GUS MALZAHN

HEAD COACH (2nd SEASON)

Gus Malzahn enters his second season as head coach of Auburn after an incredible first season, leading the Tigers to the BCS National Championship Game, the SEC Championship and a 12-2 record en route to being named National Coach of the Year by nine outlets.

Malzahn, who served as Auburn's offensive coordinator from 2009-11, coached in his second BCS National Championship Game in four years. The Tigers won the title in 2010 behind Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton and came within 13 seconds of defeating No. 1 Florida State for the title in 2013.

Malzahn is 21-5 entering his third season as a head coach after winning back-to-back championships in his first two seasons, the SEC Championship in 2013 and the Sun Belt Conference title with a 9-3 record at Arkansas State in 2012. His 12-2 start at Auburn is the second-best for a new Auburn coach.

At 12-2, Auburn posted the biggest turnaround in the nation (+8) in 2013, the biggest turnaround in SEC history (+7 conference wins) and fell just shy of the biggest improvement in NCAA records (+8.5 games by Hawaii from 1999 to 2000). Malzahn turned a 3-9 season with a total offense ranked 117th out of 124 teams prior to his arrival into a 12-2 SEC Champion in 2013, reaching the BCS National Championship Game.

The Bear Bryant, Bobby Bowden, Eddie Robinson, Home Depot, Sporting News, SB Nation, Liberty Mutual and Associated Press National Coach of the Year and a finalist for the 2013 Maxwell National Coach of the Year award, Malzahn earned SEC Coach of the Year honors from the league's coaches and the Associated Press.

Just the third coach in SEC history to win an SEC title in his first year at a school, Malzahn joined LSU's Bernie Moore in 1935 and Ole Miss' John Vaught in 1947.

Malzahn has won or played for a conference title in six of his eight seasons as a college coach, including winning a conference crown in three of the last four seasons with Auburn in 2010 and 2013 and Arkansas State in 2012.

He has produced 11 1,000-yard rushers in eight seasons as a college head coach/coordinator, at least one in each season, with Heisman Trophy finalist Tre Mason (1,816) and Nick Marshall (1,068) in 2013.

Malzahn has also had five 1,000-yard receivers and three 3,000-yard passers. He has had two 1,000-yard rushers in the same season three times: 2013 (Auburn), 2010 (Auburn) and 2006 (Arkansas). His 2007 Tulsa team had three 1,000-yard receivers.

In 2013, Auburn led the nation rushing for 328.3 yards per game, ranked eighth nationally in yards per play on offense at 6.92 yards and was second in the nation to Navy with 229 rushing first downs. Auburn has currently scored 30 points in 10 consecutive games for the first time in school history.

Auburn was just the second team in SEC history to gain more than 7,000 yards total offense in a season in 2013, finishing the year with 7,018 yards; the other was Texas A&M in 2012.

The Tigers ranked 11th in total offense with 501.3 yards per game, 12th in scoring offense with 39.5 points per game, 13th with 334 first downs and ninth in net punting (40.54).

The Tigers set a school record with 48 rushing touchdowns in 2013, set a school record against SEC opponents with 677 yards of total offense vs. No. 5 Missouri in the SEC Championship Game. The Tigers set SEC Championship Game team records for rushing 26 first downs, 74 rushing attempts, 545 rushing yards and seven rushing touchdowns.

Auburn set a school record with 1,955 yards total offense in a three-game span vs. Western Carolina (712), at No. 7 Texas A&M (615) and vs. Florida Atlantic (628).

Tre Mason, a Heisman Trophy finalist and SEC Player of the Year in 2013, ranked third in the nation with 23 touchdowns, was fifth nationally with 1,816 yards rushing, sixth with 10.7 points per game, sixth with 169.57 all-purpose yards per game and eighth with 129.7 rushing yards per game. Mason set the Auburn single-season record with 1,816 rushing yards and 2,374 all-purpose yards, is second with 317 rushing attempts. His 46 rushing attempts and 304 rushing yards vs. No. 5 Missouri set SEC Championship Game records and fell three yards shy of the Auburn record.

Wide receiver Sammie Coates ranks third in the nation with 21.48 yards per reception with 42 catches for 902 yards and seven touchdowns.

Four Auburn players were taken in the 2014 NFL Draft, including two first round picks with offensive tackle Greg Robinson going No. 2 overall to the St. Louis Rams and defensive end Dee Ford going No. 23 to the Kansas City Chiefs. Running back Tre Mason was a third round selection by the Rams while fullback Jay Prosch was a sixth round pick by the Houston Texans.

Malzahn, who won the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach in 2010 while helping the Tigers to the BCS National Championship, returned to Auburn after serving as the head coach at Arkansas State in 2012, where he led the program to the Sun Belt Conference title. He was named the program's 26th head football coach on December 4, 2012.

Known for his innovative offensive style, Malzahn has made a profound impact during each of his coaching stops at the collegiate level: Auburn, Arkansas State, Tulsa and Arkansas.

In 2012 at Arkansas State, Malzahn led the Red Wolves to a 9-3 record and 7-1 conference mark, including a seven-game winning streak. The Red Wolves defeated Middle Tennessee 45-0 to claim the Sun Belt Championship and a berth in the GoDaddy.com Bowl.

A product of Fort Smith, Ark., Malzahn's ASU offense was in the top 25 nationally in nearly every offensive category entering the bowl game, ranking 17th in total offense (481.8 ypg) and 21st in scoring offense (36.4 ppg) and rushing offense (217.4 ypg). Led by record-setting quarterback Ryan Aplin, who was named Sun Belt Player of the Year, the Red Wolves' offense was 13th nationally in passing efficiency (155.39 rating) and averaged 217.4 yards per game passing.

Malzahn made an immediate impact during his tenure at Auburn, highlighted by a record-setting offense in 2010 when the Tigers finished 14-0 and claimed the school's first national championship since 1957.

The 2010 Auburn offense set nine school records, including points in a season (577), points per game (41.2), total yards (6,989), total offense (499.2), rushing yards (3,987), rushing touchdowns (41) and passing touchdowns (31). Malzahn's record-setting offense in 2010 led the Southeastern Conference and finished in the top 10 nationally in six statistical categories.

He coached Heisman Trophy winner Cam Newton during the Tigers' run to the 2011 BCS National Championship. Under Malzahn's guidance, quarterback Newton had one of the best single-season performances at the position in college football history. Newton threw for 2,908 yards and 30 touchdowns, while rushing for 1,586 yards and 20 TDs on the ground en route to becoming the third Heisman winner in school history.

Newton, the No. 1 overall draft pick in the 2011 NFL Draft, also won the school's first-ever Davey O'Brien Award and Manning Award, given to the nation's top quarterback. He also claimed the Maxwell Award, presented annually to college football's top player, while also earning Associated Press National Player of the Year and SEC Offensive Player of the Year awards.

Newton became just the third player in FBS history to record 20 rushing and passing touchdowns in a single season and the first player in SEC history to throw for 2,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a single season.

He helped lead the Tigers to an 8-5 record in 2011, which included a victory in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. The Malzahn-led Auburn offense had four players named to the All-SEC Team.

Malzahn's arrival in 2009 and style of offense marked a drastic turnaround from the 2008 season when Auburn struggled offensively. In a two-year period, the Tigers improved from a tie for 110th to seventh in the nation in scoring offense (from 17.3 to 41.2) and from 104th to seventh in total offense. It also took Auburn just six games in 2009 to score more points than it did in all 12 games in 2008.

The striking numbers shouldn't have come as a surprise, as during Malzahn's two seasons at Tulsa, his offenses there were also among the nation's first, ranking first nationally in total offense in 2007 and 2008.

Tulsa's offense in 2007 established nine team school records and 12 individual records. The Hurricane also set nine Conference USA team records, while Tulsa quarterback Paul Smith broke an NCAA record by throwing for at least 300 yards in 14 consecutive games.

The 2008 Tulsa offense averaged 569.9 yards per game and was second nationally averaging 47.2 points per games.

Prior to his time at Tulsa, Malzahn coached one season at Arkansas, as offensive coordinator, coaching Heisman Trophy runner-up Darren McFadden and helping the Razorbacks finish fourth nationally in rushing offense at 228.5 yards per game. Two of Malzahn's first three collegiate offenses ranked in the top 10 nationally in rushing, including the 2008 Tulsa team and 2006 Arkansas squad. During Malzahn's one season at Arkansas in 2006, the Razorbacks finished with a 10-4 record and were SEC West Division Champions.

Malzahn's coaching career began in his home state of Arkansas at the high school level. In 14 seasons as a high school head coach, Malzahn led seven teams to the state championship game and won three titles. Malzahn coached two quarterbacks, Josh Floyd and current Auburn offensive coordinator Rhett Lashlee, who set national passing records. Malzahn also tutored 2005 Gatorade, Parade Magazine and Rivals.com National Player of the Year Mitch Mustain at Springdale High School.

In July 2013, he was inducted into the Arkansas High School Sports Hall of Fame.

Malzahn is married to the former Kristi Otwell and they are the parents of two daughters, Kylie and Kenzie.

DAMEYUNE CRAIG

CO-OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/WIDE RECEIVERS

Former Auburn standout quarterback Dameyune Craig, who helped the Tigers to the 2013 SEC Championship and BCS Championship berth, enters his second season as Auburn's co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach.

In 2013, Auburn had the second biggest turnaround in college football history at +8.0 games. Sophomore Sammie Coates ranked third nationally with 21.48 yards/reception, 42 catches for 902 yards and seven touchdowns.

Additionally, Craig was inducted into the Mobile Sports Hall of Fame for his time as a record breaking quarterback at Blount High School. He also elected to the prestigious Tiger Trail in Auburn.

Craig played quarterback at Auburn from 1994-97, where he still holds numerous Auburn passing records, including completions (216) and passing yards (3,227) in a season as well as a single-game record for most net yards gained (445 vs. Army in 1996; 75 rush, 370 pass). Craig, who led Auburn to an 18-7 mark in 25 career starts, was an exceptional student-athlete on and off the field, earning Academic All-SEC honors as a senior in 1997.

Craig spent three seasons prior to returning to Auburn as the quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator at Florida State, where he helped the Seminoles to a 31-10 record, including a 12-2 mark in 2012. FSU won the 2012 ACC championship and defeated Northern Illinois in the Discover Orange Bowl.

Coordinating FSU's recruiting efforts, Craig's efforts helped produced the No. 1 and No. 2 recruiting classes in 2011-12 and landed 2013 Heisman Trophy winner Jameis Winston. Craig was recognized as the 2012 Scout/FoxSportsNet ACC Recruiter of the Year as well as the Rivals.com ACC Recruiter of the Year, among the Rivals top 25 recruiters nationally and 247Sports' top 50 recruiters.

