton Davis (Birmingham, Ala.), Camille Glymph (Greenville, S.C.), Courtney Strain (Woodland, Ala.), Tyrese Tanner (Birmingham, Ala.) and Jassany Williams (Davie, Fla.).

“The newcomers really have a lot of great energy and a tremendous work ethic,” said Fortner. “I have not had to motivate them one time. They are very competitive, they want to get out on the playing floor, and they know they have to work extremely hard to earn their playing time.”

Auburn covered all five positions with the signing class. Davis, a 6-5 center, and Williams, a 6-2 forward, will add some depth in the post positions.

“Peyton has been very impressive with her great work ethic and is going to add tremendous depth,” said Fortner. “Jassany brings great athleticism and work ethic, and is a rebounding machine.”

On the perimeter, the Tigers add 5-10 guard Glymph and 6-2 swing player Tanner. Auburn also has Strain, a 5-9 guard that finished her career as the best scorer ever in the state of Alabama.

“I am really pleased with how Courtney is coming around,” said Fortner. “She is a great mid-range scorer and she picks things up so fast.

“Tyrese is another versatile perimeter player that is long limbed and gets her hands on the ball a lot – I have been very pleased with what she has been able to do on the floor. And Camille, she is a very dynamic ballplayer with some great moves on the perimeter and a very nice shot.”

Along with the new players, Auburn also got a new facility for the 2010-11 season in the $86 million Auburn Arena. The facility features improved seating and sight-lines for fans while also helping the teams with new locker rooms, a practice facility, office space, training rooms and a weight room.

“It has been awesome moving into this building and coming in here to work every day,” said Fortner. “It is exciting for us and there is no question that the kids are excited about. It is also exciting for the fans of Auburn. This is a building that you will drive to come watch a game because it is just such a nice place to watch a game.”

Auburn will open the Arena with a very difficult schedule. Along with the regular SEC schedule, that includes a team that went to the NCAA elite Eight (Kentucky), three others that made the Sweet 16 (Georgia, Mississippi State, Tennessee), two more that made the second round (LSU, Vanderbilt) and an additional two that made the WNIT (Florida, Ole Miss), Auburn will also welcome the likes of Florida State, Duke and Temple to the Auburn Arena.

“This is the toughest schedule we have put together since I have been here,” said Fortner. “We had better be ready to play because we have got Florida State and Duke coming in two of our first three games.”

Auburn will also travel for non-conference road games at South Florida and George Washington, while taking on Purdue in a neutral-site game. The Tigers could also potentially play Boston College at the Junkanoo Jam in the Bahamas.

“We have got a tough, tough schedule,” said Fortner. “Hopefully we can come out good after those games and just be ready for the SEC season.”

Head Coach Nell Fortner

Nell FORTNER

Head Coach

Seventh Season

Jackson, Miss • Texas, 1981

Auburn has become home for Nell Fortner and now she will take the Tigers into a new home. Now in her seventh season on the Plains, her longest tenure at any position, Fortner has molded the Tigers into her own team as Auburn moves into the new $86 million Auburn Arena. A season removed from Auburn's first SEC title in 20 years, Fortner is set to build on the success she has had with the Tigers.

Fortner became the fifth head coach in Auburn women's basketball history on April 22, 2004, bringing with her a unique blend of experience that she has used to lay a foundation for the Auburn program.

As an Olympic and World Championship gold medal coach, a well-respected television analyst and a sought-after motivational speaker, and with head coaching experience at all levels, Fortner has one of the most complete resumes in women's basketball.

In her first season at Auburn, Fortner led the Tigers to a 16-13 overall record and a 6-8 ledger in the SEC. Fortner's inaugural team felt the loss of two key post players in Mandisa Stevenson and Le'Coe Willingham, as both moved on to spots on WNBA rosters. The Tigers were not expected to be a threat in conference play that year, but Fortner had her own plans that season. The Tigers became the most dangerous team in the league, nearly knocking off No. 1 LSU twice.

Fortner began a foundation for the Auburn program by inking high school All-American and Miss Basketball from Alabama and Louisiana: DeWanna Bonner, Whitney Boddie and KeKe Carrier, in 2004.

With a roster equipped with a mere three upperclassmen, one of which was a junior transfer, the Tigers 2005-06 season was one of learning for the eight underclassmen. In her second year, Fortner guided the young team to a 14-15 overall record, including a 4-10 mark in SEC play. The freshmen did shine in their inaugural campaign as Bonner became the first freshman to lead the team in scoring since Becky Jackson in the 1980-81 season. Over the summer, Bonner added to her resume as she helped lead team USA to a gold medal in the FIBA Americas U20 Women's Championship in August. Classmate Carrier was also a member of the U20 trials roster.

Twelve of the 13 members of the 2006-07 squad were brought to Auburn by Fortner and staff. Even with a roster dominated by underclassmen the Tigers reached new heights in Fortner's third year, turning in a 21-13 ledger which included a trip to the "Elite Eight" of the Women's NIT. Bonner continued to excel in her sophomore campaign, as she led the team in scoring and rebounding, becoming only the third sophomore ever at Auburn to lead the team in both categories in the same season. For her efforts, Bonner was named First Team All-SEC. Bonner gained more international experience over the summer, as she help lead the USA U21 World Championship team to a gold medal in July.

Fortner has made recruiting in the state of Alabama a priority and in the 2007-08 season, the team included eight players from the state of Alabama - the most of any Auburn squad in program history.

In 2007-08, Fortner saw her goal met as the Tigers jumped into the national spotlight, earning as high as No. 14 in both the AP and Coaches poll. Auburn steamrolled through the non-conference season, picking up road victories at nationally-ranked Ohio State and Arizona State, capturing tournament titles on the home courts of the Buckeyes and Sun Devils. Auburn went on to finish SEC play with a 7-7 record, good enough for sixth overall.

