MEDIA INFORMATION

AUBURN COMMUNICATIONS

John Thomas, Assistant Director of Communications, is the primary media coordinator for the Tiger soccer team.

Phone: 334-750-9245

Fax: 334-844-9807

Cell Phone: Same as above phone

PRESS SERVICES

Members of the media are supplied with weekly release packages, which contain updated statistics, features and information on what is ahead. On game day, the communications staff will distribute immediate results, notes, statistics and other pertinent information.

CREDENTIALS

All Auburn home matches are free to the public and will not require a media credential for entry. However, if you plan on covering any soccer matches at the Auburn Soccer Complex this season, please notify John Thomas at least 24 hours in advance as press box space is very limited.

INTERVIEWS

All interviews for head coach Karen Hoppa, student-athletes and assistant coaches must be coordinated through John Thomas. Requests should be submitted at least 24 hours in advance. Other than post-game interviews, interview days are scheduled prior to practice during the week. Contact John Thomas for updated information. Phone interviews with out-of-town media can be arranged also.

TELEPHONE

Phones are available for working press in the press box. Out-of-town radio wishing to broadcast should contact John Thomas for specifics on phone line usage at least one week prior to the game.

AUBURNTIGERS.COM

Game stories, game notes, news releases, schedules, results, statistics, history and much more can be found on the Auburn University athletics home page at www.AuburnTigers.com.

COMPETITION FACILITY

The Auburn Soccer Complex is located along Samford Ave at the corner of Biggio Drive. The main entrance of the complex is located at the same corner. Fans and media can park anywhere along the entrance including the McWhorter Center parking lot.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Please contact John Thomas or another member of the AU Communications staff for information regarding shooting restrictions upon arrival at the Auburn Soccer Complex

TICKET INFORMATION

Admission to all Tiger regular-season matches are free to the public and media. If the team plays host to post-season action, admission will, however, be charged. Contact the Auburn Ticket Office at 855-282-2010 or 334-844-4040 for more information. Fans can also check online at AuburnTigers.com for ticket pricing and ticket packages.

2015 SEASON PREVIEW

Last year, Faulkner was named to her third-straight All-SEC team, making the second team, while also being named to the NSCAA All-South Region Second Team, her second such distinction of her career.

"Kala is just an all-around complete defender," Hoppa said. "She is really strong whether we put her at center back or outside back. She's good on 1v1 and defensively, she's good on the ball. She's a competitive leader for us and when we get into games, she's the one you want on your team to fight to the end and do whatever it takes to help us win. That's all she cares about."

The same can be said for Gerken. The senior out of Birmingham, Ala., has become what Hoppa likes to call "the connector." Gerken spends the majority of her time in the midfield, but usually ends up in a holding pattern to give the defense an extra player making them that much harder to score on.

Gerken even got in on the scoring a little last season, finding the net twice in the overtime winner against Arkansas and the lone score in the 1-0 victory over Florida Gulf Coast sending Auburn on through the NCAA Tournament.

"Kala and Haley's leadership will be key this year," Hoppa said. "Those two players stepped up for us all last year and I expect that to continue this year. We anticipate Haley being in the midfield. That's where we want her and that's where she wants to be. If we need her on the back line, we have confidence in her and we know she can do it. When she's in the midfield, our team plays better soccer. She's that connector. She keeps everybody going and connected."

Overall, Auburn should see an uptick in scoring this year as its offensive side of the ball is about as stacked as the back line. Five of the team's top six goal scorers return in 2015 as the 36 goals netted last year was the most since 2011 and nine more than the 2013 team that missed the NCAA Tournament.

Of those returning scorers, four had 10 points or more last year showing that Auburn had one of the more balanced attacks in the SEC. Kristen Dodson ended up being the breakout star as she was responsible for 16 points coming off 10 assists and three goals.

Along with Dodson, Auburn had continuing consistent performances from now-junior Casie Ramsier, who had 13 points with four goals. Joining her in the double-digit point total was her sister Brooke and now-sophomore Courtney Schell, who provided Auburn yet another scoring option as she added in four goals and four assists.

"We like to have variety in our attack, it's one of the things we take pride in at Auburn," Hoppa said. "Having that flexibility with the quality of players we have returning is big for us."

With a very deep team and strength from both sides of the ball Auburn seems more than ready to make that next step. It all starts with two exhibition matches with Kennesaw State and Mercer before opening the year in California against UC Irvine and Long Beach State. Auburn will open its home schedule on Aug. 28 against UAB.

AUBURN, Ala. - As the 2014 season came to a close for the Auburn women's soccer team, the Tigers saw themselves exiting the NCAA Tournament in the second round, one goal shy of the Texas Tech Red Raiders and one goal shy of possibly advancing to the program's first-ever NCAA Sweet 16. Regardless of the loss, Auburn looked to be the better team on the field in every aspect. The coaches saw it. The players saw it. Everybody knew what was left on that field that November day and the work for 2015 couldn't have started soon enough.