As quarterbacks coach at FSU, Craig developed E.J. Manuel and Christian Ponder, who combined to throw for 2,905 yards; Ponder completed 61.5 percent of his passes and Manuel completed 69.9 percent of his passes. Ponder was a first-round pick of the Minnesota Vikings in the 2011 NFL Draft. Manuel, who was the Buffalo Bills' first-round pick in 2013, finished as FSU's career completion percentage leader (66.9 percent) while ranking in the school's top five in passing yards and total offense.

Craig came to Florida State after a two-year run at South Alabama, where he directed the wide receivers for head coach Joey Jones. Craig was Jones' first hire when he was charged with starting the Jaguar football program, which played its first season in 2009 and is in the process of becoming a Football Championship Subdivision program. At USA, Craig was instrumental in implementing a run-based, spread offense that put up prolific numbers during a seven-game inaugural season, as the Jaguars (7-0) averaged 45.9 points and 439 yards of total offense.

The Pritchard, Ala., native began his collegiate coaching career as an offensive graduate assistant at LSU in 2004 and worked as a special teams assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2005.

Craig returned to the college ranks in 2006 and helped Tuskegee to a two-year record of 22-2. As the Golden Tigers' quarterbacks coach he helped the program win a pair of SIAC titles and defeat Virginia Union in the Pioneer Bowl X to cap a 12-0 season in 2007 by winning the Black College National Championship. Craig began his coaching career at his high school alma mater, Blount, near Mobile, Ala., as an assistant coach in 2003.

He signed as a free agent quarterback with the NFL's Carolina Panthers and appeared in six games over a four-year stretch. Craig gained his greatest professional acclaim with the Scottish Claymores in NFL Europe, passing for a single-game league record 611 yards against Frankfurt and matching another league mark with five touchdown passes in a game. He finished his professional playing career in 2002 with Indiana of the Arena Football League.

Craig and his wife, Neke, have two sons, Devin Chanse and Drake Christian.

SCOTT FOUNTAIN

SPECIAL TEAMS/TIGHT ENDS COACH

Scott Fountain, who helped the Tigers to the 2013 SEC Championship and a BCS Championship berth, returned to the field as the Tigers' special teams coordinator and tight ends coach after spending the previous four seasons as Auburn's player personnel director.

In 2013, Auburn had the second biggest turnaround in college football history at +8.0 games. The Tiger special teams had two kickoff returns for touchdowns, a punt return for a TD and one of the biggest plays, if not the biggest, in Auburn football history, a missed 57-yard field goal return for 109 yards (100 yards statistically) by Chris Davis on the last play of the game to defeat #1 Alabama 34-28 to win the SEC Western Division Championship.

Auburn led the SEC in kick return yards (936) and punt returns (32) and was second in punt return average (11.8) and punt return yards (377). In the national rankings, the Tigers ranked ninth in net punting (40.54). Chris Davis led the SEC and was ranked third nationally with 18.7 yards per punt return.

The Tigers had one of the top kicking corps in the nation with three-time Ray Guy Award semifinalist punter Steven Clark and placekicker Cody Parkey, who ranked second in the SEC in PATs made (66) and had touchbacks on 69 of his 98 kickoffs.

Fountain, a part of three ACC and two SEC championship teams, was a key figure in Auburn's administrative and recruiting efforts from 2009-12, helping the Tigers sign three consecutive Top 10 recruiting classes. He came to Auburn along with Coach Gene Chizik after spending two seasons (2007-08) on Chizik's staff at Iowa State as tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator.

Beginning his college coaching career as an offensive graduate assistant at Florida State (1994-96), he joined the UCF staff in 1997 as offensive guards and centers coach and co-recruiting coordinator. He spent seven seasons at UCF, becoming offensive tackles/tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator from 1998-2003. In 2004-05, he was offensive line coach at Middle Tennessee, before moving to Georgia Southern in 2006 as offensive line and assistant head coach.

Notable players he has coached include Chris Davis (Auburn all-SEC returner); Steven Clark, (Auburn punter and Ray Gay Award semifinalist); Ryan Flinn (UCF punter who spent four NFL seasons with the Cowboys, Falcons, Packers and Dolphins); Matt Prater (UCF kicker who holds the franchise tag for the Denver Broncos); and Leonard Johnson (all-Big 12, set an NCAA record for kick return yardage at Iowa State). He also mentored Josh Harris (Auburn long snapper), now with the NFL's Atlanta Falcons.

Fountain began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Flomaton (Ala.) High School in 1988, and moved to his high school alma mater W.S. Neal as an assistant in 1989 before being named head coach at Frisco City (Ala.) High in 1990. After three seasons with Frisco City, he became head coach at Monroe County for the 1993 campaign.

Fountain earned a bachelor's degree in physical education (K-12) from Samford in 1988 and a master's degree in educational leadership from Florida State in 1998.

A native of East Brewton, Ala., Fountain is married to the former Rosie Hidalgo, who attended Valencia (Fla.) Community College and Iowa State. They have four sons: Brookes, Hunter, Tanner and Skyler.

RODNEY GARNER

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH/DEFENSIVE LINE

Former Auburn standout player and coach Rodney Garner, who helped the Tigers to the 2013 SEC Championship and a BCS Championship berth, now serves his alma mater as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator.

In 2013, Auburn had the second biggest turnaround in college football history at +8.0 games. Garner coached senior defensive end Dee Ford, first team All-SEC and a first round draft pick of the Kansas City Chiefs, No. 23 overall.

An All-SEC player himself at Auburn in 1988 who previously coached on The Plains from 1990-95, Garner coaches the defensive line daily in practice. Garner spent 15 years at Georgia in a similar capacity.

A native of Leeds, Ala., Garner was named All-SEC and honorable mention All-America as a senior at Auburn in 1988, captaining the team that captured the SEC title. Garner served on the Auburn coaching staff from 1990-95 as recruiting coordinator, tight ends coach, and assistant strength and conditioning coach.

During his 15 seasons at Georgia, he was part of a staff that led UGA to 117 victories, two SEC Championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles, seven bowl victories and six Top 10 finishes in the final polls, including No. 2 in 2007 and No. 3 in 2002. He added the title of assistant head coach at Georgia in 2005 after serving as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator there January, 1998.

He was part of the 2005 Georgia team that finished eighth nationally in scoring defense (16.4 ppg). The 2003 Georgia defense finished second nationally in scoring defense (14.5 ppg), fourth in total defense (276.86 ypg), sixth in passing defense (174.50 ypg, 1st in the SEC); the 2002 Bulldog defense finished first in the SEC and fourth nationally in scoring defense (15.1 ppg), first in the SEC in red zone defense (58.8%) and second in the SEC in rushing defense (114.0 ypg). The 2002 Bulldogs finished 13-1, won the SEC and Nokia Sugar Bowl Championships and ranked third in the final national polls.

Garner participated in the inaugural Minority Coaches Forum in Scottsdale, Ariz., in 2006. He was also selected as one of 10 coaches to participate in the 2004 NCAA Expert Coaching Academy in Indianapolis and one of only 20 chosen for the NCAA's 2004 Advanced Coaching Academy in Orlando.

At Georgia, he coached five NFL first round draft choices -- Richard Seymour (Patriots) and Marcus Stroud (Jaguars), both Pro Bowl starters; David Pollack (Bengals); Charles Grant (Saints); and Johnathan Sullivan (Saints). He also coached draft picks DeAngelo Tyson (7th, Ravens, '12), Geno Atkins (4th, Bengals, '10), Corvey Irvin (3rd, Panthers, '09), Jarius Wynn (6th, Packers, '09), Kedric Golston (6th, Redskins, '06), Robert Geathers (4th, Bengals, '04), Emarlos Leroy (6th, Jaguars, '99), and free agents Ken Veal (Chargers, '04), Paul Snellings (Colts, 2000), Brandon Miller (Colts, 2000), Charles Johnson (Panthers, '07), Tyrone Robertson (Bills, 2000) and Demetric Evans (Cowboys, '01).

After his playing career at Auburn, Garner had a free agent tryout with the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers and played with the Pittsburgh Gladiators arena football team in 1989. He began his coaching career at Auburn in 1990. Garner coached tight ends and offensive tackles at Tennessee in 1997 after coaching tight ends for the Volunteers in 1996.

Garner, whose cousin is Charles Barkley, was an outstanding player at Leeds High School. He is married to Kimberly Lawson Garner, a 1988 Auburn graduate in public relations. They have six children: Bridgett, Brielle, Jaiden, Kai, Sydney and Milan.

J.B. GRIMES

OFFENSIVE LINE COACH

With more than 30 years coaching at the collegiate level, J.B. Grimes, who helped the Tigers to the 2013 SEC Championship and a BCS Championship berth, enters his second season as the offensive line coach at Auburn.

In 2013, Auburn had the second biggest turnaround in college football history in NCAA records at +8.0 games. Grimes coached All-America left tackle Greg Robinson, the No. 2 overall pick in the 2014 NFL Draft, and Rimington Award finalist center Reese Dismukes.

The offensive line paved the way for the Tigers to lead the nation in rushing with 328.3 yards per game. The line allowed only 1.29 sacks per game to rank 22nd nationally. Running back Tre Mason was a Heisman Trophy finalist and named the SEC Player of the Year.

Grimes, who has coached in 16 bowl games and developed numerous NFL players, spent the 2012 season as the offensive line coach at Arkansas State with Auburn head coach Gus Malzahn.

At Arkansas State, Grimes coached an offensive line unit that helped set a school record with 481.8 yards of total offense per game while ranking 16th nationally in fewest sacks allowed. Senior offensive lineman Zach McKnight earned first-team All-Sun Belt honors; the offense led the Sun Belt in rushing and ranked in the top 25 nationally in total offense, scoring offense and rushing offense.

Prior to ASU, Grimes spent two seasons at Kansas (2010-11) and Mississippi State (2004-08) as the offensive line coach. Grimes' career also includes stints at East Carolina (2003), Texas A&M (1998-2002), Virginia Tech (1993-97), Arkansas (1989-92), Louisiana-Monroe (1979-80; 1985-88), Missouri (1984) and Delta State (1983) as an assistant. Louisiana-Monroe won the 1987 Division I-AA national championship.

In his first season at Mississippi State, the Bulldogs rushed for 1,744 yards, the most at the school in four years. Behind his offensive line, MSU produced three seasons with a 1,000-yard rusher. In his one season at East Carolina (2003), the Pirates' offensive line paved the way for its third straight 1,000-yard individual rusher. At Texas A&M (1998-2002), Grimes coached the offensive line under R.C. Slocum as the Aggies posted a 40-22 overall record while playing in four straight bowl games. While at Virginia Tech (1993-97) coaching for Frank Beamer, Grimes helped the Hokies to back-to-back Big East titles and five bowl games.