Fortner's team also accomplished another major feat during the 2007-08 season, when it defeated its first top-10 opponent. On Jan. 13, the Tigers blasted past SEC-foe Georgia, 82-52. For its efforts during the season, Auburn earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament as the No. 11 seed and played No. 6-seeded George Washington in Palo Alto, Calif. It was Auburn's first trip to the Big Dance since 2004, and the first for Fortner since her stint at Purdue.

Entering the 2008-09 season with a goal of winning championships, Fortner led the Tigers to their first SEC title since 1989. With Bonner, the SEC Player of the Year and State Farm All-American, leading the way, Auburn amassed a 30-4 record with a 12-2 SEC slate. For her efforts, Fortner was named the SEC Coach of the Year and the Basketball Times National Coach of the Year.

Head Coach Nell Fortner

Auburn capped off the season with its second consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament. The Tigers earned a No. 2 seed for the tournament and defeated Lehigh in the first round before falling to host Rutgers.

Losing all but one starter from the SEC Championship team, Fortner re-grouped and was able to get her team to 15-16 on the season in 2009-10. Despite its record, the Tigers showed flashes of brilliance, defeating three ranked teams during the regular season and upsetting No. 7 seed Florida in the first round of the SEC Tournament.

Fortner got her start in at Killeen High School in Texas before taking a position as a graduate assistant under Gary Blair at Stephen F. Austin State in 1986. She would stay on for three more seasons as an assistant coach, helping the Ladyjacks to a 112-18 record, three Southland Conference titles and three NCAA Tournament appearances. For her work in the coaching profession, Fortner was honored by Stephen F. Austin State in 2007 with a Distinguished Alumnus Award.

Following her stint at SFA, Fortner took a position as assistant coach at Louisiana Tech, under legendary coach Leon Barmore. She spent five seasons with the Lady Techsters, helping the team to a 123-37 record with five straight trips to the NCAA Tournament that included a trip to the national championship game in 1994.

Beginning in summer 1995, Fortner took a position with USA Basketball, serving as an assistant coach for two seasons under Tara VanDerveer. Team USA posted a 52-0 run that culminated with a gold medal at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta.

Fortner's first head coaching position came the next year as she took over the women's basketball program at Purdue. In her first and only season, she led the Boilermakers to a 17-11 record (12-4 Big Ten), earning Big Ten Co-Champion honors for 2007 and a NCAA Tournament appearance.

On April 1, 1997, Fortner was named to succeed VanDerveer as the U.S. National Team head coach. She led the team to win gold medals at the 1998 FIBA World Championship and 2000 Olympic Games, and was named the 2000 USA Basketball Coach of the Year. She led the team to a 101-14 record, the most wins of any coach in Women's USA Basketball history.

Coming off the 2000 Olympics, Fortner took over as head coach of the WNBA's Indiana Fever, holding the position of head coach and general manager from 2001-03. In 2002 she took the upstart franchise to a .500 record for the first time and made the team's first appearance in the WNBA Playoffs. Overall, Fortner put together a 42-56 record with the Fever.

During her time with the Fever, Fortner also worked as a studio analyst with ESPN, covering women's college basketball and the WNBA Playoffs.

Fortner's impact at Auburn is much more than just on the court. She is a staple in the Auburn/Opelika area and is well-known through her community service efforts and public speaking. The Jackson, Miss., native also travels around the country for numerous speaking engagements including the 2006 Tucson Duramed FUTURES Golf Classic, which was held in Tucson, Ariz., and at the USOC in Colorado Springs at the "Women in Coaching" convention in September, 2006.

In addition to her work in the community, Fortner's reach is global. During her first season on the Plains, she was named as the spokesperson for the Auburn University War on Hunger in conjunction with the World Food Programme and continues in her commitment to the program.

At native of Jackson, Miss., Fortner moved around in her younger years and graduated from New Braunfels High School in New Braunfels, Texas. While there, she was an all-state and Parade All-America selection and earned a scholarship from the University of Texas to play both basketball and volleyball.

While at Texas, Fortner and the Longhorns compiled a 127-26 record, earning the team's first national ranking and a Sweet 16 appearance at the 1980 AIAW Tournament. She finished her career with 1,466 points. During her freshman season, she made her USA Basketball debut, earning a silver medal with the 1978 U.S. Olympic Festival South Team. Also while at Texas, Fortner was a middle hitter for the Longhorn volleyball team that would go on to win the 1981 AIAW National Championship.

For her efforts on the court, Fortner was honored as a member of the University of Texas Women's Athletics Wall of Honor and the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

Associate Head Coach Kerry Cremeans

Kerry CREMEANS

Associate Head Coach

Seventh Season

Wheelersburg, Ohio • Florida, 1994

Kerry Cremeans, now in her seventh season at Auburn, is in her first season as Associate Head Coach after moving into the position in the summer of 2010.

Cremeans came to Auburn in the spring of 2004 with 10 years of coaching experience to her credit and is considered one of the top recruiters in the country.

She has been instrumental in the recruitment and development of Auburn guards, including Alabama native Alli Smalley, who ranks second all-time in career 3-pointers heading into her senior season.

Cremeans has been with Fortner at Auburn since her first season and has assisted in every phase of the resurgence of Tiger women's basketball.

A 1994 graduate of Florida and four-year basketball letterwinner, Cremeans worked as an assistant for her alma mater in 2003-04, but has direct ties to head coach Nell Fortner, which brought her to the Plains.

Cremeans served on Fortner's staff as an assistant at Purdue in 1996-97 and went on to become the top recruiter for the Boilermakers before heading to Florida.

While at Purdue, the Boilermakers went an impressive 181-49 and the team advanced to at least the second round of the NCAA Tournament in each season. In 1999, the team played to an unprecedented 34-1 record and captured the NCAA title. In addition to that title, Purdue finished as a runner up in the tournament in 2001.