"We were thrilled with how last season ended in terms of our quality of play," Auburn head coach Karen Hoppa said. "I thought we played our best soccer during that last game against Texas Tech. Not winning that game and still playing our best soccer has made our coaches and players hungry for this season. It's given us motivation."

Auburn soccer has been in a "rebuilding" phase over the last two seasons, but looking deeper at the numbers from 2014, it was a solid season for the Tigers. Hoppa believes that the experience gained by her last two freshman classes bodes well for the coming season. When you add in the veteran leadership of the senior class consisting of Kala Faulkner, Haley Gerken, Sophie Simantel and Logan Beal, Auburn seems primed for a good run in not only conference play, but postseason as well.

"We're excited to be able to start working with this group," Hoppa said. "All of the freshmen except for one have been on campus all summer. Anytime we see the players, they're excited about how fitness is going and just can't wait to get started. I think this is an amazing group of girls and it's going to be really fun to coach them this season."

Auburn finished 2014 with 12 wins, its eighth 10-win season in the last nine years and returned to the NCAA Tournament after being left out the year before. Hoppa said she knew her team could play at an elite level and saw it in the players too. That focus carried right over into the spring season where the Tigers got better on both sides of the ball.

"We felt really good about spring," Hoppa said. "Our defense has taken a really good step up. We thought we took a good step forward in the spring with our ability to possess the ball. We had a few games this spring where we knocked the ball around better than we ever have."

Auburn soccer's calling card has always been in defense and Hoppa is the first to tell you that it's something they, as a team, take pride in. Last season, with redshirt sophomore Alyse Scott in goal, Auburn recorded 10 shutouts, tying for second-most ever in a season by an Auburn team. Going into that NCAA second round matchup, four of Auburn's previous five matches including the first round win over Florida Gulf Coast, had ended in the shutout variety. Much of that strong play ran through the now-senior captain Faulkner.

The Alpharetta, Ga.-native has done it all in the Orange and Blue since arriving on The Plains in 2012, playing every minute of every game and holding down the Tigers back line becoming one of the premier defenders in the Southeastern Conference.

Auburn Record (16 Seasons) .....	184-127-31 (.538)
Overall Record (22 Seasons) .....	248-171-40 (.540)
SEC Championships .....	1
SEC Tournament Championships .....	1

NCAA Tournament Appearances .....	13

Since becoming Auburn's head coach in 1999, Karen Hoppa has guided the program to seven SEC Western Division Championships and 13 NCAA Tournament berths over the past 16 seasons, including a current string of 14-straight appearances in the SEC Tournament and an NCAA Tournament appearance in eight of the last nine seasons. Her coaching since arriving on The Plains has turned Auburn into a force every season.

A head coach since 1993, she became the 51st women's soccer coach to reach 200 career wins and just the 10th female head coach to reach that milestone when Auburn claimed a 2-1 overtime win over Alabama in the final regular season match of 2010.

As illustrious as her 247 career wins are, one of her biggest coaching achievements came towards the end of the 2011 season when she guided Auburn to the SEC Tournament title and the league's automatic NCAA berth, the first ever won by an SEC Western Division team since the start of the league tournament in 1993.

With a career mark of 247-170-40 (.540) between her coaching stops at Auburn and UCF, Hoppa is the dean of the SEC West and has guided the program to a 184-127-31 (.538) mark since arriving on the Plains, the third-highest win total at a single SEC school by any current coach in the league.

Auburn returned to the NCAA Tournament in 2014, winning 11 games in the regular-season and finishing tied for 5th in the SEC. The Tigers were picked 11th by the SEC coaches in the preseason, but proved the voters wrong, notching its eighth 10-win season in the last nine years.

Reaching the SEC Tournament for a 14th-consecutive year, Hoppa has continued to be one of the conference's best and most consistent coaches. Her string of tournament appearances is the second-longest streak in the SEC.

Auburn capped its 2014 home schedule with its third-straight victory over cross-state rival Alabama, winning the Iron Bowl of Soccer trophy and essentially clinching its 13th NCAA Tournament appearance. The Tigers went on to face Florida Gulf Coast in the first round and advanced to round two with a 1-0 victory. It was the sixth time in its history that Auburn reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

The Tigers did not make the NCAA Tournament field in 2013, but Hoppa continued her streak of SEC Tournament appearances, stretching now to 13 years, going back to 2001. With six matches remaining in the regular-season, Auburn found themselves on the outside looking in, needing to record a point in each of the remaining matches to stay mathematically eligible for the postseason. The Tigers rattled off a win or a tie in each of the final six matches, which included three-straight ties, something Auburn had never done. The Orange and Blue made the 2013 SEC Tournament field and recorded a 1-0 win over LSU in overtime after a penalty kick found the back of the net from senior Bianca Sierra.