Grimes also coached at Arkansas, serving as a graduate assistant in 1981-82 and as a full-time assistant coach in 1989-92, helping the Razorbacks to the Southwest Conference championship and a Cotton Bowl appearance in 1990. At Arkansas, Grimes worked for Lou Holtz, Ken Hatfield and Jack Crowe.

Grimes spent his first two seasons at the high school level in the state of Arkansas, at Nashville (1977) and Des Arc (1978).

As an offensive lineman at Henderson State, he helped his team to a 40-6 record in four seasons, including a berth in the 1974 NAIA Championship game. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from Henderson State in 1977 and a master's degree in education from Louisiana-Monroe in 1981.

Grimes grew up in Clarendon, Ark., and is married to the former Jennifer Graves, who received a degree in advertising and public relations from Arkansas. The couple has four children, sons Aaron and Nick and daughters Danielle and Lindsey.

CHARLIE HARBISON

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/SAFETIES

An experienced coach and recruiter with 20 years coaching in the Southeastern and Atlantic Coast Conferences, Charlie Harbison, who helped the Tigers to the 2013 SEC Championship and BCS Championship berth, enters his second season as co-defensive coordinator at Auburn, working daily with the Auburn safeties.

In 2013, Auburn had the second biggest turnaround in college football history at +8.0 games. Four different safeties recorded interceptions during the season, and Robenson Therezie had four, twice the output of the entire Auburn team a year before.

Harbison and Auburn defensive coordinator Ellis Johnson worked together previously at Clemson (1995-96), Alabama (1998-2000) and Mississippi State (2007).

Prior to Auburn, Harbison spent the 2009-12 seasons in a similar capacity at Clemson. Named a top 25 recruiter by Rivals in 2010, Harbison helped Clemson to back-to-back 10-win seasons, including the 2011 ACC Championship, the program's first in 20 years, and an Orange Bowl slot. Harbison coached cornerback Coty Sensabaugh, who had 14 passes defended in 2011 and was drafted by the Tennessee Titans, and All-America safety DeAndre McDaniel, who led the ACC in interceptions (8) in 2009. That season, Clemson had 21 interceptions, and ranked seventh in the nation in pass defense while winning the ACC Atlantic Division title.

Prior to Clemson, Harbison spent two seasons at Mississippi State (2007-08). The Bulldogs were seventh in the nation in pass defense and 20th in pass efficiency defense in 2007. He was elevated to defensive coordinator for 2008.

Harbison had a pair of coaching stints at Alabama from 1998-2000 and 2003-06. He coached the Crimson Tide wide receivers during his second stint, helping Alabama to a 26-24 overall record, including three bowl berths. During that four-year stretch, receivers D. J. Hall, Antonio Carter and Triandos Luke ranked among the school's all-time top 10 pass-catchers. Following the 2005 season, Harbison was recognized as one of the nation's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com.

Harbison coached the Alabama defensive backs from 1998-2000, helping gain the 1999 SEC title and appearances in the 1998 Music City and 2000 Orange Bowls. Two of his pupils, Fernando Bryant (1999) and Tony Dixon (2001) were taken in the first two rounds of the NFL Draft.

Between the Alabama assignments, Harbison coached the defensive backfield at LSU in 2001-02, as the Tigers won the 2001 SEC title, finished 18-8 overall and played in the 2002 Sugar and 2003 Cotton Bowls. Corey Webster, who played under Harbison his first two years, finished second on the school's all-time pass interception list.

Harbison served as defensive backs coach at Clemson from 1995-97. The Tigers posted a 22-14 mark during those three years, ending those seasons in the Gator and back-to-back Peach Bowls. One of his pupils was nine-time Pro Bowl selection Brian Dawkins, an All-American who led the ACC in interceptions in 1995.

Harbison coached the secondary at UTEP in 1994 and served twice at his alma mater, Gardner-Webb, coaching wide receivers (1992-93) and defensive backs (1984-85). He also coached in both the Arena Football League and the World League of American Football, and served as defensive coordinator for the Charlotte Rage (1993).

A native of Shelby, N.C., Harbison graduated from Gardner-Webb College with a bachelor's degree in business administration in 1995. A two-sport star in football and track on the college level, he was a free-agent signee of the Buffalo Bills following his senior season.

He is married to the former Tammy McCluney, a retail merchandise and design graduate of Kinds College. The couple has four children, Charlie, Stedman, Masai and Msiba.

TIM HORTON

RUNNING BACKS COACH

SEC veteran Tim Horton, who helped the Tigers to a 2013 SEC Championship and BCS Championship berth, enters his second season as running backs coach. The 2013 Tigers led the nation with 328.3 yards rushing per game. He also tutors the kickoff and punt returners.

Junior Tre Mason, a Heisman Trophy finalist and the SEC Offensive Player of the Year, ranked third in the nation with 23 touchdowns, sixth nationally with 1,816 yards rushing, sixth with 10.7 points per game, sixth with 169.57 all-purpose yards per game and eighth with 129.7 rushing yards per game.

Mason set Auburn single-season records with 2,374 all-purpose yards, and 1,816 rushing yards and was second with 317 rushing attempts. His 46 rushing attempts and 304 rushing yards vs. No. 5 Missouri set SEC Championship Game records and was three yards shy of the Auburn record. Mason is the fifth 1,000-yard rusher Horton has coached since 2007 and the second Heisman finalist.

Two Auburn running backs were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft -- Mason in the third round by the St. Louis Rams and fullback Jay Prosch in the sixth round by the Houston Texans.

Prior to joining Malzahn's staff at Auburn, Horton spent six seasons in a similar capacity at Arkansas, where he was also recruiting coordinator. Horton was recognized by Rivals.com and ESPN.com as one of the nation's top recruiters during his time at Arkansas. He was one of just two coaches in the nation, and the only one in the SEC, to coach four different 1,000-yard rushers from 2007-10. Under his watch, 2007 Doak Walker Award winner Darren McFadden and Felix Jones earned All-America honors, while Dennis Johnson and Knile Davis earned All-SEC honors.

Horton, who played football at Arkansas from 1986-89, returned to his alma mater in 2007. He came to Arkansas after taking the offensive coordinator and wide receivers coaching position at Air Force in January, 2007. During the 2006 season, he was the running backs coach at Kansas State, helping the Wildcats earn a Texas Bowl appearance while tutoring future NFL running backs Thomas Clayton and James Johnson.

At Air Force from 1999-2005, serving as the wide receivers (1999-2004) and running backs coach (2005), Horton was recognized by the Fellowship of Christian Athletes Colorado chapter as one of its 2004 coaches of the year.

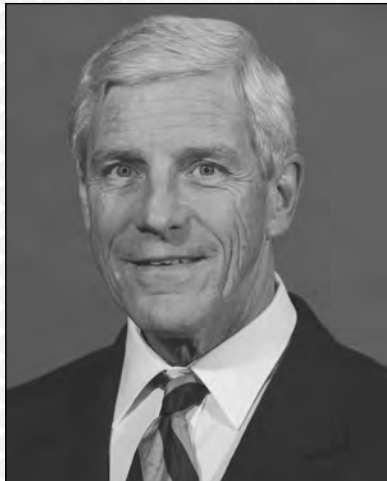

He began his coaching career at Appalachian State in 1990 and helped ASU to a 67-32 record during his eight years, including Southern Conference championships in 1991 and 1995 and five NCAA Division I-AA playoff appearances.

Horton earned his bachelor's degree in marketing management from Arkansas in 1990, where he was a four-year letterman and three-year starter as a split end and punt returner under head coach Ken Hatfield. He caught 49 passes for 942 yards and one touchdown in his career, hauling in 23 catches for 453 yards as a senior in 1989. Horton also returned 78 punts for 657 yards in his collegiate career, fifth all-time in school history. The Razorbacks compiled a 38-11 record, won back-to-back Southwest Conference titles (1988-89) and appeared in four straight bowl games, still tied for the school record for the most wins in a four-year period.

A two-time academic all-conference selection, Horton was a second-team All-SWC selection in 1989 and served as team captain. Horton was a two-time all-state running back and a track standout at Conway (Ark.) High School.

Horton and his wife Lauren, who earned a bachelor's degree in early childhood education from Arkansas, have a daughter, Caroline, and a son, Jackson.

ELLIS JOHNSON

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR/LINEBACKERS

Auburn defensive coordinator Ellis Johnson, one of the most respected defensive minds in college football who helped the Tigers to the 2013 SEC Championship and BCS Championship berth, is in his second season on the Auburn coaching staff. Johnson is a 30-plus year coaching veteran who has nearly two decades of experience coaching in the ultra-competitive Southeastern Conference.

In 2013, Auburn had the second biggest turnaround in college football history at +8.0 games. Johnson's unit ranked among the NCAA top 10 in red zone defense (.731) and led the SEC in third-down defense (.330). The Auburn defense forced 19 takeaways, a 30% increase from the season before.

Johnson's impressive coaching career has included head coaching stops at Southern Miss (2012), The Citadel (2001-03) and Gardner-Webb (1983). Prior to his tenure at Southern Miss, Johnson was at South Carolina for four years (2008-11), where he served as the Gamecocks' defensive coordinator while also holding the title of assistant head coach.

While defensive coordinator at South Carolina, Johnson also served as linebackers coach. In his final season with the Gamecocks, his defense ranked third nationally, allowing just 268 yards per game. Under Johnson, South Carolina finished in the Top 15 nationally in total defense three times.

In addition to the 2011 mark of No. 4 overall, the USC defense ranked No. 13 in scoring defense (18.8 points per game) and second in pass defense (133 yards per game).

Along with his four years at South Carolina, the much-sought-after Johnson has logged stints as the defensive coordinator at Appalachian State (1984), Southern Miss (1988-89), Clemson (1995-96), Alabama (1997-2000) and Mississippi State (2004-07).