Cremeans was instrumental in the team's success during those seven years at Purdue, including helping lead them to four Big Ten Tournament titles (1998, 1999, 2000 and 2003) and three regular season conference titles (1999, 2001 and 2002).

The Gators made great strides in 2003-04 with Cremeans' help, as Florida improved from 9-19 in 2002-03 with a 1-13 SEC mark, to 19-11 overall and 8-6 in conference play in 2003-04. Florida also advanced into the second round of the NCAA Tournament in 2003-04.

At Florida, Cremeans earned her degree in exercise science in 1994 and was a GTE Academic All-American. In 2004, she earned her Master's in Sport Management at Kentucky. As a player, she helped lead the Gators to back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances, which were the first two in the school's history. Individually, Cremeans ended her career at Florida as the all-time three-point leader.

The Wheelersburg, Ohio, native graduated from Wheelersburg High School in 1990.

Mark SIMONS

Assistant Coach

Fourth Season

Mt. Pleasant, Mich. • Aquinas College, 1972

A veteran of more than 30 years in coaching, Mark Simons returns for his fourth season on the Plains in the 2010-11 season. At Auburn, Simons works mostly with developing post players while also assisting in game management and scheduling.

Simons returned to Auburn as an assistant coach in May 2008, returning to the Tigers after serving in a similar capacity the previous two seasons at Georgia Tech.

At Georgia Tech, Simons helped the Yellow Jackets to a program best 22 wins in 2007-08, the most since joining the ACC before the 1979-80 season, and their second straight NCAA Tournament appearance. It marked the first time in Tech history the program advanced to the tournament in back-to-back seasons.

Under Simons' tutelage, Yellow Jacket Jacqua Williams broke the women's and men's school record in steals with 95 her sophomore campaign and bettered that last season with 118 steals.

In Simons' first season at Georgia Tech, he aided the program to a 21-12 record, and the program's first NCAA Tournament win, a 55-54 victory over DePaul. In that same year, Tech earned its first winning record in ACC play as the team was 9-5.

Before his stint at Georgia Tech, Simons served as an assistant coach at Auburn during the second half of the 2005-06 season, helping the Tigers to a 14-15 record.

Prior to his appointment to the Auburn staff, Simons served as the head men's basketball coach at Elon University from 1993-2003, during which time he led the Phoenix to a South Atlantic Conference Championship and their first appearance in the postseason since 1972. He also helped transition the team from Division II to Division I.

The 1990 Carolinas Conference Coach of the Year and 1988 South Region and Dixie Conference Coach of the Year had four players named to the Big South All-Rookie Team over a two-year span and also boasted a 100 percent graduation rate.

Simons made his first stop in the state of Georgia in 1991 when he served as the head basketball coach for three seasons at Georgia College. He earned his first head coaching position at St. Andrews College in North Carolina in 1986, where he served as both the head basketball coach and athletic director from 1986 to 1991.

A 1972 graduate of Aquinas College, Simons earned his first coaching position in 1975 at his alma mater, serving as an assistant coach for one season, before being named an assistant and instructor at Saginaw Valley State in 1976, where he remained until 1986. While at Saginaw Valley State, Simons earned his master's degree from Michigan State in 1977.

Simons, has one son, Adam, a graduate of Xavier University, and two daughters, Katie, who earned her master's degree from George Washington and now works in Washington, D.C., and Molly, who is pursuing a graduate degree at the University of Southern California.

Assistant Coach Carla McGhee

Carla
McGHEE

Assistant Coach

Third Season

Peoria, Ill. • Tennessee, 1990

Olympic gold medals and NCAA championships are just part of the trail of success Carla McGhee has left in her time as a basketball player, administrator and coach. A member of Nell Fortner's original Auburn staff, McGhee returns for her third year on the Plains in the 2010-11 season.

After spending two years in the WNBA and two years as an assistant coach at South Carolina, the Peoria, Ill., native found her way back to Auburn and was introduced as an assistant coach on Aug. 17, 2010. During her first stint at Auburn, McGhee helped sign All-America recruits and eventual WNBA draft picks Whitney Boddie and DeWanna Bonner. She also worked with the Tigers' post players.

Altogether, McGhee has more than eight years of experience as a collegiate coach and WNBA administrator, along with her 13-year professional career as a player that includes a gold medal at the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Games. Working as an assistant coach for that 1996 gold medal team was Auburn head coach Nell Fortner.

McGhee's collegiate playing experience came under Pat Summitt at Tennessee, during a time in which the Lady Vols collected national championships in 1987 and 1989. McGhee then played professionally for teams in Germany, France, Turkey, South Korea, Spain, Italy and Greece for six years. With the start of professional leagues in the United States, she earned a spot on the Atlanta Glory of the ABL where she played from 1996 to 1998. From there, she went on to spend five years with the WNBA's Orlando Miracle. McGhee's playing experience includes a lengthy stint in the USA Basketball organization, beginning with the 1987 Sports Festival. She went on to participate in the 1993 World Qualifying, 1994 World Championship and Goodwill Games, the 1995 Pan American Games and the 1996 Olympics.

From Temple, McGhee began her first stint at Auburn, joining Fortner for her first two seasons on the Plains. While at Auburn, she worked with the post players while also helping recruit one of the most heralded classes in Auburn history on Boddie, Bonner, KeKe Carrier and Sherell Hobbs.

As the face of the franchise pending the team's first draft pick, she was charged with raising awareness about the team in the city and stimulating ticket sales, making speeches and appearances throughout the community.

From the Dream, she returned to the sideline and took a position as assistant coach at South Carolina. While with the Gamecocks, she oversaw the team's academic progress and worked with the post players. McGhee also helped recruit and mold Kelsey Bone, who was selected to the 2010 All-SEC Second Team as a freshman while earning AP SEC Newcomer of the Year honors.

