WEEK 13

No. 18
AUBURN

at
NCAA AUBURN REGIONAL

Saturday, April 7, 2012
Auburn Arena

Auburn, Ala.
6 p.m. CT

The Meet

Auburn hosts the NCAA Auburn Regional, the first NCAA gymnastics competition in the Auburn Arena. The Tigers welcome No. 6 Georgia, No. 7 Oregon State, Michigan, West Virginia and Michigan State to The Plains for the first round of NCAA postseason competition. Georgia previously visited Auburn on January 20, while the Tigers faced WVU in Morgantown on February 12. All-time, Auburn is 2-5 against Michigan, 9-2 against Michigan State and 2-4 versus Oregon State. Auburn last hosted an NCAA regional in 1991.

Auburn in the Rankings

Auburn stands at 18th in this week's RQS after the SEC Gymnastics Championship. The Tigers rank 25th in vault, 10th in uneven bars, 17th in balance beam and 19th in floor exercise. Senior all-arounder Kylie Shields owns the nation's 13th-best uneven bars RQS with her mark of 9.890. Petrina Yokay ranks 21st in bars RQS (9.880) and Allyson Sandusky is 24th (9.875). Sandusky also ranks 48th in beam RQS (9.840). Bri Guy (9.890) ranks 19th in floor RQS.

Last Year at the NCAA Regional

Auburn finished fourth a season ago at the NCAA Central Regional hosted by the University of Alabama. The Tigers scored 195.600 and finished narrowly behind third place Penn State (195.850). Auburn did place ahead of Kentucky and Central Michigan. Alabama (197.225) and Illinois (195.925) advanced on to nationals with their first and second place finishes, respectively. The Tigers' best-ever regional finish was second place in 1991 and 2003.

Up Next

Auburn is hoping for a top two finish in the NCAA Auburn Regional and a berth in the 2012 NCAA Gymnastics Championship at the Arena at the Gwinnett Center. The meet is scheduled for April 21-23 in Duluth, Georgia. The top two squads from each of the six NCAA regionals advance to the first night of the NCAA meet. Auburn has made three previous appearances (1991, 1993, 2003) in the national championship meet.

FOLLOW THE ACTION

Multiple options exist to follow various meets during the 2012 season. For all home meets, live meet video and live stats will be available in addition to a live blog. All options can be found on AuburnTigers.com. A live blog will be available for all road meets at the same address.

HEAD COACH: Jeff Graba (2nd season)

ASSISTANT COACHES: Kurt Hettinger (4th season); Jenny Rowland (2nd season)

STUDENT COACH: Rachel Inniss (1st season), Leah Vining (1st season)

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS: Dawn Schueller (1st season)

ATHLETIC TRAINER: Janet Taylor (7th season)

Graba Named Coach of the Year

In just his second year on The Plains, Auburn head coach Jeff Graba was named the SEC's Co-Coach of the Year. He splits the award with Florida's Rhonda Faehn. Graba led Auburn to new heights in 2012, as the Tigers posted two of the top four scores in school history during the course of the season. Auburn's total of 196.875 against Florida tied for the second-best mark in school history.

NCAA Meets in Auburn

2012 marks the fourth time that Auburn has hosted an NCAA postseason meet, but it will be the first meet of that type in the Auburn Arena. The Tigers last hosted NCAA competition in 2006 when Beard-Eaves-Memorial Coliseum served as the site of the 2006 NCAA Championship meet. Georgia earned the second of its three-straight NCAA titles in the meet. Auburn also hosted a NCAA regional in 1991.

Lane Earns Pair of SEC Awards

Auburn senior Laura Lane was named to the SEC Community Service team on March 19. The senior from Glen Allen, Virginia joins Kylie Shields and Leah Vining as recent members of the program to earn the respected distinction. Additionally, Lane was named the 2012 SEC Co-Scholar-Athlete of the Year. She has now won the award in back-to-back years, the first athlete to earn that distinction. Auburn has now won three in a row dating back to Krissy Voss in 2010.

Guy Named to All-SEC Team

Auburn freshman Bri Guy is the first Auburn gymnast to be named to the All-SEC team since Lindsay Puckett in 2009. Guy set a season high with an all-around score of 39.550 against Florida earlier this season. She has recorded the five highest floor routine scores for Auburn in 2012. Guy tied for second at the SEC Championship with a score of 9.9 on floor on March 24.

Record Scoring against Florida

Against the top-ranked Gators, Auburn recorded its highest score of the season, and the second-best score in program history with a 196.875. The score was the highest for Auburn since 2004. Included in the total were season highs on three events (vault, bars and beam). The Tigers' 49.475 on uneven bars is the second-highest total for any team in Division I team through Feb. 20, 2012.