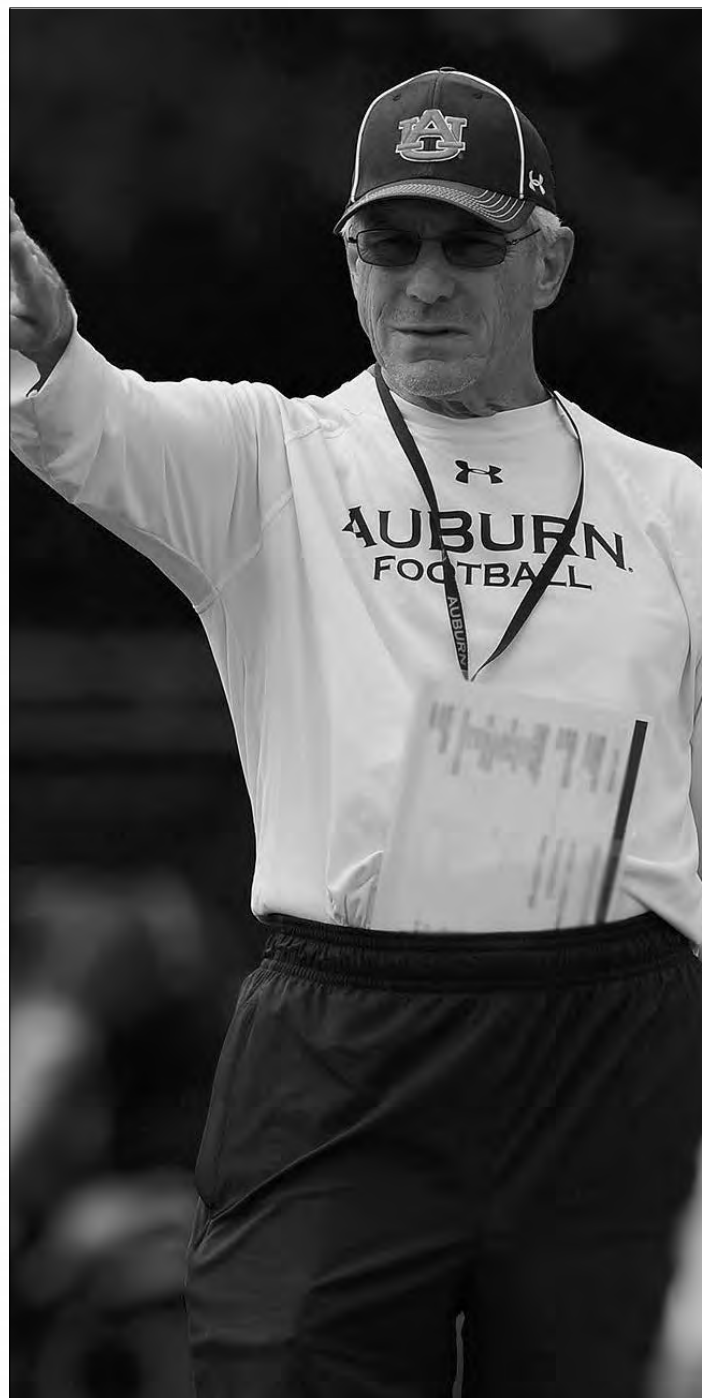

He has coached in two national championship games and five SEC Championship games, been part of a national title and three SEC Championships and has placed numerous players on NFL rosters.

A native of Winnsboro, S.C., Johnson logged two stints on the coaching staff at Alabama. He was the defensive coordinator and outside linebackers coach from 1997-2000, helping the Crimson Tide go 10-3 in 1999 with an SEC title and a spot in the Orange Bowl. His 1999 defense was No. 2 in the nation against the rush and No. 9 in total defense.

He served as Alabama's outside linebackers coach from 1990-93, helping Gene Stallings' teams go a combined 41-9, including an undefeated national championship year in 1992. Alabama's defense ranked No. 1 that season against the run and in total defense. The Tide ran off a 31-game winning streak and a 34-game unbeaten streak from 1991-93. The 1991 squad went 11-1. All four of those teams played in bowl games.

A 1975 graduate of The Citadel with a bachelor's degree in education, Johnson played defensive end for the Bulldogs. He began his career as the defensive ends coach at his alma mater under Bobby Ross in 1975 before working as an assistant coach at Gaffney (S.C.) High School from 1976-78 and as both an assistant and head coach at Spartanburg (S.C.) High School from 1979-81.

He is married to the former Caroline Courie, a Columbia, S.C., native and Clemson graduate. They have two sons, Eli and Charlie, and a daughter, Sandra Elliott.

RHETT LASHLEE

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/QUARTERBACKS

Second-year Auburn offensive coordinator Rhett Lashlee, who helped the Tigers to the 2013 SEC Championship and BCS Championship berth, manages one of the most prolific offenses in Auburn history. Lashlee coaches the quarterbacks daily in practice and has worked closely with Coach Gus Malzahn in seven of the last 10 seasons. For the last two seasons, Lashlee has been a finalist for the Broyles Award, presented to the nation's top assistant coach.

In 2013, Auburn had the second biggest turnaround in college football history at +8.0 games. Starting quarterback Nick Marshall did not practice until August, but Lashlee tutored the junior college transfer to 3,044 yards of total offense (1976 passing, 1068 rushing), 14 TD passes and 12 rushing TDs.

Auburn led the nation in rushing (328.3 yds/game), and ranked 11th in total offense (501.3 yds/game) and 12th in scoring offense (39.5 pts/game). The Tigers set a school record with 48 rushing touchdowns, and set five records vs. No. 5 Missouri in the SEC Championship Game.

Running back Tre Mason was a Heisman Trophy finalist and the SEC Offensive Player of the Year; he set Auburn single-season records with 2,374 all-purpose yards, and 1,816 rushing yards. Three offensive players were selected in the 2014 NFL Draft: tackle Greg Robinson No. 2 overall by the St. Louis Rams, Mason (third round, Rams) and fullback Jay Prosch (sixth round, Houston Texans).

During his 2012 season as offensive coordinator at Arkansas State, Lashlee helped ASU to a Sun Belt title. Record-setting quarterback Ryan Aplin was named the Sun Belt Player of the Year, leading the league in passing yards, passing efficiency and total offenses.

Lashlee served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Samford in 2011, installing a high-tempo offense that improved the Bulldogs' national ranking in total offense from No. 57 in the nation to No. 36 in just one year. Receiver Kelsey Pope broke the school record for receptions in a game, while quarterback Dustin Taliaferro broke Samford's career record for completions.

While at Auburn as an offensive graduate assistant during the 2009-10 seasons, Lashlee assisted Malzahn with all aspects of the offense and coached the slot receivers in 2010. In 2009, the Tigers finished 8-5 winning the Outback Bowl. During the 2010 season he helped the Tigers finish 14-0, winning the SEC title and the BCS National Championship behind Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Cam Newton.

Lashlee's college coaching career began in 2006 at Arkansas, where he served as offensive graduate assistant with Malzahn; the Razorbacks to a 10-4 record and an SEC Western Division title. Lashlee worked with Malzahn at Springdale High School in Arkansas in 2004-05, working with the quarterbacks and 2005 National Player of the Year Mitch Mustain.

A backup quarterback at Arkansas from 2002-04, when his career was cut short by a shoulder injury, Lashlee graduated from Shiloh Christian High School in Springdale, Ark. He played quarterback for Malzahn (1999-2000) and Chris Wood (2001) at Shiloh Christian, posting a state-record 40 career wins (40-3-2 as a starter) while leading his team to three straight state championship game appearances and two state titles. The 2001 Arkansas Player of the Year, Lashlee owns virtually every state passing record; when his career had finished, he had broken the national record for career touchdown passes (171), career touchdowns (200), most passing yards in a game (672) and was second with 13,201 passing yards.

Lashlee graduated from Arkansas in 2006 with a degree in marketing and business administration. He received his master's degree in higher education from Auburn in 2009. He is married to the former Lauren Lee of Rogers, Ark., an Arkansas graduate with a degree in business administration. They have twin boys, Thomas Price and Hudson Rhett.

MELVIN SMITH

CORNERBACKS COACH

Melvin Smith, who has two decades of experience coaching in the Southeastern Conference and helped the Tigers to the 2013 SEC Championship and BCS Championship berth, enters his second season as the cornerbacks coach at Auburn.

In 2013, Auburn had the second biggest turnaround in college football history at +8.0 games. In Smith's first season, the AU secondary made drastic improvements in production, recording 13 interceptions after the Tigers had only two picks the season prior. Smith coached senior cornerback Chris Davis, an All-SEC selection, who made one of the top plays in college football history, the remarkable 109-yard missed field goal return for a touchdown with time expired in the 34-28 win over No. 1 Alabama.

Prior to Auburn, Smith spent seven seasons coaching cornerbacks and the secondary at Mississippi State (2006-12). Smith, who coached cornerbacks for MSU since 2007 after coaching the entire secondary in 2006, mentored Jonathan Banks, who won the 2012 Jim Thorpe Award as the nation's top defensive back.

In 2012, Smith tutored a Bulldog defense that had 30 takeaways, best in the SEC and 12th nationally. Darius Slay, a second-team All-SEC pick, tied for the league lead in interceptions with five, while Banks added four. In 2009, Smith guided a young group that led the SEC with 17 interceptions, led by then-freshman Corey Broomfield's six picks.

Smith returned to Mississippi State in 2006 after spending time at both Alabama and Texas A&M. In just his second season back at MSU, Smith helped the Bulldogs' pass defense rank fourth in the SEC, allowing just 182.2 yards per game, sixth in pass efficiency defense (114.8)

A native of Taylorsville, Miss., who grew up in Magee, Miss., Smith was an assistant football coach at Mississippi State for seven years (1995-2001), helping guide the Bulldogs through the greatest period in the school's football history. In 2000, three of his four defensive backfield starters signed professional football contracts. That secondary intercepted 19 passes, the second-most in school history.

The 32-year coaching veteran came back to Mississippi State in 2006 following three seasons at Texas A&M, where he coached the safeties. During his tenure in College Station, Smith helped the Aggies to a 7-4 regular season record in 2004 and a berth in the 2005 Cotton Bowl. Smith coached the safeties at Alabama in 2002, where the Crimson Tide posted a 10-3 record.

Smith has also coached on the collegiate level at Ole Miss (1992-94) and Delta State (1990-91). He began his coaching career on the high school level at Greenwood (Miss.) from 1982-89. By the time he became an assistant at Delta State in 1990, he'd joined the Army Reserves for a stint that would eventually last eight years.

Smith holds a master's degree in administration from Delta State (1992) and a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Millsaps College. Smith is married to the former Sheilah McLemore and the couple has four children: sons Robert and Melvin, and daughters Deondra and Ashlee.

JAMIE CROLEY

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS

Jamie Croley serves as Auburn’s director of football operations, managing the overall logistics of the Tiger football program. He held the same position in 2012 at Arkansas State working for head coach Gus Malzahn.

Croley has had a long career in athletics administration and sports medicine. Nationally certified in athletic training in 1998, his career in athletic training has included positions with HealthSouth, the Cooper Clinic, HealthSouth of Northwest Arkansas and Trinity Rehabilitation; he also covered local high school athletic squads during those years. In 2009, he joined the staff of the Physicians Specialty Hospital, where he served as liaison to a number of local schools and institutions, including the University of Arkansas athletic teams. During the summer of 2011, he worked with the prestigious Andrews Institute.

Croley received his bachelor’s degree in exercise science with an emphasis in sports medicine from Oklahoma Baptist in 1995, where he also served as a student athletic trainer. Croley and his wife, the former Tiffani Otwell, an elementary school teacher, are both natives of Fort Smith, Ark. They are the proud parents of four daughters: Camryn, Ashtyn, Londyn and Jordyn.