In addition to her coaching and playing experience, McGhee has worked as a material supervisor for General Motors, a substitute teacher and a motivational speaker. She earned her bachelor's degree in sport management from Tennessee in 1990 and has a 12-year-old son, Chancellor.

Jay Jacobs
Athletics Director

Director of Athletics Jay Jacobs' has a vision of leading Auburn Athletics to become the preeminent athletics department in the nation.

During Jacobs' tenure, the department has prospered athletically, academically and financially while Auburn's athletics facilities have been transformed.

The department is strategically focused on five goals: Winning, graduating student-athletes, managing its fiscal affairs responsibly, complying with all SEC and NCAA rules and growing and improving the gameday experience.

Winning is the top goal for the Auburn Athletics Department, and Auburn has finished in the top 10 percent of the NACDA Directors' Cup for six consecutive years. The Directors' Cup measures athletic success across all men's and women's sports. The Tigers have claimed eight national championships and 15 Southeastern Conference titles under Jacobs. In 2009-10, 17 of 21 Auburn sports advanced to postseason competition, while seven programs finished in the top 15 nationally, including four in the top 10.

Auburn produced 103 All-American honors, 54 All-SEC performers, one NCAA individual champion and 26 Southeastern Conference champions in 2009-10. Three Tiger student-athletes were named SEC Athlete of the Year in their respective sports.

Academically, Auburn has earned six public recognitions by the NCAA for scoring in the 90th-100th percentile nationally in the Academic Progress Rate (APR) during Jacobs' tenure. The NCAA honored the men's golf program in 2005, 2006 and 2007, the women's basketball team in 2010 and the football team in 2006.

In 2009-10, two Auburn student-athletes were honored as Academic All-Americans, three were named SEC Scholar Athletes of the Year, and 129 earned Academic All-SEC honors. Senior swimmer Jordan Anderson received the prestigious Rhodes Scholarship and was also named the SEC H. Boyd McWhorter SEC Male Scholar Athlete of the Year. A total of 51 percent of Auburn student-athletes earned grade point averages of 3.0 or better during the Spring 2010 semester, including an all-time high 207 student-athletes that were honored at the annual Tiger Torch ceremony.

Jacobs gained strong business expertise as the Senior Associate Athletics Director for Tigers Unlimited prior to his appointment as Director of Athletics. He has initiated several successful business ventures for the Athletics Department.

In December 2005, Auburn signed a five-year contract with Under Armour Performance Apparel to be the official outfitter of the University's athletic teams. The five-year contract is worth more than $10.6 million in sponsorship, product and additional benefits and provides Auburn's athletic teams Under Armour uniforms, cleats, apparel and accessories. The contract was extended in 2009 for an additional seven years and is worth more than $27.4 which is more than double the amount of the previous contract.

Auburn also extended its multi-media rights contract with ISP Sports in April 2006 for an additional nine years following a previous agreement that expired in 2007. The new terms include revenue to the Athletics Department of more than $5.8 million annually, more than double the previous contract.

Under Jacobs' leadership, Auburn has also moved forward with numerous facility projects designed to benefit Auburn student-athletes and improve the gameday experience for fans.

The most significant facilities project during Jacobs' tenure has been the $86 million Auburn Arena and practice facility now open for the 2010-11 academic year.

The 243,792 square foot facility has an approximate capacity of 9,000. It includes over 29,000 square feet of student-athlete space, a two-court practice facility, coaches' offices, the Auburn University Athletics Ticket Office, the AU Team Shop, the relocated Jonathan B. Lovelace Hall of Honor, spacious food courts and many other amenities, such as tailgate suites facing Jordan-Hare Stadium and rental space available for private functions.

Also completed in time for the 2010-11 academic year is the $6.5 million soccer-track facility, which features new offices and locker rooms for both programs. The facility is located directly between Hutsell-Rosen Track and the soccer complex.

In June 2010, the Auburn Board of Trustees approved plans for a $16 million multipurpose indoor practice facility for football and other sports. Construction on the 92,000 square-foot facility is expected to be completed by the fall of 2011. It will be located adjacent to the current football practice fields behind the Auburn Athletics Complex.

Numerous improvements have also been made to Jordan-Hare Stadium under Jacobs' leadership. The Jordan-Hare Stadium Phase 1C renovation completed in 2006 included new concessions and expanded restroom facilities on the west and east concourses along with a spacious plaza on the west side of the stadium.

A new $2.9 million high definition (HD) video display scoreboard was installed in the south end zone three years. The first of its kind in the Southeastern Conference, the HD display measures approximately 30 feet high by 74 feet wide.

In 2005-06, Auburn opened the new Hutsell-Rosen Track. Projects completed during the 2007-08 academic year included the City of Auburn/Auburn University Yarbrough Tennis Center, the Jack Key Golf Teaching Facility and an outdoor training pool located at the old Luther Young Tennis Complex.

Jacobs was named Auburn's 14th Director of Athletics on Dec. 22, 2004, after working in almost every area of the Auburn Athletics Department for the previous 20 years.

It was the final step for Jacobs in a career that had allowed him to gain a wide range of experience in collegiate athletics, from the perspective of a student-athlete, to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director for Tigers Unlimited, Auburn's fund-raising arm.

Jacobs grew up just 20 miles from Auburn in LaFayette and made several trips a year to the campus to watch athletic events. Later, after moving to Jacksonville, Fla., where he attended high school, he returned to Auburn for college. After walking on the Auburn football team, he earned two letters as an offensive tackle in 1982 and 1983. As a senior, he started for the SEC Championship Tigers that finished the season ranked third nationally.