Hoppa guided the 2012 Tigers to yet another appearance in the NCAA Tournament, as Auburn advanced to the second round for the second consecutive season. Picked to finish third in the division in the preseason, the Tigers posted a 5-2-0 record against SEC West opponents for a second place finish. Hoppa worked her SEC Tournament magic yet again, leading the Tigers to the championship match for the fifth time.

Highlighting the 2012 season was senior goalkeeper Amy Howard. Howard ended the year leading the nation in minutes played (2298:56) and eighth in total saves (130). It marked the first time an Auburn player finished the year as a national leader in any statistical category.

Howard also set the school record for career saves at 387, breaking the mark of 356 set by Allison Whitworth (2005-08). Howard's 387 career saves are the second-most in SEC history.

Since the start of the 2001 season, two years after her arrival at Auburn, she has guided the program to 12 10-win seasons and an astounding 46-15-4 (.738) mark against SEC West teams.

Hoppa's teams are a model of athletic success on the field and academic success off it. A consistent post-season entrant, Auburn has advanced to the SEC Tournament 14 consecutive times, the second-longest active streak in the conference, while maintaining one of the highest team GPAs on the Auburn campus, collecting a NSCAA Team Academic Award for four-straight years as over 65 percent of the 2011 team was on the SEC Academic Honor Roll.

Hoppa has also seen a trio of her players earn CoSIDA Academic All-America recognition in Katy Frierson (2011), Jenn Johnson (2007 & 2008) and Erin Hinson (2003) while Frierson was named the NSCAA Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 2010. In 2014, sophomore Casie Ramsier was honored as a Capital One Academic All-District.

Owning an eye for spotting talent and the ability to coach players to the best of their ability, Hoppa has helped five different players collect a total of 13 All-America honors, has coached 17 All-SEC First Team selections, 15 All-SEC Second Team selections, four SEC Players of the Year (Sarah Steinmann - 2002; Ronda Brooks - 2006; Julie King - 2011; Kala Faulkner - 2012), 11 All-SEC Freshmen and two SEC Freshmen of the Year (Megan Rivera - 2001; Frierson - 2008). There have also been 38 All-Region honors handed out to Auburn players during Hoppa's tenure.

Already one of the most dominant programs in the SEC, Hoppa's program took another step forward in 2011 as it became the first Western Division team to win the league's automatic bid, posting two shutouts in three wins en route to the SEC Tournament championship.

A second round NCAA Tournament appearance followed as the team tied the school record for wins in a season (15) and had the second-highest goal (50) and assist (61) totals in program history. It also capped the illustrious career of star Frierson, who left owning six school records and who also became just the fifth player in league history to be named First Team All-SEC all four years of her career. King also capped her career by being voted a SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Year, Auburn's first since 2006.

The 2010 season saw Auburn win a seventh SEC Western Division Championship, the most by any school in the West as no other school has won more than four.

Finishing the year 11-8-2, 5-4-2 SEC, the club advanced to the NCAA Tournament as an at-large selection for a school-record fifth straight time. Again the accolades poured in at the end of the season as Frierson (eight goals, 12 assists, 28 points) and King (four goals, two assists, 10 points) were each named First Team All-SEC and defensive stalwart Sammy Towne was voted to the second team.

Frierson and King were also on the TopDrawerSoccer.com Team of the Season while Frierson was one of 15 players named to the semifinal list for the prestigious Hermann Trophy, a first for an Auburn student-athlete.

The 2009 season was the fourth straight NCAA Tournament appearance as the team was selected as an at-large team for the dance. Riding the deft scoring touch of First Team All-SEC midfielder Frierson (five goals, 10 assists, 20 points) and Second Team All-SEC forward Rebecca Howell (eight goals, one assist, 17 points), the team racked up 109 points, the second straight season Auburn had tallied at least 100 points offensively.

With a high-octane offense pacing the team, the defense relied on the work of Second Team All-SEC defender Towne and SEC All-Freshman goalkeeper Amy Howard to limit its opponents to just 27 goals in 22 matches for a 1.16 goals against average.

After a run to the semifinals in the SEC Tournament for the first time since the 2005 team appeared in the finals, the team then traveled to Tallahassee, Fla., for the NCAA Tournament before bowing out to California in a 2-1 overtime loss, finishing the season 10-9-3, 6-5-0 SEC.

Hoppa guided Auburn to its sixth SEC West Title in the last eight seasons in 2008, earning the school's third consecutive NCAA Tournament bid, and its second hosting opportunity, going 12-9-2 on the year, which included an incredible 9-3-0 mark at home and a 7-3-1 mark in conference play.

Freshman midfielder Frierson and senior goalkeeper Allison Whitworth both had historic seasons in 2008 as Frierson was named to the All-SEC First Team and the SEC Freshman of the Year while Whitworth was also named to the All-SEC First Team, was the conference's Scholar-Athlete of the Year and was Auburn's first-ever WPS Draft pick.