DAVID GUNN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR FOR FOOTBALL

David Gunn serves as an assistant athletics director for Auburn football, serving as the chief liaison to head coach Gus Malzahn and as administrator for the overall football program. Gunn joined the Auburn family before the 2013 campaign.

Gunn came to Auburn with Malzahn after 11 seasons on the coaching staff at Arkansas State. He coached defensive backs in 2012, after spending his first 10 seasons as the ASU running backs coach. Gunn also held the role of Director of Player Development in 2011, the same season he served as the Red Wolves’ interim head coach for the GoDaddy.com Bowl.

At Arkansas State, Gunn coached three All-Sun Belt Conference selections, two of the Red Wolves’ top three all-time leading rushers, a Sun Belt Offensive Player of the Year and the league’s Freshman of the Year.

Since arriving at ASU in January 2002, Gunn developed some powerful performers. Reggie Arnold, A-State’s featured back from 2006-09, was a Doak Walker Award candidate entering the 2007, 2008 and 2009 seasons and finished his career as ASU’s second all-time leader in total rushing yards and tied for second in rushing touchdowns. Arnold piled up numerous awards, including All-Sun Belt Conference honors three times. Gunn’s first season featured Danny Smith, who broke ASU’s all-time rushing record which had stood for 50 years. Gunn proudly watched Smith receive Sun Belt Conference Offensive Player of the Year Honors. Antonio Warren and Shermar Bracey churned out extraordinary rushing totals and signed NFL contracts; Warren finished his career as ASU’s third all-time leading rusher with 3,040 yards.

Prior to joining the ASU staff, Gunn served as head coach for Little Rock McClellan (Ark.) High School for five seasons (1996-2001), taking the Crimson Tide to the playoffs twice. Before McClellan, he served as the boys’ head track coach at Watson Chapel High School in Pine Bluff, Ark. (1991-95); he also served as the running backs and defensive backs coach at Watson Chapel and helped then go to the AAA playoffs three straight years, winning the 1996 state championship. That was the second stop at Watson Chapel for Gunn, who began his career as the linebackers and wide receivers coach there from 1987-89.

Gunn, a native of England, Ark., who excelled in football, basketball and track at England High School, also coached at Lake Highlands (Texas) High School, where he coached running backs and helped his team to a 1990 conference title.

After graduating from England High School in 1982, he attended the University of Arkansas, where he played defensive back and running back; as a Razorback, he played in the 1984 Liberty Bowl and the 1987 Orange Bowl. He graduated in 1987 with a bachelor’s degree in physical education and biological science.

Gunn is married to the former Aleachia Stephenson of England, and they have two grown daughters - Tiffany and Bethany, who is a senior at Auburn.

KENNY INGRAM

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Kenny Ingram serves as the director of player development for Auburn football. He joined the Auburn family in 2013. Ingram came to Auburn with head coach Gus Malzahn from Arkansas State, where he served as defensive line coach during the Red Wolves’ 2012 Sun Belt Championship season.

Prior to Arkansas State, Ingram was an assistant coach at Memphis from 2006-09, coaching the linebackers; he was promoted to defensive coordinator at Memphis in 2009. Ingram was a part of two bowl teams in his four years at Memphis, including the 2007 New Orleans Bowl and 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl.

Ingram joined the Memphis staff after spending the 2005 season as defensive line coach at Tennessee State University, where he was responsible for recruiting his hometown area of Memphis and west Tennessee.

He was the head coach at Melrose (Tenn.) High School from 2002-04 and posted a 37-4 overall record after serving as assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 2001-02. He led the school to one appearance in the state finals and a pair of appearances in the state semifinals, returning the program to prominence.

A three-time Regional Coach of the Year and the Commercial Appeal’s 2004 Coach of the Year for Metro Memphis, he was selected to serve as the Liberty Bowl All-Star Game defensive coordinator in 2003 and was a member of the Tennessee East-West Shrine All-Star Game coaching staff that same season. Ingram taught and coached at Corry Middle School and worked in the Youth Habilitation Center prior to moving to Melrose.

A standout at Whitehaven High School in his hometown of Memphis, Ingram graduated from Arkansas State, where he was a four-year letterman (1989-92) and the team co-captain in 1992; he received his bachelor’s degree in political science in 1999.

Ingram and his wife, Carla, who holds a bachelor’s degree in accounting from Christian Brothers and an MBA in finance from Memphis, have five children: Kendrien, Taylor, Kameron, and twins Kennedy and Karleigh.

DOUG GOODWIN

DIRECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOL RELATIONS

Auburn alum Doug Goodwin, who spent 29 years coaching high school football in Alabama, is in his first year as the Director of High School Relations for Auburn Football.

His prep teams made 22 playoff appearances, including 20 consecutive, and advanced five times to the state title game. Fifteen of those teams were area or region champions and seven were state semifinalists. His 114-28 region record is among the best in state high school history.

Goodwin spent three years at Homewood High, winning the region championship in 2012 and 2013. He became the first coach in AHSAA history to take three different schools to the state finals in 2008 with Russellville, which finished as the state runner-up in 2008 and 2009 as the Golden Tigers went 46-9 over four seasons (2007-10).

He had an eight-year stint at Demopolis (1999-2006) as the head football coach and athletic director; his teams won 82 games, reached the playoffs each season and won the state title in 2004 with a 15-0 mark, setting a state record for points in a single season with 761.

Goodwin was the head coach and athletic director at Lineville from 1993-98 where his teams won 59 games and played in the state championship game in 1996 and 1998. Each of his six teams qualified for the playoffs and won the region championship. He began his coaching career as an assistant coach at Lanett (1985-86) before becoming the head football coach and athletic director at Marion County (1987-92).

The Sylacauga, Ala., native walked on to the football team at Auburn as a defensive back. Goodwin graduated from Auburn in 1984. He and his wife, Donna, have two children, Dustin and Devin.

BRENT THOMAS

FOOTBALL VIDEO COORDINATOR

Brent Thomas is the video coordinator for Auburn football, a post he has held since March, 2007. In that role, Thomas is responsible for the exchange of scouting and breakdown of opponent game film, as well as coordinating the staff that films daily practices and games for the Tigers.

Thomas, who was a long snapper with the Tennessee Volunteers from 1996-2000, served as the assistant video coordinator for the Tennessee Titans of the NFL from 2003-07. Prior to working with the Titans, he worked as a video graduate assistant with the University of Tennessee football team from 2002-03.

A native of Louisville, Ky., Thomas earned his bachelor's degree in sports management with a minor in business from the University of Tennessee in 2001.

BRETT WHITESIDE

DIRECTOR OF RECRUITING OPERATIONS

Brett Whiteside serves as the director of recruiting operations for Auburn football, his second stint with the Tiger program. He worked with head coach Gus Malzahn as football operations assistant at Arkansas State in 2012, coordinating the Red Wolves' team travel, assisting with on-campus recruiting and helping oversee the day-to-day operations of the ASU football program.

As a student recruiting assistant at Auburn from 2009-12, Whiteside helped with the recruiting effort of two of the top six recruiting classes in the nation, including the 2011 class, ranked No. 2 nationally and first in the Southeastern Conference. He was also instrumental in signing ASU's first recruiting class under head coach Gus Malzahn, which was ranked first in the Sun Belt Conference in 2012.

Originally from Gadsden, Ala., Whiteside graduated from Arkansas State in 2012 with a degree in interdisciplinary studies.

CHETTE WILLIAMS

TEAM CHAPLAIN

Rev. Chette Williams, a former Auburn linebacker, serves as the Auburn team chaplain. Williams is also the Auburn campus director for the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and the State Director for Urban Ministries for FCA. During his playing career (1982-84), Auburn won the Sugar Bowl, the Citrus Bowl and the Liberty Bowl.

The former President of IMPACT Ministries in Spartanburg, S.C. (1995-99), Williams served as Pastor of New Covenant Baptist Church in New Orleans, La. (1993-95) and co-Pastor of New Song Baptist Church in Mobile, Ala. (1991-93). He was licensed as a minister in 1987 and ordained in 1988. He received a bachelor's degree from Auburn in Adult Education in 1985, and a master's of divinity from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary in 1993.

Williams and his wife, the former Lakeba Hibbler, have two daughters, Lauren and Caitlyn, and one son, Chette Jr.

CASEY WOODS

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

Casey Woods serves as the director of player personnel for Auburn football, his second tour of duty with the Auburn family. Woods came back to Auburn after serving as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator in 2012 at Arkansas State with head coach Gus Malzahn.

From 2009-11, Woods was Auburn's offensive quality control assistant, working closely with Malzahn during that time. He was a part of three bowl teams at Auburn: the 2010 squad that won the BCS National Championship, the 2009 Outback Bowl and the 2011 Chick-fil-A Bowl.

Prior to Auburn, Woods was a three-year letterman at Tennessee from 2003-07, playing in 40 career games while also working two seasons as a player volunteer coach. He played in three bowl games and was a member of three 10-win teams. He was team captain of the 2007 Tennessee team that won the SEC East and Outback Bowl. He served as a graduate assistant coach at Tennessee during the 2008 season, working with wide receivers.

A native of Starkville, Miss., Woods earned bachelor's degrees in both psychology and political science from Tennessee in 2006. He received his master's degree in sport psychology from Tennessee in 2007. He is currently pursuing further graduate work in sport psychology. He is married to the former Lauren Thompson.

JOHNNY BREWER

OFFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Johnny Brewer is a graduate assistant coach for Auburn football, working with the offensive line. He joined the Auburn family in 2013.

During the 2012 season, Brewer served as the offensive coordinator and quarterback coach at Harrison (Ark.) High School, after two seasons at Rogers (Ark.) High, his alma mater, as wide receiver and head freshman coach.

His first coaching assignment was as a volunteer assistant at Rogers, working with the quarterbacks and receivers. Brewer played football and baseball at Rogers, earning all-conference honors in both sports as a junior and senior; he was a teammate there of Auburn All-American Lee Ziemba. After his senior season, Brewer was selected to play in the Arkansas Football All-Star Game, where Gus Malzahn was his head coach.

A 2010 graduate of Arkansas with a degree in kinesiology, Brewer is pursuing a master's degree at Auburn. Brewer, whose hometown is Rogers, Ark., is married to the former Danielle Stevens, who was an NAIA Scholar All-Star in volleyball at the College of the Ozarks, where she received her degree in business.

RYAN APLIN

OFFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Ryan Aplin enters his first season as a graduate assistant coach for Auburn football, working with the quarterbacks and receivers where the former record-setting quarterback is reunited with Coach Gus Malzahn as the duo led Arkansas State to the 2012 Sun Belt Conference title.

