DEFENDING TOURNAMENT CHAMPS

Auburn goes to the SEC Tournament as the defending tournament champs after running the table at the 2011 event. Auburn became the first SEC West school to ever win the league tournament last year and now is looking to become the first team to repeat as champions since Tennessee won back-to-back titles in 2002 and 2003. The only teams to win back-to-back titles was Florida from 1996-01 and Vanderbilt in 1993-94, the first two SEC Tournaments.

AUBURN VS FLORIDA AT THE SEC TOURNAMENT

Auburn and Florida are meeting in the SEC Tournament Championship game for the second straight season and the third time overall (2001). Each team has won championship match over the other (Auburn in 2011, Florida in 2001). Overall the two teams have met five times at the SEC Tournament, with Auburn going 2-2-1. The two wins have come in the last two meetings, last year's championship match and the first round of the 2005 tournament as Auburn went on to make the championship game.

AUBURN VS. FLORIDA

Auburn is just 5-13-1 all-time against Florida after falling, 2-1, in overtime on Sept. 16 at home this season. However, Two of Auburn's five wins have come in the last four meetings, winning in the regular season in 2010 and in the 2011 SEC Tournament Championship game.

12 STRAIGHT SEC TOURNAMENT APPEARANCES

Auburn advanced to the SEC Tournament for the 12th time, finishing second in the SEC West and sixth in the overall league standings. Auburn's run of 12 straight SEC tournament appearances is the third-longest active streak in the conference, behind only Florida (18) and Tennessee (15).

AUBURN AS THE SIXTH SEED

Auburn is the sixth seed for the SEC Tournament for the first time since the 2009 tournament and for the fifth time overall ... Auburn was also the tournament sixth seed in 2001, 2005, 2006 and 2009 and is 6-4-1 all-time when playing as the sixth seed ... Three of Auburn's five SEC Tournament Championship appearances came as the No. 6 seed (2001, 2005 and 2012).

ADVANCING TO THE CHAMPIONSHIP MATCH

Auburn has played in the SEC Tournament Championship four times, reaching the finals in 1994, 2001, 2005 and 2011 ... Add in this year's appearance and Auburn's five appearances are the most by any SEC West school and tied with Tennessee for the second-most behind Florida (14).

SEC TOURNAMENT SHUTOUTS

Auburn has posted shutouts in four of its past five SEC Tournament matches, with the lone exception coming in the 2011 SEC Tournament Championship Game when it defeated Florida, 3-2. Prior to that Auburn had just one SEC Tournament shutout, a 2-0 win over Kentucky in the 2005 semifinals.

COLEMAN NAMED FIRST TEAM ALL-SEC

Tatiana Coleman was named to the All-SEC First team. A sophomore forward she leads Auburn and is fourth in the SEC with 27 total points and 1.29 points per game. Her nine assists also lead Auburn and are tied for second in the SEC. A SEC All-Freshman selection last year, she scored seven of her team-leading nine goals against league competition, tied for second in the league, and had five assists in league play, tied for third, to give her a league-best 19 points. With her selection, Auburn has had a First Team All-SEC selection in each of the last five years.

FAULKNER NAMED TO SEC ALL-FRESHMAN TEAM

Kala Faulkner was named to the SEC All-Freshman team. A defender, she has started all 22 games as an outside back and leads the team with 1,981 minutes played. With her in the lineup, Auburn posted seven shutouts, including three in league play as Auburn advanced to the SEC Tournament for a 12th consecutive year. Having taken just 12 shots, she put half of them on frame and scored the game-winning goal in the 4-2 comeback win over South Carolina. With her selection Auburn has had a Freshman All-SEC selection in eight of the 10 years the conference has named an All-Freshman team.

.500-OR-BETTER AGAIN

Auburn finished the year 7-6-0 in SEC play, marking the seventh straight season Auburn has been .500-or-better in conference play. It is also the 11th time in the last 12 seasons that Auburn has been .500-or-better in the SEC.