Frierson led the team in goals (nine) and points (25) while Whitworth established school records for saves in a season (132) and a career (356) before the FC Gold Pride selected her in the eighth round of its draft in St. Louis, Mo.

The 2007 season produced Auburn's sixth NCAA Tournament trip with a 10-8-2 mark and a runner-up finish in the SEC West. Sophomore forward Caitlin King had one of the finest seasons in program history, collecting 13 assists and finishing the year with 23 points.

The 13 assists tied a school record while her 23 points ranked eighth all-time. Whitworth also continued to blossom under the watchful eye of Hoppa, tying the school record for saves (102) for a second consecutive season and finishing with a 1.16 goals against average, seventh-best at Auburn.

Hoppa moved into elite company in the sport of women's soccer when she won her 150th career match on September 3, 2006, against William & Mary in a year in which the Tigers reclaimed what had been theirs for four straight seasons but eluded them in 2005 - the SEC Western Division Title and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Keyed by a defense that allowed just 14 regular-season goals, the Tigers marched onto yet another SEC West title - the fifth under Hoppa.

Leading the backline was SEC Defensive Player of the Year Ronda Brooks (the first from an SEC West school) while Whitworth played the entire season between the pipes, following in the footsteps of Hoppa as a tenacious goalkeeper and leader on the field.

Despite battling injuries to key players throughout the course of the 2005 season, Hoppa guided the Tigers to within one win of their fifth consecutive trip to the NCAA Tournament and Auburn's first SEC Tournament title.

Auburn knocked off third-seeded Florida and seventh-seeded Kentucky in the first two rounds of the conference tournament before losing a heart-breaker to top-seeded Tennessee, 1-0.

At the conclusion of the tournament, Hoppa's players had picked up the Tournament MVP award (Brooks) and three more all-tournament selections (Ashley Eason, Jada Stewart, Kristin Stewart) to go along with the regular-season selections of Brooks to the All-SEC First Team, Eason to the second team and Jenn Johnson to the all-freshman team.

In 2004, Hoppa led the Tigers to its only undefeated season in SEC play with an Auburn-best 9-0-2 record, the team's fourth-consecutive SEC West title and fourth consecutive NCAA Tournament.

The team advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the third consecutive season, hosting the first and second rounds for the first time in school history at the Auburn Soccer Complex.

At the conclusion of the season, the Tigers found themselves ranked 19th in the NSCAA/adidas National Rankings and 13th in the final Soccer Buzz poll, the highest final ranking in school history.

Finishing out their senior seasons in 2004, Chrissy Culver, Megan Rivera, Sarah Steinmann and Jenn Walters each earned All-SEC honors and Rivera became the Tigers' first four-time All-American, owning every Auburn goalkeeper record and three SEC records at the conclusion of her career.

Hoppa led the Tigers to their first Southeastern Championship title in 2002, three seasons after the team finished at the bottom of the conference standings. For her efforts in leading the team to a school record 15-5-2 mark in 2002, she was named as the SEC Coach of the Year.

Hoppa helped lead her team to the second round of the NCAA Tournament two years in a row, which is also a feat never reached by an Auburn team. Early in the 2002 season, Hoppa achieved the 100th win of her career in a 4-0 win over South Alabama on Sept. 15.

In 2003, Auburn finished 14-4-3 on the year including a second round appearance in the NCAA Tournament and ended the season with a No. 16 ranking. The ranking marked the first time Auburn was ranked at the conclusion of the season.

Hoppa kept busy away from Auburn as well in the summer of 2002. The head coaching veteran was named the United States National Team's Youth Goalkeeper Coordinator where her duties took her around the globe during the summer. Hoppa was a coach for the U19 National team in the inaugural FIFA Women's U19 World Championships helping lead the team, and 2004 Auburn senior Megan Rivera, to the World Championship title over host team Canada.

Hoppa led the Tigers to a 11-8-1 record in 2001, including an appearance in the championship match of the Southeastern Conference Tournament. Among the 11 victories were upsets over No. 6 Virginia, No. 16 Tennessee and No. 19 Georgia. The Tigers also received their first-ever national ranking, reaching No. 19 at one point in the season.

In 2000, her second season at Auburn, Hoppa led the Tigers to a then school record 13-7-0 record with 11 newcomers, a solid group of returners and only two seniors. In 2000 Hoppa became just the 12th person to be inducted into the University of Central Florida Athletic Hall of Fame for her accomplishments as both an All-America goalkeeper and an academic All-American.

Her off-season accomplishments did not end there either. Hoppa was then asked to join the Under 18 United States National Team in Bulgaria for the Albena Cup, a full national team tournament. She accepted the invitation and served as an assistant and goalkeeper coach for the U.S. Team that lost on penalty kicks in the championship game.