Aplin, who spent the 2013 season as an administrative intern at Ole Miss, led Arkansas State to back-to-back conference championships in 2011 and 2012 and was a two-time Sun Belt Conference Player of the Year and three-time first team all-conference selection.

He completed his four-year career with more than 25 combined single-game, season and career school records and became the Sun Belt Conference's all-time leader in completions, passing yards and total offense

Aplin also became the first person in the history of the Sun Belt Conference to receive the Male Student-Athlete of the Year twice, in 2012 and 2013.

He is married to the former Victoria Price of Fleming Island, Fla.

CAM CLARK

DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Cam Clark is a graduate assistant coach for Auburn football, working with the defensive secondary. He joined the Auburn family in 2013. He came to Auburn with head coach Gus Malzahn from Arkansas State, where he was a graduate assistant working with the defense and special teams during the Red Wolves' 2012 Sun Belt Championship season. He was a quality control assistant for Arkansas State during the 2011 Sun Belt Championship campaign.

Clark spent the 2008-10 seasons as a coach at Faulkner University, where he held positions as a defensive backs coach, wide receivers coach, special teams coach, recruiting coordinator and junior varsity head coach.

Prior to his coaching experience, he was a four-year letterman at Harding University, where he played safety and corner, earning the 2007 Iron Bison of the Year award. He was also a four-year letterman in track and field.

A native of Calhoun, Ga., Clark was the Georgia high school state triple jump champion at Calhoun High School, and also an all-state prep quarterback.

Clark earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology and social sciences from Harding in 2007. He is working toward a master's degree at Auburn. His wife Dana, from Plano, Texas, is also a Harding graduate, with a bachelor's degree in early childhood education and a master's in reading.

BRANDON WHEELING

DEFENSIVE GRADUATE ASSISTANT

Brandon Wheeling is a graduate assistant coach with Auburn football, working with the defensive line. He joined the Auburn family in 2013.

He began his coaching career in 2010 as the defensive line and strength and conditioning coach at Barnwell (S.C.) High School. In 2011, he returned to UGA, and served as a quality control assistant for defensive line coach Rodney Garner during the 2011 and 2012 seasons.

Wheeling, who hails from Dallas, Ga., was a three-sport letterwinner at Paulding County High School before matriculating to the University of Georgia, where he lettered at defensive tackle. He received his bachelor's degree in education and physical education from Georgia in 2010.

He is engaged to Bethany Ellyson, a Georgia graduate with a degree in dietetics and nutrition. They are planning a Summer 2014 wedding.

Additionally, he is a member of the Alpha Omega Alpha (AOA) Honor Medical Society and was an NCAA Scholar at the 2012 NFL Combine/Physician Society Annual Scientific Meeting.

Dr. Goodlett graduated summa cum laude from North Alabama with a bachelor's degree in chemistry, and graduated from the South Alabama College of Medicine in Mobile with a Doctor of Medicine before completing a family practice residency at UAB/Baptist Memorial Hospital. Married to the former Donna Webster of Tanner, Ala., he has two children, Haley and Hunter.

DAVID WALSH

MANAGER OF PLAINSMAN PARK
PHYSICAL THERAPY

David Walsh oversees the rehabilitation efforts of Auburn student-athletes at Plainsman Park Physical Therapy, a position he has held since 2005. Prior to that, he was director of the HealthSouth Physical Therapy Clinic at Auburn from 1998-2005.

Walsh, whose hometown is Bluff City, Tenn., served on the medical staff (track and field) for the 1996 Atlanta Olympic Games. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, a current member of the American Physical Therapy Association and the Alabama Athletic Trainers Association, and a founding member of the Mountain Empire Sports Medicine Society. He was a Board-appointed committee member to advocate working relationships between physical therapists and athletic trainers in 1992 in Nashville, Tenn. Walsh previously served as Director and Chief Physical Therapist at Northside Hospital in Johnson City, Tenn., and an assistant athletic trainer for football, basketball and baseball at The Citadel.

Walsh earned a bachelor's degree in physical education/sports medicine from East Tennessee State in 1984, a master's in education from Auburn in 1985 (serving as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for football and track) and a bachelor's in physical therapy from Medical University (Charleston, S.C.) in 1988. He and his wife, the former Kelly Ladye of Columbus, Ga., have one daughter, Emily Michelle.

JOE-JOE PETRONE

DIRECTOR OF SPORTS MEDICINE

Joe-Joe Petrone oversees Auburn's department of 12 certified full-time staff and 11 certified graduate assistants as the Tigers' Director of Sports Medicine.

Petrone spent six and a half years as the head athletic trainer at Middle Tennessee State University, overseeing medical care given to the athletes of 18 different varsity sports, before joining the Auburn family in 2008. Prior to MTSU, he spent six years as the athletic trainer and therapist at the HealthSouth Sports Medicine Center in Tampa, Fla.

An assistant athletic trainer for the NFL's Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1987-96, from 1981-87, Petrone was an assistant athletic trainer at Ole Miss. He worked five years as an athletic trainer at the New York Yankees Fantasy Camps and also was a volunteer athletic trainer for Florida College and Hillsborough High School football. He worked summer assistantships as an athletic trainer for the New York Jets' training camps in 1979 and 1980.

Petrone earned his bachelor's degree from Vanderbilt in 1980 and a master's from South Florida in 1994. He and his wife, Allyson, have twin sons, Chas and Michael. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, and is also a member of the Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Alabama Athletic Trainers Association.

CLARK PEARSON

HEAD FOOTBALL ATHLETIC TRAINER

Clark Pearson is the head athletic trainer for the Auburn Tigers, overseeing the care, prevention and rehabilitation of injuries for the football team.

Prior to joining the Auburn family in June, 2009, Pearson served as the head football athletic trainer at the University of Wisconsin for four years (2005-08). Before that assignment, he was an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Oklahoma from 1997-2005. While at Oklahoma, he conducted a two-year research study in conjunction with the Gatorade Sports Science Institute: "Salt Depletion and Cramping in Collegiate Football Players." Pearson served on the 2001 Big 12 Athletic Training Staff of the Year.

At Wisconsin, he completed a Post-Surgical Hamstring Protocol Case Report and conducted the Collegiate Lineman Type II Diabetes Study. A participant in the Big Ten/NFL Shoe and Surface Study, he has been a speaker on a variety of medical topics at various sports medicine conferences and symposiums. Since coming to Auburn he has been active in the SEC Sports Medicine Conference and the yearly SEC Official physicals in Birmingham.

A native of Franklin, Ky., Pearson and his wife, Nancy, have a son, Bradley, and a daughter, Katherine. Pearson earned his bachelor's degree in sports management from Kentucky in 1995 and a master's degree in human relations from Oklahoma in 1997. He is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Alabama Athletic Trainers Association.

KIRK NIELSON

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Kirk Nielson serves as an assistant athletic trainer, assisting the Tigers' medical and athletic training staff with the care, prevention and rehabilitation of injuries for the Auburn football team.

Nielson, who joined the Auburn family full-time in July, 2008, served as a seasonal intern with the Atlanta Falcons during the 2007-08 NFL season, and served a similar internship with the 2008 Georgia Force of the Arena Football League.

A product of Dansville, Mich., Nielson first came to Auburn as an intern in the fall of 2004, working with the football team. In the spring of 2005, he worked as a graduate assistant athletic trainer with the Auburn softball team before returning to football in the fall of 2005 to serve as a graduate assistant.

Nielson earned a Bachelor of Science degree in sports medicine from Central Michigan University in 2004 and a M.Ed. in Higher Administration Education from Auburn in 2007. He is a certified member of the National Athletic Trainers Association, the Southeastern Athletic Trainers Association and the Alabama Athletic Trainers Association. He and his wife Abby are the proud parents of a son, Brian.

ROBBIE STEWART

Robbie Stewart joined the Auburn athletics family in July, 2014, as senior athletic trainer for football.

He previously served seven years as the head athletic trainer for football and golf at Middle Tennessee State. Stewart received the Eugene Smith/Mickey O'Brien College Athletic Trainer of the Year Award from the Tennessee Athletic Trainers' Society in 2012 for his role in identifying the splenic rupture of MTSU wide receiver Shane Blissard during a 2011 spring scrimmage and promptly getting Blissard to the hospital where doctors performed emergency surgery to remove the injured spleen. Blissard made a full recovery.

Stewart, a native of Seneca, S.C., was an athletic trainer at Clemson from 2001-07, working with football and men's golf. Stewart oversaw all graduate assistants and student athletic trainers and taught undergraduate kinesiology. Prior to Clemson, Stewart spent one year as the head athletic trainer at Gaffney (S.C.) High School. He was an intern athletic trainer during the Tampa Bay Buccaneers mini-camp in 2001.

Stewart, who earned his master's degree from Middle Tennessee in 2000, worked as a graduate assistant in the Blue Raider sports medicine program (1998 to 2000), working with women's basketball and women's soccer. A Titleist Performance Institute Certified Golf fitness instructor and certified by the National Athletic Trainers Association, Stewart earned his bachelor's degree in secondary education from Clemson in 1998. Stewart is also certified by the American Red Cross. Stewart is married to the former Lindsay Henderson of Covington, La., and they have three sons, Griffin Dalton, and Davis.

BRAD RAPACZ

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Brad Rapacz serves as an assistant equipment manager with the Auburn Tigers, involved in running the day-to-day operation of the football equipment room.

Rapacz first came to Auburn in 2009, serving as an intern for the football team with the Auburn equipment staff during that season after working with the football team at the University of Minnesota for four seasons from 2005-09. He was certified by the Athletic Equipment Managers Association (AEMA) in June, 2009.

A native of St. Paul, Minn., Rapacz graduated from the University of Minnesota with a bachelor's degree in sports management in 2002.

DALE CALLOWAY

ASSISTANT EQUIPMENT MANAGER

Auburn assistant equipment manager Dale Calloway is integral to the efficient day-to-day operation of the football equipment room.

Calloway joined the Auburn family in 2006, after serving a year as an assistant equipment manager intern at Nevada-Reno, working with football, women's basketball, track/cross country and men's and women's tennis. He served as a student football manager at Hinds (Miss.) Community College (1997-99) and later Mississippi State (2000-04). Calloway completed an internship with the NFL's Houston Texans during their 2003 and 2004 training camps.

Calloway, from Vicksburg, Miss., is a 2005 graduate of Mississippi State with a bachelor's degree in kinesiology. He and his wife, the former Kay Dee Hinkle of Sugar Land, Texas, have two daughters, Carrington and Collins.

DR. JAY GOGUE

AUBURN UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Jay Gogue's Auburn career started long before he was selected as the university's 18th president. The Waycross, Georgia, native earned Auburn bachelor's and master's degrees in horticulture before earning a doctorate in that field from Michigan State University.