Not long after his career ended against Michigan in the 1984 Sugar Bowl, Jacobs started the journey that led him to being named Director of Athletics.

After one season as a coach at Lee-Scott Academy in Auburn, Jacobs returned to his alma mater in 1985 as the Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach. After serving two seasons (1986-88) as a graduate assistant football coach, Jacobs was named Conditioning Coach, a position he held for three years (1988-91).

Jacobs became an Assistant Athletics Director in 1991. Three years later, he was promoted to Associate Athletics Director for Operations, overseeing a variety of support functions in the Athletics Department.

As the Senior Associate Athletics Director in charge of Tigers Unlimited from 2001-05, Jacobs oversaw fund-raising efforts that secured approximately $60 million in gifts the last three years of his tenure with Tigers Unlimited. He spearheaded a $90 million capital campaign, the largest in Auburn Athletics history.

Jacobs earned his undergraduate and master's degrees in business administration from Auburn in 1985 and 1988, respectively. He is married to the former Angie Sapp of Dublin, Ga. The couple has three daughters, Haley, Meagan and Jayne.

AUBURN - The Auburn women's basketball team officially started its 2009-10 season with a 70-65 win over in-state rival Troy. The Tigers were led by junior Alli Smalley, who tied a career high by collecting 23 points and led the team with four assists.

Smalley, who played throughout the entire game, was followed in scoring by sophomore Chantel Hilliard and freshman Nicolle Thomas, who each logged 13 points in the win. Hilliard made her first collegiate start in the game while Thomas made her debut as a Tiger. Junior Jordan Greenleaf, who returns this season after sitting out most of the 2008-09 season with an injury, led the team in rebounds, pulling down nine boards.

Fouls plagued the Tigers and Trojans as the teams combined for 56 violations. Both teams struggled from the field, as the Tigers and Trojans each shot for less than 40 percent.

The Trojans hit 8-of-16 from behind the arc while Auburn connected on only 3-of-18 from 3-point range. Smalley and Thomas recorded the only 3-point shots for the Tigers.

The Tigers led 38-34 at halftime, shortly after they took their largest lead of the game. The Tigers were up by nine with 4:21 left to play in the opening period. Smalley led Auburn in the half with 12 points.

The Trojans were led by Brittnie Davis, who posted 14 points and six rebounds. Sarah McAppion and Sophie Kleeman both collected 12 points. Courtney Hawkins came off the bench to lead the Trojans with seven rebounds.

Seminole Classic Round 1, Game 2
Fouled out: Auburn #33-Carrier at 6:09 (2nd); #23-Williams at 5:13 (2nd)

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. - An 11-0 run early in the second half put 12th-ranked Florida State up for good as the Seminoles (5-0) pulled out the 82-67 victory over Auburn (3-3) in the Tigers’ first game of the 2009 Seminole Classic.

Freshman Nicolle Thomas scored 27 points in the loss, the most of any Auburn player this season, while redshirt junior Jordan Greenleaf neared a double-double with 16 points and nine rebounds. Alli Smalley also scored in double figures for Auburn, tallying 11 points.

The Tigers stayed with the nationally-ranked Seminoles through the first half and even led by nine with 6:50 left to play, but Florida State closed out the period on a 14-4 run to take a 31-30 lead into halftime. Auburn battled in the second half, again taking the lead after a 6-2 start to the period, but Florida State responded with an 11-0 run that put the Seminoles up for good.

Florida State led by as many as 17 points in the second half, taking a 59-42 lead with 10:35 left to play. Auburn was able to cut it down to 11 points at the 6:35 mark thanks to 17-of-22 free throw shooting in the second half, but that would be as close as the Tigers would come.

Alysha Harvin led Florida State with 18 points and eight rebounds, followed by Jacinta Monroe with 17. Monroe also tallied eight re-bounds and seven blocked shots in the game. Courtney Ward followed with 12 points and nine assists while Alexa Deluzio tallied 11 points off the bench.

AUBURN - The Auburn women's basketball team fell, 73-58, to Mississippi State Jan. 3 in Beard-Eaves Memorial Coliseum in the Southeastern Conference opener for both teams. A 10-1 run midway through the second half pushed the Bulldogs past the Tigers, who had earlier held a seven-point first half lead.
Senior KeKe Carrier led the Tigers with her fourth double-double of the season, providing 18 points and 10 rebounds. Junior Alli Smalley scored 14 followed by freshman Morgan Toles with 10, tying her career high.
Redshirt junior Jordan Greenleaf pulled down a career-high 16 rebounds and recorded a season-best four steals.
Mississippi State quickly took the lead in the second half as Govero drained five points in the opening 2:30. Toles responded for the Tigers, connecting on a short-range jumper to retake the lead. A back-and-forth battle ensued as the lead was exchanged nine times before the 11:37 mark.
From that point on, the Tigers would only connect on 5-of-13 attempts from the field. Mississippi State's cold spell would end as the Bulldogs connected on 11-of-16 to pull away for the win. MSU jumped to a quick, 55-46, lead that included five from senior Armelie Lumanu.
Four Bulldogs scored in double digits, led by Govero with 22 points. Alexis Rack scored 17, followed by Lumanu with 13 points and team-highs of 10 rebounds and six steals. Chanel Mokango rounded out the group with 12 points.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- Down by as many as 20 points late in the first half, the Auburn women's basketball team (9-6, 0-2 SEC) rallied back in the second half, setting up a Nicolle Thomas 3-pointer with three seconds left to tie the game at 52-52 and send the Tigers to their first overtime game in more than a year.

After a 6-6 tie in the first overtime, it was Florida's Steffi Sorensen hitting three 3-pointers in the second extra period that put the Gators (9-6, 2-0 SEC) up for good, leading to the 71-68 win.

Auburn's KeKe Carrier tallied her fifth double-double of the season with a game-high 24 points and 12 rebounds. Freshman point guard Morgan Toles followed with a career-high 14 points and six rebounds in the loss.