Guy Named Freshman of the Week

Guy totaled 39.550 in the all-around competition - the third-best score in program history and the highest total for an Auburn gymnast since 2008. Guy is the first Auburn gymnast to receive an SEC weekly award since Allyson Sandusky in 2010, and the first to be named Freshman of the Week since Sandusky in 2009.

Tigers Place Third at WVU

Auburn tallied its lowest score of the season as it finished third behind Ohio State and West Virginia in a quad-meet hosted by the Mountaineers. Despite struggling for most of the day, Auburn still featured the top individual scorers on uneven bars (Petrina Yokay - 9.900) and floor exercise (Bri Guy - 9.825). Lexus Demers scored 9.700 in just her second-ever collegiate floor routine after joining the Auburn team last month.

Strong Road Score at Arkansas

Auburn posted its second-highest overall score and its best road mark of the 2012 season with a score of 195.800 against Arkansas. The Tigers came through with a season-best score of 49.975 on floor, anchored by a 9.900 from Bri Guy. Floor also saw the season debut of freshman mid-year enrollee Lexus Demers who posted a 9.600 in her first collegiate routine. Demers was pressed into action after Caryn Kadous was pulled from floor due to a minor ankle injury. Junior Petrina Yokay helped Auburn to its highest event score of the night, a 49.125 on beam, with her career-best 9.850 on the apparatus.

Tigers Test Tide

For the second-consecutive week, Auburn posted its highest total score of the season, despite a loss to Alabama in its third week of competition. The Tigers also posted season-high marks on bars and floor, breaking the 49.000 mark in each event for the first time this season. Auburn's total score of 196.250 was its highest team score since posting a 196.400 in a win at Kentucky on February 12, 2010.

Veteran and Newcomer Both Shine in All-Around

Senior Kylie Shields took home her second-consecutive and fourth career all-around title against Alabama. Shields earned a 39.225 behind a career-high 9.900 on bars. Freshman Bri Guy competed in the all-around for the first time this season, earning a 38.750. Guy tied her season-high 9.850 on vault, posted a 9.725 in her first bars routine of the season, and anchored on floor with a season-high 9.925.

Strong Opener with Georgia

Auburn opened its home schedule with its strongest scoring output of the year. The Tigers broke 105 for the first time in 2012 and posted season-high scores in three events (bars, beam and floor). Additionally, the meet with Georgia set a new Auburn Arena gymnastics attendance record with 4,508 fans in attendance.

Shields Shines Against UGA

Senior Kylie Shields put on a show Friday night against Georgia. The senior from Mahopac, N.Y. claimed her third career all-around title as she bested Georgia's Noel Couch in a heads up all-around showdown with a season-high AA score of 39.250.

Auburn Stumbles in Baton Rouge

Despite finishing two spots ahead of LSU at the Cancun Classic, Auburn fell to LSU in the SEC opening meet for both squads on January 13. Auburn senior Kylie Shields set a career high in the vault with a score of 9.875 and tied her career high on beam with a 9.900. The Tigers led after two events, but multiple falls on beam cost Auburn a chance at the victory.

Cancun Classic a Success

With a score of 194.725, Auburn finished in third place at the 2012 Cancun Classic at the Iberostar Resort in Cancun, Mexico on January 6. The Tigers edged fourth-place Iowa by nearly a full point and also scored higher than fifth-place

LSU. Junior Petrina Yokay took second in the all-around competition with a score of 39.200 and senior Kylie Shields posted a 9.875 to take second in the uneven bars. Yokay set a new career-best mark in the all-around and tied her career-high totals in beam and floor. Shields tied her career high mark on bars.

Strength of Schedule Ranking

Auburn's 2012 schedule was ranked as the 7th-most difficult among NCAA Division I programs according to CollegeGymFans.com. Auburn will face eight programs this season ranked in the NACGC/W pre-season top 25.

Demers Joins Program

After enrolling for the Spring 2012 semester on Monday, freshman Lexus Demers has joined the Auburn program for the 2012 season. Demers, who graduated high school a semester early in December. The freshman saw her first action with a floor routine against Arkansas on February 3. Demers received a score of 9.600 for her first collegiate routine.

Recruiting Class Ranked in Top 10 Nationally

With the addition of freshman Lexus Demers for the 2012 season, Auburn's class of freshmen ranks among the top groups in the country. CollegeGymFans.com ranked Auburn's class as the 10th-best in the nation on January 4. Auburn is one of five SEC programs in the top 10.