Since returning as president in July 2007, Dr. Gogue has worked to improve the academic strength of Auburn's student body and encouraged research and outreach.

Under his leadership, Auburn is implementing a strategic plan focused on enhancing student success, supporting faculty excellence, strengthening public engagement, and promoting research, scholarship and creative work.

In addition to fulfilling duties as Auburn's president, Dr. Gogue enjoys maintaining a connection with students in the classroom. He teaches a graduate course in higher education administration where students learn university governance, leadership, budgeting and more.

Dr. Gogue was selected in 2013 for the Michigan State University Distinguished Alumni Award. In 2012, he was inducted into the Alabama Academy of Honor, a group of 100 Alabamians "chosen for accomplishment or service greatly benefiting or reflecting great credit on the State." He held a 2012 appointment to the U.S. Department of Homeland Security's academic advisory council. Other memberships include Phi Kappa Phi and Golden Key honor societies, Sigma Xi scientific research society, and the National Society of Scabbard and Blade, the honorary military society for all branches of service.

He began his career at the U.S. Department of the Interior, where he worked for 12 years. Prior to returning to Auburn, he held a number of academic and administrative positions, starting at Texas A&M University as an assistant professor teaching and conducting research in plant science. Dr. Gogue later served as vice president for research and vice president/vice provost for agriculture and natural resources at Clemson University and as provost at Utah State University. He was selected as president of New Mexico State University in 2000. In 2003, he was named president of the University of Houston and chancellor of the University of Houston System.

Dr. and Mrs. Susie Gogue first met in the 8th grade. They married while both were Auburn undergraduates. They have three children, one grandchild and two dogs.

JAY JACOBS

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Under Athletics Director Jay Jacobs' leadership, Auburn Athletics has made major strides benefitting Auburn student-athletes, coaches and fans. The department has focused on five strategic goals under his leadership: Winning, graduating student-athletes, managing the department's fiscal affairs, complying with SEC and NCAA rules and providing a positive gameday experience.

The Auburn Athletics Department has consistently ranked in the top 10 percent of the NACDA Directors Cup and has claimed 11 national championships under Jacobs, including a school-record four titles in 2005-06. In 2010, the football program claimed the BCS National Championship. In 2013, the football team won its third SEC championship in the past decade and advanced to the BCS National Championship Game for the second time in four years. Under Jacobs' watch, Auburn's athletics programs have captured 23 Southeastern Conference titles.

During Jacobs' tenure, Auburn moved forward with numerous facility projects designed to benefit Tiger athletics programs and their fans, most notably, the construction of the state-of-the-art Auburn Arena and basketball practice facility. The most recent major facilities upgrade was a $16 million multipurpose 100-yard indoor practice facility. A new $6 million Wellness Kitchen was completed in the summer of 2014, giving Auburn one of the finest dining facilities in the country.

Jacobs was named Auburn's 14th Director of Athletics in 2004 after working in almost every area of the Auburn Athletics Department for the previous 20 years. Jacobs earned his undergraduate and master's degrees in business administration from Auburn in 1985 and 1988, respectively. He was a member of the Auburn football team, earning two letters as an offensive tackle in 1982 and 1983. He is a member of the Auburn chapter of Phi Kappa Phi honorary.

Jacobs is married to the former Angie Sapp of Dublin, Ga. The couple has three daughters, Haley, Meagan and Jayne. They are also foster parents.

THE AUBURN EAGLES

For more than 100 years, eagles have been associated with Auburn University's football program. From a static presence on the sidelines to rousing flights over the field, WAR EAGLE has become an Auburn icon.

The role of Auburn University's eagles is to promote wildlife conservation as a part of the education initiatives of the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service and the College of Veterinary Medicine's Southeastern Raptor Center. The USF&WS permits the Raptor Center to house eagles and use them on hundreds of educational presentations each year – including Auburn's home football games. Currently, two flighted eagles and numerous other non-releasable raptors are used for these educational programs. Eagles stir emotions in many people as they have come to symbolize strength, power and courage as well as other important values such as freedom, American heritage and the preservation of our environment. Golden Eagles Tiger (War Eagle VI), Nova (War Eagle VII) and Spirit (a Bald Eagle) are the eagles who have inspired football fans with their graceful flights over Jordan-Hare Stadium since their inaugural untethered free flight in 2000.

Tiger (War Eagle VI), who was the first eagle to fly free in Jordan-Hare Stadium, died on June 18, 2004 at the age of 34.

“War Eagle”

Auburn's battle cry, not Auburn's nickname. There are several legends concerning the origin of the War Eagle battle cry, dating back to 1864 and the Civil War at the Battle of the Wilderness in Virginia.

AUBURN ALMA MATER

On the rolling plains of Dixie
'Neath its sun-kissed sky,
Proudly stands, our Alma Mater
Banners high.

To thy name we'll sing thy praise,
From hearts that love so true,
And pledge to thee our
Loyalty the ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

AUBURN CREED

I believe that this is a practical world and that I can count only on what I earn. Therefore, I believe in work, hard work.

I believe in education, which gives me the knowledge to work wisely and trains my mind and my hands to work skillfully.

I believe in honesty and truthfulness, without which I cannot win the respect and confidence of my fellow men.

I believe in a sound mind, in a sound body and a spirit that is not afraid, and in clean sports to develop these qualities.

I believe in obedience to law because it protects the rights of all.

I believe in the human touch, which cultivates sympathy with my fellow men and mutual helpfulness and brings happiness for all.

I believe in my Country, because it is a land of freedom and because it is my own home, and that I can best serve that country by "doing justly, loving mercy, and walking humbly with my God."

And because Auburn men and women believe in these things, I believe in Auburn and love it.

- George Petrie (1945)

COMPOSED BY BILL WOOD '42 | WORD REVISION 1960

Hear thy student voices swelling,
Echoes strong and clear,
Adding laurels to thy fame
Enshrined so dear.

From thy hallowed halls we'll part,
And bid thee sad adieu;
Thy sacred trust we'll bear with us
The ages through.

We hail thee, Auburn, and we vow
To work for thy just fame,
And hold in memory as we do now
Thy cherished name.

TIGER WALK: AN AUBURN TRADITION

Tiger Walk is an Auburn tradition which began in the early 1960s when Auburn players would walk from Sewell Hall to the football stadium and fans would line Donahue Drive to wish them well. Over the years Tiger Walk has grown into a major part of game day at Auburn, so much so that it is listed on the players' game weekend itinerary. The largest Tiger Walk is believed to have taken place prior to the 1989 Iron Bowl when more than 20,000 well wishers lined the street. Every Tiger Walk prior to home games draws thousands, and, over the last couple of years the Tiger Walk has become a standard as Auburn football players enter stadiums on the road. Tiger Walk traditionally begins two hours before kickoff or every game at Jordan-Hare Stadium.

ROLLING TOOMER'S CORNER

The center of town where the Auburn University campus meets the City of Auburn, Toomer's Corner, where College Street intersects Magnolia Avenue, has long been the gathering place for Auburn athletic celebrations. After any football win, and significant victories in other sports, Auburn students and citizens alike join forces to "roll" the trees (and anything else that doesn't move) at Toomer's Corner with toilet tissue. Celebrations after significant football victories can go on for hours and leave the heart of town looking like a blizzard passed through.

THE "ROLL" CALL

On Saturday, April 20, 2013, the Auburn Family showed that not only is the Auburn Spirit alive and well, but it is soaring to new heights! More than 83,000 fans filled Jordan-Hare Stadium to set an attendance record for A-Day, and later that evening they celebrated into the night with one final roll of the Auburn Oaks at Toomer's Corner. Generations gathered beneath the oaks one final time, sharing stories and creating memories that will last a lifetime.

THE FUTURE OF TOOMER'S CORNER

Keeping alive the tradition of rolling Toomer's Corner is important to the entire Auburn Family. The university has partnered with the City of Auburn to create structures suitable for rolling at the Magnolia Avenue-College Street intersection. Fans will gather there as they always have following big victories or other momentous occasions to celebrate.

Set to be implemented in 2015 is a new Samford Park area at Toomer's Corner that will include the planting of two oak trees. The new design will place trees farther back from the intersection; maintain the existing and historic character of the corner; retain the 1917 gates in their current positions; add more seating and shaded areas; and include the planting of additional trees along a curved walkway through Samford Park. The design was selected after a series of public workshops and an online survey in which more than 10,000 alumni, students, fans and friends provided opinions and ideas.

JORDAN-HARE STADIUM

Auburn's showcase football stadium which seats 87,451 with 70 luxury suites located between the lower level and upper deck on the East side. The stadium was dedicated Nov. 30, 1939, with 7,500 seats. Ten years later 14,000 more seats were added and the stadium was named Cliff Hare Stadium (named after a member of Auburn's first football team and eventual professor and dean of the School of Chemistry), although only 12 home games were played there over that 10-year span. Additional seats were added in 1955, 1960 and 1970. The West upper deck was completed in 1980; the East upper deck and suites were finished for the 1987 season. The facility was renamed Jordan-Hare Stadium in 1973, recognizing Hall of Fame coach Ralph "Shug" Jordan.

11TH

Pat Dye Field at Jordan-Hare Stadium is the nation's 11th-largest on-campus stadium with a capacity of 87,451

The Auburn Family honored three of its all-time greats in a stirring ceremony under sunny skies on the east side of Jordan-Hare Stadium on Saturday, April 14, 2012.

A crowd of thousands roared as former Heisman Trophy winners Pat Sullivan, Bo Jackson and Cam Newton took the stage moments before towering statues immortalizing the Auburn greats from three different eras were unveiled.

How many universities can claim John Heisman, the namesake of the Heisman Trophy, as coach and also have a Heisman winner? Just one: Auburn. And Auburn does not just have one Heisman winner; the Tigers tout three.

PAT

Auburn quarterback Pat Sullivan picked up the Tigers' first Heisman Trophy in 1971 after throwing for 20 touchdowns and racking up 2,096 yards of total offense. He led Auburn to a 9-2 record and a Sugar Bowl appearance in his senior season.

BO 1985

Bo Jackson plowed through defenses in 1985 for 6.4 yards per carry, earning Auburn's second Heisman Trophy. The three-sport athlete ran for 1,786 yards and 17 touchdowns while helping the Tigers to an 8-4 record and a Cotton Bowl appearance.

CAM 2010

Cam Newton put together one of the most remarkable college football seasons ever in 2010, throwing for 30 touchdowns and rushing for 20 while leading Auburn to a 14-0 record and the BCS National Championship. Newton tallied 4,327 yards of total offense while completing 66.1% of his passes.