Sorensen, who had played more than 25 minutes of the game without a single field goal, connected on a 3-pointer on Florida's first possession of the second overtime. She hit another on the Gators' second possession and another on the third possession, giving Florida a 67-60 lead with 2:07 left to play. Auburn out-scored Florida 8-3 from that point on, but it was not enough as the Gators held on for the 71-68 win.

Auburn shot just 18.5 percent from the field in the first half and 38.2 percent in the second half. The Tigers connected on 7-of-15 shots in the overtime period to finish the game on 33 percent shooting. The Auburn defense held the Gators to 36.4 percent shooting, including a 27.3 mark from 3-point range.

COLUMBIA, S.C. - Auburn was held to 39.6 percent shooting from the field Sunday as South Carolina pulled away in the second half for a 63-49 win at the Colonial Life Arena in Columbia, S.C. Senior KeKe Carrier led Auburn with 14 points, seven rebounds and five blocked shots. Junior Alli Smalley scored eight points late in the game to finish in double figures with 12 points. Her 12 points put her in a tie for 25th all-time at Auburn in career scoring, giving her 988 career points alongside Tara Williams (1995-97). The Tigers finished the day 21-of-53 from the field, including a 9-of-26 showing in the first half. Auburn also connected on only one of five 3-point attempts and 6-of-12 free throws. Leading the Gamecocks was transfer Valerie Nainima with 20 points and four assists. She was 6-of-9 from beyond the arc with five of her treys coming at crucial moments for South Carolina. Freshman center Kelsey Bone finished the day with 15 points and nine rebounds. USC led throughout the first half and it looked as if Auburn would go into the locker room down by three when the Gamecocks' Nainima hit two 3-pointers in the final 34 seconds to give South Carolina a 28-19 lead at the break. The Gamecocks extended the lead to 13 early in the second half and it was Nainima again hurting the Tigers as she hit three 3-pointers on three straight possessions, extending the South Carolina lead to 20 at 53-33, forcing on Auburn timeout. USC would lead by 22 before Auburn eventually cut the lead down to 14.

AUBURN — Down by eight with 2:25 left in the game, Auburn scored seven unanswered points, but could not convert on its final possession as the Tigers fell to No. 21/20 Vanderbilt, 61-60. Junior Alli Smalley scored a game-high 19 points against the Commodores, including a 3-pointer with 45 seconds remaining that cut the lead to one. Aside from the loss, it was a big night for Smalley as she became just the 25th Auburn player ever to score 1,000 career points. Jordan Greenleaf found her under the basket for a layup at the 18:21 mark in the second half, giving Smalley her 12th point of the game and 1,000th of her career. The Arab, Ala., native finished the game with 1,007 career points, ranking 25th all-time at Auburn. Auburn led for more than 30 minutes of the game, including a 10-point lead in the fist half, but Vanderbilt took the lead with 5:44 left to play on a Lauren Lueders 3-pointer. The Commodores would lead by as many as eight in the final minutes before the Tigers mounted their comeback effort. Smalley scored five of Auburn's final seven points as the Tigers fell one point short of the upset bid. Merideth Marsh led Vanderbilt with 19 points on 5-of-8 shooting from 3-point range. Jence Rhoads added 12 points, along with five assists and six steals. Parrisha Simmons neared a double-double for Auburn, coming off the bench for nine points and eight rebounds.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. - Trailing by 12 points with 5:12 left in the game, the Auburn women's basketball team shut in-state rival Alabama out for the remainder of the game, rattling off 10 unanswered points, but it would not be enough as the Crimson Tide held on for the 55-53 win Feb. 7 at Coleman Coliseum in Tuscaloosa, Ala.
Junior guard Alli Smalley scored 15 of her game-high 17 points in the second half to give the Tigers a shot at the win. She also pulled down a team-high 11 rebounds to record her first career double-double.
The Tigers' defense stepped up in the last five minutes of the game, holding the Crimson Tide without a field goal, forcing three turnovers. Smalley scored nine of Auburn's 10 points in the final stretch, but the Tigers could not convert on a last-second possession in the loss.
Also scoring in double figures for the Tigers was senior center KeKe Carrier with 12 points and five rebounds. Carrier was held to 5-of-10 shooting in the game, due in part to Alabama's smothering defense. Redshirt junior scored seven points along with six rebounds and three blocked shots while freshman point guard Morgan Toles led the team with five assists.
Auburn lost despite winning the rebounding battle, 37-32. The Tigers pulled down 14 offensive rebounds, but could only convert them into 10 second-chance points.
Tierney Jenkins led Alabama with 17 points, 13 rebounds and four steals. LaToya King followed with 11 points and four rebounds.

AUBURN — The Auburn women's basketball team fell 73-58 to Arkansas Feb. 11 in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. Redshirt junior Jordan Greenleaf led the Tigers in scoring and rebounding with 16 points and nine boards.
Auburn gave up 20 turnovers that turned into 22 Arkansas points, while the Tigers leading scorers, junior Alli Smalley (15.2 ppg) and senior KeKe Carrier (13.3 ppg), were held to a total of 10 points.
The Tigers were able to take an early, 10-6, lead on the Razorbacks, but turnovers became an issue as Arkansas forced 10 that turned into 11 points in the first half. With 8:26 left to play in the opening period, the Tigers held a one-point lead, their last lead of the game as the Razorbacks would take over from there.
In the second half, freshman Nicolle Thomas tried to ignite a spark in the Auburn offense, scoring eight consecutive Tiger points in less than two minutes. However, the flurry proved not enough as Arkansas built its lead to 15 by the final horn.
The Tigers shot 42 percent (25-of-59) from the field while connecting on 4-of-16 from behind the arc and 4-of-7 from the line. Auburn won the rebounding battle, pulling down 40 boards to Arkansas' 27.
Charity Ford led a pack of four Razorbacks scoring in double digits, posting 18 points that included shooting 3-of-5 from outside the arc. C'iera Ricketts recorded a team-high eight rebounds.
Arkansas shot 51 percent (31-of-61) from the field, 6-of-18 from 3-point range and 5-of-7 from the line.