SEVEN SEC WINS

Auburn's seven SEC wins are tied for the second-most in school history and the most since the 2008 team was 7-3-1 and SEC West Co-Champions ... The school record for league wins is nine, but the 2004 team that was 9-0-2.

THE COLEMAN AFFECT

Auburn is undefeated this year (8-0-0) in games in which sophomore forward Tatiana Coleman has scored a goal and 11-2-0 when she records a point ... In her two-year career (41 matches), Auburn is 13-0-0 all-time when she records a goal and 20-3-0 when she records a point and 8-8-2 when she is held off the stat sheet.

PUT HER IN THE BOOKS!

Senior Amy Howard became the third Auburn goalkeeper to make 300 career saves with her first save in the 3-1 win at LSU on Sept. 21 and she has now broken into the SEC's top 10 career saves list with 369 stops, third in league history. Next on the list is former Georgia goalkeeper Nicole Williams (1997-00) with 373.

SEC TOURNAMENT

The 2012 Southeastern Conference Women's Soccer Tournament returns to the Orange Beach Sportsplex in Orange Beach, Ala. It will be ninth time that the facility has served as the host of the SEC Tournament, having hosted the event in 2003 and then every season since 2005.

The format of the tournament is a single-elimination tournament of the top 10 teams in the Conference based on winning percentage of Conference games (regardless of division). The tournament shall be played in a Monday-Wednesday-Friday-Sunday format with Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday designated as days off (practice days).

The winner of the nine-game tournament receives the SEC's automatic bid to the NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Championship.

The 2012 SEC Tournament will be the 20th in league history and the 10th in Orange Beach. The first 10 SEC Tournaments were played at campus sites with Vanderbilt serving as the inaugural host in 1993. The tournament returned to Nashville in 1999. It has also been played at Fayetteville (1994), Auburn (1995), Lexington (1996), Gainesville (1997), Tuscaloosa (1998), Athens (2000), Baton Rouge (2001) and Oxford (2002).

Florida leads the league with nine SEC Tournament titles. Tennessee is second with four while Kentucky and Vanderbilt each have two championships.

Points System: A win counts as three points, a tie as one and a loss as zero points. If a game is canceled, neither team will receive a point and the standings will be determined by average points per game. The two teams in each division with the highest number of points will be the divisional champions.

Tie Breaker Procedure: The tournament will be seeded 1-10 regardless of division based on the point system implemented to determine regular season standings (win counts as three points, a tie as one and a loss as zero points). If teams are tied, the following procedure, in the following order, will be used to break the tie:

1. Head-to-head competition;
2. Goal differential in all conference games;
3. Goals scored in all conference games; and
4. Coin flip or draw.

against Alabama. Finishing up their careers this season are Ana Cate, Mary Coffed, Amy Howard, Mary Nicholson, Jessica Rightmer and Jessica Wolfe. The group has led the program to a 48-33-8 (.584) mark over the past four seasons, has been a part of four SEC Tournament teams, the 2011 SEC Tournament Championship and three straight NCAA Tournament berths.

FIRST HALF OUTAGES

Auburn played five consecutive scoreless first halves from Sept. 30-Oct. 14 and on the season has scored just 14 goals in the first 45 minutes of matches while allowing just seven. Auburn is 5-3-1 this season when both teams are kept off the board in the first 45 minutes.

THE FIRST TO ONE WINS

Auburn has just one come-from-behind win this season, it coming after it trailed South Carolina, 2-0, just 19:34 into its match on Sept. 28. Conversely, Auburn has surrendered just two leads, those coming in 2-1 losses to Florida (Sept. 16 in overtime) and Kentucky (Oct. 21).

ONE-GOAL GAMES

Of Auburn's 22 matches, 11 have been decided by a single goal, with Auburn going 5-6-0 in those matches. Auburn was 6-3-0 in one-goal games a season ago.