Hoppa also added assistant regional coach to her resume in 2000. She led the U16 Regional Team to an undefeated mark on a tour of Germany, Holland, Belgium and France in April and then traveled to Rhode Island, as an assistant coach for the U16 and U18 National team at the U.S. Soccer Festival. She then served as an assistant coach at the National Camp in California for U17 and U18 teams.

Prior to her coming to Auburn, Hoppa served as UCF's head coach from 1993-1998 and spent 1991 to 1993 as an assistant coach for the Golden Knights. All told, Hoppa spent a total of 12 years at UCF as a student-athlete, assistant coach and head coach.

She led the program to two NCAA tournament appearances as a player, including a trip to the Final Four in 1987, five Trans America Athletic Conference titles and a trip to the 1998 NCAA Tournament as a coach.

Hoppa posted a 64-44-9 record at UCF, winning five TAAC titles including four in a row from 1993-96. In her final season at UCF, Hoppa guided the squad to a 12-8 mark and a perfect 4-0 in the Trans America Athletic Conference en route to the school's first NCAA Tournament berth since 1991. For her efforts, Richter (Hoppa) was named TAAC Coach of the Year.

Hoppa has also been very involved in the Olympic Development Program and various youth soccer programs in the United States. Prior to her appointment as the Region III head coach in February 2009, she spent two years as the assistant coach in the same Region.

In August of 2007, Hoppa took seven Alabama ODP players to Denmark to play in the Dana Cup in Hjørring, Denmark, with the Fortuna Club as she has been coaching the Alabama ODP team for the 1990 birth year for the past two seasons and has had four players selected to the Regional Pool and two to the National Pool.

In addition to her duties during the summer of 2002, she has spent time with the USYSA National teams, including preparing youth goalkeepers for international competition and assisting the team during the Adidas Cup in Orlando, Fla. From 1990 to 2001, Hoppa was also the head goalkeeper coach and regional staff coach for the USYS Region II ODP team.

A holder of a United States Soccer Federation (USSF) "A" coaching license, she served on the coaching staff of the Florida Youth Soccer Association from 1990 to 1999. In 1997 she was the head coach of the Florida Women's State Select team that won the Southern Regional.

Prior to becoming the head coach at Central Florida, Hoppa was an assistant for the Golden Knights for two seasons, 1991-93, and also served as an assistant for the nearby Lake Brantley High School boy's team during that same time.

Hoppa also served as an assistant for the girl's team at Lyman High School in Longwood, Fla., for two years (1989-91). The Lyman team won the state championship in Hoppa's second year.

Hoppa's success at Central Florida wasn't limited to the sidelines, however. She made a name for herself as a one of the greatest goalkeepers in UCF and NCAA history.

A three year starter from 1987-90, Hoppa allowed just 30 goals (0.594) in 48 career games in assisting her squads to a 43-13-7 record during her tenure. During her four years, Central Florida made two NCAA appearances, advancing to the Final Four in 1987 and the quarterfinals in 1988. Her 30 goals allowed, 0.594 goals against average, and 30.5 shutouts are still UCF career records.

As a senior, Hoppa was named the 1990 Adidas/ISAA Goalkeeper of the Year, the NCAA Goalkeeper of the Year and was a finalist for the Hermann Award. She helped UCF to a 9-4-3 record, including a 2-2 tie with national power North Carolina.

As a junior, she was named to the 1989 Soccer America MVP Team after leading Central Florida to a 11-1-2 record. In 14 games, her team posted 11 shutouts and allowed just four goals all season.

An excellent student as well, Hoppa graduated Magna Cum Laude with a degree in psychology, a 3.7 grade point average, and was a finalist as a senior for the prestigious Honda Award. She was also recognized as an Adidas/ISAA Scholar-Athlete during her junior and senior years.

During her collegiate career Hoppa was inducted into several national honor societies including Golden Key, Omicron Delta Kappa, Phi Kappa Phi and Psi Chi. She also served on the 1991 College Student-Athlete Project: Women and Athletics Sub-Committee.

A three-sport standout at Naperville Central High School in Naperville, Ill., Hoppa earned All-America soccer honors and was a member of the National Youth Team in 1986. The Naperville native was also a member of the United States Olympic Festival's North squad in both 1987 and 1990. Along with her soccer success, Hoppa also competed on the softball and basketball squads.

In 1997 Hoppa returned to the field as a player, as a member of the Tampa Bay Extreme, a member of the United Systems of Independent Soccer Leagues (USISL) "W League."

For two seasons, Hoppa was the starting goalkeeper for the Extreme. Hoppa is a member of the National Soccer Coaches Association of America and served as a volunteer club coach with the Seminole Soccer Club for five years (1989-93). She was a member of the NCAA Regional Advisory Committee (1995-97) and also served on the NSCAA Division I Women's Soccer Southeast Ratings Board (1996-98).

Hoppa (formerly Richter) married Scott Hoppa on Dec. 14, 2002. The couple resides in Opelika, Ala., have a daughter, Bailey (4).