AUBURN - Offensive woes continued to plague the Auburn women's basketball team as the Tigers fell 75-51 to No. 23 LSU Feb. 14 in Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum. Redshirt junior Jordan Greenleaf led the Tigers in scoring and rebounding for the second-consecutive game, finishing with 14 points and six boards.
LSU forced 15 Auburn turnovers in the game, 10 in the first half, and turned them into 21 points off turnovers. The smothering LSU defense also limited Auburn to 35.7 percent shooting from the field, including a paltry 19.0 percent in the first half.
Auburn scored a season-low 13 points in the first half, allowing 42 LSU points for a 29-point deficit. Auburn out-scored the Lady Tigers 38-33 in the second half, but it was not enough as LSU cruised to the win.

DULUTH, Ga. - Auburn junior Alli Smalley tied her career high with five 3-pointers en route to a career-high 29 points as the No. 10 seed Tigers upset No. 7 seed Florida in the first round of the 2010 SEC Tournament in Duluth, Ga.

Auburn, a team that relied on its defense to win two of its last three regular-season games, shot 51.9 percent from the field and 57.1 percent from 3-point range. It marked Auburn's highest field goal percentage since it shot 52.6 percent at North Carolina A&T on Dec. 1 and it was the highest 3-point percentage since a Nov. 24 home game against Georgia Southern.

Greenleaf pulled down her first double-double of the season with 15 points and 13 rebounds. Freshmen Blanche Alverson and Morgan Toles also scored in double figures with 13 and 11 points, respectively.

Auburn trailed only once as an 8-0 early Florida rally put the Gators ahead 8-7. A layup from freshman Morgan Toles and back-to-back 3-pointers from Smalley and Alverson put the Tigers ahead for good. Auburn carried a six-point lead into halftime and the Gators would get no closer than four points in the second half.

The Auburn defense held Florida to 36.1 percent (22-of-61) shooting from the field and 31.8 percent (7-of-22) from 3-point range. The Tigers also dominated the boards, 41-30.

Steffi Sorensen led the Gators with 14 points, hitting 4-of-5 from 3-point range. Sharielle Smith tallied 11 points while Jennifer George came off the bench for seven points and a team-high five rebounds.

DULUTH, Ga. - Freshman point guard Morgan Toles scored a team-high 13 points for No. 10 seed Auburn (15-16) in the Southeastern Conference Tournament quarterfinals on Friday, but second-seeded Kentucky's (24-6) defense scored 22 points off Auburn turnovers as the Wildcats went on to a 65-54 win.

Auburn stayed with Kentucky through most of the first half, leading by as many as five points with 8:45 left in the period. But, Kentucky closed strong, finishing the half on an 18-6 run to take a 32-25 half-time lead into the lockerroom. Kentucky junior Victoria Dunlap scored 18 of her game-high 24 points in the first half to put the Wildcats ahead.

In the second half, the Tigers went on an 11-0 run, fueled by five points from senior KeKe Carrier and four from Smalley, to cut the lead to three at 39-36 with 13:53 left in the game. Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum Auburn's Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum completed its 42nd and final year of service to the University a year ago. Within the friendly confines of Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum, Auburn boasted a phenomenal 349-72 (.829) record over the past 30 seasons. Recently, during the 2008-09 season, the Tigers not only went undefeated at home with a 12-0 record, but also brought in a record-setting crowd of 12,067 for the team's 82-68 win over Tennessee on Jan. 25, 2009.

Named in memory of Auburn alumni "who made the supreme sacrifice for their country in its four wars of this century," Memorial Coliseum was officially dedicated at halftime of the Auburn-Vanderbilt game on February 22, 1969. The first game in Coliseum history, however, came earlier on January 11, 1969, when LSU and fabled Peter Maravich visited Auburn. The Tigers downed LSU 90-71 before 12,468 fans.

The facility was renamed Joel H. Eaves Memorial Coliseum in September of 1987 in recognition of Coach Eaves' lasting contributions to Auburn men's basketball.

It became known by its present name, Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum, in 1993. Jeff Beard was Auburn's athletic director from 1951-1972 and was one of the greatest ever at the University. The women's basketball team moved into the Coliseum with the onset of their program in 1971-72. In 1991, led by former head coach Joe Ciampi, the Tigers made their mark on the national record book when they defeated Alabama 77-48. The win marked Auburn's 63rd-straight win in the Coliseum and eclipsed the previous home-court record of 62 set by Louisiana Tech from 1982-86. Auburn's string extended to 68 games, from 1986-1991, and until broken by Tennessee in 1996, ranked as the longest home court winning streak in NCAA history.

Auburn Arena

The Auburn men's and women's basketball teams will begin their first season in the new Auburn Arena in the 2010-11 season. Built at a cost of $86 million, Auburn Arena will seat 9,121 fans for basketball games, bringing Tiger fans closer to the action.

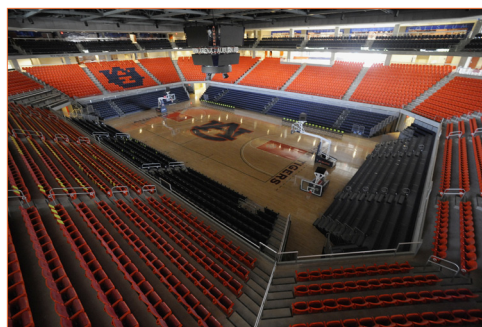

Built with the fan in mind, the furthest seat from the floor in Auburn Arena is 43 feet away while two-thirds of the seats in the facility are less than 27 feet in elevation from courtside. The Arena also features a team store, six concession stands, three elevators, 94 HD televisions, and family restrooms and customer service kiosks on all seating levels. Auburn students will have their own entrance, lobby and concessions area at the Arena, and will take up 1,500 floor-level seats. For special events, 12,000 square feet of banquet space, including tailgate and super suites, is available.