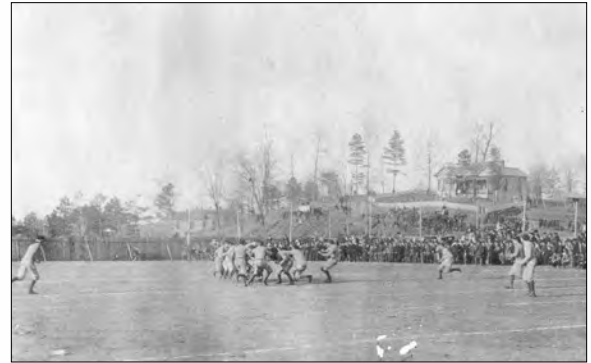

WHAT'S IN A NAME?

Of the first 53 meetings between Auburn and Alabama, 48 took place in Birmingham. The name "Iron Bowl" comes from Birmingham's historic role in the country's iron industry.

1893

The first Iron Bowl was played on Feb. 22, 1893 in Birmingham with Auburn taking the 32-22 win. The Tigers won the first two meetings and six of the first seven.

1989

The first time Auburn and Alabama met in Auburn was in 1989, and the No. 11 Tigers beat the No. 2 Crimson Tide, 30-20, on Dec. 2, 1989.

December 2, 1972: Trailing 16-3 with six minutes left, underdog Auburn's David Langer blocked two Alabama punts - returning both for touchdowns - to win the game 17-16, handing the Crimson Tide their first loss of the season and ending hopes of a national title.

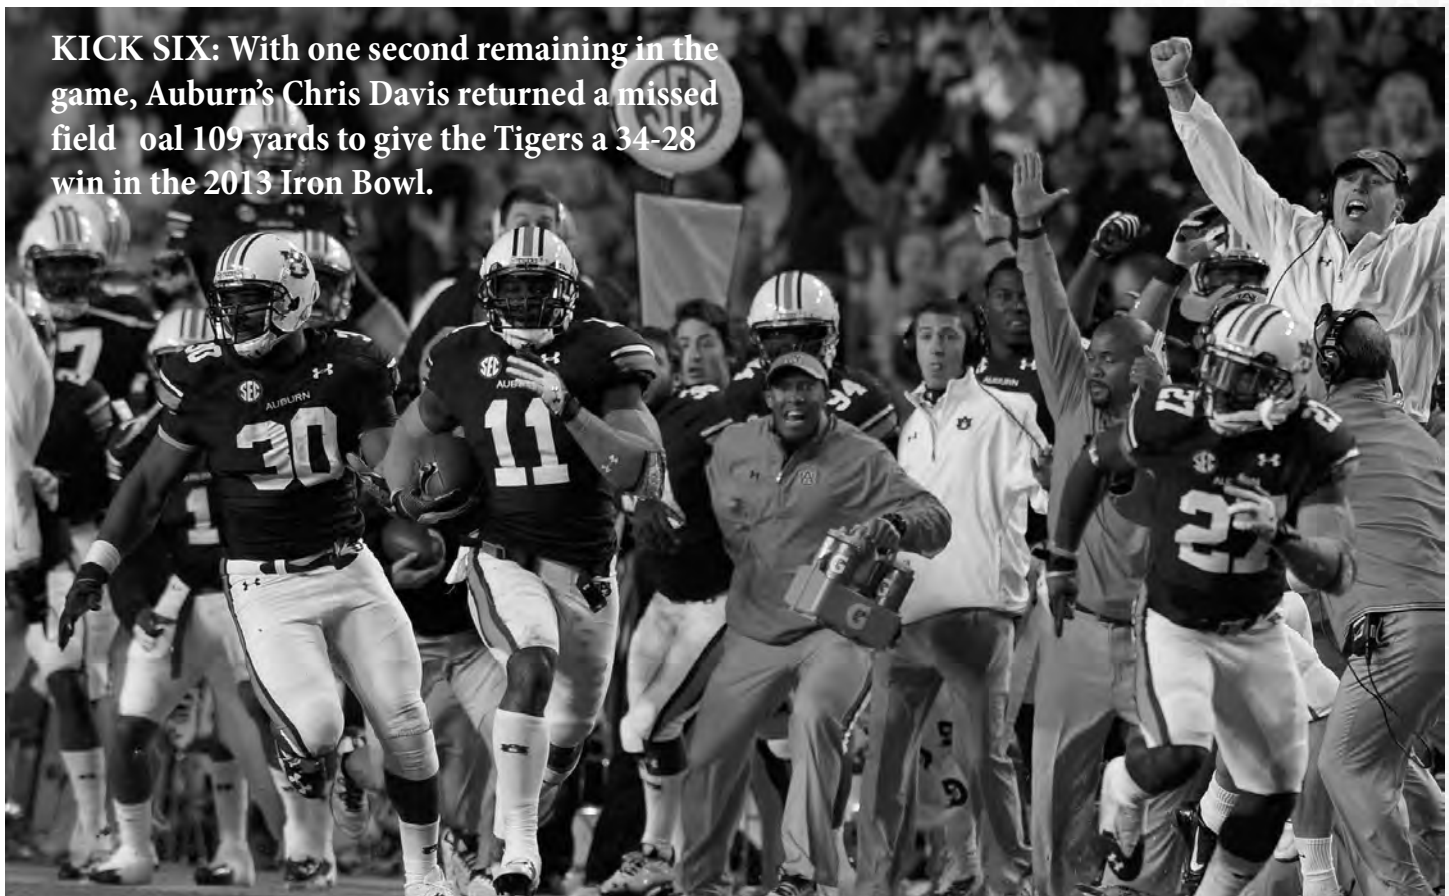

The climax to a 23-22 Auburn victory over Alabama in 1982 was Bo Jackson's "Bo Over the Top" 1-yard leap over the Alabama goal line, which capped a 66-yard drive and set the stage for what Auburn people consider the Tigers' "coming out" party in the 1980s.

Down 24-0 in the second quarter, the Auburn defense inspired a school-record comeback for a 28-27 win in Tuscaloosa in 2010, en route to a national championship.

KICK SIX: With one second remaining in the game, Auburn's Chris Davis returned a missed field goal 109 yards to give the Tigers a 34-28 win in the 2013 Iron Bowl.

THIS IS AUBURN.

THIS IS A SMART CHOICE.

At Auburn, students have described the appeal of campus as something special for more than 150 years. This strong connection means even more when you consider Auburn's academic record. For 21 consecutive years, Auburn has been in the top 50 of public universities nationwide according to U.S. News & World Report. Auburn is also recognized for value as one of Kiplinger's Personal Finance 100 Best Values in Public Colleges.

Results from a pioneering study known as the Collegiate Learning Assessment conducted at the nation's universities show significant gains in the intellectual skills of Auburn students—more than 100 points on SAT-equivalent tests—from their freshman to senior years. Auburn placed in the top third of institutions participating.

Important to most students are the results from the National Survey of Student Engagement, which reveals that students rank Auburn in the upper tier nationally for providing a supportive learning environment. Another aspect of our exceptional learning environment is Auburn's Learning Communities, designed to group students with similar academic interests together to build support networks for long-term academic development. The Village residence halls were built to facilitate that model.

Auburn strongly believes that international skills are essential and offers faculty-led study tours, educational exchanges, and international internships helping our students gain cross-cultural competencies.

AUBURN UNIVERSITY

ESTABLISHED 1856

THIS IS A TRUE COLLEGE TOWN.

The city of Auburn receives high rankings for lifestyle and amenities. The Princeton Review surveyed more than 122,000 students to rank the top schools in the country for quality of life, and Auburn ranked number four. The city has also been included on several best places to live and retire by U.S. News and World Report and Forbes.com.

Situated on a 1,843 acre, green campus, the university is located in one of the state's fastest growing cities sited as an ideal place to start a small business. The city is in east-central Alabama approximately 30 miles from the Georgia border; 100 miles southwest of Atlanta; 100 miles south of Birmingham and 50 miles east of Montgomery.

THIS IS MEANINGFUL IMPACT.

Auburn's research aligns with long-term priorities to create real-world solutions for the state, nation and world. Areas of expertise include cyber security; energy and environment; health sciences and food systems; transportation; Gulf research and restoration; and science, technology, engineering and mathematics education.

The impact of Auburn's research and service to the state provides a $4.85 billion economic contribution to the state of Alabama.

THIS IS OUR TRADITION OF SUCCESS.

This is a university that has propelled generations of Tigers to success. Alumni include the CEO of Apple, the founders of Habitat for Humanity and Wikipedia, an Oscar-winning actress, many sports legends, and six astronauts. Our worldwide network of alumni is more than 250,000-strong.

Outcomes show high satisfaction levels with 97 percent of Auburn alumni rating their experience as excellent, and 94 percent saying that if they had to make the choice again, they would choose Auburn.

The Auburn Alumni Association has more than 43,000 members and contributes a significant number of scholarship, professorships and faculty awards each year. There are approximately 100 Auburn clubs around the country dedicated to raising scholarship funds for incoming freshmen.

The SEC Network launching August 2014 will be a national network dedicated to all things SEC. And the excitement and energy of Auburn football will be front and center in that launch. The inaugural Saturday edition of “SEC Nation,” the network’s traveling football pregame show, will originate right outside Jordan-Hare Stadium, and Auburn’s season-opening game with Arkansas will be the network’s premier televised matchup on Saturday, August 30.

The new multi-platform channel, accessible via cable or satellite, is a collaboration between the SEC and ESPN bringing together unparalleled content from one of the most competitive conferences in the country with the highest quality, most innovative production partner in the sports industry.

The SEC Network will offer SEC sports and sports-related studio programming 24 hours a day, seven days a week, with shows such as SEC Nation, the network’s traveling football pregame show that will air every Saturday during the fall, a television simulcast of The Paul Finebaum Show and a daily news and information show.

More than 1,000 live events will also be available in the first full year across the television network and its digital extensions. These will include approximately 45 football games, more than 100 men’s basketball games, 60 women’s basketball games, 75 baseball contests and events from across all 21 SEC-sponsored sports. There will also be unprecedented digital content with full-production quality for all sports across ESPN3 and the WatchESPN mobile application platform.

ESPN Gameday has hosted its show eight times on Auburn's campus, including five times in the last nine years.

- This season all 12 of Auburn's games will be televised
- CBS will televise the SEC Championship Game
- CBS will also continue to air an SEC Game of the Week
- Games aired on the ESPN family of networks will air on either ESPN, ESPN2 or ESPNU with simulcasts also offered online via ESPN3.com
- Auburn has appeared on ESPN 99 times - the most in the SEC
- The Tigers have played in ESPN Gameday's on-site game 14 times, including 10 times in the last 10 years

In August, 2009, Auburn signed a seven-year contract extension with Under Armour Performance Apparel to continue as the official outfitter of the university's athletic teams. The seven-year contract is worth more than $30 million in sponsorship, product and additional benefits. Since the 2006-07 season, Auburn's athletes have exclusively worn Under Armour uniforms, cleats, apparel and accessories.