BEN MADSEN

ASSISTANT COACH

4th Season

Lincoln Memorial University ('03)

Ben Madsen was named assistant coach on Feb. 29, 2012. Madsen joined Auburn from Iowa State where he was an assistant coach for four years and served as the Cyclones' head assistant since 2009.

In 2014, Madsen guided Alyse Scott, who started in the net for all 22 matches of Auburn's season, tallying 76 saves and only allowing 22 goals for a 0.96 goals against average. That GAA was the fourth-best average in the conference. Scott also garnered 10 shutouts in 2014, tying for the most in the SEC last season.

Working with defenders and goalkeepers, Madsen helped the Tigers post the most saves in the Southeastern Conference in 2013 with 135 and register the third-best saves percentage at 82.4.

Madsen was the recruiting coordinator and goalkeepers coach at Iowa State and helped bring a recruiting class that increased the program's win total for three straight seasons from 2009-11. In 2011 the ISU club tied the program record for shutouts in a season with nine and he coached goalkeeper Maddie Jobe to two Big XII Player of the Week awards. On the recruiting trail his 2010 freshman class accounted for 92 percent of the team's points and scored every goal in Big XII conference play.

Prior to ISU Madsen was an assistant at the University of South Alabama from 2004-08. During his stay in Mobile the team made four Sunbelt Conference tournament appearances and finished as the conference runner-up in 2005. He also coached the 2004 First Team All-Sunbelt goalkeeper.

Madsen started his coaching career with the Lincoln College men's team from 2002-03 before moving on to Alabama-Huntsville from 2003-04. At Lincoln he trained the 2002 Collegiate Conference of Central Illinois First Team All-Conference goalkeeper while at UAH he recruited the 2004 Gulf South Conference Freshman of the Year.

Madsen has been very active in youth soccer acting as a Region II and Region III goalkeeper coach, a U14 girls head coach and an ODP assistant and co-head coach.

Madsen earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Lincoln Memorial University in 2003, where he also played from 1998-01. He has a NSCAA Advanced National Diploma and a NSCAA National Goalkeeper Diploma.

Madsen and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Margaret Kate (Maggie).

JAMES ARMSTRONG

ASSISTANT COACH

3rd Season

University of Edinburg ('00)

James Armstrong joined the Auburn program as an assistant coach on March 13, 2013. Armstrong comes from the Lonestar Soccer Club in Austin, Texas.

Armstrong works primarily with Auburn's midfielders and forwards. Since his arrival, Auburn has seen quite the influx of offensive output. In 2014, the Tigers scored 36 goals from 12 different players. Nine of those players had multi-goal seasons with departing senior Tori Ball leading the way with five goals. The 36 goals was tied for the sixth-best total in the conference.

Combined in 2013 and 2014, Auburn has scored 63 times, joined with 213 points. The 36 goals and 118 points were the most for Auburn since the 2011 season.

He had been at Lonestar SC since its inception in 2004, progressing through the ranks and coaching at all levels of play. At Lonestar SC he was the Girls Junior Academy Director of Coaching for three years, the Girls DI Director of Coaching for three years and most recently the ECNL Head Coach and Premier League Girls Director of Coaching.