WATCHING THE RPI

The official NCAA RPI came out on Monday, Sept. 24, and Auburn was 61st, which was ninth in the SEC. Heading into the SEC Tournament, Auburn was 50th, which is the sixth-highest out of the SEC. Auburn is now 2-5-1 against RPI top 50 teams, with the wins coming over Texas Tech and Texas A&M, and is 7-8-1 against the top 100.

EVERYDAY MARY

With her start on Thursday, Oct. 25 vs. Alabama, senior Mary Coffed took over sole possession of third on the Auburn all-time matches played list at 87. With Auburn advancing to the SEC Tournament Championship match, she is now tied with school record holder Katy Frierson (2008-11) with 89 career matches played. Coffed has also started 76 consecutive matches, dating back to Oct. 11, 2009, at No. 14 Florida. Her 76 consecutive starts are ninth at Auburn.

TATI IS BALLIN!

Sophomore forward Tatiana Coleman has picked up her game of late. After playing the first nine games with only one goal, she busted out for a goal in three straight games that she played in from Sept. 21-30. The Auburn points leader has also been dishing it out as she recorded an assist in the three games previous to the 1-0 win over Ole Miss, in which she scored the game winner. She now has scored a team-leading nine goals this season and 16 in her career (eight of which are game-winners) and has 17 assists for a 1.20 point per game average in 41 career matches.

HOME SWEET HOME

Auburn is 120-50-11 (.693) all-time at the Auburn Soccer Complex and has had a winning record at home for seven straight seasons and a .500-or-better record for 13 consecutive years. Auburn went 8-4-0 at home this season.

2011 TOURNAMENT FOES

Auburn played 11 regular season matches against teams that played in last year's tournament and went 5-7-0, picking up wins over Samford, LSU, South Carolina, Georgia and Alabama.

FAULKNER HAVING AN IMPACT

Auburn starts just one freshman on a regular basis - defender Kala Faulkner - and she has paid immediate dividends. Besides leading the team in minutes played (1,981), she has also scored the game-winner in the 4-2, come-from-behind win over South Carolina. She followed that up with a huge game against Ole Miss, moving from her starting outside back position to a center-back spot after Mary Nicholson went down with an injury. Midway through the second half with the match still scoreless she made a huge back save on an Ole Miss shot with goalkeeper Amy Howard out of position.

COLEMAN TO COFFEE

On four of senior Mary Coffed's six goals, fellow forward Tatiana Coleman has had an assist (three firsts, one second).

AUBURN VS. THE RANKED

Auburn has played seven ranked team thus far, winning and tying one and falling in the other five. Auburn is 22-48-5 (.327) all-time against ranked opponents.

SUNDAY ROAD WOES

Since the start of the 2005 season, Auburn has struggled in Sunday road matches. In SEC play, Auburn is just 4-13-3 on SEC road Sunday's for a .275 winning percentage. Add in all games and Auburn is 7-19-5 for a .306 winning percentage. The last time Auburn won at least two road Sunday games in a season was in 2008 when it won at Vanderbilt and at Arkansas. This year Auburn went 0-4-0 in Sunday road matches.

WHERE THE GOALS AT?

Auburn has scored just 33 goals through 22 games, an average of 1.50 goals per game. This comes on the heels of a 50-goal season in 2011, which was the second-highest total in school history. Unfortunately for Auburn, 16 of those goals came in four matches (4-1 wins over High Point and Vanderbilt, a 4-2 win over South Carolina and a 4-3 double overtime win over Alabama) meaning in the other 18 matches Auburn is averaging just 0.94 goals per game.

WINNING THE NON-CONFERENCE

Auburn headed into Southeastern Conference play with a 4-3-0 record, marking the seventh straight season that Auburn was .500-or-better in non-conference play prior to the start of SEC play.

SIERRA FOR TWO

Junior Bianca Sierra scored both of Auburn's goals in the 2-1 win over Texas Tech, the first two-goal game of her career. Both goals came off of 25-yard free kicks. She had scored just one goal in her previous 45 matches at Auburn.

T. BALL TEES IT UP

Of sophomore Tori Ball's eight career goals, six have been game-winners, including this year's tallies against High Point and Samford..