For the teams, Auburn Arena offers a new office suite for the coaches, new locker rooms and a 13,970-square foot practice facility and weight room.

Also featured in the Arena is the Jonathan B. Lovelace Museum & Hall of Honor, located on the concourse at the main entrance. Fans who visit the Lovelace Hall of Honor at Auburn Arena will take an interactive walk through Auburn Athletics history.

The ground-breaking ceremony for the Auburn Arena was held on Aug. 30, 2008 with work actually beginning in July, 2008. The Tiger basketball teams moved into the facility in August, 2010 and a ribbon-cutting ceremony was held on Oct. 15, 2010. The Arena Grand Opening was held the night of Oct. 15 with the Auburn men's and women's basketball teams joining the Harlem Globetrotters in christening the facility.

Play will officially begin in Auburn Arena on Nov. 12, 2010 with the women taking on Mercer, followed by the men playing North Carolina-Asheville.

Southeastern Conference

With eight national championships, ten runner-up finishes, a nation-leading 34 Final Four appearances and 96 first-team All-America honors, the SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE stands firmly as the nation's premier intercollegiate women's basketball conference.

SEC By The Numbers

- The SEC has posted impressive non-conference records in the last decade. The SEC compiled a 121-45 (.729) non-conference record during the 2009-10 season.
- Since the 1990 season, the SEC has compiled a 2774-844 (.767) record against other conferences. The league has recorded 150+ wins during eight seasons and has never recorded a non-conference winning percentage below .723.
- SEC teams have earned appearances in 25 of 29 NCAA Final Fours, an accomplishment unmatched by any other league.
- Overall, SEC squads have filled 34 of the 116 Final Four berths, including having two Final Four teams in 1988 (Auburn, Tennessee), 1989 (Auburn, Tennessee), 1995 (Georgia, Tennessee), 1996 (Georgia, Tennessee), 1998 (Arkansas, Tennessee), 2004 (LSU, Tennessee), 2005 (LSU, Tennessee), 2007 (LSU, Tennessee) and 2008 (LSU, Tennessee).
- SEC teams have made 18 appearances in a nation-high 16 NCAA Championship games, winning eight NCAA Championships (Tennessee: 1987, 1989, 1991, 1996, 1997, 1998, 2007 and 2008).
- The league also had the distinction of providing both national finalists twice in its history in 1996 (Tennessee 83, Georgia 65) and in 1989 (Tennessee 76, Auburn 60).

- The SEC is one of a handful of leagues to have won three national tournament titles with eight NCAA, two WNIT and three NWIT. Along with the eight NCAA championships won by Tennessee, Arkansas (1999) and Auburn (2003) captured the current Women's NIT titles. But the first-ever SEC national title belongs to Georgia, winners of the 1981 NWIT which predates the current NCAA tournament. LSU (1985) and Kentucky (1990) each won WNIT titles. Both Arkansas (1987) and South Carolina (1979) won the WNIT as members of their previous conferences.
- In 2003, Auburn won the WNIT title with wins over South Alabama, Florida State, Richmond, Creighton and Baylor. In 1999, the Arkansas Lady Razorbacks defeated Wisconsin 76-64 to claim the SEC's first WNIT championship.
- In 1981, Georgia defeated Pittsburg, California and Arizona State (in OT) to capture the NWIT Championship, the first-ever national championship of any kind for the SEC in women's basketball.

Head Coach Nell Fortner at the 2009 NCAA Tournament press conference

The Auburn Media Relations staff appreciates your interest in Auburn and constantly strives to assist you in your coverage of the Tigers and to make your job easier and more enjoyable.

We have certain policies and procedures that we ask you to abide by. These policies and procedures are designed to take your needs as well as the needs of our players and coaches into consideration and create a good working situation for all.

As always, we seek your suggestions and will try to handle any special requests you may have. If you have any special media requests of our office, please contact Matt Crouch in the Media Relations office at 334.844.9800. If you plan on attending a game at Auburn Arena please take a moment to review the following policies and procedures.

Media Credentials

All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials for Auburn 2009-10 home basketball games should be made with the Auburn media relations office by calling 334.844.9800. Single-game credentials must be requested no later than NOON the day before the game.

All credentials will be left at media will call in the Scholarship Entry lobby at the Auburn Arena.

There is no restricted parking for women's basketball games. Media are asked to park in the lots surrounding the Arena.

Requests are honored from sports editors of daily newspapers and sports directors of television and radio stations. Requests from individuals not employed by a media outlet will not be considered. Spouses, dates, non-workers and anyone under 18 years of age are not permitted in the working press area. Auburn reserves the right to refuse any credential request deemed not to be in the best interest of the University.

Press Work Area

Members of the media should enter the Arena through the Scholarship entry. A media workroom is available adjacent to the arena floor, with access limited to those with working credentials. Ethernet lines and wireless are available to the media in the media workroom. A pre-game meal is served two hours prior to tipoff in the interview area of the media room.

Media Information

The 2010-11 Auburn Women's Basketball Media Supplement is a source of information for the news media. Additional information is available upon request from the Auburn Media Relations Office. News releases, photographs, digital images and video tapes will be made available to accredited members of the media.

The visiting coach and requested players will precede the home coach and players unless otherwise specified. If the opposing coach and players are not requested a member of the Auburn Media Relations staff will provide brief quotes to the working media.