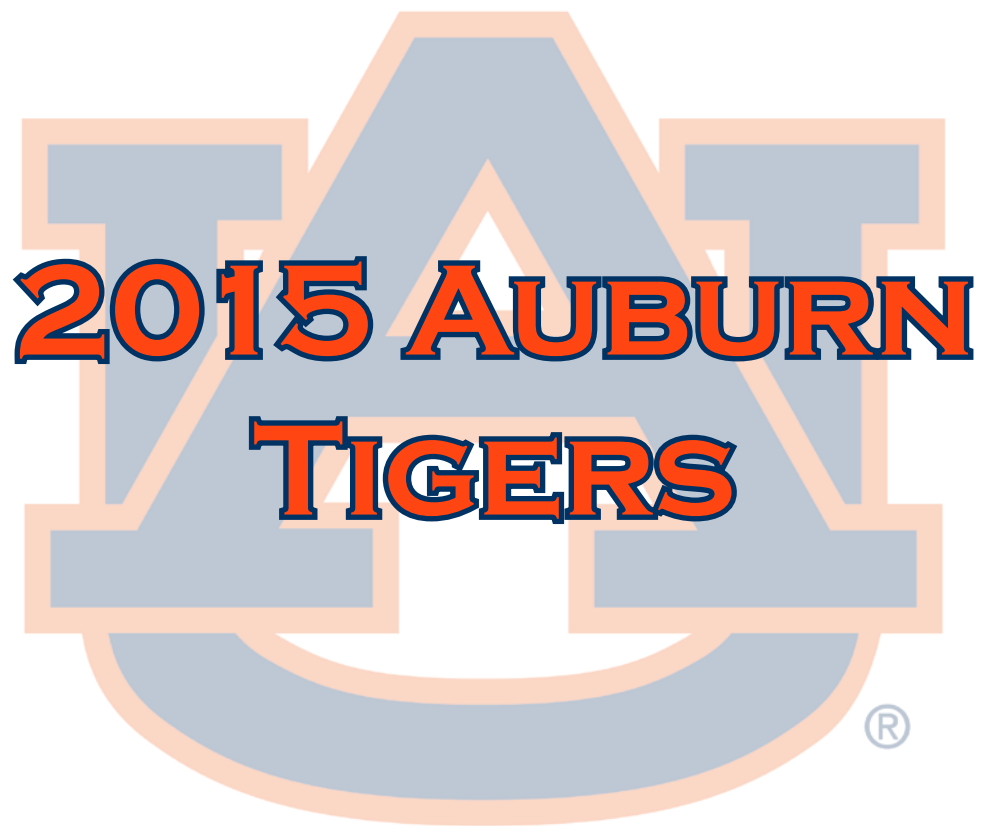

In 2012, Armstrong was the assistant coach for Concordia University Texas Tornados. He has also been a ODP Region III coach for girls ages 14-18.

Prior to working with the Lonestar SC and ODP, Armstrong was also a staff member for the United States Women's National Team. He worked with the U-19 U.S. Women's World Cup team that won the championship in 2002, where Hoppa was also an assistant coach, as well as the senior national team which placed third at the 2003 Women's World Cup.

A native of Yorkshire, England, Armstrong earned a bachelor's degree in history and politics from the University of Edinburgh in 2000 and a master's in the same disciplines in 2001. He has a USSF A License and a National Youth License.

ADDITIONAL NOTES

-Auburn played in its 12th NCAA Tournament all-time this year. All 12 have come under current head coach Karen Hoppa, who completed her 16th campaign this year.

-With its 1-0 win over Florida Gulf Coast, Auburn advanced to the NCAA Tournament Second Round for the sixth time in its history and first since 2012.

-After defeating Alabama on Senior Day, the Tigers hit the 10-win plateau for the 16th time in program history and eighth time in the last nine years.

-Auburn advanced to the SEC Tournament for the 14-consecutive time this year, the second-longest active streak in the conference.

-Auburn only had seven losses during the year which ties for the least in the last eight years.

-The team's 36 goals this year is the most in the last three seasons.

-The 46 assists tallied by the team is the most since 2000 (68).

-Auburn's defense racked up 10 shutouts this season, tied for second-most in a single season in Auburn's history.

-Redshirt sophomore Alyse Scott was in the net for all 10 of those shutouts this year, second-most in a season by an Auburn goalkeeper.

-Scott played 2,067 minutes throughout the year, the second-highest in the SEC.

-Her goals against average (.958) was also third in the conference and is the fourth-best total in one season in program history.

-Junior Kala Faulkner raked in the awards this year, being named Second Team NSCAA All-South Region and Second Team All-SEC. Her All-Region selection was the second of her career.

-Freshman Kristen Dodson tallied at least one point in all but nine matches this year. Her three points vs. Missouri set a new season-high for the Illinois-native.

-Dodson's 10 assists this year were the second-most in a season by an Auburn freshman, behind only Kellie Evans, who had 13 in 2000.

-Her assist total was good for third in the conference and 31st in the nation. It also tied for seventh in the Auburn single-season record book.

-Departing redshirt senior Tori Ball finished the year as the team's top goal scorer (5), which put her seventh all-time on the career goals scored list (21), ahead of AU greats Mary Coffed (17) (2009-11) and Kristen Schier (16) (1994-97).

-Auburn had nine multi-goal scorers this year ties for the most in the last four seasons.

-With its 1-0 overtime victory over Alabama this year, the Tigers have won the last three meetings against its cross-state rival.

-The team was awarded the NSCAA Team Academic Award for its combined GPA during the 2013-14 school year. It was the fourth-straight year the program was given the award.

-Auburn notched its first win over a top-25 opponent since 2012 when it defeated No. 25 Missouri, 3-2, back in early October. The Tigers last win over a ranked opponent came when they defeated No. 12 Texas A&M (2-0) in the 2012 SEC Tournament

-After opening the year with a 5-1 record, the Tigers found themselves ranked No. 18 in the NSCAA/Continental Tire National Poll, its first national ranking since 2012.

- Texas A&M has set a school record with 22 wins this season and is making its first appearance in the College Cup.
- Texas A&M's Shea Groom and Florida's Savannah Jordan have been named semifinalists for the 2014 MAC Hermann Trophy.
- The SEC led all conferences with three teams in the NCAA Quarterfinals. The ACC and Pac-12 each have two and the Big Ten has one team.
- Florida and Texas A&M each made their fifth appearance in the NCAA Quarterfinals while South Carolina made its first.
- A record-tying eight Southeastern Conference soccer teams are among the 64 competing for the NCAA Division I Women's Soccer Championship. It ties the league record set in 2011 and marks the sixth time in the last seven seasons that at least six SEC teams have received postseason bids.
- Four of the SEC's teams are national seeds with Texas A&M earning a No. 1 seed, Florida a No. 2 seed and Kentucky and South Carolina earning No. 3 seeds. Joining them in the field are Arkansas, Auburn, Georgia and Missouri.
- After making the program's first NCAA Tournament appearance in 2013, Arkansas returned to the tournament.
- Auburn made its 12th NCAA Tournament appearance, including its eighth in the last nine years. Each of its tournament appearances have been under the direction of head coach Karen Hoppa.
- A No. 2 national seed, Florida is making its 18th NCAA Championships' appearance and the team's 12th consecutive. Becky Burleigh has been the head coach for each of the program's 20 seasons and is one of two women to lead her team to the NCAA title.
- Georgia made its ninth appearance in the NCAA Tournament. The Bulldogs own a 6-9-1 record in the - tournament and advanced to the Sweet 16 in 1998.

- Kentucky earned its first national seed this season with a No. 3 seeding. This is the third consecutive season that the Wildcats have advanced to the second round of the tournament and the first time to the Sweet 16.
- Missouri earned its sixth NCAA Tournament berth and second in a row. This was the fourth consecutive year the Tigers have advanced to the second round of the tournament.
- Third-seeded South Carolina earned its seventh trip to the NCAA Tournament in the last eight years. It is the third time the Gamecocks have received a national seed.
- Texas A&M earned its first-ever No. 1 seed and is appearing in the NCAA Tournament for the 20th consecutive year. The Aggies, who received the SEC's automatic bid, are one of five teams to make it to every NCAA Tournament since 1995.
- Texas A&M won its second consecutive SEC Tournament championship with a 1-0 win over Kentucky. The Aggies became the first team to win back-to-back SEC Tournament titles since Tennessee in 2002 and 2003.
- Texas A&M's 9-1-1 league record earned the Aggies the 2014 SEC Championship. This is the second straight regular season title for Texas A&M, who shared the 2013 crown with Florida.
- SEC teams have posted a 70-30-8 (.685) record in non-conference action. They have out scored their non-conference opponents 231-106.
- South Carolina goalkeeper Sabrina D'Angelo is one of 10 finalists for the 2014 Senior CLASS Award.
- Twelve SEC soccer players earned Capital One Academic All-District honors this season.
- 12 SEC teams received the NSCAA Women's Team Academic Award.

Preseason Poll

Florida narrowly edged Texas A&M as the favorite to claim the 2014 Southeastern Conference women's soccer title in voting by the league's 14 head coaches. This marks the 16th time that Florida has been tabbed by the coaches to win the title.

The Gators received 164 points that included eight first-place votes, topping the Aggies' 162 points (six first-place votes). Florida and Texas A&M shared the 2013 SEC title by posting identical 9-2-0 league records.

Florida returns 11 starters from last season, including MAC Hermann Award candidates Savannah Jordan, Havana Solaun and Christen Westphal. Texas A&M returns 10 starters from 2013, of which five were All-SEC selections, including first-teamers Shea Groom and Meghan Streight and second-teamers Jordan Day, Leigh Edwards and Kelley Monogue.

Points were compiled on a 13-12-11-10-9-8-7-6-5-4-3-2-1 basis, though each coach was not allowed to vote for their own team.

2014 SEC Women's Soccer Awards

Texas A&M head coach G Guerrieri, Alabama forward Laura Lee Smith, Texas A&M midfielder Shea Groom, Kentucky defender Arin Gilliland and South Carolina forward Savannah McCaskill headline the 2014 Southeastern Conference Women's Soccer Awards announced Sunday.

Guerrieri was named SEC Coach of the Year while Smith earned SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year honors. Groom was named SEC Offensive Player of the Year. Gilliland was tabbed SEC Defensive Player of the Year. McCaskill garnered SEC Freshman of the Year while earning second team All-SEC honors.

It is the second consecutive SEC Coach of the Year honor for Guerrieri. Texas A&M finished the season on top of the league standings with a 9-1-1 record. It is the second straight SEC championship for the Aggies, who shared the title with Florida in 2013.

Smith, who owns a 3.95 grade point average in English was tabbed SEC Soccer Scholar-Athlete of the Year. The Jackson, Miss., native led the Crimson Tide with 19 points on seven goals and five assists this season.

Groom becomes the first Texas A&M player to earn SEC Offensive Player of the Year honors. The Liberty, Mo., native led the Aggies with 13 goals on the season, including eight in league play.

Gilliland earned SEC Defensive Player of the Year honors after leading a Kentucky defense that allowed just one goal in its last five matches. The Wildcats surrendered an SEC-low eight goals in league play.

McCaskill joins teammate Sabrina D'Angelo as the only Gamecocks to earn SEC Freshman of the Year honors after leading USC with 15 points on the season.
